3 Floyd Ladies In Conservation Queen Contest

For the first time a Queen of Conservation will be chosen in Texas. This is a part of the Save the Soil and Save Texas program that is sponsored by the Fort Worth Press, The Houston Press and the El Paso Herald Post. The State Soil Conservation Board and the Extension Service are cooperating in this program.

Each County had the privilege of selecting a nominee and in turn one from each of the five soil conservation regions will be selected. One of these five will be chosen the queen of all Texas.

The qualifications of a nominee are that she should be a typical Texas farm wife who is a member of a home demonstration club and lives on a farm being operated by specifications of a soil conservation district. The county winner was selected by a committee composed of members of the Texas Home Demonstration Association. The selection was made by using a score card compiled by the state home demonstration agent in consultation with Extension Service specialists. This score card with the nominee's story was used in the selection.

Floyd County had three entries in the contest. They were Mrs. A. H. Kreis of the Friendship Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. C. L. King from the Lone Star Club and Mrs. B. H. Quebe of the Providence Club.

Mrs. A. H. Kreis has been recognized as an outstanding rural woman of Floyd County for a number of years, having moved here with her husband and two daughters from Florida in 1927. They have made their home on their farm eight miles east of Floydada since that time, working constantly for the betterment of their community and county. It was much through their untiring efforts, that Floyd County obtained the R. E. A. and the rural telephone system.

Mrs. Kreis has been an active worker in all phases of church and community activities, serving the church as teacher, treasurer and pianist. She has been an active member in home demonstration clubs since moving into the county and has served in all offices of the club and as Chairman of the Floyd County Council. Mrs. Kreis has taken an active part in all County, District and Tri-State fairs and has been a sweep-stake winner in a number of divisions.

Mrs. Kreis believes in rounding out her activities with some recreation and, with her family, and the Floyd County Forum, has traveled hundreds of miles.

The Kreis family takes a great deal of interest in their comfortable, brick home and grounds. They have done a great deal of work to make it a very attractive farm home. Mr. Kreis is farming his land under specifications and recommendations of the Floyd County Soil Conservation District, having signed an agreement on his land in July of 1947.

Mrs. C. L. King, along with her husband, has been staunch supporters of soil conservation since 1941, cooperating with the Floyd County Soil Conservation District. Mrs. King planned their home and landscaped the grounds. Windbreaks have been set out and also twenty-five fruit trees. Mrs. King dug native grass from the pasture and set out lawns in the front and back yards.

The Lockney Longhorn baseball team will begin a three-game play-off series here Friday afternoon of this week with Spur Bulldogs, winners in the south half of District 3-A. The Longhorns have won five games and lost none in the north half and have the title cinched up here although they still play one more game in the schedule. That game will be played with Abernathy Thursday of this week at Abernathy but the outcome will not affect the race since all other teams in the north half have lost at least two games.

The play-off series here Friday will begin at 3 p. m., Coach Sid Thomas said Wednesday. The game will be played on the diamond located just northwest of the high school building.

The second game of the series will be played at Spur and the final game, if needed, will probably be played on a neutral field.

Coach Thomas said Wednesday that his starting pitcher would probably be C. B. Smart with Bob Huckaby catching.

Spur has an excellent record in the south half of the district, winning all of their games without a loss and hanging up some impressive scores.

Defeat Floydada, Tullia. The Longhorns cinched the north half title this week by defeating both Floydada and Tullia. The locals beat out the Whirlwinds from Floydada last Friday at Floydada by a score of 7 to 12. Tuesday of this week the Longhorns defeated Tullia 10 to 6 at Tullia. Smart and Frizzell again did the mound duty with Huckaby behind the bat.

Roster of the boys seeing action on the Longhorn baseball squad includes Frizzell, Jeffcoat, Huckaby, Strickland, Meriwether, Bartram, Griffith, Smart, Baxter, Howard, Boecker, Nance, Thomas, Crouch, Williams, Sherman and Foster.

PLENTY OF JOBS BECKON THESE COED DIETITIANS

Lubbock. — College graduates generally may find job opportunities narrowing this spring, according to a recent federal survey, but the dean of home economics at Texas Tech says the demand for trained dietitians "far exceeds" the supply of available graduates.
Dean Margaret Weeks reports that her office "cannot begin to fill requests" from hospitals and industries which need trained dietetic personnel.
She said three foods and nutrition seniors at Tech have already received appointments as dietetic internes. They are Peggy Pipes, Dallas, who goes to the Presbyterian hospital, New York; Florence Wright, Miles, Texas, who goes to the Barnes hospital, St. Louis; and Tommie Jean Wall, Waco, to the Colorado State hospital, Pueblo.

Prison Rodeo To Be Presented At State Fair of Texas

Advance mail orders for tickets to the original Texas Prison Rodeo are being accepted now by the State Fair of Texas. James Stewart, vice president and general manager, has announced. The famous rodeo, roughest, toughest show of its kind in the world, will come direct from Huntsville to play an eight-night stand at the State Fair Grandstand, June 3-10.

Four guard towers have been constructed at the four corners of the grounds on which the Fair Park Picnic Pavilion is located. The Pavilion, to be surrounded by a ten-foot fence, will house inmate performers, musicians and cooks during the rodeo.

Mail orders for tickets should be accompanied by check or money order, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope. They should be addressed to: Rodeo Box Office, P. O. Box 7755, Dallas, Texas.

Ticket prices for the rodeo are as follows: Box seats, $3.60; reserved seats, $2.40; general admission, $1.80.

The State Fair has already received a heavy demand for tickets. One of the first orders was for a block of 50 reserved seats for opening night of the rodeo. The downtown box office will open May 15.

The State Fair Grandstand will be enlarged by construction of temporary bleachers to seat 11,000 spectators, in order to give many North Texans as possible an opportunity to see the famous rodeo. The rodeo will present its 19th annual series of Sunday performances in October.

Sterile Gauze Pads Handy for Shampoo

When a head cold plays havoc with hair-washing plans, substitute a cleansing "dry" shampoo. Your own dressing table holds everything you need for this beauty routine. Baby powder sprinkled into the hair and then brushed out again takes with it dulling oil and surface dirt that makes the hair limp and untidy. Or try a model's quick trick for making hair shine without benefit of shampoo. Raid your medicine chest for one of those sterile gauze pads. Unwrap it from its protective glassine envelope, and moisten the square with witch hazel or rubbing alcohol. After unfolding it partially, force it down over the bristles of your clean hairbrush. Then brush, brush, brush your hair into fluffy cleanliness again. Renew the sterile gauze pad as it becomes soiled. A "dry" shampoo such as this is handy, too, when there's an unexpected date in the offing.

Kill Flies Early Dr. Cox Urges

Austin.—"Go in and out the window" is a line from a children's game which thousands of little youngsters have played for years. It may be used to describe something else, too, for FLIES like to go in and out windows. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer reports that fly infestation will be heavy this year. So, now is the time to kill those early flies... before they have a chance to produce thousands more during the summer. These pests love to buzz around in uncovered garbage pails, stables, old privies, and in homes around uncovered food. Do you have a metal garbage pail with a tight-fitting lid? Are screens on your windows and doors in good repair? Waste should be removed from stables often, for horse manure is one of the chief breeding places of flies. Children can help to keep flies out of the house by keeping screen doors closed, and swatting the flies that enter the house. Flies carry germs on their fast-moving wings, in their tube-like mouths, and on their furry legs and feet. What are some of the diseases they spread? Typhoid fever, dysentery, and tuberculosis are spread by these insects who feed on germ-laden filth. Clean-up campaigns, screening, and spraying with insecticides are the best methods for getting rid of flies. Special care should be used in the use of DDT, or other insecticides... directions should be followed carefully. Let's clean up on the new crop of flies to protect the health of our families. The giant tortoise has been known to live as long as 300 years.

Texas Farm Income Hits $51 Million

Austin.—Farm cash income in Texas totaled $51 million in March, a 24-per-cent increase from February's total and a 6-per-cent drop from March 1949, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported. Farmers in the Northern High Plains district turned in the largest dollar income in March — $11,522,000. Black and Grand Prairies, with $5,914,000, and Southern Texas Prairies, with $5,430,000, ranked second and third. Cattle was the greatest source of income in March, bringing in $18,852,000. Milk products amounted to $9,475,000, and eggs brought a total of $30,65,000. There were no table increases over February in marketings of mohair, wool, cattle, calves, hogs, sheep, and lambs, while there were decreases in corn and fruits and vegetables. Income rose 126 per cent in Southern High Plains in March from February, 106 per cent in Edwards Plateau, 71 per cent in Northern High Plains, 50 per cent in Red Bed Plains, 47 per cent in South Texas Plains, 31 per cent in Trans-Pecos, 18 per cent in Southern Texas Prairies, 17 per cent in Western Cross Timbers, and 1 per cent in Coastal Prairies.

Parents Day Scheduled For May 7 at Tech

Lubbock.—Parents of Texas Tech students will be honored guests on May 7 with a ROTC review, scholarship service and luncheon in the Tech dormitories scheduled as part of the day's activities. Dean of Men James G. Allen said the program will begin at 10:30 a. m. and will conclude with the "President's concert" presented by the Tech music department at 4:30 p. m. The program is planned for all Tech parents, not merely the parents of students who will be honored for leadership and scholarship, Dean Allen said. Watch your expiration date.

COMMITTEES DISCUSS EFFICIENT GOVERNMENT

Austin.—Research for more efficient government has been given a boost by a University of Texas meeting. Personnel of six privately-supported and five tax-supported governmental research agencies have met in conference for the first time. "We got acquainted, discussed our problems and the possibility of coordinating our work," Dr. Stuart A. MacCorkle, director of the University's Institute of Public Affairs, said. The Institute sponsored the conference.

Mrs. Russell Presents Pupils In Recital

A large and appreciative audience attended a beautiful and impressive candle light recital presented by the pupils of Mrs. G. D. Russell Tuesday night at the Methodist Church.

A prelude transcription of Chopins works was furnished and directed by George Mizzell. Rev. N. S. Daniel lead the devotional.

The candle bearers were Lynn Snyder, Sharinne Strickland, Jimmie Dee Smith, Louise Parrish, Delores Russell, and LaDora Ayres, assisted by Margie Sechrist, Betty Jean Jackson, and Ernestine Spradlin. Ann Belt and Sue Wofford served as ushers.

Mrs. R. E. Patterson and Mrs. J. D. Huggins furnished the flowers for the occasion. Mrs. Frank Messimer assisted in decorating.

The suggestion of spring flowers was marked throughout the recital. The arrangement of the children exemplified a large bouquet. The little buds mingled with the more open flowers and all numbers played were of flowers and spring. This was the final work of Mrs. Russell and her pupils for this season.

Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way: first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.—Matthew 5:24.

No doubt that many Lockney people will be disappointed when the final census figures are revealed but they shouldn't be. Many of us have been expecting too much. Ye Editor predicted some months ago that perhaps the population of the city had doubled since 1940. Indications now are that that prediction was pretty optimistic. Why shouldn't it be? For a city to double its population in 10 years is a tremendous growth and one that we could hardly expect without an oil boom or some such similar event.

We ought to be proud of the growth that we will show. The editor oughtn't to be second guessing maybe but now it looks like it will not be over 2000 and probably less than that. But if we have a 50% growth in 10 years isn't that something to crow about. We'll wager that not many cities or towns of West Texas will match that percentage. We'll need only around 1850 population to show that 50% growth. That will be mighty good the way it looks from here and if it hits 60% that's even better. Let's just be proud of what we have done and get in there and do as well the next 10 years.

The Fire boys have a legitimate complaint when they ask that people stay out of their way when going to or fighting a fire. An example of the foolish things that some people do when a fire breaks out was given by a grown man not too long ago who not content with trailing the fire truck, passed it and got in front of it, throwing dirt and dust into the faces of those on the truck and creating a hazard for which there was no sensible excuse. Naturally a fire excites most of us and to expect people to stay completely away from a fire is expecting too much. We may ought to but we just won't do it. But we can at least give the fire truck plenty of leeway. Let's cooperate with them.

The disturbing thought in the minds of those who believe it is important that the national debt be reduced is that there is not now and never has been any definite plan looking toward its reduction. Every individual and business head knows that without a definite plan for debt reduction, debts are not reduced. On the contrary they continue to grow in size. That is just the danger that is facing this country today. The disturbing thing about it is that this is taking place during a period of the greatest prosperity, the greatest employment and the greatest earning this country has ever known. If we can't keep ahead now what is to happen when normal or hard times come.

BID FOR VOTES

President Truman's veto of the Kerr Bill, which would have left the production of gas free from federal control, was obviously a direct bid for more support from the heavily populated East. As a matter of fact, Truman is said to have drawn up the basic terms of the bill and sent it to Senator Kerr for sponsorship. But after he had obviously counted Texas and Oklahoma already in the bag for 1952, he turned a willing ear to potential consumers in the North and East.—Amarillo Daily News.

20TH CENTURY REVOLUTION

Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan recently told the story of a 20th century bloodless revolution. The story, though it fits the nation as a whole, without slipper spoon might well apply to Hockley county, its record cotton harvest in 1949, its battle against soil erosion and its increased mechanization.

"The United States has been witnessing a revolution in agricultural production," said the secretary. "Here are a few evidences of it: New production records have been set in six of the last ten years. Last year farmers equalled their all-time record in 1948; output was about 40 per cent greater than the pre-war average. Compared with 20 years ago, cropland acreage is about the same while the number of farm workers is down 15 per cent, and yields of major crops are up 40 per cent.

"Humans now have the products from 65 million acres which supplied horse and mule feed not so long ago. In effect, this is the same as bigger production.

"What brought about the revolution?"

"Many things," said the secretary. "Including wartime prices and patriotism, soil conservation work... new pest control chemicals, machines that help overcome bad weather by getting farm work done at the right time... rural electrification."

Another aspect of this revolution, not nearly so pleasant, however, was overlooked by the secretary. That is the revolution caused by government. A farmer—small or large—is now told, indirectly or directly, how to manage his property. Either he complies, or he is penalized—Level-land Sun-News.

Results of Feed Test Favor Hull Rations For Yearling Steers

Lubbock. — Results of an experiment at Texas Tech to determine the value of cottonseed hulls and sorghum silage in fattening yearling steers indicate the 100 per cent hull ration would be cheaper, but would not return a high average daily gain.

Dean of Agriculture W. L. Stangel said the experiment was held to learn whether hulls could replace sorghum silage as a roughage. Other factors considered included comparative costs of hulls and silage and the value of a mixed roughage ration at various levels.

A final tabulation indicated steers fed a 100 per cent silage ration gained 2.27 pounds for a daily average. Steers fed a 100 per cent hull ration gained 1.84 pounds daily.

The experiment also showed the all-hull ration cost $16.97 per hundredweight gained while a silage ration cost $17.76.

Profits Start When Sixth Pig Goes To Market

Profits for the hog raiser start with the sixth pig that is sold from the litter. But experience shows that one pig out of every four farrowed this spring will not reach market age.

Giving every pig in the litter a chance to grow up, through better management and feeding, is one of the best ways to offset lower market prices this year, authorities say. They point out that the first five pigs sold from a litter pay the "rent" on feed, labor and investment in sow and equipment. The profits begin with the sixth animal that goes to market.

A good ration for the sow during gestation helps to insure a healthy litter. After farrowing, good rations for the sow and pigs promote efficient gains. These rations should be palatable and provide ample protein, vitamins, minerals and total digestible nutrients at the most economical cost.

Plenty of protein helps the sow produce more milk for pigs; produces faster growth of pigs; and helps utilize farm grains more efficiently. A good protein supplement for all ages of hogs is a mixture of 40 pounds of tankage, 40 pounds of cottonseed meal or other vegetable protein concentrate and 20 pounds of alfalfa meal.

Gradually bring sows up to full-feed after farrowing and then feed liberally until the pigs are weaned. When the pigs are 3 weeks old, it is a good plan to put both the sow and litter on a self-feeder. USDA experiments show that when the sow and litter are self-fed, the pigs are heavier at weaning time; sows maintain their weight; and less feed is required per pound of gain during the suckling period. Protein supplement and farm grains may be provided, free-choice, in separate compartments of the feeder, or may be fed together in a balanced mixture. To make a balanced mixture for either self-feeding nursing sows, mix 80 pounds of ground grain with 20 pounds of the protein supplement given above. Hand-fed sows need 1 pound of feed, daily, for each pig in the litter, or a minimum of 6 pounds. Increase the feeding rate if sows are not providing sufficient milk or if they are not maintaining good body weight.

When pigs start eating they should have access to a self-feeder with the sow or be fed liberally in a creep. A good mixture for pigs is 75 pounds of ground grain and 25 pounds of the protein supplement. The mixture should be changed to 82 pounds of grain and 18 pounds of protein supplement when the pigs weigh 75 pounds. Pigs and fattening hogs balance their own ration efficiently when fed protein supplement and grains, free choice, in a self-feeder.

Sows and litters do especially well on good green pasture. When they are not on young pasture, provide good-quality legume hay in racks. Clean water should be available at all times and minerals self-fed from a box or trough. A good mineral mixture is equal parts of bone meal, ground limestone and salt.

Boar pigs which are not saved for breeding should be castrated before they are 1 month old. Consult veterinarians, County Agents, teachers of Experiment Stations for advice on vaccination and best parasite control measures.

When pigs are weaned at 8 to 10 weeks of age, remove the sow from the lot and temporarily leave the pigs in the surroundings to which they are accustomed.

Harvesting grain and other crops by "hogging-off" is becoming increasingly popular in the South. Where this practice is to be followed, plans should be made well in advance of the harvesting season so that plenty of pigs will be available; fence es properly located; and other necessary arrangements made. It is a good plan to graze pigs on excellent pasture, with grain feeding, until the crop is ready for "hogging-off"

BOSTON, MASS.—Drawing shows how seven grotesquely-masked gunmen entered Brink's Inc. office from Prince St. entrance, noiselessly walked through counting rooms to confront five employees, two of them armed, and stage one of the greatest holdups in American history. The victims were forced to lie face downward on the floor with their hands tied behind them while the gunmen methodically stuffed 17 money bags, containing $1,500,000 into two large sacks. Within 20 minutes of their entry, they fled via the same route (dotted line).

Cross-Breeding Will Produce Bigger And Better Hogs-Expert

Nashville. — Crossbred pigs promise Southern hog farmers a better source of income, according to research done by Dr. H. A. Stewart, North Carolina State College. In the May issue of FARM & RANCH-SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST Dr. Stewart points out that crossbreeding is the modern ladder to profit in the hog business.

In contrast to the old recommendations made by swine specialists, Dr. Stewart says that crossbreeding will produce more pigs, bigger gains and better carcasses.

In tests made by Dr. Stewart at the North Carolina Experiment Station he found that pigs sired by the Minnesota No. 1 boars gained an average of one-tenth of a pound per day more than the lots of pigs with which they were compared.

He also found the carcasses of the pigs sired by boars of Minnesota No. 1 or the "A" line were superior to those by boars of the other inbred lines or the purebred hogs.

Dr. Stewart said that sows farrowed in litters sired by Minnesota No. 1 boars farrowed 1.5 more pigs per litter and saved more than those in the other lines.

A plan for a breeding program based on Dr. Stewart's research is outlined in the May issue of FARM & RANCH-SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST in a story written by Dr. L. R. Neel, Senior Editor.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rankin, Jr. visited in Pampa last weekend.

J. W. Traylor left Friday for Clinton, Oklahoma, where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. Luther Campbell for some time.

Fresh Rolls From The Deep Freeze?

College Station.—Most homemakers, at different times, have wished for an extra supply of bread or rolls to take care of unexpected guests and to cut down on the baking chores. The home freezer has made that possible, says Jimmie Nell Harris, associate extension foods and nutrition specialist of Texas A. & M. College.

Breads and rolls may be frozen baked or unbaked, she says and if the proper methods of packing, freezing and storage are followed, baked rolls will be just as light and tender after freezing as before. But if unbaked rolls are put into the freezer, the results cannot always be predicted, she adds. Unbaked dough seems to lose some of its ability to rise after being thawed and the texture of the rolls may become tough and the volume lessened.

Miss Harris says for the frozen baked rolls and bread, use a favorite plain or sweet dough recipe and bake in the usual manner. After baking, remove from the pans and cool to room temperature. Then wrap in moisture proof paper or package in frozen food containers.

Reheating frozen baked rolls in their sealed wrappings in a 250 degree F. to 300 degree F. oven for 15 minutes will get them ready for serving says Miss Harris. If the container is such that it cannot be placed in the oven, then remove the rolls and place them in a paper bag or aluminum foil. Heat them in the oven just as you would day old rolls except for a longer time. The reheating freshens the rolls. Thaw baked breads in their original wrapper at room temperature. Bread thaws rapidly because it contains very little moisture and if you are in a hurry, she says, slices of frozen bread can be put into the toaster before it is thawed. Miss Harris says baked products should not be stored for periods in excess of three months.

Mrs. King is a member of the Lone Star Demonstration Club and is at present chairman of the Floyd County Council. She is a member of a study club, serving as its secretary this year.

Mrs. King has many hobbies, some of which are growing flowers, gardening, ceramics and textile painting. She is landscape demonstrator for her club this year. She irrigates her yard, garden and trees from the irrigation well.

Mrs. B. H. Quebe, president of the Providence Home Demonstration Club, is enjoying farm life although she was born and raised in the city. She moved from Dallas to Lubbock after entering college, finishing work for a B. S. degree in mathematics in June 1948. She was married to Mr. Quebe in June of that year and moved to their 320 acre farm north of Aiken.

A conservation plan was signed with the Floyd County Soil Conservation District in May 1949 which entitled Mr. Quebe to receive technical assistance in laying out complete irrigation system on his farm. He also plans to establish an improved pasture and plant legumes to be turned under to keep the soil built up.

Mrs. Quebe joined the Home Demonstration Club shortly after moving to the farm and has found it very beneficial in learning farm life. She has many hobbies, but especially enjoys playing the piano, reading and visiting. She has recently become interested in sewing and gardening.

Price Reduction On Maytags Announced

The Maytag Company of Newton, Iowa has notified Pennington Motor Co., Maytag dealer in Lockney of a price reduction on all washing machine models.

Attributing the action to "large scale production and manufacturing economies," Maytag officials today announced a reduction of $10 on automatics and $5 on conventional washers.

"In the past 18 to 24 months, The Maytag Company has spent many millions of dollars for new and modern equipment and facilities to achieve cost reductions," Roy A. Bradt, Maytag vice president in charge of sales and advertising said in a letter to dealers, announcing the price cut. "Materials, both raw and manufactured, have shown definite trends upward in costs and more increases appear to be in the offing. Our manufacturing division, however, has done a superb job in absorbing the increased costs and in using our large volume of sales to the best advantage."

"These reductions have been made at the earliest possible moment and in spite of the fact that our factories are working at capacity and with a sizeable backlog of unfilled orders."

The Maytag Company recently built an ultra-modern multi-million dollar plant at Newton for manufacture of its new automatic washer, which is meeting with phenomenal acceptance over the country resulting in a sharp increase in originally contemplated production schedules for the product. Large areas are to be added to the new plant this summer for production of a newly developed clothes dryer and for ware-housing of appliances.
