DALLAS TRADE EXCURSION COMING

Lockney to be Visited by the Dallas Chamber of Commerce April 3rd.

Lockney will be visited by a large delegation of Dallas business men on the occasion of the thirteenth annual excursion of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce which will leave that city on its special train April 17, and arrive here at 11:40 a. m. Wednesday, April 23. More than one hundred of the largest mercantile, banking and manufacturing concerns of that city will be represented in the party and they will be accompanied by a big brass band which will furnish music for the occasion. The itinerary of the Chamber of Commerce trip embraces two thousand miles of the Panhandle and Pecos Valley country and a visit to more than eighty cities. The purpose of the trip is to acquaint the members of the party with the marvelous progress of the country traverse and the importance to them of closer trade relations between the cities visited and Dallas. The Panhandle with its varied resources, its great agricultural and stock raising industries, is a big factor in the industrial life of the state and the members of the party desire to meet personally the merchants and business men of Lockney and the farmers and stock raisers of Floyd county. T. E. Jackson, vice president of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the trade extension committee is in charge of the details of the trip.

GOOD RAINS FALL IN THIS SECTION

Lockney Country Water-Soaked Monday Night and Every Body Made Happy

Monday night the Lockney country was visited with good rains, and the farmers and everybody in general are particular happy. The precipitation amounted to about an inch and a half, and was one of those old-fashion down-pours.

The rain was badly needed, and it will be a great blessing to farmers and stockmen, as well as gardeners, etc. Farm work will now progress rapidly, and in a few weeks the entire crop will be planted. Early spring oats will be greatly benefited, as well as fall wheat. The stockmen will come in for their share of the blessing in the way of early grass.

Thagard-Brown.

Thursday afternoon, Mr. Henry Thagard and Miss Edith Brown went down to Floydada and were married at the clerk's office, Judge A. B. Duncan officiating. They were accompanied by Miss Annie Alford and Mr. Ed Brown.

Mr. Thagard is one of Lockney's popular young business men and is a splendid young man. He has a host of friends here and elsewhere who will hasten to offer their congratulations.

His bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. S. M. Brown, and she, too, has a large circle of friends and admirers in Lockney for her many graces.

The Beacon wishes the happy young couple a long and happy married life.

FAILED TO HOLD CITY ELECTION

Lockney City Council Got Mixed up In Dates and Did Not Hold Election.

Lockney did not hold an election last Tuesday, April 3rd, as the law requires, getting mixed up in dates, and now the old officers will have to serve until their successors can be legally elected.

We understand that Mayor Hamilton has taken the matter up with the Attorney General at Austin, and will soon learn the exact shape things are in, whether the old officers will have to serve until 1914 or call a special election.

It is the consensus of opinion that the old officers will have to serve another year if they can legally do so, as they are acceptable to the people. In this matter the Beacon heartily concurs. We have good men in these offices, and they should be retained if possible.

Alamo Monument to Be in San Antonio

Combining beauty, grandeur and usefulness and representing the patriotic devotion of loyal Texans to the memory of the pioneers who fought for and won liberty, the Alamo Heroes Monument, to be erected in San Antonio on ground hallowed by the blood of the fortress' defenders who preferred death to surrender, will be one of the greatest works ever undertaken in Texas. Its graceful lines that emphasize rather than conceal the rugged strength of the structure will mark it as a work of art; its great height and the massive character of the base, its columns and statuary within and without will give it grandeur, and its usefulness to the people of the whole state will be realized in its galleries, its auditoriums, its museums, its art gallery, its halls for state and national patriotic societies or associations and its individual rooms for each county in Texas for the maintenance of art or historical exhibits.

The Alamo Heroes Monument will rise to height of 802 feet, the highest structure in the world. It has been designed along modern lines to possess strength and stability such as would not have been possible when the tower of Babel was built, for modern engineering has made possible feats that were impossible then or, for that matter, were impossible only a generation ago; yet with all the advance the science of engineering has made this monument will be one of its greatest accomplishments. It will contain four spacious auditoriums, a museum, an art gallery and statuary hall and a separate room for every county in Texas to be devoted by each to the encouragement of art and history by the maintenance of exhibits along these lines associated with that county. Near the top balconies will be provided for visitors that wish to take a look into the neighboring counties through the large telescopes to be provided for that purpose.

The base of the monument will be of solid granite rising to a height of fifty feet. On this base will be placed at each corner of the monument and arranged around the shaft high pillars, each eight feet in diameter and seventy feet high, all of solid Texas granite. These pillars will be surmounted by heroic-size statues of Travis, Crockett, Bowie and Bonham, the four great leaders who died in the Alamo with the men in their commands who had followed them devotedly in the early days of the campaign for liberty, and who did not hesitate to follow them even to death. Above these statues will be placed the six flags that have waved at different times over Texas, the Lone Star and the United States flags in the center, and on each side the flag of the Confederate States of America, of Mexico, Spain and France. Place will be made, too, for an emblem representing the Indian Tribes that possessed this and before the Spanish adventurers found their way here.

The exquisite grandeur of design and the architecture of the structure will impress itself on the mind whether viewed from without or within. The great lobby will focus the extent and magnitude of the monument like a beautiful and magnificent image that takes possession of the thoughts to the exclusion for the moment of all else. Everything about the structure will be on grand proportions and the lobby will be one of the most impressive sights of the monument. Visitors are to have free access to it at all times. Its inside measurements will be 82 1-2 feet square, which also will be the inside measurements of the auditoriums, museum and art gallery, each of which will be larger than any hall in San Antonio today. The ceiling of the lobby will be fifty feet high, an opening in the center eight feet across forming its summit, and this opening is carried up through each succeeding story until it reaches a height of 700 feet. Here will be set into the ceiling, beautifully lighted by electricity, the Lone Star of Texas.

The space for one hundred feet beneath the star will have no opening from without to admit the light, so this star will be almost as brilliant in the day time as at night.

The elevators in the monument, four in all, will be located between the massive columns as far up as these extend, which will be to a height of 120 feet from the ground, and above that in the shaft, in which one will be placed in each corner and extending to the base of the dome. These elevators will have large carrying capacity, which will be necessary to accommodate the immense crowds that will visit the monument.

The rooms apportioned to the different counties of Texas, in number between 275 and 300 (for some will have to be provided for new counties that will be created in the years to come) will be located within the shaft of the monument, above the four floor in which will be placed the auditoriums, museum, art gallery and chambers for patriotic organizations. These will be reached by the elevators, one of which will be designated to serve them while the other will run on express schedules between the first landing at a height of about 120 feet, and the balconies at the top.

Court Approves Mrs. Thagard's Bond.

Last Saturday the Commissioners' Court in called session, approved the bond of Mrs. C. W. Thagard, who succeeds her deceased husband as treasurer. She had no difficulty in making the bond required by the court.

The county now has one pauper, an old gentlemem from the northern states, who was placed in charge of Otis Shackelford of the north part of the county, and who will receive $15 per month for his care.—Hesperian.

Floydada Elects Officers.

Last Tuesday Floydada held her city election which resulted in election of W. T. Montgomery, Mayor; P. H. Flynn, Marshal and A. D. White, J. S. Pool, S. E. Duncan, Dr. R. A. Childress and E. C. Henry, as aldermen.

WILL SUBMIT TO VOTE OF PEOPLE

The House Finally Adopts a Resolution For an Amendment.

Austin, Tex., March 31.—By a vote of 98 to 29 the House today adopted the senate joint resolution providing for the submission of the initiative and referendum to an amendment to the constitution to a vote of the people. This was the third attempt made by the friends of the resolution to have it adopted.

Ought to Paint

I ought to have painted last year, but I hated to pay $2.25.

I've got to paint this year; it'll take a little more paint; I suppose 1 gallon in 10; and a little more work. I suppose 1 day in 10.

My job would have cost last year about $52.50; it is going to cost this year $55.00.

$2.50 gone. I suppose it'll be the same, if I wait again.

What if paint goes down to $2 a gallon? $2.50 on the job!

I shan't wait; what a fool I was!

DANGEROUS CALOMEL VANISHING

A Safer, More Reliable Remedy Has Taken its Place in the Drug Store and in the Home.

A few years ago, men, women and children took calomel for a sluggish liver and for constipation. They took risks when they did so, for calomel is a dangerous drug. Your family doctor will be the first to tell you this if he discovers you dosing yourself with calomel.

But the drug trade has found a safer, more pleasant remedy than calomel in Dodson's Liver Tone.

The Red Cross Drug Store tells us that their drug store sells Dodson's Liver Tone in practically every case of biliousness and liver trouble where calomel used to be taken.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable liver tonic that is absolutely harmless for children and grown people. It sells for 50c a bottle, and is guaranteed to be entirely satisfactory by the Red Cross Drug Store who will refund your money with a smile if it does not give quick, gentle relief without any of calomel's unpleasant after-effects.

Arrested for Vagrancy.

Last Monday one of Lockney's young society sports was arrested on a charge of vagrancy. After the indictment was sworn out against him he left rather unexpectedly and hot-footed it to Plainview. City Marshal Jim Shepard went up in a car and brought him back. It seems that the young man had eaten off of our hotel and boarding house people, and failed to pay for same, and they, with other townsmen, had gotten tired of this kind of conduct and proposed to put a stop to it. The person in question is now domiciled at the Brewster House, pending a settlement of the fine by relatives at Matador.

Attends Oratorical Contest.

Prof. John M. Wilson, Wright Pace, and Lorme Turney of the Lockney College went up to Amarillo last Saturday, and attended a district oratorical contest between the colleges of the Panhandle. The contest was to determine who would attend the final contest at Austin May 5th. The Tulia boys won the honor.

Fattening Cattle In The Panhandle.

More fat cattle have come out of the Panhandle this winter than ever before, and of course they have sold at record prices. Charles Heck, of Tulia, had a shipment in Kansas City March 18th, which included eighteen yearlings, 671 pounds each, at $8.40, and nine cows, 1013 pounds average, at $7 per hundred pounds. On March 27th, M. Steel, of Groom, sold one hundred head 1225 pound steers in Kansas City, at $8.25 per hundred pounds. Increase in cattle feeding in the Panhandle has been rapid since the introduction of the silo, which permits of storing crops and thus getting every ounce of benefit from them, nearly half of which feeding value was formerly dissipated to the winds. Mr. Steele, whose shipment is referred to here, erected a 300 ton capacity silo last year, which he filled with kaffir corn. He fed the steers mentioned for 100 days, giving them 40 pounds of silage and four pounds of cotton-seed meal, and a little ground milo maize, per day. The steers gained 225 pounds each in the 100 days of feeding. Speaking of the possibilities of the silo, Mr. Steel said, when in Kansas City, "So well did this experiment turn out that I will build more silos this season, and next fall will have 1200 tons of the feed on my ranch. This little experiment plainly shows how we can fatten and finish our cattle right at home, and do it at less expense than it can be done up here in the corn belt."

Notice to Electric Light Users

Beginning on May 1, 1913, the Lockney Light & Power Co. will go to a meter rate. On that date every person will be required to deposit with the manager of the Light Company, $7.50, the price of the meter. At any time service is discontinued and meter returned in good order the $7.50 will be refunded.

The minimum rate for meter service will be $1.50 per month, which will allow you 10 kilowatt hours per month, and 15 cents per kilowatt for each additional kilowatt.

The above rate will be lower than the present flat rate of 70 cents per drop. The difference saved between the present flat rate and the meter service will pay for the meter in a few months. The meter service is economy to you and also the company. When on meter service, when you do not burn your lights you do not have to pay for them. The minimum rate, of $1.50 per month, must be paid whether you burn your lights or not, but the average residence in Lockney now using electric lights and paying a much higher rate can with economy have all lights needed for the cost of the minimum rate.

Respectfully,
Lockney Light & Power Co.,
L. A. Holland,
R. A. Stalcup,
Managers.

W. M. Martin of Marble Falls, Texas, has located in Lockney and has purchased the watch repair business of Mr. Williams at the Lockney Drug Company. Will McGehee can show you where you can buy a silo without being out a cent of money, except freight, and pay for them when the silage is fed and the stock is put on the market. You can pay for the silo the first season, besides the profit you will make in the cattle. This is a safe investment, and every man in the Lockney country who raises feed extensively should take advantage of it.

BEN F. SMITH, Editor.

President Wilson has broken a long standing precedent in his delivery of his message by word of mouth.

Formal resolutions in both houses of Congress has been introduced, proposing an amendment to the Constitution enfranchising women.

Removal of all tariff from many articles of food and clothing; broad reductions on the necessities of life; an increase on many luxuries and an income tax is some of the features of the new tariff bill introduced in Congress Monday.

The new tariff bill reduces the tariff on cattle from 27.07 to 10.00, and dressed meats are put on the free list. Just what effect this reduction will have on the price of cattle remains to be seen. It is evident that by reason of the shortage of cattle, if the prices are reduced at all, it will not be as low as they would have been a few years ago.

Congress was convened in extraordinary session Monday, and the Democratic party is now in full possession of the executive and legislative branches of the government. This session of Congress will be known as a tariff revision session, but other legislation will receive attention, such as modification of the nation's currency system, proposal for the independence of the Philippines, repeal of the Panama free-toll provision, and construction of government railroads in Alaska.

Sells Three Fine Hogs.

Mr. W. C. Wood, who lives south of town, brought 3 hogs to town last Friday and sold them to Griffith Bros. The three brought him $82.50. The hogs were young and had cost him to raise them scarcely nothing. At this price it can be readily seen that there is money in the hog business in the Lockney country.

A crop of hogs like the ones Mr. Wood raised and sold here last Friday will beat cotton or any other crop that can be raised. It prys to raise hogs, and then some.

Takes Charge of Hotel.

M. M. Day is again in the hotel business in Lockney, he having purchased same from Mr. Hamilton, and taken charge Tuesday. Mr. Hamilton left Tuesday for California.

Mr. Day has a good piece of property in his hotel, and the Beacon is glad to see him back in business, and predict for him a nice business.

J. Piermont Morgan, one of the wealthiest men in the world, died in Rome, Italy, March 31.

Walter H. Page, editor of "The World's Work," has been chosen Ambassador to the court of St. James.

Congress will meet in special session Monday, when President Wilson will send his first message to the Legislative bodies of the Nation.

"Flies ought to be killed now," said Dr. L. O. Howard, Chief of the United States Bureau of Entomology, last week, emphasizing the "now." "A fly crusade started in July can have little lasting effect. Every fly killed now is equivalent to killing millions of them in the middle of the summer. The fly crusade throughout the country last summer accomplished a great deal in the way of temporary relief. This year the work should begin earlier and last longer. The spring housecleaning should include a vigorous anti-fly crusade which should extend to any places outside the house where flies are likely to breed. A mature fly of April may be the ancestor of over six billion flies by the first of September, according to a careful scientific calculation. The young flies killed in April have had few offsprings and that is the time when they should be annihilated. The killing of all the winter flies would do away with the great work required in the summer."

W. A. Hilton, who lives near Lockney, was in Floydada last Tuesday in company with A. R. Pratt and E. T. Hilton, Floyd county property owners, who live in Hillsboro. These gentlemen are out on a two months' stay in this county, and are highly pleased with their holdings here.

HENRY THAGARD,
SPECIAL AGENT

Pennsylvanian His Own Grandfather

Philadelphia, March 29.—Angus Carney, who has announced that he is his own grandfather, has his neighbors doing mental arithmetic, which makes the age of Ann more of a primary problem.

Carney has compiled the following: "I met a widow with a grown daughter and I married the widow. Then my father met my stepdaughter and married her. That made my wife the mother-in-law of her father-in-law, and made my step-daughter my step-mother. My father became my step-son.

Then my step-mother, the daughter of my wife, had a son. That boy was, of course, my brother, because he was my father's son. But he was also the son of my wife's daughter and therefore my grandson. That made me grandfather of my wife's grandson.

"Then my wife had a son. My mother-in-law, the step-sister, is also his grandmother, because he is her stepson's child. My father is the brother-in-law of my child, because the stepsister is his wife. I am a brother of my own son, who is also the child of my step-grandmother. I am my mother's brother-in-law. My wife is her child's aunt. My son is my father's nephew and I am my own grandfather."

Notice.

In view of the depredations, of weekly occurrence, on the places belonging to the Syndicate, which we hold as trustees, we are compelled to notify all parties concerned that we will prosecute any further trespasses on the Syndicate property.

The people owning this land have come into this country in good faith and are seeking to develop it. We, therefore, ask all good citizens to assist us in keeping down depredations upon the places owned by the Syndicate.

We do not wish to prosecute any one and use this notice as a final warning to the people to keep their stock off of the premises owned by the Syndicate and to cease destroying the fences and gates.

We will appreciate it if the people living adjoining these places will kindly furnish us with the names of parties committing these outrages. We expect their assistance, for the development of the Syndicate property means the enhancement of the value of their property, and we ask such assistance in good faith.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Don't Suffer!

"I had been troubled, a little, for nearly 7 years," writes Mrs. L. Fincher, in a letter from Peavy, Ala., "but I was not taken down, until March, when I went to bed and had to have a doctor. He did all he could for me, but I got no better. I hurt all over, and I could not rest. At last, I tried Cardui, and soon I began to improve. Now I am in very good health, and able to do all my housework."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

You may wonder why Cardui is so successful, after other remedies have failed. The answer is that Cardui is successful, because it is composed of scientific ingredients, that act curatively on the womanly system. It is a medicine for women, and for women only. It builds, strengthens, and restores weak and ailing women, to health and happiness.

If you suffer like Mrs. Fincher did, take Cardui. It will surely do for you, what it did for her. At all druggists.

Obituary.

C. W. Thagard was born in Jasper county, Miss., in 1875, and moved to Texas when but a small child. He joined the Church about seventeen years ago, and, so as we can learn, has lived a consistent life since that time. In fact, from what we have learned from being associated with him, to live right was the natural bent of his nature. This man had some remarkable traits of character. He could suffer much and not allow his intense pain to interfere with the comfort of those about him. He felt that others had their share of the sorrows of life, and ought not to be burdened with his troubles. He was capable of great friendship. The writer has been the recipient of this overflowing friendliness more than once. When I needed help, I could go to C. W. Thagard and have my wants supplied. He has left a great family. The children are his glory and recommendation. They will perpetuate his honorable name and worthy deeds, since he has slipped away. He was an official in the Methodist Church and had performed his duties well. We will not so easily find a man to succeed him. He said but little about what he was doing for his Church, but when he died, his work—the work that we had assigned him—was well done. He leaves a wife, five children, father and mother, three brothers and one sister. He had many friends. His friends included the very best as well as the most unfortunate in the community. We feel a personal loss. We will compromise with our grief by acting towards the family as a Christian should. He was a Mason. He was raised a Mason, about ten years ago. He loved his lodge. He showed his confidence in this order by scrupulously obeying the mystic obligation, of this ancient society.

The country has lost a splendid citizen, the lodge a useful member and the Church a loyal supporter.

Oscar Mitchell and family left Wednesday for Montana where they will make their future home.

In Memory of Mrs. Will McGhee.

As life is made up alternately of joy and sorrow, and when to us all seems joy and the sunshine brightest, we are often surprised to know that on the horizon, shadows are creeping from dark, threatening clouds which steal upon us and before we are aware we find ourselves engulfed in some great sorrow, the darkness of which is impenetrable save by faith in the Divine by which our Heavenly Father can lift our souls from the darkest gloom or deepest despair and fill them with "that peace that passeth all understanding."

Just so it was a few weeks ago when the news reached us of the almost sudden death of our dear and beloved friend, Mrs. Will McGhee of Lockney, Texas.

We were so shocked, our hearts made so sad, and the loss is so great, yet we feel it wrong to grieve for this dear noble woman for we know that with her all is well, and while it is not for us to understand the purpose and plans of our dear Heavenly Father. We do fully trust Him and know that He does all things wisely and well.

Mrs. McGhee lived in and near McGregor for many years and was known and loved by all, so words of mine are inadequate to portray the beautiful Christian character which was made manifest in every word and deed throughout her life.

To me who knew her so intimately, she was ever an inspiration to higher, nobler things, and so I rise to fight and conquer in the battle of life before me, the sweet memory of her will ever prove an imperishable source of strength, for I hold her as an example of ideal womanhood to which I hope some day to attain.

Modest, sincere and loyal, always ready with an attentive ear and a sympathetic heart, counseling, and gladly extending a helping hand in every need. She could only number her friends by her acquaintances. An enemy she had not for such tenderness and unselfishness can only bring perfect love in return.

As a mother, her sweetness and patience were inexhaustible. We seldom see such an ideal home, and everywhere was the suggestion of a mother's love and tender care, and a wife's perfect understanding.

Oh how our hearts go out in sympathy to the dear family and loved ones in their great loss, but we can only point them to the Almighty Father who says to lean upon and look to Him in time of trouble and He will be our strength and refuge and who alone is able to bind and heal the broken heart.

Do not grieve for her dear ones but be thankful for the sweet life given to enrich your own, and bless and trust the Hand that only strikes to heal.

Dear Heavenly Father, as we stand unshrouded in the darkness of the shadows of death, looking for the last time upon the face of some loved one; looking unto Thee, we see the divine light and feel its illuminating power in our souls, drawing us to Thee and we are made to realize that death only bridges the stream to that celestial shore, which we by true faith shall reach and be reunited where sorrow never comes and parting is no more.

Notice.

Please read this. This is to your advantage as well as mine. I have taken Mr. Williams' place at the Lockney Drug Co., and am here to stay if I can get work enough to make a living. I am a first-class watch-repairer, also do jewelry repairing and engraving. I guarantee my work and my guarantee is good. There is plenty repair work in and around Lockney to justify a good workman in staying, and I respectfully request you all to give me a trial. I want to make this my home, so please bring along your bawky watches and clocks and and broken jewelry and get them fixed right. I have had sixteen years experience and I know my business.

Respectfully,
W. M. Martin.
