

LOCKNEY'S CITY POOL is receiving the finishing touches before it's opening, Saturday, June 19 at 1:30 p.m. All those registering that day will be eligible for a free swimming party that will be given at a drawing.

City pool opens Saturday

The Lockney Swimming Pool will open Saturday, June 19th at 1:30 p.m. This is the latest the pool has opened for the summer in several years. A new filter system has been installed and a complete paint job has been done. Finishing touches and time required for the paint to cure will be accomplished this week in time for the opening.

No increase in the price of the season tickets has been made this year to offset the delayed opening. The family rate is $30 and the seasonal individual rate is $15.00.

Hours will be 1:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Sundays.

Children under 12 will be admitted for $1.00 and those 12 and over will be charged $1.25.

The pool may be rented for private parties. The fee will be $25.00.

Violet Cooper, manager, reminds everyone who expects to make use of the pool that no cutoffs will be allowed.

Swimmers must wear clean swimming suits.

There will be a "The Early Bird Gets the Worm" drawing for all those swimming the first day of the season. The winner will be entitled to a FREE SWIMMING PARTY on the date of his choosing.

Mrs. Cooper wishes to express everyone's cooperation and patience, and invites everyone to come out and enjoy the fun in the water this summer.

Schacht new Farm Bureau agent

On June 1, two agents and two secretaries joined the Farm Bureau Agency bringing the staff to six.

Clar Schacht and Bud Rainey are new agents; Carrie Bertrand and Lynda Seymour are the secretaries.

James Race is bureau manager and Donice Casey has been an agent for a year.

Schacht is a Lockney native, graduating from high school there in 1964. He graduated from Texas Tech with a B.S. degree in 1968; received his Master of Education from Tech in 1972.

He has taught Vocational Agriculture and VEH Construction Trades in Kansas and Floydada, respectively. He has also farmed in Kansas and Floyd County.

Currently, Schacht is president of the Lockney Chamber of Commerce and the Lockney Ex-Students Association. He has served on the Floyd County Fair board and has helped with the Lockney Jr. Livestock Show. He was an Honorary Chapter Farmer in FFA.

He is member and Sunday School secretary at First Baptist Church in Lockney. Married to the former Judy Maggard of Plainview, the couple has a daughter, Meredith, who is 15 months old.

Rainey received his Bachelor of Science degree from Wayland Baptist University in Plainview.

He has been an instructor of criminal justice at that institution for the past two years. He was also an instructor of law enforcement for Texas A&M University.

Elected as sheriff of Floyd County in 1973, he served two terms. He has also been with the Texas Department of Public Safety.

He and his wife, Sandra, have three children: Jeff, 19, a sophomore at Angelo State University; Kristi, 16, a junior at Floydada High School and Rusty, 12, a seventh grader.

They are members of the First Baptist Church in Floydada.

Carrie Bertrand is a Floydada native and has worked the past 4½ years at Davis Farm Supply.

She is an active member of the First Baptist Church.

Carrie has two children; Tammy, 10, and Michael, 9.

Lynda Seymour and her family have lived in Floydada for four years.

She has worked at Andrews Elementary School for the past three years.

Her husband, Irvin, works at Light-house Electric.

The couple has three children: Monty, 19; Dean 16; and Shana, 12.

SPAG offers program

Commissioners turn thumbs down on it

BY WES BROWN

The South Plains Association of Governments Board of Directors is in the process of forming a multi-county housing finance corporation, to issue bonds for mortgage loans for persons in participating counties. Resolution for the program was offered to Floyd County commissioners.

The bonds, according to Sylvia Clark, director of economic development, would let people buy houses in Floyd County at a low interest rate (12-14 percent) rather than the current high rates. This, according to Clark will encourage people to build or buy houses.

Commissioner Jack Lackey, precinct 4 and Commissioner Bob Jarrett, precinct 2, shot down the resolution proposal, voicing their suspicion of government backed programs.

Commissioner Sam Spence, precinct 1, and Commissioner Thomas Warren, precinct 3, abstained from voting stating that they had not had time to study the proposal and make a decision.

After hearing Clark's proposal, County Judge Choise Smith quickly called for a decision. Commissioner Lackey motioned that Floyd County not become a part of the Housing Finance Corporation to issue bonds for mortgage loans. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Jarrett.

Commissioners Jarrett and Lackey voted in favor of the motion. Commissioners Spence and Warren abstained from voting. The tie was broken when Judge Smith voted in favor of the motion.

The program will entail bonds being available to the participating counties. These bonds will be sold by an underwriting company.

The buyers generally are home builders or contractors and the bonds will be used to finance the building of new homes or buying of existing homes.

The value of this type of financing is that the interest rate is held at 12-14 percent.

The only responsibility the participating county will have is to appoint three incorporators and a director to oversee the program.

Clark stressed that the county would be in no way liable in case of default on the loans.

Clark said that she didn't know whether or not there was a housing shortage in Floyd County.

In a separate interview with Susan Gams, Executive Vice President, Floydada Chamber of Commerce, she said, "We (Floydada) on the average have five families per month moving into Floydada wanting to rent or buy a place to live."

"Industries that are interested in moving into Floydada are concerned with employees finding suitable housing. If it isn't here, they won't consider moving in. We really need middle income housing. And more nice apartment complexes would alleviate the situation."

Other Court Business

Other points of business accomplished by the Court were:

Motion made, seconded and carried that all bills properly presented be approved and paid.

Motion was made, seconded and carried to approve three requests for the use of county equipment and machinery.

Motion was made by Bob Jarrett and seconded by Jack Lackey that the County Employee Policy be tabled until the next regular court meeting, July 12, 1982 in order to give the court time to study the policy before adoption. Vote: All in favor.

Motion by Thomas Warren and seconded by Sam Spence that upon the recommendation of the Floyd County Library Board rules and regulations be adopted by the commissioners court. Vote: All in favor.

Motion was made by Sam Spence and seconded by Thomas Warren that the court accept the low bid from Reed Ford Sales for two 1982 Ford pickups per the following specifications: Precinct #1 to pay $7,341.00 and Precinct #3 to pay $7,041.00. Vote: All in favor.

Motion by Bob Jarrett and seconded by Sam Spence that the county authorize the Sheriff to sign the Antenna Site Lease with Red River Gas Pipeline Corporation. Vote: All in favor.

Motion by Sam Spence and seconded by Thomas Warren to increase the line item for extra labor for Precinct #1 from $4,000 to $14,000. Vote: All in favor.

Motion made by Bob Jarrett and seconded by Thomas Warren that upon the recommendation of County Auditor, Bobbie Hamilton the proposal for an independent review of the Tax Office be approved. Vote for Bob Jarrett, Thomas Warren and Jack Lackey. Abstain: Sam Spence.

Meeting Adjourned 2 p.m.

This Week

Reading program
A reading program for all ages starts at the library June 21.

Storybook Hour
Storybook Hour will begin Wednesday, June 23, from 10 to 11 a.m. for children 3-10 years old.

Swimming Pool
Swimming pool will open Saturday June 19, at 1:30 p.m. An "Early Bird Gets The Worm" drawing for a Free Swimming Party will also be held that day.

Reading program begins June 21

The Lockney Library reading program will get into full swing June 21 and continue through July. The program is for all ages.

Doyle Dipprey, librarian, will keep record of the number of books read and present certificates at the end of the program.

A storybook hour will be held by Athena Study Club on Wednesdays from 10:00 to 11:00. The storybook readings will be conducted from June 23 through July 21. Children ranging in age from three years to ten years are invited to attend.

The Athena Study Club has given the library a table and some carpet and the El Penseroso Club donated a venetian blind to the library. Mrs. Dipprey reports that these items have been greatly appreciated, and she is sure the children will find the library more enjoyable because of these items.

The library is open from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. five days a week.

Some of the clubs are being presented with a new program that would be conducted through the library. This program would bring the library to the elderly and other shut-ins by delivering and gathering books for those that need the assistance.

If anyone would be willing to help in this endeavor, Mrs. Dipprey may be reached at 652-3561 at the library in the afternoons.

Registration to increase July 1

BY WES BROWN

Texas motor vehicle registration fees will increase July 1 for the first time in 15 years and on vehicles weighing less than 3,500 pounds the increase is almost 30 percent.

Vehicles weighing less than 3,500 pounds the fees will increase to $15.80; for vehicles weighing from 3,501 pounds to 4,500 pounds will go from $22.30 to $25.80; fees for vehicles weighing 4,501 to 6,000 pounds will jump from $30.30 to $33.80.

Those vehicles weighing more than 6,000 pounds will pay fees at a rate of 60 cents per 100 pounds, up from 55 cents per 100 pounds.

Vehicles affected by the increase are passenger cars, city buses and private buses. Trucks are not affected by this increase.

Floyd County will keep $225,000 of the fees before sharing 50 percent with the state, according to Jonelle Fawver, Floyd County tax assessor-collector. Previously Floyd County retained only $50,000 before sharing with the state.

The fees will be divided with the four precincts in Floyd County to maintain county roads as the county commissioners see fit.

Floyd county has 1,094 miles of county roads that will receive more support from the increased fees.

Animals to be validated

FLOYD COUNTY STEER VALIDATION DAY

All 4-H and FFA members planning to show steers at any junior livestock shows in the state of Texas in 1982-83 must have their steers validated before July 1, 1982.

Floyd County Steer Validation Day will be held on Monday, June 21, 1982, beginning at 8:30 a.m. at the Brock's Feedlot located 6 miles north of Lockney on FM 378. Cost for the validation (which includes ear tag, noseprint and photograph) will be approximately $2.00 per head. Please bring your checkbook with you.

Steers which are not validated on this date set by the Floyd County Validation Committee will not be eligible to show at any major stock shows in Texas, so please make every effort to attend the county validation day.

A CREW OF MEN with HI Plains Pavers of Plainview put finishing touches on Second Street east of the City Hall Monday to complete the 23-block project of repairs and resurfacing of town streets.

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE crews worked Monday morning to replace a broken utility pole on East Locust Street. The SWPS reported they had not had to replace any poles because of damage from the recent weather. The only damage caused by weather had been to transformers, cutouts, and insulators.

Father's Day

Looking back seven years

Coco and his Master

BY SHELLY HARRIS
[Published February 4, 1975 in the Southwest Texan]

They were friends, the man and the dog. In the quiet later years of his life the man enjoyed the companionship of the small dog. They went for long walks, exploring country roads. The dog would dart about, following trails of delightful scents, and would sometimes be rewarded with a rabbit or ground squirrel to chase. His short legs were never equal to the faster animals, and panting from the effort, he would return happily to his Master.

In the afternoon they would sit on the porch, napping in the warmth from the sun or watching the people go by.

Gentle by nature, the little dog greeted everyone with a wagging tail, and an invitation to scratch his back. He would stand on his stubby hind legs and dance for the children, knowing they couldn't resist his plea for a piece of a cookie or sandwich.

The dog's name was Coco. The day was in early January. Coco, who had been fine in the early morning, began having muscle spasms. Alarmed, the old man called his granddaughter, and asked if she could take him, and the small dog to the Veterinarian. She rushed to pick them up, but as they entered the Animal Hospital, Coco stiffened in her arms.

"That's a bad sign," the old man said. He had been raised on a farm and had been around animals all his life.

Before they could get to the examining room the small dog went limp in her arms. She couldn't see the dog's face, but the man could. He saw the small mouth go slack, the eyes roll back, and he knew.

The Veterinarian laid the dog gently on the table, and bent over him. "I'm sorry," the Dr. said. "He's dead. It looks like strychnine poisoning. It acts that fast."

The old man steadied himself against the table. "Are you alright, Sir," the Dr. asked.

"Yes," the man said, "when you're my age you get used to dying."

The granddaughter turned to hide her tears, and walked into the waiting room. A woman, who realized what had happened, went to the girl and put her arm around her.

"Thank you," the girl said gaining control. "I'll be alright now."

As she walked back into the examining room she heard the old man saying, "You'll take care of Coco for me, Doctor?"

"Oh, yes Sir," the Veterinarian replied kindly.

"Come on, Grandpa," the girl said, "We best go home now."

The old man looked for the last time at the still little body on the table.

"I'll miss him," he muttered. "He was a good friend."

Tribute to my dad, 1982

I wrote that article in 1975 when I was editor of the Southwest Texan in Uvalde. The man, Al Heskett, was my father.

We ran across the clipping the other day and I was struck again by the particular magic that he found in children and animals. In fact the world as a whole held his interest, especially the people in it.

My mother used to complain with a sigh that she had spent half of her marriage waiting for him, a fair estimate.

She would be sitting in the car by a filling station gas pump waiting...because my dad was having an interesting conversation with the attendant.

He was a talker, my dad, but even more he was a listener. His curiosity touched on everything around him. Daily living was an adventure.

His pleasures were simple: the challenge and excitement of working the sales desk on a produce shed; a game of gin rummy with a worthy opponent; a good book beside a comfortable chair.

He was a big man, athletic, he trained until he was well into his 30's. Probably because of that he never smoked nor drank. Chocolate cake was more his vice.

One time a highway patrolman spotted my dad's car weaving down the road and pulled him over, sure it was a DWI.

What he found was my dad with two fingers of each hand guiding the wheel; the remaining fingers of one hand holding a spoon and the others a hot fudge sundae. As my dad would dip the spoon in the ice cream the car would veer to the left, then as he'd lean to take a bite the car would veer to the right.

"Mister," the officer said with exasperation, "why don't you park until you finish that thing."

My dad had many stories he told on himself, but that was one of his favorites.

In trying to analyze my feelings of him as a father, the thing that stands out was his approval.

If I made a speech, he ignored the words I faltered over and praised the point I brought out strongly.

I grew past my lovely, petite mother when I was still in grade school. But he would never let me slouch to hide my height. "Square those shoulders," he would say. "Walk tall. Proudly. Like a queen."

When I blundered pitifully, and it would have been false to have made less of the incident, he would say, "Ah, but you recovered quickly. You handled it well."

I wasn't alone in his approval. He found little fault in most of those he came in contact with. He was so busy in finding out about them, what they were involved in what they were thinking, that he had little time for criticism.

Several heart attacks, and a stroke weakened his strong body so that the last years of his life were spent quietly taking pleasure in his grandchildren, his dogs.

The article about Coco was written in February. On April 15 of that same year he died quietly in his sleep.

I don't believe he feared death. I think he looked on it as the ultimate interview.

Editorial

I write this editorial to you as a fellow businessman of this county. As I make my daily rounds of visiting with many of you I hear many times how hard times are and at times you have convinced me of that fact.

But the next businessman I talk with tells me of some success he has had or deals he is working on. I hear of local businesses taking advantage of the extra trade the oil and pipeline crews have brought to our community.

How many of us have looked for new and different ways to keep the business that Floyd County people generate in this county and others. Some of our businesses run items that are as well priced as any in the larger cities. When these businesses let the people know that they have these items their sales show it.

We the people of Floyd County if we were to trade at home how many more dollars would pass through each of our hands. It has been said that each dollar spent in this community will turn over 7 times before it leaves. If there is any truth to it this would benefit us all.

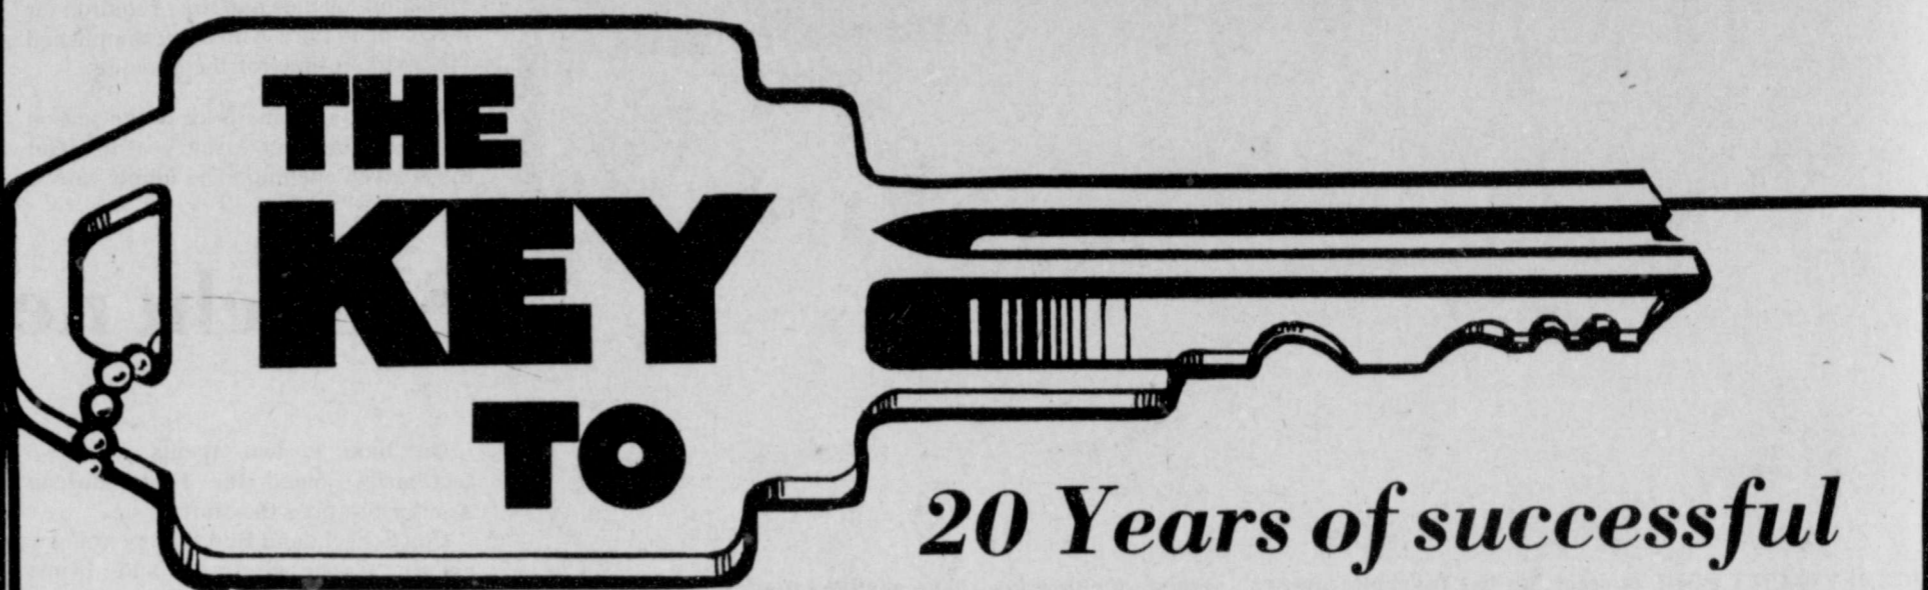

We have in Floyd County many of the items we all travel to Lubbock and Plainview for. We have local craftsmen and women who do some of the best work around. Artists, people who make picture frames, craft shops, leather workers and others, who turn out handmade items that are second to none.

In these days when our farmers economy is not what we want for them we should all do our best to trade with our neighbors, competitors and friends and in the long run will help ourselves. I believe that we as merchants and businessmen should keep as much of the slow economy news in our back office and keep a prosperous outlook as we serve our customers and friends.

MR. AND MRS. DELBUR ROSE received a broken windshield last week while they were at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Rose on Second Street during the storm. The hole had to be reinforced before the Roses could return to their home in Plainview because the remaining part of the windshield would sweep back into the car. The hole caused by the hailstone measured 10.6 inches in circumference.

Gift shop opens in Floydada in July

The Cora Lee Shipley home on Main Street is being remodeled and will be opened around the first of July as a unique tea room and gift shop.

Owners are Frances Easter and Elaine LaBaume.

Named the Olde White House, the restaurant will be open from 10 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Lunch will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Coffee, tea and the "Pastry of the Day" will be served in the morning and afternoon.

"Since both of us either are teaching or have taught," Elaine said, "we will be open later in the afternoon especially for the teachers and school personnel."

The house, with its high ceilings and sculptured glass windows, will be decorated in antiques. The antiques will be for sale along with a line of gift items.

Frances has carried out a program of luncheons served to Floydadians through the VEH Home Ec Department at Della Plains school the past two years.

Gary Kleypas new pastor

The Rev. Gary Kleypas of Winters became pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church Providence. He was installed Sunday in a 4 p.m. service.

The Rev. Henry Schulte of Austin, director of personnel for the Southern District of the American Lutheran Church, participated in the installation service.

A supper and reception to honor Pastor Kleypas, his wife Sharon, and their two-year-old son Jeff, was held after the service.

Pastor Kleypas, 33, was raised in the Buckholts community near Cameron. He is a graduate of Texas Lutheran College at Seguin and of Wartburg Seminary in Iowa. He was ordained in 1975 and has served parishes in Malone and Sagerton, and also worked in a drug abuse prevention center in Temple.

Mrs. Kleypas, 30, was raised near Sagerton. She is a graduate of Texas Tech University and has been teaching home economics near Winters.

CHILDREN in the fifth and sixth grades have not been telling stories with puppets, but they have been making puppets also. Donna Vernon, Julie Diepenhorst, Lucinda Mohagen, Amy Ansley, Carrie Parrish, and Tracy McConnell have worked under the direction of Debra Parrish on this project.

Turner, Sanders to wed August 7 in Fritch

Mr. and Mrs. Billy G. Turner, of Fritch, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gaye Lynn, to Otis Jack Sanders III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jack Sanders Jr. of Weatherford, Oklahoma.

Vows will be exchanged at 7 p.m. August 7 in the First Southern Baptist Church of Fritch.

Miss Turner is a graduate of Sanford-Fritch High School and of Frank Phillips College. At FPC, she was a member of the New Dawn Singers and was named "Plainsman of the Year."

She earned a B.S. degree in Elementary education at Panhandle State University this month. She was a candidate for homecoming queen and second runner-up for Miss Panhandle State University. She is listed in

"Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." Gaye is the granddaughter of Mrs. John Walker and the late John Walker and Mrs. C.A. Turner and the late C.A. Turner, of Floydada.

Mr. Sanders, a graduate of Texhoma High School in Texhoma, Oklahoma, is a 1982 cum laude graduate of Panhandle State University. He earned a B.S. degree in accounting and business administration.

He was on the national dean's list, was a member of the Student Senate, was vice president of Phi Beta Lambda, and is listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

He will begin work June 1, with Getty Oil Co. in Houston.

JACK SANDERS, GAYE TURNER

Black, Collins announce July wedding plans

Mr. and Mrs. James King wish to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nora Cornelius to Mr. Timothy Jerome Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Collins. The couple will be married July 10th at Mount Zion Baptist Church. They will reside in Floydada where they are both employed.

Old fashioned ceremony unites Assiter, Campbell

Janie Hagood Assiter became the bride of Douglas Neal Campbell in a simple old-fashioned wedding ceremony Saturday morning, May 29th in the home of the bride's parents. Billy Joe Whittaker of Matador, a friend of the groom's family, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The couple are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hagood of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Campbell of Matador.

Baby orchids from Hawaii, brass candleholders with candles in shades of lavender and English Ivy decorated the mantle and formed a background for the wedding party.

Flute selections were presented by Miss Deanne Howard, including "Morning Has Broken", "Somewhere Over the Rainbow", and "Evergreen".

The couple left for a brief honeymoon to the Inn of the Mountain Gods in Ruidoso after which they will be at home in Matador.

nosegays. Billy Paul Campbell of Childress served his brother as best man. Brad Hagood, brother of the bride, seated the guests who were members of the bride's and groom's families.

Following the ceremony, friends were invited for a small reception. The two-tiered all white wedding cake topped with an arrangement of orchids was made by the bride.

Old-fashioned lemonade was served from an antique punch bowl and coffee from a copper service. Finger sandwiches and assorted nuts completed the refreshments, which were served by Mrs. Rance Young, Mrs. Brent Sanders, Mrs. Rick Fuller, Judy Emert and Kathy Smith.

The couple left for a brief honeymoon to the Inn of the Mountain Gods in Ruidoso after which they will be at home in Matador.

COURTESIES

The happy couple was honored with a miscellaneous shower in Matador at the home of Mrs. Bruce Mars.

Girlhood friends of the bride honored her with a shower May 15 in the home of Mrs. Rick Fuller.

Couple friends were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brent Sanders.

The church family of the bride surprised her with a gift going-away party before church services on May 23. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Campbell, parents of the groom, assisted by their son Billy Paul and his wife, Lori, served the entire bridal party and their families with a bountiful supper in their home on Friday night preceding the wedding.

D'Lee Marble honoree of bridal shower

D'Lee Marble, bride-elect of Dale Powell, was honored with a bridal shower, Saturday, June 5 at the home of Mrs. Travis Young.

Receiving guests were Mrs. Young, the honoree, her mother Mrs. Keith Marble, and Dale's mother, Mrs. Melvin Powell.

Special guests were grandmothers, Mrs. Jewel Fowler, Crosbyton, Mrs. Byron Powell, Ralls, and Mrs. George H. Robertson, Plainview.

Lori King, Shandra Simpson, and Theresa Whiteley presided at the serving table. The table was covered with an ecru embroidered cloth. The centerpiece was of blue and brown silk flowers flanked by blue candles. Silver tea and coffee services were used.

Childhood memories recalled

The Love Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Flora Fawver for their luncheon and business meeting.

The afternoon was spent in recalling memories of childhood days.

The following were present: Grace Hamilton, Kate Crabtree, Estelle Eubanks, Nettie Adams, Iva Benson, Lillian Donothan, Ava Jackson, Flora Warren, A.S. Mize and Flora Fawver. Jo Moore from Birmingham, Alabama was a guest.

MR. AND MRS. JAMIE LEON MCCULLOCH

Hooten, McCulloch repeat wedding vows

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Hooten in the Providence Community provided a yard setting for uniting their daughter, Rhonda Beth, in marriage to Jaime Leon McCulloch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McCulloch of Lockney, on Saturday June 5th at 3 p.m.

Reading vows for the couple was Dale Rowell of Dumas, uncle of the bride. Dixie Rowell of Lubbock, the bride's aunt, read I Corinthians 13.

The bride wore a multi-colored plaid prairie skirt and white blouse for her wedding. Something old and borrowed was a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother. Something blue was the traditional bride's garter. Her wedding attire was new. The groom wore a shirt very similar in print and color to the bride's skirt.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Backdrop for the ceremony was a lovely row of cedar trees. She carried a bouquet of silk daisies and other multi-colored prairie flowers. In her hair she wore blue daisies.

The bride's table was laid with an ecru lace tablecloth laid over pink. Her bouquet was added for decoration. The multi-tiered cake was decorated with white icing and pink roses. It was baked, decorated and given to the bride and groom as a wedding present by Lena Casanova of Plainview. Serving punch and cake to the wedding guests were Virginia Stapp, cousin of the bride, Tina Hooten, sister of the bride, and Janette Stephan.

The couple left for a short wedding trip before returning to their home in Hale Center where McCulloch is employed by DeJarnett Development as a welder.

Smith Family reunion to be held June 25-27

Plans are being made now for the annual Smith-Mickey family reunion, to be held at the Ceta Glen Christian Church Camp, located east of Happy, Texas on June 25-27.

C.W. and Annie Smith were pioneer residents of Floyd County, coming to Della Plain in 1890 from Bosque County.

Of the original thirteen children of this couple, only five are left: Mrs. Irene Pope, Amarillo; Mrs. Maggie Tinnin of Amarillo; Mrs. Alice Smith of Amarillo; Almr N. Holmes of Duncanville, and Mi'on and his wife, Bertha Ragel Smith of Mountainair, New Mexico.

All plan to be at the reunion along with numerous children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Members will come from as far away as Oregon state to Washington, D.C., as well as most states in between, such as New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma, Kansas, Florida, Missouri, etc.

The clan is especially looking forward to Friday, June 25, when most of them will be in Floydada for the dedication of the historical marker at the Old Della Plain Cemetery. Several members of the Mickey family are buried there.

The dedication service will take place at 2:00 p.m. at Della Plain Cemetery six miles north on the Silverton Highway. Speaking at the program will be Milton Smith, Kline Nall and J.W. Bedingfield, along with members of other pioneer families and celebrities.

The public is cordially invited to attend these dedication services.

Athenas learn about computers

Athena Study Club met Thursday, June 10, in the home of Mary Ann Kring, Lockney. The meeting opened with a devotional from Psalm 149 given by Charlotte Mitchell.

David Howard, a former sixth grade teacher at Ash Elementary in Plainview, presented a very informative program on computers. He gave a brief history of computers in which he told about the first computer, developed by the Navy in the early 1950's. Athenians also learned that the origination of the expression that something "has a bug in it" came about when a moth was found caught between two wires in that first computer, causing it to malfunction. The first computers were so highly technical that only specialists could manage them. Our world is now advanced to the point that computers are common in many offices and some homes.

Following the program, delicious ice cream sundaes were served by the hostess and co-hostess, Peggy Hall-mark. President Charlotte Mitchell called the evening business meeting to order. Members discussed and decided to sponsor the summer Story Book Hour at the local library. The theme for these sessions is to be "Space Capers." The annual Old Fashioned Saturday Night was also discussed. Members are being asked to save items for a possible flea market at that time. The club will sell snowcones again this year at the event, scheduled for August 21.

Members present for the meeting were: Judy Schacht, Tanya Covington, Martha Sue Lusk, Vida Hrbacek, Donnie Meriwether, Virginia Owens, Barbara Mathis, Charlotte Mitchell, Peggy Hallmark, Kathy Hunter, Janie Klein, and Mary Ann Kring. Also present was one guest, Barbara Cawley.

The next Athena meeting will be the annual Family Hamburger cookout at the home of Larry and Jill Golden on July 8.

MACHINE EMBROIDERY CLASSES

Machine embroidery classes will be taught in Floydada beginning Friday, June 18 and continuing on June 25 and July 2. Classes will be from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the Agriculture Building on the Courthouse Square. Cost for the 12 hours of instructions will be $30. Interested persons should bring a portable sewing machine with a zig-zag stitch and a pair of scissors. Thread and embroidery hoops will be available for purchase. Machines should be oiled and in good working condition.

SILK NEEDS SPECIAL CLEANING

Silk fashions need special cleaning techniques to preserve the longlasting, hard-wearing qualities. Dry cleaning won't hurt any silk, but handwashing is better for some washable silk. Above all, read care labels and follow instructions.

Handwashing in warm water actually "refreshes" washable silk, rejuvenating a gum-like coating put on by the silk worm in the fiber stage. Called "sericin," the coating is a natural sizing that dry cleaning does not destroy or refresh.

In handwashing, take special-care steps. Handwash in lukewarm water with mild soap. Rinse the garment and gently press out excess water in a towel. Do not wring or twist. Smooth and straighten seams and air dry fabrics out of direct sunlight until slightly damp. While damp, press on wrong side with steam.

Careful handwashing will not harm solid silks, such as broadcloth, pongee and crepe de chine, but do not wash iridescents. Since silk cannot be made colorfast, do not wash prints or very bright colors. Dry clean them instead. Also, take stained garments to a professional dry cleaner. Remove water spots or surface shines on washables by dunking the garment in warm water and then letting it dry.

To keep white silks white, occasionally put a drop or two of ammonia and hydrogen peroxide into warm sudsy water, and wash the garment in that.

To remove yellowing from a pale-color silk, add three tablespoons of white vinegar to cool water, and wash the garment in it.

To prevent unremovable perspiration and sticky deodorant stains, use dress shields.

Flora McNeill honored at Eastern Star meeting

Floydada Chapter No. 31, O.E.S. met Thursday, June 10, 1982, in the Masonic Hall, with the newly installed worthy matron and worthy patron presiding at the meeting, honoring Grand Esther of the Order of Eastern Star.

During the business meeting, the secretary read a letter from the Grand Examiner, District II, Mrs. Betty Phillips, which revealed that twelve members of Floydada Chapter had earned "A" certificates at the Eastern Star School of Instruction held at Canyon in February; namely, Frances Crass, Ruth Daniel, Dell Gray, Geneva Griffin, Bobby Kendrick, Jean Kendrick, Glen Lindsey, Lillian Lindsey, Flora McNeill, Noma Lou Rainer, Roberta Russell and Wayne Russell.

Annual reports were given by Jr. Past Matron, Mrs. Jean Kendrick; and Secretary Anne Swepton, who reported that the membership of Floydada Chapter is now 178, which number includes 60 affiliated members from Silverton Chapter, which consolidated with Floydada Chapter in June, 1981.

During the meeting, the Worthy Matron recognized the grand officers present: Mrs. Roberta Russell, member of the Music Committee; and Wayne Russell, member of the Masonic Relations Committee, both of the Grand Chapter of Texas, O.E.S.

As an expression of appreciation of their faithfulness and contribution to the Order, the Worthy Matron recognized the past matrons and past patrons present, who were Jean Kendrick, Ruth Daniel, Frances Crass, Roberta Russell, Flora McNeill, Eula Par-rack, Anne Swepton, Wayne Russell and M.J. McNeill.

Special recognition was given to Mrs. Flora McNeill, who has served this year as Grand Esther of the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star. She was seated in the East with the Worthy Matron in a place of honor and given a fitting tribute by Mrs. Regi Gross. As token of the Chapter's love and appreciation of her service to the Floydada Chapter and the Order of Eastern Star, the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron presented Mrs. McNeill with the emblem of the Star point, Esther, a crown and scepter with a triangle, which was made of stained glass by Bobby Rainer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray and Mrs. Trina Savage hosted a social hour in the dining hall after the Chapter closed.

Students named on Deans' List

Two Lockney area students attending Angelo State University in San Angelo, are listed on the Dean's honor roll for the Spring semester at the University.

Those listed on the 3.00 to 3.49 honor roll include Donny Dwight Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wiley, a health and physical ed. major and Julie Michelle Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hall Ferguson, a health and physical ed. major.

Rainers installed in O.E.S. ceremony

In an impressive service, June 5, 1982, in the Floydada Masonic Hall, Mrs. Noma Lou Rainer and Bobby E. Rainer were installed as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, respectively, of Floydada Chapter No. 31, O.E.S. for the year 1982-83.

The ceremony opened with a musical prelude by Mrs. Amy Marjorie Hollums and prayer by Noman Hamilton, father of the Worthy Matron.

Kay Lyn and Mary Ann Rainer, daughters of the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, presented the Bible and Square and Compasses at the altar.

Others participating in the opening ceremony were the Rev. Jim Smith, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, who led the Lord's Prayer; Bob Kendrick, leading the pledge to the flag; and Bobby Rainer, who led the national anthem.

Mrs. Lucille Hancock, aunt of the Worthy Patron, was the Installing Officer, assisted by Wayne Russell; Mrs. Roberta Russell, Installing Marshal; Mrs. Louise Hamilton, mother of the Worthy Matron, was the Installing Chaplain; Mrs. Amy Hollums, Installing Organist; and Noman Hamilton, Installing Secretary.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Dell Gray, Associate Matron; Bill Gray, Associate Patron; Anne Swepton, Secretary; Mrs. Melba Vickers, Treasurer; Mrs. Regi Gross, Conductress; Mrs. Sherry Colston, Associate Conductress; Mrs. Eula Parrack, Chaplain; Keith Gross, Marshal; Mrs. Trina Savage, Organist; Mrs. Frances Crass, Adah; Mrs. Jean Kendrick, Ruth; Mrs. Mary Myers, Esther; Mrs. Ruth Daniel, Martha; Mrs. Fern Hartsell, Electa; Bob Vickers, Warder; and Bob Kendrick, Sentinel.

Following the installation, a musical program was presented by Mary Ann and Bobby Rainer singing "Bind Us Together, Lord," accompanied by Kay Kenner; a piano selection, "Rhapsody on a Theme From Paganini" by Kay Lyn Rainer; and a solo, "The Star of the East" by Mary Ann Rainer, accompanied by Kay Kenner.

The newly installed Worthy Matron was honored by the presentation of gifts: a gavel, presented by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton; and a traveling Worthy Matron's pin, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray. This pin will be presented to each succeeding Worthy Matron at installation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kendrick were presented past matron's and past patron's pins by Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rainer.

The installation service closed with the benediction given by Bobby Rainer.

In her greetings to the Chapter, Mrs. Rainer gave her theme for the year as "Peace and Harmony Through Love"; her motto, "Where Love Is, Harmony Lives"; Scripture, Romans 12:18; her purpose, "Let Peace and Harmony prevail and Love endure"; and her watchwords, Peace and Love. Her colors for the year were carried out in the decorations in the Chapter room, fellowship hall, and the color of the dresses of the elected officers, those colors being shades of red.

The Worthy Matron's chosen flower is the red rose and her emblem, the dove of peace. Baskets of red roses, crocheted by Mrs. W.B. Parrack, with a white dove perched on the handle of the basket, decorated the Chapter room and the serving table in the dining hall, where immediately following the installation service, a reception was held, hosted by the past matrons of the Chapter.

South Plains Vacation Bible School comes to an end

BY MRS. MURRAY JULIAN
South Plains, June 14:
Today, June 14, is Flag Day. Those of us who have flags should have them bravely displayed, for this is a great country, our America, and I for one, am truly proud to be called an American. The first flag was made in 1777, and at that time there were 13 stars, and now there are 50, since Alaska and Hawaii were entered as states 23 years ago. God Bless America!

Sunday morning was black and stormy, and wind and rain lashed South Plains just before church time. Less than 30 were able to get to the South Plains Baptist Church, but the sun came out and we had a beautiful day Sunday. We had one half an inch in the mornings rain. Visitors Sunday morning at Sunday School and church included Mrs. Emily Bragg of Duncan, Oklahoma, who was a house guest of Darla and Jerry Chappell. She left Sunday evening for her home in Oklahoma.

South Plains Vacation Bible School closed out Sunday night with a commencement and family night, where teachers told what the children had made and enjoyed during the week, and then rooms with their work were opened and displayed to all the visiting parents and everyone adjourned to the fellowship hall where refreshments and a time of visiting were enjoyed. Such precious little children as they were! Mrs. Royce (Kay) Bethel was director of the VBS, and there was an enrollment of 31, with an average of 29. Mrs. Diane Johnson played the piano for them; Mrs. Nina Sanders led the singing, and headed the refreshments, and teachers were: Mrs. Nelda Staples, assisted by Stacy Staples and Jenesse Lemons; Mrs. Connie Johnson had the kindergarten and 2nd graders, with helpers, Mitzi Julian and Mrs. Joyce Osborne, and Mrs. Janis Julian had 3rd thru 6th grades assisted by Mrs. Linda Clarke and Kristi Julian.

Mrs. Nina Sanders was head of the refreshment committee at the Vacation Bible School, and thanks go to those who brought refreshments. Monday, Darla Chappell and Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr. served. Tuesday, Mrs. Bonnie Julian served; Wednesday, Mrs. Letha Mulder and Mrs. Mildred Hamm brought the refreshments; Thursday, Mrs. Carlene Johnson and Mrs. Shari Smith served; and Friday, Mrs. Gleyne Earle Cummings and Mrs. Helen Teple brought refreshments. Sunday evening there were sandwiches, cookies, tea, coffee and punch served to all the guests and others attending. The Vacation Bible School was thoroughly enjoyed by the children, the teachers, and we owe a lot of thanks to all those who worked so hard to make it such a happy, good week.

Mrs. Linda Clark and her girls, Angie and Kelly, left Friday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crabb of Silverton for a family reunion which was held with their family members down near Waco. They were to return home this Monday.

Another family reunion was held in Amarillo at the Thompson Park for members of the Holland family, Sunday, June 13. There were 69 who gathered, and a bountiful lunch was spread for everyone. Pictures were taken, and families visited together. Due to rains and storms around, there were less present than last year. Those who went from here were Mrs. Letha Mulder, who accompanied her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wayland and Florene Fitzgerald of Rock Creek. The reunion lasted all Sunday, and those from here who went were in the terrific rain storm which was in our area early Sunday morning.

We are very happy to hear that Mrs. I.H. Parks (Maurine) is in hopes of getting to come home this Tuesday, June 15. She has had to have some additional surgery, but she is getting along well at this time. She has been down in Lubbock at the Methodist Hospital for the past three weeks.

E.J. Kinslow was dismissed from the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock last Friday, and we are glad to find he is getting along well at his home. He had been in the hospital two weeks with a chest infection.

Mrs. Nathan Mulder (Kathy) with Cory and Cindy is in Wellington this week in the mornings, where she is teaching Vacation Bible School at the Faith Baptist Church where her husband Nathan is minister. She is driving back and forth each day. Kathy also is looking after her Aunt Ruth who is in the Wellington hospital at this time.

Donald McClure, who has been here with his mother, Mrs. Frank McClure, left Friday, flying to his home in Houston. He has been here since the death of his father, Frank McClure.

The Hobby Club "Breakfast at Mamic's" which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Mamie Wood last Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, had to be postponed last week because of the big rain which came the evening before the breakfast. The rain made the roads inaccessible. This Wednesday, June 16th, at 8:00 a.m. the breakfast is planned again, and it is hoped for dry weather. Please make your plans to attend, because this is the last Hobby Club meeting until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamm went to Amarillo Friday and took their grandson, four year old Duane Huff, back to his parents, after they had kept him with them two weeks, while his father, Pat Huff was recuperating from a fall through the attic of their home, and had surgery following the fall. He is doing well now.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan and Bobbie Kinnibrough went to see his father, J.A. Kinnibrough Wednesday in the hospital at Seymour as it was too wet to work in the fields. He is getting along just fine.

Jeremy Gilbreath of Perryton fell Thursday at his home and broke his collar bone. He is the six year old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Powell, and son of Wanda and Gary Gilbreath of Perryton.

Granddaughter of Mrs. Alvin Nichols, Daveyonna, from Virginia Beach, Virginia, was in a spelling match last week in her school, and she won the spelling bee over five classes of 3rd graders of her school. Mrs. Judy Allen in Virginia Beach said they were having much rain there at this time.

There was rain here Monday, Tuesday, and Sunday, with tornado reports reported nearly every night. Many farmers have had to replant crops, and there is no way of knowing how much more will have to be replanted. We can be glad the tornadoes have not done damage here.

Miss D'Lee Marble, bride-elect of Dale Powell, was honored with a delightful rice bag party, Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Fred Marble (Carolyn) in South Plains.

The serving table was centered with an arrangement of agapanthus and magnolia leaves. Tiny sandwiches, fresh fruit, cookies, coffee, tea and cakes were served to guests attending, and they sat around tables where they made little rice bags, which will be used in the wedding.

Guests were the honoree, D'Lee Marble, and mother of the bride, Mrs. Neta Marble, her grandmother, Mrs. Lela Robertson of Plainview. Her cousins, Kim Wells, Donette Marble from Lubbock, and Cindy Marble of South Plains. Mrs. Ouita Powell of Crosbyton mother of the groom-to-be, Mrs. Jewell Fowler, of Ralls, grandmother of the groom-to-be, Lisa Ware, Deanne Fry of Floydada, Jo Betsy Hopson, Glenna Hopson, La Deanna Gaitner, Glenna Kay Butler of Plainview were present and the hostesses Mrs. Nancy Marble and Mrs. Carolyn Marble. Miss D'Lee Marble and her fiancée Dale Powell will be married Friday, June 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Floydada, with a reception following in the Wall Street parlor.

MRS. CLAUDE PRICE and her granddaughter, Gayle Dean and her husband Wayne Dean from Las Vegas proudly show their twin century plants.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

The weather has been real stormy this week. Trees have been blown down and things like that. The wheat is going to be later and later if the rain don't stop.

Monday we played games. The ceramics man did not come. Tuesday we had Bible study with a good group of residents there. Wednesday we played bingo with four residents playing. W.C. Cates won two games, Sue Thompson won three games, Emmet Lawrence won four games, and Una Clark won five games. They all really enjoy playing bingo very much. Thursday we had crafts and the residents made golden foil pictures and enjoy it. Friday we had two good movies.

We want to welcome a new resident, Mr. A.J. Standifer, who came to live in the home Monday. He is in eight West if you know him come visit him and even if you don't know him visit him anyway. He would appreciate it if you would visit him.

The birthday party for the month is June 17th. Come help us wish the honorees a happy birthday.

Mr. Lawrence has made his two hundredth owl. It will be hanging on the wall in the lobby for you to see. We will be raffling off his two hundredth and one owl in the future.

Here is a list of visitors for the week: Dorris Tobin, Illa Belle McPeak, Otis, Dana, Kim and Jo Lee Ellis, Betty Draper, J.T. and Dorothy Roberts, Jimmy and Susan Roberts, Alisha Roberts, Rodney Roberts, Debra, Jason and Justin Bailey, Dixie Harris, Illa Belle McPeak.

Also, Gene Baird, Ana Lee Brown, Maurice and Ella Goodwin, Hazel Bradley and Kim, Estelle Eubanks, Thelma Fawver, Tammy Wilcox, Mae Joyce Smith, James and Joyce Crowley, Corene and Murry Stewart, W.H. Eubanks, Rebecca Smith, Ruth Harrison, Inez Furrow, Dick Furrow, Charley L. Smith hosts Extension Club June 8th

Mrs. Lillian Smith was hostess to the Homebuilders Extension Club June 8 and roll call was answered with "The oldest outfit I still wear."

Several members said they still wore the first pantsuit (knit) that they had made or bought and that comfortable old nightgown that just can't be thrown away.

The program was presented by Ruth Trapp on "Create the look you like with color." Your hair, skin, and eye color should be considered when selecting your best color. Color sets the mood you are in, so when you are depressed put on your brightest colors and bring your spirits up.

Members attending were Gladys Widener, Ruth Trapp, Blanche Williams, Lela Mae Burns, Eunice Hong, Muri Mayfield, Lillian Smith, Inez Walker and Barbara Willis.

Members were reminded of the county-wide luncheon which will be held June 22, along with an auction for council funds. The program will be given by Mrs. Mona Bond on "Electric Decorating."

JEAN HALE continues the time honored tradition of feeding the squirrels that reside on the Floydada town square. This tradition was started by the late Mark Martin, one of Floydada's founding fathers. Mrs. Hale feeds the squirrels twice a week or when they are out. After Mr. Martin's death no one fed them. Mrs. Hale said that "worried me so." She has been feeding these squirrels for about a year.

Center Community receives hail

BY MRS. J.E. GREEN

June 14: We've had more rain and wind since a week ago, much of it at nite. There has been some hail, not very destructive. Gardens are growing. It is partly cloudy today.

Among the sick — Mrs. Amelia Ashton in the Lockney Rest Home is reported about the same. Mrs. Bud Warren is a patient in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital. We trust she will soon be better.

Gene Mayfield and family of Henrietta visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mayfield. They came Wednesday and visited over the weekend.

Mrs. Leo Frizzell and Mrs. Ava Jackson visited Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carpenter recently.

Mrs. Roe Jones' daughter, Christine Perry of Petersburg, is visiting her mother today.

Mrs. Victor Green of Plainview and son Steve visited Ma Green Wednesday afternoon. Steve was home on vacation. Friday he left for Providence, Rhode Island to resume work at Brown University.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch and son David of Lubbock spent over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas.

Mrs. Ola Warren and Mrs. Fred Battey were guests of the Thomas Warrens Saturday.

A birthday dinner honoring their son Don. Also present were Mrs. Paul Stout and girls of Muleshoe, Miss Joyce Owens and sons, city, Ed Warren and family and other young people. Surely Don had a happy birthday.

The Doyle Sandifurs don't seem to be home today.

Mrs. Fulkerson's company today are Mrs. Opal Smith of Conroe, Texas and Oleta Smith of Bayfield, Colorado.

Thursday will be Senior Citizen's Day at the Center.

Calvary Baptist Church and others were saddened last Tuesday when Mr. Hubert Davis passed away in a Plainview hospital. Another of our faithful members has gone to his reward. Last rites were held in Calvary Church Thursday. Bro. Payne presiding. Our sympathy is with his loved ones and his many friends.

I can't get the Henry Brewers today. Their near neighbor said they were probably out in the garden. And they were.

Eula Mae and Chic Wilson and John Wilson of Ralls were supper guests in the home of John D. and Pauline VanHoose last Saturday evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. Vance Mitchell and girls went to Okemah, Oklahoma Saturday evening to attend the wedding of her father, the Rev. H.E. Barnard of Eakly, Oklahoma to Nola Rogers. The wedding took place in the Assembly of God Church in Okemah and the couple will make their home in Eakly where he is pastor of the Assembly of God Church.

Mattie Davis accompanied Gus and Agnes Wesley to California visiting relatives and making a tour of interest recently. On the way they visited Gus's brother, Carl Wesley in Galap, New Mexico, Lelia and Dooley in Suter Creek, California and the Cosby's in Selma, California. They went to Boulder Dam, Disney Land, Grand Canyon and the Painted Desert in Kansas and other points of interest before returning to their homes in Plainview last week.

Belle Lemons sustained a painful injury to her leg some time ago when she fell and it is showing some improvement at this time.

Several from Cedar Hill attended the Vacation Bible School at South Plains Baptist Church last week. Kay Bethel was the director of the school and Shelly Jayme, Bethel, Twyla and Traca Lemons, Brandi and Casey Lackey, and Trudi Gilly attended the school and Jenese Lemons helped. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lackey and Mack, Mr. Royce Bethel, Trudi Gilly and baby, Linda Lemons and Vance and Grace Lemons also were present for the commencement exercises Sunday evening and enjoyed refreshments of sandwiches.

cookies and Kool-Aid and coffee in the fellowship hall after they viewed the work the children had been doing all week.

Joyce Harper of Stamford Lack, Twyla Woodring and children, Tammy and Ricky of Plainview visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Lemons and Latrica and Durrel Fortenberry Monday.

Donnie and Carla Fortenberry of Amarillo are the proud parents of a baby boy, Eric Wayne, born May 26 in the Northwest Hospital in Amarillo. He weighed 9 lbs. and 4 ozs. and was 21 1/2 inches long. He has an older brother, Chad. Grandparents are Barbra Arwine of Amarillo and Gene Arwine of Floydada, Marcia Fortenberry of Amarillo and Durrel and Latrica Fortenberry of Cedar Hill.

The best way to promote a good cause is to give a good example.

Mamie Wood, Art Linkletter work on People Plus, Inc. seminar

Most people probably think that Mamie Wood has her hands full taking care of her lovely home in South Plains. However, in addition to her household duties, Mamie has been working for People Plus, Inc., a positive-living seminar production company located in Lubbock, Texas.

People Plus, Inc. is a corporation which sponsors events that feature well-known speakers who specialize in personal growth, development, and motivation. Her daughter, Juanel Teague, is the president of People Plus, Inc.

Mamie worked closely with Art Linkletter on an event in Lubbock, and worked as the Assistant Office Manager in Baton Rouge on an event which took place on April 27 that featured Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, Zig Zigler, and Ed Foreman. She looks forward to working on future events throughout the southwestern United States.

Gas pipeline bisects Floyd County

[Photos and story by Wes Brown]

[3]

Natural gas is a precious natural resource. Many people depend on it for a primary source of energy. Thanks to the new pipeline that is being constructed four miles west of Floydada more gas will reach people that need this valuable fuel.

The pipeline bisects Floyd County from the southwest to the northeast. The total length is approximately 295 miles long. It starts at the Wheeler gas fields in Wheeler County and will end in an Odessa receiving plant.

Majestic-Wiley Contractors Ltd. is constructing the section from Lubbock to Silverton. This 67.2 mile stretch of pipeline cost approximately 12 million dollars, according to Majestic-Wiley office manager Tony Hudson.

Hudson said that they employ about 240 men and two women with a gross payroll of $265,000. Approximately one third of this payroll will stay in the local community.

Hudson said that they are "working well with the local community" and "they are getting a lot of cooperation there." The pipeline was started April 19 and is due to be completed July 15 with everything on schedule.

BUD BURGESS, fore-man over tie-in crew, directs the lining up of the pipeline [1]. Kevin Gilmore, Jack Rodgers and Dave Harlan put spacers in the end of the casing [2]. The seams of the pipe must be free of mud before they can be welded [3]. The next section of pipe is ready to be placed in line [4]. Greg Ford, radio graphic inspector, waits to X-ray the welds in the pipeline [5].

Library News

The following 16mm films and filmstrips are now available at the Floyd County Library:

Basketry. 15 min. Color. 1975. ACI Media. JH-A

Shows the varied methods and purposes, through history and in present countries of the world, of this ancient art. Use of modern materials in the two principal techniques, coiling and twining, are clearly demonstrated.

The Case of the Elevator Duck. 17 min. Color. 1974. Learning Corporation of America. EI-JH

Gilbert is a young boy who considers himself a detective. His efforts to locate the owner of a duck found in his apartment building elevator turn out to be his most difficult case—for the parents as well as himself.

Creative Arts and Crafts of Mexico. 16 min. Color. 1975. Films, Inc. EI

Regional handicrafts of Mexico, showing basketry, pottery, architectural decoration, glassblowing, woodwork, textile and mural work. Puppets add humor to this introduction for children.

Elsa and Her Cubs. 25 min. Color. 1971. Benchmark Films. EI-A

The original film documentary by Joy and George Adamson about the development of their relationship with a wild lioness. An honest, personal study.

Fishing On The Coast of Japan. 14 min. Color. 1963. International Film Foundation, Inc. JH-A

The hard life of the fisherman is shown. With Japanese music, but no narration the film is highly visual.

Goliath II. 15 min. Color. 1959. Disney Educational Media. Pre-EI

Animated cartoon about an elephant only five inches tall, whose parents are ashamed of him until he rescues the stampeding herd from an attacking mouse.

How About You? A Film On Birth Control and Sexuality. 25 min. Color. 1972. Texture Films. SH-A

Explains how the female body functions and clarifies the major methods of birth control, emphasizing the changing roles and responsibilities of young women today.

If It Doesn't Work, Complain. 15 min. Color. 1975. Journal Films. JH-A

The film highlights the many steps the individual consumer can take to recover the loss from the purchase of an unreliable product or service — from shopping sensibly, to the proper procedure for registering complaints, to the legal avenues available.

Magic Rolling Board. 15 min. Color. 1976. Pyramid Films. EI-SH

A fast-paced look at the limitless variety of skateboarding movement, photographed from a multitude of angles. Ingenious sound effects and electronic music heighten this ballet of the sidewalks.

Martin Luther King, Jr.: From Montgomery to Memphis. 27 min. B&W. 1969. BFA Educational media. SH-A

An award-winning documentary narrative of the Civil Rights Movement as exemplified through the activist career of Martin Luther King, Jr. Ranges from the successful boycott of the Montgomery buses starting in 1955 to the violent year of 1968.

The New Boys. 26 min. Color. 1974. Wombat Productions. JH-A

Profiles a demanding outdoor school for boys aged 13 to 15. Describes a 350-mile canoe trip and shows what the boys learn, not only of outdoor lore, but of cooperation and confidence.

The Owl and The Pussycat. 6 min. Color. 1970. McGraw-Hill Films. Pre-EI

Whimsical tale of the owl and pussycat who take an amorous voyage beneath the light of the moon. From a poem by Edward Lear.

The Promise. 16 min. Color. 1976. Media Guild. EI-A

Concerns the relationship between a father and his daughter. Story of a young girl's love for a neighbor's horse, her personal loss when the horse is sold, and her disappointment over her father's broken promise to take her for one last ride on the horse. Beautifully simple yet realistic.

A Rhyming Dictionary Of Zoo Animals. 10 min. Color. 1977. Journal Films, Inc. Pre-EI

A tour of the zoo in song and rhyme. Scientific fact interwoven with fun in a series of verses certain to delight young children.

The Road To Interdependence. 30 min. Color & sepia. 1976. Screenscope. JH-A

This chronicle of U.S. Foreign relations from VE Day 1945 to 1975 is a record of world political development during that period. Uses excellent newsreel footage to show progression of Cold War, thru Vietnam to present interdependence of developing and developed countries in politics and economics.

Sports For Life. 22 min. Color. 1976. Barr Films. JH-A

Stresses the importance of being active in body and mind. A film about life and sports—about competition with other people and competition with one's self.

Texas Our Texas. 25 min. Color. 1969. Baker & Taylor Educational. EI-A

A film chronicle of the vivid history of Texas, highlighting Indian tribes, Mexican settlements, the struggle for independence from Mexico, statehood, and post Civil War Development up to the present diversified commerce of Texas.

Yukon Territory. 15 min. Color. 1977. Journal Films, Inc. JH-A

Outstanding photographic essay on the land and its animals. Quite beautiful.

Floyd County producers have spent most of this week trying to decide what to do with this year's cotton crop which has been beaten by hail, whipped by wind, burned by sand, drowned by heavy rains and attacked by Thrips, rotary hoes and sandfighters for the past several weeks. Under such adverse weather conditions, development of the cotton plant has been poor and the outlook for any immediate relief to the increasing pressure from seedling disease and Thrips is not encouraging. Farmers in Floyd County must decide for themselves whether to leave the poor cotton stand they have or plant an alternate crop in the place and this is not an easy decision considering current production costs and market prices. Producers can do something about their Thrips problem by utilizing the information below taken from Dr. James Lesser's "Focus on Entomology" Newsletter (Anyone wishing to be placed on Dr. Lesser's Newsletter Mailing List can contact Jett Major at the Floyd County Extension Office):

The cotton crop on the South Plains is off to a poor start this year. Our crop is about 10 days to 2 weeks late this year. Some of this lateness is due to planting delays and concern about our unsettled weather, but most of the delay is due to unfavorable growing conditions. Some areas have had to contend with serious problems with seedling disease, and others are showing considerable ascochyta blight, particularly in areas with hail damage and blowing sand. Hopefully, some of the recent warmer weather we have experienced will return to stay and cotton will start to "shank up" and begin to make up for these delays.

Thrips have been a problem this year and many farmers have either used seed treatments, in-furrow treatments at planting, or contact insecticides over the top in an effort to get his crop off to a faster start. Heaviest numbers have been occurring the last several days since wheat has been drying down. With all the wheat acreage we have, it's understandable why we have so many thrips.

Thrips are slender, straw-colored insects about 1/15 inch long, with sucking and rasping mouthparts. Adults are winged and can drift long distances in our frequent winds. Thrips attach leaves and leafbuds and may cause a speckled or flecked silvering of the low leaf surfaces. Heavier damage appears as gnarled, misshapened leaves, or blackened leaves or leaf margins (blackened leaf margins and silvering without specks is usually wind or sand burn).

Under adverse growing conditions, heavy infestations may reduce stand, stunt plant and delay fruiting and maturity. I have even seen thrips blast young squares. Thrips damage is almost always complicated by or compounded by plant damage from driving rains, wind, blowing sand, and diseases. Plants are most susceptible to thrips damage during cool, wet periods when small cotton is "just sitting there" and not growing.

Although thrips are generally considered minor pests because of the difficulty of showing significant yield increases from thrips control, I believe 1982 is a good year to control thrips. I know the economic picture is bleak, but with the heavy thrips pressure we have been experiencing and unfavorable cotton growing conditions, thrips control may be one of the better management strategies this year.

It is important to get some leaf surface area out there so the plants can grow. If thrips are preventing this, then it's time to treat. For those of you who did not use an in-furrow systemic insecticide at planting (TemikR, etc.) or who used treated seed and planted over three weeks ago, get out there and check for thrips. Remember to look for damage on new growth, not last week's damage on old leaves. Where plants have less than 2-4 true leaves, damage is showing up, and thrips number 2-5 per plant, control could be justified, particularly if cotton continues to "sit there"

Remember too that in-furrow insecticides are only going to last 6-8 weeks from planting and seed treatments (includes planter box treatments with Orthene R) only last about three weeks. If damage begins to appear and young, wingless thrips are present (indicating feeding and reproduction), then your treatments have broken down and are no longer effective.

The most commonly used contact insecticides in our area are Bidrin R, Cygon R, toxaphene, and Orthene R. These materials don't cost much either—around 30 to 85 cents per acre for material. I don't know if you can afford to treat by air, but you sure can with a ground rig. Better yet, rig up your sand-fighting rig to spray for the thrips and accomplish two operations with one field trip. If you band the application

Honor won by Jo Goen

Jo Goen, Floydada artist, was recently awarded an honor at the Lubbock Art Association's 1982 Art Classic Juried Show. Her painting, "High Noon", was chosen by the Lubbock National Bank for a purchase award of $300.

This show was the largest that Lubbock has had, with 364 entries received. It was judged by John Harmon and Stan Jacobs, Professors of Art at Midland College.

The show will be hanging at the Garden & Art Center through the month of June for public viewing.
