Lone Star Takes Lead In Play-Off

The Lone Star softball team took the lead Tuesday night in the play-off tournament of the Lockney Softball league by defeating the Fire Department team 11 to 10. South Plains was eliminated in the Tuesday evening play, dropping their second game of the tournament.

Tonight (Thursday) the Fire Department and Providence will play with the winner taking on Lone Star Friday night. If the winner of the Thursday night game defeats Lone Star Friday night the two teams then will be tied and a second game the same night will be played to determine the league winner. League President Lloyd Readhimer said Wednesday.

Providence eliminated South Plains Tuesday night defeating them 8 to 7 in a hotly contested game. Wilson was pitching for South Plains and Johnson for Providence. The game lead changed several times and an argument as to rules stopped play for a time in the seventh inning.

South Plains lost their first game Monday night to the Fire Department after leading a part of the way. The score was 6 to 5 and the Fire Department scored three runs in the seventh after being behind 5 to 3. South Plains scored three in the sixth to go ahead. Reecer pitched for the Fire Department while Wilson was on the mound for South Plains.

In the second game Monday night Lone Star defeated Providence 6 to 3 with Farrish pitching for Lone Star and Johnson for Providence. Providence threatened in the sixth having three left on base. Lone Star scored two in each of the first, third and fourth innings.

On Tuesday night the Fire Department seriously threatened to again come from behind to win against Lone Star but a double play put out the fire. Going into the seventh the Fire Boys were behind 11 to 3. Five successive hits off Farrish scored seven runs and the score was 10 to 11 with a runner on first and one out. But Harold Jeffcoat, batting for the Fire Department, hit into a double play and that was the ball game. Reecer started for the Fire Department but was relieved by Finley. Farrish pitched for the Lone Star team.

On Saturday night the Providence team won the right to enter the four-team play-off by defeating the American Legion team 5 to 2, after the two teams completed league play in a tie for fourth place. Paul Kropp pitched for the Legion while Johnson was on the mound for the Providence team.

The last games of the league's regular schedule were played Thursday night of last week with the Legion defeating Gulf Service 5 to 4 and Providence defeating Lone Star 10 to 7.

Trailer House Is Destroyed By Fire

A trailer house parked on the high school lawn was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. A negro, Jesse King, who was sleeping in the trailer house, barely escaped. The house belonged to Robert Shaw, brick foreman on the school construction job now underway.

King did not know how the fire started. He reported that he woke up coughing and gasping for breath since the trailer was filled with smoke. He rushed out the door and escaped without burns. He said that fire was all along the side of the trailer at that time. By the time the alarm was turned in the trailer was ablaze all over.

King lost all of his clothing and all furnishings of the trailer house were also lost. Both trucks of the Lockney Fire Department answered the alarm.

B. J. Howard of Sterley is receiving medical treatment at an Amarillo hospital this week.

Harvey Kenady Has Light Polio Case

Harvey Kenady, 19-years old, an employee of the White Auto Store here, is in the polio ward of the Plainview Hospital and Clinic Foundation with what is believed to be a light case of polio. He was reported to be improved Wednesday and physicians were hopeful that no paralysis would develop.

Kenady developed a severe headache Monday and local physicians sent him to Plainview fearing that he had polio. There his illness was definitely diagnosed as polio and he was immediately placed in the polio ward.

Kenady is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elzy Kenady of Memphis. He has been employed here for the past 2½ months and has been playing softball with the Fire Department team.

Amnesia Victim Finds Car In Lubbock Monday

Walton Allen, Lockney amnesia victim, who found himself in Denver, Colorado, last week end without explanation as to how he got there, found his missing car in Lubbock Monday undamaged.

Allen and his family have been living in the house on the Kenneth Woffard farm three miles northwest of Lockney for the past month while he was employed as a mechanic at Johnson & Johnson Garage here. Last week he suffered severe headaches and left his home Thursday morning intending to go to Lubbock to secure medical aid through the Veterans Administration there. Friday he woke up getting a shave in a Denver, Colo., barbershop not knowing where he was or how he arrived there. He asked police to help him locate his car and contacted his wife here by wire. He had $100 and the car keys in his pocket at the time.

Allen returned home by bus Sunday and the car was located in Lubbock Monday. He is 36 years of age and is a veteran of World War II. Friends reported that he was machine gunned down in the early stages of the Battle of the Bulge and while lying wounded was shot in the face by a German army officer with a luger. The bullet entered at the right side of his nose and came out the side of his head. He was unconscious for 30 days waking up in a Paris hospital.

The VA had advised him to seek employment other than that of a mechanic, it was reported here.

Body Of Missing Man Is Found

The body of Stanley Davis, 65 years old, father of Harold Davis of Lockney, was found near Tyler, Texas some time Monday by some colored boys playing in a field. Mr. Davis had been missing since April 12 when the proprietor of the rooming house where he stayed in Tyler called a son at McKinney and informed him that his father had not slept in his bed the previous night. Reports here were that it appeared he had been dead since first reported missing.

Harold and his family left Monday night for Tyler and funeral services for the father were held Wednesday at Greenville, his former home.

The body was found 2½ miles out of Tyler and about 100 yards off the highway.

Mr. Davis worked in Lockney at various times and had visited with his son here several times in the past. The search for the missing man had recently been turned over to the F. B. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Degge and son, Olin Douglas of Lubbock spent Thursday night and Friday of last week in the home of Mrs. Degge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Huff.

School To Start September 7th

The Lockney school system will open for the 1953-1954 term on Monday, September 7, it was announced by Superintendent W. C. Irons recently. A full day of school will feature the first day, the pre-registration of high school students last spring enabling the teachers to operate a short schedule on opening day after assignments have been made.

At the elementary school students will be enrolled, textbooks issued and assignments made. Textbooks will be given to high school students in accordance with the pre-registration schedules.

School busses will make the routes as they were traveling at the close of the school term of 1952-1953.

New students will enroll on opening day of school and it will be necessary for all students who are not transferred or who are not on the census roll of the Lockney District to have an "Age, Grade Certificate" signed by the parents.

A general faculty meeting will be held at the high school building on September 5. Mr. Irons said, with teachers receiving instructions for the program of school work for the year.

New textbooks for many subjects have been received by the school officials and will be ready for distribution the opening of school, the Superintendent said. It is expected that the faculty will be completed by the opening of school but at the present time there are four vacancies.

Mrs. J. W. Carter Rites Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. J. W. Carter of Plainview were held at the Plainview First Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with burial in the Plainview Cemetery. She passed away at the Plainview Hospital Monday morning at 8:45 after being stricken with a heart attack Friday morning.

Rev. A. Hope Owen of Plainview and Rev. A. L. Shaw of Happy officiated at the services.

Mrs. Carter was Annie Virda Baggett before her marriage Oct. 15, 1905 to J. W. Carter who is among survivors. The couple was married at Jacksboro, Mrs. Carter was born March 15, 1888, in Johnson County.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter lived at Jacksboro until 1911, when they moved to Hale County and settled in the Prairieview community northeast of Plainview. They lived on a farm in that community for six years before moving to the Whitfield community in Swisher County. They lived there for 27 years. They moved to Plainview in 1944.

Mrs. Carter was a member of the Whitfield community Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband, three sons, Lester Carter and J. M. Carter, both of Lockney, and Clin Carter, Kress; two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Terry and Mrs. Fred Hefflin, both of Plainview; her mother, Mrs. J. W. Baggett of Lockney, and a brother, Clell Baggett of Clinton, Ark.

Mrs. Baggett, mother of Mrs. Carter, was resting well at her home here Wednesday but physicians did not think it advisable for her to attend the services, relatives report. The brother, Clell, was also unable to attend the services since his wife had just undergone major surgery.

A large number of Lockney people were present for the funeral services.

LONE STAR SINGING

A singing will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lone Star school auditorium according to announcement received at the Beacon Wednesday. All singers and those who like to hear good music are urged to be present. Several quartets are expected to attend.

Farmers To Vote On Wheat Quotas PMA Committee

Farmers of Floyd County will join with others in the state to vote in two farm elections within the next 10 days.

On Friday of this week farmers will go to the polls to decide whether or not they want wheat marketing quotas and price supports at 90 per cent of parity or no quotas and price supports at 50 per cent of parity.

Two-thirds majority is necessary to carry the election.

Voting places will be at The Beacon office in Lockney, at the Cedar Hill school and at the PMA office in Floydada.

On Friday of next week, August 21, farmers will select PMA committeemen in the various communities of the county. Voting boxes will be in the same places as in the wheat referendum.

Buck Sams, county PMA chairman this week stressed the importance of the PMA committeemen election saying, "Among the duties our county and community committeemen are responsible for the administration of price-support programs and for the determination of acreage allotments on any crops for which allotments are in effect. Secretary Benson has already warned that acreage allotments are likely for wheat and cotton.

"County and community committeemen must approve price-support loans available for cotton, wheat and grain sorghums. Storage facility loans available to farmers needing additional storage space for grains on their farms must be approved by the county committee. These loans are intended to supplement regular sources of credit to increase farm grain storage capacity. Local administration of crop insurance, with supervision of the county committee.

"The kind of a job the county committeemen do means a whole lot to each of the 1900 Floyd County farmers participating in agricultural programs administered by the Production and Marketing Administration. And all these farmers have a chance to vote in electing the men who supervise the programs at the farm level," Mr. Sams said. "Every farmer who has an interest in a farm—owner, tenant, or sharecropper—is eligible to vote if he is participating in or carrying out farm practices in accord with programs administered by local county PMA committees."

School Board Saves $6,000 In Interest On Bond Purchases

The Board of Trustees of the Lockney Independent School District saved the taxpayers of the district $6,000 in interest last Thursday night by using money accumulated in the interest and sinking fund to purchase school bonds of the 1951 series with maturity date of 1968. The Board purchased $11,000 of the bonds from the First of Texas Corporation.

The money was available, Supt. W. C. Irons said, because the district had a balance in the interest and sinking fund this year before tax collections began and the regular payment on bonds this year is small. The district will still have a balance in the interest and sinking fund after purchase of the extra bonds, Mr. Irons said.

Had the bonds run until maturity interest would have amounted to approximately $6,000.

Smith of Lockney, has been a prisoner of war since November 1950. The family is expecting some communication concerning his release momentarily.

Cpl. David Catlin has been missing in action since December 1950 and no word of any kind has been received by his family here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Catlin.

The organization was started about two years ago and memberships sold to a large number of farmers and business men in this part of the county. The purpose of the organization was declared to be that of developing and looking after the interests of north and western part of the county. Local members hope to re-organize, get the organization to rolling better and realize its original purpose more fully.

Bloodmobile And X-Ray Unit To Visit County

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Lockney Monday, August 17, to receive blood donations from local citizens and the State Department of Health's x-ray unit will set up here on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, August 19 and 20 to give free chest x-rays to all over 15 years of age who will take them. Local committees are working hard this week in preparation for the visits and are urging full co-operation from all local people.

Bloodmobile Monday

County chairman R. L. Knox said Wednesday that 153 pledges to give blood had been secured by the local committee to that time with a goal of 200 pledges. Although the local goal on actual donations is 150 pints a surplus of pledges is needed to take care of rejections which usually run around 25%.

Committees are still working to secure additional pledges and Mr. Knox pointed out that anyone who would give blood would be welcome to come to the Bloodmobile Monday even though they had not signed a pledge card. The Bloodmobile will be set up in the education wing of the First Baptist Church here. Time will be from 12 noon to 6 p. m.

The Bloodmobile will set up at Floydada on Tuesday at the First Christian Church. Floydada has the same goal that Lockney does in blood donations.

Reminder cards to those who have signed pledge cards will be mailed this week end. If a donor wishes to change the time of his appointment he should contact Mrs. Kelton Shaw at Lockney, Mr. Knox said.

The Bloodmobile is capable of handling 8 persons every 15 minutes and it is important that appointment times be observed in order that there will be a minimum of waiting.

Workers are reminded by Mr. Knox to appear 30 minutes early or at 11:30 a. m. Monday for special instructions and briefing.

Sandwiches and cold drinks will be served to the donors and workers by the Home Demonstration clubs of the county.

Free transportation to anyone needing it will be furnished by the local auto agencies, "Whitey" Baccus, Lockney Auto and Bilyere Motor Co. Those wishing transportation should call 2251 on Monday.

Chest X-Rays Are Wednesday, Thursday

Chest x-rays will be given free Wednesday and Thursday to all persons 15 years of age or over at the Lockney Auto Company where the x-ray unit will be set up. The two days are given so that almost every person in this part of the county will have opportunity to have an x-ray made. No special goal has been set but last year the x-ray unit made more than 700 chest x-rays here and workers are seeking to equal or exceed that goal this year.

Work of planning for the x-ray unit is under the direction of Joe Parrish with the Lockney Business & Professional Women's Club doing the committee work.

Quarter Inch Of Moisture Falls

Some farmers of the area received up to a quarter inch of moisture Tuesday night but the gauge kept by Joe Holt, local weather observer, showed only .08 here. Clouds came riding in late Tuesday on a strong wind which also brought dust and dirt along with it.

Wednesday the skies were still cloudy but no additional moisture has fallen here. The clouds, however, brought a welcome drop in the temperature. Mr. Holt's chart showed the following:

Monday: high, 101, low 66.
Tuesday: High 102, low 68.
Wednesday: High 92.

Huntin' AND Fishin'

By Harve Pennington

Since this is the time of year that most fishermen like to get away to some cool mountain stream in quest of trout, it is fitting that you give your line and leader a lot of thought. The purpose of a leader in fly casting is to reduce the visible connection between line and fly. Fly casting then, is a mechanical nightmare. Instead of throwing a weight, such as the bait-caster does, we are trying to unroll a weight. Instead of putting the weight on the fly's nose where it belongs, we make the fly and leader as light as possible and put the burden of maintaining velocity on the belly of the line—some thirty feet behind the fly.

Yet, few fishermen recognize this and continue to use leaders on the basis of length and weight recommended for fish various sizes and intellect. When leaders are studied in the light of their most important component—the taper—you realize that length and weight are only a compromise to fishing conditions, while the taper is a compromise to casting. The ideal method is to select a leader which responds to the final momentum of the line.

Unfortunately "momentum" is as personal as your toe-nails. This ultimate motion which puts the trout's breakfast on the table cannot be computed. It comes from velocity created by the line speed, which came from tip speed which came from your wrist speed. Fortunately, the momentum of your cast will average the same in the next cast and every cast thereafter in routine casting. Thus the answer lies in finding the leader that fits you and, as an afterthought, fits the fishing.

Lockjaw Increase In Warm Weather

Austin — Increasing numbers of lockjaw will develop between now and fall, State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox warned today, despite known measures of prevention.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, cases jump in summertime because exposures in the form of cuts, scratches, or puncture wounds are more frequent in warm weather when people are out-of-doors.

The germs of lockjaw are commonly found in soil — especially manured soil. They enter through a skin break and emit a deadly toxin which causes jaw and neck muscles to constrict so severely that jaws involuntarily close, vice-like.

Slowly, the muscle constriction spreads to other body muscles, until the victim is bent like a bow. A fatal case of the disease has been traced to a scratch from a rose thorn.

Lockjaw germs are spore-formers, which means they can live for years outside an animal body. Its life processes die dormant in a tiny seed-like pod, sitting about on the ground until finally, perhaps through a sliver or nail scratch, it gets back into live tissue.

The wound may heal, but inside, protected as it is from the air, the spore will begin "re-vegetating" and emitting deadly toxin.

Farmers are especially vulnerable to lockjaw, Dr. Cox cautioned, because the primary source of lockjaw germs is the intestinal tract of farm animals. They're passed onto the ground in animal dejects, easily available for re-entry into a human body when that body is cut or scratched or otherwise wounded.

Exposures to lockjaw are so common that it is more common sense for everyone to maintain a high level of protection via immunization. Dr. Cox called this method of gaining immunity "simple and convenient." He said immunizing shots should be given children early in life, at the discretion of the family physician.

"You can't go to a doctor with every little scratch," he emphasized, "so the best way to handle it is to take an immunizing series of shots, and keep the immunity level high with periodic 'booster' shots."

Financial Aid For Drouth-Hit Farmers Coming

Financial aid to drouth stricken farmers and ranchmen of Texas was promised immediately by State Director L. J. Cappelman of the Farmers Home Administration from his office in Dallas upon being informed today by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson that details of Public Law 38, Section Two, the new special livestock loan, are complete and that lending procedure had been announced.

Funds are available from a revolving fund containing up to $150,000,000; and the purpose for which loan funds may be used include a long list of essential ranch operating purposes such as feed, grazing lease charges, crop land rentals for production of feed, purchase, hire and repair of farm machinery, building or repair of fences, transportation of cattle to and from grazing lands; payment of one year's taxes on real and personal property, purchase of livestock for replacement or restocking, but not expansion of normal operations; for water supplies, living expenses, normal maintenance of farm and ranch buildings and other operating expenses, but not to refinance secured or unsecured debts nor to establish a man in livestock operations.

Interest rate on Special Livestock loans for ranchmen is 5 per cent and repayment must be scheduled within three years, because of the difference in the type of loan. Present FHA County Committees will certify Special Livestock Loans until such time as the Secretary of Agriculture may set up Special Committees.

Cappelman in his statement referred also to the crop Disaster Loans Administered by the Farmers Home Administration that are being made at the rate of more than $1,000,000 a month now. $12,000,000 of these Disaster Loans have been disbursed in the last twelve months. These loans made under Public Law 38, Section one, are available in all areas suffering from the effects of production losses caused by reasons beyond the control of the farmer. The Texas disaster area was proclaimed two years ago when lack of rain and other natural causes placed farmers in serious plight because of the losses sustained.

Regarding the regular FHA loan, $20,000,000 of the $150,000,000 appropriated by Congress in the past few years for drought areas was added to the regular appropriation for Production and Subsistence FHA loans for the 1954 fiscal year. If an applicant presently owes an old Feed and Seed Loan, he is not eligible for a regular P&S loan.

The FHA Disaster Loan available under Section One of Public Law 38 provides funds for the production of crops and normal expenses of such production. Any farmer who has suffered a production loss and needs more credit than is available through his local bank or other lending agencies is eligible to apply for the FHA crop disaster loans.

Mr. Cappelman has instructed county FHA Supervisors to give priority to Crop Disaster and Special Livestock Loans and to call into session county loan committees as often as necessary to pass on the applications and expedite the loan making procedure. He emphasized that money is available for the purpose of obtaining seed and other necessary supplies to start a new crop and to carry farmers and ranchers through the emergency, and take care of their normal needs.

The Farmers Home Administration is ready to receive applications and process loans immediately. The entire state is already a designated disaster area and loans can be processed without delay to purchase feed and to meet crop production needs in any county. While offices are already staffed, Cappelman said additional men needed in FHA offices in any area of Texas to take care of the emergency disaster loans have already been transferred or can be moved in from other parts of Texas at once. The regular disaster loan program is being used to finance the production of wheat and other small grain crops in the western area of Texas, he said.

Cappelman also pointed out that funds for the use of the regular program of the Farmers Home Administration are available, including production and farm operating, farm ownership, farm housing and water facilities. In addition, the agency insured mortgage loans are offered. This is a loan where private lenders provide funds for farm purchase, insured by the government. Each of the different types of credit are available to the limit of funds appropriated.

VISIT AT EARTH

Mrs. Frank Messimer and Charlyne, Mrs. Elmer Roberts of Hereford and children spent Sunday at Earth, Texas visiting Mrs. Messimer's daughter, and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Reynolds and children. Little Randy Reynolds was recuperating from second degree burns on the right side of his body and face suffered when he opened a gas jet in the bathroom and fire from the hot water heater ignited the gas causing an explosion. He is doing nicely, Mrs. Messimer said.

Mr. Reynolds was formerly employed here as operator at Plains Theatre.

Wheat producers in need of seed wheat for planting next year's crop can obtain from county agents in the wheat area of the state information on where seed may be obtained.

The operators manual should be on the must reading list of every tractor owner. Read it and follow the instructions of the manufacturer for safe and efficient operation.

Brownies Have First "Fly Up" Ceremony

A rustic bridge surrounded by hurricane lamps constructed by Mrs. Wallace Allen and the girls was the setting for Lockney's first "fly-up" ceremony on Thursday night, July 30. Members of the Brownie Troop No. 2 were eligible to participate having attained the proper age or grade in school to become Girl Scouts. This ceremony is a transition from Brownies to Girl Scouts.

The girls sang a number of Brownie songs, each repeated their Girl Scout promise as they crossed the bridge. The laws were repeated in unison and the closing was "Girl Scouts Together."

Refreshments were served by the girls to parents and other interested friends.

Mrs. Irons At Home Ec. School

Mrs. W. C. Irons, who will teach Homemaking in Lockney High School the coming year, is in Dallas this week attending the annual in-service training conference of Homemaking teachers in Texas. The annual conference is sponsored by the Texas Education Agency and has as its theme this year Family-Centered Home-Making Programs in Action. About 800 teachers are in attendance.

Dr. Kenneth McFarland of Topeka, Kan., educational consultant and lecturer for General Motors Corporation and educational director for American Trucking Associations, Inc., was the principal speaker at the first general session.

Featured conference consultants are Dr. Esther McGinnis, professor of child development and family relations at Ohio State University, and Dr. Berenice Mallory, assistant chief of home economics education in the United States Office of Education, Washington, D. C.

The conference program also includes panel discussions, film showings, skits, interviews and other techniques useful in the actual teaching of homemaking. This branch of education, according to a release from the Texas Education Agency, involves more than instruction in such household skills as cooking and sewing.

"It helps individuals in achieving better family relationships through home visitations and guidance and counseling with family members. Students carry out home projects, and often all members of the family take part in home improvement, family recreation, gardening, landscaping, care of the home and children."

Mrs. Irons, superintendent of the local schools, accompanied Mrs. Irons to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson, Bobby and Lanell visited relatives near Hamilton and Jonesboro over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ballard returned with them for a visit with the Johnsons and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Harris and family.

Minute Editorials

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom and with all thy getting get understanding.—Proverbs 4:7.

Next week could well be called public health week in Floyd County due to the visits to this county of the Red Cross Bloodmobile and the State Health Department's x-ray unit. The degree of success of these visits will, of course, depend upon how much co-operation is given by Floyd County citizens. Since the welfare of the citizen is the object of the visits then we ought all who can co-operate with the units and be on hand to do what we can to help.

Giving blood is a patriotic thing to do. Sometimes we feel that the boys in the armed forces make all the sacrifice while we sit at home and enjoy the fruits thereof. This is true to a large degree but here is one place most people can sacrifice. Not only will the blood be used by the armed forces but it is also used to make Gamma Globulin, which helps prevent paralysis in polio and is used in fighting polio. Either is a worth-while cause.

—oO—
Just because you had a chest x-ray last year is no reason to miss it this year. Tuberculosis or some other chest deformity could well develop in a year's time. Every able bodied person 15 years of age or over should be present for the free chest x-ray. It doesn't cost anything, it doesn't hurt, you don't have to undress, it takes only a minute, and it's for your own good. What more could you want?
—oO—

"Why don't you write a hot editorial and stir something up," the Beacon editor was asked this week. Only last week we were advised "Don't ever write an editorial and you won't have any trouble." Newspaper editors have problems along this line, probably more than the average citizen suspects. The Beacon editor has written his share of editorials, a few of them "hot." He has also refrained from writing editorials many times suggested by well-meaning citizens who wanted something corrected but didn't want to stick their own necks out. People generally are pretty free with letting the editor stick his neck out.

Editorial-wise we're not looking for trouble and we're not especially trying to avoid it. Most people who read our newspaper know about where we stand on most issues and some of them don't agree with us. We don't write editorials to get people to agree with us. Believe it or not, we take a stand on these issues because we believe it is best for the community, or the country. We're not interested in grinding anybody's ax and we have no axes to grind ourselves. A newspaper has an obligation to the community to stand for something and that is what we try to do. We try to stand for the things that are good for Lockney, Floyd County and the U. S. A. Maybe our judgement is poor at times but it's the best we have.
—oO—

Writing "hot" editorials just to "stir up something" is pretty foolish to our way of thinking. Some apparently pursue that policy but we don't care for it. We'll admit that we don't know all the answers and that a few times we have been wrong in our stand but we thought we were right — we weren't wrong on purpose. Anybody want to write a guest editorial and sign your name to it?

By doing nothing you will be Unnoticed and from censure free.
By saying nothing none will rise Your point of view to criticize.
By never choosing right from wrong You'll be well hidden by the throng.
If peacefully you would abide, In any cause take neither side, Indifferent stay, with both agree, And left untroubled you will be.

The critics not a word will say Of anyone not in the play.

So nothing say and nothing do And you'll be safe your life long through.
Let bad stay bad and worse grow worse.
Keep closed your lips and shut your purse
And you to live will be allowed, But of your life you won't be proud. — Tidebits in St. Jo Tribune.

NEWSPAPER PROBLEMS

One aspect of the newspaper business on which the publisher always trains a wary eye is circulation. It isn't the income derived from subscriptions because most any newspaper must look to other sources for his profit. All newspapers at the present are taking a beating on income from circulation. Publication costs have skyrocketed since the last 50c hike in the cost of a year's subscription to this periodical.

Nevertheless, a publisher knows that circulation is a barometer with which he can measure the success of his paper. He is much more interested in circulation than the extent to which readers agree with his editorial policy.

The fact is, no newspaper, if it has an editorial policy, can hope to please any people all the time. If it supports one side of an issue, at least it will please those readers on that side. If it remains neutral, it pleases no one.—Town Topics in Tulsa Herald.

THE BEST SALESMAN . . .

Retailers "can't get along" without newspaper advertising "and they'd better not try." Those words didn't emanate from an advertising solicitor, but from a retailer, J. C. Penney, chairman of the board of the company that bears his name, and a man who knows how to sell merchandise.

"We can't do business without newspaper advertising," said Mr. Penney. "The newspapers are our market place where we come to cry our wares."
In thousands of communities the local newspapers reach millions of readers regularly with a visual record of news and advertising that is not matched by any other means of communication. — Thursday in Post Dispatch.

MAN FROM MARS

We're back from Georgia, where we spent a good week laughing over the latest flying saucer incident. Down there a couple of imaginative citizens with a yen for getting their names in the paper pulled a "man from Mars" gag that takes the rag off the bush. The two killed a monkey, shaved the body carefully and rushed to town with the story that a saucer had landed and disgorged a flock of little men. In proof, they submitted the shaved monkey body purported to have been slain in a hand-to-hand fight with the space creatures. It took a lot of doing and a lot of examination of the monkey by eminent scientists before the truth finally dawned. Last we heard the irate public was closing in on the two pranksters with bloodhounds and blunderbusses. We could use a couple of eggs like that to write newsy stuff for The Banner! — Rails Banner.

It's certainly plain to see...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

This year again—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. It's plain to see that Chevrolet trucks out-sell all others because they out-value all others.

For the best buy — buy now!

When truck users show a continued preference for one particular make of truck, you can be sure that preference is based on a single sound reason: It's the best buy! Year after year, truck users in every field show a clear-cut preference for Chevrolet trucks by buying more of them than any other make.

Why not drop in and see why so many more truck buyers choose Chevrolet? You'll find, as they have, that Chevrolet trucks offer more of the features and advantages you want . . . more solid value in every way . . . yet it's the lowest-priced truck line of all.

Soil Conservation News

FOR LANDS SAKE—"COVER"

Floyd County Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors take the opportunity to encourage all farmers in this district to become aware of the hazards of going into another blow period with no more crop residue and cover on the land than could be found up until the past few days.

The District joins with all other Soil Conservation Districts in the Hi Plains and South Plains area to encourage farmers to plant high residue crops, such as cane, Hegari, other sorghums on dry land when sufficient moisture permits on wheat if moisture should come too late for sorghums. Wheat may be seeded above your normal allotment for the purpose of green manure, grazing or cover. In this drought area, however this area cannot be harvested for grain.

If seedings of sorghums are possible the Board suggests you leave enough stubble to give adequate protection to the land from the wind next spring.

Irrigated farms which have Sorghums seeded should likewise maintain a stubble which will protect the land. On cotton land it is suggested that cover crops be drilled in the middles and if crops come off early enough, solid seedings may be made.

The District is recommending the following legumes for cover: Vetch, Austrian Winter Peas, Madrid Sweet Clover, Biennial Yellow Clover and Biennial White Sweet Clover, or if you plan to go into an Alfalfa rotation this fall would be a good time to put it in so it would be on the land next spring.

The Board is aware of the large acreage of Sorghum seeded following the rains in the later part of July, and wishes to compliment you for this effort. It is hoped that much may be received in capital returns as well as adequate protection to your land.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bailey returned Sunday from a weeks visit with her brother, Bill Seavers and family at Denver, Colo.

Only Gas offers clean SMOKELESS broiling

Try the cigarette test and prove to yourself that only a live flame offers you smokeless broiling. Light a cigarette. Hold a lighted match over the smoke coming from the cigarette. See how the flame consumes the rising smoke. The same principle applies when you broil in a modern gas range. The clean blue flame of natural gas consumes the rising smoke and grease vapors. Only gas offers you clean smokeless broiling.

Rotary-Lions Battle Comedy Of Errors

No one expected a perfect ball game, therefore they weren't disappointed in the annual softball battle between the Rotary and Lions Clubs of Lockney last Friday night. The game turned out to be a comedy of errors but the crowd was kept entertained and that was the purpose.

The Lions pulled a fast one with an all-preacher battery. Rev. R. E. Wiley was the pitcher and Rev. Burgin Watkins catcher for the local club while Albert Willis was on the mound for the Rotary and Bob Miller behind the plate. However in the third inning the Lions pulled a switch and sent Tom (Fireball) Moore to pitch. The change of pace was too much for the Rotarians and they were unable to score in that inning.

After two and a half innings the boys all appeared tired and they decided to call it quits. The score? Oh, it was 11 to 10 in favor of the Lions, doggone it.

In the second game of the night the Fire Department defeated Rudy's of Floydada 7 to 6.

A total of $36.00 was realized to apply on the Boy Scout building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hammond and son, Joe Dean, returned home Sunday from Dallas where Mrs. Hammond had gone for a check-up. They spent the week there.

Babitzke Baby Is Painfully Burned

Edward Vernon Babitzke, the 8-month-old son of Lt. and Mrs. Edward Babitzke, was painfully burned Sunday morning as his mother was bathing him in preparation for attending church. The baby was standing in the bathtub and as his mother turned away for a moment he caught hold of the hot water faucet and turned it on. He suffered first and second degree burns across his shoulders, on the right side of his face and his right arm.

He was improving right along Wednesday, members of the family said, and attending physicians believe that the burns will heal without scars.

The father is stationed in Japan with the Air Force.
