Deathwatch

Major Wilson E. Speir, Regional Commander of Region No. 4, Department of Public Safety, announced today that Operation Deathwatch for the three day July 4th Holiday Period will run from Missouri. 12:01 a.m. July 4th through 11:59 p.m. July 6th. A total of 28 moorcides have been predicted for this period.

Major Speir said that all uni-formed enforcement personnel of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Ser-vice, License and Weight Service, and Highway Patrol Service of the would be assigned traffic duties during this period. All holidays and days off have been cancelled. Patrolmen will operate radar extensively during this holiday period in an effort to reduce the death toll.

Speed and DWI violations will be the primary targets of Patrol-men during this period as these two violations contribute to traffice deaths more than any other

Motorists are urged to cooperate in the reduction effort by observing all traffic laws, drive defensively, don't gamble your life and that of your loved ones on a few seconds you might gain by driving at excessive speeds. "Let's commerate the 4th of July in the proper spirit and live for others to come", Speir said.

State Line Avenue in Texarkana divides Texas from Arkansas. The boundary runs down the middle of the street. When I visited there in 1925 as roving reporter for the old Fort Worth Record, I was told that a prisoner, wanted in one State, was being held in the other. He refused to waive extradition. Ordinarily this would mean an application to the governor and then a hearing-a slow and ex pensive process.

But (so I was told) two officers said to the prisoner, "Come with us" and took him for a walk As they were going down the middle of the street, one of the offic ers stumped his toe and bumped the prisoner so hard that he knocked across the State line. Two officers of the other State just happened to be there and grabbed him—all perfecely legal and saving time and money.

The Telephone business is similar to all other businesses in some ways and different from all other businesses in other ways. You may comment, "So what?" or "Is that news?" I'll admit that the statement in itself is not start ing. But it does do one thing. It leads me into one of the similarities. We want our customers to have the b service possible. We want them happy with the telephone service we are providing. That's why we strive constant to improve. The other day James Townzen and I talking. (Most of you know James, but to the few that do not, he is in charge of the plant forces in Ranger that in stalls and keeps the telephones in working condition). We were discussing ways to improve service to our custon He told me that now we have the necessary wire and cable to provide all customers with one family service. you are now sharing, and sometimes getting unhappy over sharing, a telephone line with some other family, this should be welcome news. True, there is a slightly higher cost to you and we earn less money on a pair of wices when only one family uses it, but we had rather have it that way because we know you would be getting better

Now that summer is here and the children are out of school, I imagine the family's telephone service is getting an extra-good workout.

I guess teenagers, and even the smaller fry, need the telephone more often during vacation months. They use it to line-up sand lot ball games, swimming parties, movie dates, and a good many other things, as we all know.

It would be hard to find a better time than now to order an extension telephone. Put it in a room where it will be hardiest for the youngsters. They'll enjoy the privace.

be handiest for the youngsters. They'll enjoy the privacy and so will you. Best of all, you'll save yourself no telling how many dashes to answer incoming calls that given's seem to be for them.

To order an extension, just cal the telephone business office, number 204. The cost is only $1.00 a month for a residence extension, plus tax and installation.

MEMO TO BUSINESSMEN

I heard a busine aman remark recently that he's going over his operations with a fine-tooth comb to trim un-necessary expenses. And one item he planned to cut was Long Distance.

I wonder if he wasn't making a mistake. I can understand the desire to cut costs. But, rather than cut Long Distance, he should use his telephone even MORE for out-

Distance, he should use his telephone even MORE for out of-town calling.

Many businessmen have proved it for themselves, and here's how: Instead of you or your salesmen taking a day to visit several prospective customers in other cities, call them Long Distance. It saves travel on the highway; and turns travel time into selling time. And a telephone call is almost as personal as a visit and just as appreciated.

Try it yourself and watch the results. I think in the end you'll agree with our belief that Long Distance doesn't cost, it pays.

WASHINGON, D. C. - There yet to be appropriated approx Budget for the fiscal year 1959 This time last year, when economy was popular, the Congress had cut approximately $4 1/2 billion from the President's request. Thus far this year, the Congress has even upped the President's request, and ery likely there will be ncreases before the session ends.

These increases are made in he face of declining income, and made, there is good prospect of ending up with a deficit of $8 to $10 billion. Any deficit, of course, ntributes to more inflation.

Even when the congress cuts appropriations to the various de artments, bureaus, and commis ons of the Government, it usually ends up by making "supplemental" appropriations in the year follow iepartment simple tells the Congress that it does not have mone end of the fisical year. The Con-

Senate, provides that communities may bhorrow money from the Federal Government for a term of 50 years at the going interest rate. The sum of $2 billion is provided itical subdivisions for the construssor of said District for exam- ction, repair and improvement of ination, correction, equalization, pablic streets, sidewalks, high-appraisement and approval.

3. The Secretary of this Board of Directors shall act as Secretary transportation facilities; public public transportation facilities; public public transportation facilities; public public public transportation facilities; public public public public transportation facilities; public publi recreatkeep a permanent record of all ional facilities, public hospitals, proceedings of said Board of rehebilitation and health centers and public nursing homes and J mmy Phillips in 1952 and Joe ADOPTED AND APPROVED public convalescent homes; public Ed Black in 1951 refuse and garbage disposal facilities, water, sewage and sanitary facilities, and other public utility facilities; civil-defense facilities; public police and fire protection facilities; public wholesale farm produce markets; public libraries and offices and other public buildings (other than schools); ger Monday. He was a brother of

Sunday visiting a sister -in- law, will receive prizes. Irons, woods and golf carts will be given away. and public land, water and timber

Maybe while we're at it, we hould triple this $2 billion and add post office buildings. There is a need for $4 to $6 billion worth of post office buildings in he United States at this time.

Bear in mind, the $2 billion to be loaned to cities, towns communities are "loans." This is upposed to make it different from W.P.A. and P.W A., but the legislation says nothing about would happen to all of these fault. It could be assumed that the Federal Government would then own a lot of "community facility ies" like sewer systems, public parks, sidewalks. ect.

If this help to communities was enough to operate to June 30, the an outright grant it would follow the practice of Washington collect gress then grants the supplemental ing taxes from people and doling money back to local-governments. As it is, the Federal Govern bborrows the money on the faith and credit of the communities which they cannot have in the first place to qualify for the loan, and lends it back to them with interest harges.

The measure as passed by the Senate did not include "rehabilita-tion and health centers and public nursing homes and public conval-

To oppose and vote against the bill is to cause someone to ask you, "Ae you opposed to public rursing homes, public convalescent homes and caring for hospital needs? This is an "attraction" which few wish to ignore.

I find a brief reference to buried treasure in Eastland County in "Roaring Ranger" (Naylor Co., 1951): The county had two legends of buried treasure. One story was that a band of outlaws in early days had buried their loot in Eastland County, supposedly thousands of dollars. The other tale was that many jackloads of gold had been buried by Spaniards when they were about to be attacked by In-
