NEWCASTLE MINERS DID NOT JOIN IN GENERAL COAL STRIKE MOVEMENT

The coal miners employed at Newcastle, on the Wichita Falls and Southern, have not joined in the general strike movement, as was erroneously reported, and they are at work this week on regular time. The Newcastle miners have never organized and consequently are not participating in the general walkout. When the general strike order went into effect, it was reported that the men employed at Newcastle had gone out with the others of this state, but this was untrue, and the miners are turning out coal without interruption.

YEGGMEN SECURE $5000 AT LEON COUNTY BANK; OTHER BANK ROBBERIES

Texas News Service Special. Palestine, Tex., April 4.—The State Bank at Oakwood, Leon County, about twenty-five miles southwest of here, on the International & Great Northern Railroad, was robbed of five thousand dollars in cash early this morning by three yeggmens who blew open the safe with nitro-glycerine. The men broke into the section house after the robbery, took three raincoats and were seen to walk rapidly down the railroad track. Officers are hunting for them.

The burglars were evidently old at the business and took every precaution. The telephone and telegraph wires were all cut and they worked quietly and rapidly. Three shot guns and a quantity of shells were stolen by them from a hardware store before entering the bank. Of the amount stolen, two thousand was in silver.

Texas News Service Special. Houston, Tex., April 4.—A telephone message received today from Oakwoods, Leon County, says that robbers dynamited the safe of the Oakwoods State Bank, early today securing five thousand dollars and made their escape. A posse is in pursuit.

By Associated Press. Norfolk, Va., April 4.—The First National Bank of Randolph was dynamited today by three masked men and robbed of ten thousand dollars in gold and currency. Previously Town Marshal Carroll was held up on the street, bound and gagged, relieved of his gun and guarded in a room while several explosions wrecked the vault.

Texas News Service Special. McAlester, Okla., April 4.—Burglars entered the State Bank at Stuart late last night, dynamited the safe and escaped with $3,300. The robbers, after rifling the safe, cut all telegraph and telephone wires and made away on a hand car. Royal Stuart, the cashier who usually sleeps in the bank, had gone to Oklona, and it is believed that the robbers knew of this.

VOTE ON ISSUANCE OF SCHOOL BONDS

ELECTION WILL BE HELD TOMORROW ON $40,000 ADDITIONAL BONDS.

OPPOSITION IS LACKING

Believed That Bonds Will Be Voted Almost Unanimously by the Tax Payers.

The property-owners of the city will vote tomorrow upon the issuance of forty thousand dollars in school bonds, for the erection of new buildings. No opposition to these bonds has shown itself and it is believed that they will be carried almost unanimously. The following explains the situation.

The School Trustees have called an election for Tuesday, April 5th to authorize the issuance of $40,000 additional bonds for the purpose of erecting two new school houses in the city.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce after looking into the matter voted unanimously to endorse the issuance of these bonds.

The monthly meeting of the members of the Chamber of Commerce at their March meeting also took up this question and after investigating the present crowded condition of the schools, also voted unanimously to recommend to the tax-payers that the bonds be voted.

In accordance with these instructions, I urge every tax payer in this city and district to go to the city hall and cast his vote "For the issuance of Bonds."

The report of the Superintendent shows that there are now enrolled over 200 more children than the census of 1909 gave us, and we all know that the population of the city is increasing every day.

The citizens of Wichita Falls have voted favorably when questions of providing city hall, sewerage, and paving came up, and while all of these were important we must not fail to provide ample school facilities for every child in our city.

We would like to see a full vote and hope that there is not a man who will vote against the building of these school houses.

ROBERT E. HUFF,
President Chamber of Commerce.
W. J. BULLOCK,
President School Board.

The concert at Lake Wichita yesterday afternoon was attended by the usual heavy crowds and the attractions were liberally patronized.

ROOSEVELT FIRM IN HIS POSITION

DECLINES TO ALLOW HIS CONDUCT IN ROME TO BE PRESCRIBED BY VATICAN.

EXCITEMENT RUNS HIGH

American Seems to Regret Necessity For Attitude—Is Received by King Emmanuel.

Rome, April 4.—The determination of Mr. Roosevelt to forgo an audience with Pope Pius rather than subscribe to the conditions imposed by the Vatican has created quite a sensation here and this incident completely overshadows every other feature of the visit of the distinguished American to this city.

Unknown to the press and the public generally, the fact that the Pope would not receive Roosevelt was settled before the latter left Egypt.

The history of the negotiations is about as follows:

While at Sairo, Mr. Roosevelt received the following telegram from Ambassador Leishman, dated March 23:

"Monsignor Kennedy, rector of the American Catholic College, in reply to an inquiry which I caused to be made, requests that the following communication be transmitted to you:—The Holy Father will be delighted to grant an audience to Mr. Roosevelt on April 5, and hopes that nothing will arise to prevent it, such as the much regretted incident which made the reception of Mr. Fairbanks impossible."

Replying by cable to Ambassador Leishman, on March 25, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"Please present the following to Monsignor Kennedy: 'It would be a real pleasure to me to be presented to the Holy Father, for whom I entertain high respect both personally and as the head of a great church. I fully recognize his entire right to receive or not to receive whomsoever he chooses, for any reason that seems good to him; and if he does not receive me I shall not for a moment question the propriety of his action. In my turn, must decline to make any stipulations or submit to any conditions which in any way would limit my freedom of conduct. I trust that on April 5 he will find it convenient to receive me.'"

On March 28, Mr. Roosevelt at Cairo received a cablegram from Ambassador Leishman giving a message from Monsignor Kennedy which concluded by saying:

"The audience can not take place, except on the understanding expressed in the former message."

The following day Mr. Roosevelt sent another message to the American Ambassador, saying:

"The proposed presentation is, of course, impossible."

Roosevelt insists that the incident be treated as a purely personal one and earnestly hopes that it will not give rise to any bitterness.

King Victor Emanuel received Col. Roosevelt at the Quirinal today. Immediately after the American's arrival he was received by the King in a private apartment and the two remained in private conversation for about three quarters of an hour. From the Quirinal Roosevelt drove to the Pantheon.

TEXAS NEWS SERVICE SPECIAL

Fort Worth, Tex., April 4.—The Fort Worth Pastors' Association, at a meeting today, passed a resolution strongly endorsing the refusal of Theodore Roosevelt to visit the pope in Rome, because of the restrictions the letter insisted upon. All protestant ministers of the city belong to the association.

The Morey Stock Company has arrived for its performance at the Wichita Theatre every night this week.

AGED CITIZEN STRUCK AND KILLED BY EARLY MORNING DENVER TRAIN

J. T. Cloud, aged 83 years, was struck and killed by the Fort Worth & Denver north bound passenger train at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, near the Denver depot. He was badly mangled by the train and death ensued in a very short time. There were no eye-witnesses to the incident, and it is believed that Mr. Cloud attempted to cross the track in front of the train and was unable to get out of the way in time. The deceased has lived in this community for some time and was well known here. He is the father of J. M. Cloud. The remains were taken charge of by Undertaker Freear and will be interred in Riverside Cemetery this afternoon.

SHAKEUP ON KATY

Many Heads Are Expected To Fall Soon.

Texas News Service Special. St. Louis, April 4.—That there will be a big shake up among the M., K. & T. railroad officials, is the authentic report in railroad circles here. The shake up will follow the visit of Edwin Hawley and Frank Trumbull to Texas this week. They will attend the annual meeting of the Katy, at Dallas Tuesday and an announcement of changes is expected soon afterwards. Some officials declare it to be an "up-heaval" instead of a "shake up." This will be Hawley's first trip to Texas since acquiring the Katy.

CONSERVATION CONGRESS

Many Matters Are to Be Acted Upon at Meeting.

Texas News Service Special. Fort Worth, Tex., April 4.—When the first conservation congress meets here tomorrow it will have as its object the appointment of a committee to secure funds from the next legislature to carry on the conservation work in Texas, the appointment of a state forester and a state irrigation commission. Five hundred will attend. James Gipe of Washington, arrived today to represent Clifford Pischot, now in Europe. Governor Campbell sends advices that he cannot attend the meeting.

Texas News Service Special. McAlester, Okla., April 4.—Rodman Wright, a negro, shot and killed Dave Tiner, a white man, at Carbon late last night. The negro was intoxicated and, it is believed, mistook Tiner for an officer. He emptied both barrels of a shotgun into the white man's body.

PLACES ARE CONTESTED

There is Opposition in Both the Mayoralty and Aldermanic Races This Time.

The city elections take place tomorrow, and a mayor, a tax collector, a city attorney and four aldermen will be chosen by the voters. The voting box will be at the city hall. Considerable interest is being manifested in the contest, especially in the mayor's race, which promises to be close enough to be exciting. The official ballot for the election is as follows:

J. T. YOUNG.
T. B. NOBLE.
For City Attorney:
FRED W. HOUSEHOLDER.
For Assessor and Collector:

E. H. UNDERWOOD.
For Alderman (short term):
(vote for two only)
DR. J. F. REED.
J. L. JACKSON.
T. P. HICKMAN.

The city attorney is being elected at this election instead of appointed as heretofore. Fred Householder is without opposition for this office, and Harry Robertson is also unopposed for re-election.

A larger vote than usual is expected on account of there being opposition in the mayoralty and aldermanic races. The issuance of $40,000 in school bonds is also to be voted on tomorrow.

The arrangement of the names, as they appear above, is the same as they will appear on the ballot to be voted on tomorrow. The candidates for the various offices having drawn for positions.

Havana Gay With Dinners Given By Rival Presidential Candidates

Cuba is so much interested in the coming presidential election that complaints have been made by American sugar buyers that plantations are being neglected. Dr. Alfredo Zayas is due to head the Liberal ticket, with General Demetrio Castillo as his running mate. General Loma del Castillo, popular among the laboring class and veterans, will either head the fusion ticket or be the running mate of General Hernandez. The preliminaries have all been cleared away, and the active leaders are devoting their time to giving dinners in Havana, Santiago and Mantanzas in an effort to keep the interest of the people at top heat.

Rockefeller's Talent for Making Money

New York American.
Mr. John D. Rockefeller, expounding on a certain occasion his theory of wealth, said: "As a doctor or a musician is given his talent—to be developed for the benefit of mankind—so was I given the talent for making money."

The theory assumes that the business of producing oil is unlike the business of a doctor in that it need not have any direct aim to serve anybody, but may legitimately disregard the welfare of the people until after it has developed a great economic power over them.

The practice of this principle impoverishes the community, ruins the market, destroys credit and threatens the gravest calamities to the commercial world.

The theory as stated by Mr. Rockefeller amounts to saying that some men ought to do useful work from day to day and acquire financial competency thereby, while other men should make the acquirement of financial competency a religious devotion so lofty that nothing else matters.

The current opinion is, on the contrary, that when a man feels that he has a holy mission to get rich without regard to the means he is dangerous and should be watched.

Mr. Rockefeller's theory of wealth, carried to its logical conclusion, would make the United States a vast almshouse stretching from sea to sea.

The hyperbole is not excessive, for the country seems at this moment to stand within sight of a time when half a dozen gigantic private fortunes may control the whole field of national industry.

Does Mr. Rockefeller imagine that the American people will then be content to grind day by day and year by year in the economic mill for the sake of supporting half a dozen prodigious benevolent "foundations"?

Will they be content to receive at the hands of millionaire almoners their daily dose of mercy and truth?

Mr. Rockefeller is mistaken if he thinks so. And his mistake is precisely the mistake that was made by the men of that ancient feudal order out of which modern society has so painfully emerged.

Indeed, there has never been a tyrant founded otherwise than upon Mr. Rockefeller's benignant but belated idea.

Ogres exist only in story books. In real life despots have usually taxed the people in a fatherly and friendly spirit—like Mr. Rockefeller and Czar Nicholas.

Modern democracy in its whole motive is quite as much a protest against patronage as against poverty and the Bastille.

In the Middle Ages the richest men in Europe poured their fortunes into great charitable foundations—such as this that Mr. Rockefeller now proposes. In some countries a good half or more of the economic life of the people was spent in the support of these institutions.

Modern free states rose upon the ruins of this order of things. Political liberty was won by the enforcement of sweeping statutes of mortmain against the gigantic patronage of mediaeval charities.

Indeed, modern industrial society could never have come into existence if men had not first freed themselves from the clutch of this "dead hand."

It would betoken the astonishing lack of political sense in the American people and an incredible ignorance of history if we were not to accept Mr. Rockefeller as philosopher and guide.

The best use of his foundation would be to make it the center of a sound political and social teaching that should abolish patronage by destroying privilege and so should render such establishments both useless and impossible.

"THIS IS MY 40th BIRTHDAY."

Robert F. Maddox.
Robert F. Maddox, mayor of Atlanta and one of the foremost citizens of the Georgia capital, was born in Atlanta, April 4, 1876, and received his education at the University of Georgia and at Harvard University. After leaving Harvard he entered the employ of an Atlanta banking firm as a clerk. Today he is vice-president of the bank and is recognized as one of the leading financiers of Georgia. He has served as president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and has filled various other public and semi-public positions of responsibility and trust. Two years ago, in response to a movement on the part of the citizens of Atlanta to rid the city of political "bossism," Mr. Maddox accepted an invitation to become a candidate for mayor and after a hard fought and bitter campaign he was elected by a sweeping majority.

The No-Tip Hotel.

New York Press.

It is agreeable to learn that the New London hotel where tips are forbidden, has opened prosperously. The news increases our respect for human nature. It proves that there are people in the world still who can resist the temptation to give tips, and that waiters and others need not receive them in order to live. From the growth of the abominable custom one might have inferred that the comfortable classes would not patronize a hotel where they could not gratify their vanity by tipping the servants, but this, it seems, is not so. The new hotel can not begin to accommodate its customers. To meet the serving people on a footing of plain commercial equality will be a new experience to many of them, but it will be salutary.

There are three motives for tipping servants, of which only one can be praised. The other two are despicable. The praiseworthy motive arises from the belief that they are underpaid, and in a great many cases this is true. Their wages are held far below what is decent, in the expectation that gratuities will keep them from starvation. This is the rule almost everywhere in Europe, and many of our protected industries, in their zeal for the welfare of labor, are trying to make it the rule here. Vanity and selfishness powerfully aid them. These are, in fact, the other two roots of the tipping mania. Nothing so gratifies one's self-esteem as to toss a coin to a fellow-being, like a bone to a dog, and see him fawningly accept it. The act places the giver at once in a class superior to the recipient. The one is exalted; he becomes a lord of largess, a bestower of bounty. The other is degraded. He has taken money; not because he has earned it, but because a social superior has deigned to bestow it.

But vanity is not the only discreditable motive for tipping. Selfishness plays a still more important part in the shameful business. The person who tips expects a return for it. He expects to be served more assiduously than others. He looks for attentions which others are denied, though all have the same right to them. If there were a settled rule for the value of tips and everybody would observe it the practice would not be so pernicious; but there is not. The wealthy hog gives dollars where other people can afford only dimes, and thus he purchases the exclusive service of the attendants while others are neglected. If we must submit to execrable tipping custom, let us by all means decide upon some decent scale and compel everybody to abide by it.

Why Foreign Nations Respect Us.
 Nothing has set America so high in the estimation of foreign nations, says Ellis Parker Butler in Success Magazine, as the adoption of baseball as the national sport. If a foreign spy wanders into America, seeking to fathom our real inwardness, and sees a game of baseball, any feeling of contempt for our newness gives way instantly to awestruck admiration. At his first glance baseball is to him a mystery, and it remains a mystery to him. He sees 30,000 men and women suffering the tortures of the lower regions on hot grandstands. He sees a man pick up a small white ball as hard as a pine knot. Facing him is another man who holds a smooth but deadly club in his hands. Behind this second man is a third man whose face is hidden behind a birdcage. Suddenly the man with the ball raises one foot in the air and shows the man with the bat the sole of his shoe. The man at the bat sees that there are spikes in the sole of the shoe and it angers him, and he raises the bat to throw it at the man with the ball. But, ah, ha! the man with the ball is too quick for him. He throws the hard white ball at the man with the bat with all his strength. The man with the bat waves defiance by swing the bat in the air. The ball proceeds. The batsman never flinches. Will the ball kill the man or will the impact crush the ball? But, see! The ball finds man unflinching; the ball is panic-stricken; the ball dodges around the man; the ball is lost, buried in the huge leather chair cushion that covers the hand of the birdcage man behind the batsman! "Strike one!" says the umpire. Thirty thousand cheers. Why?

Local Option Contests in Illinois.
 Chicago, Ill., April 4.—Prohibition leaders predict that the "dry" territory of Illinois will be materially increased as the result of the town and city elections throughout the state tomorrow. Several hundred cities are to vote on the anti-saloon question. Among the number are Springfield, Elgin, Moline, Aurora, Bloomington, Centralia, Freeport, Danville, Monmouth and Rock Island, all of which are now "wet." Numerous other cities and towns that have been "dry" for the past two years will vote on continuing as prohibition territory or bringing back the saloons.
 Early in the campaign Chicago promised to be the great field of battle over the saloon issue, but the recent decision of the election commissioners

The Electra Oil Field

The following from the Electra News regarding the oil developments in that section will prove of interest:
 "The Waggoner lease is one of the largest oil and gas leases in any part of the state where the territory has been proven as it has been in Electra, the Texas Company considering this one of their most valuable holdings and are now using this as their strong talking point to sell an additional issue of their stock, amounting to five hundred thousand dollars.
 "Electra is destined to be the largest oil and gas field in the southwest and the fact that the Texas Company has made such extensive investments here only strengthens the theory that our field is a most valuable one, on account of the different stratas of oil which have been drilled in the Electra field; some of the wells developing three separate and paying stratas, showing from ten to two hundred barrels production a day, and not a well has been drilled in which there has not been a good pumping proposition developed. No wonder the big oil companies are so anxious to obtain leases near Electra, where paying production can be obtained at from 500 to 1200 feet and a grade of oil which is not equalled by any found in the state. $100,000 is a mere drop in the bucket, compared to the actual value of the Texas Company's lease, which they have recently acquired of Mr. Waggoner. Five acres of land in the proven territory should more than remunerate the Texas Company. The Texas Company has just brought in well No. 3, at a depth of about 1200 feet and, with 100 feet of oil standing in the well, awaiting to rig the pump. It promises, with a little agitating, to be one of the best wells struck at the 1200 foot strata. On the strength of this, the Texas Company has purchased from the Bywaters heirs another lease adjoining them on the north and extending across the Denver railroad. This is considered of great importance, as it will extend the field materially to the north, and, as there was one of the considerations of the lease, a well will be started before the 15th of April.
 "Development is what we are working for and this latter move on the part of the Texas Company will force the other large companies holding leases to start developments at once. Representatives of the Sun Company and the Clayco Oil Company were on the field last week, and, from information obtained through interested parties, we may expect to see active work from these companies in the near future. The Electra Development Company, a home organization, is actively engaged in getting their property lying just north of the Bywaters land in shape to commence drilling early this summer. This development we will watch with the greatest of interest, as it will be the means of bringing more operators to the field than any move yet made in the Electra field, as their sales are made in small tracts, similar to the ones sold in the East Texas fields, where dozens of wells were drilled on a single acre. The sale of the Electra Development Company's lots should be the means of putting several hundred rigs to work in the Electra field within the next year. Think of what that means for the town of Electra!
 "The superintendent of the pipe lines for the Texas Company was in our field not long ago, and there is no doubt but what they will begin the construction of a pipe line within the next few weeks from Electra connecting with the main pipe line leading to the gulf.
 "Electra is sure to be a winner and her oil and gas field will make her one of the most brilliant spots on the map of Texas within the next year."
Catarrhal Asthma and Hay Fever.
 Tens of thousands of sufferers from hay fever and catarrhal asthma find great comfort and quick relief by breathing Hyomel.
 Of course where asthma is not caused by a catarrhal condition, but by nervous contraction of the bronchial tubes, Hyomel is not recommended.
 But in a case of asthma where there is a discharge of mucous, breathing Hyomel gives most wonderful relief by soothing the irritated and highly inflamed membrane.
 Mr. W. A. White, R. F. D. No. 1, Evansport, writes: "I have been bothered with asthma for over five years but could not get any relief until I tried Hyomel. I have spent lots of money on remedies for asthma and if I could not get another bottle I would not be without Hyomel for $50. I recommend it."
 A complete Hyomel outfit, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs $1.00 with instructions for use in hay fever and asthma. Extra bottles of Hyomel cost 50 cents at druggists everywhere and at Week's Drug Co.

You may not be at all "literary" but still able to make money as a writer. If you have a business of your own you can make it prosperous by writing convincing advertising of it. If you are not in business you can still earn money by writing and publishing your classified ads. in this paper. This chance is open to anyone, anytime—and it often happens that a well written want ad. brings more to the writer than Kipling would be paid for a poem.

A MONSTER TUMOR REMOVED

MR. M. F. JACKSON OF 308 LEE ST. HAD A LARGE TUMOR ON BACK OF HEAD FOR YEARS.

Dr. Berry Removed It In Full View of a Large Audience Saturday Night—No Knife Was Used.

On Saturday night in full view of a large audience Dr. J. L. Fayette Berry removed a large fatty tumor from the back of the head of Mr. H. F. Jackson of 308 Lee street. Before the operation was performed the doctor explained to the audience that the operation would be difficult but that he would remove the tumor without the knife. Mr. Jackson was seated in a chair on the platform, the doctor applied some medicine over the tumor and removed it section by section—only ten or twenty drops of blood was drawn. Mr. Jackson said no pain was experienced except a slight stinging sensation when medicine was first applied. After the operation the patient stood in the audience and enjoyed the entertainment that was being given, just as though nothing had happened him. The removal of the tumor will not inconvenience Mr. Jackson or keep him from his work. Had the knife been used there would have been great loss of blood, and the patient would have been confined to his home for days. Many more operations will be performed by the doctor in full view of the people.
 Tonight Mr. John Morrison the great Irish singer will please the people with a number of songs.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and vicinity
—Tonight, fair and colder;
—frost. Tuesday, fair and colder.
—er.

The Times solicits and accepts advertising for its columns under a positive guarantee that it has a greater number of subscribers than any other publication in Wichita Falls. Its subscription books and press room records are open for inspection to those who have a right to such information, and who want evidence of the above statement.

THE TIMES PUBLISHING CO.
—253-1/2c ED HOWARD, Manager.

The reelection of Governor Donaghey of Arkansas, whom Senator Jeff Davis has as bitterly opposed, means that the latter will no doubt enter the race two years hence for the seat now held by Davis. And then business will pick up as it never did before. Donaghey has developed into quite a successful politician and has unlimited cash, with a disposition to turn it loose where it will do the most good. Senator Davis, too, has pulled off a few stunts in Arkansas politics of late years, according to all reports, and will be hard to beat. As a campaigner he hasn't an equal in that state and few superiors elsewhere.

That Mississippi senator who says he accepted a bribe of one thousand dollars to vote for Percy for United States Senator in order to catch the lether, took a mighty long time to make up his mind to tell it. He said nothing about it until after Percy was sworn in at Washington. The latter says he knew nothing about it, and his general reputation as a citizen of Mississippi indicates that he did not. However, the incident will serve as an embarrassment to him in many ways.

"When in Rome do as Romans," does not seem to have appealed to Col. Roosevelt. He had expressed a desire for an audience with Pope Pius X., while in Rome, and all arrangements had been made for the meeting, which was to have taken place at the Vatican tomorrow, but it seems that everything was called off when the president of the greatest nation on earth refused point blank to "slak" some of his fellow-Americans in order to be permitted to visit the pope of Rome. His act in declining to visit the pope under such conditions, will, or should, meet the hearty approval of every loyal American, whether of the Protestant or Catholic faith.

The renomination of Gov. Donaghey for a second term as governor of Arkansas shows that the people of that state have more regard for the custom of giving a man the second term of office than they do of cleanliness in politics. Donaghey was a disappointed bidder for the construction of the new state capitol, and two years ago spent something like seventy-five thousand dollars to elect himself to the office of governor, succeeding at the last session of the legislature in abrogating the contract on the state house and having the work placed in the hands of a commission headed by himself.

The Times acknowledges receipt of its quota of seeds from the department of agriculture and regrets that it has no place to plant them. We had a place all picked out, but have decided to put up a new building on it, instead.

Don't forget to vote for the school bonds. Wichita Falls needs and must have, more school houses, and the only way to get them is to support with your ballot the bond issue at tomorrow's election.

Ballinger is planning to sue Collier's Weekly, which precipitated the fight against him, for libel. And the editor of that paper is probably rubbing his hands together gleefully over the prospects.

The government is after the stock gambling crowd, and if the good work is kept up, some of the fellows "higher up" may be looking through the bars a little later.

Every available means possible should be used to exterminate the germ-breeding house fly. See that your home is properly screened and that all food is protected.

Whatever the result of tomorrow's election, we have a strong suspicion that Wichita Falls will remain on the map and continue to startle the world.

Some people are never satisfied. When it rains they kick because the ball game has to be postponed.

Tomorrow is the day for the city election. Vote right.

STATE POLITICS.

Poindexter and Colquitt have entered into dispute over which of the two is the truer friend of Senator Bailey.—Tyler Post.

The Fort Worth Record is not "afraid" of Dr. Rankin. "There is no terror," says the Record. "There is Rankin's threats. He has thundered too often and dalled too long." He can't control his own following because he has lost the courage of leadership." Dr. Rankin's answer to this flank attack will be awaited with interest.—Denton Record and Chronicle.

Mr. Colquitt seems to have considerably the best of it in the support of the larger Texas papers. So far as noted he has behind him strongly the Houston Post, the Fort Worth Record, the Dallas Times-Herald and the Fort Worth Star-Telegram from the larger adities. General Davidson has one definitely—the Houston Chronicle. Judge Poindexter has nary one, and Cone Johnson is in the same boat. The Dallas and Galveston News, the San Antonio Express and the Waco Times-Herald are so far non-committal, the last named being apparently opposed to all the four.—Denton Record Chronicle.

The Houston Post ran a cartoon representing Governor Campbell and General Davidson deep in the discussion of an alliance, the purpose of which is to give Davidson the executive chair and Campbell Senator Culberson's job. Of course this is a desperate attempt to embroil the friends of Davidson and Culberson. But the idea is silly. Why should Campbell assail Culberson's position, entrenched as he is in the confidence of the people, when there is a similar place with wide rents in its defenses? If the governor wants a senatorial toga, if he wants half the political acumen he is credited with, he will reach for the one Bailey wears and never give that of Culberson a thought.—Corpus Christi Crony.

To the Voters of Wichita Falls. Referring to the matter of free sewerage; while this sounds all right within itself, if any fair-minded man will study the proposition carefully, I believe he will be convinced that free sewerage in a city of this size, especially, is absolutely impracticable. I have made considerable investigation, and do not find a city in the State where they have free sewerage. In the cities named below, the charges are, as follows:

- Gainesville.....$10 per annum
- Terrell.....$10 per annum
- McKinney.....$10 per annum
- Gatesville.....$10 per annum
- Georgetown.....$10 per annum
- Sherman.....$10 per annum
- Stamfor.....$6 per annum

Ablene, I think is $15. These prices are charged for ordinary residences. Our price for residences, as you all know, is $6 per year. You can see by comparison, that our prices are cheaper than every one of these cities, except Stamford, which is the same.

This sewer rental of fifty cents per month for each residence, is for the purpose of maintaining and extending our present sewerage system. While the maintenance is not a great deal where we have no break-downs or mishape, who can tell when a break-down may come which will take three or four hundred dollars to repair, or unstop the sewer, and put it in the condition it should be, and if we are forced to take this money out of the general fund (and the money would have to come out of the general fund), it would take just that much money from the street-crossing fund and from other needed improvements, thereby interfering with the building of street-crossings, sidewalks and the making of such other improvements. The whole city can be upset by the mismanagement of any one fund; that is, to say, if we should put the sewerage system on a free basis, and had to impair some other fund, in order to take care of the sewerage system, we would not only put the sewerage system where it would not be self-supporting, but we would cripple the fund from which this money was taken. Aside from this, it occurs to me that the people who are living where they are now no sewerage mains, and who have to pay their equal part of the tax to take care of the bonded indebtedness which was necessary to build the sewerage system, would be in a way helping those of us, who are more fortunate and have the benefit of the sewerage system, to pay our scavenger bill, while at the same time they would be forced to pay their own scavenger bill. Furthermore, we are not at this time able to bond any more for extending the sewer, and the plan which we have inaugurated will work out to the entire satisfaction of the whole city, provided it is not in any way disturbed.

As stated, the other evening, in my address at the Court House, I am in favor of bonding just as little as possible for the next year or two, so that we may be able, within a short time, to work out some plan, whereby the city may obtain control of the water and light plant—a thing that I believe is more needed to Wichita Falls today, than any one thing.

Evolution of the Apple.

Apples are new in the economy of the world's use and taste. At the beginning of the last century few varieties were known, and we can go back in history to a time when all apples were little, sour and puckery—crab apples and nothing else. The crab apple was and is in its wildness nothing but a rosebush. Away back in time the wild rose, with its pretty blossoms that turn to little red balls, apple flavored, and the thorny crab had the same grandmother.

A Curious Error.

The Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale told how a curious error crept into the translation of the Lord's Prayer into the Delaware Indian tongue. The English translator had as an assistant an Indian who knew English. "What is 'hallow' in Delaware?" asked the translator. The Indian thought he said "halloo" and gave him the equivalent. Therefore the Delaware version of the Lord's Prayer reads, "Our Father, who art in heaven, halloooed be thy name."

The Times is authorized to announce D. E. Thomas as a candidate for County Commissioner of precinct No. 1, Wichita county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Mr. Thomas is the present incumbent of that office, and in offering for re-election to the office, refers the tax-payers and voters to his official record. He is well known to the people of Wichita county, and has made a success in the management of his own private affairs, and promises, if re-elected, to give the same close attention to the affairs of the county in the future as he has in the past. The Times takes pleasure in presenting Mr. Thomas' claims for re-election to this very responsible office and feels sure the tax-payers and voters will give them careful consideration.

No Connection With Schools.

To the Times:

At the request of Mayor Noble, we state that the mayor of the city of Wichita Falls has no official connection whatever with the public schools, and that the city government and that of the schools are as separate and distinct as is the government of the county and city. The Noble Hardware Company sold to the contractors the hardware for the high school in competition with other firms, their bid being the lowest submitted.

BUCKET SHOP CRUSADE.

Many of Those Wanted by Government Are Missing.

By Associated Press.

New York, April 4.—The search was kept up here today for several individuals indicted in connection with the governments anti-bucket shop campaign. Four of them are supposed to be in this city. CAMPAIGN VIEWS.
From Texas Papers.

Mostly because of factional prejudice, certain newspapers and politicians are trying to take from Mr. Davidson the glory and credit of the many victories he won while attorney general by saying that his assistants did all the work and that he did not win any of the victories. Mr. Davidson deserves the credit for every legal battle won. He it was who planned the battles, mapped the courses to pursue and selected the right men to assist him in winning these legal battles. It could just as truly be said that General Lee did not win a single victory, for he did not take a bayonet-ed gun and make a single charge over the breastworks of the Yankee armies, but he planned the battles, mapped out the maneuvers to be made, selected the lesser generals to make them; and in this way won the great battles—and there was glory enough to go all round. In the face of opposition on the part of certain corrupt politicians and trust emissaries and party treason from others, Davidson won practically every battle he waged, and his work has set precedents that are being used by other states in their crusades against trusts. Patriotic Texans should place a laurel wreath on the brow of this one of the greatest attorneys general that ever held office. —Comanche Exponent.

For the past month the Waelder News lets its readers see in large letters, this: "We are going to do it." That is a prohibition town. Please be more explicit.—DuVal County Circuit. Just as we thought. This is an advertisement; suppose it's time to spring it. We're going to do our part in accomplishing three things—that of making Waelder the best town along the Southern Pacific between San Antonio and Houston, make the News the best paper in the county, and see that Davidson is elected governor of Texas.—Waelder News.

"Jedge" Poindexter blushingly admitted that he was about the only real learned lawyer, truthful man and reliable patriot who has ever offered for the governorship of Texas. The Journal believes the "jedge" is honest in this modest opinion of himself. As the old negro said when asked the name of the speaker when he heard Henry Clay speak, "I dunno his name 'actly, but he shore give hisself a fine reckermendashun." —Arlington Journal.

The recent results in Bowie, Wood, Grayson, Lamar, Marion, Llano and other counties are enough to chill the arbor of the most optimistic candidate who relies on the saloon influence for his votes. But what has the anti-prohibitionist to fear as long as there are two or three candidates in the field to divide the pro plum? One good strong anti can knock the plum.—Pittsburg Gazette.

Every bunch of men that you get into discuss the gubernatorial situation, and every man has a different idea as to how the race is going to terminate. If we had any money to bet on the race just at present we would buy fishing tackle with it and spend our time on the bank of the creek. We might not win as much, but we would feel a heap safer.—Denton County News.

That a political fight is on in Texas can be plainly seen. The very air is filled with it. From every nook and corner of this empire state can be heard discussions. The daily press is carrying the news in glowing headlines. In fact, from now until July 23 we may expect to see the hottest fight recorded since the memorial Hogg-Clark campaign.—Llano News.

Rome Awaits Roosevelt.
Rome, April 2.—The Eternal City is today in a flutter of anticipation over the arrival of former President Roosevelt. The coming of the distinguished visitor is an event in which all classes are deeply interested, for aside from Colonel Roosevelt's world-wide fame his visit is regarded in a way as a pleasant expression of the sentimental ties existing between Italy and the great American republic in which so many sons and daughters of the Italian kingdom have found prosperous homes. Outward and visible signs are abundant that a hearty and spontaneous welcome awaits the distinguished statesman and hunter. During their stay in Rome the Roosevelt party are to be the guests of the American Ambassador and Mrs. Leishman. So far as is known the former president will make no public address during his brief stay here. The royal and papal audiences will be the principal events on the program. The remainder of the time will be spent by the visitors in viewing points of interest in and about Rome. King Victor Emmanuel will receive the ex-president and his son, Kermit, at the Quirinal Monday morning. In the afternoon Queen Helens will receive Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt, Kermit and Miss Ethel, and in the evening of the same day the visitors will be entertained at court dinner given in their honor. In addition to the members of the Roosevelt party the guests at the dinner will include Ambassador Leishman, Mrs. Leishman, other members of the American embassy, and several of the leading Italian statesmen. The audience with Pope Pius is set for Tuesday. The event will be attended by no elaborate ceremonies, such as distinguishes the audiences granted crowned heads, but the order of procedure will be that followed in the cases of other distinguished visitors. All arrangements for the audience have been completed by the American ambassador and Mr. Kennedy, rector of the American College in Rome and a personal acquaintance of ex-President Roosevelt.

Indiana to Speak First

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—The republican state convention will be held here tomorrow and the lobbies of the principal hotels are already scenes of political activity, particularly that of the Claypool hotel, where the most of the party leaders have their headquarters. The convention will be one of the largest ever held in Indiana. There will be 1,745 delegates. The gathering will be held in Tomlinson Hall, where provision has been made to seat several thousand visitors.

Indiana does not elect a governor or lieutenant governor this year, but does elect all the other important state officers. For an off-year convention an unusual amount of interest is displayed. This is due chiefly to the fact that it is the first state convention of the year and the platform it adopts is expected to have national significance. The question asked on all sides today is: "What will the convention have to say regarding the Payne-Aldrich tariff measure and the Taft administration?"

Senator Beveridge, who will be the chairman of the convention and will probably deliver the only speech of the day, is to be a candidate for reelection before the legislature which will be elected next November. The last legislature elected a democrat, Benjamin F. Shiveley, to the United States senate to succeed the republican senator, Hemenway. The democrat victory of two years ago has given that party increased confidence and the republican leaders realize that any serious mistake on their part in regard to platform or candidates is almost sure to result in another democratic victory.

At the very outset they find themselves in a serious dilemma, for even the most consummate and adroit politicians in the republican party cannot figure out how tomorrow's convention can endorse the tariff bill without repudiating Senator Beveridge. The situation is identical with that in half a dozen other states of the west, including Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Minnesota, where a sharp line of cleavage now is drawn between the insurgent republicans and the administration.

If it comes to the point whether either the tariff bill or Senator Beveridge must go overboard, it is perfectly safe to assert that the tariff measure and not the senator will be sacrificed. The Beveridge followers will be in absolute control of the convention, so that there is little doubt but that the convention will strongly indorse the action of the Indiana senator on the tariff bill. Senator Beveridge, it will be recalled, stood firmly for revision downward and finally voted against the tariff bill. The people of Indiana are strong for revision downward, and the republican leaders believe that Senator Beveridge has laid a firm foundation for victory.

It is possible that the convention may decide it to be the wisest course, after giving Senator Beveridge a ringing indorsement, to also indorse President Taft's administration, without any specific mention of the tariff question. This would act as a stop to the standpatters and would also be calculated to make it easier sledding for the republicans in the coming campaign, for it is reported on good authority that if the convention is too radical in its resolutions Senator Beveridge will not have the financial support of the old-time heavy and steady contributors to the Indiana campaign fund in his race for reelection.

The general feeling is that if former Senator Hemenway, former Representative Watson and other republican leaders who are regarded as anti-Beveridge men are not satisfied with what the convention is willing to give them, then Senator Beveridge will take the bull by the horns and make anti-Aldrichism and tariff revision the chief slogan of the campaign, regardless of the effect that such action may have on national republican politics.

Viewed from my standpoint the resolutions committee in tomorrow's convention will have an unpleasant and difficult task to perform. If the platform be devoted wholly to local questions, as some advise, the democrats are sure to pitch their platform upon a national basis, attacking the tariff law and republicanism generally. If the republican platform wades into national questions and does not support the Payne law and republicanism as construed by President Taft and the majority, then the president and those with him will have little sympathy with the battle in Indiana, and it will be a pretty safe bet also that Hemenway, Watson, Durbin and other wheel horses of the republican party in the state will not lay awake nights worrying over Beveridge's chances of reelection.

FOLLOWING THE BAND.

Paganry Appeals to the Negro's Tropical Imagination.
Once upon a time a Philadelphia lawyer came south. He had a pair of big spectacles, an inquisitive mind, and he wanted to know, says Harris Dickson in Success Magazine. With his southern friend he was hurrying to the courthouse. A negro parade blocked the street—negroes in carriages, on horseback, on foot; negroes with swords and axes, stumpy negroes with Masonic banners, lean negroes with Pythian devices, fat negroes with Odd Fellows' insignias, miscellaneous negroes with miscellaneous emblems.

The Philadelphian pushed through the crowd and ran back in great excitement. "What's it all about? What are they doing?"
The southerner couldn't explain, but beckoned to a very intelligent young negro—who, by the way, was a prominent politician—and asked, "Tom, what's the occasion for all this parade?"
The young negro laughed. "How, 1848, you ought to know dat a nigger don't need no 'cession for a parade."
Tom had spoken in English. Paganry appeals to the negro's tropical imagination. Churches and lodges furnish most of the social life that he knows. He does not ask why the brass band is playing. He keeps step with the fellow that beats the drum and is happy.

DANCING ROLAND.

A Scotch Shepherd's Remedy For All Kinds of Maladies.

A highland shepherd, one Donald MacAlpin, a famous dancer, was reported to have cured the malady of a mysterious malady by means of dancing. He reel with her, and this story being spread abroad gained him the reputation of being a successful physician. His humble cottage in Stockmuick, overlooking Strathguy, was besieged with crowds of patients who hoped to get rid of their ailments by a dance with Donald. The shepherd did not hesitate to take advantage of this stroke of good luck and soon had a large and thriving practice.

The treatment adopted was very simple, the main features being as follows: In cases of indigestion moderate doses of medicated "aqua" were taken, followed by the ceum shull, or promenade step. For catarrh Donald prescribed in order to produce perspiration a large dose of gruel mixed with honey and butter, followed by ceum crask, or highland fling. All the different processes terminated in the patient being well wrapped up in warm blankets, and the doses of medicine and dancing were repeated, according to the patient's constitution and the nature of his disease.—British Medical Journal.

The Telephone and Julius Caesar.

Julius Caesar missed a great deal in not knowing the telephone or at least in not using it if he knew it. One can see the telephone engineer attached to the Roman postoffice endeavoring, but without avail, to get an instrument installed at the capitol and at the palace. "I am instructed by the emperor to say that he does not desire these barbarian novelties, and so Thomas Alva Edisonus need not call again with his magician's apparatus." A signal blunder! We can imagine what would have happened. "Hello, 2187 Tiber! Is it thou, Artemidorus? I understand thou rangest me up this morning. What? Details of a plot? Go not to the senate today? Beware of Brutus? Go not near Casca? Right, and I thank thee, Artemidorus. I will have an extra guard put on instantly and the conspirators arrested." And so, though Artemidorus was unable to give his warning in the street, he gave it over the telephone, and Caesar's valuable life and with it the fortune of Rome were saved.—St. James' Gazette.

A Gloomy African Pool.

There is a large, deep and mysterious pool in the valley of the upper Kafue river, northwestern Rhodesia. This wonderful pool lies in flat country, and one comes to it quite suddenly, its banks being concealed by dense forest. There is a small native village near the pool, and the inhabitants have a superstitious dread of it. They refuse to drink the water or use it for any purpose whatever. To sit beside this still, pellucid pool of unknown depth, surrounded by precipitous walls in the heart of the tropical forest, would induce a feeling of awe in the breast of even the most civilized man.—London Mail.

Sport and Athletics in America.

Sport and athletics in America are vastly different terms. Sport should be play, not work. Athletics as practiced in general are too strenuous, too spectacular and too exclusive. We are not an athletic nation. Far from it. We talk athletics, but there is too much grand stand and too little actual participation in games.—Malcolm Kenneth Gordon in Century.

Poetic Justice:

"Pa, did you ever hear of a real case of poetic justice?"
"Yes. A man who once swindled me out of $600 in an irrigation scheme died of water on the brain."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Not a Bit Conceited.

Husband—How conceited you are, Ed! You're always looking at yourself in the glass. Wife—I'm sure I am not. I don't think I'm half as pretty as I really am.—Illustrated Bits.

The kingdom of Prussia gets out of its cultivated forests over $26,000,000 a year.

The Dog Question in Palestine.
Among many incidents of his wanderings through Palestine, recounted by Harry Franck in the Century, is this:

"An American who was in Nazareth long ago," said a native, "told me a strange story. I did not believe him, for it cannot be true. He said that in America people buy dogs." And the mere suggestion of so ludicrous a transaction sent the assembled group into paroxysms of laughter.

"They do," I replied.
The potpourri ex-mayor fell into such convulsions of merriment that his rosy face grew the color of burnished copper.

"Buy dogs?" roared his sons in a chorus of several languages. "But what for?"

Never having settled that question entirely to my own satisfaction, I parried it with another. "How do you get a dog if you want one?"

"W-w-w-why," answered the eldest son, wiping the tears from his eyes. "If any one wants a dog he tells some one else, and they give him one. But whoever wants a dog?"

The Widow Was Comforted.

"There is no accounting for the construction which some people will put upon certain passages of Scripture," remarked a clergyman. "I remember the story of one clergyman who went to call on a woman whose husband had recently died. He had expected, quite naturally, to find her heartbroken with the burden of her sorrow and was greatly surprised when she greeted him with a very happy smile and ushered him into the parlor."
"Well—er—sister," he said at length, "you have my warmest sympathy."

"Thank you, doctor," replied the widow casually. "I did feel very bad, very bad indeed. But I came across a verse of Scripture which comforted me very much indeed."

"And what was the verse, sister?" inquired the clergyman.

"I don't remember just where to find it," replied the widow, "but it was made up of only four words—four helpful words—'Why need I care?'"

Esquimo Courtship.

If European death scenes astonish, the consenting "Yes" of a bride at marriage shocks an Eskimo woman. Not only must a bride show herself unconsenting; she must, if she respects herself and tribal traditions, scream and struggle with all her might when her wooer or his envoy enters her family residence and, laying hold upon her, drags her, usually by the topknot, to her new home. She may be presented with a new lamp and water pail by her bridegroom, and she is as a general thing mightily pleased at her change of estate. But she is far too circumspect to show her pleasure or affection and keeps up a noisy demonstration until she feels that she has done all that a well bred maiden should do. If she does not exercise proper discrimination in this matter her lord sometimes scratches the soles of her feet so that she cannot run away to her parents.—Harper's Bazar.

Turner's Little Afterthought.

An English critic's reference to Turner's fine picture "The Wreck Buoy" reminds a faithful newspaper reader of a curious anecdote in connection with it. When Turner first sent this picture to the Royal academy it was hung among several brilliantly colored pictures. On varnishing day Turner found the effect of his dull gray rendering of a stormy sea altogether spoiled by its bright surroundings. Without a moment's hesitation he painted in the lighted buoy in the foreground, and its dab of crimson light showed so brilliantly in its gloomy setting that Turner's picture became the prominent one, and its rivals on each side were cast into the shade. It is curious, if true, that the most noticeable feature of the picture should have been an afterthought.—Boston Transcript.

The Shrewd Banker.

Thirteen years ago a banker lent a farmer $1,000 with which to buy stock. The farmer, of course, gave his note. The borrower lost on the stock deal and had hard luck generally, so he couldn't pay the note. Later he went away, and after many years he made good again and returned. The banker tried to collect his note, but it was outlawed by a lapse of thirteen years. One day the banker stopped at the man's farm and admired his fine pumpkins. The farmer made him a present of two large ones.

"I'll just credit these pumpkins on your old note," the banker said.
"All right," the farmer said.
That revived the obligation. The banker brought suit and recovered in full for the note and interest.—Kansas City Star.

Life's Limits.

All indications point to the fact that less than ten miles below our feet a red heat is maintained permanently and within twenty a white heat. Ten miles above us we have the pitiless cold, far below zero, of interplanetary space. To what a narrow zone of delicately balanced temperature is life confined?

Long Drawn Out.

Judge—What is your name? Prisoner—J. J. J. John Jones. Judge—Why do you have so many J's in your name? Prisoner—The preacher who christened me stuttered, sir.—London Answers.

Very Annoying.

"It is annoying to watch for a train that's late."
"Yes, and it is even more annoying to wait for a train that was discontinued the week before."—Washington Herald.

Scenes and Principals of the Storm Center at Rome Today Around Roosevelt

TO VOTE ON PROHIBITION.

"Wets" and "Drys" Clash in Michigan Today.
Detroit, Mich., April 4.—In thirty-six counties of Michigan elections are to be held today, at which the "wets" and the "drys" oppose each other to decide upon the question of local option. Twenty-six of these counties are voting for the first time on local option today and all of them have heretofore been "wet." The remaining ten counties have been "dry" and in these counties the question re-submitted to the popular vote today.
The Anti-Saloon League has been carrying on a vigorous campaign in all the counties in which local option is to be voted on and the leaders of the "drys" express themselves confident that not only will the ten counties in which the question is to be re-submitted, adhere to local option, but that also a majority of the other counties will decide to become "dry." The opponents of local option prohibition, on the other hand, are equally confident of their success. They believe that the liberal element among the voters will predominate and will refuse to support the local option proposition, which is said to have given little satisfaction in the ten counties where it has been tried.

Fraud Trial in Copenhagen.

Copenhagen, April 4.—The trial of Mons. Christensen, at one time Minister of War and Marine, and Mons. Berg, former Minister of the Interior, on charges of fraud, began today. The former cabinet officers are alleged to have been implicated in the colossal frauds of Peter A. Alberti, former Minister of Justice, who confessed in 1908 to the embezzlement of about $3,000,000 from a bank whose patrons were chiefly poor peasants. Alberti is said to have lost the money through rash investments in American stocks.

Blames Tariff for Prices.

New York City.—"The Payne-Aldrich tariff and not the over production of gold or any other reason, is directly responsible for the high cost of living," declared Senator Gore of Oklahoma in a lecture in the Hudson theatre under the auspices of the League of Political Education.
The blind senator declared that in the last 18 years prices have increased 61 per cent; in the last 18 months 19 per cent and the last seven months more than 7 per cent.
He argued that the price of American food products had not advanced in other countries was a good enough proof that the increased cost of living in America is owing to the tariff. He quoted statistics showing that flour sold in Montreal at $5.75 a barrel, while in Boston the price is $7.50.
"All the tariff accomplishes today," said Senator Gore, "is to enable one man to get without earning what another man earns without getting."
The senator declared that the Senate committee, which is now to report that the cost of living has not increased, could not be relied upon, although "much expert testimony" had been heard. That the cost of living actually had increased could be proven by any poor man, who, if he bought a blanket, would have to pay $2.61 for it. Of this sum the senator affirmed $1 was for the blanket and $1.61 for protection against the foreigner.
Hon. Cone Johnson argues that statutory prohibition is constitutional, thus overruling very many of the ablest and most disinterested jurists in the state. If Cone can line up the pros and land the governorship, it won't make much difference to him of the supreme court should knock such a statute in the head. Cone wants the governorship a good deal worse than he wants prohibition.—Corpus Christi Caller.

THE ARKANSAS ELECTION.

Gov. Donaghey Heads Democratic Ticket for Another Term.
Complete returns from the election held in Arkansas on March 30th show the renomination of Gov. Donaghey for the customary second term by a majority of about 40,000 over C. C. Kavanaugh out of a total of about 100,000 votes cast.
The complete state ticket to be voted on in September is as follows:
For governor—Geo. W. Donaghey.
For Secretary of State—Earle W. Hodges, defeating Guy B. Tucker.
For attorney general—Hal L. Norwood, no opposition for second term.
For auditor—John R. Jobe, no opposition for second term.
For treasurer—J. W. Crockett, defeating J. L. Yates for second term.
For land commissioner—R. G. Dye, no opposition.
For agricultural commissioner—Fred Phillips, defeating A. W. Estes.
For supreme judge—W. E. Kirby, former attorney general, defeating T. D. Crawford, supreme court reporter.
The following were nominated for Congress, all of them being old members except W. S. Goodwin, who defeated R. M. Wallace, and H. M. Jacoway, who succeeds C. C. Reid, who was not a candidate:
R. B. Macon, W. A. Oldfield, J. C. Floyd, Joe T. Robinson, W. M. Cravens, H. M. Jacoway and W. S. Goodwin.

"UNCLE JOE" MORALIZES.

Seat in Congress is a Trying Position, Says Mr. Cannon.
Washington.—In the solemnity of a service in memory of a departed colleague, Speaker Cannon in the house talked of the trials met by public men in dealing with popular opinion and speculated upon the mysteries of the hereafter.
"One of the most trying positions in the country" said Mr. Cannon, "is to serve as a member of this house—the popular body."
Mr. Cannon then referred to opinions of constituents which representatives have to take into account and to the "two percent of the constituency that may change and send somebody else to Congress."
"Not only," he said, "have we a patriotic desire to serve the best interests of the country, but to be personally endorsed, and at times there is great temptation to try to please the two percent or five percent, taking it for granted that the balance of the constituents will be for us anyway. I doubt if there is a man in the house who does not take into consideration the storms that come."
Then turning to the question of the great unknown future, Mr. Cannon said:
"We cannot tell as to the future any more than we can tell of the past," this reference being to his remarks concerning men's success or failure in their careers. "We cannot conceive of an indestructible entity having had a beginning. It is a great mystery. You may speculate about it, but you can never settle it. I think more and more it is consensus of opinion that each entity makes its own place in the hereafter."
