Minute Editorials

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. — Acts 20:35.

SOMETHING of the futility of the present soil bank plan to help farmers is revealed in the news story from Hereford saying that that city received a soil bank check in the amount of $5,250 for keeping out of cultivation land being used for a city air port. The City will receive the same amount each year for the next nine years which means that Hereford will receive better than $50,000 from the federal government for keeping their air port out of cultivation. According to the story in the Hereford Brand the City will eventually get more money than the land originally cost them.

CONGRESSMAN GEORGE Mahon told a local group recently that the Soil Bank had not reduced production of surplus crops to any degree nor had it reduced the surplus substantially. In other words the Soil Bank is a failure as far as solving the farm surplus problem goes, and the sooner the fact is admitted the better off the country will be.

CONGRATULATIONS are in order for President Eisenhower, Mr. Brownell and other "bleeding hearts" who are so much interested in the plight of the Negro. The powers that be have reduced the number of regular Army soldiers in Little Rock from 500 to 225 and have reduced the number of National Guard from 1800 to 900. Now there remains only 1125 soldiers all together stationed in Little Rock to see that those nine Negro children get to attend that old dilapidated white high school instead of going to their own new, modern school just recently completed. All the more impressive is the move when one remembers that the President originally had 11,500 troops all together stationed in Little Rock to protect those nine little Negro children. Nothing like doing the job right.

SOME OF THE trouble with the over-all farm program probably could be traced to the attitude exhibited by East Texans in the present cotton allotment controversy. East Texas farmers, legislators and Chamber of Commerce representatives cannot be content with the state's cotton allotment program as it has been operated. They want part of West Texas' cotton acreage along with their own now that they have had some rain and think they might make a crop. And it looks like at present that they may get some of it too. This kind of selfish attitude is hurting the farm program all over the nation. Until each area or group is willing to take his share and be content with it, inter-farm fights will continue to develop and all will get less. West Texas farmers have been kicked around by just about every other segment of agriculture. It's too bad that we have politicians running the thing instead of statesmen.

FORTUNE REPORTS that "The appearance of a union of union organizers has caused some embarrassment among A. F. L. - C. I. O. officials." It is known as the Field Representatives Federation, and it wants recognition as a collective bargaining agent. Officers of the big union are said to be regarding its demands with cold eyes.

CHRISTIAN ATTITUDE

Had a couple jump me the other day, saying, "If you take the Christian attitude integration is the only possible solution you can come up with." I seriously challenged that.

It isn't Christian to incite the worst in man in the hopes of bringing about the best. The one parallel example might be Christ's attitude toward slavery. I detest slavery but Christ did not advocate freeing them. He told the slave to be subject to his master and for the master to be kind to the slave. Christ knew that eventually, with good-will from both sides, right would win out.

The thing the south fears the most is interracial marriage. It is interesting to note that the Bible does not refer to an illegitimate child as a b-----d. But it does refer to a child of interracial marriage or no, as one. And they shall be cut off from their people until the tenth generation. This seems to have reference to three general stocks, oriental, negro and white.

So to me, the Christian attitude would be good-will, understanding and restraint of force but at the same time avoid the intermingling of rac-fact that the idea is farm-born, managed like a farmer wants it managed, or something like that. Townpeople are included in the planning only for what help they can give in the clutches.—Floyd County Hesperian

THE CAMEL'S NOSE

The camel has put his head under the driver's tent several times in the past few years, and now he's going out to have the old man sitting out in the cold while the humped critter enjoys the warmth of the tent's folds. Thus we metaphorize on the way the federal government is rooting state governments into the status of provinces and gradually building up the fear of the FBI in the lives of average citizens. All in the name of humanity. No longer the sovereign state, with limited powers delegated to the federal government. The idea has been fit, bled and died over for a long time. Finally the militant minorities have a strangle hold. Having successfully flung with other things, disastrously, it now comes about that a new set of gooders are tinkering seriously with the right to bear arms.—Floyd County Hesperian.

Dear Editor:

Well, it looked like here for a while that the Russians had us whipped, getting their Sputnik to spinning before we could get the political bugs out of ours.

But Mr. Ike got the situation under control by appoganda propagator to belittle the Russian moon.

Now when this expert gets his bureau set up and manned by a couple of thousand college graduates in bamboo-zoolery, they will quiet all of our fears and, probably, convince the Russians that they haven't even got a Sputnik.

Long Ago In Lockney

Items of interest from the files of The Lockney Beacon.

Nov. 17, 1924

This edition of the Beacon is dedicated to the new Lockney Cotton Oil Mill with four sections totaling 32 pages. Congratulations to the new industry are combined with pictures portraying Lockney's good schools, churches and many phases of farming. Pictures show modern dairy farming, chickens, hogs, cattle, a 2,000 gallon per minute irrigation well, wheat, cotton, strawberries, peaches, wide row kaffir corn, milo maize, alfalfa, watermelons and cotton, all of which thrive in the Lockney area where diversification is becoming a general practice.

Nov. 16, 1945

A letter from Leo Mason who is stationed in Germany and sent to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mason and carried in the issue of the Beacon states he has fought in three campaigns, Ardennes, Rhineland and Central Germany. He hopes to be home by Spring.

The Bennett Auto Supply store located in the former Police Barber shop building next door to Counts Food Store is now open for business under the name of Joe Darden, manager.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Thompson of Lockney and Staff Sgt. Calvin O. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Williams, were married last Saturday afternoon at 5:30 at Lubbock.

Nov. 17, 1924

Three automobile accidents occurred in Lockney and vicinity Thursday in less than three hours. No one was hurt seriously.

Lockney's first restricted residential addition, McKoy Place, is being beautified with trees and graveled streets and is being offered for sale to prospective home builders.

The opening of Lockney Cotton Oil Mill tomorrow will be marked with a barbecue and program for a large number of residents and visitors. Actual operations of the mill will begin Friday, Nov. 18.

West Texas Sheriff's convention closed a two days session Friday with a shooting contest and a football game between Post and Floydada. A banquet preceded the afternoon session.

Avoid Heavy Hog Production In 1958 Is Asked

College Station — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has asked hog producers to consider their production intentions for 1958 with special care in light of the present hog price situation.

Hog prices have been fairly good this year — running between $17 and $22 per hundred pounds through September. But what will happen to prices by fall of 1958 and the following year depends upon the number of pigs produced next spring. Too many sows farrowed early next year could mean a severe decline in prices next fall.

Except for slight seasonal downturns, hog prices have been steadily recovering from a low point of around $10 per hundred pounds to which they fell in Dec. 1955. The gains of the past two years can be determined only if supply is kept reasonably close to prospective demand.

The Secretary is concerned because conditions exist this fall which could stimulate production to the extent that prices would again dip disastrously. And the market would be flooded with pork beyond consumers' demands.

Among factors which point to increased hog production next year is a large supply of feed grains at a relatively low price due to bumper crops this year. The number of bushels of corn that could be bought with the price of a hundred pounds of hogs has averaged slightly above 12 over many years. This Sept. it rose to a high of 16.6 bushels, and it is expected to run between 14 and 15 during the current breeding season. Such a situation almost invariably leads to increased farrowings.

BLOOD "EXPANDERS" and albumin—a plasma derivative—stored in the Federal Civil Defense Administration's stockpiles would be indispensable after a large attack to supplement limited supplies of whole blood for millions of casualties in first aid stations such as above. For example, 5,000,000 casualties would require an estimated 7,500,000 pints of whole blood, 2,000,000 bottles of albumin and 5,500,000 bottles of blood "expanders" during the first three weeks after attack. By mid-1957, FDA expects to have enough blood derivatives and plasma volume "expanders" stored to provide for 4 1/2 million casualties. (American Red Cross Photo)

Increased population should take care of a moderate increase in the 1958 spring pig crop, but growth in consumer demand for pork has been slow. The Department's market analyst warns that more-than-moderate increases could lead to a repetition of the unfavorable price situation of late 1955. They think that at least a 7 percent increase is in prospect, and for a gain of this size price declines might not be exceptionally large. For increases above 7 percent the risk of sharp declines would be greater.

Dear Editor:
I see where some formerly well thought of books are being taken out of libraries over the country, on account of they do not refer to colored people with sufficient reverence.

Now I am highly in favor of banning all forms of literature which offend any class of people. Lots more peace and harmony would prevail, for instance, if Republican writings about Democrats, and vice versa, were outlawed.

Also I would like to see a ban put on my banker's Collection Letters Nos. 4, 5, and 6, which contain some very offensive remarks about the deadbeat class.

Irrigation Continues To Expand In Texas

College Station — A contributing factor and a mighty impetus to the overall agricultural production of Texas' farms and ranches is irrigation.

R. V. Thurmond, extension agricultural engineer - irrigation, has just released a statewide summary which points up the great economic importance that supplemental water plays in the state's economy. Figures were collected from each county in the state relative to the total number of acres irrigated; number of irrigated farms; acres irrigated by gravity; number of sprinkler systems; number of irrigation wells; acres irrigated from ground water and the acreages of the principal crops irrigated in each of the counties. County agricultural agents supplied the information and Thurmond made the final compilation.

The total land under irrigation in Texas now stands at 6,962,234 acres. This compares with a total of 6,208,022 acres in 1955 (figures are from a similar survey). In June 1957 when the figures were taken, 39,706 farms were listed as being irrigated. Only 10 counties in the state reported no irrigation. The number of irrigation wells rose from 42,674 in 1955 to 54,994 in 1957. The number of sprinkler systems in use almost doubled during this same period with a 200,000 acre increase in the land thus irrigated.

Grain sorghums on almost 2.3 millions of acres were the principal crop irrigated. Cotton was a close second with almost 2.2 millions of acres under irrigation. Other major crops included wheat, rice, vegetables, pastures, alfalfa, field corn, oats and barley, forage sorghums, orchards and others.

Hale County with 500,000 acres under irrigation leads all counties in this respect but is closely followed by Swisher with 480,000 acres. Many other counties in this same general area have in excess of 300,000 acres under irrigation. Counties in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and the rice belt are also among the leading counties.

1957 Cotton Has Longer Staple Length

Lubbock—Statistics on classing data from the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Lubbock office as of cotton classed through October 29, 1957, show the average staple length this year is significantly longer than that of cotton produced either in 1955 or 1956.

George W. Pfeifferberger, Executive Vice-President of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., said that the staple length this year as of October 29 averaged a full inch. This compares to a shy 31-32 of an inch for the 1956 crop and to just under 15-16 of an inch for 1955.

"In dollars and cents this represents gain of something like $3.25 per bale, offsetting to some degree the losses in grade caused from too much rainfall in October and late plantings," Pfeifferberger said. While these figures may not hold for the remainder of the 1957 season, it is significant that a gain is evident. These figures represent about 150,000 bales ginned and classed thus far for this year, as compared to 737,313 bales classed on that date in 1956 and 164,349 bales on that date in 1955.

What may be even more important is the distribution of the staple length. Pfeifferberger continued. Whereas in 1955, about 40.3 percent of the cotton was below 15-16 of an inch in length and 14.7 percent in 1956. This year only 2.1 percent is below 15-16 of an inch in length.

This year 37.1 percent is above one inch in length while only 14.6 was above one inch in 1956 and only 2.4 was above one inch in 1955. As to grade, white cotton accounted for 56.7 percent of the crop ginned thus far on that date in 1955, 62.6 percent in 1956 and 61.7 percent this year. Spotted and light spotted cotton accounted for 43.3 percent in 1955, about 37.4 percent in 1956 and 38.3 percent this year. However, U. S. D. A. reports show that only 3 of one percent were full spots, thus light spots account for 38 percent for the High Plains area.

Halfway Church Wins State Award

Fort Worth. — The First Baptist Church of Halfway, west of Plainview, was named first place winner Wednesday of the annual Town and Country Achievement Award sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas.
 Its pastor, the Rev. Carlos McLeod, was named Rural Pastor of the year in ceremonies before nearly 8,000 messengers attending the annual BGCT convention in Will Rogers Coliseum.
 Divided into three categories,
 the program is judged on projects designed to build a better church, community and world.
 For the first time this year, officials picked individual winners in the three categories, rather than a second or third

Worming poultry and hogs

 certainly cuts down on la-problem, does a real good job, safely, economically and

 When you want a water

 the job quickly, easily and

 Our local human behavior that only one Man was ever born who could hold author-getting a swelled head, and the people killed him.

He says further that lots of the world's top leaders have approached their jobs come down with power fever.

And that the final stage of

Longhorns Down

rd kicked to the 20 and Floydada returned to their 36. A pass gained 1, the Whirlwinds were stopped on the line. Cliff Hardy, who turned in a very fine performance at defensive halfback, snagged a Whirlwind pass and raced back to the Lockney 44.

Williams gained 1. Barton made 5 and 2, as the third stanza ended.

Race's punt rolled dead on the Floydada 10. The Whirlwind's explosive attack again began to click. The host team gained 2, 6, and a first on their 24. They made 1, passed for another first on the Whirlwind 41. Floydada ran for 9, moved for a first on Lockney's 41, passed incomplete, made 6, and had another pass fall incomplete. Passing again paid off for the Whirlwinds as they completed passes for first downs on Lockney's 31 and 20. A ground play gained 2, a pass fell incomplete, another pass gained a first down on the Lockney 5, and Potts raced over. Huckyaby tackled on the point and the Whirlwinds trailed, 20-14, with 5:50 remaining in the game.

Bill Musser returned the kick to Lockney's 28. Barton made 2. Barton drove for 6, and Calloway charged for a first on the Longhorn 38. Floydada's fired-up defense began to hold. Williams made 1, a fumble gained nothing. Race was stopped at scrimmage, and Race's low boot was blocked by the Whirlwind line on the Lockney 33.

Lockney's chances looked dim as Floydada passed for 5, had an incomplete pass, and tossed for a first on Lockney's 17 with less than two minutes to play. David Howell, end, dropped the ball carrier for a four yard loss, two passes fell incomplete, and Wofford knocked down a fourth down pass on the goal line.

The Longhorns took the ball on their 21 with one minute, five seconds remaining. Lockney ran the clock out as Race kept for 2 and 3.

Cotton Producers Advised To Save Good Planting Seed

College Station — Good cotton planting seed with high germination may be scarce next spring. Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist, said the situation which has developed is due to late spring plantings last spring and the wet weather which has hit all sections of the cotton belt during the harvest season. The situation, he added, is even worse in the eastern part of the cotton belt and seed of certain varieties are almost certain to be in short supply.

Elliott advised cotton growers to save and carefully store any good quality seed of known varieties. This, he said, is one of those seasons when planting seed even with a low moisture content can't be placed in storage and forgotten about until next spring. A continuous check on stored seed is suggested.

Here are Elliott's suggestions for handling seed. Check seed closely for damage before storing and store those with high germination (80 percent is very good) and low free fatty acid content. Seed saved for bulk storage, he said, should contain less than 12 percent moisture unless good drying and cooling facilities are available. Small quantities of seed should be turned and sacked.

Large quantities of bulk stored seed, he said, should be cured by aeration to maintain quality. A portable fan and duct system can be used to draw air through the seed. He warned that a moisture content of 13.6 percent is the critical point beyond which storage may quickly become disastrous. Every effort, he said, should be made to bring the moisture content down to 10 or 11 percent on seed in storage. Drawing air through the seed must be done during daylight hours and only in fair weather and preferably between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., he said.

A germination test should be run on the seed before planting as an aid in determining how much seed to plant, he said. No germination test should be made until the seed have been in storage for at least 30 days which is the normal rest period of freshly ginned seed. Finally, Elliott sug-

CROSS ROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:
 Art critic by the name of Atkinson says everybody ought to depend on his own judgment when considering whether he likes a piece of music, or a book, or a painting.

Says more people have a fit over an art job they don't really like because they figure it rates them with the sophisticated folks who are supposed to have a taste for screwy art.

An unrefined neighbor says he don't know much about art except the kind on calendars, and lettering on te his wife that he don't like some of these may not be good art criticking, but is pretty good sense.

Houston, Tex. — Susy Power, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Power promises to be a fine housekeeper one day. She doesn't like dirt of any kind.

The other day Susy remarked proudly to her mother that "those dirty kitties are going round and round and round."

Mrs. Power let the remark soak in, then gasped and headed for the washing machine. Peering forlornly through the glass port were four wet and frightened kittens, who had indeed been "round and round" — through the full soap cycle!

Mrs. Power nauted the animals out. "Fortunately, the machine was set for luke-warm," she said. "The kittens weren't hurt, but they were certainly clean!"

The winners were introduced during the dinner hour, Monday, October 27, at Mason Hall. President and Mrs. Dawson entertained the council with a coffee in their home Tuesday evening following initiation.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster attended Parents Weekend at C. W. C. in Denver the past week.

Betty was chosen to represent Colorado Women's College at the National Students Association in Albuquerque, New Mexico, last Saturday and Sunday. She was routed by Lockney so she could see the football game between Lockney and Floydada Friday night. She made the trip via plane leaving for Albuquerque following the game.

MY FEET GET ITCHY

Abilene, Tex. — Abilene police can usually depend on Mike Garity to stop in for a visit when things get slow.

Recently he came by, with the assistance of eight Negro boys who found him loose about 9:30 p. m. near Lincoln Junior High. They dropped him at the police station. He was armed with a toy double-barrel shotgun.

Mike is 7, and a regular visitor with the city officers. Every few weeks, police say, his bare feet itch and he goes for an unauthorized stroll. A while back he got on a tricycle and rode across Abilene to a feed mill building, which he promptly climbed.

Another time Police Radio Operator Allen Hatchett encountered Mike. On a borrowed tricycle he had left home and pedaled the vehicle three miles to Municipal Airport. Hatchett saved him the trip back.

After his last trip an officer jokingly told Mike he might have to spank him if he caught him gallivanting around again. The boy studied the policeman a few moments, then replied, "My mother will do that when I get home."

HIGHER LEARNING

Georgetown, Tex. — Yelled an upperclassman on the campus of Southwestern University: "Freshman, where's your green beanie?" (All freshmen are required by upperclassmen to wear the skull-type cap.)

Replied freshman Ray Allen Holube: "I'm a graduate student."

"Oh yeah?" sneered the upperclassman.

Hurriedly replied Holube, "I'm a graduate of Granger High School."

His cap went on right soon.

Mean temperature in Colorado during July is 72 to 74 degrees.

Farm Vehicles Should Be Properly Lighted

Operators of farm trailers and other vehicles engaged in harvesting operations were cautioned by the Lubbock office of the Texas Department of Public Safety to have the vehicles properly equipped before operating them on public roads.

Maj. R. A. Crowder, commander of the Lubbock DPS Region, pointed out that all trailers "must have at least two red reflectors and one red tail light on the rear and only one trailer must be towed by a truck, car or tractor."

Crowder added that all trailers with a gross weight of 3,000 pounds or more also must be equipped with clearance lights and reflectors at front, sides, and rear, according to state law. Texas law also prohibits the towing of two trailers on any public road.

Drivers of motor vehicles who reside in Texas or work in Texas are required to be licensed as an operator, commercial operator, or chauffeur. Crowder explained. And he pointed out that owners or operators of vehicles who hire other persons as drivers are responsible under the law for seeing that the driver has a valid Texas license.

Basketball Clinic Set At Wayland

Plainview — Girls basketball coaches from all over Texas are expected for the second annual Flying Queens Clinic at Wayland Baptist College, Nov. 23, according to Harley Redin, Wayland athletic director and coach of the four-time Women's AAU Champion Hutchinson Flying Queens.

Redin says a full day is planned for coaches and players at this clinic, which has been organized due to the demand of the 25 coaches who attended the first clinic at Wayland last May.

The Hutchinson Flying Queens will be on hand for demonstration purposes. The day will be climaxed in a clash between the girls teams from Roosevelt and Abernathy that night. The Queens will demonstrate ball handling, defensive maneuvers and offensive plays that have enabled them to win 104 consecutive games.

Two 1957 All American Flying Queens, Alice Barron and Rita Alexander, who are now teaching in League City, will give a special report on the World Basketball Tournament in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in which they were recent participants.

Registration fee for the clinic is $10 per coach. Coaches may bring as many players as they care to without additional cost.

He was kicked out of an Austin burial park by police after an attendant found him snoring between some trees.

He was given a place at a city jail where he looked for vagrancy.

TIED!

Maybe no one has ever actually bound your wrists with a rope. But haven't you, at times, felt as if you were literally hand tied? You struggle and strain with your problems and anxieties, and you are completely unable to get free. Such moments come to everyone, and they are not easy to face. It's simple to be serene when things are going well. But when your hands are tied—when you feel helpless, even hopeless—then you begin to realize life cannot be lived alone. It's then that you know how important Faith is—how it is something you absolutely must have. With Faith to sustain you, you inevitably begin to see your way out. Without it, you founder. Turn to the Church—not just because you are troubled, but because it can give you spiritual freedom.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
