Council endorses Mackenzie

Lockney City Council this week record endorsing the passage of Mackenzie Municipal Water Authority election which is set for August 22.

The purpose of the election is to raise $2,150,000 in general obligations to be issued to fund the Mackenzie Reservoir. The City of Lockney has a critical need to secure an alternative water supply due to the depletion of the Ogallala formation.

The future of Lockney depends on securing an alternative water supply. The City Council fervently urge the citizens of Lockney to vote "YES" for the passage of the bond issue.

The Lockney Chamber of Commerce has also gone on record in support of the passage of the Mackenzie bond election. The Rotary Club had as its guest speakers, Neil Taylor, manager of the Mackenzie Authority, and Jerry Patton, city manager of Silverton.

It was agreed at that meeting that a town meeting be held to inform the voters of Lockney of the seriousness of the issue and to answer any questions people might have.

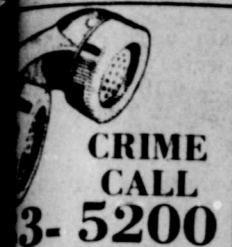

That meeting is scheduled for tonight, Thursday, at 7 p.m. at the Rebekah Lodge. Everyone in the community is urged to attend. Pamphlets are being distributed to the citizens of Lockney. The theme is "Now or Never" because if the bond election fails, the people of Silverton will go into a big underground water project that will cost thousands of dollars. Silverton needs the water "yesterday."

If they spend this money seeking underground water, they will not have enough money left to go into the Mackenzie Water Authority project for building of a treatment plant and piping the lake water to Tulia, Floydada, Lockney and Silverton.

Another reason is that it's now or never is the Farmers Home Administration commitment for a million dollar grant and the $14 million dollar low interest rate revenue bond that must be acted upon. Congressman Jack Hightower has said, "If Farmer Home Administration sees that the people in the Mackenzie Water Authority want the project completed, it will influence them in their decision."

Property ownership has no bearing on who shall vote in the bond election. Only requirements are that the voter must be a qualified voter and live in the city limits. Absentee voting at City Hall will continue until 5 p.m. November 18.

Mark Martin devoted his life to helping others

Mark Martin, Floyd County civic leader and implement dealer for 60 years, died at 9 p.m. Thursday in Caprock Hospital after a sudden illness.

He entered the hospital Tuesday with arm and back pains. In last weeks edition of the Hesperian, in a side bar to the Hospital Auxiliary Heart Mentor Fund Drive story, a friend had donated to the fund in his name in lieu of flowers. He then made a donation to the heart mentor fund from the hospital. That act typified a life long career of community support and involvement.

Martin also aided individuals with financial as well as moral support. He helped young people with funds for college.

In July of 1921 Martin married Mattie B. Sinker. Both were residents of Cooke County, Texas. "I was only four years old when I met my future and only wife, who was six months old. Our farm was across the road from their place, so as the years went by we began to grow up, and both of us received all of the school knowledge we could at the little two-story school at Valley View," he had said.

Martin came to Floydada in 1919 to work on a farm about 20 miles out of town. The work he did was "plowing for Frank Dougherty, working from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. driving a 10-20 Titan tractor, using a lantern for lights. The top wages for 12 hours was $2.00 a night and board."

Martin was a farm tractor mechanic. He founded Martin and Company and was International Harvester Dealer in Floydada for 60 years and in Lockney for 40 years. In 1979 he was awarded a plaque for 100 years of service with the Company.

He served on the Floydada City Council for 16 years. He is considered to be the "Father" of the municipal power plant. Acting as power commissioner when the plant was built in 1940, he said that "When this plant was ready

Who said homemaking is just for girls?

By Gayle Jackson

Boys enrolled in homemaking classes isn't something new at Lockney High School, but local residents may be surprised to know that over one-half of the students in those classes taught by Cindy Ford are boys.

And the homemaking II class is composed of 14 boys and five girls. The senior home and family classes taught by Treena Aston also have an enrollment that is about one-half male.

While their friends may laugh at the young men for taking "cake class", the male homemaking students and the male home and family life students are telling their teachers that they believe the classes should be required and that the subject matter applies more to everyday life than many of their other subjects.

In Homemaking I the students spent about four weeks talking about dating and other relationships. Now into the cooking portion of the course, the students have already learned basic nutrition and have made quick breads such as muffins, biscuits, waffles and banana bread.

The boys and girls have just finished a study of milk products and learned to cook gravy, pudding and cream pies. One class period was spent making the pie crusts that were baked and saved until the next day. Mrs. Ford demonstrated a coconut cream pie so many of the groups chose to make that kind, but lemon and chocolate also were cooked.

Currently the classes are learning to cook vegetables and teacher Cindy Ford encourages them to choose something besides green beans. Everyone is asked to taste all the vegetables.

Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Aston both say that in their experience the students prefer to eat their own cooking—even if it's bad—that to eat food made by other cooking teams.

The boys themselves will say that it is fun to make a better pie than anyone else as they make the homemaking classes another place to be competitive.

Most of the boys believe that they are better cooks than the girls, with the young ladies taking an opposite view.

Both boys and girls share in the clean-up duties in the cooking units.

Mrs. Ford has redesigned the sewing classes that will begin second semester because of the boys' presence. Wardrobe planning and maintenance will be emphasized as the class will learn to mend and sew on buttons, iron, sort and wash clothing.

Students who wish to learn to sew will tackle garments on an individual basis on a contract with the teacher.

Also to be studied is consumer education, home management and some crafts such as macrame plant hangers.

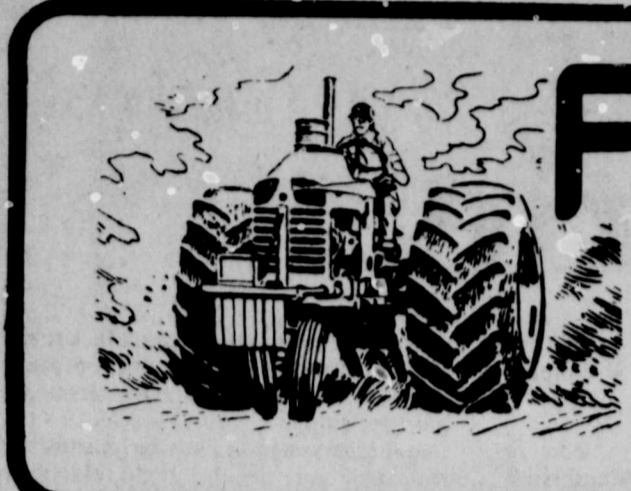

Do the boys take what they learn home to be used in the kitchens there? Mrs. Ford says "We give them home cooking assignments and they tell us the do them."

That must be true for a mother of a brawny senior football player described her son's chocolate cream pie made at home as "great". "It was the best pie crust I had eaten."

Another mother, whose son graduated last spring, says that he got interested in cooking in his home ec class and chased her from the kitchen many times this past summer to try his hand at such things as yeast-raised doughnuts and other complicated recipes.

Mrs. Aston is glad to see boys enrolling in the homemaking classes. "Even now most families cannot afford for the wife to stay at home, so the men will need to participate in the making of a home just as most of their wives will share in the earning of wages."

FARM & RANCH NEWS

TWPA meeting set for November 20, in Amarillo

Encouraged by stronger wheat prices brought about by increased exports and a projected sharp drop in world grain production, wheat producers from across the state of Texas will meet to discuss the wheat situation and draft positive policy direction for action in 1981. According to Otis Harman of Tullia, farmer-elected President of the Texas Wheat Producers Association (TWPA), this year's Annual Meeting of the TWPA is set for Thursday, November 20, with registration beginning at 8:30 a.m. at the Hilton Inn on Interstate 40-East. This will be the 30th Annual Meeting of TWPA.

"Considering recent developments in the world involving international trade and reduced grain production, this meeting is especially important," Harman said. "Farmers must be aware of the problems in handling wheat for export, how they will be affected by the new federal rail regulations, and the new markets for wheat which could be made available to them in the future." Harman said that the main purpose of the meeting will be to discuss these issues and determine what must be done in the areas of agricultural legislation and expanded market development activities. The meeting will begin at 9:45 a.m. with an address by Frank Hemmen, General Manager, Cargill Inc. in Houston, Texas. Mr. Hemmen's topic will be "Grain Industry Economic Functions in Marketing and Handling Commodities For Export." About Hemmen's topic, Wheat Association President Harman said, "The wheat producer and the grain industry must work together effectively if we are to meet the demands of an increasingly hungry world—therefore it is in the farmer's interest to understand how the international grain trade functions and how they handle U.S. grain for export."

The recent deregulation of railroads presents an issue to wheat farmers which looms extremely important. W.H. "Bill" Hollan, Vice President of Rail Traffic for Producers Grain Co. in Amarillo, will discuss "Wheat Movements Under New Federal Rail Regulations" in an attempt to examine how the new rail deregulation will effect freight costs, farmer's prices and service.

With regard to the expansion of markets for U.S. and Texas wheat, Fred Schneider, Assistant to the President, U.S. Wheat Associates, Washington, D.C., will discuss "World Wheat Markets Today--And Tomorrow," a topic intended to alert farmers to the positive and negative aspects of where our wheat markets are made today and what the possibilities are for further wheat market expansion.

After a buffet luncheon, Jack Felgenhauer, farmer-elected President of the National Association of Wheat Growers, will discuss what NAWG has been doing on the legislative front and what the basic challenges of 1981 might imply. Mr. Felgenhauer's speech is entitled "Your National Association at Work--1980 Accomplishments and Challenges for 1981."

After Felgenhauer's speech, the business session will begin. During the business session wheat producers will adopt a series of resolutions to guide the Association's programs of the future. Also, wheat producers will elect a slate of officers to implement these programs during the coming year.

All sessions are open to the public with no registration fee.

Farmers maybe losing valuable topsoil

Farmers in the Floyd County area who plow up and down the hill over terraces may be losing a lot more topsoil to erosion than they realize.

So says Jon J. LaBaume, district conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, at Floydada.

"Research indicated that plowing over terraces can double the amount of erosion as compared to farming with the terraces on the contour," LaBaume said.

The actual amount of gross erosion depends on several factors, including percent slope, length of slope, type of crop grown, amount of crop residue left on the surface, type of soil, and rainfall.

"All things being equal, there will be more erosion on land where cotton follows cotton than on land where sorghum follows sorghum," LaBaume said. "That's because sorghum produces more residue which, if left on the surface, reduces erosion."

LaBaume said one reason some farmers plow over terraces is because their land was terraced several years ago when two-row equipment was standard. These terraces were built as economically as possible and left a lot of point rows...rows that are difficult to farm with 8, 10, or 12-row equipment.

"One solution to the problem is to replace these old terraces with modern terraces that are built an even number of rows apart," LaBaume said. "We call these parallel terraces and they're a lot easier to farm."

He said parallel terraces cost more than standard terraces, partly because more cuts and fills are usually needed to make them work properly.

"But they are a lifetime investment," LaBaume stressed. "And since they are so much easier to farm, few farmers ever plow over them."

"Program" safety into farming and ranching

Although poor work practices cause many farm and ranch accidents, poorly designed equipment and facilities can also create hazardous conditions that lead to accidents.

"Therefore, it's important to 'program' safety into your farming and ranching operation," contends Dr. Gary Nelson, an agricultural engineer in safety for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Hazardous conditions represent conditions of risk which could cause human and financial loss due to injury or damage to equipment. In addition, such conditions can also stifle agricultural productivity and lead to inefficient operations," points out Nelson.

"Farm and ranch workers should be on the constant lookout for hazardous physical or environmental conditions," emphasizes the Texas A&M University System engineer. "Such conditions should be corrected on the spot or as soon as possible to reduce the potential for accidents. Special attention should also be given to the safe design of equipment and facilities when purchased or installed."

Among hazardous conditions that lead to accidents include unsafe basic designs; worn equipment; protruding objects; lack of storage space; poor arrangement, placement or storage of equipment; objects which may move unexpectedly; exposed sources of electricity; congestion and insufficient clearance; improper or loose clothing; presence of flammable, corrosive or toxic substances; excessive noise; inadequate illumination or ventilation; or the presence of such atmospheric substances as dusts, gases or vapors.

"Be conscious of accident risks at all times, whether planning, purchasing or working with facilities or equipment," cautions Nelson.

Crop cash receipts increased

Hale County ranked second in Texas crop cash receipts for 1979 with $110 million, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has reported.

Hale was also fourth within the state with government payments of $8.9 million and among the top ten counties with its total crops and livestock receipts of $165.9 million. Crops, livestock and payments increased the total receipts to $174.8 million.

Texas crop and Livestock Reporting Service has recently published detailed information on cash receipts of all counties. The booklet, 1979 Texas Agriculture Cash Receipts Statistics, is available from the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Nearby counties were also ranked among the top 10 counties.

Hockley County received the highest amount of government payments with $10 million and Floyd County was second with $9.6 million.

Farm income prospects to improve for Texas farmers and ranchers next year

Texas farmers and ranchers will have to "wait till next year" for any improvement in their income.

"Higher farm prices resulting from a sizable drop in crop production this year, smaller meat supplies, and strong export demand all point to an improved agricultural income picture in 1981," believes Dr. Carl Anderson, economist in marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Crop producers will likely fair much better in 1981 because of this year's short crop and a rise in prices. And, with meat supplies expected to slip under year-earlier levels, prospects look somewhat better for livestock producers as well.

Although production expenses will rise again, price increases are not expected to be as sharp as in 1960, says Anderson. During the past 12 months, fertilizer prices jumped 28 percent, fuel and energy prices and interest rates climbed 25 percent, and agricultural commodities rose 21 percent.

"Texas agriculture suffered considerably from the extended dry, hot weather during late spring and summer. Dryland farmers, cow-calf operators and poultry producers experienced big setbacks. Irrigated crops were even stunted by the intense and prolonged heat wave," notes Anderson.

Despite the steep drop in crop production, cash receipts for 1980 are estimated by Extension specialists to total only a little less than in 1979. Crop inventories carried over from the bumper 1979 harvest and price increases for many commodities have helped maintain sales close to last year's level.

Livestock sales sagged a little as lower cattle and hog receipts more than offset increased sales of poultry and milk.

EDITORIAL

By Shelly Harris

Everything I have done since I have been here I have tried to always deal fairly with you. I have taken my positions as editor/publisher most of the time. My one guiding rule has always been a positive outlook for Floydada and Lockney.

I commit myself editorially to an issue I am in fact committing the Lockney Beacon. Both of these newspapers have a solid history of journalism. I take a stand on an issue I have studied the pros and cons to the best of my ability. I have sought answers to questions and have been reassured by the tremendous influence that a newspaper has on the community it serves.

I try to print both sides of any issue as impartially as possible. For the first time since I have been here I feel it is my duty to the citizens of Lockney to take a stand on an issue...the Mackenzie Water Authority bond issue to be held November 22.

I am convinced that the very future of our towns hinges on our ability to have a water source. We are in one of the most enviable positions of any town in the South Plains. A few other towns have the water shed possibilities that we have in the area.

Neighboring towns do not have the topographical advantages that we have. I will you how fortunate we are to be living on land sited within easy reach of a surface water source.

In the next 10 to 20 years, the fact that we in Lockney and Floydada have a water source will give us a tremendous advantage in growth and development.

I can see a danger. The ads and the brochures being passed out read "Or Never." I think that's too dramatic. If the bond doesn't pass and if the sources we have, we could hold another bond election.

Prices of materials and interest rates are escalating so rapidly we would be unable to afford the cost. And the bonding company officials warn us that the cost of the project could get so high that we could not afford it. To try and get water to our municipalities.

We have got to have water to survive. I am convinced that obtaining it will never be easy. Whatever the cost now...it will be more later. According to projected studies in eight years the cost will double.

The danger I see is that if we don't act now we will lose this tremendous advantage we have in being able to get long term water.

Therefore, with no reservations, I support the Mackenzie Water Authority Bond and I fervently urge the citizens of Lockney and Floydada to vote "YES" for passage of this bond issue on November 22.

Ted Roberts attends Agronomy seminar

Terra Chemicals International announces that Ted Roberts, Manager of Riverside Chemicals Company, Lockney, attended a seminar on Agronomy October 23-24.

The agronomy session was conducted by Dr. Lowell Nelson of Texas Tech and Dr. Yates Smith of Texas A&M College Station, as a part of the company's continuing education program which can help to produce certification of Retail Marketing Managers. Terra has developed this program to enable its sales and location manager to provide professional and technical assistance to farm customers.

Riverside Chemicals International, Inc., which markets feed ingredients, crop protection chemicals and other farm supplies directly to farmers through retail farm service centers in the Midwest, South and Southwest, also sells nitrogen phosphates and potash to its customers throughout its marketing area.

Terra is a publicly held company with common stock listed on the New York Stock Exchange and the Midwest Stock Exchange—ticker symbol TCI.

Most important vote in history

Saturday, November 22, the citizens of Lockney will vote on what may well be the most important election in its history. That election hinges the very future of Lockney as a vital economic and social area for the area it serves.

Registered residents with the city limits will be able to vote on the Mackenzie Water Authority Bond Election. But whether or not it passes will affect every person in Floyd County.

Citizens that will be most affected by the outcome of this bond election are babies in cribs and playpens...our children and our grandchildren. It is an awesome responsibility for those who have a voting right. We will be responsible to these children 20 years from now for what we do nine days from now. Someone paid for the water we drink today. Our fathers provided for us and their fathers before them.

An inherited obligation for each of us to do all within our power to find out the truth about this issue closely, to inform ourselves about what we have at stake and then to go to the polls on November 22 and vote as our conscious directs.

Do not vote only for ourselves on the 22nd. We must consider ourselves as representatives for those who have no vote.

Band to sell cheese products

The Lockney band will conduct a fund raising campaign starting on Thursday, November 13. They will be taking orders for cheese products.

The money received from this campaign will be used for the spring band trip. In order for them to reach their goal, they need the help of everyone in the community. They will be calling on every home and offering them an opportunity to order one or more cheese products that are fairly priced and of excellent quality. Cheese is a product every home uses often and cheese also is an excellent gift item.

Everyone buys cheese and gives cheese as a gift so let's all support this fund raising campaign.

Booster bazaar upcoming

The annual Lockney Band Boosters Bazaar, will be Tuesday, November 25, in the former location of Baccus Motor Co.

Band parents are requested to contribute one craft item and one baked good per child in the band.

It would be helpful if craft items could be delivered by 1 p.m. on Monday, November 24.

Your support and cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Love Fund Continues

The Love Fund opened at the First National Bank of Lockney for Charles Thomason (owner of Thomason's Grocery, Meat & Deli in Lockney) remains open at this time. Charles and his wife, Mary, have been in the grocery business here since June of 1978.

Mr. Thomason, a cancer victim, has been confined to bed or a wheelchair for the past 13 months. Expenses of surgery at M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston (November 1979 and January 1980), additional hospitalization in Houston, Amarillo and Lockney have exhausted the family's finances. Mr. Thomason is presently receiving chemotherapy treatment in Lockney General Hospital.

Contributions can be made by contacting June Bybee at the First National Bank. Your concern is appreciated.

Lions Club art festival goes well

With the event still three weeks away, almost thirty reservations have already been confirmed. Area artists and craftsmen will be displaying their talents, featuring a wide variety of articles.

The doors of the Massie Activity Center will open to the public at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 6, (admission is free.)

Home Heating Tips

As energy costs continue to rise, Americans cannot afford to waste energy. Is your home energy efficient? It's worth it to find out. Inadequate insulation is the single greatest cause of energy waste in homes. According to the Department of Energy, proper insulation could save 20-30 percent of the energy used to heat homes.

If every home had airtight caulking and weatherstripping, we'd save enough energy to heat four million homes each year. To check the airtightness of your home, move a lighted candle around the frames and sashes of your windows—if the flame dances, you need caulking and/or weatherstripping.

According to a 1979 survey, 97 percent of the heating systems checked were wasting fuel. A great way to save money and energy is to have your heating system's firing rate checked regularly. Improper heating system maintenance can increase fuel bills by more than 25 percent because of maladjustments. High fuel costs, especially oil, have spurred many consumers to replace their heating systems with ones which are more fuel-efficient. Customers should look for energy-saving heating systems with alternative fuel sources when purchasing replacement units.

A hydronic heating system manufacturer, Repco Products Corporation, recently began marketing the Hoval Variolyt boiler, which is designed to burn any kind of solid, gas or liquid fuel. Not only is this multi-fuel boiler 88 percent energy-efficient, but it also reduces heating costs by its ability to burn fuels such as wood, coal and coke.

Jered and Leah Cameron of Canyon spent last week with Mrs. Fritz Schacht and Margaret. Their parents, David and Sarah Cameron, were in Nashville, Tennessee attending the National Convention of Christian Education of the United Methodist Church. Kevin Stennett, Texas Tech student, was home this past week and to visit with his parents, Jimmy and Theresa and brother, Mike. Visiting with Mrs. Aita Warren this past week were her sons, Charles and Doty Warren of Springfield, Ohio, and Alton Warren, of Amarillo, and her grandson, Ronson Griffith, of Wichita Falls. Norma and Homer Ragland and Mrs. Hattie Steele,

She is the mother of Ann Ford. Ruby K. and Walter (Bo) Kiser, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ransom, of Clovis, New Mexico, returned Sunday from Corsicana, where they went Friday to attend the funeral of their sister, Rozella Henderson, 77, died November 4 in a Corsicana hospital, after a short illness. Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:00 p.m. in the Corsicana Calvary Baptist Temple, laterment was in the Corsicana cemetery.

Survivors are five sons, two daughters, six brothers, five sisters, 30 grandchildren and 38 great-grandchildren. Three sons preceded her in death.

Bertha Rolling, entered St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock, Thursday of last week, and had surgery on her jaw, Friday. She was able to return home Monday afternoon.

Claire Cooper, daughter of Wayne and Sheryl Cooper of Lubbock, came to visit her grandparents, Melvin and Edith Cooper, Wednesday. She was joined by her brothers, Anthony and Chad, Friday. They all returned home Sunday.

The Floyd Philosopher

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has a few post-election thoughts this week.

Dear editor: A lot of experts were surprised at the outcome of the election. I wasn't. I'm never surprised at the outcome of any election. I hold my surprise back for a couple of years and then see if I'm surprised at how the winner's doing in the job.

The reason the experts were surprised this time is that they believed their own polls. By interviewing a scientifically selected cross-section of the nation the pollsters set out to tell us how people are going to vote. This time they reported the voters were about evenly divided and the election was too close to call, preparing everybody to stay up late election night, when actually we found out the results by 8 o'clock.

Sometimes pollsters and their scientific methods are like volcano experts. Volcano experts have a perfect record on telling us when a volcano has erupted, but a mighty poor record on letting us know ahead of time.

"Farm tractor and machinery mishaps take the lives of 800 to 1,000 people each year on our U.S. farms and ranches," David Bohac, Assistant Safety Director for the Texas Farm Bureau in Waco, said today as he spoke to Lockney FFA classes, at Lockney High School.

The Farm Bureau hopes to aid in reducing the needless loss of life, time, and farming equipment by encouraging greater caution and protective equipment.

Bohac discussed ways in which many Texas farm and ranch people have been fatally injured (30 to 50 annually) in past years. They include overturns, horseplay, speed, extra passengers and refueling accidents. He estimates that both the (1) injury rate and the (2) fatality rate could be reduced by 40 to 50% through the use of protective equipment.

Using model equipment, Bohac illustrated the importance of protective caps or roll-overs, properly mounted, with seat belts.

Personal protective equipment such as bump hats, gloves and snug fitting clothing were listed as being very important, too.

When on a road, or highway, proper lighting and markings were discussed, including SMV emblems. The SMV emblem is to be placed on the tractor, or self-propelled equipment that by engineering design was designed to travel 25 MPH or less.

Garner Smoked Turkeys are being sold by the FFA c-organization. Turkeys can be bought for Thanksgiving or Christmas.

Bobcats defeated Longhorns 28-0

The Bobcats showed their day against the Longhorns as they won 28-0 in the district. The Bobcats won their first year in this district. Meet Abernathy tonight. The Longhorns close out their season at the Idalou home this week. The quarter was scoreless. The Bobcats could not move the ball against the Longhorn defense but in the second quarter, the Childress team moved 75 yards down the field and scored from the 2 with 10:45 left in the half.

In the third period, a 55 yard pass play put Childress ahead 14-0. A 13 yard run advanced the lead to 21-0. In the fourth quarter, a 20 yard run, made the score 28-0. Lockney's offense had several good drives but they were stifled by two pass intersections and two lost fumbles. The Horns were penalized five times for a total of 40 yards and Childress had 4 flags thrown against them for a total of 60 yards.

The win brought Childress' record to 9-0 for the year and to 4-0 in district play while the Longhorns are 2-7 for the year and 0-4 in district play. Childress will now face either Littlefield or Muleshoe in bi-district action.

Safety has always been one of the first rules of any well-run farm operation. An increasing number of vehicles on the farm, as well as in town, are using gasoline and ag safety specialists have asked that some special precautionary steps be taken since gasoline (10% alcohol - 90% gasoline) is 35 percent more volatile than gasoline alone. 1) Be sure and use a vented gas tank cap. Check it to make sure it works properly. 2) Never smoke while refueling. 3) Don't refuel when the motor is hot if your tank is mounted anywhere near the engine. 4) Check gaskets, hoses and seals for any sign of leaks on a regular basis and always keep in mind the increased volatility of the fuel.

TEXAS BOBCAT TAGGING REQUIRED

The bobcat pelt tagging season for Texas with the exception of 22 High Plains counties, is set for November 15, 1980 through February 15, 1981 by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

These tagging dates were set due to the prime condition of bobcats during the winter months in Texas.

This is the third year Texas residents are required to get their bobcat pelts tagged prior to sale or shipment. For Texas bobcat pelts to be eligible for international trade, all pelts must be tagged by a registered pelt dealer. These dealers are certified and licensed by the P&WD.

Since the P&WD is the state agency required to manage and account for the bobcats, they are the agency that must set the rules according to the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the Office of the Scientific Authority.

During the 1979-80 bobcat tagging season, 11,455 bobcat pelts were tagged with prices for pelts ranging from $45 to $85. The bobcat pelt prices have dropped from two years ago when pelts were bringing up to $125.

The P&WD does not maintain a list of selling prices for bobcat pelts due to the competitive nature of fur sales and quality of pelts. It is best for persons wishing to sell their tagged pelts to contact a reputable fur dealer for current prices.

Texas bobcats are separated scientifically by subspecies just like deer. In the 22 counties comprising the High Plains, a distinct subspecies of bobcat resides and cannot be harvested.

This limitation on the harvest of this bobcat in Andrews, Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Ector, Floyd, Gaines, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Midland, Parmer, Randall, Swisher, Terry, and Yoakum counties is due to a Civil Suit in federal court arguing that the subspecies is endangered and should not be for sale on the international market.

For persons wanting to get their bobcat pelts tagged after November 15 in the open counties or wanting to become a registered bobcat pelt tagging agent, contact your nearest P&WD office or game warden for more information.

TEXAS DEER SEASONS NEAR

Deer hunting forecasts by P&WD personnel, hunters, and landowners point toward a good whitetail season which opens in the Panhandle November 22 and across the central Texas area on November 15.

The Panhandle white-tailed deer season continues through December 7 and the Rolling plains region of northwest Texas deer season continues through January 4, 1981.

Deer management in Texas requires different seasons and bag limits according to deer populations and habitat. For example, a deer hunter near Abilene could possibly bag three deer with a limit of two bucks or three antlerless deer by permit.

A deer hunter in the Panhandle is limited to one deer which must be a buck or antlerless by permit.

The late rains in the region of northcentral Texas has produced a lush growth of food which has helped put the deer in good body shape.

Antler growth has not been hurt by the extreme summer drought as there was adequate food last spring when the antler growth began on the bucks.

All hunters and especially deer hunters are reminded to wear hunter blaze orange colored clothing including head cover while in the field. There is no excuse for a hunter to mistake another hunter for a deer or turkey.

Lockney Cross Country Team goes to state

The Lockney Cross Country team will be competing in state Saturday, November 15, at Georgetown.

Qualifiers for state were Fred Alaniz, Frank Castro, Juan Hernandez, Israel Gonzales, and Jeff Reece.

These competitors finished third in regional.

Coach Dwayne Sexton complimented his cross country team in saying that in Regional they had competed well, considering that they had had very little time to train.

Even though none of his boys came out in the top ten, his fourth and fifth place winners received much higher scores than their fellowers.

Q-Is an unmarried minor stepchild serving in the armed forces still considered by VA to be a member of a veteran's household?
A-Yes, provided the relationship of the stepchild as a member of the veteran's household was established prior to entrance into the armed forces.

Q-I have completed both college and specialized training with VA educational benefits. Now I wish to go into business for myself. Does the VA make business loans?
A-The Veterans Administration does not make business loans. However, loans and business management advice for veterans are available through the Small Business Administration.

Q-I am a 100 percent service connected veteran receiving compensation. I am also attending school full-time and receive education benefits. I receive allowances for my dependents (a wife and two children) under both programs. One of my sons, aged 17, will begin college this fall. He will not be 18 until early next year. How long will I receive pay for him as my dependent?
A-He will be included in your compensation and education allowances until he reaches age 18. He will then become eligible for benefits under the VA dependents' education program.

Q-I receive retired pay as a result of military service and I also qualify for a VA clothing allowance for prosthetic devices I wear. Am I required to waive a portion of my retirement equal to the clothing allowance?
A-No. But you must waive an amount equal to any VA compensation you receive.

Q-My husband was killed in service. I am now financially able to purchase a home. Will the Veterans Administration guarantee a loan for me?
A-Yes. Call or visit the nearest VA regional office. Assistance is also available through veterans service organizations.

"The telephone pole was approaching fast. I attempted to swerve out of its way, when it struck the front of my car."

"A truck backed through my windshield into my wife's face."

"I had been driving my car for 40 years when I fell asleep at the wheel and had an accident."

"As I approached the intersection, a stop sign suddenly appeared in a place where no stop sign had ever appeared before. I was unable to stop in time to avoid the accident."

"As I approached the intersection, a stop sign suddenly appeared in a place where no stop sign had ever appeared before. I was unable to stop in time to avoid the accident."

"I pulled away from the side of the road, glanced at my mother-in-law, and headed over the embankment."

"I was on my way to the doctor's with rear end trouble, when my universal joint gave way, causing me to have an accident."

"I told the police that I was not injured, but on removing my hat, I found that I had a skull fracture."

"I had been shopping for plants all day, and was on my way home. As I reached an intersection, a hedge sprang up, obscuring my vision. I did not see the other car."

"I was thrown from my car as it left the road. I was later found in a ditch by some cows."

"I thought my window was down, but I found out it was up when I put my hand through it."

La Bell ates an

Southwestern Bell will implement rates under bond on November 1, but the increases will be significantly smaller than amounts requested by the company in its original filing.
The rate increases under bond will total $152.8 million. The company's request is for $326.3 million.
The rate put into effect under bond is about 47 percent of the company's request. The bonded rates roughly parallel the PUC staff recommendation of $152.8 million made in the hearings.
"We've documented a need for $326.3 million," said Paul Roth, vice president revenues and public affairs Texas. "In no way do we concede we need any less. However, we feel the staff recommendation is a good starting point for implementing temporary rates to provide some relief until a final decision is reached."
Bonded rates will be in effect until the Texas Public Utility Commission makes a final decision on the full request. Based on its final ruling, the PUC could order the company to refund customer refunds, with interest, for all the bonded rates.
Continuing critical need for additional revenues prompted the Southwestern Bell decision to put in rates under bond, said Roth.
"Naturally, we'd prefer to have a decision before implementing any rates," Roth said. "However, a PUC decision apparently will not be made for several weeks. Meanwhile, needed for increased rates has not been met. Inflation continues at high levels, offsetting our gains in expense savings and sales. Interest rates are rising our earnings level. We still are needing huge sums to meet the needs of growing Texas.
The data on which this case is presented is seven months old, demonstrating we do not have the time to gain prompt pricing relief as businesses have. The situation is improving. In the interests of maintaining good telephone service in Texas, we simply cannot wait."
Roth pointed out that southwestern Bell has never before implemented bonded rates under bond in Texas.
"We would prefer not to put in bonded rates, but the unusual length of the hearing has caused us to do so," he said.
Roth said the prolonged hearings stemmed from introduction of some unusually complex issues. He pointed out that one of the most critical and controversial issues, the cost study methodology to be used in pricing various services, is the subject of a separate hearing before the PUC. "It is expected that the cost issue, and other complex points, will be resolved before the hearing on the rate case. If so, future hearings should be handled in a much shorter time frame, just as our previous cases," Roth said.
Southwestern Bell filed the $326.3 million request on July 7. Hearings began September 15 and ended October 1. Thousands of pages of testimony and exhibits were introduced by all parties in the case.
Hearing Examiner Philip Ricketts, who presided over the hearings, must make his recommendation as to the outcome of the case. Then, the full Public Utility Commission must consider the examiner's recommendation and enter a final order on the rate request.

customers, no company would give credit to the city to have oil in the tanks or diesel to fill the tanks, so I paid a little money and I paid the $420 to get it started, which was repaid in sixty days.
The engine had a defective connection bearing and the people who had built the engine, Worthington Engine Co., were hard to convince about the defect. Martin on his own initiative flew to Buffalo, New York with the part that he had. Now convinced the company paid people to Floydada to correct the situation.
During the war years he served on the board and also the food and control board. He also was a Lieutenant in the Civil Air Patrol and served as squadron leader.
The original Floydada airport was owned and operated by Martin. He leased the field in 1941. It was located just west of the present municipal airport.
Fred Martin, only son, lives in Hilton, South Africa. Fred was able to take the last remaining seat on South Central Airways Boeing 747 direct flight to New York. He arrived in Floydada on Monday. His wife and son are following this week.
Funeral services were held at 3 p.m.
in First United Methodist Church here with the Rev. James C. pastor, and Dr. Floyd C.
pastor of First Baptist Church, conducting. Burial was in the Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Moore-Funeral Home.
Martin was active in the implementation up to the time of his death. He was a familiar figure around the square as he would stop and talk while feeding the squirrels.
Martin has requested that there be a photograph in this issue. It is well known so, for each of us carries our memory of this very special man.

Western Bell will implement rates under bond on November 11, but the increases will be smaller than amounts requested by the company in its original filing.

The final decision process will continue beyond the bonding date, Roth said. Texas law provides for putting rates into effect under the bond if the PUC has not reached a final decision within a specified time limit. The Southwestern Bell bonding date under the time frame is November 11.

The interim rates implemented under bond by Southwestern Bell on November 11 will affect:

- most basic local service
- most PBX equipment
- one time charges for moving or installing telephones
- Custom Calling features
- miscellaneous equipment
- TouchTone Lines
- most telephone instruments
- some CENTREX service
- key telephones
- private line services, including TELPAK
- Telephone answering services

The interim rates will not affect:

- measured service
- in-state long distance calls
- WATS charges
- Directory Assistance service
- coin telephone calls

The effect on residential customers will be slight. For example, under the temporary rate schedule, a one-party flat rate residential customer using a standard rotary dial telephone will face a total monthly increase of 80 cents, based on a 30-cent increase for the access line and a 50-cent increase for the instrument.

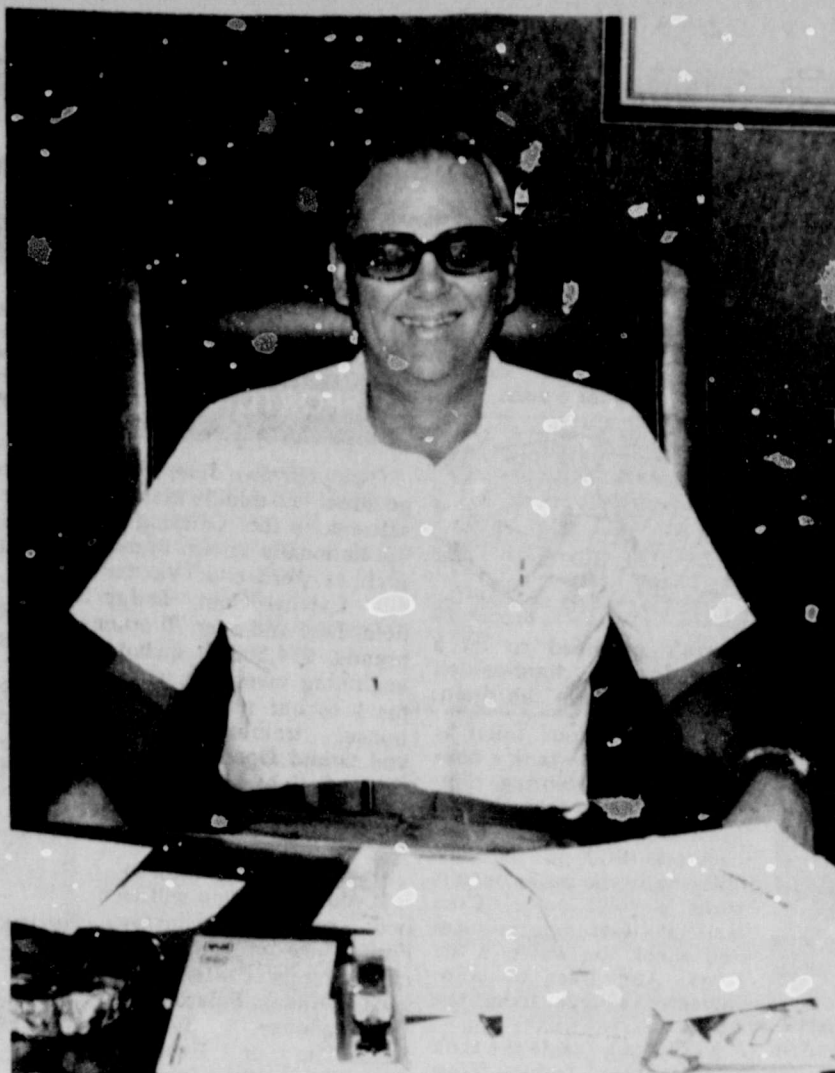

Rates for two, four and eight-party basic residential service will increase in the range of 65 to 70 cents per month, based on varying access line increases of 15 to 20 cents and 50 cents for a standard rotary dial telephone.

One-party flat business rates will increase in a range of 85 cents to $1.30 per month in most locations, based on access line increases of 25 to 80 cents and 50 cents for a standard rotary dial. In Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio, only the instrument increase will apply to one-party business rates.

Four and eight-party business rates will increase from 60 to 90 cents per month, depending on location including the 50-cent instrument increase and varying access line increases of 10 to 40 cents.

The monthly TouchTone line rate also will increase by 20 cents for residences and 25 cents for businesses. The additional TouchTone line charge must be added to any monthly increases for access lines and instruments.

One time charges for moving or installing telephones will vary, depending on work requested by the customer.

Tribute to Eve Newson

The following poem was written by Shea Wimberly, eight-year-old great-granddaughter of Mrs. J.C. Newson. It has been printed as she wrote it.

GRANNY'S HOME
Granny's House is on a friendly block.
And Granny lives in a pretty house too.
She has a nice big family too. She loves and takes care of it too.
She's a Grandmother to some people.
Like Connie and Dee.

A Tribute to Eva Newson on her 93rd Birthday

"The golden years are privileges..."
Sunday afternoon, November 9, a celebration was taking place in the home of Mrs. Newson.

"For added years are gifts from God..."
Congratulating her on her ninety-third birthday.
"Do not wish for youth's return
Though you enjoyed each day
Think of the many compensations
You had along the way..."
(She has been privileged to have three children, eight grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.)
"As the days and year began to mount,
Along came a deeper appreciation
Of things that really count..."
(Many old friends as well as new ones came by to wish her good health, spiritual comfort, and to express joy...)
"On the years she has trusted in Him implicitly,
And the way she has worn her years, gracefully..."

Computer technology introduced by VA to reduce time

Administrator of Veterans Affairs Max Cleland recently announced completion of a three-year development program to bring the advantages of computer technology to processing claims for Veterans Administration compensation, pension and education benefits.

The new system—known as Target—will reduce claims processing time significantly and speed payment of checks totaling $14 billion annually to veterans and their families, according to Cleland.

Target replaces many manual operations that were used in handling inquiries and claims. VA's 57 regional offices in the United States and Puerto Rico are now able to enter, modify and retrieve data via a sophisticated computer system that is currently capable of handling some 160,000 transactions daily. Part of the hardware used by the agency includes 3,000 video display terminals and 800 remote printers installed in the regional offices.

Service improvements offered by Target are many and the agency expects to realize operating savings of up to $200 million over the next ten years, Cleland said. The system will provide faster adjustments to active claims payments and quicker action on new claims. Status inquiries from beneficiaries which previously required days and weeks to answer can now often be resolved in seconds.

The Target network is supported by nine large computers and 100 mini-computers that function in regional processing centers located in Philadelphia, Chicago and Los Angeles. A central payment system in Chicago is linked directly to Treasury department check production facilities and VA's huge data processing center in Austin, Texas, maintains a computer index of basic beneficiary information.

Today's completion of current Target development culminates a $40 million contract awarded in 1977 to Honeywell Information Systems. VA expects to invest additional funds to bring the system to its maximum cost-benefits capability.

The design and operation of Target includes strict controls on individual rights of privacy. VA employee access to the data system is on a "need to know" basis and requires the use of a password, a magnetic key card and appropriate security clearance. The agency monitors system security at each regional office and data processing location.

Drought Brings Crop Harvest Estimates Down

AUSTIN—The vegetable harvest for the last quarter of 1980 is expected to drop, one more lingering effect of the drought that in some areas of the state made it "too dry to plant," reports Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

Harvest of carrots, bell peppers, spinach, lettuce and cabbage will all be down, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Only cucumbers and tomatoes are expected to increase over the 1979 fall harvest.

"It wasn't disease or insects that got these crops," said Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown. "It was the hot, dry weather. In some areas it was too dry to plant."

Prospective harvest figures for the October-December quarter are 3,400 acres of carrots, down 11 percent from 1979; 4,800 acres of bell peppers, down 17 percent; 4,000 acres of cabbage, down 33 percent; 1,700 acres of spinach, down 37 percent, and 900 acres of lettuce, down 47 percent.

Around 4,600 acres of cucumbers, a 35 percent increase over last year, are expected for harvest. Tomatoes will increase from 500 acres in 1979 to 800 this fall.

Nationwide, harvest for 14 fresh market vegetables is estimated at 249,000 acres, down one percent from a year ago. Yields are projected at 2.06 metric tons, down four percent.

Furniture Fix-ups
What can you do about wood furniture that's marred by scratches, dents and stains? You may have to do a complete overhaul, but sometimes you can make minor repairs yourself without refinishing. Here's how:

SCRAATCHES—On walnut or walnut-stained furniture, rub scratches with the meat of a Brazil nut or black walnut. A brown crayon, shoe polish or a commercial wax stick meant for furniture touch-ups may also work.

To camouflage scratches on red mahogany, apply iodine with a fine brush or cotton swab. Old iodine, dark with age, works on brown mahogany furniture. On maple, apply a 50/50 mixture of iodine and denatured alcohol.

GOUGES—Patch deep gouges with plastic wood. Shallow gouges may only need sanding, followed by touch-up staining.

CRAZED FINISH—Too much sun exposure can cause crazing, the formation of hundreds of tiny cracks in wood finishes. Rubbing with steel wool and polishing with paste wax may help.

WHITE BLEMISHES—Rings or blemishes can be caused by water residue or excessive heat. Cigar ashes mixed with a little oil such as salad or machine oil should remove these. Fresh water stains can be removed by wiping with ammonia. For heat caused blemishes, dampen the area with a cloth moistened with camphorated oil. Wipe and let dry, then rub with rottenstone or pumice and oil.

Try these remedies before you begin stripping your furniture to re-finish it.

ATPE

The Association of Texas Professional Educators (ATPE) has experienced a membership increase of more than 50 percent according to Executive Director Mike Morrow, who believes that Texas educators are leading a nationwide trend of teachers who are leaving the unionized National Education Association.

Morrow added that according to NEA's own membership figures, teachers from other states are "waking up" in 1979 NEA showed a decline in membership in 16 states including Texas where 9,704 despite the fact that nearly 5000 new teaching positions were added in the state that year.

ATPE, a group of educators led by state president Alafair Hammett, a classroom teacher with 30 years experience, favors grassroots control of education. ATPE does not support collective bargaining for public school teachers and has not endorsed political candidates.

"Many Texas educators do not subscribe to the philosophy that any education association should make across-the-board statements or assume that a few leaders speak for the entire profession," Morrow said.

"On more than one occasion the Texas State teachers' association has been successful in its efforts to influence state education policy."

Heart ailment could be connected with some disabled VA veterans

According to D.G. Ayres, Service Officer for Floyd County, some veterans who lost one or both feet, or one or both legs, during service in the Armed Forces of the United States, and later are found to be suffering from a heart condition, may be entitled to service-connection for the heart ailment.
Public Law 94-433, enacted by the U.S. Congress September 30, 1976, instructed the Veterans Administration to conduct an in-depth study to determine whether veterans with leg amputations were more likely to develop cardiovascular problems than veterans without such amputations. The results of this study, conducted over an extended period of time by the Medical Follow-up Agency of the National Academy of Sciences, was completed and sent to the Administrator of Veterans Affairs in 1979. This detailed report indicated that veterans who suffered an amputation of both legs or of one leg at or above the knee have significantly higher risk of suffering or dying from diseases of the cardiovascular system. As a result of this report, the VA Regulations were changed in August 1979 to indicate that service-connection could be granted for ischemic heart disease or other cardiovascular disease developing in a veteran who has a service-connected amputation of one leg at or above the knee or both legs at or above the ankles.

Any veteran whose leg or legs were lost due to a service-connected disability, and who later is shown to be suffering from, or who died from, a cardiovascular ailment, may be entitled to service-connection for the disability or the resulting death. The veteran, if living, should contact his local Service Officer for assistance when needed. For deceased veterans, contact may be made by his widow or other next of kin, for the purpose of seeking VA benefits.

Arts-In-Action to be held November 22-23

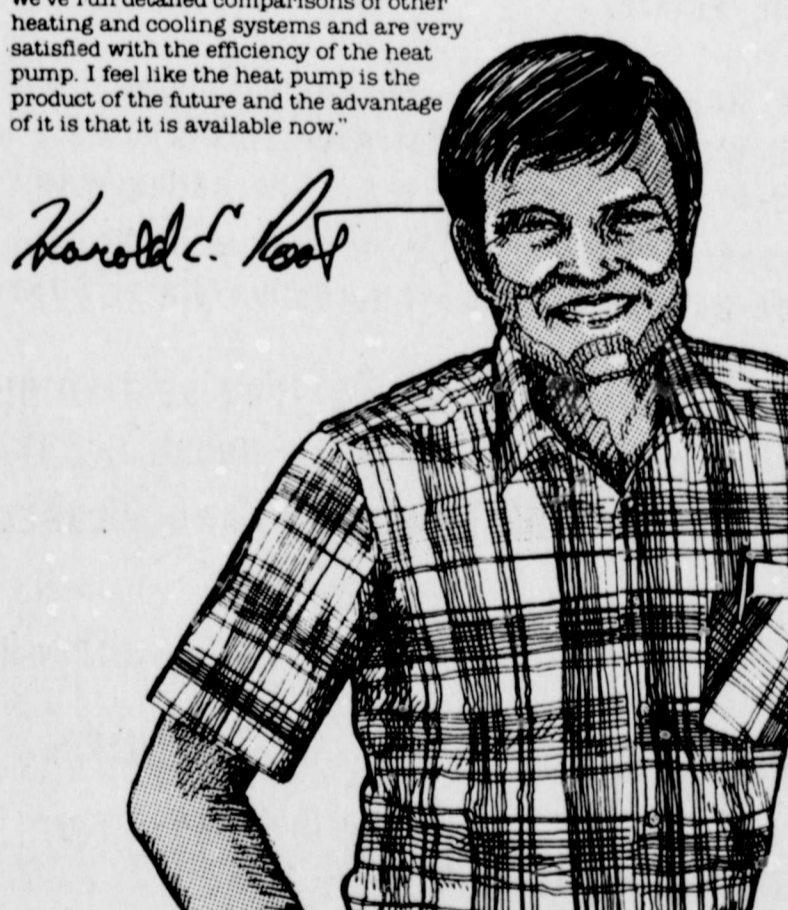

Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Arts In Action officials urge area artists to get their entries in for the 9th Annual Arts-In-Action to be held in November.
Inquiries have come from nine states at this point and the Arts-In-Action Committee, headed by Steve Messenger, is in the process of jurying artists and craftsmen for the show.
"In a juried show artists and craftsmen submit their work for pre-screening. Only those whose work exhibits high quality in craftsmanship and creativity are elected for Arts-In-Action. We expect the final number of artists to be near 150 for the 9th annual show," Messenger said.
"Space is fast filling up and we urge prospective entrants to send their applications in to the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce at 1000 S. Polk, in Amarillo as soon as possible." Donald L. Renner, Civic Affairs Manager for the Chamber of Commerce said.

To enter the jurying process, entrants must complete an entry form available at the Chamber of Commerce offices, and send it along with photographs in color and black and white to the Arts-In-Action Committee for consideration.
Arts-In-Action is a project of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Fine Arts Council headed by Bill Brollier. It will run November 22-23 in the Amarillo Civic Center exhibit hall. On Saturday it will run from noon to nine p.m. and on Sunday it will run from noon to six p.m. Public admission is free.

It's True.

"After installing the heat pump in my own home and monitoring it very closely for two or three years, we were so impressed with the heat pump that we're using them in quite a few new homes that we are building. The heat pump is easy to adapt to different types of buildings and homes.
We've run detailed comparisons of other heating and cooling systems and are very satisfied with the efficiency of the heat pump. I feel like the heat pump is the product of the future and the advantage of it is that it is available now."

Facts of Interest

The other day we read some strange but interesting facts, or better said comparisons between Lincoln and Kennedy. Of course some readers might be aware of the facts but we are sure the majority, possibly never taking the time as in our case to investigate, do not know of them.
Both President Lincoln and Kennedy were concerned with the issue of Civil Rights. Lincoln was elected in 1860; Kennedy was elected in 1960.
Both were slain on Friday and in the presence of their wives.
Their successors, both named Johnson, were Southerners, Democrats, and had previously served in the U.S.

Senate.
Andrew Johnson was born 1808; Lyndon Johnson was born 1908.
John Wilkes Booth was born 1839; Lee Oswald was born 1939.
Both Booth and Oswald were Southerners favoring unpopular ideas.
Both President Lincoln and Kennedy lost children through death while residing in the White House.
Lincoln's secretary was named Kennedy and advised him not to go to the theater. President Kennedy's secretary, whose name was Lincoln, advised him not to go to Dallas.
Written in the Tyler, Texas paper November 25, 1963 three days after President Kennedy was assassinated.

Board seeks tax hike

By Patrick Clark

Lockney Board of Education will hold a public hearing Monday, December 15, on a proposal to raise the school tax 33.3 percent.
The hearing begins at 6 p.m. at the administration office.
The current tax levy is 54 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. The proposed increase would raise the levy to 72.3 cents.
The board is needed to cover a $100,000 increase in the school budget for the 1980-81 school year. The total school budget is over $1.4 million. The board says the need for the increase is due to the state-wide property tax reduction during which property in Lockney Independent School District was reassessed upward from $70 million to over $100 million.
"Looking at a tax increase," Clark says, "I think it is only fair to give 'credit' where 'credit' is due. The 'credit' belongs to you and me to some degree we were promised." The big 'credit' goes to the taxpayers.
"The board told us if tax relief passed, we would be reimbursed dollar for dollar because of the amount needed. It was decided in Austin that the reimbursement would be 55 percent, not 100 percent. We make this up because the state did not appropriate enough money to do this, the state and our board can brag that no new state taxes were needed. In order for us to do this, it cost us three-and-a-half percent in taxes."
"There are other reasons for the increase," Hallmark says. "Secondly, the legislators at the time created the county-wide school district, but again did not appropriate any funds to run this office, leaving this up to local districts. That cost $43,000 or four-cents in taxes. Thirdly," Hallmark continues, "the state created the state property tax with unprecedented authority and regulations for appraisals and that we must live with. I can tell you we have not felt the full force of their authority yet."
"At the bottom line, Hallmark says, is the so-called 'tax-relief' has cost Lockney School District $79,000 for the school year.
Hallmark says the board looked for ways to make up the money without raising taxes. Four teachers were not hired, three bus routes were eliminated and tuition was begun for students from outside the district. But these were not enough to make up for the revenue, Hallmark says, especially with continually escalating costs.
Hallmark says only one conclusion has been reached: "Your state representative in Austin have done it to us."

Public safety chief urges safe driving

The Thanksgiving Holiday has always been a day when we give thanks for the things we enjoy here in the United States—some things a lot of us take for granted such as our freedom, good jobs, education and our automobile. Everyone agrees the automobile and all it has brought to this nation is marvelous, but it could be an instrument of suffering and even death.
Major C.W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety in Lubbock, stated that this Thanksgiving Holiday weekend, thousands of more drivers will be on the roads and highways. Some drivers will be going across town—others will be crossing several states.
Major Bell also said that the Department of Public Safety wants you to have a safe and pleasant holiday, so if you are planning a trip out of town, check your car, the road conditions, the weather conditions and your driving habits, and remember that the early darkness and traffic call for more caution and speed. If we think safety first and defensively then a safe and pleasant Thanksgiving is almost certain.
