POTATOES MAKE BIG RETURNS.
Thirteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars From Ten Acres not an Impossible Crop.

L. Weaver and others have shown and are showing what can be done with a few acres of sweet potatoes. Mr. Weaver has in 7 acres this year and expects to secure 12,000 bushels in total. His rows are 3 1-2 feet apart and the plants are set 2 feet in the drill. This is 6,480 plants to the acre. Counting that he has 6,000 good plants, at 2 pounds to the hill, this would give him 12,000 pounds or 250 bushels to the acre, 7 acres 1,750 bushels. At $1.50 per bushel, the total money yield should be $2,625.

The trouble with the Weaver patch is that he has wasted a lot of ground. The rows should have been 3 feet apart and the plants set 18 inches in the drill. This would have given 9680 plants to the acre. Counting that a stand of 9,000 plants would be saved on a ten acre patch, then would be 90,000 hills. A low estimate for potatoes, when properly handled, would be 5 pounds to the hill. (Here again Mr. Weaver underestimates.) A little figuring will bring the yield of sweet potatoes up to the enormous amount of 9,000 bushels on a tract of 10 acres. At a fair living price of $1.50 per bushel or 3 cents per pound, this would give the gross income from a small area of 10 acres at Thirteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars. Who can beat this for a potato story?—Hereford Brand.

Fine Plums.
S. A. Shotwell brought to the News office last week a nice basket of plums for us to sample. There were two kinds: the Shippers Pride and Blue Dams-on and were both of good quality. Mr. Shotwell says that the people of the Panhandle should raise more plums.

Come to Canyon to live.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT NORMAL CLOSSES

CREDIT STUDENTS' WORK OVER AT WEDNESEAY NOON.

This Closes the First Year's Work of the Normal.—Everyone Elated over Success Attained.

The summer quarter of the West Texas State Normal college closed last Wednesday at noon after being in session since May 30. The students presented a petition signed with 77 names a week or so ago asking that school be turned out a week earlier but the faculty thought best to hold the examinations this week and let them return to their homes only three days earlier. During the summer quarter there has been 355 enrolled of which nearly one hundred remained after the second series of state examinations to continue their work for credits. These will return for the fall and winter session which opens September 5th.

Wednesday closed the first year's work of this college and the faculty and others who hold the success of the school at heart are highly elated over the work and advancement accomplished. The students themselves have expressed their appreciation of the interest shown by the people of Canyon and the high educational advantages offered in the courses presented by the faculty. Indeed this year's success marks a milestone in the history of the Plains and shows that one of the best educational institutions in Texas can and will be maintained in the Panhandle.

MEETING COMMENCES TONIGHT.

Rev. S. T. Shore of Hereford will Start Protracted Meeting at Christian Church.

The meeting of the Christian church will start tonight, Rev. S. T. Shore of Hereford, will preach the opening sermon and hold services until Monday, when Rev. J. O. Shelburne, pastor of the Central Christian church of Dallas, will arrive and take charge of the meeting. Rev. J. J. Hutchinson, the local pastor, has been very busy this week making arrangements and getting things in shape and says he is looking forward to a great meeting.

New Rooming House.

Geo. W. Leverton, of Hartley, has furnished the Star Rooming house this week with new furniture and now it is one of the best rooming houses in the city. Mr. Leverton says he will cater to the Normal students.

Dr. Griffin reports a four pound baby boy, born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cullum, Saturday morning. Mother and babe are getting along nicely, and Roy—Oh, he is just treading around on thin air and cannot even see his former friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Irwin, of Hereford, were in the city last week, guests at the Wray home. Mr. Irwin is on the city water commission at Hereford and had come over to examine the pumps at the Normal college.

Louis Maloney returned Sunday from St. Louis and Chicago where he has been buying goods for the Supply Co. He says it is extremely hot in Chicago and it is hard to find a cool place.

CANYON NORMAL HAS WIDE REPUTATION

LEGISLATURE VERY GENEROUS TO SCHOOL IN APPROPRIATION.

Pres. Cousins Tells of Interest taken by People over Texas.—Must Have more Boarding Places.

Upon his return from the business trip to Austin, President R. B. Cousins of the Normal school gave the News the following interview:

The people of the Plains cannot properly appreciate the very oppressive weather which has been prevailing in Texas off the Plains during the summer. The city of Austin and the capitol are especially warm at this season of the year. If the people of this section of the state will establish summer resorts and properly advertise the delightful climate there can be no doubt that hundreds and thousands of people will be glad to avail themselves of the short trip from the heated section to this most delightful country.

This is specially interesting in relation to the State Normal school in Canyon. There can be no doubt that great crowds of teachers will assemble in Canyon during the coming summers just as soon as it can be generally known that the people of Canyon have plenty of boarding house facilities to make the people comfortable while they are here.

It will doubtless be very gratifying to the people of this immediate section to know that our school has made a reputation even during its short existence for doing a high grade of work in all of its departments and for having the best school house in Texas. On every hand I heard the most complimentary statements concerning our present and our future.

My business brought me into contact with many leading men from different sections of the state and it is safe to say that our normal school is as well and as favorably known as other similar schools which are much older. I talked with men from every section of the state and they had already heard of our fine building, climate and unexpected large number of students for the first year.

The prospect for a large attendance during the next regular session could not well be brighter. Just before leaving for Austin we sent out more than 150 catalogues in one day and in response to requests for information concerning the school. A large number of requests are being received daily for this information.

It seems quite probable that the railroads will give us favorable rates from all over the state for next summer, and of course, we will make a persistent and successful effort to advertise these rates among the people who will probably be inclined to come to the Plains for the summer.

The legislature was very generous toward the school in the appropriation for the coming year. If the governor does not find it necessary in the interest of economy to strike out too many items of our appropriation the school will receive from the state approximately one hundred and ten thousand dollars for maintenance and further equipment during the next biennial period.

It was very gratifying to see the universal awakening of a strong educational sentiment among the legislators. Six or eight years ago the most enthusiastic school men could not have hoped with a degree of reason to see the spirit of liberality that is now controlling the legislature in reference to the schools of the state. In a few years this state will have normal schools which are revised in thought and procedure, making rapid strides toward the best in the country. In this forward movement, of course, we hope to put the Normal School at Canyon in the very fore front.

Let the people of Canyon and of Randall County feel perfectly safe in putting their money in better residences, making allowance for a few boarders and in large boarding houses convenient to the normal school. I think it is perfectly safe that we will need accommodations for between five and seven hundred students during the next year. Crop conditions upon the Plains, so far as I could see from the trains and conversation with people traveling, were never better. We have had a very gratifying year at the normal school and the future is full of promise.

Appendicitis Operation.

Alvis Stafford was taken sick last Saturday morning and on examination by Dr. Wilson it was found that he had appendicitis and that an operation would be necessary. Drs. Lumpkin and Thomas of Amarillo were called and together with Dr. Wilson the operation was performed. At last reports the patient was getting along as well as could be expected.

AGED LADY PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. A. L. Christian Died at the Home of her Daughter, Mrs. DeGraftenried, Sunday Morning.

Mrs. A. L. Christian, who had been quite sick for the past few months, peacefully passed away Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. C. DeGraftenried. Mrs. Christian was born in Arkansas Dec. 1, 1842, came to Ellis county, Texas, in 1862 and was married to A. L. Christian the same year. In 1867 they moved to Dallas county and came to Randall county in 1893. For the past few years she has resided with her daughter, Mrs. DeGraftenried.

She leaves besides a host of friends, two children, Mrs. C. M. DeGraftenried and J. S. Christian, both of this city, and two brothers, Chas. Saunders of Higgins; and Louis Saunders of Sweetwater.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the home of her son, J. S. Christian, conducted by Rev. J. A. Wallace. Interment was made in Dreamland Cemetery.

Unloaded Cattle Here.

Collinson & Walsh of Clarendon, unloaded 600 head of steers here this week and drove them to their ranch in New Mexico.

There are some nice peaches being shown by several of our citizens but so far M. P. Garner holds all the honors. Last week he was showing a peach that measured 10 1-2 inches around and weighed 11 ounces. This peach was raised by Mrs. Emma Cobb on West Houston St.

C. W. Warwick, of Canyon, Texas, arrived here Monday to spend a couple of weeks with his parents. A year ago Clyde went to Canyon and took charge of the Randall County News and by sturdy effort has made it an excellent newspaper.—Palladium, Montezuma, Iowa.

No. 23

CONCERNING NORMAL SCHOOL BOARDERS

BOARDING HOUSES SHOULD BE KEPT SANITARY AND CLEAN.

Boys and Girls Must Not Board at the Same Place.—Boarding House Keepers Urged to Help Faculty.

By R. B. Cousins, President.

I deem this an appropriate time to express commendation and appreciation of the efforts which the citizens of Canyon have made to take care of the normal school students. I am aware of the fact that many of our people have opened their homes to students from a distance in a spirit of assistance rather than for the purpose of making money out of the boarders. This statement is no reflection upon the considerable number of people who have undertaken the boarding house business for the purpose of making a living from the same. There can be no doubt that our town will be taxed to its limit to take care of the students who will desire to come here during the next year if the signs of the times may be trusted. There is every indication that the normal college here will continue to grow very rapidly if boarding house facilities can be provided.

Concerning boarding houses, I beg leave to suggest that the premises should be sanitary and clean. Just as rapidly as possible all the toilets of the town should be connected with the sewer. This is absolutely the only safe prevention from a multitude of diseases which the medical science has shown to be distributed by means of the ordinary house fly or typhoid fly, as it is now being called. In case people find that it is impossible to connect their toilets with sewers there can be no excuse for not keeping them thoroughly cleaned and fumigated. Every one of them should have the attention of the scavenger at least twice a week and should be supplied with an abundance of lime used liberally every day. It is of the greatest importance that the barns and stables be cleaned and the manure properly protected from the flies. One filthy cow lot, or horse lot can produce flies enough to infect the entire town. Every citizen should have such respect for the health of his family and of his neighbors that he will have his premises cleaned with sufficient frequency to prevent the breeding of pests. Where any man fails or refuses to keep his premises clean he should have the attention of the city health officer, mayor or marshal.

All of the openings in the residences should be carefully screened so as to make it as near impossible as we can for mosquitoes and other disgusting insects to enter bedrooms or dining rooms.

It may not appear necessary in this communication, but I desire to say that those places that invite people from a distance should be kept scrupulously clean inside and out. If the floors cannot be covered with some kind of carpeting or matting they should be covered occasionally with soap and water and the liberal application of what used to be called "elbow grease." This same application should be applied to windows, window facings, and other parts of the house inside. Cleanliness adds more to comfort than any other one feature that enters into the general problem of taking care of people.

There was very little complaint among the students concerning quality or quantity of the provisions that were offered to the boarders. I beg leave to suggest, however, that simple fare with some degree of variety is all that is necessary for students. But whatever the quantity or variety offered, it ought to be by all means, well cooked, properly seasoned, and served with a degree of taste. Elegance of manners should be insisted upon during meal times among the students in their boarding houses. Those who serve the meals should be tidy in appearance and properly clad and all boarders should be required to observe this suggestion.

BOYS AND GIRLS MUST NOT BOARD AT THE SAME PLACE.

Experience of other institutions as well as our own short experience here demonstrates the advisability of requiring boarding houses to keep only one sex. The force of this statement is easily recognized and needs no supporting argument. I will be very glad if those who keep our students would report at once to me any indiscreet conduct of which students may be guilty. I trust that those who entertain our students will see that they are in their rooms at a reasonable hour in the evening and from time to time will report to me the amount of company the young ladies are receiving and the number of evenings the young men are absent from their rooms during the week. I should be very glad also if those who entertain our students would insist upon their doing no visiting from room to room during the evening when students should be at work. It some times happens that a girl or a boy who is not very busy with his or her work annoys other students in this same building by frequent visitings. This should be prevented as far as teachers and boarding house keepers can prevent.

Allow me to repeat to the public the idea that was expressed at the opening exercises of the college in September of last year to the effect that all good people will sustain such sentiments and such an attitude as you would like for a good citizen to sustain toward your child if your child were in school in his town. I believe that if the good people of this community will get this idea that they can be very helpful to the young people in doing what is best for all concerned.

Firemen's Memorial Fund.

One of the many movements made in the Panhandle Firemen's meet at Dalhart last week was that of starting a memorial fund. Each member of the association will be taxed 25 cents each year for a period of five years or longer if necessary and as the money is turned in it will be put out on interest and at the expiration of the five years a proposition will be put up to the various towns in the Panhandle which have fire departments to make bids for a monument to be placed in the town giving the best bid. On this monument will be the names of all deceased firemen, when it was erected and by whom.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends in and around Canyon for the kind words and assistance given us during the removal to Canyon and burial of our little daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wiggins.

NEWS WILL BEGIN MOVING TOMORROW

NEW BUILDING ON HOUSTON ST. NEARLY COMPLETE.

After Number of Delays, the New Home will Soon be Occupied by News Plant.

The Randall County News building is in such a complete condition that work will be commenced Saturday morning to move the plant from its present home on Evelyn street to its new building on Houston street. Owing to a number of delays moving had to be postponed from the first week in August to this week.

Come around and see us next week and we will try to show you an up-to-date printing plant located in its own home.

Public School Notes.

On Saturday, September 9th, I will be in the Commissioner's Court room for the purpose of assigning pupils to the Normal Training School department of the public schools. By order of the board of trustees all pupils living east of the first street running north and south of the Presbyterian church will be assigned to the Normal School and all pupils living west of that line will attend the public school building.

It is absolutely necessary that we have some fixed line separating the two districts. It is not the purpose of the board or superintendent to work a hardship on anyone and transfers out of or to either district will be made for good reasons. But let us all kindly remember there is a vast difference between an excuse and a reason.

We will ask that the parents either come with or send their children to the above mentioned place between the hours of nine and twelve o'clock that they may be assigned to their proper grades and building so that no confusion may result at the opening.

At a recent meeting of the board Mrs. Shinn was elected to the History department in the high school. This completes the high school faculty and will enable us to do first class departmental work. The schools will open Monday, Sept. 11th, and all parents are urged to have their children enroll the first day; come with them and get acquainted with the teachers and school surroundings. The public is cordially invited to attend the meetings of the County and City institute which convenes at the Normal building next Monday morning at ten o'clock.

Respectfully,
THOS. J. YOE.

Normal Opens Tuesday.

The Normal will open next Tuesday on the second year of its work. Indications are good for a very large attendance, and it is conservatively estimated that the attendance will far surpass the attendance at the summer session.

Miss Pearl Turk leaves today for Kid Key where she will take a special course in music and art. Miss Vetch leaves for Georgetown where she will enter Southwestern.

Mrs. Lyman McDonald of Amarillo visited the first of the week at the Harp home.

Pitcher Cavett is "Going Some."

All the big sporting papers are commenting upon the ability of Pug Cavett, a Canyon boy, to hold his own among the big league twirlers and to make some of the noted fancy stick artists sit up and take notice. Pug is on the pitching staff for the Minneapolis team in the American Association, being farmed out to them at the first of the season by the Detroit team. Pug has been a shining star for his team all the season, as often as the manager gave him a chance. But especially was he the feature in a 10 inning game with Toledo, a regular pitchers battle, in which he won out 3 to 0 allowing only 2 hits, getting 3 hits out of the 7 made in 4 times up. In a game before this with Milwaukee he allowed 2 hits winning 2 to 0. This shows that he yielded only 4 hits in 19 innings. He must be going strong, with the loud pedal on the "strong."

Meetings Close.

The special services which have been in progress at the Christian church for the past ten days closed last night. The success of the meetings was very great, nearly thirty confessions being made during the meetings. Rev. J. O. Shelburne, of Dallas, was in charge of the meetings and was pronounced to be one of the best speakers ever heard in Canyon. His sermons were highly interesting and at every service the church was crowded to its full seating capacity.

The Weeds.

Next week the Normal will open and before this time every weed in town ought to be cut. On the principal streets there are weeds waist high. This fact ought to make the property owner's cheeks burn with shame. There is no excuse for some of the lots being allowed to remain in their present condition. CUT YOUR WEEDS NOW.

Regular monthly union services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday night.

TO COMPARE THE OLD AND THE NEW

SANTA FE'S DEMONSTRATION TRAIN NEXT MONTH.

Samples of Former and Present Equipment—Will be in Canyon September 28.

Starting at Argentine, Kans., Monday, Sept. 18, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Co., will run a demonstration train to show the progress of railroading in thirty years. The train is made up of old and new style equipment, including two locomotives and fourteen cars.

The locomotives will be the feature of the train. One is No. 048, which was regarded as a giant in the late seventies; the other is a great Mallet of the 3000 class, built at the Topeka shops, and used in the freight service. This is the largest locomotive in the world. The smaller locomotive is 43 feet 11 inches long and has four drivers. It weighs 133,000 pounds and cost $7,740. The Mallet is 126 feet long and has twenty drivers. It weighs 850,000 pounds and cost $43,880.

Of the fourteen cars there will be two of each class, representing the old and new—passenger cars, smokers, flat cars, box cars, furniture cars and cabooses. The new 70-foot passenger car costs $12,820 while the old style car cost $3,900. Santa Fe passenger cars now cost a great deal more than engines cost thirty years ago.

Miss Janie Cleveland Entertains.

Last Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cleveland, Miss Janie Cleveland entertained about thirty five of the young people of the town in honor of Misses Olive and Elizabeth Robertson, of Dallas, who are visiting her for a couple of weeks. A number of guessing games were played among which was "The Love Tale." Each guest was given a written love story, the blanks to filled out with the abbreviations of the names of the states. The winner called upon Wayne Cousins who responded with a beautiful (?) and appropriate little song. Refreshments were served and each guest had access to the punch bowl. Everyone expressed himself as having thoroughly enjoyed the evening and voted their hostess a charming entertainer.

John Ott Has Good Crops.

John Ott, one of Randall county's progressive farmers and who lives 7 miles north of Canyon, visited the News office last week and expressed himself as never before being more satisfied with crop results than he has been this year. He says he has cabbage heads on his place that weigh 20 pounds each and his garden and melon patch are especially fine. His oats threshed 20 bushels to the acre. Mr. Ott came originally from Battle Creek, Nebr.

Problems of the Fireside

The American home is the throne and fountain head of greatness and the destinies of the human race must depend upon the wisdom of the fireside. Politicians may make party platforms; legislatures may pass laws; but the fundamental questions of public importance must be finally settled by the man of toll as he quietly sits by the fireside after the day's work is over.

The Struggle for Power.

The outstanding ambition of the human race today is power. Financiers, with the inventive genius of an Edison, are seeking to associate capital in such a way as to multiply power. Labor, with the mighty trend of a nation marshaling its army, is seeking to arrange its forces so as to increase power. The farmer, with the patient and honest endeavor typical of his occupation, is seeking by organized methods to gain power. Each is endeavoring to combine two or more economic units of their class in such a way as to increase the power of both. The purposes are laudable, but the methods each must employ present problems in which all humanity is involved and they must be finally settled at the fireside.

The Problems Upon Us.

We are well into these problems with capital in the foreground—Numerous solutions have been suggested, but the most primitive one is that of prohibiting by law the extension and multiplication of power through organized effort. This solution is manifestly impracticable. No one would for a moment tolerate a law that would prevent the invention or use of an appliance which would multiply the power of steam or any other potential energy, because perchance it might also increase the danger—in growth the element of danger always increases at the same ratio as other component parts. To destroy or limit power is to strike down progress and return to the dark ages, and is an acknowledgment of our incapacity to cope with human affairs. We must quickly recede from this position or pass rapidly on to government ownership.

To acquire the highest degree of efficiency in civilization, we must develop every pound of energy and power for usefulness there is in all things and multiply this power as many times as human ingenuity can devise, minimizing, as far as possible, the element of danger without weakening the source of power.

The problems in the industrial horizon today are gigantic and their solution awaits the patriotic and careful consideration of men of noble minds and big hearts as they sit by the fireside.

The Family Paper

The printing press is the industrial educator of the age. The citizens of Texas lead those of all other states in the Union in the number of newspapers read per capita. The improvement of public highways and the establishment of rural free delivery routes has extended the zone of circulation and reading the newspapers has become as much a part of the work on the farm as caring for the stock and it has proven about as profitable. The ability of a farmer can be as easily judged by the literature he reads as by the crop he harvests.

Pipe Lines.

Pipe lines are primarily city buildings. The pipe line between the oil field to the refinery and the gas well to the city and to the factory, reduces the cost of transportation, as well as provides a feasible method of distributing the products of the oil and gas wells throughout the state. All enterprising cities should be connected with a pipe line.

Farm and Factory.

The farm and factory go hand in hand and the prosperity of either is dependent upon the other. By bringing the factory to the farm we adjust economic conditions and the increase in value of live stock goes to the producer without increasing the price of meat to the consumer. By building factories in Texas we can greatly decrease the high cost of living.

Rural Telephones.

The scientist in giving the farmer improved varieties of products and the inventor in giving us machinery that reduces the cost of production, has performed a great service to the farmer. But the telephone, born from the creative mind of the inventive genius is destined to companion in utility and convenience all human accomplishments for the intelligent promotion of agriculture. The telephone is the improved public highway of information and is as valuable to the farmer in selling his products as good roads are in hauling his goods to the market.

A VERY MEAN FELLOW

By HARRY MENDENHALL

Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

They had arrived at that critical period—an approaching engagement. Every indication pointed to their forming a binary system, but the slightest disturbance of the equilibrium would send both far from each other into space. All weaknesses were carefully put away where they could not be seen, and only the noblest sentiments were exhibited. At this juncture he perpetrated a bit of waggery that came very near spoiling the whole thing.

"What I object to in your sex," he said, "is your want of charity for each other."

"Nonsense! We are no more uncharitable toward women than you men are toward men."

"A woman will never forgive a woman for doing what, under similar circumstances, she would do herself."

"Give me an instance."

"Well, if you were to know a girl that a man had kissed—"

"Not being engaged?"

"Not being engaged—you would consider her impure."

"I would consider that he had wronged her."

"And you would condemn her."

"That depends upon circumstances."

"What man does the kissing?"

"I."

"You?"

"Yes."

"Who is this girl who has so little respect for herself?"

"As Aaron Burr said, 'I never kiss and tell.'"

"When did you kiss her?"

"This morning."

"Where?"

"Down by the lake."

Her tone was getting colder with every question and her color rising with every reply.

"Had you any respect for her?"

"Lots."

"Have you any respect for her now?"

"Just as much as before she kissed me."

"Kissed you?"

"Yes; she gave me the kiss, but I, with mock gravity, "was too pure minded to keep it. I gave it back to her."

"H'm"

There was a silence for some minutes. They were sitting in a rustic seat, the man cutting off overhanging leaves with a slender cane, the girl poking the dirt beneath her with the end of a parasol. He had been making love to her, and she considered that this kissing another girl was abominable and his telling her of it effrontery. Nevertheless she was too proud to reproach him.

"It's time for me to go and dress for dinner now," she said.

"I'm sorry you are going away blaming me for kissing this girl."

"Oh, I suppose you men think you are entitled to take what you can get. You have no principle. I condemn you for that and the girl for permitting you. In this case, since the girl kissed you first, she must be shameless."

They had reached the door, and she went into the house looking very sulen.

During the next few days he was so devoted, even loving, that she forgave him. He said he thought she should forgive the girl he kissed as well, but she replied that her part was not a matter of forgiveness, but of opinion. Her opinion was that a girl who would permit any man to whom she was not engaged to kiss her could have no self respect. As to a girl kissing a man under such circumstances, such a girl was not to be considered by the respectable members of her sex.

The flowers were growing more fragrant and the love passages warmer. She was quite sure he would propose, but he seemed in no hurry to come to the point. She was growing impatient to hear his "story," especially as they were to separate in a few days. While sitting on the rustic seat before mentioned she felt his arm stealing around her waist. He drew her to him till their cheeks were very near. He kissed her.

Her criticism of a few days before had slipped her mind.

He did not propose at the time, but she was sure a proposal was coming. Then one day he told her that he had tested her and found her wanting. She asked him what he meant, and he said that he would not approve of a girl who would permit a man to kiss her to whom she was not engaged.

He must have been a very brave man to do that; certainly he was a very mean one. To drop a spark into a keg of powder would be a comparatively safe thing. She gave him just one look, then got up, and with head erect, nostrils expanded and eyes flashing, started to walk away from him. But he caught her skirt and held on for dear life. She turned to him with a smile on his lips, a half merry, half frightened look in his eye.

"Forgive me," he said. "The temptation was too great for me."

"Go to that other girl whom you doubtless led!"

"Do you know who that other girl is?"

"No, and I don't wish to know."

"She is my little friend Lella. Her age is five. If she didn't kiss me before being engaged to me she never would, for I hope to be married before she is much older."

Peace was declared and they were married, but his wife has never entirely forgiven him.

DO IT NOW.

Canyon City People Should Not Wait Until It is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney diseases is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from headache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. T. B. Clampitt, Evelyn St., Canyon City, Texas, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills which I obtained at Thompson's Drug Store have been so beneficial in our family that we suggest their use to anyone having a weak or aching back. This preparation can always be depended upon."
