Get-Acquainted Reception Slated

Athena Junior Study Club is sponsoring a reception Sunday night and urging parents to meet the teachers who are guiding their children's education. The public is invited to the reception at the junior high library at 8 o'clock Sunday night. The reception is an annual project of the Athena club members.

School Registration Schedule

High School	Elementary	Junior High
Registration for Lockney High School will be conducted on August 28 and Wednesday, August 29, according to James Poole.	Parents of all Lockney elementary, kindergarten and early-childhood students are urged to bring their children to the elementary school Friday, Aug. 31, to register.	Sixth, seventh and eighth grade students who were not attending Lockney Junior High at the end of the last school year, need to pre-register any time between Aug. 27 and Aug. 31.
It is important that students arrive on these days, at the assigned times.	Teachers will be in their rooms from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and 1 to 2:30 p.m. Students enrolling for the first time should bring birth certificates and shot records.	Junior High principal Jim Warren says that the office will be open between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. (except for the lunch hour) Aug. 27-31.
Students are to register from 9 to 11 a.m. Wednesday, August 28, and from 1 to 3 p.m. that day, August 29.	Students enrolling for the first time should bring birth certificates and shot records.	He said that homeroom assignments will be made as soon as possible. The completed list will be posted, possibly by Aug. 30, on the front door of the junior high building.
Students should report to Room 102, where they will be given further instructions.	Classroom assignments will be posted on the school window by at least Friday.
Students must contact Mrs. Poole, 652-3684 (or at the school) before coming to register.	Children who normally would be eligible for half-day kindergarten classes will be allowed to sign up for all-day sessions by arrangement with principal R.L. Knox.

NOTICE

Lockney students will be starting their school days 15 minutes earlier this year.

Starting time for the first day, Sept. 4, will be 8:45 a.m., according to Supt. W.H. Hallmark.

Dismissal time will be at 3:45 p.m. except for children in kindergarten through fifth grade who live in town. They will be released at 3:30 p.m.

Rural parents should expect school buses to arrive earlier than was usual last school year.

Judge Smith Proposes Fund-Sharing Allocations

Floyd County Judge Choise Smith Tuesday released his proposals for allocating the county's 1980 revenue sharing funds among county organizations. Smith presented his proposed budget at a special meeting of the county commissioners.

The Floyd County Jail project to remodel the facility to conform to state jail standards took the lion's share of the available funds, $291,000 of what the county anticipates receiving from the Federal government for next year.

The commissioners and the judge also signed the contract with H.R. Bundock, of Lubbock, to handle the remodeling. Bundock said Tuesday that he expected to begin work as soon as he received an official letter of authorization. The contract called for completion within 240 calendar days.

A new heating and cooling system for the courthouse accounted for the next major portion of the proposed revenue sharing budget. The new system was anticipated to cost $60,000.

A further $20,000 was asked to be set aside for the various precincts to use. Approximately $2,000 will be allocated for furniture for Judge Smith's office.

The judge suggested that the Floyd County Museum be given $1,000 and that $500 should go to the Floyd County Day Care Center.

The Central Plains Mental Health Center had $3,200 earmarked and the Floyd County Library Building Fund, under Judge Smith's budget proposal, would receive $5,000. The Senior Citizens' Association would get $1,000.

The balance of $4,572 would go to the county agriculture building, bringing the total expected funds to $388,272.

The commissioners will consider approval of the budget at a budget hearing Monday, Sept. 10 at 3 p.m. in the courthouse.

The commissioners also agreed on awarding a contract for the ag building to Lubbock Development Co.

State negotiators Dave Boerner, of the comptroller's office, and Amal Shatel and Carl Morris, of the Dept. of Human Resources, agreed to fund $68,835 of the cost of the new building and equipment. The county will be responsible for $2,199 for an access ramp for handicapped citizens.

The commissioners and judge Smith were visibly pleased with the outcome of the negotiations. They had been worried about the funding because the contractors' estimates exceeded the state architect's estimate of the cost.

"We won this ball game," commented commissioner Jack Lackey.

The state people noted that the contract was agreed to just before the Aug. 31 funding termination date. Next year, the process would have had to be started from the beginning.

In other business Tuesday, the commissioners agreed to join the cities of Lockney and Floydada, and the Caprock and Lockney General hospitals in purchasing radio equipment for emergency medical service teams in the area. The county would pay $490, a one-fifth share of the $2,450 total cost.

The commissioners also voted to raise the jury fee to $7 a day. The new fee for jurors will affect both the county court and Judge Miller's district court. Jurors were being paid $6 for a day's service.

The court met with county tax assessor-collector Jonelle Fawver to discuss implementing the new property tax code, Senate Bill 621.

Under the bill, the county would have until Jan. 1, 1982 to join the newly created State Property Tax Board, which replaces the School Tax Assessment Practices Board. The new board will assume the duties of supervising the taxing process throughout the state.

Teachers To Report

Lockney's school teachers report Monday, Aug. 27 at 8 a.m. for the annual faculty breakfast at the elementary school cafeteria.

Insurance representatives will be speaking to the teachers that morning.

Besides preparations for the opening of school Sept. 4, the teachers are scheduled to go one day to Plainview to hear a lecture on the use of audio-visual materials in the classroom. The XVII Educational Service Center from Lubbock sponsors the workshop.

Another day Mrs. Dale Tyer of Floydada, a qualified first aid instructor, will come to Lockney to speak to the teachers on first aid and CPR (cardiac pulmonary resuscitation).

The teachers will be in their rooms all five days Aug. 27-31 except for the trip to Plainview.

Longhorns To Test Skills Against Cooper

After eight days of twice-daily football practices and an intra-squad scrimmage, Longhorn head coach Jim Warren's observation on his team is that the boys have plenty of aggressiveness and hustle, but a lot still needs to be done on technique.

"Our offense has been looking good in practice, but we're concerned about the defense. That was to be expected because of the lack of returning starters on the defensive team," Warren comments. And our kicking game is going to be good."

The Longhorns are telling their coaches about the usual bruises, twists, sprains, strained muscles, etc. but Warren feels the team has been fortunate to have had no real injuries.

Warren says a lot of the boys are showing equal ability at this point in the practice schedule. "There's a real battle in the offensive tackle spot where John Fortenberry and Nick Christian, juniors, Randy Welch, senior, and Phillip Kidd, sophomore are all vying for the starting position."

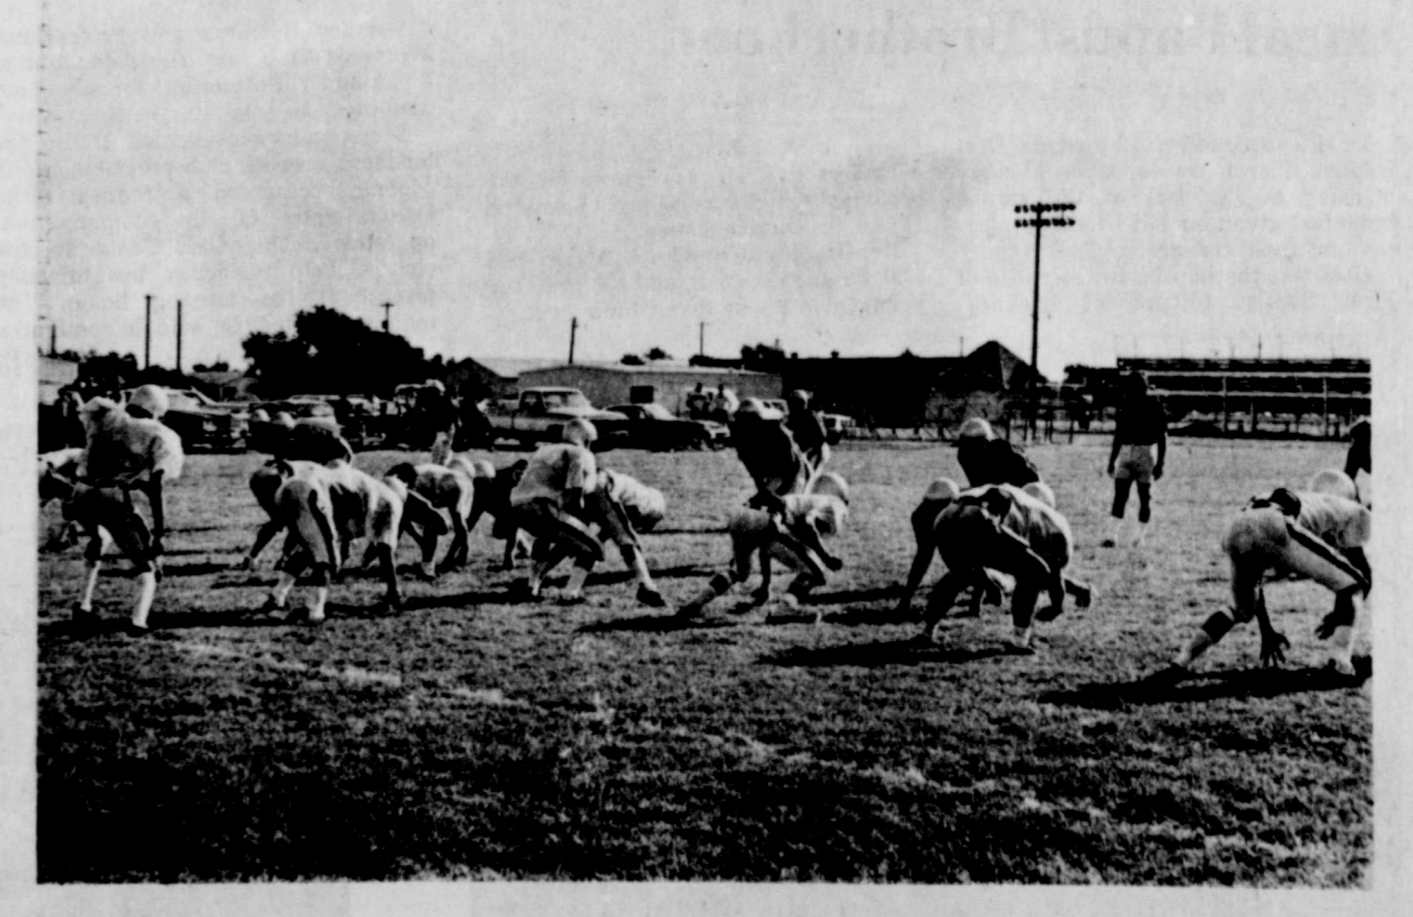

Two-a-days continue through this Friday, ending in two scrimmage games starting at 5 p.m. against Lubbock Cooper High School with Lockney as the host team. A junior-varsity scrimmage will precede the varsity competition.

Football practice next week during teachers' in-service training will be at 4 p.m. Another scrimmage will be Aug. 31.

School starts Sept. 4, with the first football game an out-of-town one against Post on Sept. 7.

Free Ice Cream

The public is invited to an ice cream supper immediately following the scrimmage. Everyone is urged to meet the coaches and the team members during the party at the junior high cafeteria.

AN INTRA-MURAL SCRIMMAGE Saturday morning on the practice field pitted the red and the white teams. Coach Warren says his boys still need to learn technique. [Staff Photo]

Make Senior Picture Appointments Now!

It's time for members of the Lockney High School Class of 1980 to make appointments for their class picture. Wilson Photography will be photographing the seniors now through August 31.

Seniors are urged to call 652-3731 soon to make their senior picture appointments.

Long Ago In Lockney

Aug. 27, 1953

Lester Honea has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of R. C. McGilvary as city councilman. Mr. McGilvary has moved to Hereford. Remodeling of the Grazer Funeral Home is nearly completed.

Board Sets Budget Hearing

Completion of requirements for the plans of the proposed new clinic addition was the major topic Monday night as members of the Lockney General Hospital District board met at the facility.

Architect James Robison of Plainview was present to report on progress in making the plans conform to state laws. Keith Brashears of Hale Center Insurance Agency informed the board of insurance coverage requirements for the sprinkler system in the proposed new building.

Discussion was held on plans to be presented to the Texas Railroad Commission asking for permission to put a stand-by fuel tank for L.P. gas at the hospital. The L.P. gas would be used to power the emergency generator in case of breaks in the natural gas line or low fuel during time of an emergency.

The board set a public hearing on the annual budget for 1979-'80 to be held Sept. 13 at the hospital. Hospital administrator Frank Guerrerro, Ed Oddie Probasco, Gary Lary Bennett, and other board members attended the meeting.

Called Meeting Held By School Board

Trustees of Lockney Independent School District met Monday afternoon and amended the '78-'79 budget to show actual expenditures. The amended figure is $1,484,888.

Lunchroom prices were set at no increase over last year. Those prices are printed elsewhere with school registration information.

School dismissal time of 3:45 p.m. was approved. However, children in kindergarten through fifth grade who live in town will be released at 3:30 p.m. to relieve traffic congestion.

Next board meeting will be Sept. 13.

Attending the afternoon called session were Supt. W.H. Hallmark, tax assessor-collector Jack Samford, and board members Tom Duvall, Kenneth

Cathy Adams Receives Degree

Among those completing requirements for a degree from Texas Tech University this summer is Cathy Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Carthel of Lockney.

Mrs. Adams' bachelor of arts degree is from the college of arts and sciences in advertising with a minor in marketing. The 1976 graduate of Lockney High School finished her work in three years through advanced placement tests and two years of summer school. While at Tech, Mrs. Adams worked part-time at the Health Sciences Center. She is affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha social sorority.

Cathy is married to Ronnie Adams of Lubbock who is associated with his father in the Adams Paint Company. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Carthel of Plainview and Mrs. Sally Miller of Gonzales.

Lions Club Charities Net Over $900

Through the annual broom sale and the dunking board at Old-Fashioned Saturday Night, Lockney Lions raised over $900 Saturday.

Proceeds will be divided between the Lions' Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville, the Lubbock-Lions Eye Bank, and the fund to buy glasses for local children.

Jack Samford, chairman of the broom sale, thanks each Lions Club member who participated and also thanks the public for its generous response to the projects.

Around Town by Gayle Jackson

Watch for the opening soon of Oddie's Cowboy Closet in the old Baker building. Oddie Probasco and daughters Susie, 18, and Cassie, 11, moved here recently to await the store's opening.

Cassie is the daughter of Joe and Vera Rogers and her mobile home has been settled on the lot west of her parents' house on 4th Street.

Since Thursday night, most of this area has received about 1 1/2 inches of rain from four or five showers. The unseasonably-cool nights and the unusually-wet summer have combined to keep cotton several weeks behind the usual stage of development for mid-August.

And some country weather forecasters tell us that the first northern came Aug. 9 or 10. They say that the first frost, hopefully not the first freeze, will be 60 days later--Oct. 9 or 10. Cotton producers know that would be bad news!

Nelle Webb, president of Lockney Firemen's Auxiliary, tells us that the group's second collection of recipes should arrive by Sept. 1. Watch this paper for announcement sales of the new cookbook.

For about the 20th year, John Bickley is giving away Longhorn football schedules. The billfold-sized schedules sure do come in handy, and the community appreciates John's thoughtfulness.

Floyd and Surrounding Counties Fair is Sept. 20-22. You ladies should be sure to save a pretty jar of beans, etc. to enter.

If you have a furnished or unfurnished apartment or house that you would be interested in renting to a teacher, please call the superintendent's office.

Breakfast Given By Local Baptist Brotherhood

Dr. Floyd Bradley of Floydada First Baptist Church was speaker Monday morning at 7 o'clock at the annual breakfast given for LHS football players and their coaches.

Host was the Baptist Brotherhood of First Baptist Church of Lockney.

Pastor is Rev. John Jenkins. Hubert Frizzell was emcee for the breakfast which was cooked by several of the Brotherhood men.

Dr. Bradley donated a Longhorn-red coat for the occasion, and spoke to the young men about doing their best.

Bake Sale Planned

Lockney Business and Professional Women's Club met Tuesday night at Strickland's Restaurant for a dinner meeting.

Secret pals were revealed. During the business session, club president Merie Mooney presented a request from Dennis Jeter of the company that operates Lockney Care Center for the club to help finance a beautification project at the nursing home. The members voted to hold a continuing bake sale to benefit the project. Persons wishing to order a cake, pie or other dessert should call a member of Lockney B&PW.

Members attending Tuesday night's meeting were Louise Weathers, Elizabeth Riley, Gladys Ragle, Estelle Powers, Lozelle Graham, Evelyn Thomason, Dot Thomas, Edith Cooper, Merie Mooney, Viola Rowell, Zora Reecer, May Pearl Burns, Dorothy Shipp and June Bybee.

Muscular Dystrophy Fight Organized For September

Women from the Alpha Mu Delta service organization geared up recently for the fight against muscular dystrophy next month.

Helping the Muscular Dystrophy Association raise funds to aid victims of neuromuscular disease, provide public education and fund research programs, Alpha Mu Delta will be manning telephones in Floydada and Lockney during the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon.

Most of the money raised in the yearly telethon is used for programs and research. In 1977, the latest year for which figures are available, 83 percent of contributor's dollars were expended for program services with 44 percent of that total going for research.

There is no single disease called muscular dystrophy, according to the association. MD is actually a group of muscle-destroying disorders which vary in hereditary pattern, age of onset, initial muscle attacked, and the rate of progression.

One of the major types of muscular dystrophy, the Association said, strikes victims between the ages of two and six, and occasionally soon after birth. It is diagnosed by a complicated series of enzyme tests, biopsy analyses and nerve-impulse readings.

Initially, activities like stair climbing or rising from the floor are difficult. Shoulder muscles become involved in a few years and there is an enlargement of calf muscle caused by increased deposits of fat which take the place of muscle tissue.

Progression of this most common and severe type of dystrophy is rapid, with death often occurring within 10 to 15 years of clinical onset.

Wanda Williams has been an art student of Winnie Carthel for about 18 months. An oil, which she has entitled "Frisky" is on display at Art Southwest this week. Wanda's daughter, Linda had requested she paint the raccoon subject, which is a raccoon atop a tree stump. Wanda and her husband Aldine have two daughters, Mrs. Michael (Linda) Hinsley and Mrs. Kim (Sarah LaNell) Hinsley, both of Floydada, and one son, Dean; and six grandchildren. They are owners of Williams Insurance and Real Estate.

Bullock Says Taxes Texas Cities' Revenue

AUSTIN, Tex.— State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said legislative changes in the collection and allocation of local sales and use taxes will insure continued revenue to Texas cities.

At the same time, he said a major change spelled out in Senate Bill 582 adds tax-collecting responsibilities for some businesses outside local taxing areas.

The bill directs sellers located outside a taxing area to collect use tax for cities in which taxable items will be used and clarifies where a sale takes place for local sales tax purposes.

"We've got a better yardstick to measure where sales occur and to what city or special authority rebates will be allocated," Bullock said.

Local sales and use taxes are basically the same as state sales and use taxes. The same items are covered and the same exemptions apply, only the rates are different. Likewise, the same reporting and paying rules are in effect.

Local taxes include the optional one percent city sales tax and taxes collected for the state's two Metropolitan Transit Authorities. There is a one percent MTA tax in the Houston area and a one-half percent MTA tax in the San Antonio area.

These taxes are collected along with the four percent state sales tax by merchants and other sales tax permit holders and are rebated by the Comptroller's office to the city where the transaction took place.

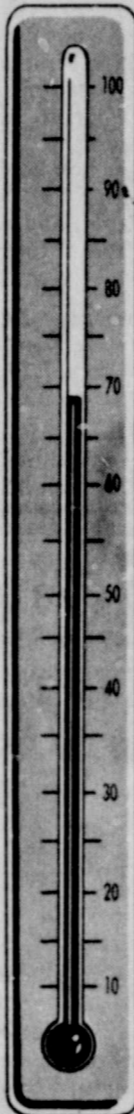

Last year, some 900 Texas cities shared more than $425 million in city sales tax rebates. Sellers making all sales at outlets in taxing cities can report all local tax on regular sales and use tax returns next to the appropriate outlet.

SOFT IS BAD

Buy cucumbers that are firm, fresh and a deep-green color.

Avoid buying those with dull-green or yellow color, and don't buy those that "give" under slight pressure, says Frances Reasonover, a foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

12° = 37%

For every dollar it costs you to heat your home to 68° in the winter, it takes 37 cents more to raise the temperature to 80°. Thus, a 17 per cent increase in temperature (from 68° to 80°) requires 37 per cent more money. The price of electric power is not likely to go down, but you can make a substantial difference in your electric bills if you insulate your home properly, humidify, and set your thermostat at 68° in the winter. ## Funeral Service Today For M. Thomas

Miss Mildred Katherine Thomas, 71, of Lockney died unexpectedly Tuesday at Lockney General Hospital at 11:40 a.m. after a sudden illness.

The funeral service will be held Thursday (today) at 1 p.m. in First United Methodist Church of Lockney with Rev. Dewitt Seago officiating. Burial, under direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home, will be in Lockney Cemetery.

Miss Thomas was born Nov. 5, 1907, in West Texas. She moved from West to Floyd County in 1927. She was a member of First United Methodist Church of Lockney.

Survivors include two brothers, Frank Thomas and Robert Thomas, both of Lockney; a sister, Mrs. Mary Blanchard of Lubbock; a niece, Adrienne Blanchard of Lubbock, and four nephews, Jeffrey Paul Blanchard of Dallas, John Ben Blanchard, Robert Henry Blanchard and Cliff Blanchard, all of Lubbock. Pallbearers for the services are to be W.L. Thomas, Donnie Bybee, Art Barker, Barry Barker, Joe Taylor and Eddie Fortenberry.

J. B. Massingill Dies Recently

Services for J.B. Massingill, 72, were held Friday, July 27 at First Baptist church, Borger.

Mr. Massingill, born in Hamilton, lived in the area since 1926. He retired from Phillips Petroleum Co.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Jerry of Corpus Christi and Jim of San Antonio; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Coss of Phillips and Mrs. Annette McDaniel of Amarillo; a brother, Garth of Pittsburgh, Penn.; two sisters, Mrs. Zena Griffith of Edinburg and Mrs. Faye King of La Mesa, California; and 10 grandchildren.

Floyd County Pioneer Dies

Buelah Allen Roberson, 300 Boice Street, Lockney, died Monday at 7:15 a.m. in Heritage Home in Plainview. She was 89 years old.

Services were held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in West College and Third Street Church of Christ. Minister Earl Cantwell of Rock Creek officiated. Burial was in Lockney Cemetery with Moore-Rose directing arrangements.

Pallbearers were Boyce Mosley, Durward Jack, Chester Carthel, Roger Stapp, Joe Cunyus and Oscar Golden.

Mrs. Roberson was born March 17, 1890, in Hill County and moved to Floyd County in 1901. She was married to Frank Roberson Dec. 11, 1910. Mr. Roberson died Jan. 25, 1957. Mrs. Roberson was a member of West College and Third Street Church of Christ.

Survivors include four sons, Frank Allen, Henry Lem, T.J. and Gilbert Roberson, all of Olton; a brother, Buster Whitlock of Memphis; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Alfred Carmack

Services for Alfred Milton "Pete" Carmack, 66, of Amarillo and formerly of Floydada were at 2 p.m. Sunday in First United Methodist Church of Floydada, with the Rev. John Mourer, retired Amarillo Methodist minister, officiating.

Burial was in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Carmack died about 10:30 a.m. Friday at his home after a lengthy illness. He was under a doctor's care.

The Eldorado, Okla., native moved to Floyd County in 1921. He married Ruby Owens Dec. 29, 1934, in Floydada. He was a retired machanic.

Survivors include his wife of the home; two daughters, Millie Burgett and Norma Jefcoat, both of Amarillo; his mother, Eula of Fresno, Calif.; two sisters, Geneva Cook of Fresno, Calif., and Mae Phifer of McAdoo; a brother, Glen of Los Angeles, Calif.; seven grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Book Report

One, two, three...The Feral Child, by social worker Craig, is a fascinating work with six-year-old as "a feral child, as wild as raised by animals." In an attempt to save the boy and his mother, he is relegated to a mental hospital. It is an incredible, unbelieveable story of survival and behavior.

The book is available at the County Library.

Tye Company Picnic

The annual Tye Company picnic will be held Saturday at the Hall in Lockney.

Tye Company employees, families and guests were invited to the picnic. There were burgers and hot dogs, trimmings, followed by an intramural volleyball tournament. First place was won by the Tye Company. Youngsters attending enjoyed swimming as well as games of their own.

MEMBER your loved ones with a memorial to Lockney Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Ben Whit. Treasurer. T-tfc

THELMA THWARTUM -- By Alex

A Public Service of NRTA-AARP Crime Prevention

LITTLE THINGS COUNT

When changing to a different life-style, little things do add up, points out Dorothy Taylor, a family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Families moving to the country from the city and vice versa need to spend more time considering all aspects of the new life, Miss Taylor says.
