SUPPORT OUR HOME TOWN

SWEET 'N' SOUR

By A. Dill

There's one disadvantage to writing a column on Monday night before an election on Tuesday, because by the time you read this on Friday, we'll have a new president-elect of these United States, but from where we sit at this moment, it would take three crystal balls and a carload of tea leaves to tell who it will be. Not being particularly talented in any of those arts (great jumpin' beans, we aren't even schooled in anatomy -- we are forever placing "foot" in slot clearly marked "mouth"), we don't even hazard a guess in that direction.

Here's something we take a stand on -- Alma Norrell has our vote as a very lovely person an asset to neighborhood town. We demand that the lady bend every effort on a quick recovery and we are ever and ever so happy at the good reports from the Norrell home concerning just that.

A most interesting card arrived this week from Mrs. S. I. Smith -- she's a long, long way from home and visiting friends and relatives in California. We can well imagine she's enjoying her trip to the West Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Robinson have recently returned from visiting their old homes in Mississippi and Tennessee. On the trip, they also visited with two daughters, Bernice in Waco and Eva in Tyler.

Mrs. Alice Crutchfield had a merry week end -- her son and family, George and Mildred Crutchfield and the girls, Belinda and Diane were here from Wichita Falls.

It is happy news indeed for Jane Weathers' many, many friends to know that that dear person is rapidly recovering from pneumonia, which had her hospitalized last week.

All of us rejoice over the return home of Mrs. Appleton, ill for so many weeks in an Abilene hospital. Mrs. Appleton is such a thoroughly lovable person, such a wonderful friend and neighbor that we wish we could tell her in words bright and glowing enough to really convey our feelings -- how lonely her neighborhood has been without her and how happy we all are to know she's so well on the way to total recovery.

Sonic booms became mere whispers in comparison with the cheers that rocked the hometown last week when Coach Vernon Townsend and Coach L. B. Howard's Baird Bears took Jim Ned in the most difficult of the conference scheduled, and moved a rung closer to district championship. If tonight's game is another victory, then those Baird high Grizzlies will wear the "Champ" badges on their football jackets this year.

You should see the wee bit of a puppy that Edwina and Bryan Lee Reese have -- it is one of the tiniest of Chihuahua, at a large as half a tamale and the name is Crickets. And speaking of the Reese children, a great big get-well quick card to Edwina who has been fighting a bout of throat infection.

Those of you who attended the Democratic Rally in Cross Plains Saturday night, were delighted, as always, with the performance turned in by Melba Foy and her Harmonettes, but they witnessed too, the introduction of Mrs. "Star-Maker" Foy's latest find, tiny-Barbee Jernigan. The little bit of a lassie with the great big voice held her audience completely captivated and we want to go on record as the first newspaper column to predict a bright future for this pretty and talented child. Mrs. Foy has big plans for the "little one" and we've seen many a youngster bloom under that tender care.

Bobby Estes blew into town this week and more than slightly excited over the selection of some five head of his bucking stock to be used in the National Finals of the RCA to be held in Dallas, beginning Dec. 28. Throughout the year, rodeo cowboys nominate various animals from shows all over the United States as the "toughest" stock in the rodeo game, then in the finals the top riders and the wildest horses and bulls are pitted in a contest to decide national championships. The fact that so many of Bob's Lone Star Ranch stock was chosen is proof positive that when that producer claims "the toughest, wildest, wooliest stock in the country," he's right, and America's sown-

Callahan County Goes Democratic; John F. Kennedy Elected President

John F. Kennedy, Democratic nominee for president of the United States, won the presidency in one of the closest popular vote contests in history, over Republican Richard M. Nixon.

Approximately 70 million votes were cast in the 50 states, with the Kennedy-Johnson ticket receiving 50.3 per cent, to Nixon-Lodge 49.7 per cent.

The State of Texas voted Democratic by a small margin, and so did Callahan County, by 298 votes.

On the 2,986 votes in the county, the Kennedy-Johnson ticket won over the Nixon-Lodge ticket 1,261 to 963.

Baird voted nearly 2 to 1 for the Democratic ticket, the Kennedy-Johnson team receiving 429 votes, the Republicans, 225.

Clyde and Cross Plains voted Republican. Clyde, 318 for the Democrats and 340 for the Republicans, while Cross Plains voted 267 for the Democrats and 389 for the Republicans.

About 500 more votes were cast than in the previous record year 1956. An estimated 95 per cent of the registered voters went to the polls.

John Tower showed strength by pulling 1,023 votes against Lyndon B. Johnson's 1,765 in the U. S. Senate race.

In the governor's race, Gov. Price Daniel got 2,183 to 65 for William Steger.

The 87 absentee votes cast was double the past record.

In the 17th Congressional race Republican Max Mossholder got 622 and Rep. Omar Burleson, 2,236.

Voting on the four proposed amendments was as follows: No. 1--(Hospitals) For 803; against, 640. No. 2 (Veterans bonds) For, 983, against 516. No. 3--(Legislative pay raise) For 789; against, 727. No. 4--(Loan sharks) For, 969; against, 592.

Review Rules Before Going on Deer Hunt

"Hunters heading for the field beginning opening day, Nov. 16, should take out now to rehearse some important musts," suggests J. B. Phillips, assistant director of law enforcement, Texas Game and Fish Commission. "This involves everything from giving equipment of the hunt a once-over, to the care of the kill."

Each year brings tragedy to the families of many hunters because of faulty guns of failure to obey the rules of safe hunting, according to Phillips. "A careful review of these rules and double check of rifles and ammo may be more important than many hunters realize" he warned.

The assistant director also reminded hunters that crippled deer are potential killers. "Be positive that the deer you shoot is dead before getting too close to them. Only recently a story from out of the state told about a hunter who was killed by a wounded deer."

The woods this season will be filled with hunters. Many of them will be out for the first time, and they will not be on guard at all times. The director suggested that these novices be extra careful, both when handling the rifles and when sighting in on deer. "Be certain it's a deer -- a legal deer."

Taking care of the meat after the deer has been bagged also is important. "Know how to properly care for venison before you shoot. Lots of good meat is lost each year because of spoilage," said the director. "If you don't know how to care for the meat, ask someone before the hunt."

Bears Scalp Indians, 30-8; Tie For District Title

Baird Bears clinched a tie for the District 7-B football title here Friday night as they took the Jim Ned Indians, 30-8.

Baird and Jim Ned shared the loop lead going into the game, and Baird has yet to lose in district play. The Bears wind up district competition tonight at Gorman, and can win undisputed title by defeating the Panthers.

Quarterback Calvin Barnes of the Bears was the big noise Friday night. Taking a hand-off from Ronnie Ault on the opening kick-off, Barnes ran it back 90 yards for the touchdown. Barnes passed to Taber Bearden for the two points and an 8-0 lead with less than 20 seconds showing on the scoreboard clock.

Barnes and fullback, Don Hargrove sparked the Bears drive throughout the contest. Barnes added a 42-yard touchdown dash in the fourth period and Hargrove slashed his way to 123 yards on 19 tries and scored one touchdown.

Halfback Mike Odom got the Bear's other tally on a 13-yard run in the third period.

Jim Ned's only score came on a 4-yard pass from quarterback Roland Smith to end Lino Gonzales with five minutes to play in the third period.

Barnes opening touchdown was a big thrill to the Dad's Night crowd. Jim Ned end Kenneth Windham boomed the ball all the way to the five yard line.

Ault gathered it in but shoved a quick handoff to Barnes, racing toward the left sideline on the 10. Barnes cut the corner at the 30, eluded a diving tackle by Windham at midfield and coasted on in standing up.

Baird's second touchdown in the second period covered 13 plays. The drive started on the Jim Ned 34, and the biggest gainer was a 30-yard pass from Barnes to end Ross Odell that carried to the Indians 22. Two plays later, Barnes blasted to the 5 and Hargrove got the payoff on a one-yard dive over the middle. Barnes tossed to Odell for two points. Score at halftime was 16-0.

Jim Ned received the third period kick-off and fumbled on its third scrimmage play with Barnes recovering on the 13.

Odom circled right end on the Bears first play for the TD. Only one minute was gone in the quarter. Odom was stopped short on the attempted run for two points.

Jim Ned took the ensuing kick and scored in 16 plays, covering 65 yards. Fullback Gerald Boulter rumbled his way for 31 of the 65 yards and halfback Jerry Vernon's 19 yard sprint that carried to the Baird 42 was the big gainer of the drive.

The drive appeared stalled on the 4-yard line, Jim Ned facing a fourth down. Smith fired a bullet pass to Gonzales over the center for the score. Boulter, who led the Indian ball carriers with 72 yards on 16 carries, booted over for the two points.

The Bears got their final TD with just 45 seconds gone in the 4th quarter.

With the ball resting on the Jim Ned 42, Barnes hit inside right end, was almost knocked off his feet on two different occasions near the 30, but somehow managed to keep his balance and go on to paydirt. A strike to Bearden added the two extra points.

Baird showed 13 first downs to 12 for the Indians; had 313 yards rushing to the Jim Ned's 164; completed 2 passes for 37 yards, against 5 completions out of 13 tries for the Indians, netting 44 yards.

Many Qualify For Social Security

Last week, November 4 and 5, many people across the nation received their first social security benefit checks -- checks made possible for the first time by the 1960 amendments to the social security laws, reports R. Tuley, Jr., Abilene District Manager for the Social Security Administration. Receiving checks for the first time were working people and their dependents (and also some survivors of workers who have died) who became eligible for benefits. The amount of social security credits required was reduced by about one-third, Tuley said.

Also receiving benefits for the first time were some widows whose husbands died after Mar. 31, 1938, with at least 1 1/2 years of social security credits. Before the changes in the law enacted in September, no monthly benefits were payable to the survivors of any person dying before 1940.

If you believe you qualify for benefits under the amended law, it is still not too late for you to apply, and receive benefits dating back to the month of October. Additional information about specific cases can be obtained by asking your Abilene social security office. For general information on the 1960 amendments, ask the Abilene office for the new leaflet on the 1960 changes.

State Hospitals Need Your Deer Hides

Puhleeze, Mr. Hunter, don't throw away that deer hide!

That's the plea of volunteers in state-operated hospitals who annually sponsor the collection of these skins and have them tanned into leather for use by patients in occupational therapy.

Mrs. Frank O. Hamilton of Dallas, chairman of the Volunteer Services Council for all the state hospital and special schools, said the patients fashion all types of small articles from the leather which provide gifts for their families, or if salable, "coke and cigarette" funds for themselves.

"The real value though," she pointed out, "is in giving the patient something to occupy his thoughts and his hands. Working with leather especially appeals to many men in our hospitals."

The hides should be lightly salted, drained and sent to the Austin Taxidermist Studio, 2708 Fredericksburg Road, Austin, where the owner L. M. Rathbone donates storage, curing and preparation of the hides for the tannery.

Most motor freight lines in Texas haul the hides without charge if the shipping tag is marked "charity." Many locker plant operators also will assist in adding the hides to the collection when the deer are skinned if instructed to do so by the hunter, Mrs. Hamilton said.

In addition to the Texas Motor Transportation Association, the buckskin collection has the endorsement and active cooperation of Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas, Texas Independent Meat Packers Association, State Game and Fish Commission, sports writers and radio editors throughout Texas.

So . . . puhleeze, Mr. Hunter, don't throw away that deer hide!

Bulldogs Whitewash Cross Plains; Meets Eastland Here Tonight

The Clyde Bulldogs whitewashed the Cross Plains Buffs, 23-0 at Clyde Friday night to move into undisputed first place in District 10-A gridiron warfare.

Neither team could get rolling until, with time running out in the first half, quarterback Tom Cook flipped a pass to end Carroll Howe who, in turn, lateraled off to tailback, Harroll Watts who swivelhipped his way into the end zone on a 22 yard pass and run play. Cook then tossed to Howe in the end zone for the two extra points and the Bulldogs led by eight with less than a minute remaining in the first half of play.

In the opening minutes of the final stanza, Watts scored the Bulldogs' second marker on a line plunge from the one, to cap a 60 yard Clyde drive. Cook this time passed to Wingback J. B. Kicks for the extra points.

After holding the Buffs on downs on the Cross Plains 45, the Bulldogs again drove for a score with fullback Tom Polson lugging the pighide the final five yards through the middle of the Buff line. Cook then kicked squarely through the uprights to close out scoring for the night.

This Friday night, November 11th at Bulldog Stadium, Clyde will host the Eastland Mavericks, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Following are complete roster of the Bulldogs and Mavericks.

It's the Law in TEXAS

HUFFING AND PUFFING

You see much of human nature shining through our laws. "Puffing" is a case in point. Your salesman may get carried away and claim too much for his product. Sometimes you can force him to make good on his claim, or give your money back. But not if he was merely "puffing." Puffing is not true warranty. Suppose a salesman claims that if you buy his car - whammy. The girls will come running for dates. That is puffing. An opinion at best. Anyone should know better than to believe it. Anyhow, no court is likely to force the salesman to make good his claim. But suppose the salesman claims his car is new or that nobody else in town could get it. And suppose you found it was used and you could buy others like it anywhere. That's not puffing, but a warranty. And you can get your money back. But you couldn't make him deliver the dates with the girls. Warranties are either Express (Written or spoken) or Implied in the way you act. Suppose as a seller you claim that an article -- say a television set or a car -- is in good working order when it isn't. Then you must make good or take the item back and return your customer's money. You do not put implied warranties into words; by the way you act, you make someone think and rely upon certain things as facts when they are not so. For instance: If a man offers to sell you a diamond ring, you have a right to think that he owns and has a right to sell the ring. So you buy it, but the jewelry store comes and takes it away from you. The man did not own the ring after all. Then, you can sue the man. Since you may have a hard time deciding whether a salesman is puffing or warranting an article, just ask him to write down his claims. He'll most likely if he's puffing.

About Your HEALTH

The thick compilation of statistics is entitled "Accidental Poisoning by Gases and Vapors" Published by the Texas State Department of Health, it shows there were 44 such deaths in Texas in 1959. Some were caused by open gas jets which should have been closed tightly or capped when in prolonged disuse. Others were the result of inhaling certain toxic chemical substances. But most poisonings by gases and vapors are the direct result of carbon monoxide -- the silent killer. During the chilling days of winter, hardly a week goes by that someone somewhere in Texas does not die from carbon monoxide poisoning. Such deaths come under the broad heading of 'accidental', but a more apt heading would be 'careless.' The fact of the matter is that carbon monoxide poisoning is the end result of improperly adjusted heaters, leaky vents or none at all, and lack of ventilation in rooms where any kind of fire is burning. Perhaps the greatest danger lies in the tasteless, odorless, and colorless character of carbon monoxide. Unless you have complicated testing equipment and keep checking about every 15 minutes, there is absolutely no warning of the presence of the gas until symptoms appear. Even these symptoms are masked. A seemingly mild headache, slightly watering eyes or a touch of stomach upset are easily mistaken for a cold; when they really are early symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning. If sleeping in a closed room with faulty heater burning, death may come without waking or warning. In fact most carbon monoxide deaths follow this pattern. Regardless of the heating fuel, precautions must be taken, since carbon monoxide is the result of incompletely burned fuel. Proper venting should be installed with outlets leading outside the building and carefully checked for leaks. Under all conditions, ventilation is a must, if nothing more than a "cracked" window.

HERE! EASIER GOING FOR THE DRIVER AND THE LOAD, LONGER LIFE FOR THE TRUCK!

'61 TORSION-SPRING CHEVROLETS

If you don't think scrapping the front axle has made a world of difference, you haven't driven a Chevy in a while. A few minutes behind the wheel and you can feel why drivers are happier and breakable loads are better protected. But the biggest advantage of all, you'll realize, is that the truck itself (sheet metal, tires, chassis components, everything) takes less abuse. With independent front suspension soaking up road shock and vibration, the truck lasts longer, goes extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. Add that to what everybody's always known about Chevy dependability and you find yourself looking at the soundest truck investment you could bet your business on.

and look! NEW REAR-ENGINE CORVAIR 95's

A panel and two pickups that put a thrifty air-cooled engine in the rear, the driver up front and as much as 1,900 pounds of load space in between! That's more capacity than a conventional half-tonner. Yet these Corvaire 95's are nearly two feet shorter from bumper to bumper. Highly maneuverable. Built to last and bound to save on a busy schedule!

CORVAIR—Side doors open a full 49" wide. Loading height is a low 14" BEE

Union Usuals and Unusuals

By Veda Yarbrough

Hi neighbor! Did you miss me last week? I missed you. I was in the hospital a week with that old booger the flu, and he is a rough old character this time, but glad to say am feeling really good again. I came home last Tuesday afternoon, went to church Sunday and had dinner Sunday with John and Roma.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Booth of Moran spent Sunday afternoon visiting with John and Roma.

Mrs. Loiry and daughters, Margaret and Jane of Ozona, spent the week end with Mark Ollie and Gayle Burnam. They also attended church Sunday morning. We were very glad to see them. Bro. Loiry was our pastor for two years and Mrs. Loiry taught in Putnam school.

Burette and Johnny May Ramsey visited the past week end in Rankin with their daughter and family, Stella and Mike Hughes.

Fay Wood spent Friday night and until Saturday noon with me. Really enjoyed her. She left Emmitt to batch, he said he got along fine.

I spent Thursday night with Burette and Johnny May Ramsey. Sorry Johnny May was sick then, but glad she is feeling better now.

Oran Burnam and family, of Lubbock, visited a while Saturday with Mark and Ollie Burnam. I would have been glad for them to visit me a while.

We are sorry Mrs. Marcellus Tatom is sick with the flu. She is in St. Ann Hospital in Abilene. She is doing better now, but has been real sick.

There is still quite a bit of cotton out this way to pull. John McIntyre has caught up with all he had defoliated, and it is too windy to defoliate today. What we need is a good frost so we could get the rest of the cotton.

Ruth and Mabel Mobley visited a while with me one afternoon last week, also visited with Ollie Burnam a while.

D. A. Yarbrough spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Onie Abernathy in Baird.

Bill and Retha Brown visited with the Mark Burnams last Monday night and attended the Halloween Carnival and Coronation of the Queen and King at Putnam school.

Mary and Jack Everett and girls had supper with the Mark Burnams Sunday night.

Be good and I hope to see you next week.

Tecumseh Topics

By Lillian Crawford

Well, here I am again, trying to bring you a bit of news and as always, I feel blank. However if I could catch the news over the air about the different home gatherings and special events, I might have something new to tell each week.

Your reporter, Lillian Crawford, did hear that Mr. and Mrs. Roy Armor were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, Nov. 6. I'm sure they had many friends to call and congratulate them on this special occasion. May I send along a wish for many more years of happiness, health and life together.

Oh yes, here I am apologizing again. Sunday, Oct. 31, Mrs. W. E. Scott and girls visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harrison and family Sunday afternoon, also with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Crawford and Lynda. I meant to recognize and mention our visitors last week, but it just slipped my mind.

Lillian Crawford visited her dad, M. A. Reynolds Friday and again Sunday afternoon. He has been very sick, maybe I shouldn't say sick for he says he hasn't suffered any pain, but due to his condition, has had to take so much medicine he has been uncomfortable. He was feeling better Sunday afternoon, but it will take time for him to gain his normal strength back.

BOOK WEEK, NOV. 13 - 19

The poem, by Elizabeth Coatsworth can best illustrate the 1960 Book Week, November 13 - 19:

You can look at a book
And better still read it.
A book is a friend
When you happen to need it.
And when you are through
You can still think about it.
So, "Hurray for Books!"
Don't say it, but shout it!"

RESORT INSIDE NEW ORLEANS

Vacationers and conventioners are discovering a whole new concept of joyful living at The Fontainebleau in New Orleans. The compelling splendor of this magnificent 494-room hostelry accounts for its initial impressiveness. But once inside The Fontainebleau area, you find it a self-contained resort bordering on all the memorable by-ways of legendary New Orleans; the French Quarter, Pirate's Alley, and other of this picturesque city's sites. Within the confines of its eight beautiful, landscaped areas, The Fontainebleau offers every facility for fun and comfort; 3 swimming pools, outdoor poolside lounge with table service, patio sidewalk cafe, cocktail lounge. A grand ballroom to accommodate 700 persons, complete with acoustic ceiling, removable stage and band stand, and designed for large-scale meetings, banquets and exhibits, is supplemented by 6 rooms to answer the needs of groups from 90 to 325 persons. No on-premise convenience that a guest could wish for has been omitted. In addition to a 700-car parking area, there are specialty shops, a barber shop, beauty salon, gift shops, coffee shop. In less than six months, this unique and remarkable motor hotel, which Zachary (Red) Strate erected in the very heart of New Orleans, has become a veritable landmark in this charming and historic community. Barely forty, "Red" Strate, LSU alumnus of the class of '43, conceived The Fontainebleau as the climax of a brilliant and strikingly successful career as a New Orleans builder. He planned it to provide every conceivable facility for individual enjoyment and group gratification with the accent on casual living, and within the means of most persons. In choosing the location for The Fontainebleau, "Red" Strate was especially fortunate. All major automobile routes entering New Orleans meet at The Fontainebleau; bus and railroad terminals are within walking distance. For those considering either a vacation or convention in New Orleans, a free brochure can be had by writing The Fontainebleau, New Orleans, La.

boys all agree. Bob, by the way, produces the Callahan County Sheriff's Possee Rodeo here in Baird each Spring.

Want to see a beautiful autumn yard? Drive by the Clyde White home -- the deep green of the shrubbery, the berries in every shade from tangerine, scarlet, gold and wax-white, make a lovely scene.

It may be November on the calendar, but it's Christmas in the heart of one Elizabeth Alexander. That enterprising lady is already on her way with holiday baking and is really excited now over a Santa Claus mold hat that makes a jolly Saint Nick cake that will be just beautiful when that talented chef is finished with it.

Happy birthday to our November children -- Hoot Walker had a 7th birthday on the 2nd and back on the 3rd Ode Berry celebrated. Myrtle Berry has her special day on the 11th and that is also the big day for Richard Daniels. Pat Musselman is a Novemberite and Raymond Allman has a 16th birthday on the 13th. The Higgins twins, Johnny and Tommy, have November birthdays, and Hugh Tucker up in Clyde had one the 8th. Tiny Mike Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker, had his day on the 1st. Gerene McIntosh claims the 29th as her special time, and Ruby Coker will celebrate on the 25th. Dr. Jim Crutchfield of Abilene blew out candles on the 7th and Dora Eubanks has all our best wishes for her Nov. 21st birthday. Happy greetings to Etta Summers come Nov. 20th, and also to Judith Maudin on the 12th. Sue Neeb celebrates the 4th and Billy Jack Neeb on the 24th -- Happy birthday, all of you! Belated greetings to friend Les Walker -- his was Sept. 1st.

Mrs. E. C. Fulton, who has been visiting in Baird for the past few weeks, has returned to home and family in Arizona, but friends here are already looking forward to another "hometown" trip from their friend.
