Union Usuals and Unusuals

Hi, neighbors! How's things out your way? Here it is dry and hot. We had a norther a few days back which we enjoyed very much. I read in one of the farm papers that September would have some real hot hot, dry weather. It said we would have several days of 100 degre readings and maybe higher. Did you see the moon in eclipse Fri-day night? We did. I don't know why but when I see a total eclipse of the moon, I kinda' have a wierd feeling. I just don't care to see too much of it.
Our revival in Putnam Baptist Church closed Sunday. We had real good preaching and singing.

Dr. Ellis and our pastor, Bro Stan Blevins and wife, had din-ner with Mark and Ollie Burnam. I helped Ollie out a little and of course, ate dinner and also spent the night with the Burnams. The preachers and Bettie had supper with Burette and Johnny Mae Ramsey Sat-urday evening.

day night with the Burette Ram seys and went on to Abilene Sa-turday to visit Bill's mother and his wife's family.

I spent from Thursday after-noon until Saturday noon in Cisco with Fay and Emmitt Wood. We came back to Putnam every night to church.

We are sorry our neighbor Mr. Enoch McCollum is sick. He has been to Fort Worth to the hospital, but is home now and not feeling too well. We hope he soon gets better.

Went down to see Dick and Annie Yarbrough a while this afternoon. R. C. Yarbrough's wife, who had surgery Aug. in Anderson Hospital, Houston is doing fine, so R. C. wrote.

I also visited a while with D. A. Yarbrough. He is feeling about the same. He visited Sunday in Baird with his sister, Mrs. Onie Abernathy.

Of course, Ollie Burnam and I went over but they would not even give us a Primer book, so we decided we would not go if that's the way they was going to treat us, so guess we will just go to the football games and yell for team. That way we wont have to study an old book.

Oh yes, I almost forgot. I am a great grandma now. We have a little great granddaughter to arrive at the home of James and or Francis Lynn, I can't remem ber which.
