

SCHOOL BUILDING ADDITION COMPLETE

MOVED INTO NEW PART ON LAST MONDAY MORNING.

School Going very Nicely.—Large Amount of New Apparatus Received.—Attendance Good.

The addition to the high school building was completed and on last Monday was ready for occupancy. The first floor is used by the first grade in charge of Miss Neal, and the second and third grades in charge of Miss Stafford. The two rooms on the second story will be used for the science department, and has folding doors so that the two rooms may be thrown together for chapel exercises. All of the work on the addition is completed, and the building is now in first class order.

A large amount of new equipment has been added the past week. Over $500 was expended in the purchase of science apparatus and statuary for the different rooms. The science department now is exceedingly well equipped with all manner of machines for the work in physics. The most expensive machine to be purchased was an opaque projector, or in commoner terms, it is an improved magic lantern. With this lantern any kind of an illustration may be thrown on a screen 12 feet in diameter, and even opaque objects may be thrown on the screen.

The library is now located in a new room with a new book case. Many new books will be added to the library this year if the wishes of the faculty are carried out.

Mr. Peel has charge of the athletics of the school and has issued a call for football candidates. A large number of the boys are interested and it is hoped that the school will have a good team this fall.

Superintendent Yoe reports that the work is proceeding nicely and that the interest manifested among the students is good.

The following are the teachers and the attendance by grades:

- 1st—Miss Neal, 40.
 - 2nd and 3rd—Miss Stafford, 40.
 - 4th and 5th—Mrs. Orton, 37.
 - 6th and 7th—Miss Bryson, 40.
 - High School—Prof. Yoe, Mr. Peel, Mrs. Wray, Mrs. Shinn; 8th, 44; 9th, 22; 10th, 27; 11th, 3.
- At the Normal building there are the following:
- 1st and 2nd—Miss Harrison, 26
 - 3rd and 4th—Miss Hibbetts, 25
 - 5th, 6th and 7th—Miss Salé and the faculty of the Normal, 37.
- This makes a total of 331 in attendance in the public schools.

Epworth League Organized.

Last Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church an Epworth League was organized, the following officers being appointed by Rev. L. A. Webb until the regular election could be held in November. The following officers were chosen:

- President—C. W. Warwick.
- 1st Vice President—Anna Lee Howren.
- 2nd Vice President—Hattie Lee Rape.
- 3rd Vice President—Mrs. C. N. Harrison.
- 4th Vice President—L. N. George.

Secretary—Miss Kleinschmidt
Treasurer—Pat Thompson.
Organist—Mrs. D. A. Park.
The regular meetings will be held at the church every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

YEAR BOOK ISSUED.

Ladies' Book Club will begin Their Study of Shakespeare's Hamlet Next Wednesday.

The Year Book of the Ladies' Book club was issued this week from the News office and is a neat little publication. The study of the club this year will be Hamlet and sixteen meetings will be held throughout the year. The first meeting will be held on next Wednesday, Mrs. Ingham being the leader.

The following are the officers for the year:

- Mrs. C. R. Burrow, president.
- Mrs. R. A. Terrill, vice pres.
- Mrs. J. R. Cullum, secretary.
- Mrs. J. E. Winkelman, treasurer.
- Mrs. S. B. Lofton, librarian.

The following is the program for next Wednesday:

Roll Call—Some Event in the Life of Shakespeare.

Shakespeare and the English Drama—Mrs. Cousins.

How to Study the Drama—Mrs. Bennett.

Hamlet and its Source—Mrs. Stafford.

Business Men's Contest.

This week will be the opening of a business men's contest announcement of which will be found in a large ad in this issue of the News. Read the announcement and then get into the game. The first week ought to see a large number of contestants at work. There are many country schools which ought to get busy for the organ, and there are a dozen young ladies who will run a good race for the diamond ring. Also remember that some young lady is going to get a beautiful umbrella on October 24 for getting the largest number of votes from now until then. Get into the game now, 500 votes will be given on nomination blanks that may be obtained from any of the firms in the contest. The first week's results will be announced in the News next week. Will your name be at the top? Get busy and it will.

Societies United.

The Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the M. E. Church South met on the evening of Sept. 12 for the purpose of uniting the two societies, which was unanimously done and the following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. T. P. Turk; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. M. P. Garner; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. C. N. Harrison; 3rd Vice Pres., Mrs. J. L. Howell; 4th Vice Pres., Mrs. B. A. Stafford; Rec. Sec., Mrs. I. C. Jenkins; Cor. Sec. for Home Dept., Mrs. Thacker; Cor. Sec. for Foreign Dept., Mrs. C. M. Thomas; Treas. Home Dept., Mrs. A. S. Rollins; Treas. Foreign Dept., Mrs. S. S. Coffee; Agent for Missionary Voice, Mrs. F. M. Wilson; Press Reporter, Mrs. J. T. Coffee. After agreeing to meet on Tuesday of each week and transacting other business the society adjourned.

"Husband, come to breakfast! We have Premium Bacon, Belle of Wichita biscuits, Bakers Pride toast, Statesman coffee, Scudgers Maple syrup, Quaker Seal oats, Hunts Superior Calif. fruits served with National cakes. Where did I trade yesterday? Why, The Leader, of course." 1

Mrs. Lula Keele, of Estancia N. M., passed through the city night on her way to Plainview. She spent the night at the Mrs. W. W. Crawford residence.

Come to Canyon to live.

J. A. CRAWFORD

All Canyon mourns over the death of one of her brightest and most influential Christian young men.

There is not a man or woman, boy or girl, who does not realize our great loss at the removal of this noble character.

The West Texas State Normal College loses one of its most valuable faculty members.

Canyon loses a good citizen who has done much good for the young people during his brief stay with us.

Joe Alvin Crawford, secretary-treasurer of the West Texas State Normal college died Monday morning at 2 o'clock after a sickness of only three weeks. The cause of his death was complications of typhoid fever setting in by a back-set, after he was once out of bed and on the road to recovery.

Mr. Crawford had spent the summer in the west on a long trip through Colorado and California and on the return home spent some time at the home of his mother at Estancia, N. M., and also visiting his two sisters who live there. It was here that he contracted the disease which brought his untimely death. He was feeling very badly when he reached Canyon on August 23th and took his bed almost immediately. The attack was not severe and on September 2nd he arose from his bed and began work. His many friends advised him to go slowly and not try to do much work, but the opening of the Normal was at hand and the large amount of work to be done at that time was too much for the active man and he could not be kept from his office at the Normal building. When asked how he felt he always responded that he was feeling very good. He attended to the work of the office all week until Friday when the faculty members saw he was rapidly failing and simply forced him to cease his labors and go home. His mother had moved here from Estancia a few days previous, thinking to make her home with her son until the younger son and daughter could finish their school work.

The next few days were full of watchful anxiety on the part of the family and his host of friends. Word would come that he was growing worse steadily, but the dominant spirit had won so many fights that most of his friends did not realize that Mr. Crawford could be so severely ill until the latter part of the week when even the most hopeful friends gave up that the young man's time to die was at hand. He was conscious to the end. On Sunday morning he was told that the end was at hand and he answered that he did not want to die, but if he must was ready to go. At five o'clock Sunday morning he called the family around him and spoke to each one, asking them to meet him in Heaven. At two o'clock Monday morning death came peacefully and he passed out into the great beyond.

The funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the Normal chapel conducted by Rev. J. J. Hutchison, of the Christian church. The student body and faculty accompanied the body from the residence to the Normal building where hundreds of citizens of Canyon had assembled to pay their last sad respects. The fitting sermon was followed by remarks by Prof. J. W. Reid and President R. B. Cousins, both of whom had known Mr. Crawford for so many years.

The active pall bearers were: J. A. Hood, G. H. Marley, L. N. Henderson, L. N. George, Bartow Cousins and C. W. Warwick. The honorary pall bearers were: Pres. Cousins, L. G. Allen, J. A. Hill, B. A. Stafford, H. W. Morelock, R. L. Marquis, F. P. Guenther, J. W. Reid, J. G. Miller, T. S. Minter, J. P. Winder, W. T. Moreland and T. J. Yoe.

J. A. Crawford was born at Stephenville, Texas, on Feb. 20, 1885, being 26 years, 6 months and 18 days old at his death. He graduated from the Jacksboro high school and was in the business college at Tyler when Mr. Cousins asked for a stenographer and he was sent. He was in Mr. Cousins' campaign headquarters during his first campaign for state superintendent of public instruction and after the election was made private secretary of Mr. Cousins in the state educational department. Here he remained until the establishment of the West Texas State Normal college and he was tendered a position on the faculty. During his stay in Austin, he also did a great deal of work in the university and in 1907 took the state bar examinations, successfully passing them.

His work in the Normal has required a clean brain and a tireless hand, but Mr. Crawford fully satisfied both these requirements. He struggled with the problems of starting a new school until he had mastered all the details and had established an office system excelled by none and equaled by but few. His place in the secretary's office will be hard to fill.

Mr. Crawford was a member of the Christian church, uniting when he was 14 years of age and lived a devoted Christian life until the end. He was especially fond of church work and gave a great deal of time to Sunday school, young people's meetings and to choir work. He was always at his post when the pastor wished any work done and was

UNIQUE TRAIN COMING.

Biggest Engine in the World to visit Canyon.—Other train Features of Interest.

As announced several weeks ago in the News, a unique train will be in Canyon this fall, but the time has been changed from September 23 to October 5. In this train will be two engines, a new model, the biggest in the world, and one of the old fashioned ones, which is very small. Two passenger coaches will be in the train for comparison, two sleepers, two chair cars, etc.

The train will arrive in Canyon at 8:15 on the morning of October 5, and will remain here half an hour. The citizens of the town are invited to call and inspect the train.

sure to find Mr. Crawford able and willing to do it.

The life of Mr. Crawford has been an active one. He has always made his own way in the world even from mere boyhood. Before he was 17 years of age he taught school in order to procure funds for a business education. Since that time he has relied wholly upon his own resources and has made a marked success of the short life allotted him.

In the immediate family there are left to mourn his death, his mother, three sisters and two brothers. Excepting one married sister all were present at the funeral. His father preceded him to the other world about two years ago. The great respect in which he was held by the citizens of Canyon was manifested by the hundreds who attended the funeral ceremonies morning. During the services there was not a dry eye in the entire congregation. A kindred spirit of sadness settled over all as the words of praise were spoken of this noble young man who had been taken from this earth to the better world above.

The following interview appeared in the Austin Statesman Tuesday morning, given out by State Superintendent of Public Instruction F. M. Bralley:

"J. A. Crawford accepted the position of stenographer and filing clerk in the State Department of Education with Hon. R. B. Cousins on Jan. 12, 1905, and served continuously in said position until September, 1910, when he accepted a position in the faculty of the West Texas State Normal College at Canyon. It was my pleasure to be intimately associated with Mr. Crawford during all of this time. He was one of the most accurate, painstaking and studious office men I have ever known. By dint of hard work and fidelity to duty he achieved the distinction of having few equals and no superiors in his line of work. He was honest, trustworthy and loyal, as well as intelligent and capable, and no duty assigned to him during his service of five and one-half years in the State Department of Education was ever neglected. I am informed by President Cousins that he was one of the most valuable members of the faculty of the West Texas State Normal College. His separation from the State Department of Education in 1910 by resignation was regarded as a distinct loss to the efficiency of the office, and his death represents an irreparable loss to the work of the West Texas State Normal College."

The improvements at the Supply Co. are progressing rapidly and will be completed by the end of this week. The store looks much better since the change has been made.

BASKETBALL TEAM AGAIN ORGANIZED

CHAMPIONS OF THE PANHANDLE LAST SEASON.

Will Play Panhandle Teams until Christmas and then take Trip. W. E. Lair Manager.

At a meeting of the basketball enthusiasts last Friday night, the Panhandle champions decided to start to practice within a few weeks in order to be in form for a long and hard season. It was decided to fix dates at once with Panhandle teams for the period before Christmas and then to fix up a long schedule for after Christmas with central and south Texas teams. W. E. Lair was elected manager and Chas. F. Hunt as coach and captain.

The champions will have about the same line-up as they had in their squad last season. Pug Cavet will return about the last of October from his baseball work and will soon be worked in to basketball form. The two Lair boys are in the city and ready to throw goals from any angle on the court. Vince Reeves is in the city and will work with the team as last year. Mr. Hunt was captain and coach last year, and can always be counted on for good work at guard. The boys are counting on giving every new candidate a thorough try-out in order to pick the best team possible.

New suits of gray and cardinal have been ordered and will be in the city in time for the first practice. The boys are going to work hard and no less can be expected of them than was accomplished last year and they have a good chance of winning from many of the crack Texas teams.

Pear Weighs 1 Lb. 4 Oz.

The biggest pear of the season was brought to the News office Monday by C. N. Harrison, raised by Dr. D. M. Stewart. The pear weighed 1 pound and 4 ounces, and was 14 inches in circumference. At this rate there would be only ten pears to the peck. The tree on which this pear grew is only 40 inches high and 3-4 inches thick. Dr. Stewart says that the tree bloomed four times and that there were four pears, one for each time it bloomed. The other pears are several weeks younger than this monster. The pear was not ripe but was knocked off by the doctor's horse. This record is by far the greatest we have received this year.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the kind people of Canyon for the assistance they have rendered during the sickness and death of our son and brother, and the words of encouragement and cheer spoken in this sad hour of bereavement.

Mrs. W. W. Crawford, and family.

Change in Leader.

The stock is being changed around greatly in the Leader store, the grocery department being transferred to the south side of the first floor and the clothing department moved to the second floor. The dry goods department is now located on the north side while the shoes will be placed in the central part of the store room.

We need more farmers.

HARVESTING ON IN FULL SWING

GREAT SEASON ALL OVER THE GREAT PANHANDLE.

Song of the Binder and the Header Ringing in the Panhandle Fields. Great Acreage.

All the Panhandle is today in the midst of its harvest. Around Amarillo men are engaged in operating row binders, headers and other machinery gathering in the rich yield from Panhandle lands, considered only a few years, as waste fat only for the browsing of a few unprofitable native cattle. The harvests have been rich heretofore but never so much so as at present, for the reason that the quality shown is good, and the increase in acreage is almost inconceivable.

Encouraged by the great success of the present season, it is stated that the farmers of the Panhandle will still further increase their acreage, and the consequent yield. Thousands upon top of thousands of acres yet remain in the virgin state, and it is to bring these within the profit bearing regime, that redoubled efforts will be put forth next year, and the years that are to follow.

Cotton for the lower portions of the Panhandle will play an important part in the acreage increase and every effort will be put forth by the farmers to avail themselves of the worth contained in the suggestions from the agricultural department of the state of Texas and other states where adapted to this country. New cereals will be tried together with such of the forage crops as seem suitable to this section.

The irrigation of certain sections is declared to be a matter of great interest as is the application of alfalfa along the area where it will produce in abundance. This latter crop will be confined in most cases to "bench" lands, that is near the lakes and streams, though in some instances it will be subject to irrigation on account of the abundance of the yield in such cases.

Fruits and vegetables are also being installed to play their part in the great diversification scheme, along with the hog, the cow and the hen.—Amarillo Daily News.

BUSINESS MEN'S POPULAR VOTING CONTEST

Diamond Ring, Organ and Other Valuable Articles Given away by Certain Canyon Firms.

A number of enterprising business men of Canyon have interested themselves in giving away absolutely FREE, a beautiful Diamond Ring, Gold Watch, Organ and other handsome gifts. The organ is to be given to the organization receiving the greatest number of votes and the diamond ring and other articles to individuals from time to time, receiving the greatest number of votes.

The plan is a novel one and commends itself to the public, there being no outlay on the part any one other than the people who are doing this to stimulate cash trade, and at the same time bestow valuable gifts that will be permanent advertisement for them.

Briefly stated the plan is this: Each firm that is interested in the contest is provided with voting tickets, and for ten cents worth of goods purchased or work done, issues a ticket entitling the holder to one vote. The ticket can be voted for the church, school, lodge or club and any individual of the purchaser's preference.

A 10 cent purchase entitles holder to one vote, 20 cents to two votes, $1.00 to ten votes, $5 to 50 votes and so on. Tickets can only be had from firms who have secured an interest in contest and on cash purchases. Number of votes on each ticket should be made with ink or indelible pencil. No charge whatever is made for tickets. You vote for the organization and individual of your choice on each ticket. Each week the votes will be counted and the standing of contestants announced in the RANDALL COUNTY NEWS. A disinterested committee will be selected to count the votes. At the close of the contest, February 24th, 1912, the organ will be awarded the organization having received the greatest number of votes, and the diamond ring to the individual receiving the greatest number of votes from beginning to end of contest.

The following firms will supply tickets free of charge on lines of goods mentioned and explain all about the contest:—

Turk & Armstrong Dry Goods Co., Dry goods, Notions, Clothing, Shoes and Millinery.

Stewart & Ballard, Staple and Fancy Groceries. Everything good to eat.

Thompson Hardware Co., Shelf and heavy Hardware, Stoves and Ranges, Implements, Buggies, Wagons, Windmills, Harness and Saddles.

Cassles Drug Co., Drugs, School Books Stationery, Diamonds, Cut Glass Watches and Jewelry.

The Randall County News, Subscriptions and Printing.

S. A. Shotwell & Co., Coal, Grain, Field Seeds and Hides. Phone No. 4.

Bishop's Place, Confectioneries, Best of Candies, Ice cream, Cold drinks and Fine cigars.

Canyon Lumber Co., Sash, Doors, Blinds and all kinds of Building Material.

REMEMBER—That you can get tickets ONLY at places above mentioned, that all tickets voted will be kept until close of contest and will be subject to investigation at any time, insuring a fair contest. No lady connected with any firm in contest will be permitted to enter contest as a candidate, and no salesman is permitted to solicit votes from customers. The News is the only paper giving votes.

FIVE HANDSOME SPECIAL GIFTS

FIRST SPECIAL GIFT—Is a pretty umbrella for the lady getting the most votes by Oct. 24th 6 p. m.

SECOND SPECIAL GIFT—Is a magnificent necklace and locket for the lady getting the most votes between Oct. 24, and Nov. 24, 6 p. m.

THIRD SPECIAL GIFT—Is a splendid pearl handle carving set for the lady getting the greatest number of votes between Nov. 24, and Dec. 24, 6 p. m.

FOURTH SPECIAL GIFT—Is a Ladies Gold Watch for the lady getting the greatest number of votes between Dec. 24, and Jan. 24, 6 p. m.

FIFTH SPECIAL GIFT—Is a beautiful Cut Glass Water Set, consisting of pitcher, 6 glasses and a reflector, for the lady getting greatest number of votes between Jan. 24, and Feb. 24, 6 p. m.

DIAMOND RING AND ORGAN—Lady getting the most votes from beginning of contest to close of same will be awarded the diamond ring, and the organization having the greatest number of votes secures the organ. Keep in mind that you can enter the contest at any time and have just as good opportunity to get some of the special gifts as those already in the contest. The ladies securing these special gifts will not be dropped from contest but will continue until close. All votes count for the ring and organ.

Voting Box, Diamond Ring, Watch, Umbrella, Necklace and Locket and Cut Glass Water Set at Cassles Drug Co. Organ to be at Turk & Armstrong Dry Goods Co. Fine Carving Set at Thompson Hardware Co.

THE MILL

How a Picture Was Painted
Under an Inspiration

By EDWARD GILLETTE

Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

There is no more dainty bit of scenery, to my thinking, than one of those little patched up, tumbledown, moss covered water mills of the olden time. They are always situated at the lower end of a pond, nestling under trees and half buried in shrubbery. They speak of a past when farmers were used to carrying a sack or two of grain to mill on horseback before them to have it ground. Now the grain is grown on bigger farms in bigger bulk, and the individual farmer's product is lost in a great cereal river that flows to mills driven by steam and with stacks towering hundreds of feet high. Progress is there, but the little water mill of the past is only useful to furnish themes for the artist.

I am one of these knights of the brush myself. One day, coming upon such a simple scene as I have mentioned, I opened my three legged stool, set up my easel and began to work in my colors. I have the picture I made of the mill, and no money would induce me to part with it. There is a story connected with it, told me while I was painting, which, appealing to my fancy, rendered my work especially successful. The picture and the story go together.

While I was at work a man under a faded straw hat and suspenders uncovered by coat or waistcoat came up behind me and looked at my work. He was a middle aged countryman, with those furrows in his face that seem to be transferrred there from his eyes being constantly fixed on furrows made by his plow. He seemed to take a deep interest in my picture.

"There's some'n wanted on that little space beside the wheel," he said. "What's that?" I asked. "A boy and a girl."

"What boy and girl?"

"Some'n happened there oncet. I kin tell y' about it if y' want to hear it."

"Go ahead."

"It's about myself and the girl. I was nigh on to seventeen, and Janey was fifteen. Children haven't got any sense, and Janey wasn't much past bein' a child. We had been playin' together when we was at an age to play, and now we was a little older we kept on playin' together. Anyway, Janey was a wild little thing and up to all sorts of pranks. What I was doin' about this time I'm speakin' of was tryin' to keep her from tumblin' off the peak of the barn roof, or fallin' down through a hole in the haymow floor. She'd tumbled in the pond."

"One day we was over there where a dirt road led down to the mill. It's all grown over with grass now, but you can see where it was. At that time the mill was run whenever there was any grain to grind, and when there wasn't the water was turned off the sluice. That day it was turned off."

"The first thing I knew Janey she climbed out on to the wheel. Her weight was just enough to turn it and let her down slow. While she was sinkin' she looked at me and laughed. It was a purty enough laugh, but somehow I didn't like to see her goin' down into that hole, 'cause there wasn't any way for her to git out. It was walled in, except near the top, where an opening had been left to let the water out. Of course when Janey got to the bottom the wheel stopped turnin'."

"Then I asked Janey to stand on it and let me turn it and her back ag'in, but she got off and dared me to come down. I can see her eyes now just as they looked then with a lot of devilry in 'em."

"There was two simpletons instead of one. I got on to the wheel, and it turned quicker with my weight than with hers. I joined her at the bottom, and she was amusin' herself in all sorts of ways, dancin' and runnin' around the wheel and hollerin' to hear how queer it sounded down there. Two or three times I tried to git her to let me take her out. It wouldn't be an easy matter in any event. The only way it could be done was for us to balance each other by climbin' on opposite sides of the wheel. But if the water should be turned on we couldn't do that."

"First thing I knew I heard some'n moved suddent above, and down come the water. I looked at Janey, scared out of my boots, but Janey seemed to consider it a good joke, the little fool, and began to dance about in the water on the stone floor. But gradually the water rose. From the bottom to the lowest part of the wheel it was up to our necks. I lifted Janey on to the wheel and got up myself. The only thing for us to do was to climb as the wheel turned."

"I shouted with all my might, hopin' the miller would hear me. But he was inside the mill, and the noise of the water down where we was was enough to drown any boy's voice. I looked about for some'n to stop the wheel with, but there wasn't a stick as long as my arm anywhere. The only hope I had was that the miller had a small lot of grist to grind and he'd git through before we was tired out. But I didn't think he'd start the mill for less than two or three hours' grip.

"Janey stood up well for about half an hour—it seemed four times as long—then she began to give out. The only thing I could do with her was to brace her up by puttin' my arm back of her. She didn't seem frightened or ready to cry, but she looked at me with a tired smile and kept on workin' the treadmill."

"But purty soon she got so tired I knew she'd have to git a rest, and I looked about for some'n to cling to away from the wheel. There was a break in the old wall surroundin' the wheel that left one of the stones so we could git our hands on it. I pushed off with Japey, and we clung to the stone."

"We got a kind of a rest, but it wasn't pleasant being in water over our heads keepin' ourselves up that way, and Janey's teeth began to chatter. I was beside myself with terror for her. It was she who was puttin' the best face on it all, sayin' that the grist would soon give out and the water would be turned off. But I knew that her strength was goin', and I dreaded a time when it would leave her all at once."

"Then I tried hollerin' ag'in, but I hadn't as much power behind my voice as I had when I called before and couldn't make as much noise."

"I knew I'd got to do some'n or purty soon it would be all over with us. It occurred to me that if I could get my weight on to the side of the wheel that was goin' up the motion would be slower. I asked Janey if she could hold on where she was for awhile. She said she could, but I knew she couldn't."

"I had to put my arm around her, and, partly by swimmin' and partly by clingin' to the wall, I worked my way toward the back of the wheel. The hardest place to pass was between the wheel and the wall. I expected both of us would be crushed."

"When I got by that part of it and got Janey and myself a-hold of the wheel I felt better. But we couldn't stop the wheel; all we could do was to cling to it till it pulled us out of the water and then catch hold lower down. I did this, but Janey could only keep changin' her hands all the while as the wheel revolved, she bein' supported in the water. Knowin' that this was our only chance, I threw all the strength left in me into my work, lettin' the wheel pull me almost up to the water runnin' above, stayin' there and lettin' go my hold first with one hand, then with the other. But as I was hangin' in the air and wasn't buoyed by water it was awful hard work, especially after what I'd been through. Still, there's hardly a limit to the endurance of a boy of sixteen."

"All of a sudden I saw the miller lookin' down on us. I didn't have to holler, and he didn't say a word. He ran away, I heard the sluice close, and in another minute he was back with a ladder, which he put down and, comin' down himself, first took Janey in his arms and carried her out. He was comin' back for me, but I let go the wheel and swam for the ladder by myself. I tried to climb up it, but it was no go; the miller reached down and dragged me out."

"When I got up I saw Janey lyin' on the grass with her eyes closed, limp and white as a cloth. Thinkin' she was dead, I gave a cry and, bendin' down over her, lifted her in my arms. The miller said she'd only fainted and would come to herself purty soon. And he was right. In another moment she opened her eyes, and, seelin' me, what do you suppose she did?"

"What?"

"She just smiled the same kind of a smile as when she was goin' down on the wheel."

"My friend," I said at the conclusion of his story, "I wish I had you and Janey right here at the age you then were that I might work you into my painting."

"If you'll come with me up the road a bit I'll show you two young uns that'll do as well," he replied.

I went with the man, who stopped at a little house beside the road. We entered and found a middle aged woman ironing.

"There's Janey," he said. Turning to her, he added, "Where are the children?"

"Janey's upstairs, and I sent Dick to the store. He'll be back in a few minutes."

A girl about fifteen came down at her mother's call, and there was Janey sure enough. I asked permission to make a sketch of her, and when her brother, two years her senior, came in I did the same with him. Then I gave each a good fee for serving as models, and after drinkin' a glass of milk which was urged upon me I took my leave.

Going back to the mill, I finished my picture under the inspiration occasioned by the story connected with it. As I worked I thought which of the different scenes through which the youngsters had passed I would introduce on the canvas. I knew that to place Janey on the grass just recoverin' from her fainting would be effective, but I rather favored putting her on the wheel when she first stepped on to it and smilin' at her boy companion, his own expression denotin' his anxiety. I decided upon the latter feature, and, taking to my studio the sketches I had made, I worked them in when I felt in the mood for it. I succeeded far better in depicting the required expression than I had hoped for. The picture hangs in my studio and has often been admired. I have had many offers for it, but it is the only picture I have ever painted wherein there is a story I have heard at first hand. For this reason I have never been willing to part with it.

THE MERE MAN'S VIEWPOINT

WHAT MEN OWE WIVES

By BYRON WILLIAMS

NO woman can make a silk purse of a sow's ear or a great man of a doit, yet many women have made successful men out of mighty poor material. I have in mind a particular woman who has inspired a writer friend of mine to excel even himself. She is not only his rainbow in the storms of life, but the patient power behind that urges him to better things. Without her he would be dilatory, mediocre, almost shiftless. The talent he has would lie comatose, unused. And the beautiful part of it is from the mere man's standpoint she does not try to rule him, being satisfied with inspiring him.

If husbands would the more often stop to strike a balance and consider what they owe their wives women would be more appreciated. I and you have known wives whose unselfish devotion and never failing aid are deserving of the greatest praise, and many times they are satisfied to sacrifice themselves absolutely for the satisfaction of knowing that their efforts have helped men accomplish something, the real appreciation and expression of gratification from the men themselves being sadly lacking.

I have known women of this faithful class to spend years building up a husband to reap as a reward only neglect and sometimes a separation. I have seen old men, men with the snows of years at their temples, seeking advice from their lawyers as to the easiest and quickest methods to be rid of wives who no longer appealed to their fancy—the same wives who have given up everything that is glad and happy in life to be matrimonial slaves.

Years ago in a certain village where by chance I was a more or less permanent fixture there lived the sweetest, gentlest little maid I have met in many years. She was one of those demure creatures with the pool of her thoughts ever tranquil on the surface, but capable of bubbling depths.

One day there came to the village a young lawyer. He was a dashing, debonaire disciple of Blackstone, a hale fellow well met, and, despite these characteristics, a natural student. He met the maid in the course of a few weeks and seemed strangely attracted to her. In a year they were married, and from that day forth all the dreams of the woman became visions in which he figured. Her own longings were lost in her desire to see him succeed.

She economized and planned, having ever in mind that a certain amount of show in this world is necessary for a man's success. Therefore she renounced everything that did not in some manner have a bearing upon his future achievements. She took personal care of his wardrobe and dressed him much better than she did her self. Night after night she sat up for him when important cases kept him at his office, and the amount of thought she expended in helping him win the judgship he now occupies will never be understood by any one, not thoroughly conversant with the facts. As for the man himself, he has been too busy all these years to understand.

Yesterday in a home paper I saw a local item hinting there was something amiss in the marital relations of the judge and his wife. I called up a boyhood friend, for I have been interested in watching this woman's wifely career, and asked him what he knew about the matter. He had been "back yonder" recently.

"Oh, he's tired of her, they say, and is infatuated with —!" naming the richest widow in a nearby town. That was all. And it was enough. This woman made this man what he is, and now he wears of her. She is not fashionable enough for him, perhaps, but in the end, when St Peter strikes the balance, surely this man will be made to understand the greatness of his sin, or while still on this earth there may come to him a time when through bitter tears he will see a great light.

This isn't a remarkable case as the world goes. There are many others at least similar. She made him, and he deserted her. Almost any issue of a great newspaper will tell you the story, varied a bit, colored differently. And yet, in the face of these regrettable instances, women still are sacrificing themselves for their husbands, and the only happy thought comes with the realization that not all husbands are unappreciative, not all are duty blind.

SUPERIOR DISC GRAIN DRILLS.

THE WORD "SUPERIOR" best expresses the qualities of this important farm implement—it is superior in workmanship, durability and simplicity and above all it is superior in quality and work. More even distribution of the seed than from any other drill made.

The control of the amount of seed planted is absolutely perfect. We carry in stock the 12 to 16 disc drill with or without grass seeders and press wheels and are selling them to the best farmers of this section because these best farmers know that the Superior is a name that tells a true story.

Our stock of piping, casing, cylinders, pump rods and all kinds of water supplies is complete.

We also have a complete stock of heavy and shelf hardware, queensware, glassware, stoves, ranges, American hog fence, nails, genuine Baker perfect barbed wire, wagons, buggies and everything kept in a first-class hardware and implement store. Harness and leather goods made in our own harness shop. See us before you buy.

POOR OLD BRYAN.

Speaker Clark says that it is all over but the shouting. That sounds familiar—we have heard it in several campaigns, but when the predatory interests got their thumbscrews to work the shouting was postponed. The chances are bright but we must not be over-confident—an alliance with Wall street in the interest of harmony would ruin us.—The Commoner.

Bryan feels that he will not be IT any longer and is opposed to everything the democrats propose. There is no candidate acceptable to Bryan, unless it be Bryan himself, and there is no doctrine acceptable to him unless it be Bryanism. It is indeed a bitter dose for Mr. Bryan to ungracefully back down after three trials in the race.

What is J. W. Bailey going to do with that new fine residence in Washington, D. C., if he is to reside in Fort Worth? In fact, we do not believe that Mr. Bailey knows where he is going to reside or just what he is going to do. The story of his going to New York was evidently a put up scheme to again determine his standing with the people of Texas.

The pros have decided not to contest the July election. The News is glad to hear it. There is no doubt that there were frauds in several places, but a contest would have hurt the cause of prohibition more than any other movement. They also decided not to bring out any candidates, which is another good move.

The Randall County News has just moved into their own new brick office building. The press of the Panhandle is rapidly getting in permanent quarters and is among the very best of the state. The Herald congratulates the News on getting into their own building. It brings a spirit of satisfaction nothing else can produce.—Hall Co. Herald.

The Canyon News is rejoicing over having moved into its new home—a 30x71 one-story brick building, built especially for itself. The News is an excellent local newspaper and is to be congratulated on its continued prosperity.—Plainview News.

We hope that the government will be successful in their probe of the express rates. The express companies are the biggest robbers abroad today and should be stopped in their work. Rates are entirely exorbitant.

Panhandle melons are the best. Farmers are bringing in wagon load after wagon load of the finest and best melons we have ever seen. There is great profit in melon raising and truck farming in the Panhandle.

The Canyon News has moved into its own fine brick office—under its own vine and fig tree, figuratively speaking. Here are our best wishes, Bro. Warwick.—Pampa News.

Canyon leads.

The level headed man is not necessarily flat headed.

The norther Monday felt good after the hot day Sunday.

Will some people ever find out that they are very uninteresting visitors?

Cleanliness is next to Godliness, and in some cases is a little in the lead.

Taft takes a fall out with Bryan in one of his speeches. That is to be expected.

The days are growing much shorter. The good old winter time will soon be here.

One trouble with bearing your sorrows in silence is, that no one will know you have any.

The wheat that has come up looks mighty fine. There will be a great crop next summer.

Many young people put such little value on their lives, judging from the care they take of their bodies.

The addition to the high school building is all complete and looks mighty fine. You should go and see it.

Taft is out looking over the prospects. Wonder if he will see the necessity of withdrawing as did Senator Bailey.

Your subscription will count in the business men's contest. Send it in at once and vote for some young lady or some organization.

The autumn days are certainly mighty fine. It looks good to see the fields of ripening crops, and see the farmers preparing for a big wheat crop.

The farm requires as good a business head as does the store, yet most men think farming is a snap—that is, those who have never tried it think this way.

The News has been trying to get its lots fixed up this week but it sure requires time to get all the leave-overs of a new building picked up and out of the way.

Randall county farmers should visit the C.O. Keiser ranch north west of the city and see the silos. They are a great thing and should be found on every farm in the county.

The average parent doesn't know what the child is studying at school, and many of them care little. To many the school room is simply a place to send their children during the day "to get rid of them."

Randall county will have a great poultry show in December. Get your poultry in good shape. It would be a good plan to build a good warm coop for the poultry you expect to exhibit in order to keep their combs from freezing.

The successful big poultry farm is a rare thing in industry, but it is not impossible. As a commercial success with hired manager and labor, it may be said to be impossible; but to the man who puts his best time and effort into the work, there is great returns.

Prof. R. L. Marquis says that if the text books would have as much in them concerning the danger of the flies as it does concerning the dangers of tobacco and alcohol, the world would be much better off. In many cases the flies are much more

This department is well supplied with the newest and best styles of three good lines—Kuppenheimer, Kirshbaums and Schwabs. Our line of Men's all wool suits at $15.00 and $20.00 are guaranteed, both in fit and wear, or will be replaced with a new one. In Boys school suits we have a very large line and are making low prices. Come look through our clothing and give us a chance to save you money. We know we have the quality and at the right price.

Shoes for Men, Women and Children

This department is one in which we feel sure you would be well pleased if you would give us your entire trade. Star Brand shoes is a line that has made a record never equaled by any shoe house in the United States. We have sold them for 12 years and know that when we sell you a Star Brand shoe that you are getting your money's worth. Should you happen to get a sorry shoe (in anything except a patent leather) we will make good. So you run no risk in buying your shoes of us. If you are not wearing Star Brand Shoes, try them, for "Star Brand Shoes are Better."

Yours Respectfully,

TURK & ARMSTRONG DRY GOODS CO.

TEXAS NEEDS GREAT MEN

V. PROGRESS.

GREEK civilization gave us the arch and made it possible to build structures that support great weights. The Phoenicians made the first boat and the Harbor of Phoenicia became the birthplace of the navies of the world. Since the beginning of creation, we have depended upon men who can build for our progress. We need in State government builders who can construct an arch strong enough to support the ponderous machinery of Twentieth Century civilization and create conditions that will make Texas the birthplace of the world's progress.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF PROGRESS.

Nature has given Texas the framework of a magnificent civilization and poured the riches of the universe at her feet. Our rivers, lakes, valleys and hills are a triumph in creation. God has done everything He could for Texas and we now await the master hand of government to awaken to vigorous activity the wealth, talent and enterprise of the people and to raise our civilization to magnificent heights of progress and bring glory and renown to our citizenship. Texas needs great men.

The Child's First Lesson

There is no parent who does not take the keenest delight in teaching the child life's first lesson of saving. How many children know the real value of a dollar? The habit and pleasure of saving must be cultivated in the child by the parent. Let our bank be your child's savings bank and you will be surprised how interested the child will become in seeing the account grow.

FINE AND FLEET HORSES AT FAIR

Many of the Best Are Listed to Be on Hand.

FURSES TRULY TEMPTING

Twenty-Eight Thousand Dollars Offered Both for Thoroughbreds and Harness Horses, and Amount Provided for Exhibition Studs.

It has been an axiom from time immemorial that the trite saying "no foot no horse" can have been no more truthful statement than to now say "no horse no fair." In the years gone by had there been no racing at the Great State Fair of Texas, there would not have been many horses bred or raised. You might say that the Great State Fair of Texas, at Dallas has been God-mother to all breeders of high-class stock and more especially the race horse, whether it has been raced or kept for driving purposes, at home or abroad, it can be said without the possibility of refutation that the Great State Fair has been built on and around the performances of that great animal "The Horse."

Robert Ingersoll has been quoted as having said that "much that is good in man is the dog that is in him." In this we differ with him to some extent, and although the dog is an ever source of pleasure and comfort to man, still it is our firm belief that had we to do without one or the other, man could have best survived the total elimination of the dog, than that of the horse. And though many of us are too young to recall the fact, it is a matter of history that when railroads were first put into operation, it was most generally predicted that the total disuse of the horse would follow. How fallacious this statement proved to be we all now well know. Again when with a rub that carried the rich, the poor, in fact all the masses a wheel from the very first introduction of the old-time bicycle, again was that ever ready prediction often made, the horse must go. Did he? And yet another era, one which does not take an octogenarian to recall, was the incoming of the automobile, then indeed was our old friend and erstwhile companion, the ever patient and long forbearing horse to go the way of the ancient Eohippus, again we ask, did he?

If you wish to try an unusual experiment, just hie you forth into the markets of the East, or if you will, elsewhere, and see what a good ordinary everyday horse can be, first found, and next, purchased for. To further illustrate, we might say that not a great time past a combination sale was held in a large city of the East, noted the world over for its millionaires, and in that sale seven hundred and fifty horses were sold; can you imagine for one minute that this great number of horses could be gathered from the four corners of the earth and have them all perfect, is it not more likely to have been the case that some of them were too young for immediate use, and yet others too old, and in the aere and yellow leaf as it were, and again might not many of them been afflicted with some of the many ills that horse flesh is heir to, or blemished in drivers and sundry ways, or can you for a moment claim that it is possible to gather that number from the many breeders all over the United States and have each one of them a perfect and technically sound horse. At any rate, the average price of this sale was four hundred and fifty-four dollars each, and yet, there are those who would have us believe that the horse days on earth are numbered. Had you ever thought that unlike any other crop raised by the farmers of this great country that it takes just six years to replenish our stock of horses? If our country was suffering from a shortage of corn, oats, barley, rye or cotton, one year would be sufficient to do away with that shortage not so however, with our livestock for from baby beef to horses, it takes from three to six years to have them ready for market.

A few years ago it was possible to find many of our young men mounted on a horse that the trappings were of more value than the horse and the former would most likely be represented by about twenty-five dollars as a cash outlay, this is far from being the case today. An elegant combination horse will command the attention not only along the streets on which he may be driven or ridden, but will also sell on the open market for from five hundred to one thousand dollars. Then we ask—can our farmers do better than to own one or more of such colts each year raise one or more such colts each year and feed to them their surplus grain and hay to the end that someone more able to do them than their breeders may purchase and fit them for the market, as breeding and raising them belongs to one class and the educating and fitting of them to another.

Can it not be said that each breeders' success at our annual State Fair when the finished product is shown will be an additional incentive to all onlookers and visitors at the fall meeting to at least try and raise something that can be shown in competition with his neighbor and are we not all ambitious to excel? In conclusion it can be asked—is not the Great State Fair, held at Dallas, in all its colossal proportions, its various products of the states many farms, its mineral resources, lumber and mining interests built upon and intermeshed with the horse. Would any one of the many enumerated industries have been the proven success that they have been without the aid of the horse, then we proclaim, all hail to the greatest of all of the lower animals given by a great and beneficent God, the man, the horse. Again can we say that no other than the Great State Fair of Texas has done more, nor have other interests been able to do as much for the breeders of livestock in the Southwest as have they.

At their annual meeting, October 14-23, 1911, twenty-eight thousand dollars will be given in purses to both thoroughbred and harness horses, and in addition to this, there will also be given for exhibition horses fifty-eight hundred dollars, for cattle eighty-six hundred dollars, and still further for premiums on swine, sheep, goats, dairy, farm and mill products, cotton, corn, county exhibits, poultry, etc., etc., will be given a grand total of twenty-seven thousand, three hundred and five dollars.

There will be expended in the fall of 1911, in Dallas, by the State Fair of Texas, in premiums, purses, permanent improvements and operations, a grand total of two hundred and five thousand, three hundred and five dollars.

Come to Canyon to live.

STILL LEADER

Texas continues to lead the procession of her sister states in the matter of acreage, tillage, variety of crops and production. The Panhandle leads all Texas and with the steady increase of new and sturdy citizens, the opening up of virgin lands to plow and successful cultivation, will show a magnificent gain with each succeeding year.

HORSE FEEDING ON ALFALFA ONE MILE FROM CANYON CITY TEXAS.

ALFALFA FIELD BY PANHANDLE WATER SALT AND RAILROAD NEW YORK CANYON CITY TEXAS.

Panhandle alfalfa is now being fed out in the less fortunate districts of other states which have suffered from drouth and heat. During the coming fall and winter Panhandle Kafir corn and Milo maize will acquire new markets in different sections of the country. Their excellence as a balanced ration for all kinds of stock will be demonstrated in heretofore new territory, the markets thus acquired will be permanent and will broaden as their superiority as an all-round feed is recognized. Many of our Randall county farmers are now planting Milo maize on the same ground from which they have just taken a crop of oats or wheat and will realize a second substantial dividend from their land. Our forage crops will help to supply the deficiency in the hay crop of other states and need only this opportunity for a trial in order to be given high rank in that class of feed.

The torrid wave which recently held sway over the Middle West and East, taking heavy toll in the lives of babies and adults, was tempered by our altitude and cooling showers into the most favorable growing weather for crops. Contrary to the general opinion of those not familiar with our climate, that our geographical location is conducive of extreme summer heat, the Government records for eighteen years show our average temperature for the months of June, July and August was 74.2 degrees and each year a larger number of people come to the Panhandle to enjoy the delightful summer.

Our climate is particularly favorable for diversified farming and stock raising, our soil is rich and productive, our rainfall ample in normal seasons, an inexhaustible supply of pure water is obtainable at a reasonable depth.

I have a number of choice farms in Randall and adjoining counties, improved and unimproved, and at the figure at which they can be bought now are certain to prove a most profitable investment.

Notice Of Trustee's Sale.

The State of Texas, Co., of Randall.
 [Whereas, on the 30th day of March,
 A. D. 1906, J. H. Garrison, of the County of Randall and State aforesaid did execute and deliver to W. B.
 Wallace, of Johnson County, Missouri,
 Trustee, a certain Deed of Trust, recorded in Vol. 3 Page 341, Deed of Trust Records of Randall County, Texas, to which references is hereby made, for the better securing the payment of the following described note, to wit: One certain promissory note for the sum of Five Thousand Five Hundred, (5500.00) Dollars, dated March 30th 1906, and due FIVE Years after date, bearing interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, payable annually, said note executed by J. H.
 Garrison and payable to the order of H. F. Frarey, and the said note provides that in the event default is made in the payment of said note at maturity, and the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, then an additional amount of ten per cent, on the principal and interest shall be collected as collection fees.

And, Whereas, the said deed of trust above referred to provides that if the said W. B. Wallace, Trustee, shall refuse or fail for any reason is unable to carry out the provisions of the trust made and provided in said deed of trust, that the holder of the above described note may appoint a substitute trustee to succeed to all the rights, power, and trust granted in said deed of trust to the said W. B.
 Wallace, trustee.

And whereas on the 7th day of August A. D. 1911, the said H. F.
 Frarey, requested the said W. B.
 Wallace, Trustee, to carry out the provision of the said deed of trust, and the said W. B. Wallace refused to act in the capacity of trustee in said deed of trust, and to carry out the provision of the same.

And, whereas, on the 28th day of August A. D. 1911, the said H. F. Frarey the legal and equitable owner and holder of said note, appointed G. S.
 Frarey, substitute trustee in place of and in the stead of the said W. B.
 Wallace, trustee, by an instrument in writing duly executed and acknowledged by him, which said instrument is now on record in the office of the County Clerk of Randall County,
 Texas, to which reference is here made, which said instrument confers on the said G. S. Frarey all the powers and authority given by the said J. H.
 Garrison, to the said W. B. Wallace, in the said Deed of Trust above referred to.

And, whereas the said H. F. Frarey is now the legal and equitable owner and holder of the said note above described, and the said J. H. Garrison, has made default in the payment of the said note above described, which was due on the 30th day of March 1911, and the same is now past due and unpaid and there remains unpaid on the said note, principal, interest, and cost of this sale, Five Thousand seven hundred and four and 40-100ths ($704.40)

Dollars, and whereas I have been requested by the said H. F. Frarey to enforce said trust, I will offer for sale, between the legal hours thereof to wit, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, on the first Tuesday in October A. D. 1911, the same being the 3rd day of said month, at the Court House door in

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.

A Woman Finds All her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Canyon City women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills are for these disorders. Here's proof of their merit in a Canyon City woman's words:

Mrs. E. F. Watts, Houston St. Canyon City, Texas, says: "I am ever so much better since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I obtained at Thompson's Drug Store. I found them effective in relieving the constant, dull backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint. They also strengthened my back and restored my energy and ambition. Another member of my family joins me in saying that Doan's Kidney Pills are alright."

TWELTE MORE ARE ENROLLED

ATTENDANCE AT THE NORMAL REACHES 252 THIS WEEK.

Number is Coming in Daily—Football Interest Increasing and Team is Reported Good.

The attendance at the Normal college this week reached 252, twelve having enrolled since Monday. Nearly every day the past week a few have come in and it can be expected that the number will gradually grow weekly until Christmas when a large number is expected to come for the second quarter.

President Cousins reports no appointment will be made to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. A. Crawford, but will await the action of the new board of regents which was provided for by the last legislature for the normal school of the state. Mr. Cousins thinks that when this board takes charge of the schools they will require uniform methods in all the secretary's offices. Until more definite arrangements can be made for the secretary's office, the work will be in charge of Prof. Minter, who was in the office during the summer.

A mass meeting of the men of the school was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of promoting the interest of athletics.

The football team has been hard at work and it is reported to contain some very good material.

Miss Grimes Married.

The marriage of Miss Kitty Grimes to Mr. Fred Heller, of Jerseyville, Ill., occurred Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents at Wapella, Iowa. The wedding was a very quiet affair, attended only by a few intimate friends and relatives. The bride is well known in Canyon having lived here four years, clerking at the Canyon Supply Co. She has a very large number of friends in Canyon who wish her the very greatest of happiness and congratulate Mr. Heller in winning such a charming young woman.

Thos. Rowan has just completed a good job of cutting weeds around his residence. Harry Howell is also in this class. Let the good work go on. If all the weeds in Canyon were cut and burned this fall there would be practically none in the city next year.

Aid Program.

The following is the Baptist Ladies Aid program for Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Brown's home: Subject, Africa. Song, From Greenland's Icy Mountains. Prayer. Round Table Questions on Missions. Scripture Reading, (Africa in the Bible.) Isa. 55:14-17 Prophecy of Egypt and Ethiopia asking for a knowledge of God. Ps. 68:31 Promise of Africa's turning to God. Matt. 2:13-15 Africa a refuge for the Child Jesus. Acts 8:26-39 Ethiopian Convert. Questions of Africa. Paper, Africa, Mrs. Johnson. Duett, Mesdames Reeves and Hill. Reading, Miss Osce Mills. THE PRICE OF COTTON AND THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Significant Relation Between Tariff Activity and Losses of Cotton Growers Arouses the South.

In the appointment of a delegation of cotton growers at the North Carolina state fair recently, with instructions to attend the meeting in New Orleans having for its purpose the holding by farmers and others of a considerable proportion of this year's cotton crop and the curtailment of next year's acreage, is to be found one of many indications of dissatisfaction existing over the present political relationship to the price of cotton.

It is said that President Taft's reciprocity campaign and the Underwood tariff bills not only adversely affected general business during the year 1911, but specifically caused the cotton manufacturers to lose, by shrinkage and decreased volume of trade, between $50,000,000 and $100,000,000.

Crippled and with a prospect of more tariff agitation in 1912, cotton manufacturers have naturally been unable to make purchases of cotton in the usual way, with the result that with a full crop, political agitation has created a decline in the price of the staple thus far from 14 cents per pound to 9 cents per pound, with many predictions from well posted quarters that a much lower range will be experienced.

It is further claimed that without the extra session for the discussion of reciprocity the Underwood tariff measures would not have been introduced and in consequence there would have been but little probability that cotton would have declined under the force of a full crop lower than 11 cents per pound instead of registering in price the low water mark for years, as it does today.

The farmers in the south and the manufacturers of cotton generally are charging up a loss on this year's crop of not less than $175,000,000, which loss they claim is directly traceable to political influence.

A Father's Vengeance

would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. Its the best Kidney medicine I ever saw." SURGICAL SEWING

A New York surgeon has invented a surgical sewing machine, one of the kind that will patch up your lacerations just as a dressmaker or tailor sews bolts of cloth together. And while he was claiming this to be the greatest invention of the age, another wizard shouted that he had conquered one-seventh of the law of gravitation, having struck upon a means that would prevent crippled air craft from tumbling to earth. As soon as he covers the other six-sevenths of the situation there is no telling what he shall be able to do.

Saved Many From Death.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe it is the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by Cassies Drug Co.

NOT STARTING, BUT ARRIVING.

Doctor Mather believed that birds flew in their migrations to an undiscovered satellite, a little moon that had never been discovered, but was only a short distance from the earth. But it is marvelous how a bird knows just when to migrate, for it times its migration, not to the exact day of the year but to the exactly right season to arrive when the fruits or seeds or insects, for which it is wild-hungry, are exactly ready for bird bill of fare. No migrating bird is ever cheated or mistaken like people and almanac makers by late bad seasons, for if the season is late Mr. Bird arrives late to suit. How can a robin in Canada, hundreds of miles away, tell to a day when the first fruits of Louisiana are on tap?

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. Its the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25c at Cassies Drug Co.

OLDEST TOWN IN STATES.

Arizona prides herself on having the oldest town in the United States, Tucson. Ancient parchments discovered in the old mission of San Xavier, near this town, are claimed to establish the fact that Tucson was settled in 1555, and that Marcos de Niza, after exploring Arizona in 1539, made such a glowing report on the country to Charles I.—successor to Ferdinand and Isabella—that that monarch sent out the colony whose descendants were found at Tucson by missionaries more than a century later. This find enlisted Tucson in a controversy with New Mexico's capital, Santa Fe, whose claim to being the oldest town on this continent has long been disputed by St. Augustine, Fla.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold of Denver, Colo. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.

POPULAR GERMAN PRINCESS.

The most talked of princess in the German emperor's household is Princess Eitel Frederick, the wife of the second son. She is a very charming woman and the kaiser is quite fond of her, his only regret being that his son has no children. The wife of the oldest son, heir to the throne, is the mother of three children, which pleases the kaiser.

"I do not believe there is any other medicine so good for whooping cough as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Francis Turpin, Junction City, Ore. This remedy is also unsurpassed for colds and croup. For sale by all dealers.

"Look Before You Leap"

Is an old saying that holds good in starting a bank account.

Before You Place Your Money in a Bank Look for the Following Safeguards:

Notice the character and ability of the men who have charge of the bank; see that the officers are experienced bankers and the directors are responsible business men. The bank should have ample capital, the larger the capital, the greater protection for the depositor. A large surplus and profit fund is also an additional protection. Read the bank's statement; notice whether or not they carry a good reserve in cash and demand loans; also notice if the bank is prospering—if a bank don't make money, it is not a safe bank.

All the above mentioned security is afforded our customers; if safety for their funds, with liberality and courtesy is what they want.

WEST'S EXHIBIT OF GREAT IDEAS

A CONVENTION OF MEN WITH PLANS AT KANSAS CITY NOV. 14 TO 17.

The Trans-Mississippi Congress, with Colonel Fred Fleming at its head, will hear the Aldrich Arguments and the Hadley and Stubbs Side, Too.

The Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, which meets in Kansas City Nov. 14 to 17, will hear ex-Senator Aldrich argue his currency reform. It is the Monetary Commission's first public declaration to the people of the West, and more than four hundred bankers and financiers from over the nation will gather to hear the author of the plan, which he claims will make the country panic proof, explain the merits of its context. But everyone does not favor the bill, and the opponents will also be present to voice dissenting opinions, and express other ideas of ridding the country of its present financial tightness.

For this is what the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress is for—to discuss the things that are wrong and propose remedies. It is, in fact, the COLONEL FRED FLEMING, Vice-President of the Kansas City Life Insurance Co., who is President of the Trans-Mississippi Congress and will preside at all sessions.

Western clearing house for ideas, and the national legislators pay strict attention to the expressions of this clearing house.

The congress has assumed such importance and magnitude that the foremost statesmen, business men, law makers, farmers and financiers of the country attend it in order to catch the drift of public opinion. At this meeting will be at least six of the twenty governors who rule the territory covered by the congress. Governor Herbert Hadley of Missouri, will open the congress with an address of welcome, and in this address he will sound the keynote of the import of the meeting. Governor John Burke of North Dakota, who is president of the Missouri River Improvement Association, will speak on the Upper Missouri River. Governor C. A. Aldrich of Nebraska, will talk on the Regulation of Inter-State Rates and Their Relation to the Producer and Consumer. Governor O. B. Colquitt of Texas, Governor W. R. Stubbs of Kansas and Governor John F. Shafroth of Colorado, will make addresses.

Nearly two hundred government heads, senators and congressmen will attend the meeting. Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance Company, will speak on Life Insurance and Justice, and Fred GOV. HERBERT S. HADLEY, of Missouri, who will deliver the Address of Welcome and Serve as a Member of the Program Committee.

W. Fleming, vice-president of the Kansas City Life Insurance Company, is president of the congress this year and will preside at all meetings.

Champ Clark, speaker of the House of Representatives, who is talked of for president, will address the congress during its four-days' session, and he chooses his own subject. S. M. Sparkman, chairman of the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors, will also attend. Some of the speakers on the improvement of waterways are: Walter S. Dickey of Kansas City, president of the Kansas City-Missouri River Navigation Company; Charles W. K. Kavanaugh of St. Louis, Congressman William P. Dorrland and Congressman Charles F. Bocher.

Senator William E. Borah of Idaho and Alva Adams, former governor of Colorado, will speak on the reclamation of land by drainage and irrigation. David R. Francis of St. Louis, former governor of Missouri, and John L. Powell, president of the Southwestern Shippers' Association, will be among those who will talk on interstate rates.

From every state west of the Mississippi River, and from Alaska, Hawaii and the Philippine Islands scores of delegates will come, ripe with ideas and suggestions to place before the congress. From each state of the Trans-Mississippi country will come twenty delegates, created so by their governor's appointment, and from each commercial club, board of trade, chamber of commerce, clearing house association and any other business or industrial organization so desiring, not more than ten delegates will take part in the deliberations of this congress.

It is a "free Forum" of the West, in which all peoples and classes participate. Through its efforts millions of dollars have been appropriated for waterways and irrigation improvements in the West, and scores of laws have been passed by the national congress regulating the commercial conduct of the country.

The Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress was organized in 1891, though its real birth was in Denver in the eighties, when Governor Alva Adams of Colorado, called into session the deep waterways interests. Other organizations whose object was practical waterways were also existent. The West, though it had grown into a country of wealth and prominence, was unable, because of a lack of political prestige, to obtain appropriations from congress for improving its waterways. The East, skilled in using the power of politics, "got the money." Tiring of such treatment, Kansas struck the first blow for recognition by calling a Western States Convention to be held in Kansas City, April 14 to 17, in 1891.

Men of national prominence answered the call, and for an infant step the move was a success. Later in the year in Manitou, Colo., this organization combined with two others of similar object—the Trans-Mississippi Congress and the Deep Water Convention—and formed the existing Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress.

Always first with the congress is river improvements. This year it is especially anxious to father a resolution which will result in congress appropriating twenty million dollars for making the Missouri River navigable between Kansas City and St. Louis. The Kansas City-Missouri River Navigation Company, which is now running boats on the river, and the Missouri River Improvement Association are not going to allow the congress to adjourn without adopting a resolution favoring this appropriation. It is very probable that Governor John Burke of South Dakota, interested in the Upper Missouri as its president, will call a special session of the Missouri Improvement Association to meet here in conjunction with the Trans-Mississippi.

SPEAKER CHAMP CLARK, who will attend the Trans-Mississippi Congress and Deliver an Address. He is a Strong Probability as Democratic Candidate for President.

This is the third time that the congress has met in Kansas City. It got its swaddling clothes in Kansas City, and again in 1906 when it had assumed powerful proportions, it met here. Convention Hall is designated as the meeting place, though special meetings will be held every morning in downtown theaters. The hall will seat 15,000 persons. As a feature of the entertainment Congressman William P. Borland of Kansas City, has obtained governmental permission to have the Panama pictures exhibited at the congress. Lieutenant George Goethals, son of the head of the Panama work, will show the pictures and talk on the canal. This is the first time the pictures have been shown publicly.

As another feature of entertainment the Kansas City Commercial Club will spread a huge banquet in Convention hall on the night of Nov. 14, in its annual celebration of the John Jay Treaty, particularly appropriate in connection with the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress. Fifteen hundred plates will be spread.

Delegates may be appointed by Commercial Clubs, Mayors of cities and towns and boards of county commissioners. Reduced rates have been authorized by the railroads to Kansas City.

T. C. Thompson Sick.

T. C. Thompson, manager of the Thompson Hardware Co., took sick yesterday while taking dinner at the Hotel Baltimore with a traveling salesman, and asking to be excused stepped in to the lobby to get his hat. He fainted as he reached upwards for his hat, and fell backwards striking his head on the cement floor. He did not rest well last night and this morning is reported by his family to still be suffering from the effects of the fall. A bilious attack is supposed to be the cause of his falling.

Congressman Stephens in Town.

Congressman John H. Stephens arrived in the city last evening to visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. Eakman. Mr. Stephens will return home this evening. His time in the city was so limited that it was impossible for him to make any public addresses as his friends here so much desired.

Football Today.

The Goodnight football team will arrive in the city this morning for a game with the Normal team this afternoon. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. The Normal team has been hard at work this week and a good game is promised.

Texas Productions.

The Federal Agricultural Department gives us a complete estimate on most items of farm production except live stock. While our live stock is valued at $378,762,400, production per annum is not of record and the live stock figures shown in the following table may, therefore, be considered only a rough estimate.

The table follows:

Cotton	$219,656,000
Corn	114,206,000
Wheat	18,404,000
Oats	11,433,000
Hay	8,532,000
Dairy Products	23,500,000
Fruit and Vegetable	24,000,000
Poultry and Eggs	25,500,000
Miscellaneous	10,000,000
Live Stock	100,000,000
Timber	6,000,000
Total	$561,231,000

Timber is added to the list in order to complete surface production. This stupendous total on its face points to a magnificent prosperity, but deducting consumption from production, we find the bulk of our money quickly melting away and when we build our homes and churches and school houses we have little left to invest in large industrial enterprises.

A Billion Dollars for Factories.

Texas needs a billion dollars for factories. The amount seems large but it would require an immediate investment of that amount to manufacture the raw material now being shipped out of the state and we have only one-fifth of our land under cultivation and our minerals are practically untouched.

A good way to encourage factory investments in Texas is to patronize home industries. Home patronage would result in flooding our present plants with orders and would require additional factories to take care of the business.

Texas is today the most inviting field on the globe for capital and when our opportunities are understood and our citizenship ready to welcome factory investments by patronizing the products, we will experience no difficulty in securing factories.

Recital Monday, Nov. 20.

The recital to be given at the State Normal School auditorium on Monday evening, Nov. 20, by Fred'k A. Herrmann and Prof. Eugene Peterson, promises to be a great treat for all lovers of good music. After a number of years spent under the best instructors to be had in America, Mr. Herrmann sailed for Europe two years ago to complete his education, returning last spring. His power of interpretation of the works of the great masters, along with his wonderful technique distinguishes him as an artist of the first rank. Mr. Peterson will render a number of his best songs, including the Bolero, "The Toreador's Song." The recital is under the auspices of the Sesame and Cousins Societies.
