Callahan County Pioneers Gather at Kendrick Park Today

Callahan County Pioneer meet today in Kendrick Park in the Denton community in their third annual reunion. Several thousand Callahanans with many visitors will be there. The Kendrick Park is located on the Harvy Kendrick old home place one of the first homes built in the Denton community which is one of the oldest settlements in the county.

There will be some sadness in this reunion for a number of our beloved pioneers have passed on since our reunion last year; among them, Harvey Kendrick and his sister, Mrs. Worth Williams of the Denton Community; Mrs. Jasper McCoy, on whose ranch the first reunion was held in 1936; J. T. Edwards and Tirra Pool, of Eula; Mrs. H. Windham of Tecumseh; Mrs. Mary Brightwell of Burnt Branch; Mose Franklin of Baird; who were among the first settlers in the county and others whose names we do not recall and whose memory will be honored in tribute to-day.

The park has been put in nice condition by the committee and every thing is in readiness for the celebration.

The program opens with a Sing Song at 10 o'clock, followed by an address by Shields Heyser, of Wichita Falls. See program:

The First National Bank, of Baird, will close at 11 o'clock this morning and remain closed the remainder of the day. All Dry Good Stores, also the Curtis Variety Store in Baird, will close from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. giving all clerks an opportunity to attend the reunion.

Bayou Students Have Caverns Excursions

A group of high school students from the Bayou school returned this week from a trip to the Carlesbad Caverns. The students were accompanied by their superintendent Mr. C. W. Fowler, Mrs. Fowler and J. E. Bibbs, a member of the board of trustees.

The school bus was used to transport the crowd and the total expense of the trip is estimated at $15.13, or one dollar per person. The cost was borne by the school district. Most of the food supplies, jelly, jars of butter for toast, and other commodities were taken along to help cut the cost of the trip.

A splendid time is reported by the students and plans are being made to make this an annual affair. This example set by the Bayou schools of giving the students an educational tour of the Carlesbad Caverns is a splendid thing for other schools to follow. Since it has been proved that it can be made so economically perhaps others will do just that.

Seniors enjoying this trip were: Frona McDonald, Lorene Jones, Fairie Fowler, Louise Baggett, Cecil Jones, Frances Smedley, Golda Foster, Nell Tabor, Melton Shelton drove the bus.

Turkey Creek School Consolidates With Cottonwood

County Superintendent B. C. Chrisman attended a joint meeting of the Turkey Creek and Cottonwood school boards. The Cottonwood trustees entered into a contract to transfer the entire Turkey Creek School to Cottonwood for the coming year.

Previously the Cottonwood board passed an order for the standardization of the school. This will necessitate the transferring of part of the high school grades to Cross Plains. Bus transportation will be furnished to these students.

EPISCOPAL SERVICE

Rev. Willis P. Gerhart will preach at Evening Prayer service at the Episcopal Chapel of the Lord's Prayer Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Everyone cordially invited to attend the service.

Motorists Routed Over Highway 89

Through cooperation of chambers of Abilene, Sweetwater, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa and Pecos a sign has been erected one mile east of Weatherford on Fort Worth highway to direct traffic westward over Highway 89.

The highway, shorter than the northern route, is from Weatherford to a point near Strawn. However, the route has not been officially opened. The sign is made visible night and day by reflector buttons outlining the letters.

Mrs. M. D. Hoover Bitten By Mad Dog

Mrs. M. D. Hoover 420 Eads St., Dallas was bitten by a mad dog Saturday. The dog a pet of Mrs. Hoover bit her when she attempted to feed it. The dogs head showed the presence of rabies and Mrs. Hoover is taking the Pasteur treatment for the prevention of rabies.

Mrs. Hoover is a former resident of Baird. She is a sister of Mrs. Lee Eeses and Larmer Henry.

Postoffice To Be Moved To New Quarters Sept. 1

Due to delay in receiving equipment for the Baird Postoffice which was scheduled to be moved to the Hadley building August 1st the move has been placed around Sept. 1st according to information received by Miss John Gilliland postmaster.

A part of the equipment was received some three weeks ago, but as all new equipment is to be installed by the postoffice department it is necessary that all be installed before the postoffice is moved to the new location.

Two Men Held In Baird Jail

Two men are being held in the Baird jail their arrest following a blow-out on their car on the highway west of Clyde Wednesday when they drove the car some distance off the highway, which aroused the suspicion of nearby residents who notified the Sheriff department and Sheriff R. L. Edwards and Deputy C. R. Nordyke went out and brought the men to town and lodged them in jail. The officers are also holding the car and two radios found in the car.

BOB ESTES WINS STEER RIDING CHAMPIONSHIP CHEYANNE, WYOMING

Bob Estes, Baird's youthful and outstanding rodeo performer has added new laurels in the rodeo field the past week by winning the steer riding championship in the Cheyenne, Wyoming Rodeo the past week. Bob has been riding in rodeos ever since he was big enough to 'fork' a horse and for the past several years has been in many rodeos in both bronco and steer riding events.

Bob is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Estes of Baird.

W. H. AIRHART SUCCEEDS A. L. COOK

Mr. W. H. Airhart, Administrative Assistant in Agriculture Conservation, started work in the county office last Monday, Aug. 1. He takes the position held by Mr. A. L. Cook, who is now employed in the Taylor County office.

Mr. Airhart was promoted to this county from Palo Pinto County where he has been working the last 7 months. Previous to that time he had spent 18 months working in the State A. A. of. office at College Station and is thoroughly familiar with all of the details of the Agricultural Conservation Program.

Farmers of the county are invited to come into the office and meet Mr. Airhart who will be ready to assist at any time with the work of the farm and range program.

Mr. and Mrs. Airhart are located in the Royce Gilliland residence.

Callahan County W. P. A. Workers Ask For Increase Wage

An increase of approximately 30 percent in wages of WPA workers is asked in a petition signed by several hundred Callahan county citizens to be presented to Congressman Garrett.

At present average stipend is about $22 per month. Petitioners ask for a minimum of $30 a month declaring in the petition that other counties are being granted as much. The petition further avers that $22 is insufficient to provide for the maintenance of a worker and his family.

Roy Windham of Dudley was in Baird Wednesday.

The O'Daniel Landslide

Texas has experienced many strange and unprecedented occurrences in the hectic political history of the state, but a brand new chapter has been written during the past six weeks. The overwhelming support given the gubernatorial candidacy of W. Lee O'Daniel has amazed not only the experienced politicians of Texas who thought they knew all the tricks and were masters of the situation but has amazed all the people of Texas, including Mr. O'Daniel's own supporters.

Perhaps Mr. O'Daniel himself is also surprised by the success of his first venture into the treacherous business of politics. He entered the campaign with little to lose and much to gain. Although he had been urged by thousands of admirers to become a candidate, he undoubtedly recognized the fast that he would have to smash many precedents and overcome great obstacles before his objective could be achieved; but he had the certainty that his campaign activities would give his value received, because he is a salesman and while attempting to sell himself to Texas voters would sell his product to Texas consumers.

The new Governor-elect has yet to demonstrate his statecraft, but he certainly has proved that he is a master of applied psychology. He learned what the people wanted in the campaign and gave it to them. He learned what they wanted in the Governor's office, and promised it to them. His next task is to deliver what he has promised—and in spite of all the clowning accompanying his campaign, and all the psychological legerdemain he employed in enticing a normal apathetic public to really enthusiastically under his banner there is reason to believe that he will at least make a serious effort to be as good a Governor as he has promised to be. Back of all that was so readily apparent on the surface of his campaigning, Mr. O'Daniel is a business man of demonstrated ability, and if there was ever a Governor with inspiration for exceptional service he should be that man. His talent as a salesman will be employed in the service of the state, and unless half a million Texans are entirely wrong this state will profit immeasurably as a result.

Notice To Cotton Ginners

The President approved on June 14, 1938 (an amendment to the Act of Congress authorizing the Director of the Census to collect and publish periodical reports of cotton ginned cotton consumed and cotton held. The amendment is as follows:

"It shall also be the duty of every cotton ginner to keep a record of the county or parish in which each bale of cotton ginned by him is grown and to report at the March canvass of each year a segregation of the total number of bales ginned by counties or parishes in which grown."

The reports have heretofore shown the number of bales ginned within a county, but did not show the number actually grown or produced in the county because of the movement of seed cotton across county and state lines for ginning. This amendment is designed to have each ginner keep a record of each bale ginned by him, showing the county in which the seed cotton is grown in order that accurate statistics may be compiled as to the actual production of cotton in each county. These statistics will enable the Department of Agriculture to make equitable allocations of acreage and production as required by the Agriculture Adjustment Act of 1938, and will also be used by this Bureau in connection with the census of agriculture taken every five years.

You are, accordingly, requested to follow the requirements of the law and keep a record of the county in which each bale of cotton ginned by you is grown. The segregation of the total ginnings by counties will be called for at the March canvass.

The full cooperation of all ginner is respectfully solicited.

W. L. Austin,
Director.

AROUND TOWN

With Otto B. Grate Friday morning and to our host of readers (well, at least three), it is Around Town time. Just find a comfortable seat on this old tub with your skipper hoists anchor and we set sail for another inspection of the home town.

First port we steer for is the Methodist parsonage to meet and talk with our celebrity of the week young Billy Wright, who was recently interviewed over the Abilene Radio station as to his song writing ability. Pleasant, quick to make acquaintance and easy to talk with, it was a pleasure for your reporter to get this dope. Billy has composed several songs, latest, and his favorite, is "Action Speaks Louder Than Words". He recently sent a copy of this to a publishing office where it received favorable mention. It is Billy's hope to turn out real song hits. He holds Billy Hill, composer of "Last Roundup", etc. as his model and if we may venture to say so, it shouldn't take Mr. Wright long to make that vice versa. At any rate, he is certainly a talented young fellow.

From the Wright residence we drop in on another very special place which is the abode of some very special friends—Rev. Joe R. Mayes and family. The Baptist parsonage is certainly a thing of beauty and, according to its occupants, a joy forever. The new rock home, which was completed this spring, has five rooms, a sunporch, and bath. Around Town had the pleasure of giving it its first complete write-up so on your toes and let's do right by it. The home has often been spoken of as the "faith parsonage" because Brother Mayes had little else when he started working for it: The genial pastor told your columnist, "Say anything you like about the place". Say it's the happiest most contented wonderful home I know and it will all be true," and that about covers it. One thing before we leave, and that's a salute to the hospitality of the Mayes family, their doors are always open to their friends and they are always ready to include you in their family circle, so it's little wonder so many people find the Baptist parsonage at the head of their lists of pleasant places to visit.

Though it is generally conceded that the main street is the business district of town, flourishing trade goes on in our suburban stores. We can boast of three. One of these places is located in the east part of town, and is known as "The Whiteway Grocery". Mr. Mills handles all lines of groceries, candies, cold drinks, and has recently installed a Coolerator ice box where he has lunch meats and cheese. Mr. Mill's friendly service goes on night and day and he stands ready to serve his friends at any time they may call.

Attention, you young Romeos and home town Casanovas. Manager Pavkett of the Plaza Theatre has bought partnership with Dan Cupid, the love bug, or something or other. At any rate, he's starting a take-your-girl-to-the-movies campaign and here's how it works. Each week yours truly will publish a telephone number, name, or address of some winsome little girl and when your lady fair's monicker appears, all you do is snip the write-up, make your date for the show it specifies, and there you are. Of course you have to get your own ticket, but the heart throbs ticket is on the house. Keep your weather eye peeled for your girl's name, or some clue to her identity. This week, goes for "Mad About Music" at the Plaza Sunday and Monday lady with telephone number 141 and Miss Jo Ruth Arvin have places reserved at the Plaza providing the swains take advantage of the offer, so here's your chance boys. Getting on to coming attractions at the local show, "Three Comrads" is slated for Sunday week. The three comrades Franchot Tone, Robert Young, and Robert Taylor vie for the love of one girl, Margaret Sullivan. Its a story of post war Germany and the idea is not which man will get the girl but how happy the three of them can make her for her limited days on the earth since she is ill with tuberculosis or some similar disease and it is about all she can do to hold together long enough for the fade out.

Spotlight of the week goes to Mrs. Buck Smith whose smiling face and sweet disposition is always a treat. If Mrs. Smith has any enemies they haven't been found, and as for her friends, they are just too numerous to try and estimate.

Until next week we Around Towners break it up, and I'm hoping that I'll be seeing you at the Old Settlers Reunion Today, (Friday). Look me up when you get there and lets do the thing up right.

Red Cross Aid For San Saba Flood Suffers

The American Red Cross through County Chairman Hugh Ross has made an appeal for additional funds to care for losses in the San Saba river and Brady creek flood area.

Mr. Ross requests all who want to help in this cause to leave their donations at The First National Bank of Baird or send same to him.

The following is a list of Clyde citizens who sent in a contribution of $38.35 for the flood sufferers. It was only a few weeks ago that a destructive tornado struck Clyde causing the death of fourteen people and the destruction of many homes also their public school building.

The Red Cross and neighboring cities responded quickly to Clyde's call of distress and today new homes stand on the site of those destroyed in the storm; the school building is being rebuilt and Clyde is fast recovering from the effects of the storm.

Donations to Flood Area from Clyde Citizens as follows: Tee Baulch, $1 O. S. Maggart, $1, S. T. Walker, $2, Olaf South, $1, John Bailey, $1, T. O. Dulaney, $1 Dr. J. B. Bailey, $1, P. C. With Baird Baptist

The meeting at Midway is going nicely and will continue through Sunday with Baptist service here at the Church Sunday morning and I earnestly ask all of our people to come it will be the last Sunday for a time you will have to be bothered with me so come take it. I am going to Texline to hold a meeting which begins the second Sunday in Aug. I will be gone two and maybe three Sundays and I would like to see you and have the pleasure of worship with you before I go; so meet me at the church Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock and stay with me until we dismiss for lunch about 12:00.

Pray, for us—we need it.
Joe R. Mayes.

Methodist Church

The Methodist Revival closed Sunday evening with a total of 25 conversions and recommitments and 14 additions to the Methodist Church on profession of profession of faith and baptism. His messages were strong, sound, searching and uncompromising.

Sunday School which has been lagging around 95 each Sunday during this summer hopped up to 135 last Sunday.

During the meeting the juniors of the church attended in large numbers. Some 35 were given an ice cream supper Friday evening—each a pint. Mrs. Carroll McGowan was in charge of these youngsters, assisted by Hoyt S. Slatton (Pete), who also led the singing. Two services were held on the streets during the meeting.

The pastor will preach Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour, returning from the campmeeting near Ovalo to supply the pulpit while Dr. C. A. Bickley, presiding elder, conducts quarterly conference at that place. Wright will return to Ovalo that evening to resume his preaching.

The campmeeting opened Wednesday evening and will run through August 14th. Three communities—Ovalo, Lawn, Rogers—have combined, built a tabernacle and hold their meeting together. The Baird pastor is doing the preaching.

Mrs. Fred Estes, Renee Russell accompanied by Dollie Willbanks of Cleburne, left the first of the week for Houston for a visit with Mrs. Bunkley this summer and they were to return last night accompanied by Betty Jane Estes who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bunkley this summer and made an auto trip with them to New York, Washington and other points.
