It's not surprising that a lot of Texans don't know anything about the 16 proposed constitutional amendments that will be on the ballot in Tuesday's election.

But it's mind-boggling to me that many Texans don't even know there's going to be an election. Man-on-the-street interviews throughout the state have brought out that fact in recent days.

The News has tried to make sure all of our readers have the chance to know what the proposed constitutional amendments are about. Last week's issue included the non-partisan Voters Guide, compiled by the League of Women Voters of Texas, which explains each amendment and gives the pro-and-con arguments on each one. (We have plenty of extra copies of the Voters Guide at the News office if you need another one.)

We'll even tell you how to vote if you want us to. We're devoting our entire Op-Ed Page in this issue to the proposed amendments, giving our recommendation on each. Basically, we're opposing Amendments 1, 2, 4 and 11, and favoring all the rest.

It's especially important to our county to see Amendment 16 passed. That's the amendment to authorize up to $100 million more in bonds and notes to finance the Texas Agricultural Fund.

MW Carrot here has benefited from a TAF loan. And sources close to the proposed Rubinoff Processing project tell me that Ronald Rubinoff is looking to the TAF as a possible source of part of his financing.

Be sure to make your voice heard Tuesday. Democracy doesn't work as well without your vote.

Expo Building. Rice and Pohlmeier received the Gold Star Award, the highest recognition at the county level for 4-H'ers who perform exemplary work.

Rice, Pohlmeier win honors

Karmen Pohlmeier and Brandi Rice received the Gold Star Awards at the Castro County 4-H Achievement Banquet on Monday at the Expo Building.

The 4-H'ers received the top awards and were among almost 100 county youths who were honored Monday. Also receiving awards were adult leaders and the Dimmitt Young Farmers, who received the Friends of 4-H Award for their work with the Castro County Junior Livestock Show, Dana Wall Memorial Scholarship and other programs which have helped 4-H'ers through the years.

Pohlmeier was honored for her work throughout her 4-H career and her outstanding work in 1992-93. Pohlmeier was first high point senior and high point overall in last year's county food show; first in the county fashion show; third in the district fashion show; and completed a record book in Home Economics Achievement.

She has participated in several contests and stock shows, attended 4-H Leadership Camp, and has participated in several community charity projects. Much of her work includes leading younger 4-H'ers in the Dimmitt-Bethel 4-H Club, county council and other activities.

"When I began my 4-H career, my responsibilities consisted of attending a regular Food and Nutrition and Clothing Class," she wrote in her Gold Star application. "Little did I know that instead of simply attending these classes, I would be teaching them in the future."

She has helped junior 4-H'ers with the food and fashion shows, and has trained volunteers for the YES program.

Rice, 15, is a seven-year veteran of 4-H and is the president of the county 4-H Council. She received first place awards in the county for her Santa Fe record book and at the county food show and fashion show. She won first place in the District II Fashion Revue and placed sixth at state.

Rice has participated in six food shows, five fashion shows and two method demonstrations during her 4-H career, and has been busy with concessions stands, volunteer work at Canterbury Villa, and other work in the community.

Brandi has served as a junior leader in several workshops and has been an active participant in countywide 4-H activities, as well as in the Dimmitt-Bethel 4-H Club.

"I have really enjoyed being in 4-H, not only as a participant, but also as a young leader," Rice wrote in her application. "4-H has allowed me the opportunity to share what I have learned with others, not only in 4-H but in other events, too."

Kodie Bagley received the "I Dare You" Award from County Commissioner Jeff Robertson.

Bagley was honored for her leadership skills as an officer in her

Trick or treat, time changes Sunday morning

If you're tired of seeing dark skies when you awake in the morning, you'll be even happier Sunday when Daylight Savings Time officially ends at 2 a.m.

If you're a fan of extra sleep, you're in even better shape: you'll get to sack in an extra hour Sunday, provided you remember to set your clocks and watches BACK an hour before you go to bed Saturday.

Under the provisions of federal law, we've been in Daylight Savings Time since the first Sunday in April; the Oct. 31 time change is the latest we can go under current law.

The time will change again the first Sunday in April.

Forum will address school changes

Community forums will be held Nov. 9 to allow Dimmitt-area residents to present ideas for education in the Dimmitt public schools.

Forums about "Raising Expectations to Meet Real World Needs" are being held throughout Texas through early November to understand the needs of the business world.

A general community forum will be held Nov. 9 at Rhoads Memorial Library. The English-speaking session is at 5:30 p.m., with a Spanish-speaking session at 7:30 p.m. Students and teachers will be participating in forums today (Thursday), and special speakers on the forums will address upcoming meetings of Dimmitt's Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs.

"Our graduates in 1993 were the best educated seniors we have ever produced in Texas," said Gainell Minnick, curriculum director for the Dimmitt Independent School District and one of the coordinators of the forums. "We still hear people in the job market saying our graduates are not ready for the job market."

Despite numerous changes since 1983, including state mandates on essential elements and testing, Minnick said students are lagging four or five years behind the rapidly-changing world of technology.

"Some say return to basics, but that won't cut it anymore," Minnick said. "Our basic English, and basic math are stronger. We would like to be able to furnish students who are employable and productive immediately in the job market, who are also ready to pursue higher education or whatever else they choose to do.

"We are making gains, but not fast enough."

Minnick said the forums are designed to find out exactly what skills employers are seeking from high school graduates.

"We want solid answers so we can build a new, solid structure," Minnick said. "We feel everyone in the community can contribute. If anyone feels students aren't prepared, they need to attend a forum and tell us. We definitely want to address all of the needs people in the community have, and how our graduates can meet those needs."

Voters to decide on 16 amendments

Sixteen proposed constitutional amendments are on the ballot Tuesday as voters decide on changes to the state constitution.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Tuesday. Early voting will continue through 5 p.m. Friday at the county clerk's office in the courthouse in Dimmitt. County Clerk Joy Jones said voting had been light.

The propositions include four proposals concerning general obligation or revenue bonds for projects; new guidelines for denying bail to persons charged with certain crimes; three issues concerning county surveyors; a proposal for a state exemption on some new property tax burdens for businesses; an amendment to clear up a land title claim; new regulations concerning sheriffs and stocks; and changes in the amount of time to redeem real property sold at a tax sale.

The issue drawing the most attention is Amendment 4, which would prohibit a personal income tax without voter approval, and dedicated funds from an income tax to education and reduction of local property taxes.

A Voters Guide was included in the Oct. 14 issue of the News to help voters make informed decisions. To further help voters, the News has endorsed votes for and against amendments; the endorsements are included on today's editorial page.

The editorials indicate the consensus of the News staff and were written by John Brooks.

- Voting places Tuesday include:
- Precinct 1, Hart Golden Group Building.
 - Precinct 2, Drivers License Office, courthouse.
 - Precinct 3, District Courtroom, courthouse.
 - Precinct 4, Adult Probation Office, courthouse.
 - Precinct 6, Flagg Fertilizer.
 - Precinct 7, Frio Baptist Church.
 - Precinct 8, Nazareth Community Building.

TDH asks county to help with rent

A group of local nurses and Cheryl Pybus have asked Castro County to help pay cost of rent on a building to house the Texas Dept. of Health.

The group approached the commissioners' court during Monday's regular meeting.

"We are visiting with different taxing entities about the possibility of keeping Texas Dept. of Health in Dimmitt," said Pybus, who operates a day care center and preschool in Dimmitt.

Pybus said TDH is not associated with South Plains Health Provider, it is just housed in the same building complex.

"South Plains Health Provider wants Texas Dept. of Health out (of its current building), because they (South Plains Health Provider) are enlarging and plan to incorporate more things," Pybus said.

That means Texas Dept. of Health, which is a "well-clinic" offering immunizations, physicals, blood pressure and cholesterol checks, etc., has to find a new home.

"The Texas Dept. of Health does a lot we don't realize," Pybus said.

"A lot of the older people here go for their blood and cholesterol screenings. So we're not only helping young kids by offering immunizations."

Pybus said TDH will be able to pay for utilities, it just needs help with rent money.

TDH has looked at the vacant office next to Baggett Chiropractic Center on Jones Street, Pybus said.

"We think that facility, with the available parking spaces in front and back, would be a good area for us. Right now I think we're looking at rent of $500 per month."

County Judge Polly Simpson said the county would consider helping with expenses, but the court would have to know exactly how much would be required each month before any decision could be made.

Commissioners also heard a report on the courthouse's sprinkler system.

"We've got a lot of problems with our watering system on the lawn," said Simpson. "When we

Bobcat, Swift Bands earn 'Superior' ratings

The Bobcat and Swift Marching Bands captured Division I ratings at the Region I annual high school marching contest Saturday in Borger.

Both bands will advance to area competition Saturday in Odessa with winners there advancing to state Nov. 8 in Austin.

The Bobcat Band earned Division I rating from two judges and a Division II rating from the third judge, garnering its first superior rating since 1988.

"It was a tribute to how hard these kids worked," said DHS Band director Michael Johnson. "We did not have a summer band program and spent most of the summer trying to find an assistant director. Dale Pfrimmer and I and the kids worked very hard from the first of the school year, the first football game, to get to where we were Saturday to earn a First Division rating."

Judges O.T. Ryan of Plainview, Danny Norris of Frenship and Richard Herrera praised the band for its spunkiness, its energy and for its sound despite being the smallest band (46 persons march in the band) in the 3A contest.

"Of course we're delighted with the first division, but we told the kids Monday while we were listening to our performance and the judge's taped comments that we can't quit here," Johnson said. "It would be easy for us to sink back to the level where we were. The mark of a good band is being able to continue to work towards improvement, and we still have work to do."

The Swift Band earned top ratings from each of the three judges Saturday.

"I always enjoy watching the Nazareth Band. You get better every time I see you," commented Norris.

Ryan said he really enjoyed the Swift Band's percussion feature and said the band did a "really good job of marching."

Herrera termed the Swift Band "overall good. You show pride in the organization."

The Swift Band featured 39 members during Saturday's contest and 27 of those are junior high students. Drum major is junior Karmen Pohlmeier and the band is directed by Roger Myers.

Nazareth and Miami were the only Class A schools to earn straight I ratings from the three-judge panel.

On the Go

With Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

The children of Alvin and Frances Frazier hosted a 50th wedding anniversary party Saturday at the Frazier's home. The hosts included Landol Frazier of Decatur, Cara Dearing of Hereford and Jerry Frazier of Dimmitt.

A wedding cake and punch were served from one table and pickup foods from another table. I visited with Buster and Mearle Morgan of Bovina and Wilton Ivey Armstrong and her husband from Hale Center.

Out-of-town guests included Herbert Schoenrock of Levelland; Joe and Vickie Bennett and Alvie and Kathy Ivey of Lubbock; Lucile Hicks, Cassandra Waldrop and Weldon and Grace Findley of Littlefield; Sarah Blackburn of Arlington; and June Dearing and Fate and Dorothy Shannon of Hereford.

Jackie McLeroy, Rosa Acker and Aural Davis spent two days in Abilene visiting with Jackie's lifelong friend, Martha Pender. They attended Martha's performance as "Bloody Mary" in the delightful play, "South Pacific," at the newly-opened Rococo Dinner Theatre. They really enjoyed the Polynesian food that was served in coordination with the setting of the play.

This weekend was Homecoming at all three universities in Abilene. They went by McMurry and saw all the Indian tepees put up on the lawn for the occasion. It was a fun two days.

Leeida and Randy Stephens recently returned from an eight-day vacation to Arizona. While in the Coolidge and Phoenix areas, Leeida visited with her mother, Myril White; her brother, Jack White; her sister, Tommie Ware; and several nieces, nephews and friends. While out driving around they found a brand-new park built alongside a mountain, and enjoyed a picnic one day.

Cathy Thames and her second grade class and Dorothy Sheffy walked to the museum Friday. It was a beautiful day after the rain and the students enjoyed the museum tour. Some of them saw items that their grandparents had donated.

Dugan Butler was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club at the Senior Citizens Center. Dugan served pecan pie, and others brought their brown bag lunch. Emily Clingsmith won high score and Ina Rae Cates won second-high score. Others playing were Virginia Crider, Bernice Hill, Ferne Dickey, Louise Mears, Cleo Forson, Helen Braafladt, Edith Graef, Johnnie Vannoy, Alma Kenmore, Mary Small, Elizabeth Huckabay, Gladys Brown and Mattie Swirczynski.

Women playing Skip-Bo were Inez Lee, Mary Lou Frazier, Lily Kunetka, Nell Davis and Ocie Bolton.

Kay Davis, marketing representative for Southwestern Public Service from Lubbock, conducted a Festive Foods Cooking School on Thursday at Rhoads Memorial Library. Co-sponsored by the Castro County Extension Service, the school included delicious dishes served to the women who attended. The theme was "Western," so she used some of her parents' dishes to serve the food. The centerpiece was a large basket filled with vegetables, cotton stalk and little miniature covered wagons. Each dish was identified by a small wooden cutout of Texas.

The Llanos Altos Association's annual meeting was held Oct. 19 at First Baptist Church in Dimmitt. James Hancock is the director of missions, Ciro Garcia is the associate director of missions and the Rev. Paul Kenley is the moderator.

Stacy Conner, pastor at Muleshoe, gave the doctrinal message. Stacy's wife is the former Debbie Dobbs. Special music was by Lindsey Bloodworth, Bill Newland and Wayne Proffitt. A fried chicken meal was served to 75 persons.

A lovely bridal shower was given for Stephanie Farris, bride-elect of Kyle Schilling, in the home of Mrs. Glyn Reed in Hart on Saturday morning. Several persons from Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth attended. It was good to see so many friends we have known all through the years, including Carol Cowsert Farris of Dalhart. Stephanie Farris and her mother, Suzanne Farris; Kyle's mother, Edna Schilling; and Mrs. Reed greeted guests. Pickup foods were served with punch and coffee.

Castro County Farm Bureau held its annual convention Saturday night with Charles Summers presiding. Don Moore gave a financial report and a plaque was presented to Tommy Stanton. Jenifer Fuller of Dimmitt and Chad Evans of Hart gave reports on the Citizenship Seminar they attended last summer.

Kenneth Chambers, "The Cellular Cowboy," was the special entertainment. He was very entertaining and enthusiastic. He said enthusiasm reflects confidence, and teamwork makes a difference, so take time to make a difference. Kenneth and his wife, Patti, live in Dawn. A delicious meal of brisket, tossed salad, baked potato and hot rolls was served, and dessert was homemade ice cream made by the wives of the board members. We visited with Pam Anthony Honea of Amarillo.

Bea Hardy celebrated her 80th birthday with a reception Sunday at the Senior Citizens Center. Her children, Sam Hardy, Patsy Rae Hokit and Don Hardy hosted this special occasion. The serving table was pretty with a beautiful flower arrangement, a colorful birthday cake and refreshing punch. We enjoyed visiting with George and Aundrea Frye of Summerfield while we were there.

Lois Scott celebrated her 88th birthday on Sunday in the home of Ben and Mollie Scott. Krystal Clearman, Anessa Scott and Ben Scott Jr., assisted with host duties. Fall colors were used in decorations on the serving table and the pretty birthday cake. Pickup foods were served to the many guests who went by to wish Lois "Happy Birthday."

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Axe of Vega; Mr. and Mrs. Warrick and Marguerite Cole of Frio; and Robert and Vickie Dobbins, Edgar and Loleta Vinson, Wanda Lytle, Peggie Fox and Eleanor Gibson of Hereford. Lois received several long-distance calls and Darla Stewart called Monday morning and sang "Happy Birthday." Klay Clearman, the great-grandson, made his presence known as well.

The youth were in charge of the Sunday morning service at First Baptist Church. John Shultz gave the invocation; Amanda Odom played The Old Rugged Cross on the flute accompanied by Walter Maynard; Chad Ellis played a piano solo, Who Is On the Lord's Side; Ty Annen read the scripture; and Debra Ball sang When Praise Demands a Sacrifice. Teachers in the Youth Department are Glen Black, Sue Summers, Max Newman, Debra Ball, Jerry Annen and David Schaeffer.

J.O. Strother of San Angelo, brother of Raleigh Strother of Dimmitt, gave a gospel music service Sunday night at First Baptist. He is a composer and uses much of his own music in his concerts. Phyllis Mooney accompanied him on the piano. J.O. was a music director at the church and a school teacher in the mid-1940s in Dimmitt. Jack Howell was one of his students here.

Bill and Deanne Clark have just returned from babysitting the Brewer children in Wilmette, Ill., just outside Chicago. Tonya and Kirk went to Spain for vacation, and the Clarks outfitted two of the children in ice hockey uniforms and took them to school and church.

On Columbus Day, the Clarks and the children drove to Naponnee, Ind., to view Amish country. The Amish are still settled there and manage their polished clean farms and ride their bicycles and horse-drawn buggies. A former Amish farm is now used for tours

Tuesday's rain measured 1.20, but didn't hamper sugar beet digging but a few days. Digging for the Gilbreaths started Oct. 1 and they are still digging. Harvest is going good and the beets look good. On Nov. 1 they can deliver six days a week, 12 hours a day if weather permits.

Brian and Melinda Thomas moved into their new house in Plainview, Thursday through Saturday, with the help of LaWanda Wilson and Brian's parents from Hereford.

Cindy Clatt and children, Rachel and Chase, surprised her grandparents, Embree Roy and Willie Mae Sadler, Friday by flying to Lubbock. They stayed until Monday evening. The Sadlers met them at the plane and took them back to the plane.

Codi Gilbreath got the pin out of his arm and a smaller cast on Saturday in Lubbock after a trampoline accident about a month ago. He first went to Dimmitt and was sent to Lubbock. It was his left arm.

Rev. A.C. Hamilton filled the pulpit Sunday and Sunday night. Mrs. Hamilton accompanied him.

Teeny Bowden attended the afternoon session of the annual Llanos Altos Association meeting as a messenger. Ruth and Tom Parson sat behind her and they got to visit some. They said to tell everyone here hello for them, and that they thought of us a lot. They are not caring for foster children anymore, but still have Albert and one girl. Tom said when they took away the privilege to discipline them, he had gone as far as he could go. Some of the people who made the ruling should check the Parson record of success over many years, and with many children at one time.

No one from the church got to go to Dallas this week as messengers though four were elected to the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

David and Gay Sadler and her mother, Ruth King of Hereford, drove to El Paso Saturday to see Gay's brother, Bobby, and his wife, Barbara, who live in Alaska. They had come when Barbara's father had a stroke. He is still in the hospital and paralyzed on the right side. They came back Sunday.

Op-Ed

opinions, editorials, letters, features

Amendment 1: Against

Despite the apparent good intentions of Amendment 1, the News must urge a vote AGAINST the proposition.

The wording of the amendment sounds good: the state wants to provide a $50 million fund to help the state's economy, and we're going to help historically under-utilized business.

However, the actual enabling wording of the amendment is too open-ended. The amendment doesn't specify whether these funds will be lent or given in grants.

The amendment also would call for establishment of a new agency, or new department in an agency. But what agency? The amendment doesn't say.

When this amendment was first proposed in the state legislature, the Senate passed it, but the House turned it down. Too ambiguous, and too unruly, the opponents said. Who's going to decide who needs help? What are the criteria?

Let us see some rules, see how this would work, and we might change our mind later. But the way the amendment is currently worded, we must urge a vote against Amendment 1.

Amendment 2: Against

Amendment 2 was established as part of an answer to the high cost of doing business. The cost in this case is going higher thanks to our friends at the Environmental Protection Agency.

The News urges a vote AGAINST Amendment 2.

The amendment raises an immediate red flag: The determination of what businesses might receive exemptions from additional property taxes wouldn't be determined by some local board, but by the Texas Natural Resources Conservation Commission.

We believe decisions concerning any property tax abatement need to be made here, not in Austin. Some sources estimate approximately $2.8 billion in property value would be exempted from tax rolls. We do not need a state agency making abatement and exemption decisions about property worth that much.

Businesses do not have a right to pollute. Pollution is not much of a problem around here, but when you go to the city, you can tell there is a problem. A significant amount of the pollution is caused by industry, and we believe industries should not receive a tax break to install something to prevent what they shouldn't be doing to begin with.

The News says NO to Amendment 2.

Amendment 3: For

Amendment 3 will settle claims by the state dating back to the days of yore, back when Stephen F. Austin was a young man.

This amendment would clear the title to 428 acres in Fort Bend and Austin counties, relinquishing state claims going back to when John McCormick received a grant from Austin in 1824.

The current clouded title to the land impacts 146 families who have, in good faith, paid taxes on and made improvements to the land.

The only fair vote is a vote FOR Amendment 3.

Amendment 4: Against

When you see the words income tax, local tax relief and education together in a sentence, you need to hold the paper with one hand and your pocketbook with the other.

While the proposition looks like it might have some merit, the News strongly urges a vote AGAINST Amendment 4.

We oppose the amendment because:

--While we don't want a state income tax any more than anyone else, we believe that limiting a future state income tax solely to funding education may be wrong. We could be handicapping ourselves in the future by limiting a state personal income tax to funding education.

--We would rather pay taxes LOCALLY to LOCAL entities, and not to a statewide fund. The state has not been responsible with its school funding for many years, with districts receiving less than the promised amount from the state. Our county school districts have received only a pro-rata share of funds from the state as the coffers run dry. Wouldn't it be better to have most of the funds on hand locally, instead of in a statewide pool created by a personal income tax? Of course.

The legislators who wrote this amendment did a great job: they are dangling the education carrot before us, and many voters across the state are no doubt slobbering all over themselves ready to vote for this. We believe the amendment is wrong on its face, an attempt by the legislature to duck its responsibility and pawn the decision about a state income tax off on the voters. If the amendment passes and things don't work out, the representatives can come back and say, well, we were just doing what the voters told us to do.

This amendment is disaster in the making, and we must urge lawmakers to tackle the responsibilities we have elected them to tackle. We must urge a vote AGAINST Amendment 4.

How the NEWS votes on the amendments:

- Proposition 2: Against
- Proposition 3: For
- Proposition 4: Against
- Proposition 5: For

Amendment 5: For

Throughout the history of Texas, the county sheriff has been one of the figures you could count on for law enforcement.

But should the county sheriff be a qualified law enforcement officer? We think so, and the News urges a vote FOR Amendment 5.

The amendment would require sheriffs to obtain licensing from the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education within two years of taking office; be at least 21 years old; have at least a high school education; and have no felony convictions.

These requirements seem fair enough for anyone who wants to be a county sheriff. The sheriff is no different from any other law enforcement officer, and passing TCLEOSE instruction will provide proper safeguards for the sheriff and for the residents of the county.

Passing muster with requirements for all other peace officers should make sheriffs more effective supervisors and law enforcement officials. We urge a vote FOR Amendment 5.

Amendments 6, 8: For

While Amendments 6 and 8 are a little different, we will lump them together and urge a vote FOR the propositions.

Amendment 6 abolishes the office of surveyor in Jackson County. The office has been vacant since 1988, and the folks in Jackson county want to abolish the office.

Amendment 8 would require local voter ratification to abolish the office in McLennan County. The commissioners in the Waco area want to call an election about the issue; we should give them the right.

The News urges a vote in favor of Amendments 6 and 8.

Amendment 7: For

Amendment 7 does away with one of the reactionary prohibitions of the Texas Constitution, which was written in response to the Carpetbaggers and to the Panic of 1873. The Panic of 1873 was triggered by the default of the Credit Mobilier company, which issued $3,500 in stock for every $1,000 invested in the company.

In its reaction, the framers of the Texas Constitution made it illegal for an employer of a Texas corporation to offer stock as an employment consideration or hiring incentive. This practice is common and acceptable in other states, and there are laws on the books to prevent abuse of the practice.

We urge a vote FOR Amendment 7.

Amendment 9: For

The News urges a vote FOR Amendment 9.

Can you imagine what would happen if you bought real property at a tax sale, made improvements on the land, then had the owner come back two years later and want his land back?

Not only could it happen, it has happened. Amendment 9 would limit the time a former owner has to reclaim his property. Former owners of any type of property have up to two years to redeem their lost property. They have to pay a significant penalty, but they can still reclaim it.

Under Amendment 9, the time limit would decrease to six months. Limiting the time would encourage more participation in tax sales. Most of the property involved over the state would involve rundown buildings and old, uninhabitable houses.

We encourage a vote FOR Amendment 9.

Amendment 13: For

The Higher Education Fund was established eight years ago to help 25 Texas colleges meet needs. The amendment would extend HEF monies to the Texas State Technological College system, and we urge a vote FOR the amendment.

TSTC offers unique programs, and the Amarillo campus has served thousands of area persons with innovative programs not available anywhere else in the region.

Another big factor in allowing TSTC to share in the funds: Comptroller John Sharp says it will save us about $1.6 million annually beginning in Fiscal Year 1996. That's not much money in a budget of billions of dollars, but it's a lot to us.

TSTC officials say they will be able to do more, good, things for us with this additional funding. We urge you to vote FOR Amendment 13.

Amendment 14: For

Amendment 14 offers a slight twist to previous bond issue amendments for state prisons, and we urge a vote FOR the proposition.

We have already approved $2 billion in general obligation bonds since 1987 to build new prisons, renovate others, and to help with youth corrections and mental health/mental retardation facilities.

Amendment 14 would appropriate $258.8 million for new state jail facilities; $39.2 million for "other" corrections facilities; and $21.5 million for youth correction units.

The new state jails would house non-violent offenders in facilities less expensive than full-blown prisons. It would help county jails, which are overcrowded because of backlogs of prisoners who should be in state jails.

There is a definite need for more facilities for juvenile offenders, and funds from the bonds will also be used to refurbish and expand facilities for mentally ill persons.

We urge a vote FOR Amendment 14.

Amendment 15: For

Tired of seeing those amendments abolishing the office of county surveyor on the ballot?

A vote for Amendment 15 would do away with those trivial amendments, and we urge you to vote FOR the proposal.

By voting for the amendment, you allow the county commissioners to call an election for the purpose of abolishing the office. That way, only the people in the affected county, not all voters in the state, would decide the issue.

If the county surveyor post is abolished, commissioners would designate a county officer or employee to receive the maps, field notes and other records.

We urge you to vote FOR Amendment 15.

Amendment 16: For

A vote FOR Amendment 16 is critical for the future of Castro County and the state of Texas. We urge you to vote FOR the amendment; in fact, if you don't vote on any other amendments, it would be worth your while to go vote FOR this proposition.

The amendment, unlike Amendment No. 1, would provide funding for a program with strict rules in place. Regulations proscribe the types of businesses and other operations that may apply, eligibility guidelines, and repayment obligations. The program works, as can be seen at MW Carrot's facility east of Dimmitt, or the expansion of Hereford Bi-Products just up the road. TAFE has made $22 million in loan guarantees to 32 projects, and has just $3 million left to loan.

The program pays for itself, doesn't tie up taxpayer dollars, and strengthens the base of agribusiness across Texas. We urge you to vote FOR this important amendment.

DHS plans teleconferences

Several teleconferences have been planned for November as part of a new program at Dimmitt High School.

DHS Principal R.L. Stockstill explained DHS received a new telecommunications system (including a satellite dish) in a grant from the Texas Education Agency.

"This system allows us to do unique things by satellite for our students, faculty and community," Stockstill said. "These will be interactive, in that anyone with a question after the presentations can ask those questions by telephone and the questions will be answered as part of the program."

All programs will be held in the DHS Resource Center.

Four programs on "Cancer in the 90s" will be held, beginning

Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. The programs include colorectal cancer on Nov. 9; prostate cancer on Nov. 23; childhood sickness on Nov. 30; and avoiding breast cancer on Dec. 7.

At 7 p.m. on Nov. 16, a special teleconference will be held on the new Tech-Prep Texas program. The teleconference is designed to give parents information about the program designed for all students. Tech-Prep programs are highly popular in much of the rest of the U.S. and will be implemented in Texas by the 1994-95 school year.

"The program on Nov. 16 is designed to make parents aware of the program, and we invite all parents to come to the meeting and find out about Tech-Prep Texas," Stockstill said.

Police calls

Deputies are searching for a fence charger taken from a farm 11 miles west of Dimmitt sometime around Oct. 16.

The theft was reported Monday after a farm employee failed to report to work.

Deputies are asking for the cooperation of cattle owners in reporting cattle pastured near highways.

Deputies are also investigating a shot up water trough in the northwestern part of the county. Deputies said a high-powered rifle was used to destroy the tank.

Reports by Dimmitt police included:

--Burglary of a City of Dimmitt building, with $100 in currency and a lock stolen, and a coin box vandalized.

--Cigarettes stolen from a convenience store.

--Persons driving recklessly and while intoxicated at the Azteca complex.

--Theft of a surveying cone in the 400 block of NW Ninth.

--Assault of a 16-year-old woman in the 600 block of E. Dulin.

water, we've always got water running down the streets."

Simpson said she asked local landscape architect Van Earl Hughes to inspect the system and see if something could be done to alleviate the problem.

Hughes told commissioners that dirt has accumulated in the sprinkler heads, but added that "it is easily taken off. It just needs to be cleaned to get sprinklers where they'll work correctly."

Hughes said a couple of sprinkler heads would have to be replaced, also.

He gave the county an estimate of the cost of fixing the problem.

Commissioners said there wasn't enough money budgeted for those repairs and they would have to further study the matter.

No action was taken.

County Treasurer Oleta Raper updated commissioners on the status of worker's compensation for elected officials.

Counties are not required by law to carry worker's comp on elected officials.

But Raper said other counties are adding elected officials to their worker's comp premiums.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield Insurance, which furnishes the county's health insurance, told Raper that if an elected official was injured on the job and was not covered by worker's comp, then it (Blue Cross) would not pay for the claim. That's because a clause had been added to the premium, according to County Auditor Mareta Smithson.

"If we go back on worker's comp, what's that going to cost us? Is it in the budget?" Simpson asked. Raper said it was.

"We want to check out all our options," Simpson said. "I don't like changing every year. It seems like we're on and off again every time we turn around."

No action was taken, pending further investigation.

Shawn was honored for his work in sheep, gardening, foods, dairy, beef, poultry, public speaking and veterinary science projects for six years. He has participated in county, district and state competitions in method demonstrations.

Also receiving special recognition at the banquet was Don Sanders, named the Outstanding 4-H Leader. Sanders was honored for his four years as a leader. County council members said Sanders was always willing to help any 4-H'er with any type of problem.

Other 4-H'ers and adult leaders were also honored; stories about other participation awards are included inside today's News.

Thank You, Friends

The old gym, with its concrete seats, its nearly new floor and brand-new scoreboard that Kenneth was so proud of ...

The memories of the games—the losses and wins, the many boys who have come and gone ...

All these memories are condensed now in one plaque on the wall. It was a proud/sad/bittersweet moment for all of us.

To think of and remember the ones who were a part of these past 32 years—on the floor and then in the stands: I remember that little, skinny, red-haired kid, Charlie ... the many sweatbands that Norman wore ... that big all-arms-and-legs kid, Max ... those long, skinny, birdlegs with the rosy cheeks, Darrell ... the dedication and love we shared with all of you in this gym.

Kevin learned to walk here. Vicki broke her arm here. Beth met Darrell here. The kids called it "Granddaddy's gym." We brought him here for our last goodbye.

Thank you, friends, for this final tribute.

The bride wore a Jim Hjelm design made of white bridal silk.

The fitted bodice was covered with Alonso lace and was heavily encrusted with sequins and pearls which enhanced the portrait neckline and fitted sleeves.

She wore a full-length veil attached to a headband decorated with white silk rosebuds and pearls.

Matron of honor was Amy Collins of Westford, Mass., sister of the groom. Flower girls were Nicole Giangregorio and Jill Sullivan, nieces of the groom.

Best man was Louis Pina of Newton, Mass.

The Book Shelf
By CINDY POTTORFF
Rhoads Memorial Library

Halloween is nearly upon us. Spookiness of different types can be found in the library, no matter what the age of the reader.

Small fry may want to read (or listen to) A Dark, Dark Tale by Ruth Brown. Like many good children's stories, it begins with "Once upon a time..." and is a little scary. But the scariness is all anticipation, with nothing to give nightmares. Plus it has a surprise ending. It's good for a few giggles after all that mysterious buildup.

Hank the Cowdog: The Case of the Vampire Cat is number 21 in John Erickson's series. Hank and Mary D. Cat end up on the same side after one of Hank's mishaps. The only problem is that Mary D. Cat is weird. After awhile, Hank gets weird, too. He doesn't know whether to rely on the crazy cat for help or take his chances with the cannibal coyotes he's insulted. Things can get pretty bleak for a cowdog stranded in a blizzard with a vampire cat. It's a good book for readers of all ages, beginning around second grade.

Readers of scary stories might go for Fear! Fear! Fear! an anthology selected by Helen Hoke. Pieces such as "The Unquiet Spirit" by Jean Stubbs are introduced with short blurbs. Some classic authors are included whose sense of ghoulishness may surprise modern readers.

Houses of Stone by Barbara Michaels is a tale of gothic mystery. Is the battered manuscript English professor Karen Holloway painstakingly researches a novel or a memoir? Can Karen keep one step ahead of her academic rivals? Will the manuscript itself cause harm to her? The suspense lasts up to the last paragraph.

Anne Rice has come out with yet another book in the Vampire Chronicles, Lasher. This is the story of a coven of witches, in particular, Rowan Mayfair. Queen of the coven, she flees the demon Lasher with their child. As usual, the novel includes magic and the occult and the interplay between the human and demonic worlds, a fitting selection for All Hallow's Eve.

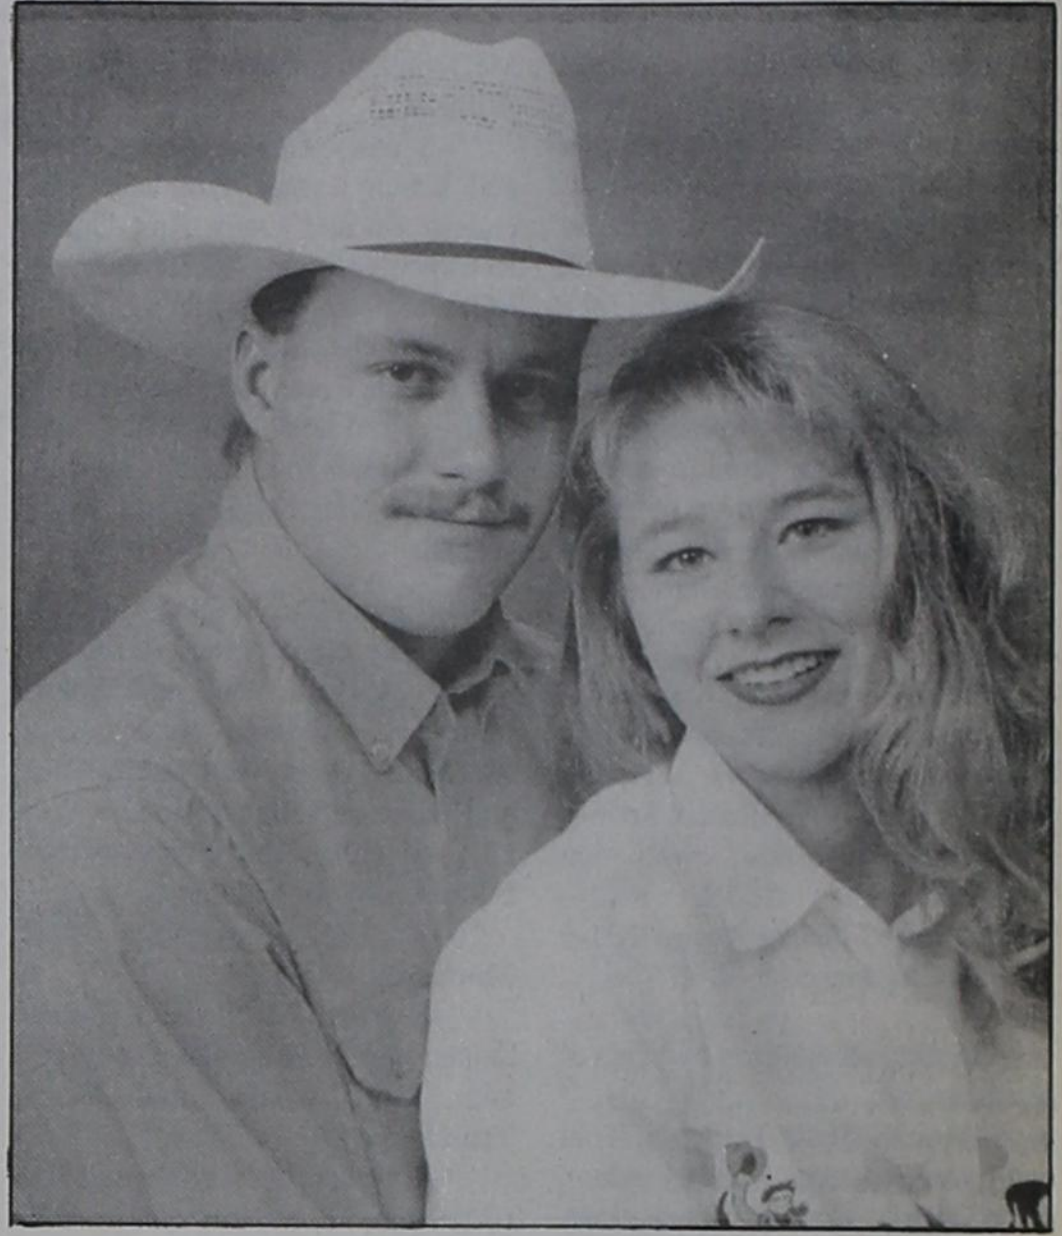

DMS annuals to go on sale

The price for this year's hard-back book is $13.50 and the yearbooks will be delivered about the first week in May 1994.

Cody Ray Walters and Angela Gayle Dyer

Dyer, Walters to wed

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dyer of Hart announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Angela Gayle, to Cody Ray Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walters of Loop.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dyer and Mrs. Stewart Newsom, all of Hart.

The couple plans to exchange wedding vows Friday, Dec. 17, in the First United Methodist Church at Hart.

The bride-elect is a 1992 graduate of Hart High School. She is studying nursing at South Plains College in Levelland. She is currently employed at J.C. Pennys in South Plains Mall at Lubbock.

The prospective groom graduated from Loop High School in 1991. He graduated from South Plains College with a degree in refrigeration and he is employed by Armstrong Mechanical in Lubbock.

The bride is the daughter of Roger and Laura Meyer of Postville. The groom is the son of John and Loreta Henderson of Texhoma, Okla. He is the grandson of Maurine Henderson of Dimmitt.

Rev. William Palmquist officiated at the double-ring nuptial service.

Organist was Audrey Palmquist and soloist was David Wilker.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown. It was fashioned of ivory bridal satin with elbow-length sleeves, a fitted bodice and a sweetheart neckline. The sleeves were decorated with lace rose appliques and the neckline was accented with pearls. The gown featured a detachable train of ivory satin covered with lace. It was attached at the waist with satin roses. Small pearls ran down the sides of the train.

She wore a fingertip veil attached to a pillbox cap which was decorated with lace and pearls.

She carried a bouquet of ivory roses, alstromeria and carnations.

Bridesmaids were Dana Abell of Audubon and Ursula Janni of Ankeny, both friends of the couple.

Each attendant wore a gown of jade green silk essence fabric. The street-length dresses, made by the bride, were created with a rounded neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The attendants wore pearl accessories and carried lace fans adorned with alstromeria and carnations.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with an ivory tie and cummerbund.

Groomsmen were Howard Henderson of Texhoma, brother of the groom; and Eric Meyer of Postville, brother of the bride.

Groomsmen were outfitted in black tuxes with black ties and cummerbunds.

Ushers were Dan Donlon and Eric Meyer of Postville and Sue Matt of Castalia.

Host and hostess were Harold and Judy Hanson of Elgin. Leigh Hanson of Cedar Falls presided over the guest register.

The newlyweds are living in Postville.

Welch addresses RLDS conference

Sharon Welch, daughter of James and Reta Welch of Dimmitt and granddaughter of Charley and Edith Graef of Clovis, N.M., delivered the keynote address on peace, justice, reconciliation and hope as women from 20 countries gathered in Independence, Mo. for the international conference of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

More than 4,500 attended the conference.

Welch is director of women's studies and associate professor of women's and religious studies at the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Welch said historically, women from turn-of-the-century suffragettes to those in Mahatma Gandhi's Ashram have espoused nonviolent ways to further their causes.

"To stand for peace is to put oneself in conflict with those who glory in war," Welch said.

Welch is a graduate of Graceland College in Lamoni, Iowa, with a doctoral degree in theology from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn. She spent 10 years as a professor of theology at Harvard University in Boston, Mass.

Those attending the conference from this area were Reta Welch, who introduced her daughter at the conference; Edith Graef, Charlene Phillips, Edith Livingston, Pam Inge, Gloria White, Brenda Welch, Lindsey and Kelsey Welch and Callie Phillips.

So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba. When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. Then she went, and sat down over against him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, "Let me not look upon the death of the child." And as she sat over against him, the child lifted up his voice and wept.

Mules pass Bobcats for 20-12 win

By JOHN BROOKS

Muleshoe celebrated the return of quarterback Ruben Gonzales on Friday, with three touchdown passes to Gage Angeley leading the Mules to a 20-12 win over Dimmitt at Muleshoe.

The loss dropped the Bobcats to 1-7 on the season, 0-3 in District 2-3A. It was just the second win of the year for the Mules, who are 1-2 in the conference.

"We thought something was up when they called over here Wednesday and cancelled the JV game," said Dimmitt coach Danny Chisum. "We didn't know until Thursday they had their ace quarterback back."

Gonzales had been injured in the first game of the year and still wasn't sharp Friday. He was, however, effective enough against Dimmitt's defensive secondary to complete six passes, including four to Angeley for 154 yards.

"We knew they would work on our perimeter defense and secondary," Chisum said. "It's not because our kids don't work hard back there, it's just our weakest point, and that's where they took advantage. Those two pass plays they completed against us were things we showed our kids, told them they were going to do this, but we just didn't get it stopped."

Meanwhile, Dimmitt's offense was hitting on most cylinders after taking the night off against Tulia a week earlier. Dimmitt picked up 286 yards on the ground, with Derrick Thomas leading all rushers with 186 yards on 34 carries. Fullback Joe Juarez had his best night of the season, with 92 yards on 15 carries.

"Our offense moved the ball awfully well," Chisum said. "It's amazing how we couldn't hardly make a first down the week before, and Tulia isn't that much better than Muleshoe."

Also back, though, were turnovers and near-turnovers. Dimmitt gave the ball back to the Mules three times, and another fumble the Bobcats finally recovered killed another scoring threat.

"We got to the red zone and fumbled a snap once, and had a couple of others that killed us," Chisum said.

Dimmitt didn't take long to get on the board. On the Bobcats' second possession, from the Muleshoe 46, Juarez caught the Mules in a stunt and raced up the middle, going 43 yards. On first down, Thomas ran the final three yards to give Dimmitt a 6-0 lead with 6:23 left in the first period.

Muleshoe came right back, taking advantage of a fumbled punt recovered by the Mules at the Dimmitt 48. On the first play after falling on the muff, Gonzales hit Angeley with a spiral over his left shoulder.

"We were in pretty good shape on that play," Chisum said. "After the receiver caught the ball he hesitated as we were coming up on him, and he let us run past him." Angeley took advantage of the extra step he gained and raced to the end zone. The PAT kick by Pedro Nunez gave the Mules a 7-6 lead with 4:17 left in the period.

Dimmitt threatened again on its next possession, marching from its own 21, converting on fourth-and-one at the Muleshoe 38 before bogging down at the Mules' 20. The drive was keyed by a 16-yard scamper by Juarez on the second play of the possession, and a 15-yard gain by Thomas on the fourth-down play.

The Bobcats couldn't overcome a procedure penalty, and gave the ball up on downs at the Muleshoe 20.

Two long passes later, the Mules extended their lead with the winning touchdown.

On second down from the 24, Gonzales hit split receiver Daniel Garbarino for 34 yards to the Dimmitt 42. Three plays later from the 49, Gonzales hit Angeley on the same pattern as the first pass, and Angeley used the same move to again befuddle Dimmitt's defenders. The PAT by Nunez gave the Mules a 14-6 lead with 9:07 left in the first half.

Dimmitt bounced right back, going 80 yards in 14 plays to close within two points. The drive included two fourth down conversions, including an eight-yard reception by Thomas on a fourth-and-eight screen pass from Tait Crow at the Muleshoe 42. On the next play, Thomas ran the last 34 yards, starting right then cutting back against the grain. A conversion run attempt by Thomas failed, leaving Dimmitt down by two, 14-12, with 2:47 left in the half.

Dimmitt threatened again when Gonzales was intercepted by Raymond Limas at the Muleshoe 34 on the first play of the next drive.

The Bobcats pulled a little quarterback chicanery of their own, inserting Joey Garcia (who would have been the JV quarterback last week if Muleshoe hadn't cancelled). With Garcia at quarterback, Crow moved to fullback and slashed for 12 yards on first down. On the next play, Garcia pitched to Thomas for two yards, then Crow moved back to quarterback and Juarez returned to fullback.

On the next play, Crow hit Max Moore with a 19-yard touchdown pass, but it was called back because Moore was illegally in motion at the snap.

Two Bobcat turnovers--an interception of a Garcia pass, and a fumble by Thomas after an eight-yard gain--led to Muleshoe's final touchdown. Starting at the Bobcat 41, Gonzales hit Garbarino with a 10-yard pass. Muleshoe's only rushing gain for more than 10 yards was a Nunez rush for 14 on third-and-11 from the 32. On the next play, Gonzales hit Angeley over the middle to give the Mules the 20-12 advantage.

Dimmitt drove the ball deep into Muleshoe territory again at the end of the third quarter and beginning of the fourth period, going to the Muleshoe 10. On third down, Crow fumbled a snap and Juarez fell on the ball at the 11. On fourth-and-two, Thomas was stopped after gaining a yard.

"We got on our seniors some last week, worked them a little harder than usual, and challenged them to work a little harder," Chisum said. "They responded well, but we need to be beyond psychological tricks and having to

Naz faces first tough test

Nazareth will try for a second-straight win over the vaunted Sudan Hornets in a key District 2-1A battle to headline Friday's action involving county teams.

Hart will try to rebound from last week's loss to Sudan by tackling the Farwell Steers, while Dimmitt hosts its last home game of the year with archrival Friona.

All three games start at 7:30 p.m.

Nazareth at Sudan

Nazareth will face its toughest test of the season Friday night when it travels to Sudan for a District 2-A showdown.

And the outcome of the game could decide the District 2-A championship.

Nazareth and Sudan are tied for the lead in District 2-A with 3-0 marks. The Swifts have beaten Kress, Bovina and Farwell while Sudan has knocked off Kress, Bovina and Hart.

"Sudan is pretty well staffed to do anything they want to," said Nazareth Coach Rick Price. "They've got all kinds of skill people and all are good. They run two good quarterbacks and switch those guys on offense. Their tailback is Tim Williams and he's an all-state back. He's quick, reads his holes well and he's a definite threat to break free and go all the way."

Williams played a big part in Sudan's big 67-0 win over state-ranked Hart Friday night, carrying 20 times for 158 yards and three touchdowns.

"Williams is Sudan's bread-and-butter and they know it," Price said, adding that Williams' skill is not restricted to the offensive side of the ball. He is one of three Hornets who starts both ways and plays in the secondary on defense.

"He comes up like gangbusters. They rely on him as much on defense as they do on offense. He's definitely a defensive leader."

The quarterbacks Sudan alternates are Corey McAdams and Jerimi Bourland. On running downs the Hornets usually go with McAdams while Bourland is usually used on throwing downs.

The offensive line features Dickie Gipson (6-0, 185) at center, Ryan Netherland (5-10, 185) and Alex Cruz (5-9, 175) at guards and tackle Benny Baker (6-2, 195). Tight end is Jarrod Fisher, and Jerald Weaver (5-10, 160) is a wide receiver.

Sudan's offense has scored 203 points in its three district games

Swifts stay in playoff hunt with win over Kress

By SCOTT BROCKMAN
The Nazareth Swifts found themselves in an unfamiliar position at halftime of Friday night's District 2-A matchup with Kress.

The Swifts were behind, 6-8. But they turned things around in the second half, jumping over the Kangaroos while scoring 28 points enroute to a 34-8 win.

Kangaroo turnovers eventually led to the Nazareth win. Each member of the Swifts' starting secondary picked off a pass thrown by Kress quarterback Mike Lovvorn. One of those was returned for a 32-yard touchdown.

The Swifts forced six turnovers in the second half and converted three of those into points.

"We definitely played better than we did last week," said Nazareth Coach Rick Price. "Our defense allowed some long drives, but still limited Kress to 8 points."

Kress outgained the Swifts in total yardage, 288-268. The Swifts rushed for 217 yards while the Kangaroos picked up 182. Kress held the advantage in passing, gaining 106 yards to the Swifts' 51.

The Kangaroos struck first and it took a while for the Swifts to recover. Nazareth didn't take a lead until the third quarter.

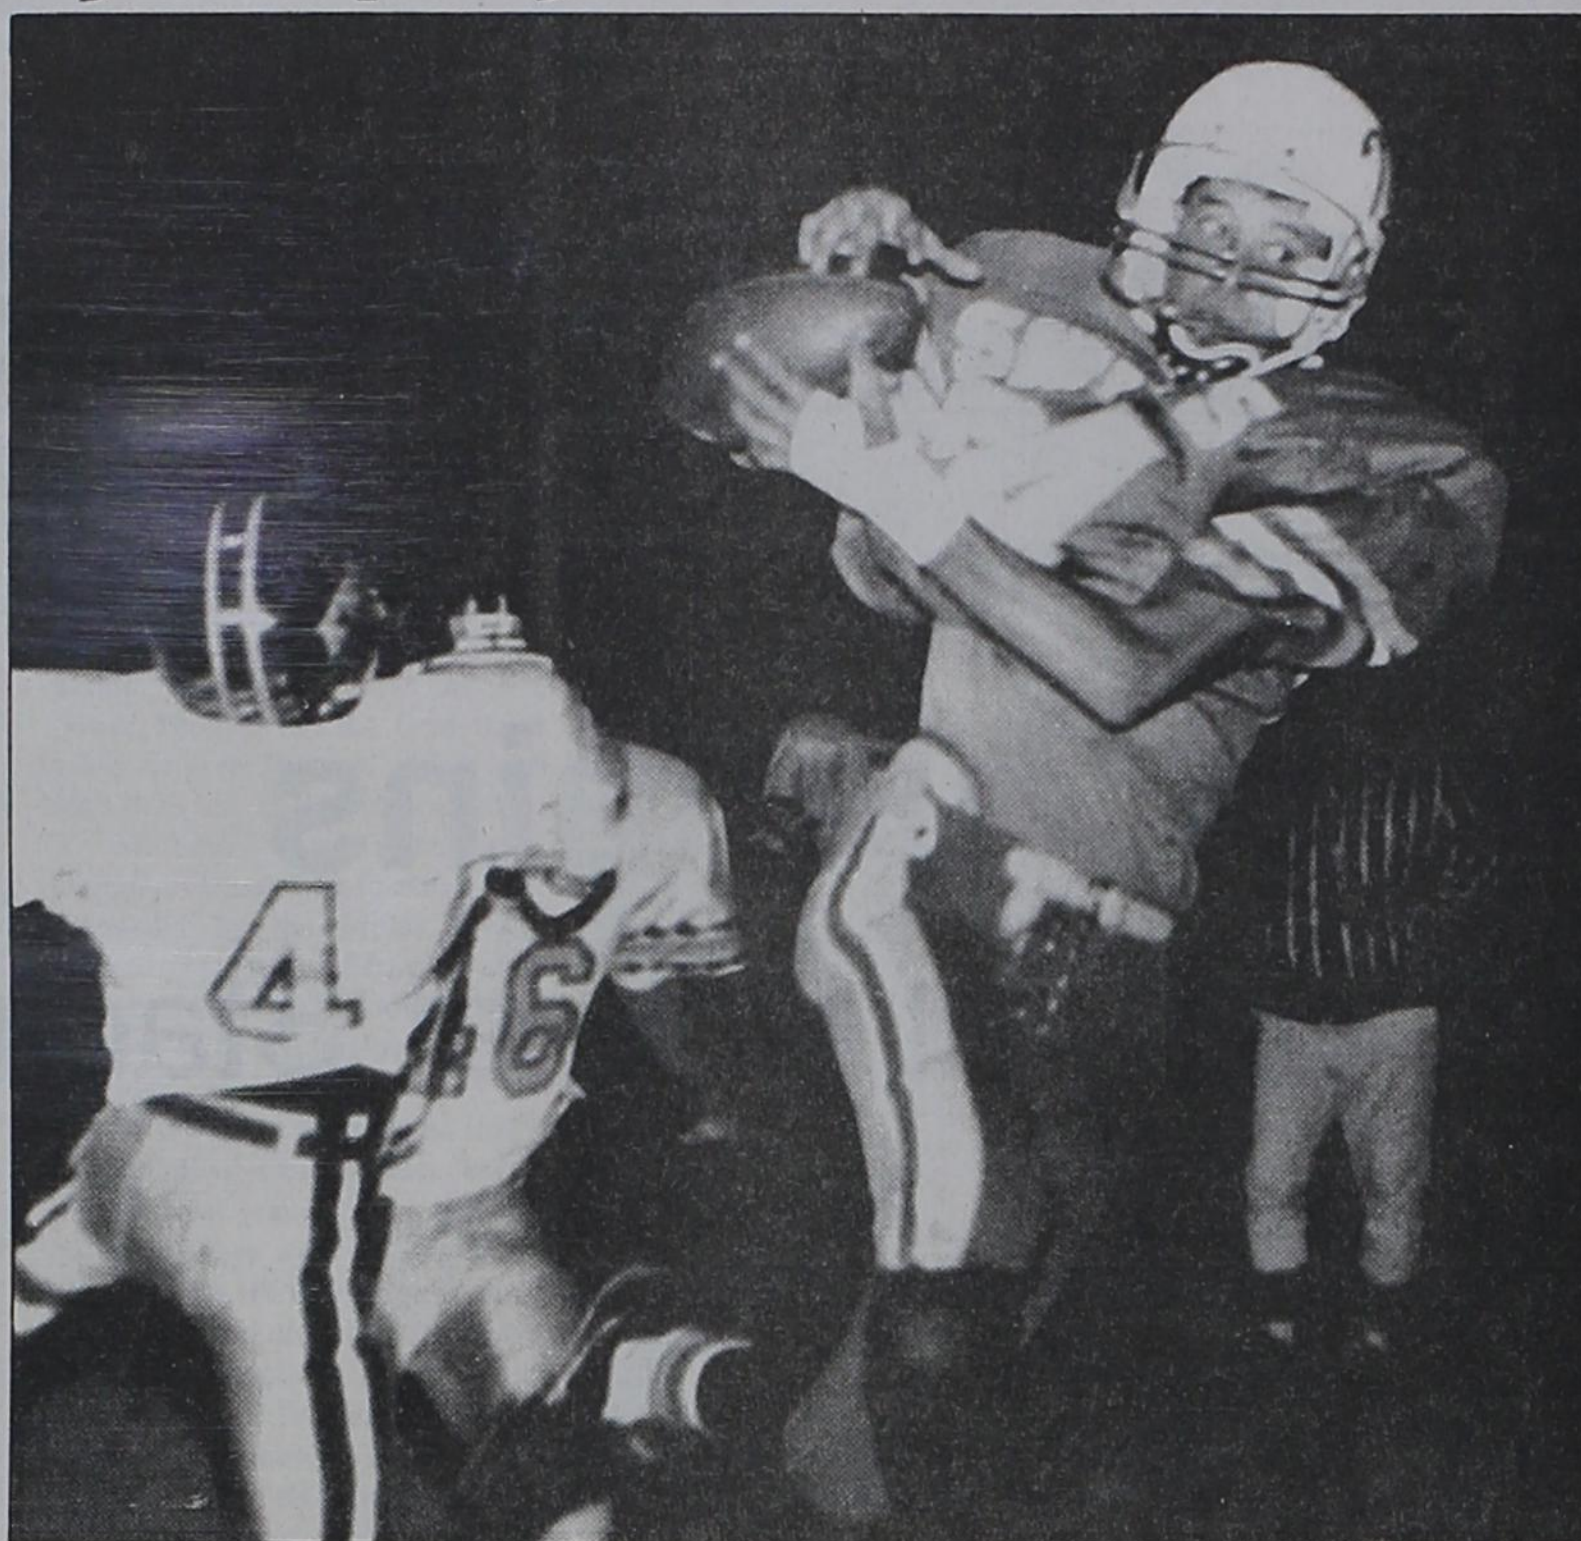

"I think Kress deserves a lot of credit. They came out in the first half and were ready to play. We weren't. In the second half we made fewer mistakes than they did and I believe that was the difference," Price said.

Kress took the opening kickoff and ate up most of the first-quarter clock on a 49-yard drive which stalled at Nazareth's 20.

Nazareth's first offensive possession ended with an interception and Kress took over on its' own 43, but was forced to punt a short time later.

Nazareth put together a long drive into Kress' territory, but that drive ended when the Swifts failed to convert a short fourth-down play and Kress took over.

That set up the first touchdown of the game. Kress' running back Toby Tomsu was the workhorse on the drive, carrying six times for 41 yards, including a three-yard touch-

SLICK MANUEVERS — Nazareth's Brad Keel splits two Kress defenders, then catches a 9-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Gaylon Schilling during second-quarter action Friday night. The Swifts and Kangaroos tangled in a District 2-A matchup at Swift Field. Nazareth, who was down 6-8 at halftime, came back to score 28 second-half points and win the game, 34-8. Keel's touchdown reception gave Nazareth a 14-8 lead after Nick Johnson ran in the two-point conversion. The win improved the Swifts' record to 7-1, 3-0 in district play.

down dive. Jason Lindeman caught a pass from Lovvorn for the two-point conversion and Kress was up 8-0 with 6:35 left in the first half.

The Swifts put together a scoring drive of their own. Morgan Heck capped off the drive with an 11-yard run with 5:01 left in the half. Nick Johnson attempted to tie the score by rushing for a two-point conversion, but he was dragged down short of the goal line and Kress held on to a slim 8-6 lead.

The Kangaroos drove to Nazareth's 2-yard line late in the first half, but the pigskin came loose from a Kangaroo ballcarrier and Johnson recovered the fumble, killing Kress' hopes of extending its lead.

Nazareth wouldn't get a chance to take over the lead in the first half, either. But midway through the third quarter, Kress saw its lead and hopes for an upset expire.

The Swifts' first drive in the second half ended on the Kress 19, but Kress didn't get to hold onto the ball for long.

Nazareth's Jon Johnson recovered a fumble and Nazareth turned it into a touchdown.

Brad Keel leaped and caught a pass from Schilling, then raced to the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown. Billy Scroggins attempted to rush for the two-point conversion, but he was stopped short. A referee at the site spotted a facemask offense on a Kress defender and gave the Swifts another shot at the end zone.

After the ball was spotted at the 1-1/2-yard line, Nick Johnson got the call and he broke through the defense for the two points and a 14-8 Nazareth lead with 6:26 left in the third quarter.

After Kress punted, Nazareth started its second scoring drive, moving 57 yards on the ground. Heck gained 18 yards and Johnson picked up 27 during the drive. Johnson's 9-yard run and point-after gave Nazareth a 21-8 lead.

Kress fumbled on its next possession, then Nazareth fumbled. Two plays later Schilling intercepted a Lovvorn pass, but Nazareth couldn't capitalize.

Johnson fumbled on the 10-yard line and Kress took over.

Down by only 13, Kress looked to come back. The Kangaroos used a 32-yard pass from Lovvorn to Ramon Borrego and a 28-yard run from Tomsu to move into Nazareth territory.

Lovvorn attempted another pass, but this time the Swift secondary was ready. Free safety Scott Brockman picked off the pass and rumbled 79 yards to Kress' 6-yard line before he was dragged down. Schilling scored from four yards out to give Nazareth a 28-8 lead with 3:16 left in the game after Johnson's PAT.

Four plays later Keel picked off a Lovvorn pass and this one was returned all the way for a touchdown. The second-team offensive unit came in to try for the two-point conversion, but the play was nullified by an illegal motion penalty.

The 'Roos continued their turnover frenzy on the next drive, and this time it was Pohlmeier who intercepted Lovvorn's pass. Nazareth's second team took over, but fumbled the ball and Kress's offense ran out the clock.

Nazareth's junior varsity and junior high runners also fared well at district, with the JV and JH girls' teams winning the meet and the JH boys placing third.

The team racked up 250 yards rushing and another 10 passing yards, while limiting Muleshoe to 70 total yards.

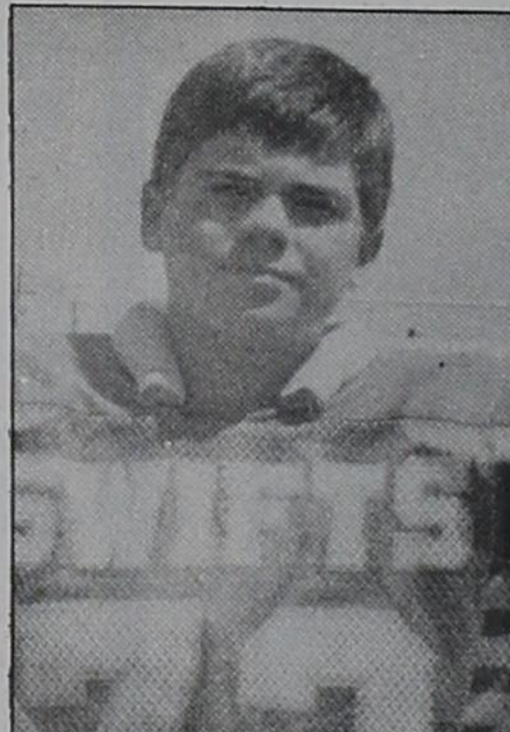

DMS scored in the first quarter on a three-yard run by Rey Oltivero. Derrick Buckley threw a pass to Beau Hill for the PAT.

In the second quarter, Hill raced 75 yards for a touchdown, then caught another pass from Buckley for the two-point conversion.

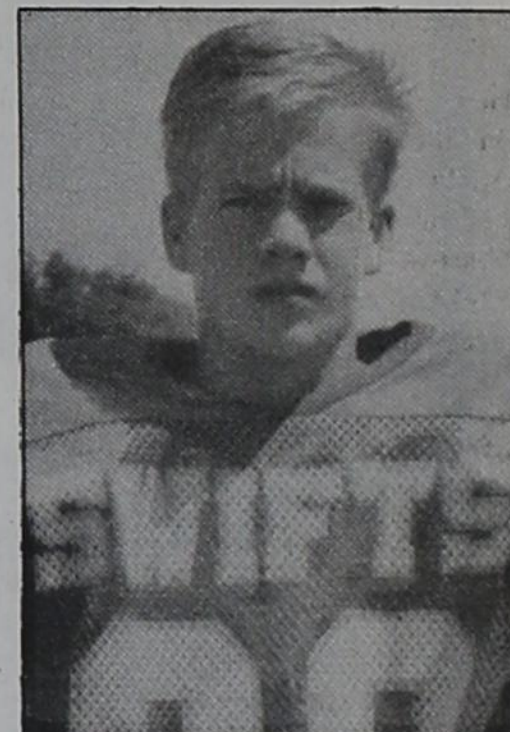

In the fourth period, Oltivero scored on a 10-yard run. Luis Silva ran for the two-point PAT.

Who were those guys? Sudan 67, Hart 0

Nine turnovers devastate 'Horns

Nine Hart turnovers and a high-powered Sudan offense spelled doom for the Longhorns Friday as Sudan pasted the 'Horns, 67-0, in a District 2-1A showdown at Sudan.

Hart mustered just 57 yards of offense against the Hornets, who are now 6-2 and tied with Nazareth for first place in the league. Hart, now 7-1, fell from the Associated Press Top 10 in Class A.

Tim Williams, who finished with 158 yards on 20 carries, scored on each of Sudan's first three possessions. The quick-scoring Sudan machine ruined what was, for Hart, a rematch of the Longhorns' last loss, in the 1992 quarterfinals. Sudan eventually was beaten in the state finals.

Hart's offense was stymied all night, with Cesar Salas gaining just 31 yards on 14 carries.

While Hart was playing its worst game of the year, Sudan was playing its best. The Longhorns lost six fumbles and had three passes intercepted. Sudan converted eight of the nine turnovers into touchdowns.

Jerimi Bourland, who alternated with Corey McAdams, hit Jarrod Fisher on a 25-yard scoring pass to close out the 27-point first quarter barrage. Fisher returned an interception 30 yards in the second period, then scored on a seven-yard pass from McAdams to give the Hornets a 41-0 advantage midway through the second quarter.

Sudan picked right back up in the third quarter, with running back Bobby Collins scoring from 14 yards out to give the Hornets a 47-0 lead. Bourland scored on a three-yard keeper after another Hart turnover, then hit Fisher on another pass, from 30 yards out, to give the Hornets a 60-0 lead after three periods.

McAdams scored the final touchdown, on a one-yard run, in the fourth period.

Sudan picked up 359 yards of offense while keeping the 'Horns in check. Besides Salas, Eddy Chavers was the only other back in double figures, with 12 yards on five carries. Hart was ineffective through the air, with quarterback Jason Aven, Salas and Barry Washington each throwing an interception.

Bourland, the more efficient passer of the Sudan quarterbacking tandem, completed three of five passes for 89 yards, while McAdams' only completion was the seven-yard scoring pass to Fisher.

ROLLING OUT TO NOWHERE--Hart's Jason Aven (7) is hemmed in by Sudan's Roger Huey (45) and Jacob Fisher (65) just before halftime of the big District 2-1A shootout Friday at Sudan. Aven was hampered all night, gaining just seven yards and failing to complete a pass, as the Hornets corralled the Longhorns, 67-0. The loss was the first of the season for the Longhorns. Photo by D'Lynn Hankins and its offense has been stingy—no 2-A team has scored against the Hornets, yet.

The 52 defense is anchored by Josh Keeney, a 160-lb. tackle. Everest Williams starts at nose-guard.

"They're quick on defense and flow to the ball well. They're big up front, averaging about 195 pounds. Their linebackers are tough, and they like to send them a lot," said Price.

Before district play, Sudan sported a 3-2 record with losses coming to Class AA Springlake-Earth and Class A Petersburg.

Farwell at Hart

Hart is facing a must-win situation for the rest of the regular season after suffering its first loss Friday to district rival Sudan.

And the first of those must-win games will be played this week when Hart hosts Farwell Friday night.

"This will be the Longhorns' final home game and varsity players and their parents will be introduced prior to the 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

"We've got two weeks left and we're going to have to play hard to make the playoffs. We can't afford to slip again," said Hart Coach Danny Wilhelm.

Hart will close out its home schedule this week with Farwell, then will travel to Nazareth for the final regular season game.

Wilhelm said Hart will have to control the line of scrimmage against Farwell, and will have to stop Brent Harrison on offense.

Harrison, a 5-5, 140-lb. running-back, has "outstanding speed and quickness," according to Wilhelm.

Farwell won its first game of the season Friday night in a come-from-behind victory over Bovina, 18-12.

Farwell will run its offense out of a Power I set and Harrison is the main cog in the Steers running game. Wilhelm said wingback Derrick Hasseloff also could be a threat. Hart's defense will have to be prepared for quarterback Nash Armstrong (5-10, 165), too.

Lupe Garza (5-10, 210) anchors the offensive line from his tackle position and he is joined up front by Jeremy Ortiz (5-6, 165) at center, Justin Mahaney (5-6, 165) and Kip Atwell (5-10, 165) at guards and Klay Kamp (5-10, 190) at the other tackle.

On defense, Farwell will run a 5-2 or 5-3 with Harrison and Armstrong in the defensive backfield, Jon Sullivan and Hasseloff at linebackers, Ortiz at end and Garza at tackle.

"We've got to be able to control the line of scrimmage this week. We need to be ready to play tough, physical football up front," Wilhelm said.

Friena at Dimmitt

Friena travels to Bobcat Stadium for a renewal of a longtime rivalry that carries playoff implications for the rebounding Chieftains.

Perhaps as important, the Chieftains are looking for some revenge from embarrassments the past two seasons. In 1991, Dimmitt tried three times in the last minute to extend a comfortable lead by throwing long passes. Last year, the Bobcats called timeout in the last few seconds to kick a field goal; again, the Bobcats were comfortably ahead.

At the Dimmitt at Friena basketball game last winter, a sign reminded the Bobcats that it was only 200-and-some-odd days until Friena would come to Bobcat Stadium, looking for revenge.

Friena has rebounded under second-year head coach James Morton to a 4-4 slate after going 0-10 in 1992. The Chieftains are 1-2 in the conference and must win Friday to maintain any hope of going to the playoffs.

"I'm sure that if you had gone to Friena before the year and taken a poll, they would have been happy to go 1-9 as long as they beat Dimmitt," said Dimmitt coach Danny Chisum. "James Morton is a good coach and Friena has a good football team. The kids think they can win and they play accordingly."

The Chieftains will rely on a strong running game against the Bobcats, "but that doesn't worry me as much as the passing game," Chisum said. "We have to do something to stop the passing game, because they can throw the football."

Senior quarterback Blair Burney and senior running back Juan Camboa will key Friena's offense, but its roster is dotted with juniors and a few sophomores as the Chieftains prepare for the future. Gamboa was a second-team all-district running back last year.

Friena will be bigger than the Bobcats along both lines, but Dimmitt should have an overall speed and quickness advantage.

"How we do Friday night will depend largely on how our kids decide to respond," Chisum said. "It should be interesting to see how our kids respond after last week. We haven't quit all year and we don't need to quit now. We need to rise up to the challenge. This can be our game, our playoff game, if we choose for it to be."

DHS cross-country prepared

Dimmitt's girls' cross-country team prepared for its district meet this weekend with a tuneup meet Saturday at Levelland.

Dimmitt fared well among all 3A teams with 139 points in the varsity division. Dimmitt finished very well in the junior varsity division, largely based on the performance of junior high runners.

The Bobbies will participate in the District 2-3A meet at 2 p.m. Saturday at Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock.

"As big a rival as Friena is, it should be no problem for anyone to get motivated this week."

Words of Wisdom X

If you would not be forgotten as soon as you are dead, either write things worth reading or do things worth writing.--Benjamin Franklin
Benjamin Franklin enjoyed a good amount of fame and admiration during his 84 years. Franklin possessed many skills. He worked as an inventor, a writer, a diplomat and a printer to name just a few.

Today, Franklin still enjoys a respectable amount of name recognition. He wrote things worth reading and did things of great value for our democracy. He is often quoted today and his words of wisdom frequently appear in this column.

Today's column will be devoted to the sayings of people like Franklin, folks who have contributed something of lasting value to this earth. Don't look for a quote from Madonna, Elton, or a $5 million-a-year sports hero. You'll have to read their words elsewhere or watch their carefully edited comments on one of those cutesy TV shows.

Cotton Talks

A quarterly meeting of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers' board of directors was held Wednesday at the site of the first annual Texas Farmer - Stockman Show. The Farm Show, held on Lubbock's City Farm, 1-1/2 miles east of Loop 289 on 50th Street, is being called the biggest farm and ranch exposition ever held in the state of Texas.

PCG Board members discussed a number of issues including the North American Free Trade Agreement, the Plant Variety Protection Act, Federal Crop Insurance, recommendations for the 1994 Farm Program and the reorganization of the US Dept. of Agriculture (USDA).

Also discussed was the progress of the 1993 PCG Boll Weevil Control Program.

PCG board members were given an opportunity to view some of Dr. John Gannaway's new cotton breeding lines developed through the PCG Plains Cotton Improvement Program (PCIP). They also had an opportunity to see some of the new commercial varieties being developed from PCIP lines by High Plains seed companies.

Roger Haldenby, PCG Boll Weevil Program coordinator, briefed the board on the progress of the 1993 control program. He noted that nine aircraft are being used on the program, maintaining a six-day a week flying schedule.

The PCG board meeting was held at the site of the Texas Farmer-Stockman Show and the board commended the Farmer-Stockman organization for the tremendous job done to plan and execute the exposition.

Harvesting activities have been picking up steam across the High Plains with producers treating fields in preparation for harvest. It is expected that the next two weeks will bring a rapid increase in the number of acres harvested. Many area gins are now running 24 hours a day.

As more of the crop comes in, yield estimates are beginning to change based on actual production. In general, yields on dryland cotton have been better than expected. Irrigated fields also are doing well; however, only part of the acres so far fall into this category.

Full-scale beet harvest to begin

Beet growers who have been harvesting their crop on a limited schedule established by Imperial Holly will begin digging beets 12 hours a day, six days per week, on Monday.

Dennis Printz, agricultural manager at Imperial Holly in Hereford, praised grower cooperation through the normal staggered harvest schedule, which will continue until Nov. 1 when beets will be stockpiled at various receiving stations.

Sugar content and quality are at or above average as harvest nears 25% completion across the Panhandle-South Plains production region.

"Our sugar content is looking good, as are our yields," said Printz. "We're running about as smoothly as we can. Deliveries are looking real good and the factory is running well. We are especially pleased with the outstanding cooperation we're receiving from growers. We appreciate the clean, well-topped beets we're seeing."

The following harvest schedule will continue through Sunday, Oct. 31: MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY: Friona, Dimmitt, Wildorado, Kress, Bovina and Factory Northwest Contracts 1-155.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY: Dawn, Hub, Farmers Corner, Nazareth and Factory Southeast Contracts 165-244.

On Nov. 1 all stations will begin receiving deliveries Monday through Saturday, 12 hours a day, weather and temperatures permitting.

"We urge everyone to keep in close contact with their agriculturist in order to keep the harvest running at a smooth pace," said Printz, who reminds growers to make sure each truck hauling beets is identified with the correct number, which helps prevent confusion on beet deliveries.

First graders set program for Tuesday

The First Grade Rhythm Band will present a fall music program Tuesday and parents and the public are invited to attend.

The program will be at 7 p.m. at the Dimmitt Middle School auditorium; however, the first graders should come at 6:45 to get ready.

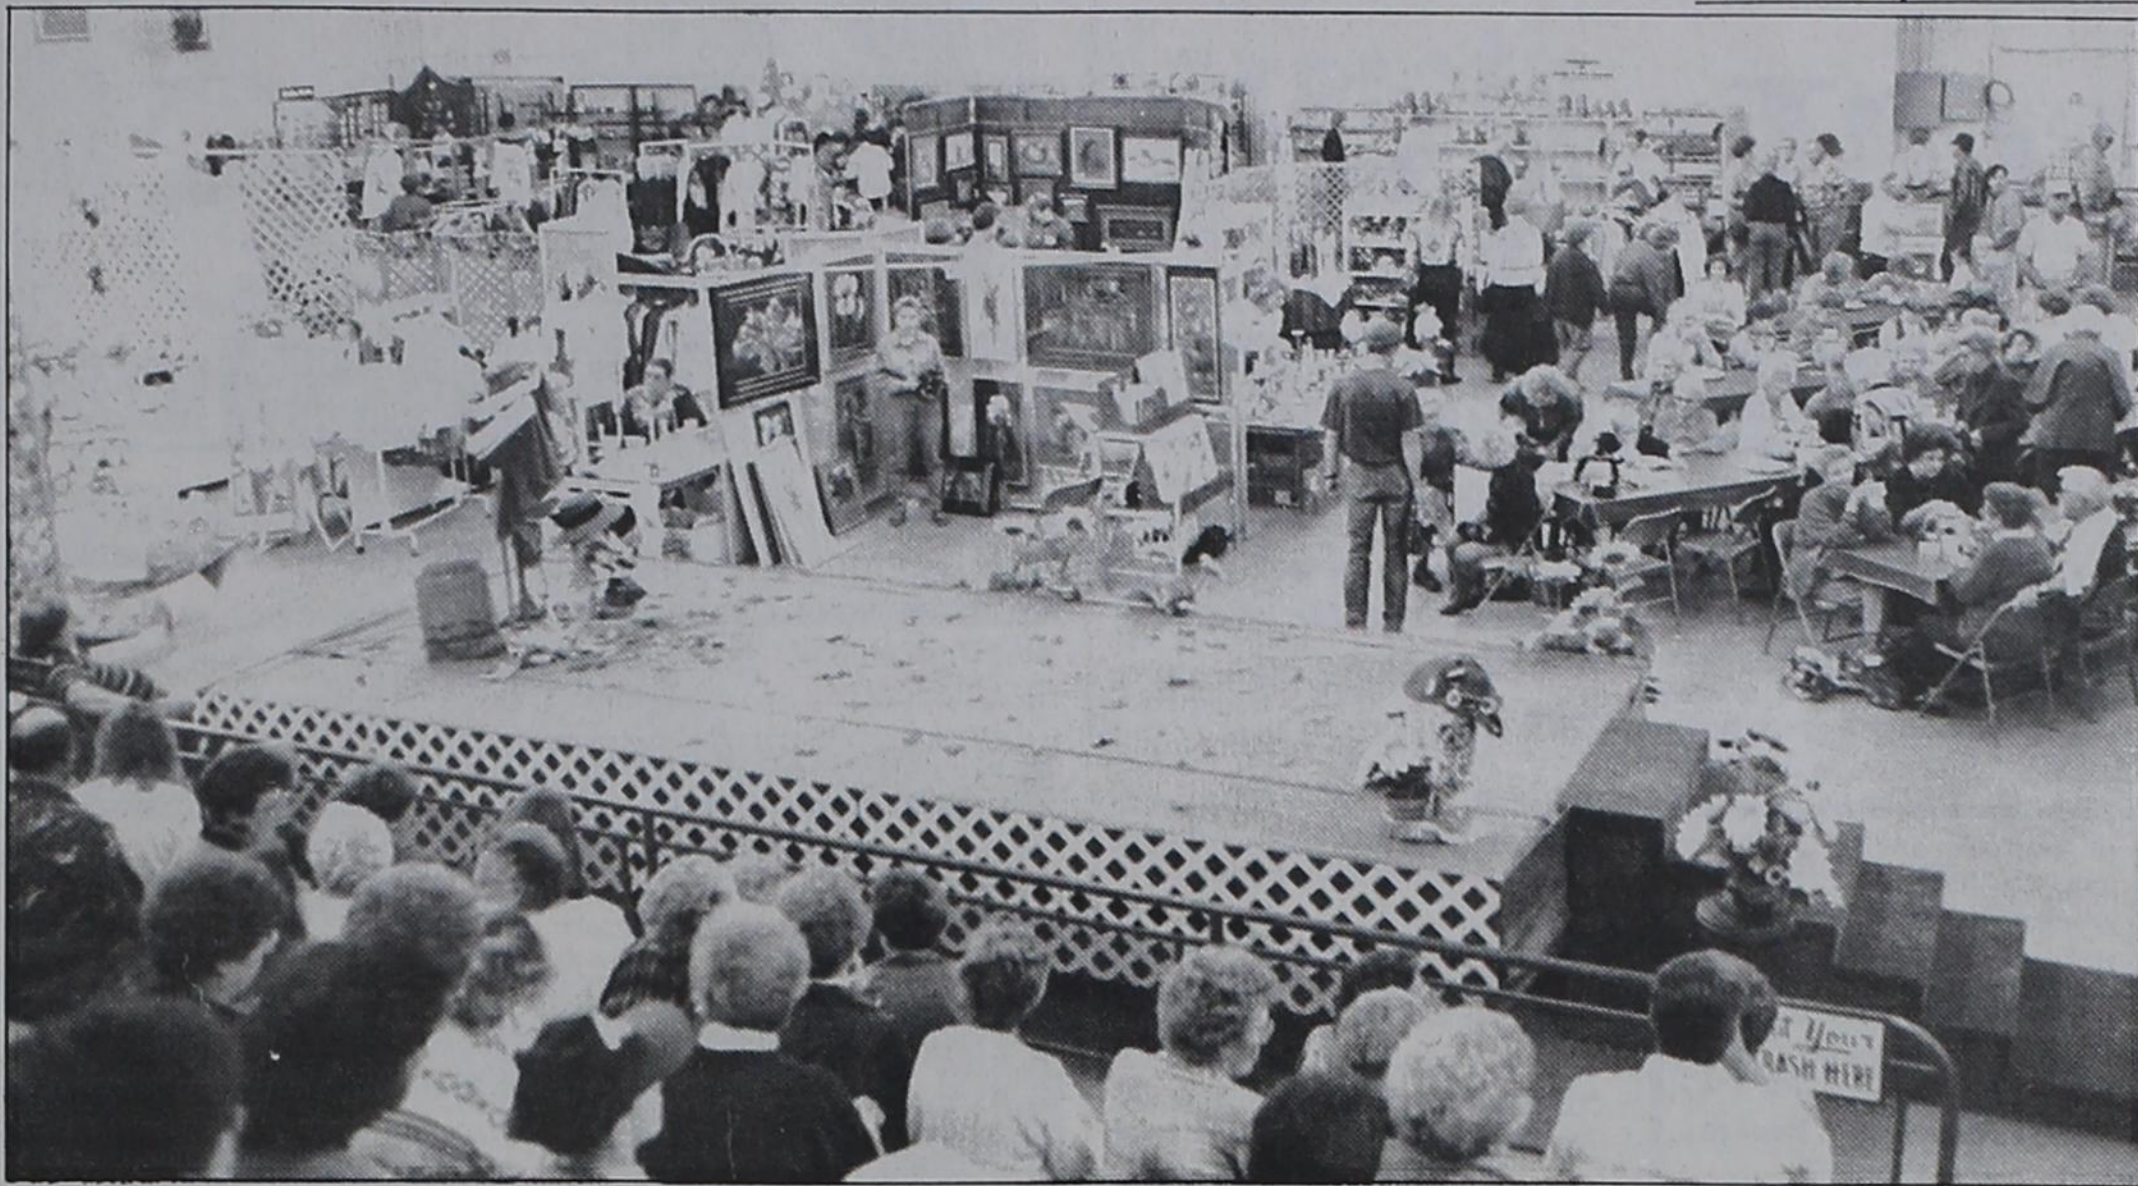

The students will sing, as well as play instruments, according to music teacher Ruby Teaschner.

GALLERY OF GIFTS—More than 500 persons attended the big Gallery of Gifts Saturday, sponsored by the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce. Here, a crowd in the bleachers awaits the beginning of the style show while others (at tables, right) enjoy a lasagna lunch served by chamber members. Thirty-nine arts and crafts exhibitors from throughout the region filled the Expo Building with their booths, and 50 models participated in the midday style show, modeling fall and winter clothing from local stores. As a door prize, the chamber awarded an RCA color TV, which was won by Danny Newton of Dimmitt with a drawing receipt from O'Brian's Woodcrafts. Photo by Don Nelson

Letters to the Editor

Dear editor:

I am responding to Mildred Sheffy's letter in your last edition. I am commenting about her remarks about the sheriff's office.

First of all, deputies aren't clerks. The three deputies you referred to were there because they were requested to be there. One deputy was serving as grand jury bailiff. The other two were called by the grand jury to testify; they also had to round up grand jury witnesses who had not appeared.

As far as the woman who was arrested, deputies don't concoct warrants; judges issue warrants. This warrant was from Randall County. Also, warrants aren't served on people unless their name appears on the warrant.

Neoma Williams

Dear editor:

We can't tell you how much your support and kindness have meant to our family during the time of our daughter's wreck and hospital stay.

We are new to Dimmitt and know so few of you, but you have reached out to us in so many ways.

Casas, Saenz are honored

Stacey Casas and Aaron Saenz have been named as Students of the Week recently in Judy Damron's fourth grade class at Dimmitt Middle School.

Casas' parents are Karen and Raul Casas. Casas' birthday is March 29, and favorite things include pizza, cats and reading.

"I like how nice the teachers are," Stacey said.

Saenz is the son of Manuel and Elizabeth Saenz, and his birthday is June 17. His favorite things include pizza, dogs, computers and helping his mom clean house.

Aaron says his dad is cool "because he takes time out for my sisters and me."

We have received so many cards, visits, flowers and gifts from many of you that we barely know. Everywhere we go in town someone asks about J'Amey. Thank you for our welcome to Dimmitt; we wish it could have been under more pleasant circumstances, however.

A special thanks to the doctors, nurses and emergency medical personnel who took such good care of J'Amey right after the wreck. We also appreciate how the students at the high school have visited her and have kept her spirits boosted during her confinement.

She is home now and will be out of school for several weeks. Her injuries are healing, and she looks forward to the time when she will be up and around again. Please keep her in your prayers.

We are proud to be a part of such a caring community.

Judy and Tommy Stewart

Dear editor:

Thanks so much to all those who worked on the style show at the Gallery of Gifts Saturday. It was a great success and we have had many favorable comments from

24—Card Of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS

The Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce truly appreciates all the volunteers, their work, their time and their enthusiasm for the "Gallery of Gifts" arts and crafts show. It was successful only because the community got behind it and worked together. Our thanks to the exhibitors, the models, local merchants and all who attended. The steering committee of Brenda Bruton, Sherry Wilkerson, June Sutton, Paula Graham, Connie Morris, Yvonne Hays, Paula Reynolds, Ann Hays and Barbara Bain did a great job and they surely appreciated all the people who readily responded when asked to help. Ralph Smith served as an advisor and gave us many good ideas for the show. Special note should be made of the stage provided by Rex Wooten, the steps built and covered by Rex, Randy Smithson and Ray Bain. The First State Bank and Barbara Bain's third grade class made our beautiful decorations possible. American Maize-Products Co. donated the television which was purchased at Kirtrell Electronics. Thriftway worked with us on the food and either had in stock or ordered everything we needed, plus took back all that was not used.

We hope that everyone enjoyed the day, because plans are being made to have it again next year.

24—Card Of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS
DEAR FRIENDS:
Many, many thanks for your love, devotion and care shown to my mother before and during her illness.

To the Hospital Auxiliary: The Life Line is such a reassuring service that you provide for our family members who live alone.

To the entire nursing staff at PMH: The care rendered by the little nurse aides and LVNs was excellent and you cared for Mother in such a kind, Christian way; and what can I say to my RN friends? No way can I express my appreciation to you for your many acts of love, kindness and concern.

To the entire hospital staff: Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

To the medical staff: Our community is privileged to have such competent physicians and I will be forever grateful to you for the excellent medical and surgical care given to Mother. Dr. Murphy and Dr. Patel, many, many thanks. Dr. Lee, your kindness toward my family and myself will not be forgotten.

To the nurses from Home Health/PMH: How wonderful to have your assistance in our home. Your services have made our care for Mother so much easier. May God reward you as only He can.

With much, much love,
MITZIE BROCKMAN & FAMILY

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank the people who made my 40th birthday so special.

The wake-up breakfast started off the day's birthday bash with a bang.

The brown bag lunch and concert at the gazebo was great. Thanks to Bill Sava and Delores Heller for planning this event and to Deputy Billy Cox, who "brought" me to the gazebo.

I will always remember the "roasting" at the home of Barbara and Ray Bain after the game.

By the way, the shredded paper has been properly disposed of.

HISD celebrates Red Ribbon Week

The theme for this year's Red Ribbon campaign in Texas goes beyond the symbolism of a red ribbon.

The theme encourages families, friends and neighbors to "Be Drug Free in '93" and Hart students are participating in several activities this week.

Hart High School students created posters and signs and distributed these, along with red ribbons, to businesses in Hart.

On Saturday and Sunday lapel ribbons were passed out to fans at all sporting events and special half-time activities were planned. Substance abuse prevention messages were printed in programs.

Monday was a "Decoration Day," and students placed ribbons and bows on buildings, lamp posts, trees, water towers, vehicles, etc. The school was decorated with banners and posters highlighting the event.

HHS students observed a "Window Wipe, Injury Day" on Tuesday while elementary school students in Hart decorated halls in the school.

On Wednesday, students were encouraged to give someone a bow, lapel ribbon or button to wear; and were asked to share substance abuse prevention messages and encourage others to get involved. HHS students attended assembly programs and held a kite and red contest. Elementary students wore red.

Today (Thursday), students are asked to wear red and HHS students will perform skits at an assembly.

"Friday will be "Pledge Day," when students are asked to pledge

"No unlawful use of alcohol and other drugs." Several activities and a pep rally will feature Red Ribbon activities.

Saturday has been designated as "Recognition Day," when awards will be presented to individuals and groups who have made contributions to alcohol and other drug abuse prevention a part of the Red Ribbon Campaign.

On Saturday and Sunday, churches are asked to offer special prayers and provide information on substance abuse prevention along with counseling and treatment information for parents.

Nazareth

By Uirgle Gerber, 945-2669

Congratulations to our Nazareth Swift Band, instructor Roger Myers and Drum Major Karmen Pohlmeier. We are very proud of your accomplishments.

The band traveled to Borger Saturday for the regional UIL competition. They were so nervous and excited before the competition, knowing that they were really going to have to perform their very best.

The three judges gave the band a Division I rating—the very best you can receive. This rating was especially rewarding to a very young membership. Thirty-nine members marched Saturday and only 12 of those are high school students. The rest are in junior high. The band will travel to Odesa this weekend to compete in the area contest Saturday. Their performance at this contest will determine if they will go on to state.

Good luck band!

The Southwest Region of the Amarillo Diocese held a youth rally Sunday at the Nazareth Community Hall.

The theme was "We Are One Body," and Father John Salazar, pastor of Church of the Holy Spirit in Tulia, presided, assisted by a team from the parish. Music was provided by musicians from St. Laurence Cathedral in Amarillo.

The team presented talks, skits and games based on "Trusting Your Faith," and "Catholic and Proud." The video from the papal visit was reviewed and the group enjoyed a sharing time with some of those who were in Denver this summer.

There were 340 youths and sponsors present from Tulia, Dimmitt, Friona, Hereford, Silverton, Bovina, Canyon, Hart and Nazareth. Everyone enjoyed a day of sharing, meeting new and old friends, singing and reminiscing.

The day ended with a balloon launch and a prayer circle on the nearby football field. Youth from seventh grade through college-age joined in the memorable experiences of the day.

Greg and Tinie Hoelting have returned from a two-week vacation in Colorado. They visited with LeRoy and Collette Hoelting in Colorado Springs and with Marvin and Carol Hoelting and Denis and Judy Hoelting in Denver. While in Denver they drove up the mountains to the beautiful Shrine of Mother Cabrini. Located inside the little chapel, there must have been close to 500 votive lights burning and it was an amazing sight to see. They also visited the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, where the Pope said mass this summer. They said they have never seen such a beautiful church.

Marvin and Carol hosted a family get-together on the first Sunday Greg and Tinie were there. All of their grandchildren were there, including three great-grandchildren whom they hadn't seen. While in Colorado Springs, Marvin and Carol took them out to Cripple Creek. It was a beautiful drive with all the trees and bushes turning colors. It was a very enjoyable two weeks and Greg and Tinie said Colorado is a beautiful place to see, especially in the fall.

Darlene Schulte and her sister, Gail, and husband, David Hooks of Canyon, enjoyed a trip to Logan, Utah, to visit their brother, Alan Birkenfeld.

Joe and Paul Venhaus enjoyed a drive to Farmington, N.M., where they visited with Nelita and Jimmy Collins and Terry Hutson and his family. They also visited with Jeremy Hutson, his wife and new baby, all of Durango, N.M.

Funeral services were held last week for Artie Schulte, 80, of Bow Valley, Neb. Relatives attending were Gilbert and Dolly Schulte, Kenny and Cince Schulte, Floyd and Dorothy Schulte, Martha Schulte, Vincent and Toby Gerber, Norita Hoelting and Dwayne and Cheryl Kleman.

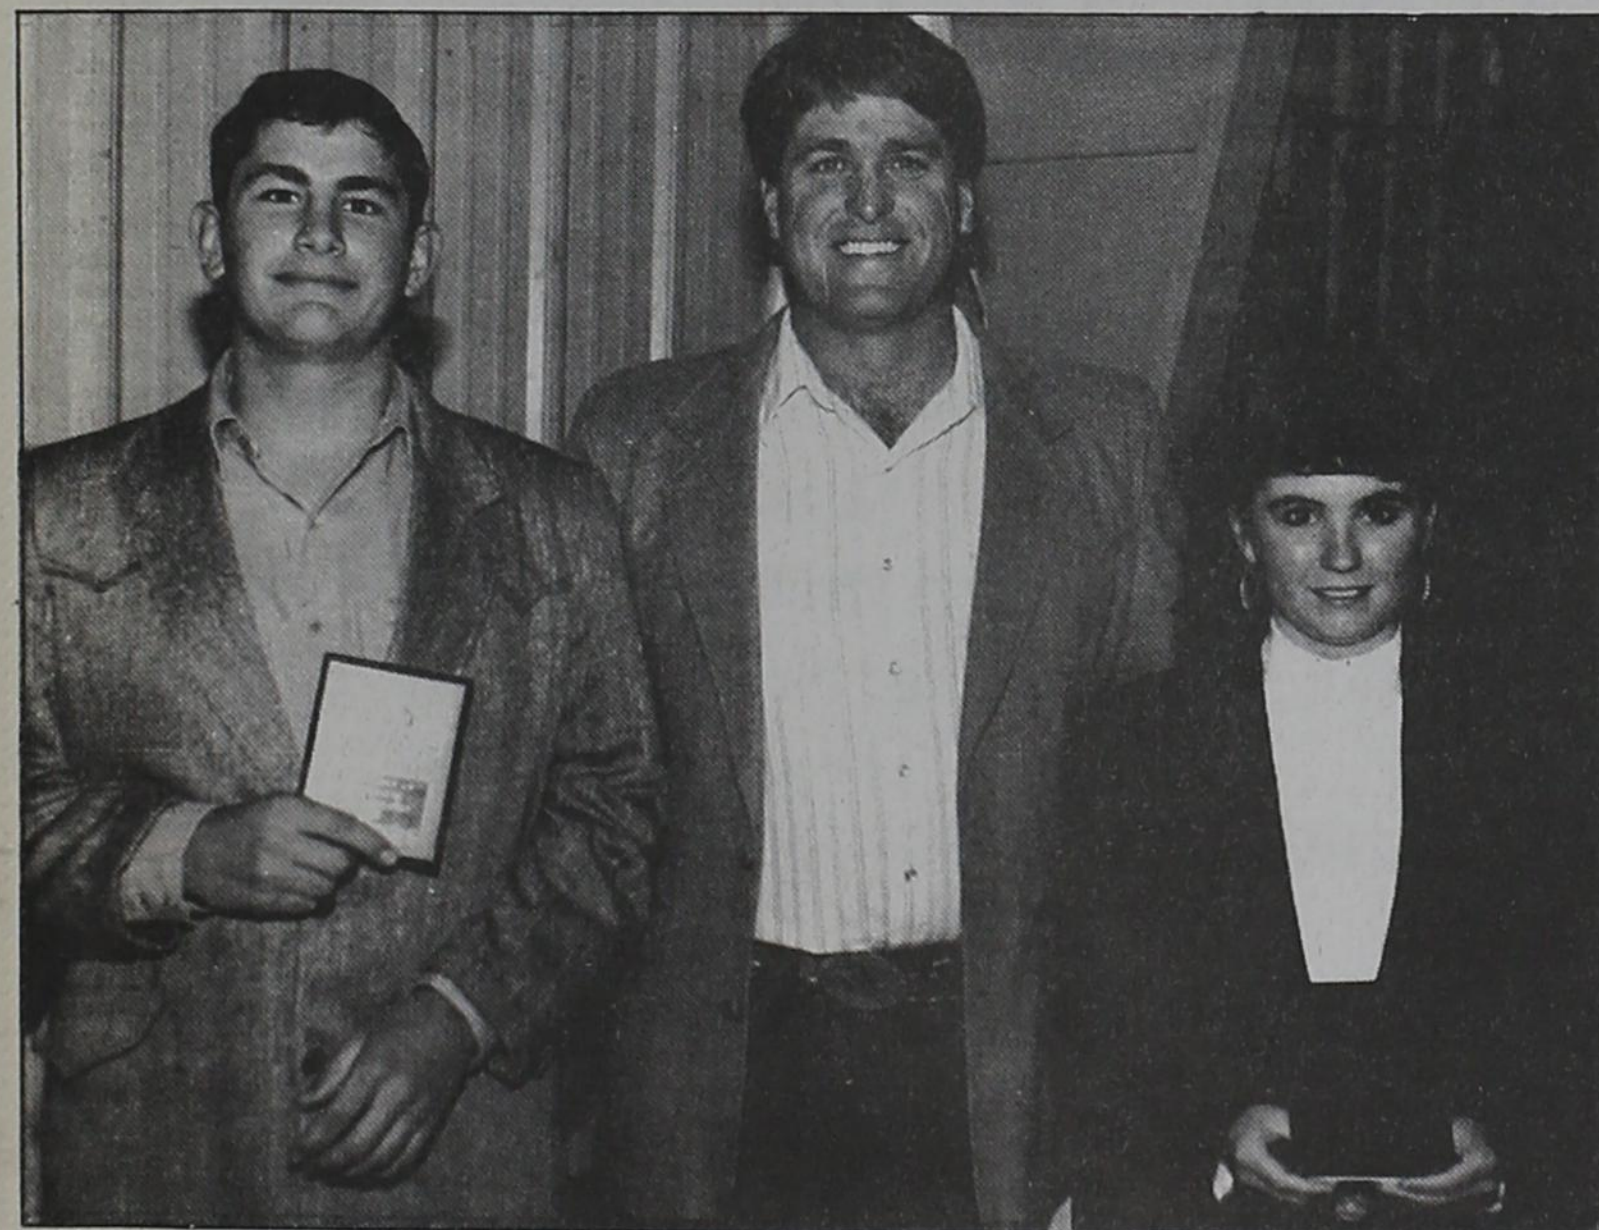

A mixed softball team from Nazareth recently played in the Mixed National Softball Tournament in Steamboat Springs, Colo., and Annette Hoelting was selected to the All-American team.

Prayers are asked for Joan Backus, who had foot surgery Monday morning in Lubbock. We wish her well.

Meta Stork spent several days in Nazareth visiting with Virgie Gerber and other family members. On Sunday they went to Umbarger and spent the afternoon with Meta's niece, Frances Gerber.

We welcome Mark and Kim Makeever and their family back to Nazareth where they will make their home. They have been living in Hart, but after purchasing the Frank Hoelting home, they have moved back to the city.
