

RANDALL COUNTY QUOTA FOR RED CROSS $3,760

RALLY IN CANYON NEXT MONDAY---BALL GAME

May 20-27 is the date set aside for the Red Cross Campaign in the United State.

But Randall county likes to do things just a little sooner than the rest of world, therefore the drive in this county was started this morning.

Randall county wants to be over the top by next Monday night.

Will you help do it?

The plan as suggested in the News of last week has been changed considerably. Instead of having men solicit the various school districts of the county, one hundred and twenty five men have been selected to raise $30 each and to have this money by next Monday afternoon.

Manager C. R. Burrow wants to wire to St. Louis Monday night that Randall county has gone over the top with her part.

The campaign starts this morning. Already a number of men have reported to Mr. Burrow that they have their $30.

The list of the 125 men is found on page two of this edition. If you have not been solicited, see one of them or go to Mr. Burrow.

A stirring letter has been mailed to each of the solicitors, and with the pep with which the campaign started, Randall county ought to be over by Saturday night.

But do not get over-confident. That is what happened to Dallas in the Liberty Loan campaign when she thought she had raised her quota the first day, and then discovered that she was far behind; and it took hard digging to get the quota.

Let every man, woman an child do his part. A day's salary or income has been suggested as the proper amount to pay. Let the offering be liberal. Every person must do his part or Randall county might fail in the undertaking. To fail would be an everlasting shame upon us.

A big Red Cross rally will be held at the Normal auditorium Sunday evening at 7:30.

No services will be held at the churches of town during this time and all our people are expected to go to the auditorium and catch the spirit of the Red Cross Drive.

The following will be the program: Music by the Normal Band.

Introduction—President R. B. Cousins.

Address—Hon. Thos. H. Turner, of Amarillo.

Monday's Program. Monday will be the real Red Cross Day of Randall county.

Owing to the Normal commencement there will be no program in the morning.

All of the business houses will close promptly at one o'clock and remain closed until four thirty.

At 1:15 a baseball game will be played between the east end of the county and the west end. H. C. McNeil is managing the east end and F. P. Luke is commander in chief of the west end forces.

It will be a battle royal and every citizen of Randall county must be there. If you haven't seen a ball game this year, come. If you saw the world's series last fall, come and see its superior. There will be something doing every minute of the game.

At 3:15 the Normal band will start the program in the Normal auditorium.

J. W. Reid is chairman of the afternoon.

At 8:30 President R. B. Cousins will address the people upon the Red Cross and the War. All of the people of this county should hear Mr. Cousins. He will have a great message for the people upon the war and what it means to us in America—right here in Randall county.

CUNNINGHAM AND TURNER ADDRESS FARMERS HERE

Dr. Cunningham and Judge Thos. F. Turner of Amarillo addressed the farmers Monday afternoon upon the need of food and feed production this year.

Dr. Cunningham outlined the plan whereby labor will be provided for the men who want it, and men furnished to the farmers who need labor. Every man in the Panhandle must go to work or go to jail.

Dr. Cunningham explained the system he had devised to work in the 44 counties over which he had charge as to the labor market. He will send men to places needed as long as there are men available, and then each locality must look after its own needs. T. C. Thompson is chairman of Randall county in the Food and Feed Campaign, and he is therefore used to explain the situation.

Mr. Thompson will soon set aside a day in Canyon for the purpose of ascertaining the labor situation. Each man will be asked how many days per week he will go to the country and work for the farmers. He will designate the days he will go. Each man is expected to arrange his business affairs so he can go. Then the farmers will be asked to let Mr. Thompson know when they will need hands.

Mr. Thompson will then send one of the men in Canyon to assist with the crop. The responsibility of the crop this year is on the man in town, and he must devote part of his time to assisting the farmer.

Amarillo has taken all of the territory in Randall county north of the canyon, so the territory to be covered by the business men of Canyon is considerably decreased. Persons having cars will be enlisted to take the men out to the various farm homes.

Judge Turner make a splendid address upon the war and its meaning to America. He pointed out the fact that America was criminally wasteful with food. There has been no sugar in England for two years. The people are on meat tickets, and get only a small chop a week. The woman who buys a new hat is a slacker. Luxuries of all kinds have long since vanished.

Mr. Turner pointed out the fact that Italy had an army of three million of men, but had only food enough to keep one million in the field. Yet Americans are eating and wasting more food than is necessary to keep us.

He pointed out the fact that the day of co-operation between the nations of the world was at hand. All are taking off their coats and going to work to raise food. It was necessary that the town man take a lively interest in the crops of the farmers and go when he calls for help. It was the duty of every man, as it was the duty of the boys to fight.

ERNEST ARCHAMBEAU AND CLARK NEFF ARE IN FRANCE

A cablegram was received this morning from Ernest Archambeau, stating that he and Clark Neff of Happy had landed safely in France.

The men are with the 513 Engineers and have been stationed at Newport News, Va., for the past month awaiting equipment.

Will Perfect Hobby Club.

Owing to so many other attractions last Friday night the attendance at the Hobby meeting at the court house was not large. It was therefore decided to wait a more favorable time for the organization of the Club in Randall county. Temporary officers were elected of C. W. Warwick, chairman, and A. N. Jensen, secretary.

A meeting will be called to complete the organization and elect permanent officers after the commencement exercises and Red Cross Drive are over.

Sells House—Buys Another.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Allen have sold their home on East Houston Street to Mrs. J. C. Bybee. They immediately bought the place of Mrs. Knieley's almost across the street. Possession in both cases will be given June 1st.

RED CROSS MOVES WORK ROOM 1st FLOOR OF COURT HOUSE

The Red Cross work room of the Randall county chapter was moved Tuesday night to the first floor of the court house, now occupying the room formerly assigned as the justice office.

Owing to the extra labor of carrying the large amount of material to the second floor, and then carrying back the finished garments a few days later, the women of the Chapter asked the Commissioners to make the change with the consent of Judge Shelnett the order was made Tuesday.

Judge Shelnett will have his office on the second floor in the room formerly occupied by the assessor.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY WILL BE GIVEN FRIDAY AT NORMAL

Ballard of this city, and has been teaching at Stratford during the past year. Mr. Vicks is in the navy, having gone from his school work in the Normal when the war first started.

Mr. G. S. Ballard attended the wedding. Mr. Vicks left Stratford for his duties with Uncle Sam, while his bride will go back to Stratford to take up her school work.

PALACE HOTEL SOLD TO McNEIL AND HENSON TUESDAY

A deal was closed Tuesday whereby the Palace Hotel and the three business houses belonging to J. W. Webb were sold to H. F. McNeil of Alhambra, California, and A. N. Henson of this city. Mr. Henson will take the active management of the property on June 1st.

The property exchanged in the deal consists of the Palace Hotel building and the three rooms north of this, the first of which is now being converted into a store building, next the Star Barber Shop and the third being the post office. The Henson residence in the southeast part of Canyon was taken in the deal by Mr. Webb, to which he will move his family June 1st.

The people of Canyon wish the new owners of the hotel the very best of success. The exchange of the Henson home reminds the old time residents of Canyon that it was twenty years ago that Mr. and Mrs. Henson came to Canyon and settled upon that property. Mr. Henson built a one room house on the property. The property now has a large house, a very fine orchard and garden and without a doubt the largest and best selection of flowers to be seen in any town of the plains country. Mr. and Mrs. Henson regretted very much to give up their old place after such a long time residence there.

Misses Thelma Reid and Thelma McGee were in Amarillo Saturday evening.

TRADES DAY MONDAY WELL ATTENDED FOR THE SEASON

Trades Day in Canyon Monday was well attended, taking into consideration the season of the year. As many of the farmers as are able to do so are not working in the fields, and many did not stop to take in the Trades Day. Owing to this fact there was not large enough attendance from the east and west parts of the county to pull off the tug of war which had been planned for the day. This event will be given a place on the program when the proper number of men from each section attends a Trades Day.

The auction sale was very successful and most of the articles on sale brought a fair price.

Next Trades Day, in June, will be candidate day. All district and county candidates will be asked to make very brief talks before the people.

Adams for County Commissioner

At the solicitation of my friends and neighbors I have decided to become a candidate for County Commissioner, Precinct No. 4, subject to the Democratic Primary, July 26, 1918.

I have lived in Randall County 18 years and in Texas 22 years. I have always voted in the Democratic Primaries and supported the ticket nominated by that party since coming to Texas, notwithstanding the fact that I had voted the Republican ticket before coming to Texas.

If I am elected I shall endeavor to fill the office to the best of my ability. E. E. ADMAS.

Two More Men to Army.

Elbridge Gatewood left Friday for San Antonio where he enters the new National Army.

Henry Musgrove left yesterday on the same mission. He goes to Austin with a bunch of mechanics where they will be given special training. Calls will come nearly every week now for men for the army.

Building New Home.

J. H. Crowley is building a new house 12x20 on his place southwest of the city.

D. & Y. FURNITURE COMPANY MOVING TO EAST SIDE HOUSE

The D. & Y. Furniture Company has rented the store room on the East Side of the square, formerly occupied by L. T. Davault, who has closed out his furniture business, and the firm is now moving to the new location. For the present they will keep their auto painting shop in the building on the south side of the square.

The D. & Y. firm has bought a large amount of new furniture and will put in Canyon a first class furniture business. They have enjoyed a remarkable business since opening up a second hand business on the south side. The new room will give them much better facilities in displaying their big line of furniture.

CASH LIBERTY BOND COUPONS BUY W. S. S. WITH INTEREST

Yesterday, May 15, the first coupon on the Liberty Loan Bonds of the Second Issue was due. Clip the coupons and take them to the banks where they may be cashed.

But don't take the money. Just tell the banker to give you War Savings Stamps instead of the money. The government needs your aid and by investing the interest of your bonds in the Stamps you will materially offer aid.

The First National Bank and the First State Bank will be pleased to cash your coupons or make the exchange for War Savings Stamps.

Visit by the Stork.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gray Oldham on Wednesday of last week.

The State of Texas, County of Randall: I, T. V. Reeves, Clerk of the County Court of Randall County, Texas, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct exhibit for the year ending January 31, 1918, as shown by the Finance Ledger of said county, as required by article 824b General Laws of Texas.
Given under by hand and seal of said Court in my office at Canyon, Texas, this 22nd day of April, A. D. 1918.

for twelve to fifteen millions of dollars per year to pay for our state government, whereas it used to require only two to three millions. On top of that the West Texas boy can never hope to be governor of his state or to represent his state in the halls of the United States senate. They say to us thus far shall you come and no father. Our children are penalized because we live in this western country. No man would consider a candidate for governor who dared announce while residing west of the Brazos river. Seventy-five of every one hundred dollars spent by the state is spent east of a line drawn from north to south through the center of Texas. The average east Texan knows no more of the conditions in West Texas than a citizen of New York who has never been south of Washington.

In the face of all that, there be those in West Texas, and we do not wish to criticize them for it, who would die before they would vote to divide Texas. Texas may never be divided, we do not know, but we do know that development in West Texas will be slow until the state is divided and people make laws for West Texas that know something of the needs of West Texas. Vermont, North and South Carolina furnish ample fields for investigation as to what a small state can and will do when given a chance. Texas is big enough for five states; Texas, East Texas, North Texas, Central Texas, and West Texas. Let Texas continue to include Austin, the Alamo and all the scenes of sacred and cherished memory, while the new states would be permitted to set about building up in their own way and under their own responsibility a history that down through the coming centuries would become glorious. "What man has done, man may do." Others have builded well states that had not the promise that the new states carved out of Texas would have, and Texans with interests the same, thinking alike would not fail to do as much. Then every man's boy would stand upon an equal basis. It would not be necessary that a man live in a certain locality for his ability to be called to the task of serving the people.—Abilene Reporter.

A CHANCE FOR FERGUSON.

A great many of the thinking men of the United States have come to realize that political campaigns, as usually carried on, are anything but patriotic. At this time, the nation cannot afford to spend large sums of money such as are put into the hands of campaign managers each year for expenses incident to securing the election of party nominees. Neither can we afford to spend time listening to political harangues. Our business at the present moment is war and while it would be decidedly revolutionary to allow the people to make their choice of candidates without endeavoring to stir up party feeling and besmirch the character of the opposing candidates it is a reformation that should, by all means, be undertaken.

Herein lies a perfectly good opportunity for Ex-Governor Ferguson to prove that he is sincere in his expressed love for the people of Texas. His candidacy is an imposition upon the citizens that should never have been allowed—if it is allowed—in the first place, particularly this year when every cent that every individual can spare should be loaned to the Government. In forcing his candidacy, Mr. Ferguson is doing an unpatriotic act and the money that he and his friends expect to put up for campaign expenses should be used to buy Liberty Bonds. Will Mr. Ferguson prove his love and his patriotism by withdrawing? If he were a really great man, there would be no question as to his course in the present emergency.

Two and a half million pounds of flour have been returned to retailers by the consumers of 42 Arkansas counties, in response to the food administrator's appeal against the hoarding of wheat and wheat products. This is real patriotism. Arkansas, which has every kind of food-stuff in abundance, but is as fond of hot biscuits as any other of the 48 states, is going to lose nothing by responding to Mr. Hoover's call, while her prompt and generous giving will mean much for those who are bearing the brunt of the battle in Europe.

Do Not Get Careless With Your Blood Supply

Impurities Invite Disease.

You should pay particular heed to any indication that your blood supply is becoming sluggish, or that there is a lessening in its strong and vital force.

By keeping your blood purified, your system more easily wards off disease that is ever present, waiting to attack wherever there is an open ing. A few bottles of S. S. S., the great vegetable blood medicine, will revitalize your blood and give you new strength and a healthy, vigorous vitality. Everyone needs it just now to keep the system in perfect condition. Go to your drug store and get a bottle to-day, and if you need any medical advice, you can obtain it without cost by writing to Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 25 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta Ga.

BOTH ARE RIGHT.

(From Southwest Plainsman.)

The Colorado Record, one of the best edited and best printed weekly newspapers in Texas, considers the so-called drouth relief bill "one of the biggest jokes ever put over on the West by the East Texas law makers," and the Record is right about it. The lawmakers who passed the law were a great deal more interested in passing a vote getting measure than they were in providing relief for the drouth sufferers in the west, if we may be allowed to express our opinion of the law. Among other things the bill provides that the County Commissioners shall pledge the credit of the county to the state for the funds loaned to the farmers, the county thus becoming responsible for the money loaned and must repay it regardless of whether the person who used it even makes an effort to pay within two years, and the law makes no provision for the levy of a special tax to meet the deficit which is sure to occur. The farmer is left to live on hot air while he makes a crop from the seed bought from the money thus provided with everything he has, or expects to have, tied up to the state so that no merchant will sell him goods nor bank loan him money.

As the Record points out the law is nothing short of another East Texas camouflage handed out by East Texas law makers who know and care nothing for West Texas, except that it be held in the iron grip of East Texas as a plaything politically and to assist in paying taxes into the state treasury. Taylor county refused the deception and rightly so. There is no relief about the law. Any man who gets money under its provisions mortgages his all and on top of that places his county in an embarrassing position.

The Record further says: "West Texas will never get her just dues until the state is divided and we can have our own government for West Texas, by West Texas people—people who know this country and its needs."

"Right you are again, Mr. Record. We folks who live in the west, some of us, make ourselves believe that should Texas be divided we could not get money enough to run a state government; when the facts are that state institutions established in the eastern part of Texas have secured increased legislative appropriations within the last ten years that now call

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Pabwick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would grip me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before. I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not had to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape."

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative I have ever used. Theodor's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects. It has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it. NO. 128

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

Always On Time!

Men of action refuse to be dependent upon slow moving, congested trolley cars. They realize that their time is worth money. And, quite naturally, they find the solution of this time problem in a dependable motor car—the most efficient form of transportation that has ever been developed.

A little reflection should convince you that any man can do a better day's work with a Paige. In the entire field of automobiles there is no car with a more firmly established reputation for dependability. Because the Paige performs its work unflinchingly, it has been adopted by those men who are best equipped to judge the efficiency of any mechanical product.

SEVEN RECIPES FOR BREAD OF WHEAT SUBSTITUTES TO REPLACE "LUXURY BREAD."

By Using These Recipes Texans Will Aid in Making Wheatless Period of 45 Days a Success.

In adopting a wheatless program for Texas from April 15, 1918, to June 1, 1918—and longer if there be a need—the Federal Food Administrator sought out a period of the year in which cornmeal and corn-

Flour is abundant; as well as numerous other substitutes, which may replace wheat flour. Naturally, the elimination of wheat flour has awakened a keen interest on the part of hotels, restaurants and public eating places, as well as the homes, to secure recipes for making bread of substitutes which are as good, if not better, than "luxury bread."

Miss Lou Stallman, director of Home Economics for the Federal Food Administration for Texas, has prepared seven excellent recipes for wheatless bread. All the recipes have been carefully worked out and tested and are offered to the public of Texas with the approval of Federal Food Administrator Peden:

Corn Flour Biscuit.
 1 cup liquid
 3/4 cups corn flour
 2 tablespoons fat
 2 teaspoons baking powder
 1 teaspoon salt
 Appearance, good.
 Texture, very dry and close, although not heavy.
 Color, white.
 Flavor, slight corn flavor.
 Comment, most nearly the appearance of wheat biscuit of any of the substitutes used.

Cornmeal Hoe Cakes.
 5 cups cornmeal (sifted with water)
 1 tablespoonful oil
 1 egg
 2 teaspoons baking powder (level)
 Add enough milk to make the mixture thinner than ordinary cake batter. Bake three at a time on a hot griddle as griddle cakes. Small ones are best, as there is less waste on each plate after serving. Boiled rice may be substituted for part of the cornmeal.

BOSTON BROWN BREAD.
 1/2 cup oat flour
 1 cup cornmeal
 1/2 cup rice flour
 1 cup cotton seed flour
 1/2 tablespoon soda
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup molasses
 2 cups sour milk
 Sift dry ingredients, add molasses and milk (mix together). Put in oiled baking powder cans and steam 3 1/2 hours. Small cans less time. Covers must be oiled also and well tied on. Do not fill cans over 2/3 full.

CORNMEAL STICKS.
 1 pint boiling water and milk
 1 pint cornmeal
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 tablespoon liquid fat
 Stir meal into boiling liquid to make stiff mush. Add seasoning, cool and mold into finger rolls. Bake in hot oven until crisp and brown, about 45 minutes. May be patted into small cakes and when baked served with lamb stew in place of dumplings.

CORN MUFFINS, OR BREAD WITH-OUT WHEAT.
 1 cup cornmeal
 1 tablespoon fat, scald;
 1 egg
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon baking powder.
 Milk to make consistency of batter (cake). Bake in muffin tins (serves 8). Boiled rice may be substituted for part of the meal.

RICE FLOUR WAFFLES.
 2 cups milk
 1 egg (beaten)
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 Rice flour to make batter
 4 teaspoons shortening
 4 teaspoons baking powder.
 (Use a little more oil on waffle irons than when baking wheat waffles.) Use same mixture and bake as muffins. Delicious.

INDIAN PUDDING.
 5 cups scalded milk
 1/2 cup cornmeal
 1 teaspoon ginger
 1/2 cup molasses
 1 teaspoon salt.
 Note—Pour scalded milk slowly on meal. Cook in double boiler 20 minutes; add other ingredients; pour into oiled baking dish. Bake two hours in slow oven. If baked too rapidly it will not whiff. Serve with cream.

Note—Vary all cornmeal dishes by small amount boiled rice. Excellent flavor and texture. Rice paste may be made 100 per cent rice flour. Make same as wheat pastry. However, any pastry calls for a high percentage of fat, which is needless use of fat. The making of pies and cakes is to be discouraged, as these products are usually used as a superfluous addition to the diet. Fruits make a more healthful dessert.

How can you save wool?

"Economy in the consumption of all the things needed by the nation for the winning of the war—the releasing of labor and materials from the pursuits of peace to the business of war—these fundamental necessities of our war program must be understood by all our people if we are to put our whole strength behind our men in France."

(From a statement by the Secretary of the Treasury, published in the Chicago Tribune.)

SAVING wool is one of the things the country needs, and it's one of the things you can do. The best way to save wool is to stop wasting it; fabrics that don't give long wear are not economy; they're waste.

The economy is in the service that all-wool fabrics give; such clothes wear so much longer, and look so much better, that even at the higher price they cost less, and waste less.

That's why we sell all-wool clothes; that's why Hart Schaffner & Marx make them; such clothes save in service.

"It should not be a hardship for the people of Texas to go without wheat-bread; YOU have so much to replace wheat, and WE in FRANCE have not. And then—

"I SPEAK FOR FRANCE. Lieutenant Perrigord, he is nothing. My country is grateful to you—she is more than grateful to you. There is no recording of what France has endured during these years of war, and yet she remains steadfast. You will not permit My France to starve."

Lieutenant Perrigord, Special Representative of the French Republic.

Hicks' Disciples At Work.
 Last Tuesday night some party or parties with not nerve enough to face anything in the open but like a slinking slimy reptile took advantage of the cover of darkness to hide their dirty work and broke out four large plate glass windows for Proc Harris and two windows and the glass door of the Bank. In each place was found a note as follows:
 Slackers! Cowards!
 Leaders of Mob Law!
 Take the hint and be good.
 There is no question but what this work was done by some disciple of Madison Hicks who is standing square with him but unlike him has not the nerve to come out in the open.—Camarago (Okla.) Comet.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.
 Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops the Cough and Headache and works the Cold. It gives relief and money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. 50c.
Pampa Boasts A Young Patriot.
 The fact was recently published in several papers that at Wichita Falls a 5-year-old girl had knit a sweater for the Red Cross. That is very good, but we have a young lady 8-years-old Miss Euritha Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry, who has also done considerable in Red Cross and other patriotic lines.

 She has helped to make 100 pillows, and is at present knitting on her fourth Red Cross piece; she owns a Liberty Bond and has drawn interest on same, which she immediately invested in Thrift Stamps; she has already filled two Thrift Stamp books and exchanged them for War Saving Stamps. Little Miss Barrett has always made A in her school work and has not missed a music lesson yet. She now wants her father to repaint the home, as she does not approve of "yellow" at all.—Pampa News.

Bond Issue Not Approved.
 By reason of the fact that the bond election order made the $30,000 road bonds recently voted at Hedley, payable in 40 years whereas the new law says that they must be matured in not more than 30 years, the issue has not been approved.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 PER YEAR

What would the Red Cross be worth to you if you were one of those Randall county boys who are now lying wounded in the Red Cross hospitals of Europe? It means the life of those two boys, and before this war is over, we may expect to have many more Randall county boys in those Red Cross hospitals. What are we going to do when these boys come home? How are we going to face them? Can we face them like men and deep down in our hearts say, "Old fellow, our money was right there, all we could give, just when you needed it," or are we going to have to sneak around the corner whenever one of these fellows whose lives we might have saved and almost forgot to do it, comes back to live with us again. The people of Randall county have a great responsibility resting upon them in the Red Cross campaign. To fail to raise the quota of $3760 would greatly discourage the boys who are offering their lives for their country, whereas the people of Randall county are asked to give only an average of about $100 per person to care for the boys when they are sick or wounded.

The women of Randall county should get together and organize at once in order to get out every woman voter in the July primary. The right of suffrage has been extended to the women and they should not now fail to do their duty as citizens. The opponents of woman suffrage would be glad to see suffrage in this first election a failure. They would be very much pleased to find that only a few of the women go to the polls. They would be glad to see the women stay away, for every woman that stay away means one more vote for the gang who oppose equal suffrage, prohibition, clean politics, and who want to see Ferguson elected.

Governor Hobby opened his campaign Saturday with a review of his administration and made his statement as to what he would do if re-elected. Governor Hobby is an able man, and a clean man. He believes that a governor should observe the law as well as the common man. Ferguson believes that to be governor gives him license to violate the law, hence the impeachment. The law-abiding citizens are behind Hobby. There are many good men, misguided by the plea of martyrdom, and blinded by the lies of Ferguson who will actually vote for Jim, but on the whole his support comes alone from the other element of the state.

J. W. Crudgington, candidate for congress against Marvin Jones, charges that an Amarillo lawyer took money from the government as Jones' secretary, and remained all of the while in Amarillo practicing law. That being the case, Jones and his supposed secretary were defaulting the government and therefore would have been in prison long ago if Mr. Crudgington had done his duty and reported the fraud to the government. Crudgington seems to be basing his campaign strictly on lies and misrepresentation rather than upon the truth. Will the people of this district stand for such practices? Wait until the 26th of July, and see the overwhelming Jones victory.

Rumanian has signed a German peace—meaning Germany takes what she wants of the little country, and give the natives the scraps. That is what Germany would like to do with the United States.

President Wilson is calling upon the biggest men in the United States to take the biggest jobs the world has ever had to offer any men. The President has been severely criticised for not calling these big men sooner. Wilson is on the job, and knows his business. Had he called Gary or Schwab to a government position a year ago Wilson would have been mobbed as a tool of Wall Street. He used the men who were available. He must wake up the people to the big job this country had before it, and then when the time was right, call upon the master minds, and these are found in the big corporations.

Complain is being made in other sections that people are buying War Saving Stamps, and in a few days returning them for the cash. This does the government no good—in fact costs the government money instead of benefitting it. We have heard but little complaint in Canyon of this practice. Put your money behind the government just like the boys are putting their life behind the government—just as long as it is needed.

To the person who thinks Red Cross demands are coming too often: How would you like to go up against what our boys and our allies are going up against thirty days of the month? How would you like to try that for a single month, at the price they get? There is not enough money in the world to entice most of such men to stand up against the German bullets even for a minute.

The first bunch of Sammies to parade in London were looked upon with mere curiosity. The Sammies then had no reputation. Saturday another bunch paraded the streets of London. Lloyd-George, the King and Queen and all the high officials stood in line and cheered them. The Sammies on the front have thoroughly established a reputation that demands respect and recognition, even from the Kaiser.

The people of Germany will probably revolt because the Kaiser is their ruler, when the people of the United States impeach President Wilson. Fifty year's training is not forgotten in four years, even if the most desperate years, especially when the people know little or nothing of what is really going on.

Crudgington is truly an administration man. During the impeachment proceedings in Austin last year, it was necessary for the people of Amarillo to petition him in order that he would vote to impeach Ferguson. That is a splendid recommendation of said Crudgington as an administration man.

Randall county will go over the top with the Second Red Cross Drive—provided you and I do our full duty. Of course, she will go over the top any way—but some one may have to make up for our stinginess.

Senator Culberson is out for woman suffrage—which is a splendid indication that the cause will win hands down. Culberson takes only the safe bets.

Has any of the one hundred and twenty five men seen you about your part due the Red Cross? If not see one of them, or call upon County Manager C. R. Burrow.

President Wilson has designated the annual Memorial Day, May 30, as a day of prayer for the success of our armies and our allies.

Our boys are giving 30 days a month to Uncle Sam. Are you going to give one day's wage or income to support these boys?

Ferguson and Crudgington will NOT get the vote of Randall county.

Randall county is going to go over the top in the Red Cross drive.

REV. J. T. McCLURE-PLEAS THAT WOMEN VOTE IN JULY

Rev. J. T. McClure of Abilene was in the city Friday and spoke to a small crowd at the court house on the issues of the day, pertaining principally to the liquor traffic. He charged that the liquor interests were still fighting in Texas, and would continue to fight until through eradicated. He charged that the liquor interests were particularly interested to see that the good women did not vote. Mr. McClure pointed out that it was absolutely necessary that the woman vote in this primary. There is too much at stake. The government has given the ballot to the women that they might defend the thousands of noble young men who are at the front to defend them, thus turning over to the rough and unfit element of the state nearly the political balance. If Ferguson is elected, it means the repeal of the ten-mile zone law and the turning loose upon the army camps hundreds of immoral women. It means the repeal of statutory prohibition. It means the repeal of woman suffrage. It means the repudiation of the United States constitutional amendment prohibiting the liquor traffic.

The speaker charged that Ferguson was a worthy friend of the Kaiser in his stand upon these questions. He charged that Ferguson had always fought Wilson, fighting his nomination in his precinct, in his county, in the state convention, and in the national convention. He charged that Ferguson by the use of the rangers sought to engage this nation in trouble with Mexico. He charged that Ferguson had said women did not have sense enough to vote. "A vote for this man is a vote for the Kaiser," is his summary of the question. He urged that the women organize at once and get out all of the women to vote in the primary election.

They Gave till they died

First of the American Army—they died in France! Gresham! Enright! Hay! They died for us. And willingly! But not, pray God, in vain!

For the sake of them, if for no other reason, will you not give to the Red Cross which will care for the men that follow them?

For the sake of what they died for, will you not give—and give till the heart says stop?

None of us here can give as greatly as they gave and as others are yet to give. But can we not sacrifice ourselves a little? Will you take a little from the comforts of your life and give, not a mere "conscience gift" that saves your pride and lets you say to yourself: "I have given to the Red Cross"—but a gift that cuts down into the quick and hurts because it makes you deny yourself?

Remember—they gave till they died!

Every Cent of Every Dollar Received for the Red Cross War Fund Goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War torn allied country. It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it. President Wilson heads it.

The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.

Makes Some 'Fish' Catch.

Herman Belles has established a new record among the local fishermen. Sunday he dropped a dyack into the Palo Duro creek and almost instantly felt a jerk on the line. Before pulling it out of the water, there was another jerk. When he finally landed the catch, he had two three-pound black bass on two of the hooks, both of which were caught in the mouth. He states that he had quite a time landing the fish and was fearful the line would break. His father and Mr. Wallace were with him at the time.

Regarding Flour.
May 10, 1918.
To the Citizens of Randall County:
The public in general has been notified through the Press that the government wants every person that has purchased large quantities of flour and now has this flour on hand to return same to the merchant that they purchased same from, so that the present shortage of wheat flour may be relieved. The Government feels that this demand has been given such a wide circulation that every person can't help but know of same.
We have notified every person that we have learned that had large quantities of wheat flour in their possession, to return same at once, but there is a number of citizens in this county that NOW has more wheat flour than the government permits them to have.
It is every citizen's duty to return all the wheat flour that he has over and above six pounds per person in his family that is over six years old, and not wait to be notified by the County or District Food Administrator to return same.

The government has provided a heavy penalty for all persons that do not comply with this demand to return the wheat flour that they have on hand over and above the thirty days' allowance. Every person that fails to return the flour that he has on hands over and above the thirty days' allowance by May 20th, will be looked upon by the State Food Administration as persons that are wilfully, ignoring and violating the law of the government, and will be treated as such.

CLIP THIS AND PIN ON WIFE'S DRESSER

Cincinnati man tells how to shrivel up corns or calluses so they lift off with fingers.

Ouch ! ! ! ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn or hardened callos stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callus dries up and lifts right off without pain.

He says freezone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freezone tell him to order a small bottle for you.

EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

The purebred Shorthorn steer, Benoit Dale, owned by the Oklahoma A. and M. College, ended a long and successful career at Fort Worth, Texas, in March, when he won the killing contest with a dressing percent of 69.81c. This is a remarkable record, as very few beef animals ever dress this high. In fact, there are only a very few records superior to this. This dressing percent was 1.24 above that of his next competitor at Fort Worth.

It must be very difficult to be a German cartoonist and not be allowed to call attention to the fact that the Crown Prince looks exactly like a dachshund.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

ARMY AND NAVY NEED TRAINED MEN

THOUSANDS OF EXPERT WORKERS WANTED IN CIVILIAN BRANCHES OF SERVICE.

MEAT CAREFULLY INSPECTED

Every Part of the Supply for Army Use is Scrutinized, From Stock Yards to Mess—Desertions From Camps Due to Discouraging Letters.

(From Committee on Public Information.) Washington.—The civilian branches of the army and navy are in need of thousands of highly trained workers, and before the end of 1918 these branches must be increased by at least 20,000, according to the civil service commission.

The ordnance department of the army needs large numbers of mechanical engineers, draftsmen, chemists, and metallurgists. Thousands of inspectors are wanted to pass on the quality of ordnance, ammunition, and other supplies. For office work statisticians, accountants, assistants in business administration, and specially trained clerks are needed.

The quartermaster corps wants several thousand examiners and inspectors, and passenger and freight clerks are needed. The signal corps is short of draftsmen.

The navy has an unlimited number of places for draftsmen, and a long list of positions for technical workers. Practically all branches of the service need stenographers, typists, bookkeepers, and clerks.

The army consumes about 2,000,000 pounds per day of fresh beef. This necessitates the slaughter daily of 4,000 cattle. Official inspectors scrutinize every part of this supply from the time it comes on the hoof to the abattoir until it vanishes from the mess tin of the soldier.

Inspection begins at the stock yards, where the living animals undergo the examination of an official for any evidence of physical defect which might be difficult of detection later. Where there is doubt the questionable animals are separated for closer examination. Where there is certainty of defect, the animal is rejected as unfit for food supply.

Next comes a rigid examination of the carcass. Only when found "sound, healthful, and wholesome" is the meat passed as acceptable for food and duly branded with a nonpoisonous vegetable ink, "United States Inspected and Passed." The unfit carcasses are destroyed.

Fresh meats thus indorsed go forward in regular shipments, but those which are to undergo curing, canning, or manufacture into sausages, lard, oleomargarine, etc., are subjected to re-inspections at each step. For these there is a final inspection just previous to their dispatch for army use. Samples are regularly collected for chemical analysis in the government laboratories.

When the meats arrive at the army stations they are again inspected either by inspectors of the bureau of animal industry or by veterinarian officers of the army. They must also obtain the approval of the officer of the quartermaster corps receiving them. And they undergo their final test when the soldier's immediate organization commander looks them over before he permits them to be served to his men.

Included in war department regulations regarding the employment of prisoners of war and interned enemy aliens are the following statements:

All classes of prisoners, excepting commissioned officers and such others as are physically not fit to labor, will be required to perform work necessary for their comfort or for the upkeep of their prison barracks. Interned enemy aliens will not be held for compulsory labor except as provided in this paragraph.

Prisoners of war, excepting officers, warrant, petty, and noncommissioned officers, may be required to work for the public service—they may be authorized to work on their own account. Under exceptional circumstances, when specially authorized by the secretary of war, they may, upon their written request, be authorized to work for private persons or for corporations. Petty and noncommissioned officers may be authorized to work on their own account, and, upon their written request, may be authorized to work in the same manner as other prisoners of war, except that they will be employed in a supervisory capacity only.

An order for labor will be regarded as a military command, and prisoners failing to obey such order will be punished accordingly.

When employed on work that is necessary for their comfort, or for the upkeep of the prison barracks in which they are interned, prisoners will receive no compensation. When the work is done for the government prisoners will be paid at a rate according to the work executed; when the work is done for other branches of the public service or for private persons the conditions of and the compensation for such work will be settled in agreement between representatives of said branches or persons and the adjutant general of the army.

In a recent statement the war department strongly advises against discouraging letters to soldiers:

"Recent reports from commanding generals of certain army divisions indicate that one of the fruitful causes of soldiers absenting themselves without leave is the discouraging letter from home. Such letters frequently give alarming and exaggerated reports of conditions surrounding the soldier's family, that some member is desperately ill, that all are starving, or that they are being in some way harassed. In instances such letters have so preyed upon the minds of soldiers that they have absented themselves without leave to go home, only to find that conditions had been grossly exaggerated.

"Meanwhile the soldier had been absent without leave—a serious military offense. This problem then became one of facing the penalty or getting deeper into trouble by deserting. Sometimes a man's pride or fear has led him to desert.

"Every soldier wants to receive letters from home. They should be frequent, cheerful, hopeful, and appreciative of the sacrifice that he is making for his country. They should be full of family incidents and cheerful home gossip. They should protect him from the trifling alarms and the small annoyances of everyday life. They should encourage him by giving full confidence that his family and his friends stand behind him in the great enterprise he has undertaken.

"The value of such letters to soldiers is beyond estimate. The harm that discouraging letters from home do to him is clearly indicated by reports at the adjutant general's office. Here are some extracts from recent reports of division commanders:

"I find, also, that many of the families of the men write to them of unsatisfactory conditions at home, sickness of relatives, and how much various members of the family wish to see the soldier. These letters, so far as sickness, etc., are concerned, are often overdrawn, but combined with the homesick feeling, often result in the man going absent without leave and finally being dropped as a deserter."

"I am now, through the newspapers of Indiana and through lecturers in Kentucky, whom we are able to reach through the office of the adjutant general of that state, endeavoring to advise the home people of these men of the seriousness of these offenses and that their efforts should be to assist every man in performing his duty that has devolved on him, to lighten his worries, and above all, to regard desertion in its proper light. I shall also attempt to get the West Virginia papers to institute a campaign of education along similar lines."

"A division inspector submitted the following in this connection:

"While stationed at Columbus barracks, Ohio, last year I was a member of a general court-martial that tried approximately 100 enlisted men for desertion from National Guard regiments stationed on the border. I believe I am safe in saying that at least 90 per cent of them gave as their reason for desertion the fact that they had received letters from home to the effect that a wife, sister, or mother was either dying, very ill, or in destitute circumstances, and begged the man to come home at once. Many of the men admitted that when they arrived home they found that the writer of the letter had exaggerated conditions."

"Many young soldiers, fresh from home, suffer from homesickness, no matter how army officers may try to make their surroundings pleasant and comfortable and provide proper amusements. Extraordinary measures have been taken by the war department during the past year to keep the young soldier actively engaged while in camp with sports, amusements, and comforts that a wholesome psychology might be sustained. Still, a type of soldier will yearn for home and fall into a brooding mood. It is obvious how harmful to him and to the service a disconnected letter from home might be."

The enrollment of more than 102,000 boys between sixteen and twenty-one years of age for farm work this season in the boys' working reserve of the United States employment service has been made by six states, according to an announcement by the department of labor. The states first reporting were: California, 22,000; Indiana, 18,845; Illinois, 25,000; Ohio, 18,000; Tennessee, 4,200; Wisconsin, 14,000.

In Rhode Island high school boys are being enrolled in the reserve, trained in handling farm machinery, and sent in groups by automobile to farmers to demonstrate their ability.

Men's colleges and universities are making prompt response to the request of Secretary of Labor Wilson that their students be enrolled in the public service reserve and placed on farms this summer to assist in food production. They will be placed with farmers through the United States employment service, with the aid of the county agents of the department of agriculture.

Swimming is to be taught soldiers in some training camps this summer as a military requirement, according to the commission on training camp activities. A statement by the commission shows that 118,000 soldiers in camps participated in organized basket ball last season.

The allotment of meat purchases for the army, navy, and marine corps and the allies has been consolidated in a single bureau, with headquarters in Chicago.

$5 $25 $100 $500

There is only one way to give to the Red Cross—give till your heart says stop. A little contribution is only a salve to pride.

This is not to say that contributions of only one dollar, or even of only one nickel, are not desired—and needed.

For you to give $5 when you can give $25—for you to give $25 when you can give $100, or to give $100 when you can give $500—is to dodge the heaviest obligation that this war has laid upon you.

For remember, this is not a charity.—This is a duty.

This is not a time to give because others give. This is a time to give because others need.

No man can tell you how much you ought to give. Except this: that "Over There" the need is so great that only by cutting to the quick, only by giving all that you think you can give and then more—only by taking from your own children and from your wife and from yourself, can the needs of the men who are fighting for you and the needs of the children of the men who have died for you be met.

Ask your own soul how much it should be!

Every Cent of Every Dollar Received for the Red Cross War Fund Goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War torn allied country. It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity. It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it. President Wilson heads it. The War Department audits its accounts. Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.

The Lubbock Avalanche has suggested that we have a smokeless week. That is that all men do without their tobacco for one week and buy Thrift Stamps with the money. It is peculiar how few have shown any favorable disposition toward doing so. We are all glad to observe wheatless months whenever necessary and to have Betty and the children join us in meatless days every week, but we want to tell the Avalanche that he is butting into our own private affairs and infringing upon our personal liberties when he goes to talking about our smokes.—Lynn County News.

Lubbock Avalanche. Now Shaw, we would have thought you would have been the last man on earth to take offense at our suggestion. Surely you must only be poking fun at us. Surely you can see the wisdom of the suggestion. Surely you can see where a great big saving could come in. If you are so prejudiced and thick-headed that you cannot see this at a glance just read the following figures from the pen of one of our lady citizens who has taken the time to figure it out. One who has been denying herself and household of some luxuries of life in order to comply with the requests of the government—helping to win the war, while hubby goes on chawing his

"terbacker" and smoking his highly flavored "Havany." Here are the figures:

"I haven't been in any town of any size for years that hasn't a half dozen or more cigar stores. The druggists all sell cigars. Some of the barber shops sell them. All restaurants and hotels sell them. I heard a man complaining the other day that the price of cigars had gone up but I didn't hear him say anything about cutting them down on his daily allotment.

"Suppose that 10,000,000 men smoke a half dollar's worth of cigars and tobacco a day. It would take about four days' abstinence to raise that $35,000,000 for the Y. M. C. A. wouldn't it? A year's expenditure would mighty near pay off the first Liberty Loan, wouldn't it? And what do you men get out of it anyway—sour stomachs, ugly morning dispositions and an offensive personal stench?"

"Why don't you lords of creation do something yourselves? Why don't you have cigarless and tobaccoless days? While suggesting so much to us women why don't you organize a week of no tobacco, no downtown lunches, no treating and the like of that, and turn your money saved over to the Y. M. C. A., the Belgians, or the babies that are starving while you burn up good money for nothing except arterial sclerosis?"

Uncle Sam is today the quartermaster of a hungry world. He is playing the game squarely and counts on every American to do the same.

The Red Cross is for those who suffer

War has not brought new sufferings, but it has enormously multiplied suffering and has caused misery to fall in new places and in horrible combinations.

The old who were protected, the children who were sheltered, the women who were cherished, have been called upon to endure to the uttermost. Upon those countries exhausted in death grips the blows have fallen hardest; upon those least able to meet them calamities have piled upon calamities. It happens that this full load of tragedy has not fallen upon us, but it happens by the same token we may help to meet it.

The Red Cross aims to be where human needs are, and to act as its individual members would, could they be present and endowed with the same means.

The Red Cross is helping our soldiers and sailors in a practical way. It is helping the comfort and the spirit of our Allies, and in both these things it is helping to shorten the war by rendering more effective the service of the armed forces of all the Allies. But beyond its practical help it is dedicated to the alleviation of human suffering, and this war has given splendid evidence, through the Red Cross, of the spirit of the American people, the spirit of simple human kindness, toward suffering wherever encountered. The daily record of incidents which the widespread Red Cross organization meets suggestions how universal is the need for help. The need is so vast that only a universal answer can cope with it.

Children

The spirit of the children of Europe makes doubly worth while the efforts of the Red Cross to save them. Major Murphy tells this story:

"I remember I was at one time outside Popering. I went there to a little home which was maintained for refugees. It was a hospital and a home. I saw soldiers—a mutilated soldier was walking across the lawn, and he was leading by the hand a little boy about eight years old who had a bandage over his eyes. That child had been blinded by a German shell, and they had to take out both of his eyes.

"He did not know he was blind. He thought it was the bandage; and even when they took the bandage off he still thought there was something tied over his eyes. He was very happy, and had no idea of the seriousness of the situation. While standing there talking to this soldier, the little fellow put his bandaged head down on the ground and turned a somersault. There is so much of that spirit over there."

In the ordinary course of a day's work, a Red Cross official sent in this report to the Paris headquarters:

"There arrived last week at Evian, where the representatives from France and Belgium are received back into France, a train loaded with Belgian children.

"There were 680 of them—thin, sickly, from four to twelve years of age—children of men who refused to work for the Germans and of mothers who let their children go rather than have them starve. They poured off the train, little ones clinging to the older ones, girls all crying, boys trying to cheer. They had come all the long way alone.

"On the platform were the Red Cross workers to meet them. The children who could walk at all marched along crying, 'Meat, meat; we are going to have meat.' Their little clawlike hands were significant, but a doctor said, 'We have them in time; a few weeks of proper feeding and they will pull up.' Thirty per cent of the older repatriates die the first month from exhaustion. The children can and must be saved.

These trains that pull into Evian are laden with the two-year and the too-old for German purposes. On their arrival the repatriates are registered, washed, given fit clothing and food, and put to sleep in clean beds. Thousands and thousands of these repatriates have known the blessing of Red Cross help. The story of Gaston is typical.

Gaston is a little boy aged seven, who walks with a crutch. His father had gone to fight the Boche; his mother managed to keep the home until a certain day when the siren blew. That day Gaston and his sister were playing in the yard and ran to the cellar when they heard the first blast. They had been told to do so. When the siren ceased they went back to play in the yard.

Then something happened, and for days after he came out of the hospital Gaston couldn't for the life of him remember what it was.

The thing that dropped in the yard tore away one leg and mangled his sister.

While he was in the hospital his mother disappeared. So they put Gaston on a train for Evian.

The Red Cross nurse was helping Gaston along the road—he handled his crutch awkwardly as yet—when a woman shrieked and gathered the cripple to her bosom.

Few mothers and children among the repatriates are so blessed with fortune. Tens of thousands of them will never know the bliss of such reunions.

The school children of France have learned to slip on their gas masks as handily as their fathers in the trenches. The regions under gas fire are growing with the increasing range of the big guns, for more and more of the shells are gas shells.

No matter how constant this menace is, or how near to the lines a town may be, the future of the French boys and girls is not neglected, and the schools go on. But the day's routine is varied by the drills, when, at a given signal, gas masks are slipped on, just as at other signals, which mean bombardment, the children run to the cellars or fall flat on the floor to protect themselves.

When the Red Cross began to help these children, it was found that many of them were mere infants, some less than one year old. The tinier children could not manage the gas masks, and for these and for the children who had been herded together in old barracks, dirty and practically unfurnished, and with no sanitary appliances, the Red Cross established a home at Toul, where hundreds of tots are brought from the dangerous districts and saved from the death which would almost certainly overtake them were they left in their homes.

The American Red Cross is caring to-day, in one way or another, for 50,000 French children. It is the hope of the Red Cross in co-operation with the French Government, to save the lives of 40,000 infants a year.

Serbia

Crushed by the combined Austrian-German advance, the nation of Serbia was overrun; its population forced into exile or left in the hands of the invader. Serbia was no longer a vital military factor in the war. The contribution of the American Red Cross to the people of Serbia is an expression of human kindness on the part of the American people to a suffering nation.

When the Red Cross Mission went to Serbia, the Austrian atrocities had reached their zenith. The Austrians had set themselves to annihilate that nation. In some places the people were driven by soldiers with fixed bayonets into courtyards of the schools and there shot down. In others, they were tied in groups to haystacks which were then set on fire. Victims were left hanging by scores to village trees.

There is a little strip of Serbia in the neighborhood of Monastir that has been saved from the invader, and it is here the Red Cross is helping what is left of Serbia. There are 21,000 acres of fertile plain in this district, and to this district the Red Cross is sending enough seeds and farm machinery to assure the productions of thousands of bushels of barley, rye, potatoes and other food produce this year.

The 50,000 Serbians huddled into this district will become self-supporting. The medical assistance, the sanitary help necessary to these women, children and old men, is being provided. There is hope for at least this little remnant of a brave people.

Romania

Comparable with Serbia is the case of Roumania. Rendered helpless by the enemy advance, Roumania, too, gave the Red Cross an opportunity not for making a nation more effective for war, but rather a chance to help a stricken people without hope of gain.

The Red Cross Mission to Roumania found conditions impossible to describe; found inhabitants picking wild grass for food. In the little village of Sultiu, a squalid shack of wood and mud was occupied by three little children. Their mother had succumbed to typhus. Their father was a soldier at the front. The eldest, a girl of ten, was acting as mother to a boy of four and a little sister of seven. The boy was lying helpless on a bag on the stone floor, his face eaten partly away by a malignant skin disease. The bones stuck out all over his tiny body. The girl was little better off. There were neither relatives, friends, nor any Government agency to give relief to these unfortunate children.

While it could, the Red Cross strove with all its might to bring relief to this stricken land. But the determination of Roumania and the help of the Red Cross was not sufficient proof against the trying conditions which Roumania faced, and the last chapter of American Red Cross help for Roumania was written when the Queen of Roumania recently cabled the Red Cross:

"At this hour in the midst of tragic events my thoughts turn with gratitude towards those who in anxious days, but when there was still hope, came to my aid. I wish once more to thank the American Red Cross for the splendid way in which it answered my appeal of a few months ago. A terrible fate has obliged Colonel Anderson, who was ready to remain in spite of adverse circumstances, to leave with all his unit. The work the American Red Cross Mission did amongst our wounded and amongst the suffering population is unforgettable to me and my people. Now that my country has to remain alone and forsaken, I wish once more to raise my voice and to thank all those who helped me, and to ask that we and our nation should not be forgotten. I ask of the great heart of America to remember Roumania, if even for a while. Strangled, her cries will not reach it, and her tears will have to be wept in secret."

MARIE, QUEEN OF ROUMANIA.

These are the situations that, multiplied almost without limit, challenge the Red Cross. The story of Red Cross help must necessarily be told in totals, but for each unit there is a terrible and pathetic story. Where the symbol of the American Red Cross goes there is the reminder to bruised souls that the long miles between cannot separate suffering from American sympathy.

Then there is the great faith that America, rich with a wealth greater than any, with her territory undisturbed, can and will move with the spirit of devotion of which the Red Cross is a symbol and to which it is a servant.

This is the last of a series of five announcements covering the work of the Red Cross.

Talk of Redistricting.

"A movement has been started by legislators from the western part of the state to have Texas senate redistricted in January next," says the Dallas Democrat. "If this should be done the senators elected in 1918 will serve only for 2 years and the entire body will have to be elected in 1920.

There is merit in the West Texas demand." State Senator James Clayton McNealus is the editor of the Dallas Democrat. He is a candidate for reelection this year. He favors the West Texas demands because the demand is just. West Texas should be given fair representation.—Ft. Worth Record.

SPECIAL CERTIFICATE REQUIRED FOR SUGAR

THOSE WISHING TO CAN OR PRESERVE MUST SIGN NEW APPLICATION FORM.

E. A. Peden

Houston, Texas, April 25.—In order to meet the needs of the housewife who requires sugar for preserving and canning, the United States Food Administration is issuing a special certificate to be signed by the purchaser of the sugar which is to be used in canning and preserving, and any surplus from such purposes within twenty days is to be returned to the merchant making the sale. Certificate signed by the purchaser and countersigned by the merchant is to be forwarded direct to E. A. Peden, Federal Food Administrator for the State of Texas, Houston, Texas.

Administrator Peden will not issue the certificates required for this purpose, but requests that all merchants selling sugar or expecting to sell sugar have prepared at once and place upon their counters for use certificates reading as follows:

"This is to certify that I require _____ pounds of sugar at this time to be used by me for preserving purposes exclusively, and if same is not used by me within the next twenty days after purchase I agree to return same to the merchants from whom purchased.

_____ Texas,

Merchant.

"This certificate must be countersigned by merchant selling and, mailed to E. A. Peden, Federal Administrator for Texas, Houston, Texas."

In order to build up reserve stocks to take care of the canning demand, jobbers are now permitted by the food administration to hold sugar sufficient to meet their needs for sixty, instead of thirty days. Where necessity demands, the Federal Food Administrators are authorized to allow the sale of more than 1,000 pounds—the present limit—to retailers.

The prescribed limit of retail sales for other than canning purposes will still be maintained—not over five pounds to people living in cities; not more than ten pounds to those living in the country.

Commercial canners in every state will be allowed to increase immediate purchases gradually to accumulate sufficient sugar to meet full requirements of their 1918 canning operations. The new regulation which permits canners to carry a season's supply does not, however, extend the latitude to manufacturers of less essential foodstuffs.

This step is necessary, announces Administrator Peden, in order to make sure that home canners may obtain sufficient sugar to preserve perishable fruits and at the same time to place a check upon those who would endeavor to obtain unreasonable quantities for household consumption. The check on consumption will be exercised through the retailers—considered a much more satisfactory method than the card system adopted in other countries—chiefly to guard against temporary shortages that may occur if more vessels are delivered from the Cuban trade, and at the same time to assure a supply adequate to meet the extensive demand hoped for from home canners.

RETAIL PRICE OF ICE

WILL BE CONTROLLED

Profiteering in the sale of ice by retailers will be prohibited, according to the announcement contained in a telegram received by Federal Food Administrator for Texas E. A. Peden, the supervision of the manufacture and distribution of that commodity having been taken over by the food administration.

Unless proof is furnished by the ice companies to support increased prices this year, the cost to the consumer will not be fixed at any higher price than last year. The telegram stated that any increase to the householder over last year will be the subject of investigation.

A Fight For Life

It has been fight or die for many of us in the past and the lucky people are those who are now well because they heeded nature's warning signal in time to correct their trouble with that wonderful new discovery of Dr. Pierce's, called "An-u-ric." You should promptly heed these warnings, some of which are dizzy spells, headache, irregularity of the urine or the painful twinges or rheumatism, sciatica or lumbago. To delay may make possible the dangerous forms of kidney disease, such as stone in the bladder.

To overcome these distressing conditions take plenty of exercise in the open air, avoid a heavy meat diet, drink freely of water, and at each meal take Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets (double strength). You will, in a short time, find that you are one of the firm indorsees of Anuric as are many of your neighbors.

TYLER, TEXAS.—"I am 53 years old, and for the last three years I have been afflicted with kidney trouble; no relief from the medicines I took. At last I took one small package of Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets and the very first dose helped me, and I continued to improve. I took in all six packages. I am very glad to testify."—DAVID VILCHEZ, 414 E. Social Street.

YUXTON, TEXAS.—"After using different medicines for kidney and bladder troubles will say that I have given Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets a fair trial and was greatly benefited, and do hereby cheerfully recommend Anuric to all persons suffering from kidney and bladder troubles."—HENRY ROTH, Route 4, Box 153.

Ask the druggist for Anuric (60c.) or send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package.

If Swift & Company Made No Profit

The cattle raiser would receive only 1/8 cent a pound more for his cattle

So small is Swift & Company's profit on any single transaction that if it were turned over to the cattle raisers of the country, they would receive only 1/8 cent a pound more for cattle than they receive now.

Swift & Company pays for live cattle about 90% of the amount received for dressed meat and by-products. The remaining 10% pays for packing-house expense, freight to market, operation of distributing houses and profit. Swift & Company's actual figures per head for 1917 on over two million cattle were as follows:

Receipts	Payments	Profit
From By-products $24.09 26%		$8.61 9%
From Meat $68.97 74%	Paid for Live Cattle $84.45 91%
Total $93.06	Total $93.06

* This net profit of $1.29 per head averages 1/8 cent a pound live weight.

And out of this small net profit dividends must be paid to shareholders.

Fruit prospects still pretty good. No improvement in Mrs. E. R. Bradford's condition—still confined to her bed, and suffering much of the time.

Those attending the Nurse's Course at Happy-from Wayside are Mesdames Adams and Watson, Misses Sybil Fisher, Viola Knox, Lena Helms, Bonnie Adams and Ruby Payne. They go up Tuesday and Friday nights. All express themselves as well pleased with the school which Mrs. Anna Jones of Tulsa is teaching.

Wayside School closes Friday, May 17th, with an entertainment at night, "The Masonic Ring." The play will be given by the pupils of the school. Some other renditions on the program.

Miss Kate Carter left Saturday a. m. for Pauls Valley, Ok., for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. R. E. Carter and little son Lee returned from Pauls Valley the past week, after a visit of some weeks with Mr. Carter.

Friends and associates at Wayside sympathize with Miss Bernice McGehee in the accidental breaking of her arm while out kodaking near Canyon Sunday p. m.

Quite a number from Wayside of Mrs. S. J. McGehee's tribe enjoyed Mother's Day with her in Canyon.

Parties from Claude are expected to come to Wayside next Sunday, May 19, for a Red Cross Rally. Our Red Cross Sale will be Tuesday afternoon, 3 o'clock at the schoolhouse. We trust all will do not only their bit but their best in assisting and contributing to this worthy cause.

Quarter Inch Rain.

A quarter inch rain fell Saturday evening in Canyon, accompanied by a heavy hail, which killed considerable young garden stuff.

The rain did not reach far south nor west.

The wind has been high all week and the rain did very little good.

Old time residents state that this is the first year in the history of the country that so little grass has shown up at this time of year. Excepting a few places, stockmen must still continue to feed, and feed is now getting about the thing of the past.

The alumni association of the Normal will have its annual get-together meet Saturday night at the Normal. The banquet has been postponed in keeping with the war spirit.

Mrs. X. C. Umphres, Worthy Matron of Boneta Chapter No. 184, and Mrs. Wash Geoghe and Mrs. Odell of Amarillo attended the school of instruction last Friday and Saturday and were the guests of Mrs. G. R. Reid Saturday.

The members of the Presbyterian church gave a reception last night to Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Stapleton.

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make this beauty lotion cheaply for your face, neck, arms and hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

"I'm afraid that's all I can spare"

You're a regular, red-blooded, true-blue American. You love your country. You love that flapping, snapping old flag. Your heart thumps hard when the troops tramp by. You're loyal—100 per cent!

You intend to—you want to—help win the war in a hurry.

"Sacrifice? Sure," you've been thinking. "Just you wait till they really need it." And you've honestly thought you meant that too.

But—look yourself in the eye, now, and search up and down inside of your heart—did you mean it? Did you really mean "sacrifice"?

Listen: You feel poor. This third Liberty Loan, the high prices, the Income Tax—you've done your bit. You feel that you've given all you can spare.

What? Then what did you mean? What's that you said about loving your country? What did you think the word "sacrifice" means?

Surely you didn't mean, did you, to give only what you can spare?

What about our boys who are giving their lives in the trenches? Are they giving only what they can "spare"?

How about those mothers and little "kiddies" in the shell-wrecked towns of that war-swept hell:—hungry—ragged—sobbing—alone? Giving up their homes, their husbands, their fathers.

While we—over here with our fun and our comforts—we hold up our heads and feel patriotic because we have given—what? Some loose bills off the top of our roll. "We've given all we can spare!"

Come, come! Let's quit fooling ourselves. Let us learn what "sacrifice" means. Let us give more than we can spare—let us "give till the heart says stop."

Every Cent of Every Dollar Received for the Red Cross War Fund Goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War torn allied country.

It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson heads it.

The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.

Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
