Truman Signs 15 Billion Military Spending Bill

FREEZES MILLIONS FOR 58 GROUP AIR FORCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (UP)—President Truman today signed a $15,585,863,498 (B) military spending bill, but said he is freezing a $615,000,000 (M) sum provided by congress to expand the Air Force to 58 groups.

The extra sum was put into the fiscal 1950 military spending bill over the previous objections of Mr. Truman who favors a 48 group Air Force. He contended that this is all the Nation can afford at this time.

The Senate, for a time, went along with the President, but finally yielded to the house which insisted on 58 groups.

In signing the bill, Mr. Truman said: "Increasing the structure of the Air Force above that recommended in the 1950 budget would be inconsistent with a realistic and balanced security program which we can support in peacetime."

He said the extra funds for the Air Force also would upset orderly planning for the three services—Army, Navy and Air Force—"based on a unified strategic concept."

Then the President added:

"I am therefore directing the secretary of defense to place in reserve the amounts provided by the congress . . . for increasing the structure of the Air Force."

Course in Girl Scouting To Be Given This Week

An instruction course for Girl Scout workers will be held in Ranger Tuesday under the direction of Jeanne Frasier of the Brownwood area.

All Girl Scout leaders and troop committee members are eligible to attend.

The first course will be taught beginning at 10 o'clock and continue to 11:30 o'clock. At 1 o'clock a course for Brownie instructors will be given and from 7 to 9 all groups of instructors will meet.

Leaders stated today that Ranger now has 73 Girl Scouts and the goal is 200 girls. They have asked that any girl who is interested contact Mrs. Arthur Deffenbach or Mrs. J. A. Bates.

Suit Filed For $100,000 Damages

George M. Rogers, acting on behalf of the George M. Rogers Construction Company et al, has filed a $100,000 damage suit against the Industrial Machinery Company, Inc. of Fort Worth, Texas and M. C. Roberts, the bondman, of Texico, New Mexico. Rogers filed his suit in Tarrant County, Texas.

The suit grew out of an attachment of machinery on a construction job being done by the Rogers company for Roberts. The Industrial Machinery Company sued the construction company in district court in Curry County, New Mexico on a $8744.10 open account signed by M. C. Roberts. As a result of the suit on account, equipment at the site of the construction job was attached and Rogers forced to close down on the job.

Group At VFW District Meeting

Fred Bonner, Raymond Landtroop, J. W. Elder Jr., and Herman Stroud left Saturday for Sweetwater where they will attend the District 8 convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars this week end.

The two day session opened Saturday and will continue through Sunday. Martin Dies, former Texas Congressman, will be the principal speaker.

LOCAL GUARD UNIT GIVEN KEYS TO NEW BUILDING

Keys to the new 32,000 National Guard building in Ranger were turned over to Capt. Bruce Harris Friday afternoon and the building is now ready to be occupied by the local unit.

The keys were presented to Captain Harris by Warren Waters of Cisco who was building contractor for the building and after the completed building had been accepted by the State and National Guard.

Prior to giving the keys to the local unit, Maj. James H. Boykin of Fort Worth, inspector for the subdivision office at Fort Worth which is a part of the Galveston district.

Here from Austin for the inspection and presentation of the keys was Col. C. N. Morgan of the adjutant general's department and H. W. Howard, contract officer of the Austin office, and P. D. Walters a building inspector for the Fort Worth office, and Sgt. Jess Cole of the Ranger Guard unit.

The handsome building is 108 by 52 feet and is made of Texcrete blocks and steel. It is already equipped with utilities and steel doors are located on the east and south sides of the building for entrance of vehicles. An automatic fire door is between the storage part of the building and the office where the records are kept. Copper cornices and water drains are used on the building.

The building was designed for a vehicle storage building, but will be used temporarily for a meeting place for the local unit.

Murray Plans To Kick Out Red Tainted Unions

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 29 (UP)—CIO President Philip Murray prepared today to toss all communist-tainted unions out of his labor organization to prevent communism from capturing the American labor movement.

Murray will tell the CIO convention meeting here Monday that the American Communist Party is operating "a program of destruction . . . which the CIO wants none of", informed sources said.

In a report already prepared, the hard-hitting union chief will tell the convention that communists have no part in the CIO and the union will take action to oust left-wing affiliates.

Murray will accuse the communist party of working through the left-wing unions to capture the labor movement. He will point out that the communist's plan is evidenced by their "vicious and diabolical campaign" against his acceptance of a "no new wage increase" policy for the striking United Steel workers Union.

The steel workers now have been on strike for 29 days for an insurance and pension plan paid for entirely by the steel companies. Negotiations were apparently deadlocked.

Murray reportedly is extremely bitter over left-wing CIO unions which have charged that he sold out to "big business" when he agreed to accept free pensions and insurance plans in place of a fourth-round general wage increase.

Of an anticipated 200 attendance at the convention, less than 50 delegates were present.

Young Democrats Disband Meeting

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 29 (UP)—In an aura of harmony, Texas' young Democrats disbanded for home and football games today.

The two-day convention of the Democratic Youths was held to continue through today, with Gov. Roy Turner of Oklahoma as principal speaker. When Turner reported he couldn't be present because of pressing legislative duties, the young democratic put a speedy end to the meeting late yesterday.

Max Triplett, Hill County Judge, was named president of the group to succeed Fred H. Korth of Fort Worth. He outlined a simple platform with a singular objective during the coming year—citizenry participation in government. Two resolutions were passed. One would promote a long-range program for removal of present "deplorable conditions" in elementary institutions. The second authorized the state executive committee to name a committee to chart a statewide membership campaign.

Of an anticipated 200 attendance at the convention, less than 50 delegates were present.

Says Communists On Run In World

MINERAL WELLS, Tex., Oct. 29 (UP)—U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson speaking at Mineral Wells' party of the year last night said that Communists now are on the run throughout the world.

This, he said, is despite "the fact that when the Marshall Plan was first started, it looked like all Europe was going to join Stalin."

"Our foreign policy is coasting a lot of money," the state's junior Senator said, "but so did the war."

Gov. Allan Shivers, also a speaker at the party, which honored the state's top officials for "their honest effort to serve the people of Texas efficiently," said "Texas is solvent and sound."

"You and I," the governor told the 750 persons attending, "have a great future in the success of our state . . . it belongs to the people and will continue to belong to them as long as I am Governor."

One Killed, One Hurt In Crash

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 29 (UP)—One woman was killed and her companion critically injured last night when the automobile in which they were riding got out of control and crashed into a culvert near the Lackland Air Base.

The dead woman was identified as Mrs. Alpha Winters, 38, of San Antonio.

Her companion, Mrs. Herbert Cochran, 31, was reported near death at Lackland Base hospital.

Thanks People For Assistance On Barbecue

J. A. Bates, president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, today expressed his appreciation to all who contributed to the success of the barbecue held Thursday night.

He stated that everything had been done that could be done to make it the success that it was.

He expressed particular appreciation to the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company that furnished without charge the Dr. Pepper and orange drinks for the occasion. He also thanked the committee on arrangements, H. C. Henderson, chairman; Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, F. P. Brasher, E. F. Arterburn, and W. F. Creager; W. E. Faifer and the High School Band for furnishing the music; the ticket committee, Gaston Dixon, Delbert Camps, Bruce Maddox, J. W. Elder, Jr., E. T. Eubank, Ted Bahain, J. O. Graham, S. A. Hightower, and Joe Fraley.

Bates said that the Chamber of Commerce is indebted to the Ranger Country Club for use of the grounds and building, the Lone Star Producing Company, school band, and Caddo Masonic Lodge for the chair the Ranger Times for publicity, to T. C. Wylie and Nath Pirkle for assistance in serving the supper and to Morris Newham and the Frozen Food Locker Plant for the fine food.

Murray Plans To Kick Out Red Tainted Unions

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 29 (UP)—CIO President Philip Murray prepared today to toss all communist-tainted unions out of his labor organization to prevent communism from capturing the American labor movement.

Murray will tell the CIO convention meeting here Monday that the American Communist Party is operating "a program of destruction . . . which the CIO wants none of", informed sources said.

In a report already prepared, the hard-hitting union chief will tell the convention that communists have no part in the CIO and the union will take action to oust left-wing affiliates.

Ranger Offered Reserve Unit

LT. Col. Hershel E. Angus announced today that Ranger can be authorized to activate an Organized Reserve Corp Unit.

Major Roland Smith of Brownwood, instructor for the OR in this District, informed Col Angus that by transferring the Hq & Hq Detachment, 4277 Replacement Battalion from Eastland to Ranger, and by showing that there is interest in the unit, he would make application for it to be an ultimate Class A unit, which means a unit entitled to one two hour drill each week, one day's pay each week, and one point toward retirement each week.

The Detachment will have 6 officers and 23 enlisted men.

To make the request for this unit the personnel must be present in Eastland on November 10th at the American Legion Hall at 8 P. M. Col. Angus said.

A meeting of interested persons will be held Monday night at 7:30 P. M. at Annex No. 1, First Baptist Church, to discuss this. Anyone interested should contact Col. Angus, Chaplain D. C. Ham, Homer Gay, Jr., Joe Daskevich, or Wendell A. Halbrooks.

Mild Weather General In Texas

Mild fall weather prevailed over most of Texas today with only occasional rain along the Texas coast to mar the weather picture.

At mid-morning skies were cloudy from the coast inland to Austin, but elsewhere they were clear with some ground fog.

Partly cloudy weather was forecast for the week end except along the coast where it was expected to remain mostly cloudy.

A cold front over Colorado was bearing down on Texas, but wasn't expected to be a severe one by the time it hits the Panhandle tomorrow.

Aside from a freezing 32 degrees at Dalhart this morning, Texas readings generally were in the 40's in West Texas, 50's elsewhere except in South Texas where they were in the 60's. Brownsville's 68 was the highest minimum reported.

Yesterday's maximums ranged from a rain-cooled 63 degrees at Houston to 78 degrees at Brownsville.

Rainfall generally was confined to the coastal sector with Alice reporting 1.27 inches, Palacios 1.04, Corpus Christi 1.06, Laredo .78, Galveston .55, Houston .43, Victoria .56 and Brownsville .04.

Well . . .
I Dunno,
But . . .

Naturally we were right thrilled about that victory at Hamilton Friday night but the finest thing about it is the spirit of the whole thing. It is the general comment that the game was one of the cleanest that fans have ever witnessed and fans are all praising Hamilton fans and players for the fine way in which they took defeat. And that's something when you can take a licking and still smile.

Dr. G. C. Boswell, governor of Rotary International District 186 is bragging about his district. It continues to climb in the ladder of attendance and now is seventh in attendance for Rotary Clubs all over the world. One club in September had four perfect attendance meetings.

We guess he's entitled to do a little bragging.

Livestock At Sale Friday Up Over Last Week

The sale of livestock at the regular Friday sale at the Ranger Livestock Company's barn Friday boomed as nearly 100 head of stock more than last week was brought in for sale.

A total of 455 cattle and calves and 20 head of hogs, were sold at the sale Friday.

Stocker calves brought a top price of $24.10 while stocker cows sold for $6.55. Fat calves brought a top price of $23.50 and fat sows brought from $14.50 to $16.00. Bulls brought a high of $17.25. Stocker pigs sold for as high as $18.00 while top price for hogs was $18.10.

The cattle was estimated as a medium run with most kinds in good demand for stocker cows and good grade stocker calves. Most other cattle was about the same as a week ago.

Towns, mostly within a radius of 50 miles of Ranger, were represented at the sale.

Ranger Baptists To Attend Meet

The Texas State Baptist Convention will be held in El Paso this week and attending from Ranger will be the Rev. and Mrs. David C. Ham, Mrs. Lloyd C. Clem, and Mrs. Lee Mitchell.

The meeting opens Monday with a session for the women of the church in the afternoon and a meeting of laymen and pastors Monday evening.

The general convention opens Tuesday and Tuesday night the session will be given over to foreign missions, Wednesday night to state missions and Thursday night to home missions.

On the Thursday night program the Rev. Ham who was recently promoted to the rank of major in the reserve officers corps, will represent the Southern Baptist Chaplains.

Mrs. Gordon Is Poppy Chairman

Mrs. Con Hazard, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, announced today that Mrs. R. W. Gordon has been appointed Poppy Day chairman and is making arrangements for the annual sale of the poppies in Ranger.

November 5 has been set as the day for the sale and members of the Auxiliary and others will be in downtown Ranger to make the sale.

Proceeds from the sale of the poppies goes toward rehabilitation work among disabled veterans and the poppies are made by the disabled veterans in the veterans hospitals.

The sale is held annually some Saturday close to Armistice Day and is in preparation for the Christmas work that the Auxiliary will do.

WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

Prophets Fought for Social Reform

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

THE earthly fate of the Hebrew prophets, and their deep suffering under persecution, is summarized in the tragic words of Hebrews 11:37: "They were stoned, they were sawn asunder . . . were slain with the sword . . . being destitute, afflicted, tormented."

Why did these chosen and select souls of Israel suffer these tortures? It was certainly not solely for their religious zeal, or their spiritual qualities; not for their earthly estate, for some, like Isaiah, were highly born, and might have been among the socially prominent and politically powerful of their day.

Rather, it was because their religious zeal was not content with formal observances and polite profession. It was a zeal for righteousness, which made them fearless in rebuking sin in high places and in low. Nor was their rebuke of sin general and formal. They were not simply "agin it." We are all against sin in a general way.

What made the prophets distinctive, and what brought upon them severe persecution, was the detailed and specific way in which they attacked the prevalent sins, and especially the social sins, of their time. It is always safe to denounce personal sins in a general and impersonal way. It is when the prophet says, "Thou art the man," that he brings upon himself the wrath and hate of the sinner, and when he denounces the unjust and evil practices from which their perpetrators are profiting that he becomes "an enemy of society."

Nothing is surer in this world than the need of social reform. There has never been an age, or place, among any people, when social injustices and evils were not rampant, and crying for correction.

tion. Yet the role of the social reformer has always been one of danger, sacrifice, and social ostracism. The social reformer of today may be esteemed and honored tomorrow, but Jesus remarked upon how the children praised the prophets whom their fathers had stoned.

THE reformer, of course, sometimes appears in a strange light, and in a very angular form. It was James Russell Lowell, a very real reformer himself, who wrote in his "Interview With Miles Standish" of the "Men of vision, whose gaunt eyes see golden ages rising, Salt of the earth! In what queer guys thou art fond of crystalizing."

But real reformers are to be distinguished from the marginal cranks, and the true reformers are not persecuted for their peculiarities, but because their indictments strike home against conscience and self-interest. The socially elite and successful do not like to have their sins rebuked, either personal or social.

What were the sins that the prophets denounced? What was the good way of social righteousness that they proclaimed? The sins were those that Jesus denounced in the pronouncement of "Woe" in Matthew 23—the exploitation of the poor, the devouring of widows' houses, the selling of the righteous for a pair of shoes, the disregard of human rights and values in the grasping for wealth and power. And against this they set God's way—the way of honesty, man-with-man, of justice and mercy, and devotion to the common good.

It is the continuation of that conflict, through the ages, and even now, that makes the message of the prophets so persistently instructive and vital.

Someone to Love

By IRENE LONNEN ERNHART Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Although Tod Duncan has married Jenny, he still is unable to forgive her for the part she played in his life when she was his girl. Jenny finds her struggle for happiness difficult when Tod takes her to live with his family. There are quarrels and they finally move to a trailer camp while Tod is finishing his college education. Jenny discovers that she is going to have a baby and must quit her job as a model which has given them money to live on. Then Tod meets an old friend from State University, Dick Mays. Dick is quite taken with Jenny and Jenny hopes that Dick comes often to see them—Dick is good for Tod and for her, too.

XIV

JENNY and Rick had a lot of fun in the super-market. He insisted on paying for the groceries, because of so many extravagant items he'd selected himself, mushrooms, some terribly expensive cheese and a bottle of wine.

When Tod returned from his last class Rick, with one of Jenny's ruffled aprons tied around his middle, was in the kitchenette cooking dinner.

Tod was in an extra good humor. He and Rick sampled the wine and had a high time kidding each other. They had just finished the dessert and lit cigarettes when Rick said to Tod, out of a clear sky, "Say, you know Liz Conover?"

"Yes."

"I heard she's getting a divorce already from that Courtney fellow she married last spring."

No one said anything for a second or two. Rick looked from one to the other of them. "Did I say something wrong?"

"No," Tod said. He rose and began hunting for an ash tray.

"The ash tray is right behind you, on the desk," Rick said quietly. "And now tell me what's wrong with my mentioning Liz."

"Well, if you must know Rick," Jenny said, turning the water on in the sink for the dishes. "Tod was engaged to Liz last spring, and she jilted him, and then I caught him sort of on the rebound." She ducked down then to get the soap flakes out of the cupboard, because she couldn't face the angry look on Tod's face.

"That's not true, Jenny, and you know it."

Rick looked uncomfortable. "I didn't mean to bring any skeletons out of the closet."

"It's all right, Rick," Jenny said. She was sure of herself now. "Skeleton or not, it's better to have things out in the open, isn't it? Anyway, I love Tod, and even if I did get him on the rebound, I'm glad I did. We're going to make a success of our marriage."

"Jenny's right," Tod said. His eyes met Rick's briefly as he set the ash tray down on the table.

"Want to drive down to the drug store with me," he said. "I'm out of cigarets."

"I've really got to be going," Rick said.

JENNY protested, but only half-heartedly, and after the usual things were said, Rick left. Tod drove him to his rooming house.

"I didn't know you and Liz were engaged last spring," Rick said as they got in the car.

"We were supposed to be married as soon as I got home from that hospital in New York," Tod said. "She and Courtney eloped the day before I got back."

"You were lucky," Rick said.

"Lucky?" Tod said. "To marry Jenny you mean?"

"And to have escaped marrying Liz. She's no good. She'll be married to half a dozen fellows before she's through. You'd better get her off your mind and be happy with Jenny. She's a swell kid."

Jenny was all finished with the dishes when he got home.

"There's nothing to apologize for, Jenny," he looked down at her, seeing the tremble sweetness of her lips, the softness of her eyes, dark-circled in her thin face. He ought to be ashamed for even thinking of Liz when Jenny was so sweet.

"I guess it's just nerves that makes me fly off the handle so."

"Sure." Tod got out his books and notebooks and sat down at his desk to study. He couldn't get Liz out of his mind.

Aware suddenly that Jenny had been saying something to him, he looked up. "What was that, Jenny?"

"You mean you didn't hear a word I said?"

He shook his head. Her brown eyes were stormy again.

"I said your mother phoned and wanted to talk to you today. They told me at the office. She wouldn't talk to me, but she left her number."

"Maybe I'd better go call her."

AT the trailer camp office he found the slip with the phone number on it in his mail slot.

Ma's querulous voice came loudly and reproachfully over the phone.

"We figured you was pretty busy, but like I told Harriet today, looked like you didn't care what become of us. We sin't seen hide nor hair of you for weeks and weeks."

"I've been thinkin' I must look you up."

"I know Jenny's probably don't everything she can to keep you away from us, but it looks like—"

"Look Ma, if you phoned me to pick a quarrel let's break it off right now. I've been meaning to come around and see you. We sold the shack that belonged to Jenny's father and got $500 for it. I could let you have some money if you're hard up. Jenny wouldn't care if you really needed it."

"No, thanks. Joe's got a good job with a friend of his. He says soon as he can he's goin' to get us a nice place again. Joe'll take care of his old mother even if you don't think enough of her to come around."

"I been busy with school, and Jenny's had to quit work. We'll be over to see you though soon, maybe tomorrow night."

"You don't need to bring her to see me!" Ma said firmly.

He walked back to the trailer slowly. He was feeling a miserable sense of guilt.

Bexar County Slacked Out As Power Fails

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 29 (UP)—All Bexar County and several surrounding towns were thrown into darkness for an hour and 21 minutes last night when four generators of the City Service Company failed.

Company officials said it was the first time in its history that such a wide area had been blacked out at one time by a power failure.

The failure started at 7:25 P. M. and service was not restored until 8:46 P. M., delaying and interrupting movies, football games and other nighttime amusements and throwing all but one radio station (KTSA, which used an emergency power supply) off the air.

One baby was reported delivered at Baptist Memorial Hospital during the blackout with emergency power units being used for electricity.

In addition to San Antonio, the cities of Kerrville, New Braunfels, Boerne, Comfort and Floresville were without power.

Strike To Force Auto Shutdown

A major automobile manufacturer today announced plans to shut down production at two main plants next month, because of steel shortages, while a railroad union official predicted additional cuts impending in train service.

At New York, Cyrus S. Ching, chief federal labor mediator, recessed talks with U. S. Steel, but planned to confer with officials of three other big producers in Washington Sunday and Monday. He said that he was remaining in touch with U. S. steel. Attorney General J. Howard McGrath, meanwhile, disclosed that he is studying whether President Truman has power to seize struck coal mines and steel mills.

Nash motors announced at Detroit that it will be forced to shut down car assembly by the middle of next month at its two main plants at Kenosha, Wis. About 12,000 production workers about 10,000 production workers about the same time, if the steel strike continues.

Ukeleles Coming Back NEW YORK (UP)—The ukelele standard equipment of the really "hep" college boy in the 1920's is making a comeback. Jay Kraus, president of a company which makes ukes, says about 300,000 instruments will be manufactured this year compared with 40,000 to 60,000 before the war. One-third of all the existing "saw" timber in the United States is located in the western half of Washington and Oregon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 30. The Golden Text is: "The Lord is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous" (Proverbs 15:29). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The moral law, which has the right to acquit or condemn, always demands restitution before mortals can 'go up higher.'" (page 11).

Prophets Fought

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

THE earthly fate of the Hebrew prophets, and their deep suffering... under persecution, is sure...
marized in the tragic words...
Hebrews 11:37: "They were stoned... they were sawn asunder...
with the sword...
destitute, afflicted, tormented...
Why did these chosen and...
souls of Israel suffer these...
tures? It was certainly not...
for their religious zeal, or...
spiritual qualities; not for...
earthly estate, for some...
Isaiah, were highly born...
might have been among the...
cially prominent and political...
powerful of their day.

Ranger Heads For District Title As Bulldogs Take 25-20 Victory

FINE BRAND OF FOOTBALL FLASHED BEFORE 4,500

In a thrilling exhibition of football that kept 4,500 fans on their toes four quarters, the Ranger Bulldogs defeated the much touted Hamilton Bulldogs 25 to 20 in a hotly contested game at Hamilton Friday night.

The cool and confident Ranger Bulldogs were never at a loss for tricks to pull the game out of the bag, even though at one point in the game Hamilton led two points. Seldom are football fans treated to the sight of a line that held, bucked and blocked for a backfield that was quick on the trigger for every opportunity that presented itself.

And the Bulldogs won that game on football playing alone without any unusual breaks and with fewer penalties than occur in the average game. Even the Hamilton fans were conceding the fact that Ranger had the best team.

Kenneth Williams received the opening kick on the Ranger 5, picked up some blockers and did a nice bit of running to the Ranger 41.

The bulldogs came out in spread formation with the line unbalanced all the way to the right leaving the center on the end, E. P. Robinson passed the ball back to Buddy Hamrick who in turn gave it back to Robinson who picked up two yards. Two other ground plays failed to bring a first down, and Hamrick kicked to the Hamilton nine.

Hamilton hit the line twice in succession only to lose yardage back to their five and decided to kick on third down. W. O. McColm kicked from behind his goal to his forty and Ranger took over again, Williams picked up one yard before McKie pulled him down. A quick pass from Hamrick to Alton Stiles was broken up, then a quick opening play with Camacho carrying over right guard was good for 14 yards and the first first down of the game. A fumble with Hamilton recovering on their own 23 stopped the Bulldogs drive.

The Hamilton Bulldogs again found that Ranger line impossible to break and were forced to kick. McColm kicked to the Ranger 30 and Billy Simpson returned to the 47. Hamrick in turn found the opposing line stubborn and was forced to kick for the second time in the ball game.

Hamrick's kick was short going out of bounds on the Hamilton 25. McKie on a double reverse was stopped by Dean Elder for a one yard loss. McColm hit the line over center and picked up three before Hamrick and Elder pulled him in. McKie again tried to run but was stopped for no gain by Robinson who was in there fast and hard to stop the play. McColm got off a nice kick to the Ranger 37. This was the deepest ed a Hamilton fumble on the 21. In three plays Ranger scored again with Camacho carrying the last 12 yards on a pitch out. The Bulldogs elected to run for the extra point and failed to make it, but were in the lead 12 to 0.

Camacho's kick was short and Hamilton took it on their 46. On their first play Freeman dropped back and found Tenneson open on the Ranger 35. Freeman's pass was true and Tenneson raced on over for the score. Knowles proceeded to kick the pinto to trim Ranger's lead to 12 to 7 as the half ended.

Ranger kicked, opening the half and Knowles returned to the Hamilton 35. Hamilton came out for the first time in a spread formation of their own which caught Ranger off balance and on the second play of the third quarter, fleet footed McKie raced around right end for 65 yards and a score. Knowles again converted and Ranger dropped out of the lead to trail 14 to 12. But it was anybody's ball game.

Ranger evidently did not like the idea of being behind. After getting the kick off on their own 15, it took them exactly seven plays to regain the lead. Williams hit the line for 5, then Hamrick made it a first down. Camacho skinned end for seven, and Hamrick again made it a first down. Hamrick dropped back and shot a long pass which was complete to Simpson who raced to the six, the play covering 55 yards. Hamrick hit the line twice for the score. Stiles failed on the try for point and the score read 19 to 14.

Taking the kick on their 37, Freeman tried to hit McKie on the 50 with a pass, but Jimmy Patterson intercepted and raced to Hamilton's 35. Three line plays and a five yard penalty moved the ball inside the Hamilton 10. Hamrick dropped back to pass and was trapped back on the 18 for a loss. Again Hamrick dropped back to pass and hit Stiles as he crossed the goal for the score. Hamrick converted to give Ranger a 25 to 14 lead.

Camacho kicked as the quarter ended. Hamilton finally found themselves for a minute and moved the ball to the Ranger 44 before losing it on downs. The Bulldogs started a drive again only to lose the ball on a fumble on the Hamilton 42. Again the Hamilton Lads moved into Ranger territory, but only to the 40 where they lost the ball again on downs. Again the Ranger Lads took over and started moving. After crossing the fifty an odd thing happened, Hamrick slipped through the line got to the forty where he was hit hard, the ball flipped out of his hands up in the air into Knowles arms, who out raced everyone for 60 yards and a score for Hamilton. Knowles failed to convert leaving the score 25 to 20.

Williams took the kick on the five and returned to the Ranger 30. Williams hit the line for eight yards. Hamrick on a keeper picked up ten to the 48. Camacho went into the line crossed the 50 and the Hamilton 41 before being stopped, on the last play of the game.

The Ranger Bulldogs as a whole were outstanding, they worked as a team and they were victorious. It is hard to say who stood out, but on defense Dean Elder played a whale of a game. He was all over the field knocking down passes and breaking up ground plays. He was in on practically every play. Kenneth Williams who has been a substantial ground gainer all season looked especially good. He hit the line with a viciousness he hadn't shown all year, to pick anywhere from 4 to 10 yards every time he carried the ball. The Bulldogs played a bang up game which wasn't as close as the score would indicate. They have passed a crucial test with flying colors and are going a long, long way.

A new way with apple dumplings is to serve them warm with a cinnamon candy sauce.

It's apple time, and time to revive a popular dessert—apple dumplings. Those that mother used to make had whole apples baked in a pastry wrap. Here's a new treatment using flaky biscuit to create apple roll dumplings.

Spread chopped apple and brown sugar over rolled-out biscuit dough, then roll up like a jelly roll, cut in slices and stand them in a baking dish. Pour over them a spicy and colorful sirup made with those "red hot" cinnamon candies, and then bake. This bakes the sauce and dumplings all together and gives them a candied effect.

Besides that "apple a day," these dumplings contribute a goodly quota of B-vitamins and iron in the enriched biscuit base.

With their apple richness and spicy sauce, apple roll dumplings are sure to be in demand as long as apples are in season and that's most of the year.

SAUCY APPLE DUMPLINGS

2 cups sifted enriched flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
4 medium apples
6 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup brown sugar

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut or rub in shortening. Add milk to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead gently one-half minute. Roll into rectangular sheet about eight inches wide and one-eighth inch thick. Pare and core apples and chop coarsely.

Spread evenly over dough. Sprinkle with brown sugar. Roll up like jelly-roll and seal edge. Cut in two inch slices. Place in greased baking pan. Pour one cup cinnamon sauce over slices in pan. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 40 minutes. Makes eight dumplings.

CINNAMON CANDY SAUCE

1/2 cup cornstarch
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup red cinnamon candies (red hot)
2 1/2 cups water

Mix together cornstarch and brown sugar. Add candies and water. Cook until clear and thickened, stirring constantly. Serve warm or cold over dumplings. Makes enough sauce for eight servings, one-fourth cup each.

WHAT with ducking for apples, hiding from witches and telling fortunes, Halloween party night will be strenuous. That means some extra food besides the apples and popcorn balls and cider.

Here's a Halloween menu worked out by Fritz Rydgen, expert in such happier matters: curried cheese sandwiches, pineapple and carrot salad molds, olives, pickles, spicy chocolate tarts, coffee, milk, cider.

Rings of plain and sugared store doughnuts, red apples and nuts make a handsome and edible Halloween centerpiece.

Spicy Chocolate Tarts with "punkin" faces

(Serves 6)

Two squares unsweetened chocolate, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 cup water, 6 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups milk, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon ground allspice, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 egg, slightly beaten; 2 teaspoons butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 6 baked tart shells, 6 pastry "punkin" faces.

Place chocolate, 1/4 cup of the sugar and water in saucepan. Cook about 5 minutes, stirring constantly, or until thickened and smooth. Mix flour, salt, spices and remaining sugar in top of double boiler. Add milk very gradually,

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Stewed prunes and apricots, cooking whole wheat cereal, toast, muffins, butter or fortified margarine, marmalade, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Vegetables, chowder, crackers, toasted peanut butter and grated raw carrot sandwiches, fruit bowl, tea, milk.

DINNER: Tomato juice, rice ring with creamed tuna fish and peas, buttered broccoli, enriched hard rolls, butter or fortified margarine, spicy chocolate tarts, coffee, milk.

stirring until smooth. Add chocolate mixture.

Place over boiling water and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Continue cooking 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Pour some over beaten egg, stirring constantly. Return to mixture in double boiler and blend well. Add butter and vanilla and stir well. Cool.

Turn into tart shells and chill until cold. Garnish tops with pastry "punkin" faces cut from thinly rolled pastry and baked until light golden brown in 400 degrees F. oven. Tops may be garnished with whipped cream instead of pastry faces.

Escapes Hold Up Taproom

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29 (UP)—Two of the eight convicts who fled a Delaware jail Wednesday night held up a West Philadelphia taproom early today and escaped, still wearing the blue dungarees in which they made their break, police reported.

Every policeman in the city was alerted after detectives said three persons "positively identified" the bandits from photographs as Willie Edwards, 28, and Joseph Lankford, 25, two of 3 remaining fugitives from the New Castle Prison, near Wilmington, Del., 55 miles south of here. A general alarm naming the convicts cautioned police to exercise caution since the men were heavily armed. Two car patrolmen pressed the search in the area of the tavern.

3-YEAR-OLD BOY RESCUED FROM ABANDONED WELL

By O. B. Lloyd, Jr.
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 29 (UP)—Three year old Bobby Gow awoke in Brackenridge general hospital today with only a "slight skin abrasion" on his forehead to show for his three hours of terror 14 feet down in an abandoned irrigation well.

A fireman and two helpers fought their way into the earth, working with their bare hands at times, and prevented a tragedy such as that which took the life of little Kathy Ficus, golden-haired youngster who fell into an abandoned well at San Marino, Cal. last April.

Mrs. Jack Holmes' mother, Mrs. Barksdale, passed to her reward Saturday night and funeral services were Monday evening at Chico, with burial in the Eastland Cemetery.

Mrs. D. B. Tankersley returned home Saturday after spending the week at Levelland with her son and family, Clifton Tankersley.

Mrs. Grace Funk returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Tankersley Sunday, after visiting in Hico for the past 10 days.

Mrs. Wince Graham visited her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Guess and Rannie in Monahans over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Sturm visited in this community Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. W. E. Tankersley in a Ranger hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wheat, Verna and Mrs. Jeff Laughlin attended the Dallas Fair Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Dobbs of Eastland visited Mrs. L. J. Bargett Tuesday.

Harmony Baptist Church — It was privilege to have with us over the weekend nine young people from Howard Payne College, Brownwood, members of the Life Service Band, a group banded together for the cause of Christ. They arrived here at 4:20 Saturday afternoon and stayed in various homes over the community.

We had services Saturday night, Sunday morning, Sunday evening and Sunday night. An all-day meeting was held Sunday with between 75 and 100 persons attending (in spite of the disagreeable weather). Both the noon and evening meals were spread in the Annex. Good preaching. Good singing. Good testimonies. Good eats. You missed a good time by not attending.

Those attending from Brownwood were: Bro. Sportman, Gerald Cannon, Eugene Copen, J. E. Hicks, Sarah Grant, Ilene House, Wanda Orrick, Joe Smith and Dorothy Wheat.

Scores of workmen aided in the operation as hundreds of spectators stood by silently, praying for the little sandy-haired boy.

Physicians at the hospital said Bobby was in "excellent" condition after rescue workers last night pulled the tear-stained boy from the eight-inch well casing in the backyard of his home.

Bobby plunged into the well while playing with his brother and sister, Jimmy, 8, and Peggy 12.

Moments after Peggy reported simply to her parents that "Bobby fell in the well," firemen and construction workers, determined that another "baby trap" death should not occur, wheeled giant earth moving machines into the yard of the Gow's modest frame house just outside Austin's city limits.

Bobby's whimpered cries from deep in the pipe with one hand stretched upward and the other pinned against his body. A line, dropped over his extended hand, was held by rescuers during the operation to keep him from slipping deeper into the well.

The boy's father, James, knelt beside the shaft throughout the work to free his son. He spoke soothingly to him, reassuring Bobby that he would be all right.

Marshall Miller, a district fire chief working down in the pit with two helpers, said "the boy would cut up a little bit now and then, but his father would tell him, 'settle down down there, we'll get you out in a few minutes' and then he would settle down."

"We cut a hole above the baby in the pipe," he said. "We used a chisel and a hammer to begin with, then we finished with heavy tin snips."

When the hole was large enough Miller reached a hand through the opening and grasped Bobby's extended hand.

"We didn't want to take a chance on him falling," he said. His helpers enlarged the hole while Miller held tight to Bobby.

Spectators surged against the police lines holding them back as the boy's tiny figure was lifted from the well. A gasping sigh of relief swept across the crowd as they realized Bobby was still alive.

Many dropped to their knees to offer a prayer of thanks for his delivery.

Eager hands reached out to wrap a warm blanket around his small body.

Mrs. Gow, who had collapsed earlier from anxiety, recovered and rode with Bobby in the ambulance to the hospital.

JUDGE WITHHOLDS MONEY OFFERED PREP SCHOOL

NATCHEZ, Miss., Oct. 29 (UP)—Judge George W. Armstrong today withheld the multi-million dollar endowment he had offered Tiny Jefferson Military College, and trustees of the school said they wouldn't miss the money.

They had failed to agree to terms under which Armstrong, through a family foundation, would assume virtual control of the prep school and put in a program stressing supremacy of the white race. The endowment of oil land might have amounted to $50,000,000.

Armstrong said the trustees had repudiated conditions agreed to before publicity aroused a storm of critical comment over the proposal. He stressed that he was not opposed to the negro and Jewish races "as such, but I am opposed to racial mongrelization."

Armstrong refused to go through with previously-announced plans "because we would not take the terms he thought we had agreed upon," a spokesman for the trustees said.

S. N. Murphy, chairman of the executive committee, said he spoke for 11 of the 12 trustees. The twelfth is J. A. Armstrong, son of the aged former Texas judge, who had first revealed plans for the gift on condition that Jefferson put white supremacy at the top of the curriculum.

"The trustee will close the institution before they will accept the money on those terms," said S. N. Murphy, chairman of the executive committee. "We will probably have to close after this year when we expect a big deficit."

"We feel that we can at least keep the pride that we have had for 147 years."

In Dallas, Tex., meanwhile, President Unphre Lee of Southern Methodist University denied a report that Armstrong had offered SMU $5,000,000 on condition that it bar Jewish students. A trustee of the University, Dr. W. Harrison Baker, had made the statement.

Gow remained behind briefly to watch the towering machines fill in the well.

"Thank God, nobody will ever fall into it again," the bespectacled little man said in a voice weak from the ordeal.

He said a wooden cover of heavy planking nailed to a two-by-four frame had been over the well yesterday.

"I don't know who took it off," he said. "I don't know if the children did or not."

Assistant fire chief W. B. Erwin who supervised the operation said he doubted at first that Bobby would be alive by the time the rescuers reached him.

Murphy said he expected the young Armstrong would resign from the board immediately. He was elected recently, Murphy said when the endowment first began to take shape.

Catholic Priests Freed By Czechs

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 29 (UP)—President Klement Gottwald has freed 127 Catholic priests from prison after they pledged their loyalty to the Communist regime and requested pardons, the official news agency reported today.

The freeing of the priests was reported four days after the Catholic board of bishops announced that it had authorized priests to take a qualified oath of allegiance to the government and to accept the higher salaries it offered them.

In an official statement by the council, made public Tuesday, the bishops announced their willingness to resume negotiations with the state on their months-long struggle.

The agency report was the first official acknowledgment by the government that priests had been jailed. Unofficial estimates put the number of imprisoned clergy at between 300 and 500.

Contending Teams Walk Off Field

WINFIELD, W. Va., Oct. 29 (UP)—The rules say when a team walks off the field in a football game, it automatically forfeits a 1-0 decision to the opposition—but what happens when both teams pull the "gromyko act"?

That problem faced officials of the Winfield-Mason City High school game here yesterday when both sides, incensed over decisions by the arbiters, stalked from the gridiron late in the final period with the score tied at 7-all.

There was grumbling from both teams throughout 46 minutes and 40 seconds of the contest. Then came an official decision that neither could bear and both teams left the officials standing alone on the field with a minute and 20 seconds still remaining officially in the game.
