The Best of Texas is My Best BETWEEN US...
by Janice Lee

A man and his wife had a love spat and drove along a country road without saying a word until a mule brayed.

"One of your relatives?" the husband asked.

"Yes, by marriage," she replied.

Today's guest star again is one "J. Cobbett," pen name of a Ranger man whose topic for this trip is "Selfishness—Pleasure" which he explains thus:

Have you ever had pleasure out of a thing that causes suffering and destruction for others? Do you laugh in amusement while other men in anguish at the same thing?

I have, with majestic awe, marveled at the beauty of the storm over the ridge. I have stood breathless beholding the beauteous array of colors of black, white, green, amber, and pink so artistic interwoven; a flash and a streak of fire works that were so regularly controlled. But as the storm came over the ridge toward me, the scene suddenly changes from one of gorgeous majesty to one of desperation, despair, and doom. Why has such a clamorous feeling been victimized by degradation of fear?

I have heard lunatics on speak of beautiful funerals so placed to condole dead ones who are in the store of deprivation and grief. I have seen people read only, for entertainment, articles of tragedies of burning homes, of auticides, and of lingering illness. But such storms in their mist motivates a different feeling the friction of which tears them apart.

How can these differences be bridged without succumbing to a long day on one hand or ending stone-throwing on the other?

We can share a goodly portion of that feeling that we have received for ourselves with our fellow sufferers. We can help them by a kindly word or deed; not or show—but let it be a toning echo of the fiber that is within us. We must to some degree feel a sorrow for every grief, a gladness or every joy. Don't look too envious at the other fellow's wealth; not hopeless at his misfortune. Even be courteous to the fide.

Selfishness broods trouble; but kindness engenders the brotherhood of man.

Head: "How old do you think I am?"

RANGER JUNIOR COLLEGE OFFERS LOWEST TUITION RATE FOR KOREAN VETS

Attention, Korean War veterans! You can get the best for less at Ranger Junior College in Ranger.

Tuition for war veterans, Dr. Price Ashton, RJC president, said today is only $25 for a semester—four and one-half months.

This figure, the college head pointed out, is $15 lower than the rate offered by any other accredited educational institution in this section of the state. In addition, he explained, the very reasonable RJC tuition fee per semester is over $100 cheaper than that offered by senior colleges in the Southwest.

While veterans are enrolled for daytime or evening classes at Ranger Junior College, they are eligible to receive Veterans Administration subsistence allowances while taking advantage of the opportunity to secure a college education. Veterans with dependents are allowed up to $160 monthly and single men can draw $110 per month.

And for the benefit and convenience of working veterans who hold full-time jobs, Ranger Junior College offers evening classes.

The institution offers fully accredited courses with credits recognized for transfer to senior colleges.

"We cordially invite Korean War veterans to investigate the

U. S. CHECKS SET RECORDS DURING JULY

The Commerce Department reported that the personal income of Americans was at a record rate of $288,000,000,000 a year in July—more than $1,500,000,000 higher than in June.

Climbing payrolls of private industry accounted for virtually the entire increase. Farm income and government payrolls were little changed.

For the first seven months of 1953, the report said, personal income was at a $284,000,000,000 annual rate, or 7 per cent higher than in the same period of last year.

This made it appear probable that 1953 would set an all-time record for personal income.

The term "personal income" as used by the department embraces wages and salaries, income from rents, proprietorships and partnerships, dividends and interest, and other types of individual income.

Most of the rise in industrial payrolls to an annual rate of $167,500,000,000 occurred in the textile, clothing, shoe and other "soft goods" manufacturing industries.

Both wage rates and total employment were slightly higher in these fields than in June. Employment also expanded in construction. In the durable goods industries—autos, appliances, hardware and the like—payrolls remained stable.

The volume of crops marketed went up in July, but the increase was virtually offset by lower farm prices.

In the first seven months of the year, farm income was at an annual rate of $18,000,000,000 or 10 per cent below the same period of 1952.

$3,628,638 Aid Alloted Texas School Meals

Uncle Sam has set aside $3,628,638 for operation of the national school lunch program in Texas during this school year, an increase of $38,623 above last year's figure.

The Department of Agriculture announced that $67,010,000 has been apportioned among the 48 states, the District of Columbia and the territories and possessions.

A spokesman for the Production & Marketing Administration, which administers the program, explained that each dollar of federal money must be matched by about $1.50 from sources within the state.

The funds are apportioned among the states, territories and possessions on the basis of the number of school children between the ages of 5 and 17 and the per capita income. Distribution of the money within the state is a responsibility of the State Department of Education.

Only Pennsylvania and New York received a larger slice than Texas.

TFWC To Observe Americanism Week, September 13-19

Plans for observance of Americanism Week September 13-19 by the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs were launched today by Mrs. Van Hook Stubbs, president, September 17 is the 166th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution.

Raising funds for restoration of Independence Hall at Philadelphia is a special project which Texas clubwomen are being urged to support. The state's part toward the $250,000 restoration has been set at $7,000 by the General Federation.

Asking that every Texas club participate is Mrs. Florence Johnson Scott of Rio Grande City, state Americanism chairman for the Texas Federation and past president. She says "We cannot let the shrine where the Declaration of Independence was adopted, the Constitution drafted, and our first president installed fall into neglect."

The emphasis on Americanism was initiated by Mrs. Oscar Ahlgren, national president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Her announced objective is to focus attention on the benefits of American democracy with its opportunity for achievement built on respect for the rights of the individual.

Texas clubs are being asked to carry this fall's program emphasizing a return to basic American principles into the schools of the state. An essay contest on "What America Means to Me" will provide the winning high-school entrant on a trip to Philadelphia, Washington, and New York.

The original essay—between 800 and 1000 words on 8 x 11 paper, one side only—must deal with the freedoms provided by our Constitution, the struggles of our forefathers for freedom preceding the signing of the Declaration of Independence and the adoption of our Constitution, and their significance in forming our American heritage. Mrs. Scott as state chairman suggests that local clubs stage essay contests, and send the winners to her by November 1.

Club program emphasizing American history and principles, the difference between democracy and communism, recognition of new voters, and related projects will play their part in Americanism Week and the accompanying educational program.

Between Us . . .

Friend: "Oh, about thirty-six."

Heavy: "How did you guess?"

Friend: "I didn't. I just counted the rings under your eyes."

Korean veterans who read this column, here's a tip: If you want a college education—and what a great and profitable asset it will be in the degree-important years ahead—you can get your first two years work easily and conveniently, yes, and cheaply, too, right here in Ranger at Ranger Junior College. Dr. Price Ashton, a grand guy and a war veteran himself (he served in the Pacific with the Marines during the hottest combat action during World War II), explained to this reporter yesterday p.m. just how inexpensive it is to attend Ranger Junior College. Look elsewhere in this edition of The Times for further details. . . .

All of you neighbors who're planning trips over the coming Labor Day weekend are urged to observe these three simple rules: 1. Cut your usual cruising speed 10 miles an hour. 2. Double check before passing or changing lanes. 3. Don't compete in traffic. Let the other guy go first. According to a release from the National Safety Council 400 Americans are due to die on the nation's highways during the Labor Day weekend. We don't want that to happen to any of our Ranger folks. Forty million vehicles are due to be on the move this weekend. So—be careful! . . .

Pfc. Billy E. (Red) Townzen, serving with the U. S. armed forces over in far-off Korea, recently wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Townzen that he is receiving The Ranger Times now and is enjoying all the news from back home. Billy is serving with the 7th Infantry Division, Battery B, 48th Field Artillery Battalion. He enlisted in the Army on last Nov. 18 and received his basic at Fort Bliss, El Paso. He was shipped overseas to Korea on April 24 of this year. They had it pretty rough.

Pfc. Townzen wrote, in taking Ice Cream Cone Island and famous Pork Chop Hill away from hard-fighting American GIs, "I'm sure I'll have to stay over here a lot longer," he said, "but since the truce has been signed I can stand it, knowing I won't be shot at now." The Ranger private did say, however, that he hoped to be home "before long" . . . Attention, all you Chamber of Commerce directors: You've got a date for tonight at 6 p. m. at King's Cafe in downtown Ranger for your final session of the fiscal year. President

Record Rainbow Trout

J. JEFFERSON MILLER of Pikeville, Md., a suburb of Baltimore, caught a ten and one-half pound rainbow trout in Jasper National Park in August; the largest rainbow caught in the waters of North America's largest national park since 1941. Trolling, it took Miller forty-two minutes to land the twenty-eight and one-half inch fish. Miller used a glass casting rod with a ten-pound leader.

Charlie Joe Owen and R. V. (Rip) Galloway, secretary-manager of the chamber, are urging 100 per cent attendance for the important meeting . . .

"That's a flimsy dress you're wearing."
"That's a flimsy excuse for staring."

Last year was the highest accident year in traffic history—and most of these accidents were caused by bad driving, not icy, skiddy weather or old rattlers.

With faster cars and sleeker highways sucking Americans into a strange, new world of 70 . . . 80 . . . 90 . . . miles per hour, there's grave doubt that most drivers are half as fit as they think they are. The following selections from quizzes which were compiled for a magazine by ranking safety, vision and traffic experts are one way in which drivers can test their skills—but, warns the publication, a good score simply indicates that the driver is good on paper.

1. In a Jam—In city traffic, your gas pedal suddenly jams and no matter how you try, you can't release it. What two things should you do—and quickly?
2. In a Groove—You are driving along a city street and your wheels become grooved in slippery streetcar tracks. The car sways—how can you get out?
3. Blowout—A front tire blows out, as you are barreling along at

New Truck Law Be In Effect On August 26

Texas truckers have a pair of new laws to bone up on within the next few days. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that the two measures, which were enacted by the 55th Texas Legislature, will go into effect on Aug. 26.

One of the laws provides that if a trucker overloads his vehicle in excess of the gross weight or perishable merchandise, in which instances the operator shall be permitted to seek the nearest practical point along his route where his load may be protected from damage or destruction before being required to secure additional registration.

The other law, Garrison explained, provides, generally, that any operator, other than the registered owner or his agent, of a commercial motor vehicle or truck tractor must file with the State Safety Department a copy of the lease or other agreement under which the vehicle is being operated. In addition, he must carry copies of the lease and of the letter of transmittal to the Department in the vehicle.

Kent Odum, Chief of the License and Weight Division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said that this law is designed to curb "outlaw" truckers who afford no protection to shippers. He said that a copy of a booklet, giving detailed explanations of the law's provisions, will be sent to any trucker who requests it by writing to him at Austin.

Protect Your Child's EYESIGHT with FORESIGHT

... PROVIDE PROPER STUDY LIGHTING

Your child's precious eyes will be protected from fatigue and eyestrain if you provide proper lighting for study and other seeing tasks in your home. Children cannot be expected to appreciate fully the importance of good lighting and what it will mean to them . . . but you will earn their gratitude in years to come by making sure they have the advantage of good lighting during formative years when it is so important.

Poor lighting and eyestrain can contribute to poor grades in school and the unhappiness that comes with a feeling of failure.

Don't let this happen to your child. Provide the right size bulbs and study lamps, and enjoy the satisfaction of knowing that you are protecting the eyesight and happiness of your child.

It's easy and inexpensive to provide the proper study lamps and bulbs for sight-saving. See your favorite dealer today!

Back To School Program Should Be Well Planned

If you've been keeping track of the days on the calendar, or noticing the clock on the good old summer time. You suddenly remember the string you tied on your finger last week was to remind you to help the students of the house get their gear ready and decide what and how much they are going to take back to the campus. If this is your pride and joy's first trip to school you will want to make sure whatever they need will be there when they arrive. On the other hand, if the scholars are making the return trip to school, experience will tell them their bags, boxes, and luggage are practically there if they are started right.

In any event, whether you've got a quarterback or a cheerleader in your house to get off to school, here are a few very important reminders when sending their baggage ahead:

1. Be sure to remove all tags and all knots tied and labels that have old addresses.

2. Put a label with full name and address, and school or college address inside each trunk, suitcase and package.

3. Cushion all fragile articles carefully.

4. Put two address tags on the outside of each piece of baggage. (Any Railway Express office will furnish them free.)

5. Print complete name and address, home address and declared value on each tag.

6. Be sure each trunk and bag is carefully locked, straps buckled

MASS FEEDING TO BE STUDIED AT CAMP HOOD; WOULD COPE WITH DISASTER SUFFERING

A three-day class in mass feeding procedures aimed at improving speed and efficiency in time of disaster will be held at Fort Hood on Sept. 8, 9 and 10.

The class will be conducted jointly by the Texas Division of Civil Defense and Disaster Relief, the Federal Civil Defense Administration, and Fourth Army Headquarters. Attending it will be civil defense workers from over the state.

William L. McGill, state coordinator of civil defense, explained that the main objective of the course will be to give individuals the training necessary to set up and administer mass feeding centers in disaster situations, or to conduct training courses for personnel in their respective communities.

He also pointed out that such training is vital particularly in a state such as Texas. This state has more natural disasters than any other state in the nation, and in the past few months has had to deal with major ones at Waco and San Angelo, as well as along the swollen Sabine River.

The course has been organized to make full use of practical work in the field. In addition to mass feeding instruction, the course will include such training as emergency water purification, prevention of food contamination, foods to serve, and field expedients.

The course was developed by the Army Quartermaster General to be given in various areas throughout the United States on a one-time basis. The idea then is to have it taught in turn to other civil defense workers by those who attend the Fort Hood school.

Instructing the civil defense officials will be experts from the Army Food Service School.

Texas Ranks 4th In Number Auto Registrations

Texas ranks fourth among the states in the number of motor vehicles registered this year the Commerce Department's Bureau of Public Roads estimated.

While Texas is sixth in population, it is surpassed only by California, New York and Pennsylvania in the registration of cars, trucks and buses.

A preliminary estimate of 1953 motor-vehicle registrations showed 3,258,000 in Texas this year, a 3.3 per cent increase over the 3,156,337 registered in 1952.

In the country as a whole, registrations are expected to reach the 14,700,000 mark this year. Passenger cars will number 45,035,000 a 2.8 per cent increase over 1952, while trucks and buses are expected to total 9,674,000, a 2.4 per cent rise.

California, with 5,405,000 registrations, will lead all other states by more than a million vehicles, and the second-ranking state, New York, will pass the four-million mark for the first time, officials predicted.

Buffalo Be Seen Waco Texas Fair

A herd of buffalo will be on display at the Heart O' Texas Fair in Waco, Sept. 24 through Oct. 4. Fred Hall Sr., Valley Mills rancher, who owns one of the few herds in the Southwest, will lend the exposition a bull, 10 cows and a calf from the herd of 30 of the almost extinct creatures which live on the Three H Ranch. The ranch derives its name from the fact that three Halls, the father and his sons, Fred Jr., and Robert, are associated in its management. Hall has owned buffalo for several years and the animals are almost domesticated. In fact, the rancher can get one of the buffalo to eat right out of hand and, of all things, watermelon!

About a year ago, Hall gave a barbecue at which buffalo meat was served. M. D. Corbin, executive vice president of the fair, expressed appreciation to Hall for the exhibit.

"Being able to see so close range some of the animals whose ancestors roamed by the hundreds of thousands over Texas will be interesting from a historical and sentimental standpoint," Corbin said. "This is another of the many features which will make the Heart O' Texas Fair outstanding."

Albany, are moving to Olden to start their son in school.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bob Patterson visited his parents here Sunday.

If your tires wear smooth in the center — READ THIS ABOUT THE GREAT GULF TIRE

WHY DO so many tires wear smooth down the center, yet still have good rubber along the edges? It's simply because their tread design forces the center area to bear the brunt of the load. But with the Gulf Tire it's a different story. This tire is designed with a wider, flatter tread that distributes the load of your car more evenly. As a result, the Gulf tread wears more evenly from one edge to the other—lasts far longer.

SURE-FOOTED TREAD WITH SHARP SAWTEETH

With 7 ribs, there's a "riding bar" down the center of the Gulf tire. Thus, just where the load pressure is greatest, you ride on rubber—not on a groove.

These 7 zigzag ribs help stop skids before they start. Their flex-wiping action breaks up water film on wet roads.

The tire runs cooler (and safer) at high speeds, because of a special ingredient in the rubber.

Less chance of blowouts and carcass failures, because a double breaker strip cushions shocks.

Warranty accompanies every Gulf Tire—is honored by Gulf Dealers everywhere!

Sidewall shields protect tire against curbstone bruises.

This tire can stand punishment, because it has a stronger carcass with stronger, new-type cords. And more cords in every inch of every ply!
