Speaking of foul ups, the photos of Friday nights game were not too great. I chose to take them from the press box and consequently, the results were poor. I just didn't have the heart to get down on the field in the rain. Hopefully, we won't have to play another game like that one again this year, both in weather and outcome.

The winners of the football contest are: Homer Ragland, 1st place; Irene Lee, 2nd place; and Boyd Lee, 3rd place.

Statewide Club Steer Evaluation Clinic

The Statewide Club Steer Evaluation Clinic will be held November 5 and 6, at the San Angelo Fairgrounds. The event is hosted by the West Central District of Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and is open to anyone in the United States.

On November 5th the clinic will begin with a fitting and dress demonstration by county agents and adult leaders from over Texas on how to fit and dress steers for show. Following this a showing of these steers in three separate classes will be held. Steers will be purchased from the New Mexico State Fair.

The audience and participants will have a chance to place the steers along with the steer judges for Fort Worth, San Antonio and Houston, Texas. Following the placing and showing, Dr. Frank Orts, Extension Meat Specialist at Texas A&M University, will operate a scan-a-gram to determine ribeye area and fat thickness on the live steers. Then the steers will be taken to a packing house to be slaughtered. The following morning the steers will be viewed by participants and judges of the clinic to determine carcass evaluation versus live placing.

Educational meetings will be held during the afternoon with discussion topics such as "Selection of Show Steers" or "Who can find the sleepers in buying young show steers." County extension agents and leaders will present a showmanship clinic. Dr. John McNeill, Beef Cattle Specialist from Amarillo, will present a program on what to feed show steers.

Following the educational events a panel discussion will be held of the classes by the steer judges who will be judging the Fort Worth, San Angelo, and Houston Stock Show. An open discussion by agents, leaders, and club steer enthusiasts will conclude the opening day program.

The morning of November 6, a video tape of the carcass information will be shown to all of the participants as well as live evaluation information from the previous day. The morning will conclude with an open discussion by stock show officials.

In addition, approximately 20 bull consignors from all across the United States will be in attendance. These consignors will have their bulls on exhibit during the two day event for everyone to view and visit with the breeders. In addition, the consignors will have a part on the program during the clinic to tell about their breeding practice.

Those interested in attending the clinic should contact Jett Major at the County Extension Office (983-2806) before the registration deadline of Friday, October 10, 1980.

Far East Textile Leaders To Study Cotton Production

Twenty-one textile leaders representing 10 Far Eastern countries which in 1978-79 bought over four million bales of U.S. cotton will be in Lubbock October 17 and 18 to study High Plains cotton production, processing, merchandising and research facilities.

Officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock based cotton producer organization, point out that the 10 countries accounted for almost 70 percent of all U.S. cotton exports in 1978-79, and estimates that well over two million bales of their purchases were of cotton stapling one inch or below, largely from the High and Rolling Plains of Texas and Oklahoma.

PCG is coordinating the foreigners' activities for the two-day Lubbock visit, which is a part of the annual U.S. Cotton Orientation Tour sponsored by Cotton Council International, National Cotton Council, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Foreign Agricultural Service and local hosts. Joining PCG as hosts in Lubbock will be the Lubbock Cotton Exchange and Plains Cotton Cooperative Association.

Bangladesh, Korea, Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, Philippines, Thailand, Indonesia, Taiwan and Japan will be represented by from one to six officials each. The largest delegation of six people will be from Japan which in 1978-79 bought about 700,000 bales of short staple cotton.

"There is no doubt that these are our best customers," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, "and our purpose is to impress upon them our capacity to continue producing their fiber needs in the quantities and qualities desired and our ability to prove the spinning value of our product."

While in the U.S., the group will also visit the cotton producing areas of California, Arizona, and the mid-South.

In Lubbock the foreign delegation will tour the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech University, the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center, USDA's Ginning Laboratory, the instrument classing line and merchandising facilities of Plains Cotton Cooperative Association, and the American Cotton Growers denim plant at Littlefield.

A Farmer-Rancher Prayer

As farmers and ranchers, Dear God, give us the wisdom and patience to understand why a pound of T-bone steak at $1.80 is high, but a three-ounce cocktail at $2.20 is not.

And a 50-cent Coke at the gas station is cheap, but the 20-cent glass of milk for breakfast is extortionary.

And, Lord, help me to understand why $6 for a ticket to the state show is a bargain, but $4 for a bushel of wheat is unthinkable.

Cotton is too high at 65 cents a pound, but a $20 shirt is on sale for $18.95.

And corn is too steep at 35 cents worth in a box of flakes, but the flakes are just right at 50 cents a serving.

And also, Lord, help me to understand why I have to give an easement to the gas company so they can cross my property with their gas lines, and then double my price of gas.

And also, Dear God, help me to understand the consumer who drives by my field and scoffs at me for driving a $30,000 tractor that he built, so he can make money and drive down that right-of-way they took from me to build a road and skiing.

Thank you, God, for your peace and guidance and help. And please help me to make sense of it all.

ASC To Hold Election

Community Committee Election: The ASC Election of Community Committee will be held on December 8, 1980. Ballots will be mailed to eligible voters about November 20 and the ballots must be returned to the ASCS Office by December 1. Any person who is of legal voting age and has an interest in a farm as owner, tenant, or shareholder, or is not of legal voting age but supervises and conducts the farming operations on an entire farm is eligible to vote in the election. Both husband and wife are eligible to vote.

Failed Acreage: If you have cotton, corn or grain sorghum which will not be harvested because of drought, contact this office and file a low yield application before any use is made of the crop. Corn and grain sorghum must be appraised before grazing, baling or cut for silage.

If your crop is carried through harvest and the yield is low, you have only 15 days from the date of harvest on that farm to file your application for disaster. Additional time will be allowed to bring in production records after filing your application.

1981 Wheat Program: Cross Compliance and Off-Setting Compliance are back with you for 1981. The cross and off-setting rules are about the same as they were in 1979. That is as follows: Cross Compliance means that producers with a farm that has wheat planted on it must make sure that the total planting of NCA crops on that farm does not exceed the NCA for the farm.

Off-Setting Compliance: means that in addition to planting within the NCA on a participating wheat farm, an owner or operator must make certain that the NCA is not exceeded on any other farm with wheat planted which they own or operate.

More about 1981 Wheat Program:

a. No set-aside required.
b. Participating farm must have plantings within the farm's NCA.

c. There is possibility of having a haying and grazing program. It will be considered later.

d. Loan rate will not be less than $3.00 per bushel and target at least $3.81 per bushel.

e. The secretary (based on supply situation) will consider a paid diversion later in the crop season.

f. Disaster Program - none on books for 1981 at this time. Legislation is now pending that would make ASCS Disaster Program an option for 1981.

g. Payment Limitation - $50,000.00 limit for the total deficiency and voluntary diversion payments to any one producer in the wheat, feed grains, upland cotton, and rice programs.

Holiday: This office will be closed Monday October 13 in observance of Columbus Day.

A Farmer-Rancher Prayer

As farmers and ranchers, Dear God, give us the wisdom and patience to understand why a pound of T-bone steak at $1.80 is high, but a three-ounce cocktail at $2.20 is no.

And a 50-cent Coke at the ball game is cheap, but the 20-cent glass of milk for breakfast is inflationary.

And, Lord, help me to understand why $6 for a ticket to the picture show is a bargain, but $3 for a bushel of wheat is unthinkable.

Cotton is too high at 65 cents a pound, but a $20 shirt is on sale for $18.95.

And corn is too steep at 3 cents worth in a box of flakes, but the flakes are just right at 50 cents a serving.

And also, Lord, help me to understand why I have to give an easement to the gas company so they can cross my property with their gas lines, and then double my price of gas.

And also, Dear God, help me to understand the consumer who drives by my field and scoffs at me for driving a $30,000 tractor that he built, so he can make money and drive down that right-of-way they took from me to build a road on, so he could go hunting and skiing.

Thank you, God, for your past guidance and help. And please help me to make sense of it all.

Weddings and Engagements

Double Ring Ceremony Vows Unite Irwin-Vogel In Marriage

Kimberley Dawn Irwin became the bride of Donald George Vogel in a double ring ceremony read at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. W.J. Farley performed the ceremony and the Rev. Curtis Halfman gave the blessing and led the congregation in saying the Lord's prayer. The bride and groom read their own wedding vows as they knelt before the unity candle. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Irwin of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. George Vogel of Stonewall.

The wedding scene was formed with candles and floral arrangements in fall colors of rust and apricot. These colors were carried out in the bouquets of daisies and carnations entwined with white tapers which flanked a kneeling bench holding the unity candle.

Mrs. Weldon Davis presented piano and organ selections, and accompanied her son, Leslie Davis, at the piano, as he sang, "God, A Woman and A Man." Bill Boone accompanied himself on the guitar as he sang "There Is Love."

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal length wedding gown of white organza fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline and full length Bishop sleeves. The empire bodice of organza was overlaid with Chantilly lace which also accented the sleeves. The bouffant skirt, encircled with three tiers of matching lace, descended to a full chapel length train. Her mantilla of French illusion was edged in lace and fell to fingertip length. She carried a cascade of white carnations, apricot roses, baby's breath and miniature rust colored star flowers, with white streamers. The arrangement was placed atop a white pearl bible brought back from a visit to the Holy Land by the bride's maternal grandfather, Mrs. Valree Turner. Inside the Bible was a folded handkerchief which belonged to the bride's late great grandmother, Mrs. R.F. Medley. The bride also carried out the tradition of something new and blue.

As the bride approached the altar, she paused to present her mother a rose and as she and the groom were leaving the altar she presented a rose to the groom's mother.

Shelli Irwin of Lubbock was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Val Turner, Carol Irwin, Annette Blackmon and Mandy Wimberly all of Lubbock. They wore floor length gowns in alternating colors of apricot and rust with chiffon floral shoulder caplets tied at the neckline. They had sprigs of baby's breath in their hair and carried nosegays of roses, daisy mums and carnations in colors of apricot and rust with white streamers.

Little Miss Mandy Davis, cousin of the bride of Hart, was flower girl. She wore a floor length rust colored dress with spaghetti straps and sprigs of baby's breath in her hair, and carried a basket of white daisy mums. The groom's two sons, Colby Vogel and Justin Vogel of Andrews were ring bearer and train bearer respectively. They wore brown tuxes with white shirts and white carnation boutonniere.

Barry Klein of Fredericksburg was best man. Groomsmen were Mac Foreman of Arizona, Doug Hupper of Everglades, Florida and Pat and Mike Irwin of Lubbock, both brothers of the bride. All were attired as the groom, in formal brown tuxedos and white shirts. Ushers, also in brown tuxes, were Kenny Scheffer of Goliad, the groom's brother-in-law and James Vogel of Stonewall, his brother.

Wedding guests were registered by Frances Davis of Hart, cousin of the bride.

RECEPTION
Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlor. The three sisters of the groom Denise Vogel of Kerrville, Jacque Vogel of Lubbock and Carolyn Scheffer of Goliad, and also Carla Mansell of Lubbock presided at the serving tables. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth and held a three tier elevated cake iced in white with roses and carnations in colors of rust and apricot. Apricot colored punch, along with the cake and green Shamrock mints were served. The candles and floral arrangements used in the wedding graced the bridal table as well as the groom's table where coffee and chocolate decorated in an outdoor camping scene were served. Crystal appointments complimented both serving tables as well as did apricot color napkins with the names "Kim and Don" and the couples wedding date printed in gold.

Members of the house party were Dolores Hoseny, Juanita Keller, Sheryle Burns and Brenda Kinast. Later a champagne reception and dance were held at South Park Inn on the patio. Dance music was provided by the "Country Syndrome."

The newlyweds are on a wedding trip to scenic points in New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and Colorado. Upon their return they will reside in Carlsbad, New Mexico where both are park rangers.

The bride was graduated from Monterey High School and Texas Tech University in Lubbock. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Irwin, who were pioneer residents of the Fairview Community in Floyd County and Mrs. Valree Turner and the late V.D. Turner of Floydada.

The groom is a graduate of Fredericksburg High School and Texas State Technical Institute.

Salvation Army Service Unit To Meet

The kick-off meeting for the Floydada Salvation Army Service Unit fund drive will be held at Lighthouse Electric on Tuesday, October 7 at 9:00 a.m. Dennis Swearingin, Campaign Chairman and local pastor noted that the goal for this campaign is $2500. The fund drive beginning October 7 will run through October 28.

The local Salvation Army Service Unit Committee, composed of business and civic leaders, carries out a year round program of aid to people with emergency needs. Acting on behalf of The Salvation Army, the committee arranges for food, lodging, and other basic needs daily or on an individual basis. rain, cold, fumbled Friday night's game. The fourth ranked Longhorns won 49-0. The soaked field forced the Horns to give up 17 times, 15 interceptions. Littlefield recovered the 30 yard line on turnovers. Lockney had good field position.

Lockney recovered a fumble and scored with 10:24 left in the first quarter. The PAT was good and the score was 7-0.

Lockney returned the kick-off to the 38 yard line and a penalty moved the ball to the Littlefield 48. Lockney fumbled the ball again and Littlefield scored again. The score was 28-0.

The Wildcats fifth score came on a pass with 7:14 left in the half. Score 35-0.

The first half scoring ended with 6:41 left when Littlefield made another TD and PAT. First half score was 42-0.

The second half started the same as the first. Lockney fumbled and Littlefield recovered and scored with 7:55 left in the third quarter. The remainder of the game was a mud bath and the final score was 49-0.

WHAT'S HAPPENING? A scene from Friday night's 49-0 loss to Littlefield.

Coach's Comments

"We thought we could play Littlefield a better game than we did and I think we could have on a dry field. Our offense is an option type and it suffered because of the weather," said Dewayne Sexton after the Longhorns were soundly defeated at the hands of the Littlefield Wildcats.

"We had 17 turnovers, 15 fumbles and 2 pass interceptions. Our players couldn't hold on to the ball. One difference is that our quarterbacks are also defensive players and they didn't have the opportunity to keep their hands warm. Littlefield's quarterback didn't play on defense and I could. I think that made a difference."

"We have an open date this week and we will go over some things we are not doing well."

Other Lockney Football Scores

Thursday night was definitely not a good one for Lockney's football teams. The JV and freshmen traveled to Littlefield for their games. The JV returned with a 34-0 loss and the freshmen brought home a 20-0 defeat.

The junior high teams had the same kind of night as they hosted Littlefield. The seventh grade team was beaten by a score of 18-0 and the eighth graders were defeated 14-0.

Next week the junior high teams have open date and the JV and freshmen travel to Muleshoe. The Freshmen game begins at 5 p.m. and the JV game will follow.

Alcohol Is The Only Answer

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm turns slightly serious this week.

Dear editor: I heard a man say the other day he didn't mind paying taxes. What he objected to was what happens to the money after the government gets hold of it.

This led me to think up a vote-getting plank for a Presidential candidate, if it's not too late and any of the three has room for it. States to depend on foreign oil. Those sheiks could slowly strangle us and get rich doing it.

The road to escape from this intolerable situation in the long run is not through conservation, not through finding more oil over here, not through turning coal into gas. Coal is going to play out eventually the same as oil. In the short run these are important and necessary, but only stop-gaps. After all our great grandchildren will want to drive cars and have wrecks the same as we and they can't when all the oil and coal are used up.

Unless... unless we switch to alcohol, which burns like gasoline and can be produced endlessly if all the farmers don't go broke before high-priced oil plays out. It's no trouble to build a car or tractor that runs on alcohol and it's no trouble to make alcohol, if we had the capital to build the plants.

Here's my idea for some candidate's platform plank. He could squeeze it in there somewhere between a forthright stand for honesty and the need to whip inflation and balance on unbalanceable budget and make the U.S. great once again in the eyes of Chad and Outer Mongolia.

The plank should propose a 10-cent a gallon tax on gasoline. Don't shudder. Hear me out. The money should go into a fund absolutely untouchable for any purpose other than building alcohol manufacturing plants. It couldn't be used to pay on the national debt, or build a new office building for Congress, or reduce the price of fuel instead of a bunch of sheiks over in the Mid-East?

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Thurman Davis

Each day adapted to meet size needs, kitchen storage is as close at hand as the upper space below the upper kitchen cabinets and as accessible as pulling on the swing-down doors. Cut 1/2 plywood for the top, back and bottom to the full length of the upper cabinets less 3". Using but joints, fasten the top, back and bottom together. Cut two pieces to fit over each end to give you a three-sided, close ended rectangular box. Cut section storage areas, cut inside dividers 3/4" less than the depth of the cabinets, leaving room for doors and trim. Cut facing strips out of the bottom. Cut 4 chains for retainers to allow the doors to open horizontally to the unit.

ARE YOU ALIVE?

There is an "oughtness" about life that troubles the honest man. He senses he ought to be happier than he is, better than he is, wiser, more alive. He ought to be thinner, nicer, more peaceful, more controlled. And he even has occasional, late-at-night presentiments that he ought to consider his definable limits. It has been said that death stalks everything living and catches it, eventually.

Last week we cut a branch off a dogwood tree. It was a beautiful sight, seeing the carpet of freshly exploded blossoms lying on the grass. But when I walked by the branch two days later, the blossoms were ugly and brown-edged. They were dead—a vivid reminder why so many people today are the walking dead.

How can a man, created in the image of God, be truly alive when he is cut off from his Creator? Attend the church of your choice, and learn about God, who will not only put life into today and tomorrow, but forever.

Flag Raising Ceremony Held At Andrews Ward

The students at Andrews Ward Elementary School participated in a flag raising ceremony at 8:45 a.m. on Friday, September 19. They gave the pledge of allegiance and sang two songs. Their voices echoing in the clear morning air. The student body is made up of fourth, fifth, and sixth graders. "We get a little lax sometimes and forget the many things we have to be thankful for," Preston Watson, principal, said. So the staff at the school decided to stage the ceremony for the youngsters. "Many children would know little of the flag if we didn't teach it here," Watson said. "Some young people haven't been taught the significance of the flag and what it stands for." The teachers were very receptive to the idea and several mothers and fathers attended the ceremony.

Longhorns And Cowboys In Texas For Filming

By Shelly Harris
Part of the 25 hour mini-series "Centennial" was filmed in Bracketville, Texas. Cast and crews began work on location at the Hadley Wardlow ranch in Gray County. The series is being produced by the National Geographic Society. A monthly tourist-oriented newspaper in Bracketville arca at the time and interviewed Weaver. "Cowboy" segment involved a cattle drive from Texas and follows the lives of the wranglers. Reason for the filming in the Bracketville area was the availability of Longhorn cattle supplied by members of the Longhorn Breeders Association of America. Of 500 was the largest ever put together for a TV production. Longhorns were trucked to location and were worth a half-million-dollars. Each one being insured for $250,000. A 24-hour guard was assigned to the herd. "Dennis Weaver was sitting on the divan playing a guitar. He put it aside and stood to greet us and shake hands. He looked just like he always did. Bit of grey at the temples, a few smile wrinkles around the eyes, face brown with make-up and the same steady McCloud gaze."

But I'm getting ahead of myself. In the first place it was hot out there. 102 degrees in the shade and there was no shade. Filming that day was the cattle drive. The 500 Longhorns being driven back and forth in front of the camera for retakes kept the dust stirred up. Behind the scenes crew members were in shorts and many of them shirtless. The spectators were dressed suitably. The actors and wranglers, however, dressed in denim pants, long sleeve shirts, chaps, vests, handkerchiefs covering the lower half of their faces, and Dennis Weaver was wearing a full length trail coat. Believe me, when they look trail weary in the movie...it's not acting. If you've ever watched a filming you know it's like the races, a lot of waiting and getting set up, and then the big stuff is over in just a few minutes. I had a chance to talk to Greg Mulavey and get a picture. He's a very nice fellow too, went out of his way to tell Bill Catching I was there and the interview was set up. After the supper break, Billy and I were taken to the motor home and ushered inside. There was a large bowl of fresh fruit, covered in saran wrap, on the table. The interior was well used, not luxurious, but most comfortable and best of all AIR CONDITIONED. Dennis Weaver was sitting on the divan playing a guitar. He put it aside and stood to greet us and shake hands. He looked just like he always did. Bit of grey at the temples, a few smile wrinkles around the eyes, face brown with make-up and the same steady McCloud gaze. First we talked about Texas, yes, he's been in the state many times, four times on location, but this is his first time

Del Rio. Yes, he likes Del Rio especially the fact that there is a tremendous health food store right across the street from the motel. My line of ready questions centered around vacations and travel and he blew the whole thing by saying that he doesn't take vacations since he does so much traveling on location. "I'm really a home body," he said. I'm now staring at him blankly, trying to think of a question. "We did take a trip to Hawaii this year," he comments helpfully, "and we have a place at Lak Arrowhead where we swim and do some fishing." I asked about his guitar playing. He really warms up to this subject. "My hobby, the one I enjoy most, is writing songs." "What kind of songs?" "About things that mean a lot to me." "Like what?" "I write songs for my wife, for anniversaries, birthdays." He also writes songs about ecology. One is called "Where have the Wild Blueberries Gone." He has made three albums, "but they haven't been distributed very well in the United States. I have about 30 albums at home if anyone wants to..." I'm having a great time at this point, he is so easy to talk to, but I have to think up another question. I share the amateur interviewers feeling of not really wanting to pry. "Is this unusually hot weather affecting the filming?" I ask. "Yes, it is," he replies, "those large metal reflectors you saw in a line by the camera bounce the heat off and it can get as high as 130 degrees out there. It's hard to remember lines under those conditions."

Now, I look hopefully at Billy, does he have a question? "When the McCloud series was dropped, what difference did it make in your life?" he asks. Dennis Weaver laughs, "very good question," he says and then turning to me, "you better give him the pencil and paper." I smile proudly. Dennis tells us that it did make a difference, but that he had been very fortunate to have film offers right away. "Have you ever done plays?" I ask. "Not since 1966," he answers. "I'd much rather do movies, it's closer, more intimate, the camera comes right up to your face, you can't get that same feeling from the stage." The interview was at an end. I asked if we could have our picture taken together for my office and he graciously assented. We went outside, one of the cast members took my camera and directed us to stand over in the shade. Dennis is as tall as he looks in films, over 6 feet. We stood together and he put his arm around me. That's Hollywood style folks, they shake hands with the men and put their arms around the ladies. There we stood waiting while the other man adjusted the camera. Ever stood like that before? Waiting for the picture to be taken? With Dennis Weaver's arm around you, Ladies? This was the time for a clever remark, and what did I do? Right, I giggled. "Hope I'm not getting you dusty," he said gallantly. "Oh, no," I thrilled, giggling again. Now, the picture was taken, good-bys were said and we were on the way home. "Oh my gosh," I said to Billy, "I didn't thank him." "Yes, you did, Mother," Billy said with a sigh, "at least eight times."

Got Heating Or Plumbing Problems? Call HOLMES PLUMBING Austin or Steve 983-2251 6:30 - 9:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Until?

My company has a group hospitalization plan for its 26 employees which includes $2,000 life insurance on each employee. The plan is outdated and needs to be increased but I am concerned about cost. Can you help? Yes. A Comprehensive Major Medical health policy would appear to answer both requirements of increased medical coverage and additional life insurance. Medical and hospitalization coverage can be written to better keep up with inflation. Life insurance purchased through group policies is one of the best bargains around and is written to be easily understood. Your employees will understand the policy and appreciate it more. Life insurance coverage can be written for three levels of coverage: owner and officers being insured for a larger amount; supervisors, insured for a smaller amount; and, other employees insured for a moderate amount.

It's True.

"We put the heat pump in our home based on the recommendation from a builder. He said, 'by having a heat pump, you will save money over a long period of time on heating and cooling costs.' And, he was right! We are saving money with a heat pump. The heat pump really does do an efficient job of heating and cooling the home. If we were doing it all over, we would put a heat pump in again based on the results we've seen with lower electric bills. We are extremely pleased with the way the heat pump has performed."

The things said about the heat pump are true. Find out more about the heat pump. It can save for you.

The Bagwell's had a nice long phone visit Sunday evening from their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. P.L. Joiner of Creswell, Oregon, they were surprised to hear of Floyd County having this much rain that all fell so nice.
