The Lord is my helper; I will not fear what man shall do to me. — Hebrews 13:6.

SURELY EVERYONE knows that Saturday is primary election day. Surely there are enough issues in the various races to make everyone want to vote. Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. Sometime during the day it behooves us all to take time to vote.

GOVERNOR PRICE DANIEL surely deserves the vote and support of the people of Texas for his work during his present administration. Ignoring the taunts and foul names hurled at him by the DOTS and their fellow travelers, Governor Daniel has consistently refused to stoop to smear tactics even against the group whose chief weapon is smear. He has forged ahead with a constructive, forward looking program for the state and has accomplished much even in his first term. He should win in the first primary.

SEEMS TO US we need a change in the office of Lieutenant Governor. We have never been a strong admirer of Ben Ramsey and we think he has been in office long enough. Young Nokes is highly recommended and probably would bring a new look to the office.

though the grapevine says he has very little chance to win.

AT ONE TIME it was thought that Bill Blakley had very little chance to beat Ralph Yarborough for U. S. Senator. But Blakley has scored some telling blows on Yarborough and his chances appear brighter. Yarborough's vote with the labor crowd and his line-up with the radical northern element of the Democratic party hasn't helped him in Texas. Also remember Yarborough has never polled a majority of votes in a Democratic primary. He won his office in a special election against 21 opponents, and polled only 37 per cent of the votes to win. In this race he has only one opponent. That might make a difference.

JOE GREENHILL appears the logical choice for Associate Justice of Supreme Court, Place 4. His opponent is Mrs. Sarah T. Hughes. Greenhill is now holding the office and has the support of a big majority of lawyers. Also he has been helpful to the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, previous to his appointment to the Supreme Court.

THREE MEN are seeking the office of State Senator, 30th district. We don't know about the western end of the district, which goes all the way to the state line, but in this area it appears the race will be between Leroy Saul and Andy Rogers. Karl Lovelady is the third man. He is from Bailey County. Rogers is the incumbent and Saul is representative from the 89th district seeking a promotion to the Senate. Saul made quite a record in the House of Representatives and was honored several times for his work there. He has the opposition of the high officials in the REA because they were not satisfied with a bill which passed the legislature putting that organization back in business after it was virtually killed by a Supreme Court ruling. Despite the fact that the bill restored several rights to the REA which were taken away by the Supreme Court, the REA contends that Saul's bill hurt the REA. Saul says that the three principles concerned, the League of Texas Municipalities, the private utility companies and the REA agreed upon his bill just before it went to the committee. The committee passed the bill unanimously and it was approved by the House 128 to 10. Saul stood for the right of a city to control the utilities operating within the city limits, whether REA or privately owned, according to his statement, which further said that the REA was dissatisfied because they wanted the right to operate in a city on a state franchise. Saul further says that the bill passed was the best that could be passed by the Legislature at that time. Meanwhile other groups have attacked Rogers record, accused him of misconduct in office and of being aligned with labor groups.

THE COMPLETE PICTURE

With Our EXCHANGES

JUST ONE ISSUE

The Yarborough - Blakley campaign for the U. S. Senate swings into its final week.

It is a campaign which revolves around just one issue: that of extreme "liberalism" versus "conservatism."

Sen. Ralph Yarborough is pledged to the radical forces of the Democratic Party, the Northern wing headed by Govs. Averell Harriman, of New York, and Mennen Williams, of Michigan; by Walter Reuther of the CIO-AFL combine. Former Sen. Wm. A. Blakley is pledged to the Democratic philosophies embraced by Sens. Lyndon Johnson and Richard Russell; by Speaker Sam Rayburn and all those others who still hold aloft the banner passed to the Party by Thomas Jefferson.

All the voters of Texas need to decide now and next Saturday is to decide what sort of Senator they want; one who actively will help push the nation farther leftward, toward the Welfare State and domination by the labor monopoly; or one who'll vote and work for the best interests of the people of Texas.

Each of the candidates, of his own volition, has taken his stand and has surrounded himself with advisers, in traditional fashion. Thus, each invites investigation, both of his platform and of those who have helped him fashion it.

This is what any investigation will show: Former Senator Blakley has the support of the legally constituted State Democratic Executive Committee. Senator Yarborough has his same inner circle as of old, the liberal extremists now calling themselves the "Democrats of Texas."

The latter has no legal or official standing in the Party, but is a coalition of union labor leaders, the NAACP, the radical element of the Latin-American population and the always dissident segment of leftwingers headed by wealthy Mrs. R. D. Randolph of Houston.

Active, too, in D.O.T. are Creekmore Fath, Mrs. Randolph's legal advisor; Jerry Hollemo, big boss and chief lobbyist of the AFL-CIO in Texas; his No. 2 man, Fred Schmidt and one W. J. Durham, Dallas Negro attorney who serves as counsel for the NAACP and is a member of the "executive" committee of the Democrats of Texas. Among other things, the D.O.T. group is pledged to unhorse the two top Texans among the officialdom of the Democratic Party, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn—when and if it can.

So that's the way the candidates, themselves, have "laid it on the line" before the voters. This year, for a change, Texans make their decision based not upon hollow showmanship and name-calling but, instead, on one simple issue: whether they'll send a Texas Senator to Washington, free to act and work for Texas; or a captive of forces which would do away with State's Rights and centralize, under domination from the left, all authority in Washington.

We think Bill Blakley is much the better choice for Texas. We hope most South Plainsmen will think so, too. — Lubbock Avalanche.

SALES TAX COMING

I notice where Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo is pushing for a sales tax. It may be a few years, but this is inevitable. Lots and lots of people pay not a cent in taxes, while others pay only withholding taxes. The big trouble is that the proposed sales tax will not reduce other taxes. They will just spend more — and we will continue to have the same state and national deficits. This is not all due to any political party, but mainly to the automobile. Since roads became highly important, our state and rational money problems have increased tremendously. Now, in addition to being behind on our car payments, we are also getting behind on our road payments. — Jimmie Gillette in Hereford Brand.

WOMEN REALLY ARE PECULIAR PEOPLE

Women are peculiar creatures. If you don't believe it, just ask any man.

These days, for instance, you see literally hundreds of women from all walks of life clad in the new style chemise, or "suek" dresses. The peculiar part, though, rests in the fact that practically every single woman in the chemise has vehemently declared, "That's one style I'll never wear." And, at the time, she definitely could see no sane or sensible reason for bowing to the dictates of an outlandish fashion.

Probably the best thing any one can say for the chemise is the fact that it bears out the old adage that styles repeat themselves. Older women in the group have frequently laughed at their own teenage pictures in the same dresses, while the younger ones no doubt said, "But, Mom, I don't see how you could have stood it!"

Dame Fashion, meanwhile, manages to outmaneuver the brunt of a thousand jokes across the nation, some even a little bit suggestive, and the sack dress is seen more and more.

Why? Well, as we said, women are peculiar creatures. If you don't believe it, just ask any man.—Hereford Brand.

Dear Editor: I see where the Governor of Colorado got turned down flat here the other day when he applied for some extra federal money to help fight grasshoppers.

My cross-wired neighbor says maybe the Governor hadn't noticed that U.S. aid is bounteous only to communist-leaders, multi-wired kinds with unbalanced budgets, etc.

Says now if he was a dictator instead of a mere Governor, and had a fast-living son sparking the movie shaplies with mink and sports cars, Washington would likely have rolled him out a red carpet right up to the free money counter.

We've had it now for over a year and a half. The freezer has our blessing on both counts — it does save work and it does save money. It's wonderful for making use of extra food. That's why I'll cook more than we'll eat at one sitting — I freeze the 'extra' food for later use — you can freeze it and know that the original tasty flavor will remain."

BILL BLAKLEY

Texans like a public official who is independent in his thinking and doesn't have to account for his actions to anyone except the voters themselves. William A. Blakley is such a man. Of his race for U. S. Senate, the Fort Arthur News says: "He entered this race by his own decision. He is beholden to nobody. He doesn't have to promise special interest groups anything and he wants to represent all of Texas, not any political splinter or fragment of faction above the rest..."

Dear Editor:
I see where a lady doctor of psychology by the name of Dr. Hurlock says spanking a wayward child just antonymizes him and makes him harder to get along with in the future.

My short-headed neighbor says likely this is scientific, so it follows that throwing a car-ruster in jail is the wrong thing to do because it will make him mad and meaner.

Says Dr. Hurlock ought to inform the Lord about this, on account of He evidently hasn't heard that punishment for wrongdoing is bad psychology.

Blakley States Position On Farm Program

William A. Blakley, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator believes that farmers want and should have the right to make a living without government control, but until the time comes when a proper solution to the farm situation can be found the farmer must have compensations.

Blakley said: "I would like for the farmer to be relieved of restrictions put upon him by the government. He is the greatest example of what is meant by free enterprise. Until the time comes when the proper answer can be found, the farmer must have compensations.

"My position with relation to the farm situation has been, is and always will be this: People on the land are the basic integral part of the development of our society. Our rights and freedoms are linked with the land and the people who live on the land.

"Our government is morally obligated to the farmer — the producer of food and fiber for our people as well as the rest of the world — to protect his purchasing power and thereby give him a chance to earn a decent living without government control.

"This can best be accomplished through price supports until such time as the government can set up a system whereby farmers can be offered adequate financing to set up producing and marketing corporations of their own, controlled solely by them, thereby producing and marketing their products in a manner conducive to good business principles. Such corporations can be set up on the same plans which other successful agencies of government have been set up. This could be done by agencies similar to the intermediate credit bank, the bank for co-ops, and the federal land bank, where he can be financed at reasonable rates.

"The cattle industry, one in which I am engaged, is one of the last of the great free industries. I want some day to see the farmer in the position where he can be free of government restrictions and controls as the cattleman now is. In the cattle business you can buy whatever type of cow you want, pasture it on whatever land you own or control, and sell it whenever and wherever you like. And we might add that the cattle business is in good shape. I want to help hurry the day when the farmer can derive good income from his own production of

BILL BLAKLEY FOR U. S. Senate

Let's Turn Away!

LET'S TURN AWAY FROM SOCIALISM AND CENTRALIZED GOVERNMENT!

Let's turn away from government ownership — government interference — in our private affairs. Let's turn away from socialism and all its implications with a

VOTE FOR BILL BLAKLEY
For United States Senate

in the Democratic Primary, July 26th

WHAT BILL BLAKLEY BELIEVES:

The right to work — and the right to educate your children — without restraint, regulation or interference — from government, or private associations and organizations — must be reestablished, protected and maintained — if this Nation is to continue to be the land of the free.

The respective powers of the three branches of government — legislative, executive, judicial — must be clearly and properly adhered to. It must be reestablished that the authority to pass legislation is granted by the Constitution only to the Congress and new law is not to be made — under the guise of new and purposeful interpretations — by the Court or otherwise.

I will always advocate that the right to work should never be subject to the whim of a labor boss or to membership in any organization. I continue to believe that uncontrolled monopoly — in any form — is an evil thing — whether of capital or labor.

If you want a man in the United States Senate who will do his best to protect your rights— your freedoms — your property — a man who will fight to turn this nation from the socialistic trend which threatens its very existence—then—professional and civic groups, the press and in private and public educational institutions are plugging away in a make-nasty-slowly campaign. Principal objective now is to get Texans thinking about what they want and need in a state constitution today.

Their campaign gained official blessing last year when the Legislature passed a resolution instructing the Legislative Council to do research on the subject and report back in 1958. An 18-member citizens advisory committee was appointed to counsel with the legislative study group. Dean Robert G. Storey of the SMU Law School is chairman; C. Y. Mills of Mission and Mrs. Horton Wayne Smith of Austin, vice chairmen; and Dan Moody Jr. of Austin, secretary.

Next meeting of the advisory group is to be held in September. Right now, one member admits that progress toward revision is itself moving at an ox wagon pace. Reason is that those concerned feel strongly that any action should be preceded by an exhaustive, professional research job. This takes money.

Legislative Council, with a staff of seven, and 11 studies under way, can't go all-out on this one thing, but is doing some fact gathering during the summer. Both Council and committee hope to get money for the work, perhaps by next year, from the Legislature and/or some private foundation.

Advocates of Constitutional revision advance these points, among others, as reasons for concern:

1. It's a staggering document, 47,000 words long, patched up with 133 amendments. If nine more proposed amendments are approved next November, it'll be 54,000 words. Much of it is regarded by lawyers as properly belonging in the statutes rather than in a basic document like the Constitution. Much is cited as totally useless, such as provisions for repelling Indian raids.

2. Like Topsy, Texas' huge conglomeration of agencies, departments, commissions and divisions, "just grew." It's all so loosely put together, say critics, that folks don't know who to blame when things don't suit them. Same indictment is applied to the fiscal set-up. It's a billion-dollar-a-year business but control is mince-meat among many. State has more than 100 special funds, representing about 85 per cent of state revenue. These can't be touched by the Legislature, even if they are not needed for the purpose for which they're earmarked and are desperately needed elsewhere.

3. Another argument made is that increasing concentration of government in Washington can be halted only if state governments are sufficiently vigorous and adaptable to meet people's changing and growing needs. Some suggest that Texas' present Constitution may be a "strait jacket" on state government.

HIGH COST OF DRIVING — Texas drivers will have to "pay the piper" next year in higher auto insurance.

State Insurance Board has announced that, effective Aug. 1, auto insurance rates will be substantially higher in most parts of Texas. Average hike will be 32 per cent on comprehensive coverage, 19 per cent on liability and 17 per cent on collision. In Dallas County, for example, a policy which now costs $108 will jump to $142.

Premiums paid on the old rate schedule have not nearly met accident claims, said Penn Jackson, chairman of the Insurance Board. He attributed the insurance companies' "tremendous losses" to four factors:

1. An increasing number of collisions.
2. Higher cost of repairing today's swanky cars.
3. Higher cost of hospital and medical care.
4. Generosity of jurors in awarding damages to claimants.

Auto owners, said Jackson, must realize they set their own insurance rates by the way they drive.

WATER FUTURE — Hope for an ever-more-prosperous Texas is found in the recently completed state-federal survey of Texas' water resources and needs.

Contents of the study were made public by U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson who requested the survey a year ago. Texas Board of Water Engineers and three federal agencies collaborated in compiling data.

Each major river basin was studied and the possibility of switching floodwaters from one basin to another discussed at length. "The scope of the economic impact of large-scale water exchange in Texas is impressive," said the report. "If exploited to its logical conclusion, there is solid evidence to indicate that the increase in Texas income would be of great magnitude."

ON FISHING FOR INDUSTRY — A how-to-do-it booklet for communities wanting to attract new industry is now in circulation.

It was published by the new Texas Industrial Commission with private donations. In 66 pages, the book tells how a community should analyze itself, correct any inadequacies and bring all good points to the fore in a promotional effort.

Commission members expressed hope the passage next November of a constitutional amendment to permit use of state funds for advertising would make continuation of their efforts possible.

HANDS OFF — State Board of Education has gone on record as officially — and positively — opposing any plan to tamper with the permanent school fund.

Last legislature voted to make 1 per cent of the permanent fund available annually for current expenses. State Auditor C. H. Cavness has proposed making part of future income from school lands available for pressing present needs and putting only part into the multi-million-dollar school trust fund. But the school board declared the fund should be "inviolable."

At the same meeting the Board learned the school fund had run $6,691,905 in the red for 1957-58. Reduction in oil production, a prime source of school revenue, was blamed. Per student state payments for next year were cut from $82 to $75.

The marriage of Miss Jeanne Ellen Reeder of Oklahoma City, and Franklin Terry Perkins of Midland, Texas, was solemnized at 3:30 p.m. Saturday in the Crown Heights Christian Church of Oklahoma City. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Reeder, Oklahoma City. Mr. Perkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perkins of Lockney.

The neckline was accented with a Queen Anne collar. The bride's head-dress of lace and tulle was outlined in pearls. The pointed front had a pearl droplet. The veil was of illusion. She carried a white orchid on a Bible showered with satin streamers and tulle.

Library News

It has been a privilege as well as a pleasure to serve you as librarian for the past three and one half years.

It has been a thrill to see the shelves gradually fill up with books, and a double thrill to see the youth of our community checking these books in and out day after day.

I wish to express my appreciation to the Library Board and the Commissioners Court for their help and cooperation.

To the Hesperian, and the KFLD radio may we say "Thank You" for all the fine publicity you have given our County Library.

And to all the wonderful people of Floyd County, the best of luck to you — Keep Our Library Growing For The Sake Of Our Youth!

Mrs. A. T. Hull will assume her duties as your County Librarian Monday, July 21. I feel that the people of Floyd County are very fortunate in securing Mrs. Hull for this position. Mrs. Hull has expressed a desire to cooperate with Lockney, the rural communities and our schools. She has a special love for children, and will be looking forward to seeing them in the library.

Janet Holmes will continue to work part time in the library.

In Floyd County
Cotton is America's greatest product. No other fibre, produced by nature and by hand is so versatile.
Yet right here in the No. 1 cotton producing country in the South we neglect to insist on cotton in our purchases.

Providence

By Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner

If you have knowledge let others light their candle by it. Alvin Dietrich underwent surgery at Plainview hospital last week. His condition is good. Mrs. Fred Sammann fell at her home last Tuesday morning injuring her knee which required surgery. She is at Medical Center, Plainview, room 13. She would appreciate a card from her friends.

Rev. Lee Roy Brandes and family spent last week visiting friends and relatives here. They flew in from Los Angeles last Monday. Rev. Brandes had been conducting a leadership training school in California and Washington. They returned by plane Friday to Seguin where he is associate pastor to Rev. H. L. Anderson.

Guests for a fish fry and barbeque supper in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Heaser and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sessions, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rogers and family, all of Plainview.

Providence H. D. Club met in the lovely home of Mrs. E. M. Quebe Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. R. Turner opened the meeting with a devotional. Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner, president presided. Mrs. Sam Jones reported on the lovely tea given for the new home demonstration agent recently. Roll call was answered with "How I keep cool in hot weather, and facts about our flag."

A hamburger picnic was planned for Tuesday, August 19th at the home of Mrs. E. M. Quebe at 7:30 p. m. Each family will bring buns and meat and each club member will be notified what else to bring. Mrs. A. K. Windecker gave a very interesting and informative demonstration on ceramics. Mrs. E. M. Quebe gave a demonstration on salads and served a hot potato salad, a fruit salad, vegetable salad, fruit squates, ice tea and Ritz crackers. Those present were Mmes. J. R. Turner, Ben Quebe, H. F. Quebe, Sam Jones, A. K. Windecker, Wilfred Stoerner and Miss Louise Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stukey and Vieter Lee were guests of Mrs. Stukeys mother, Mrs. Henry Sammann last week. The Stukeys now live in Carthage, Missouri.

Wayland Pioneers Have Experience

For the first time in three years the Wayland Baptist College Pioneers start their season with a majority of seasoned players on the squad. The plucky Pioneers made it to the district semi-finals last year despite lack of height and experience.

Five starters and four valuable reserve squadmen will be back this season, according to Coach Ed Billings. Reinforcement comes from Clarendon Junior College in the form of 6'2" Steve Jarnigan, junior forward from Silverton.

Though average height for the Pioneers still hovers around six feet this year, their superior speed, ball handling and team work make for predictions of a trip to the national NAIA tournament in Kansas City.

Returning starters are: Nelson Moore, 5' 10" senior from Artesia, N. M.; Paul Siebenmann, 6' 2" senior from San Antonio, forward; Boyd White, 6' 2" senior from Lelie Lake, forward; Bollie Rinker, 6' 5" junior from Elmore City, Okla.

Attendance Sunday was 150. The choir, directed by Albert Scheele led the choir in the beautiful special, "Softly and Tenderly." Miss Barbara Ann Sammann sang the solo part. The sermon by Rev. Windecker was themed "The Art of Gaining Inner Peace" based on Phil. 4, 6 and 7.

A swimming party sponsored by the Luther League was held Tuesday night at the American Legion pool at Plainview and was very well attended. A large crowd came to enjoy the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heck of San Antonio were week end guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. K. Windecker. They were members of Rev. Windecker's congregation while he was at San Antonio. Mr. Heck works at Kelly Air Force Base and Mrs. Heck is employed by Grace Lutheran Sanitarium in San Antonio.

Reserve cagers returning are Buddy Poff, Elk City, Okla., Bobby Jack Frye, Plainview, and Wayne Moore, Artesia, N. M.

In addition, six freshmen have agreed to play for Wayland in 1958-59. They are James Rinker, Elmore City, Okla.; Wylie Kay, Brownfield; Glenn Saul and Don Mitchusson, Plainview; Jessie Holland, Gruver; and Kermit Shults, Brownfield.

FAMILIES VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cox and Keith of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carrol, Larry and Linda of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Kelley and Cheryl of Big Springs, visited here Saturday night and Sunday in the homes of relatives and were entertained with a barbeque in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cox. TO THE PEOPLE OF PRECINCT 2, FLOYD COUNTY

I, Ray Canon, take this way to ask for your vote for Commissioner of Precinct 2, Floyd County. I will, if elected, personally see that your tax dollars are not wasted. Most of you know that I have been doing custom hay baling in this area for several years, but if you elect me your Commissioner, my balers will be disposed of so I can give my attention to being a full time Commissioner.

I took three years of governmental vocational training in mechanics, and I have had nine years experience in a mechanic shop. Also I have been connected with mechanic works of all kinds for thirty years, so I feel I have the mechanical knowledge to see that the road machinery is properly maintained.

Each ninety days I plan to have a meeting of all in my precinct who wish to attend and give you a report on what I have done, what can be done and give the people a chance to bring to my attention things I need to look after. My motto will be "Service for all and special favors to no one."

A vote for me will be a vote for good roads and a vote for a Commissioner who will stay on the job and see that the men do a full days work for their pay.

Vote for Ray Canon for your next Commissioner of Precinct 2, Floyd County.

Thank you.

Leroy Saul and the REA!

Some folks have been criticizing Leroy Saul, candidate for State Senator in the 30th District, because they claim that he has sponsored legislation that hurt the REA. In the interest of fair play let's look at the record and see what actually happened.

The Supreme Court, in a case involving the REA, ruled that the REA COULD NOT:

1. Serve the farm of a man who lives in town.
2. Serve an oil well pump in the country for an oil company whose principal office is in the city.
3. Continue to serve a house in an area annexed to a city after the owner sells it to a person who was not previously a co-op member.
4. Continue service to many inhabitants of towns that now exceed 1500 population but have no other source of electricity.

THESE FOUR THINGS WERE CORRECTED BY THE SAUL BILL!

The remainder of the REA law has been unchanged for the past 20 years.

LET'S BE FAIR! Leroy Saul worked to pass the bill that repaired the damage done to REA by crippling Supreme Court decision. Saul upheld the right of cities to control electric companies, including the REA, when the company was operating within the city limits. What's wrong with being fair to cities as well as rural areas? Let's be fair with Saul too.

VOTE FOR

YARBOROUGH FOR U. S. SENATOR

1. Yarbrough has a proved record of working and voting in the Senate, full time, for the welfare of Texas and Texans — for an adequate farm program, for lower interest rates, for income tax relief in the lower brackets, for restriction of foreign oil imports, and for increased old age assistance payments; he has qualified himself for the job by a long and honorable record of public service, including 3½ years in the Army in World War II.

2. On Mr. Blakley's qualifications, we quote H. M. Baggari of the TULIA HERALD: "The fact is, Mr. Blakley, while never challenging Yarbrough's qualifications, challenged his own qualifications before he decided to enter the Senate race when he told news reporters, 'I have no qualifications for the office.' And after he announced for the race, a WFAA-TV reporter asked Mr. Blakley how he, a successful business man, proposed to manage his vast business interests and also serve in the Senate. Mr. Blakley's answer was that he would 'divide my time.' And that is just what he did during his 102 days in the Senate when he was present for only 55 per cent of the roll call votes."

3. With Yarbrough, the Senatorship is his only job and only interest; with his opponent, it will be only one more of the vast Blakley interests—oil, insurance, ranches, banks, airlines and what not, to the staggering total of 200 million. Texas needs deserves and must have a full time Senator, not a multi-millionaire absentee owner.

4. There is just one good and all sufficient reason for voting for Yarbrough — he is the man best qualified for the job.

The only material change in the election law since the 1926 elections is that the alternative box - and - check method of marking your ballot, permitted in the 1922, 1924 and 1926 elections, has been done away with, and that only the old style method of marking your ballot in use for many years, by scratching or marking out all names except the name of the candidate for whom you wish to vote, is now legal.

Spot Treatment Cheapest Control Of Johnson Grass

College Station. — The newest, easiest, cheapest and most effective way to control Johnson grass in row crops is to spot treat with oils or dalapon, according to Fred Elliott, extension cotton work specialist. Many naphtha oils and oil mixtures are satisfactory for the crown treatment of established Johnson grass, while dalapon may be applied to the foliage and terminal swirl, says Elliott. Naphtha may be used for cool weather treatment but a 50-50 mixture of naphtha with kerosene or diesel is recommended in hot weather. Oil-soluble dinitro and other proven fertilizers can be added to diesel fuel oil or kerosene according to the manufacturers' directions to increase the effectiveness of these oils. Diesel fuel oil or kerosene fortified with one percent pentachlorophenol by volume is usually as effective in killing Johnson grass as the naphtha-type oils used alone. Several kinds of sprayers may be used to apply these oils, points out Elliott. The Texas gravity sprayer is best suited for crown-treatment of 6-inch Johnson grass sprouts in rows when a free flowing oil is used. The Texas slidegun is for coarse work such as the non-selective spraying of thick stands of Johnson grass in spots sparse enough for the crop in the spot to be sacrificed. The Texas jetgun permits efficient, economical and selective treatment of sprouts in row crops with either oil or water sprays. It is a squirt gun and works like a water pistol. It can be used to hit a target varying in size from a dime to a dinner plate. County agents have full information on spot oiling Johnson grass, the materials and equipment to use and where they can be obtained.

To The Voters Of Precinct 2:

I, Elmer L. Burluson, am asking for your vote and support for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 2. I do so in the belief that I can serve you well, and with the promise that, if elected, I shall do so to the best of my ability.

I am familiar with every road in the Precinct. If not at the present, I will know something about every piece of property along every road, and try to do those things along each road in the interest of the land, and the property next to it.

I look at the job of County Commissioner as being a member of the Board of Directors of a pretty big business. In other words, a Commissioner is a member of a Board of Directors of a $15 million corporation or business. It is a business which belongs to the people — every one of us. Your County Judge is the Chairman of this Board, and the Commissioners' Court runs this business, which affects every man, woman, and child of the county.

A Commissioner should know how to get the most done for each dollar spent. He should keep in mind at all times that every nickel spent is tax-payer's money.

He should know the values of property, and do everything possible to equalize values to bring about the lowest possible tax rate for state and county levies. In this way, and by watching closely every expenditure made, is the only way your taxes and my taxes can be reduced.

If you see fit to elect me as your Commissioner, I will conduct your affairs, which come under my jurisdiction, as carefully and as conscientiously as if they were my own — and even more so, if that is possible, for the responsibility is greater.

Voters are entitled to know something of the life and background of a candidate who seeks their support for any public office.

I am 62 years of age, in good health and can do any kind of work. I served 4 years in the Army of World War I. I attended grade schools in Jones County, finished high school in Abilene, Texas, and have had two years of business school.

I have ranched and farmed all over the Southwest and have bought and sold property all over the Southwest. I operated three of the big cattle ranches in Texas, such as the T Diamond near Abilene, Texas, the J Bar near San Angelo, Texas, and the SMS Ranch near Stamford, Texas. The last eleven years I farmed 5 miles Northwest of Lockney and I invite you to ask my neighbors out there and my neighbors here in Lockney where I now live, concerning my reputation.

Having lived in the country all my life, I know what it means to have all-weather roads, and REA. If elected your Commissioner, I will work for better roads and cooperate in matters of rights-of-way for REA facilities.

If you feel that I am qualified for the job and worthy of your support, I assure you I will try hard to deserve your trust and confidence, and will be very grateful to you.

Thank you.

OF THE most vital races in Saturday's Democratic that of State Senator. There is much more involved than personality. Since the issues have been clouded by false rumors and even defamation of character, it has a tremendous personal responsibility to sift truth from prejudice from objective appraisal, and fact from fiction.

WE ARE NOT supporting Senator Andy Rogers, the only man in the race, when he was in the Legislature exempting utility companies from the license fee (other appliance dealers) for the privilege of selling electric appliances, parts and repairs in towns of 3,000 or more. He also voted to table Aikin's effort to reduce the tax to one per cent. Then Aikin tried to exempt the bottler's tax and this candidate voted not to ex-

HERE ARE SOME of our reasons for having to support the incumbent, having served only one complete term in the Senate, and it is our belief that an incumbent should not be re-elected unless there is a good reason why he should be. In the case of a Senator, seniority is of utmost importance. It would be extremely unwise for a district to throw its vote to the wind. Senator Rogers already has served in the Senate to a person, even a friend, who covets the office of his neighbor.

Secondly, anyone who studies Rogers' record carefully will find that he thinks like the typical resident of the 30th district. We have not always seen eye to eye with Rogers on many things that have come up, in fact, on occasion we have attacked his decisions editorially — but we have approved of his decisions in a huge majority of cases. In voting, our choice is for the perfect candidate, according to our own specifications — our choice is to vote for the man who most nearly represents the people.

While Senator Rogers' batting average in the Senate is high, in our opinion, the voting records of his opponents are unpalatable in too many instances.

OF ROGERS' opponents has represented big business, including the utilities monopoly, much more effectively than he has represented the farmers and smalltown of the 30th district.

Another man in the race, when he was in the Legislature exempting utility companies from the license fee (other appliance dealers) for the privilege of selling electric appliances, parts and repairs in towns of 3,000 or more. He also voted to table Aikin's effort to reduce the tax to one per cent. Then Aikin tried to exempt the bottler's tax and this candidate voted not to ex-

THIS CANDIDATE introduced a bill to give the state a lien on any property owned by old-age assistance recipients to insure that it be foreclosed on their deaths and the state department would get back all they had been paid. This bill has been pushed by anti-pension folks ever since. He also introduced a bill regulating sale, distribution or possession of opium which hurts every cotton farmer. And most objectionable of all, he supported a two per cent state income tax.

This is to say that Senator Rogers, the incumbent, is better qualified to serve an agricultural district than his opponents. Ask any informed farmer who is familiar with other major farm problems. Ask informed leaders of an organization who have had occasion to make trips to the interest of farm problems.

THE THIRD PLACE, we would have to vote for Andy Rogers because the special interests groups, the gas pipeline and utilities monopoly, the anti-farm group, those who wish to have federal and state control of underground water, those who consistently try to keep the lid on Austin, those who do not want practitioners of the healing profession or licensed by the state, those who have an abhor independent thinking, those who try to tell us to get on our team or else they will have to smear all have combined to try to move heaven and earth to elect Senator Rogers. Rogers has been threatened by these in which warned him not to run. He was told to be a good boy and go back to Childress and settle down, and he wouldn't let the character assassins and gangsters who have a great deal of influence in Austin.

Perhaps Rogers would have retired to go back to Childress and make a living for his family had he not been threatened. But there is something in a red-blooded American who will not yield to gangster tactics. So Rogers defied them.

We need more men like Rogers in Austin, men who will stand up above politics, men who will not sacrifice honor for money. Men like Rogers are and will be in a minority for as long as at least they will speak out against corruption so long as it lasts. To fail to re-elect Rogers would not be a step in the right direction.

AND FINALLY, even if we did not have the reasons mentioned above for supporting Rogers, even if we did not believe him to be the best man intellectually, morally and spiritually, we would have to support him because of the campaign tactics used by his opponents or supporters of his opponents.

This race, from the time it started with the mailing of anonymous smear literature, has been one of the filthiest races in the history of Texas politics.

We have had "Port Arthur" type stories in circulation since early spring. Some of the false stories planned and there have been petty. Others have been outright lies. They include, for example, the testimony of a former doctor who lost his license, who has served numerous terms in penitentiaries in several states including Florida, Texas and Oklahoma, who is at present under indictment for an abortion in a Dallas tourist court, who perjured himself when under oath he voluntarily made statements in direct conflict, who was convicted three times for confidence man.

Let there are those having an interest in getting Rogers elected to the Senate who produce a completely false statement sign-

The notion has been prevalent for many years that if a voter resides at or near the precinct boundary, or if his farm extends into two precincts, he can vote in either precinct. This is not and has never been the law; a voter is required to vote in the precinct where his residence is, that is, the house in which he sleeps and, in this day and time, watches TV.

As probably everyone knows, the four Commissioners' Precincts of Floyd County have a common corner, in the center of the Court House, dividing Floydada territorially into four quarters corresponding to the four Commissioners' Precincts, but the North line of Justice's Precincts 1 and 4 runs some distance North of and includes all of Floydada. The common boundary between Commissioners' Precincts 1 and 4 on the South and Commissioners' Precincts 2 and 3 on the North, follows the same course from the West line of the County to a point about 1 mile West and 2 miles South of Muncy School House but at that point the boundaries of the Justice's Precincts on the one hand, and the boundaries of the Commissioners' Precinct boundaries turn South and East to the center of the Court House, but the boundaries of the Justice's Precincts turn North and East to form a sort of peninsula running 1 mile North of Liberty School House, where they turn South and East to a point about 1 1/2 miles North and 2 miles West of Fairview School House, at which point they intersect the common boundaries of the Commissioners' Precincts and proceed East with such latter boundaries to the East line of the County.

If any voter is in doubt as to his election precinct, Commissioner's Precinct, or Justice's Precinct, County maps showing such information are posted on the bulletin board in the Court House.

ed by this character in trouble up to his neck which they expect people to believe in preference to the word of Senator Rogers, other members of the Legislature, official records in Austin, and even newspapers and public officials who have not been particularly friendly to Senator Rogers. And, strangely enough, one of the men attempting to unseat Senator Rogers served on the House investigating committee and would have had access to the official records which, had they contained information adversely affecting the senator, would have made a perfect rope with which to hang Rogers. Yet, instead of bringing about the prosecution of Senator Rogers, had there been any basis for doing so, he does nothing about it. Either this man is guilty of neglect of duty or the whispered charges against Senator Rogers are complete fabrications.

ALL OF THESE false stories, planted and distributed, appeal only to "the moron vote" because of their utter absurdity.

As a Tulia pastor told us when we showed him some of the smear literature now in circulation against Senator Rogers, "When I see something like that, it spurs me on to vote for the man who has been slandered and wronged."

ARE WE TO assume that Rogers' opposition has so little to offer the voters of this district that they must base their campaigns on such things as the testimony of an ex-con, and a several-times loser, and also other stories of equal veracity?

Andy Rogers' life is an open book. If there exists adverse information concerning his character not available to the public, certainly it has been available to those trying so hard to discredit him. They have proved during this campaign that they have keys to many doors in Austin.

The issue in this race is Andy Rogers and his record. Vs. a cesspool full of slanderous accusations. Let all honest men and women of the district turn a deaf ear to vile gossip brought out during the closing hours of a political campaign.

Don't fall for literature and whispered reports published for morons.

BE CAUTIOUS WITH CHEMICALS

New chemicals that lighten gardening as well as household chores must be used intelligently. Margaret Spader, home service editor of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association advises that parents lock up all chemicals that are poisonous. "Get them out of sight and out of reach of curious little hands of those too young to read and suspect the dangers," Miss Spader says. The greatest number of accidental deaths and illnesses caused by poison are in the under-five age group. Every year many new products are introduced that contribute to this hazard. Use up or lock up these chemicals for family safety.

Sims-Secret Vows Read In Plainview

Miss Anna Catherine Secret of Laredo became the bride of Wendelle Sims of Lockney in a double ring ceremony before family and friends, Friday night at 7:30. Vows were read in the First Baptist Church in Plainview by Rev. Howard Lynn, pastor of the College Heights Baptist Church.

Miss Secret is the daughter of Mrs. A. T. Miller of Oscado, Michigan, and Jack Secret of Laredo. Wendelle Sims is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Sims of Lockney.

Miss Betty Sue Menicke played the traditional marches and accompanied Miss Barbara Sweet who sang "Because", "Always", and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by Carroll Johnston, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and wore a ballerina length dress of blue silk organza and a Juliet cap with shoulder length veil. She carried a white satin covered Bible with white roses.

Mrs. Carroll Johnston, of Plainview, sister of the bridegroom, served as matron of honor. She wore a dress of blue taffeta with black accessories and carried pink sweetheart roses.

Serving as best man was Claude Gene Hammit of Lockney.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parlor of the church. Mrs. Carroll Johnston and Miss Glenda Renfro served punch and the three tiered cake from a table centered with three tall blue tapers surrounded with pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Sims chose for her wedding trip to Red River, N. M., and Colorado, a gold linen weave suit with white accessories. Following the trip the couple will be at home in Plainview.

Mrs. Sims is a graduate of Martin Tarza High School in

Dear Editor: I note that a Latin-American wheel says the people down there are getting pretty sore on account of the U. S. has been treating them like step-children.

Seems that what's bothering them is we have been dishing out the billions to Europeans and Asians and only peanuts to South Americans.

Which my acute neighbor says is just an old law of nature taking effect, which provides that you slop one pig and all the rest of the herd will start squealing for some.

Mattox, college president. R. L. Peters, who holds a degree of B. S. in Agricultural Education from Texas Tech, has been employed to teach vocational agriculture and shopwork. Sophomore courses in agriculture will be added in the fall of 1959.

Peters has taught Vocational Agriculture at Spur and at Antelope Valley Joint Union High School and Junior College, Lancaster, California. Recently he terminated a tour of duty with the United States Department of Agriculture (the Agricultural Research Service). During the Korean war and World War II he served with the U. S. Naval Air Force.

OUTDOOR COOKING REQUIRES SKILL

If the man of the house is mesmerized by outdoor cooking, let him buy the meat; suggests Margaret Spader, home service editor of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association. Once he's familiar with the price, his approach to cooking will take on more serious dimensions. There are some new outdoor cooking gadgets that can be more precisely controlled today. But it takes practice to produce the same superb results you get every time in a broiler. The outdoor cook should practice on less expensive foods such as fish, vegetables and hors d'oeuvres to gain experience. Miss Spader advises.

Why Change?

Floyd County has $294,000 ready to be spent for right-of-way on highways in the county. It should be used justly and wisely.

Why change Commissioners just when experience is needed to spend this money as it should be spent?

I have started this highway program and I would like to finish it.

During the past eight years this Precinct has bought four road maintainers and paid cash for them except for a few short term notes at the local bank.

You are invited to investigate my record as Commissioner of Precinct 2.

I have appreciated your vote in the past and will appreciate it again.
