

Eighteen Boys Leave for Camp Travis on July 23

Eighteen young men of our best manhood left for Camp Travis on last Tuesday morning.

CHAUTAQUA ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD THIS WEEK AT TENT

The Chautauqua this week has been very successful in every respect. The program began on Sunday and will be concluded this evening.

Financially, the guarantors have made a success as enough money has been made to meet all expenses. It has been so good that a free entertainment will be given at the performance this afternoon.

We endorse the Chautauqua as does President Wilson when he said:

"The work that the Chautauqua is doing has not lost importance because of the war, but rather has gained new opportunities for service. Let me express the hope that you will let no discouragement weaken your activities and that the people will not fail to support the patriotic institution that may be said to be an integral part of the National Defense."

Death of Tom Meyers.

The entire community was shocked by the news of the sudden death of Tom Meyers, on Wednesday. Mr. Meyers was thrown from a horse near Dawn and died from injuries from the accident Wednesday morning at seven-thirty.

The people of Canyon deeply sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at three o'clock at the cemetery.

Senator O'Dell Predicts Large Majority for Hobby

Senator O'Dell, of Fort Worth delivered a strong Hobby speech at the Court House Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Hon. W. J. Flesher in a very pleasing way introduced the speaker.

Senator O'Dell spoke for an hour and a half and was bitter in his denunciation of James E. Ferguson, and loud in the praise of Governor Hobby. The audience was distinctly for Hobby as was demonstrated by the frequent applause.

Mr. O'Dell is one of the ablest criminal lawyers in the state and is a forceful speaker and logical reasoner. The audience was a little restless, however, as the hour had almost arrived for the Chautauqua program to begin. The Senator was accompanied by two prominent attorneys of Amarillo, A. S. Rollins and A. A. Lumpkin, both ardent supporters of Governor Hobby.

Senator O'Dell delivered substantially the same speech in Canyon as in Amarillo. The Amarillo News carries the following write-up of the speech delivered there, relative to the impeachment of Governor Ferguson, and the Canyon Normal Fund.

The impeachment of Governor Ferguson was accomplished with the House and Senate sitting as a duly constitutional court. The framers of the constitution were jealous of the reputation of this high state office for the occupant of this office holds the people's honor in trust, hence they created a special court procedure for trial, making the House of Representatives a grand jury, the Senate, the Court and Petit Jury. The verdict of this court and jury was just as binding as that of any court and jury that tries the ordinary men. If Ferguson be permitted to set this judgment aside by appealing to the people and denouncing the House and Senate, then all others who had been convicted in the ordinary courts should be permitted to go before the people asserting that the court and jury convicting them were conspirators, crooks and grafters. This would result in anarchy and not in a government of law.

He discussed on the usual lines the Canyon City school money alleged to have been used by Ferguson, saying: "Ferguson's opponent could afford to be generous provided his friends would be just and if he admitted that Ferguson forgot getting the money or didn't know it, this should be remembered. In that case he should be tried for color blindness so he would in the future know his money from the people's or have his money brushed up so he would not forget paying his private debts with public funds."

Step by step the speaker took up the record of Ferguson, and when he had been concluded it was tatters in contract he drew a vivid picture of that silent young man who now occupies the mansion in Austin, and whose every act has ben for the advancement of the best interests of the state and all of its people.

He predicted that all of Texas would give Governor Hobby an overwhelming majority next Saturday.

REGISTRATION OF STUDENT NURSES BEGINS MONDAY

Great Demand for Young Women

Because the nation's reserve has been depleted by the calling of literally thousands of graduate nurses for service in military and naval hospitals, it is absolutely necessary immediately to call 25,000 student nurses for training in American hospitals.

These young women are to be enrolled in the United States Student Nurse Reserve.

The call for women between the ages of 19 and 35 was issued jointly by Surgeon General W. C. Gorgas of the United States Army. Dr. Rupert Blue, Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service; H. P. Davison, chairman War Council, American Red Cross; Dr. Franklin Martin, chairman General Medical Board, Council of National Defense and Auna Howard Shaw, chairman women's committee Council of National Defense.

The appeal sets forth that enrollment will begin on July 29, 1918, and those who register will engage to hold themselves in readiness until April 1, 1919, to be assigned to training schools.

The Council of National Defense of Washington is urging that every woman register and hold herself in readiness in case she be called.

The Local Council consists of a committee of seven and this work will be carried on by them. To date the committee has not been completed but Miss Jessie E. Rambo will have charge of the Enrollment headquarters in her office at the Normal. Other committees will be appointed later and announced in next week's issue of the News. A full explanation of the work will be published next week.

Miss Rambo will be glad to enroll any of the young women who will offer their services, and she will be glad to give you any information along this line.

Mrs. Roberts is a sister of Mrs. W. H. Heller and has made many friends since she came here three years ago.

Mr. Roberts is an estimable citizen and we regret to see him leave.

Best wishes go with you, but we hope you will be back to our little city before long.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Canyon Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of back-ache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow. Help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Canyon woman's convincing statement:

Mrs. A. R. Crank, W. Evelyn St., says: "At times my back was very weak and ached constantly and my kidneys were disordered. I used to be bothered this way terribly, until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Now I very seldom notice any of these symptoms and when I do, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and always get good results."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Crank had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

(By C. W. Warwick.)

Getting into New York and getting out again may be an altogether different story, but I'm here after so long a time and am not yet ready or prepared to leave.

Of course the big war is the chief topic of discussion in every part and section that I have visited since leaving Canyon on June 29, and people are talking and acting the part of winning the war. The farmers are talking and acting by raising the biggest and best crops that have ever been my privilege to see in this trip than half way across the country. The middle west and Mississippi valley states are especially fine in crops, and even here in the east the farmers are doing their best to raise a big crop, but the corn looks like thirty cents, and if any farmers can make a living off the land that lays along the railroad, then all of the Panhandle folks will be millionaires before many moons. Even the poor prospects we had in Randall county when I left are wonderful beside the corn of New York. Occasionally you hear it said that the only people who are as a class not behind the war are the farmers. They have been a little slow, no doubt. Farmers are naturally cautious, and rightfully so. They may not have bought the first issue of bonds, to their fullest capacity—and so failed a bunch of the other classes of people. They may not have been so enthusiastic in the support of other war measures as business men who naturally are first in touch with these movements, but the farmers are behind the war now and everywhere are raising more stuff with less help than ever before. In Iowa a bunch of them have failed to comply with the new time order stating that if they changed their clocks they will be able to get less work out of the city fellows who come out to work for them and are used to following the sun as well as the clock. Besides there are certain seasons of the year when early work on the farm, excepting the usual chores, cannot be done until the sun has had its change for the drying progress.

If you don't like spuds, America will be a poor place for you this winter. Stretched from Oklahoma to New York is one big spud patch. Even the railroad right-of-way is converted into a potato patch. People told me in various parts that the potato crop this year is at least double in size. However, the yield of the early crop in some sections was very poor. I hope that spuds will not be more than twenty cents each all winter—as they soak a fellow here—if he doesn't know where to go to find a cheap eating house. If you have not been east of Chicago lately, you have never met that gentleman called Hi-Cost-of-Living. This is his native state and believe me he thrives upon the poor tourist. If perhaps there is any disposition on the part of any person or individual to waste food in these parts, he has it immediately scared out of the notion. But then there will always be with us the food hog and I have seen a few of the brand. Lord grant that their number decrease rapidly naturally or otherwise.

There may be a little politics in other states but if so it is very quiet. I have heard little politics since leaving Texas. There may be a few who disagree with President Wilson, but they are keeping mighty quiet about it and doing their part in winning the war.

Of course I was greatly interested in the newspapers, and years ago when I used to see these New York papers, I thought what wonderful things they were. But what a disappointment this time. I looked for some big inside-war news. Those Canyon people who gather at the post office for the regular morning cuss then a certain neighboring morning daily comes in and it fails to convey any war news of interest may feel assured that they are getting as much as we had here in New York with all of the big sheets. Again, when you read that Texas man's old stand-by, although a day late, you may be assured that you are seeing more of this world news than is printed in any New York paper. What was my surprise to first pay 11 cents for a Sunday morning paper then get a conglomeration of rot consisting mostly of beauty pages and story sections. Pictures were numerous, with the beauties from the fashionable beaches, dressed for the occasion. The Dallas News is a real newspaper compared with a New York paper, and much cheaper. Besides a little war news and not more than two Washington dispatches. I have not seen a half dozen date line articles in the papers, gathered from other sections of the country. But I am reminded of a certain well-known woman in New York who asked a friend of mine a few years ago if Iowa was one of the suburbs of New York. Therefore if it didn't happen in New York, it didn't happen.

But with all her faults New York is a very interesting place to visit. But it wouldn't suit Panhandle folks—there is not room enough to turn around in without getting run over. A driver of a car here would sure get pinched in Canyon, for they turn around in the middle of the block and drive about as they please and as fast as they please, except in the congested corners, where a traffic cop keeps watch. On the whole there are fewer cops in sight here than in Amarillo, but I haven't tried to start anything to see whether or not they would show up in a hurry. The autoists of Canyon would certainly appreciate the roads here. All along the railroad, I noted gravelled roads and the cars going nearly as fast as the train. But if the roads were not gravelled, a fellow would stand a fat chance getting anywhere over the hills with the usual mud after a rain. I believe the fellow who waves at every auto from the train is on a par with the one who applauds so lustily at the picture show, and would that Everett True had been on this trip with me.

I started to make myself, or rather get myself made, into a Y. M. C. A. secretary Monday morning. The fellow who has no use for Red Tape had better stay out of this game. But the system has a meaning. More about it later. Tomorrow our real work begins at Columbia University where we are given the first week's training. There comes an appeal for four thousand men at once to enter the work. New York is endeavoring to furnish one thousand of these. I hope by next week to give the reader a little of what may be expected. Last night I attended a rally at which Sec'y Josephus Daniels spoke. His praise for the Y. M. C. A. was great. Will say that so far I am highly pleased with the prospects of the service and early assignment for war.

W. S. Bell's Position on the Ferguson Question

Before the campaign opened properly Judge R. W. Hall, Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo, addressed a letter to both Mr. W. S. Bell and R. L. Templeton, asking them to declare their position on the Ferguson question. R. L. Templeton replied by return mail, stating that he would not vote to seat Mr. Ferguson if he lost every vote in the District, but Mr. Bell has not replied to this letter until this good day. Reference Judge Hall, Amarillo.

After campaigning the district and ascertaining the sentiment of the people, on June 26th, Mr. Bell addressed a letter to the Hobby Clubs over the District, using this language:

"I FIRST THOUGHT THAT SHOULD MR. FERGUSON RECEIVE A MAJORITY OF THE VOTES IN THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY IT WOULD BE MY DUTY AS A LOYAL DEMOCRAT TO SUPPORT HIM; BUT UPON MORE MATURE DELIBERATION I HAVE REACHED THE CONCLUSION THAT THIS IS NOT THE PROPER TEST."

Notwithstanding that Mr. Bell participated in the impeachment proceedings against Mr. Ferguson and heard the trial, and had the letter from Judge Hall, requesting him to declare himself on this issue, it was on June 26th, just one month before the election, that he made public his charge of faith on the Ferguson question.

In Mr. Bell's interview of July 15th, just twelve days before the election, he uses this language:

"During the early part of the campaign I was not sure that the impeachment of Mr. Ferguson disqualified him from holding office under the provisions of the Constitution, AND I FRANKLY SAID THAT IF MR. FERGUSON WAS ELECTED AND I SHOULD BE A MEMBER OF THE SENATE THAT I WOULD VOTE TO SEAT HIM unless prohibited by the Constitution."

From W. S. Bell's interview July 15th (Political Advertisement).

WHAT HAS YOUR RED CROSS MONEY DONE?

In the first place, it has enabled the American people, through the Red Cross, to help care for its army and navy.

Secondly, it has enabled America to hearten her Allies' fighting forces and keep up, among the civilian populations, the spirit to win the war. That, alone, has made the American Red Cross one of the largest factors since our entry into the war.

Canteens which provided for food and hot drinks—more than a million meals to soldiers in December; warehouse, crammed with materials situated all along the French line, all among the French line, all along the Italian lines, at seaports and at places where our soldiers are going to fight; institutions for the care of consumptives, institutions for the re-education of maimed men—these are a few of the concrete accomplishments abroad.

At home—the millions of woolen sweaters, mufflers, socks and other comforts for the men in camps; the work of sanitation around cantonments and the help and advice given dependents of soldiers and sailors—these are things which will "make you, your children and your children's children, in whatever part of the world they may be, proud of being Americans.—Southern Woman's Magazine.

Notice— To The Public

On and after Thursday, August 1, 1918, all goods sold at the undersigned stores will be strictly cash over the counter—no charge accounts of any kind will be carried. This has become necessary for several reasons.

We are asked by our government to cut out every surplus employee possible, releasing them for essential work in the world struggle now on. We are asked to reduce our selling cost as much as possible to help over the constant advance in our line of goods, making it necessary to eliminate the percentage of lost accounts.

Then it costs us practically double to carry the same stock we had two years ago, as many items have advanced from 10 to 1,000 per cent.

And last but not by any means least, the jobbers and wholesalers are cutting the terms very short, and in many instances we have to pay cash for our goods when they reach the house, making it impossible without unlimited capital to sell them on a credit basis.

We desire to render you every service possible in our line, and this condition is fast becoming world-wide, and we trust you will understand that it is a case of sell for cash or quit business with us, and we have no choice in the matter.

Pork Quality and Foreign Demand.
To acquaint hog growers of the United States with new conditions brought about by foreign demand, the Food Administration outlines the present situation and possible developments. Last fall, owing to the large amount of soft corn, there was a general heavy feeding of hogs, with a consequent large increase in their weight when they arrived at market. Foreign orders were filed with fatter and heavier hogs than the European populations had been accustomed to, and foreign buying agencies now request a return to the customary weights.

From the present outlook, swine producers may anticipate preference for lighter weights of hogs. This country is not likely to have to repeat any request for heavy feeding.
The condition outlined has been fully discussed by the Agricultural Advisory Committee which met in Washington in a recent conference with officials of the Food Administration and the Department of Agriculture.

That wants him on the phone.

And Bill said, "How are you?

We have told you for the last time
So Bill, it's up to you,
And if you do not stop it,
You have got to fight us, too.
I did not listen to him,
And he's coming after me
With a million Yankee soldiers,
From their homes across the sea.
Now, that's why I called you up,
Satan,
For I want advice from you.
I knew that you would tell me,
Just what I ought to do."
"My dear old Kaiser Wilhelm
There's not much for me to tell,
For the Yanks will make it hotter
Than I can for you in Hell,
I've been a mean old devil,
But not half as mean as you,
And the minute I get you here,
I will give my job to you,
I'll be ready for your coming,
And I'll keep the fires all bright,
And I'll have your room all ready,
When the Yanks begin to fight,
For the boys in blue will get you
I have nothing more to tell,
Hank up your phone and get your hat
And meet me here in Hell."

FEEDING SOLDIERS ON THE TRANSPORTS

MESS OFFICER OF THE VESSEL MUST PROVIDE 210,000 MEALS AT SEA.

SOME OF THE 180 VARIETIES

Money Instead of Merchandise Should Be Sent to the Troops in France—Dental Corps Can Care for 5,000,000 Men.

An account of how soldiers are fed at sea is given in the daily newspaper published on a transport:
"Outside of providing 210,000 meals at sea, the mess officer of the ship has very little to do. Very little.
"He is only called upon to provide, by the regulations, 180 different varieties of food. That's all. Every try to order 180 different things to eat? Yet this is the authentic list.
"The food needed to feed several thousand men at sea ranges beyond the glutton's dreams. You get the answer in the ship down below the water line, where 7,200 loaves of bread have been baked in one day, and where you stumble over every variety, from 60,000 pounds of beef to 132,000 eggs, or a compartment of brick ice cream in a ten-degree-above-zero vault.
"And if this doesn't suit, you can bump along into 49,324 pounds of potatoes, 7,100 pounds of ham and bacon, 7,800 pounds of butter, 9,200 pounds of sugar, and 61,500 pounds of flour.
"If you can't get a meal out of this you can fall back on 4,600 pounds of sausage, 3,000 pounds of sauerkraut, 25,000 pounds of apples, 19,800 pounds of oranges, and 4,200 pounds of onions. And this leaves out 1,600 pounds of jam and 9,400 pounds of lima and navy beans."

The original order that the approval of a regimental or higher commander was necessary before packages might be sent to members of the expeditionary forces has been modified so officers with the rank of major and higher may approve shipments. The approval of a company commander is not sufficient.
The question of the shipment of parcels to France first came to the attention of the war department when the commanding general of the expeditionary forces cabled that congestion of such articles had reached such a point that French railroads were unable to handle the load. A board appointed by the secretary of war and the postmaster general examined 5,000 sacks of parcel-post mail, and found that the articles being sent not only, in the main, were absolutely unnecessary, but undesirable. The investigation showed that the amount of such mail had reached a total of 500,000 pounds a week, and was steadily increasing.
Relatives and friends, according to a recent statement by the war department, will find they often can do a greater service to soldiers by sending them money for the purchase of articles. Tobacco is now being supplied as part of the army rations, and merchandise of nearly all kinds may now be purchased in France through the huge general store established by the quartermaster corps at lower prices than charged by retailers here.
The dental requirements of an army of more than 5,000,000 men can now be met by the present force of the dental corps of the United States army. Examinations have been closed and no further additions will be made to the corps for some time. The number of dental officers has expanded since war was declared from 58 to 5,810. Commissions were offered to 5,467 dentists in all parts of the country, and all but 271 were accepted.
The average number of tooth fillings in the army ranges from 225,000 to 250,000 a month. Special dental infirmaries have been established in the camps and cantonments, to which newly inducted soldiers are sent for examination shortly after arrival in the camps.
A school for dental instruction has been established, where 85 officers are assigned each month to take the two months' course.
The box-car situation is better at present than it has been at any time during the last three years, according to advice received by the department of agriculture from the railroad administration.
On May 1 box cars began to move into wheat territory, and wheat-carrying roads are expected to have on their lines more than the normal amount of cars owned by them. Cars are being parked in wheat-loading territory, which was impossible last year. The railroad administration will continue to move cars into wheat districts as long as there is any indication that additional cars will be needed.

TEMPLETON REPLIES TO BELL

This is the second time my opponent, Mr. W. S. Bell, has felt it necessary to rush into print to explain his changed position on the Ferguson question, and, being a banker, by liberal use of his bank roll, is consuming considerable space in the daily and weekly press of this district, in a desperate Eleventh-hour attempt to cover up his wobbling position on this important issue, in order to win this election. It is the same "Old Political Stunt" of trying to spring something new at the last hour to win an election he has already lost. Mr. Bell ought to know that the people of this district are too intelligent to be fooled or bought by his money in this way, and that the time is past for this "Old Time Political Game." The truth about Mr. Bell's record is out in "Black and White" and the people know it, and no lavish use of money, or spasmodic write-up in the press can cover up his record.

In the first place Mr. Bell knows and the voters of this district know that I have conducted a clean campaign, based solely upon my merits without any reference to Mr. Bell, except as to his admitted position on the Ferguson question and that neither he, nor any other voter that I have canvassed have heard a word from me reflecting upon his boasted reputation. Mr. Bell in this article as in his personal canvass is the one who is guilty of trying to besmirch the reputation of his opponent in order to win this election, and up to now, I have refrained from replying.

Now, Mr. Bell, let us get this record straight so that the people will know your position on this Ferguson question. You participated in the impeachment proceedings and heard the trial, and knew as much then as you do now. Early in the campaign before either of us had done much campaigning, Judge R. W. Hall, Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo, addressed a letter to both Mr. Bell and myself, asking us to declare our position on the Ferguson question. I replied by return mail saying that I would not vote to seat Mr. Ferguson, if it cost me every vote in the District, but Mr. Bell has not answered that important letter of this good hour. This Mr. Bell will not deny, and can be verified by referring to Judge Hall.

While canvassing the District Mr. Bell told me, as he admits he told others, that he would vote to seat Mr. Ferguson, if elected. After canvassing the Panhandle part of this district, and ascertaining the sentiment of the people on this question, on June 26th, just one month before the election, for the first time, made public his change of Faith on this important question, and in that letter makes this admission:

"I FIRST THOUGHT THAT SHOULD MR. FERGUSON RECEIVE A MAJORITY OF THE VOTES IN THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY IT WOULD BE MY DUTY AS A LOYAL DEMOCRAT TO SUPPORT HIM; BUT UPON MORE MATURE DELIBERATION I HAVE REACHED THE CONCLUSION THAT THIS IS NOT THE PROPER TEST."

Mr. Bell admits writing this letter and can't deny sending it over the district to the Hobby Clubs, where a copy can be read. The above is the paragraph copied and complained of by Mr. Bell, and he cannot say it is not copied correctly. The only reference made to Mr. Bell in the leaflet is that he had changed his position on the Ferguson question, and I refer all voters to this leaflet in verification of this statement. Mr. Bell has pleaded guilty in this last published statement issued on July 15th, just twelve days before election, to more than I have charged him with. In this he admits as follows:

"During the EARLY PART OF THE CAMPAIGN I was not sure that the impeachment of Mr. Ferguson disqualified him from holding the office under the provisions of the Constitution, AND I FRANKLY SAID THAT IF MR. FERGUSON WAS ELECTED AND I SHOULD BE A MEMBER OF THE SENATE THAT I WOULD VOTE TO SEAT HIM, unless prohibited by the Constitution."

I ask all voters of the district to read my leaflet and see if this admission is not stronger than my statement. He pleads guilty to all we have charged him with and like Ferguson, stands convicted by his own admission, which he cannot deny in his first confession of change of faith on June 26th, Mr. Bell does not use the phrase "unless prohibited by the constitution," but uses this for the first time in his July 15th "blow hard" statement to the press. Of course, this is only an aftermath invention of Mr. Bell's in order to try to further cover up and camouflage the people on his dubious position on the Ferguson question.

It is on this last invented phrase that Mr. Bell makes his loud charges of false representation. Now Mr. Bell knows and every man knows he told while making his first campaign over the district that he would vote to seat Mr. Ferguson, that this phrase "unless prohibited by the Constitution" was not used by Mr. Bell, and this is a mighty weak straw to hide behind when caught cold-handed. Now, Mr. Bell heard this constitutional question discussed at the time of the trial by the ablest lawyers of the state and was a member of the legislature that impeached him, and that it took him until June 26th, just one month before election to get his mind straight on his important question, is mere tommy-rot and the intelligent people of this district will not accept such explanation for dodging this issue so long. The facts are that Mr. Bell was astraddle of the fence, trying to ride into office on both the Ferguson and Hobby votes, and by trying to play both both parties too long, has lost both votes. The Hobby men do not want a man who starts out a Ferguson man, and then changes to them only when he sees this is the only chance; and the Ferguson men do not want a man who starts out with them and then ditches them when his chances of election is periled by staying with them. This is the unfortunate and ridiculous position that Mr. Bell finds himself in by trying to play both sides and keep from the public his views on these important issues. In order to cover up this record Mr. Bell is making this last desperate effort to save his fast sinking ship. He knows no one has misrepresented him and that the "half has not been told."

In this eleventh hour appeal, Mr. Bell for the first time, attempts to criticize my platform. If I had gone before the people for this important office without a platform of any kind, and represented to them that I was a farmer and stockman, when I was president of the Bank of Crowell, and in the banking business, as Mr. Bell has done, I certainly would not have nerve enough to criticize the platform of my opponent. How did it happen, Mr. Bell, that you did not tell the people something about your platform and some of your good work while in the Legislature for the past six years. Why did you not explain your failure to answer Judge Hall's letter asking you to declare your position on the Ferguson question and let the people know just where you stood? Why did you keep this hid from the people so long and only just before the election reach your labored conclusions? Mr. Bell knows, and the people of my old district know that I stand for and have worked for all I put forward in my platform. If Mr. Bell desires to compare our records, I am willing to have my private as well as my public life at Austin compared with his during the same time.

Before the campaign opened, I made plain my position on all issues, and have not found it necessary to change my position during the campaign, or to rush into the press to cover up or explain my record.

Respectfully,
R. L. TEMPLETON.

Sequel To Love For Doll

Maternal Instinct Greatly Developed by Teaching Children to Love their Dolls.

The little child's doll is mother to the most romantic fairy. And in the years that pass, the doll fades into the petals of a June rose, to evolve the most wondrous of all transformations.

And now comes a more serious period when the joy of real motherhood should be as tranquil as best efforts can provide. This is accomplished with a wonderful remedy known as Mother's Friend. An external application so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate the myriad network of cords, tendons, nerves and muscles just beneath the skin of the abdomen.

It relieves the tension, prevents tenderness and pain at the crisis and enables the abdomen to expand gently. The muscles contract naturally after baby arrives and the form is thus preserved.

It should be applied daily, night and morning, during the period of expectancy. By regular use it enables the abdomen to expand without the usual strain when baby is born. Naturally, pain and danger at the crisis is less.

You will find Mother's Friend on sale at every drug store. It is prepared only by the Bradford Regulator Co., Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. They will send you an instructive "Motherhood Book" without charge. Write them to mail it to you. Do not neglect for a single morning or night to use Mother's Friend. Obtain a bottle from your druggist today by all means, and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.

HELP WIN WAR BY PREVENTING UNNECESSARY SICKNESS
 Do you eat bad meat?
 In many Texas cities less than half the meat used is killed in sanitary slaughterhouses under Government inspection. The remainder is slaughtered without any inspection whatever, often under the most unsanitary conditions imaginable.

What Does This Mean to You?
 It may mean that some of the meat you and your family are eating comes from animals infected with Tuberculosis or other dangerous disease. It may mean that you are eating decayed meat in your sausage and hamburger steak. Watch out for "ptomaine poisoning!"

Very recently a prominent butcher in a North Texas city was sought buying diseased, injured cattle at the neighboring stock yards and selling them to his customers as "high class" meat products. The Court failed to convict him on account of technicalities, and because of "able" presentation of his case by "eminent" legal talent; but fortunately the Public were informed of what this "Butcher" had been putting over on them, and he found it desirable to leave town and locate elsewhere. Perhaps he has come to your city!

How Can You Secure Protection Against Bad Meat?
 In Texas—Cities adjoining army camps Uncle Sam protects the Soldier by forcibly preventing their eating in places which don't comply with all the Sanitary Regulations. You can give the same protection to yourself and your family. Ask the City Health Officer to advise you which place deserves your patronage. It is safest to buy only meat that has been Government Inspected.

On's Trulove's Card.
 Mr. Trulove solicits the support of the voters for District Judge strictly upon merit. No one has questioned or will question his competency or honesty. The Bar of the District have voluntarily given him a strong and unequivocal endorsement. No other candidate can match it. Owing to long delays involved in appeals, the demand for competent district judges has become imperative. Latest advices from over the district indicate that Trulove is in the lead. He should be given a majority over both opponents so as to avoid a second primary. There never was a greater demand for the most competent man. (Political Advertisement.)

Gas the Hun in the Hen House
 You were appealed to, for the sake of the country's needs, to grow more poultry.
 You have grown more poultry. Now, the object in having more poultry grown was not to furnish more feed for lice and mites.
 If you allow the vermin to flourish, they will consume not only the chicken meat that ought to release other meats for the soldiers overseas, but they will shut off the egg supply. Hens infested with lice and mites will not produce eggs in summer.

Getting rid of the pests is a fairly simple matter. Lime around house and yard, a dust both for the hens, plenty of sunlight and air, a little chemical treatment for any hens that may become infested—that's all. Drudgery? Well, while you are slopping lime around or putting pinches of powder into the feathers of a hen, just play like you are gassing the Germans. It amounts to that, in the long run.
 The United States Department of Agriculture will furnish detailed information as to how to do it.

CANYON PEOPLE ENJOY OUTING IN COLORADO

Editor News: We, in company with our daughters, Helen and Frances, left Canyon, July 3rd, in auto, for Boulder, Colorado, with our camp outfit, that we might enjoy nature to its fullest extent. We went by way of Amarillo, Dumas, Dalhart and Texline, thence through New Mexico by way of Claton, Des Moines and Raton, located at the foot of the mountains, and then with Frances at the helm, the Overland, ascended the mountain as smoothly as the bird sails the air. The first two miles was very, very steep, and winding, sometimes making a curve every twenty to thirty feet, causing a continuous honking to warn those who might be coming to meet you, the second two miles was not near so steep, and the next three or four miles put us to the top of the mountain, and then soon, the road starts down the mountain which is much easier traveling, and put us into Colorado, we then passed through Trinidad, Walsenbrug, Pueblo, Colorado Springs, (the most beautiful city we ever saw) through Denver and thence thirty miles northwest to Boulder, a city of about twelve thousand population, nestled in the foot hills of the Rockies. It is a city of purely Americans, very similar to the people of Canyon, it being a school town, the inhabitants are such people as generally seek a place where law and order prevail. The business houses are very good and substantial buildings, like unto some of the best in Canyon, yet no so costly as to be a foolish waste of money in their erection.

The residence portion of the city is composed mostly with brick homes, neat and comfortable, not unreasonably extravagant, the streets in this part, lined on each side with, large shade trees, mostly elm, maple and cotton wood, making the city a desirable place in which to live. The city is well watered from lakes and reservoirs, filled from streams, and melting snows in the mountain, conducted to the business and residence houses through underground pipes.

As to the country, we did not have time to see much of it except along the road we travelled, yet from Pueblo to Boulder the most of the farms were in wheat, and it was generally very fine. We were on the road three and one half days in going from Canyon to Boulder, traveling slowly that we might study the country through which we passed, and with my skillful daughters to guide the auto, we made the trip without a single accident, not a break, blowout, or puncture. Mrs. Buie and daughters, Annie Laurie, Iva and Edythe, arrived three days later, having waited in Dalhart, till we could secure a place for them to reside and we left the family on Saturday eve, in their rented home among the shades of Boulder seemingly contented, to return to our post of duty, but not until we had stayed in Boulder seven days, six of which, it rained, I was told by the people there that it was the rainy season of the year. Considering the picturesque scenery, the beautiful shades, the fine water, and the healthy climate, together with the good, moral character of the people, living in Boulder, we see no good reason why one should not live there, happy and contented.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

TO THE WOMEN

The Texas Womans Democratic League has looked up the record of the candidates aspiring to office in this state and find the following a safe bunch to vote for in the primaries on July 27, 1918.

- U. S. Senator: MORRIS SHEPPARD.
  - Chief Justice Supreme Court: NELSON PHILLIPS.
  - Associate Justice Supreme Court: THOMAS B. GREENWOOD.
  - Governor: W. P. HOBBY.
  - Lieutenant Governor: W. A. JOHNSON, JOHN M. HENDERSON, S. B. COWELL and T. W. DAVIDSON.
- All four of the above are worthy of support, but unfortunately so many running, might let in one of the other two, both of whom are undesirable. Pick the strongest as your choice.
- Attorney General: C. M. CURETON, JOHN W. WOODS.
- Both are reliable men. Mr. Cureton has served as first assistant to Attorney General Looney, and had much to do with the prosecution of the breweries, etc.

Railroad Commission: CLARENCE E. GILMORE.
 Mr. Gilmore, a life long Democrat, pro and woman suffragist and, no doubt was nominated last election but was counted out by the Ferguson gangsters.

State Treasurer: JOHN W. BAKER, J. M. EDWARDS.
 Mr. Baker, a life long pro, and safe in every way. Mr. Edwards says while he has always opposed prohibition, he is now for it and woman suffrage.

Associate Justice Court of Criminal Appeals: O. S. LATTIMORE, WM. PIERSON.

Mr. Lattimore is a safe man in every way. He is a pro, a woman suffrage, is author of the new zone law and author of woman suffrage bill in the senate.

Mr. Pierson is a life long pro and is for woman suffrage. Was Judge on the bench before Attorney General Looney and Mr. Cureton prosecuted the breweries. This is a vital position and one of these men should be elected. Select the one whom you think to be the strongest. Ferguson and his crowd would like to put in men for Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals.

Commissioner of General Land Office: T. J. ROBISON.

Supintendent of Public Instruction: MISS ANNA WEBB BLANTON.

Commissioner of Agriculture: H. A. HALBERT, FRED W. DAVIS.

Mr. Halbert has always been a pro and woman suffrage. Mr. Davis is a pro and woman suffragist.

Senatorial District No. 29: W. S. BELL, R. L. TEMPLETON. Both are prohibitionists. Both are against Ferguson.

Congressional Dist. No. 18: MARVIN JONES. (Safe; dependable).

Be sure to scratch with BLACK pencil the names of those you DO NOT want to vote for, leaving only ONE name for each office. Don't tear or mutilate your ballot in any way as it will be thrown out if you do. Simply take your pencil and run a black line through the names of those you DO NOT want elected and leave unmarked the name of the ONE you wish to vote for, and then hand your ticket to the proper authority. Don't fail to vote—it is your privilege and duty. Help elect good men and women to office thereby helping win the war and put out of commission the German breweries who have done all they could to fleece the American people of their good money and put in German bonds. Concerning the Race for State Superintendent of Public Instruction

Why you SHOULD vote for Annie Webb Blanton for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

1. She has actually taught in every grade of the public schools, rural and urban and has first-hand practical knowledge of their needs.
2. For seventeen years she has been engaged in training teachers in the North Texas Normal College at Denton.
3. She is a graduate of the University of Texas, and has done graduate work in the University of Chicago.
4. She has the absolute confidence of the teachers of the State, as was evidenced when they elected her, by an overwhelming majority, president of the State Teachers Association, the only woman accorded that honor in the last 39 years.
5. She has wonderful natural endowment, is a born leader, a splendid public speaker, whom Mr. Doughty—her opponent—steadfastly, and perhaps intelligently, refuses to meet on the stump during this campaign, although she challenged him to do so.
6. She will remove the State Department of Education from connection with every form of machine politics, and put the great Public School system of Texas solidly in the "American" column. She has no hyphenated connections.

Why you SHOULD NOT vote for W. F. Doughty for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

1. He was on the "Red" list of the breweries—that is, O. K'd by them, which secret alliance was disclosed on pages 1547-1559, record of the Sulphur Springs brewery case.
  2. The breweries were allied with the German-American Alliance, whose declared purpose was to control the public schools and Universities in the interest of German Kultur.
  3. If he was acceptable to the breweries, was he not acceptable to the German-American Alliance? (See U. S. Senate Subcommittee report, Sixty-fifth Congress, page 647).
  4. He appeared on the platform with James E. Ferguson when Ferguson called the University of Texas professors a lot of "two-bit" thieves, endorsing by his silence this statement, which he knew to be slanderous, for he is himself a graduate of the University and had for years been befriended, helped and taught by these same men, whom he suffered to be called "two-bit thieves," when he knew them to be honest and upright. The head of the educational interests of Texas should be a person with enough nerve to defend its educational institutions from slander.
  5. Declaring that he has had the "privilege" of serving with the "honorable" James E. Ferguson, he refuses to make a public statement of his position on the Ferguson issue, in spite of the impeachment and conviction of the former governor.
- N. B. Mr. Doughty has just within the last few days declared for Hobby?

Taking of Testimony in Criminal Cases.

House Joint Resolution No. 2

To amend Section 10, Article 1, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for certain rights of accused persons in criminal prosecutions, and the manner in which the case may be prosecuted, and providing for the procuring of the testimony of the witnesses for both defense and prosecution.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section (10) of Article (1) of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended that the same will read and hereafter be as follows:

Section (10). In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. He shall have the right to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to have a copy thereof. He shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself and shall have the right of being heard by himself or counsel, or both, shall be confronted by the witnesses against him and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses against him and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, except that when the witness resides out of the State and the offense charged is a violation of any of the anti-trust laws of this State, the defendant and the State shall have the right to produce and have the evidence admitted by deposition, under such rules and laws as the Legislature may hereafter provide; and no person shall be held to answer for a criminal offense, unless on an indictment of a grand jury, except in cases in which the punishment is by fine or imprisonment, otherwise than in the penitentiary, in cases of impeachment and in cases arising in the army or navy, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger.

Section 2. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for the sub-qualified voters of this State at the next general election for State and county officers.

Section 3. The qualified electors for members of the Legislature shall vote upon said amendment at the said general election and at which election all persons favoring said amendment shall have written or printed on the ballot the following: "For amendment to Section 10, Article 1 of the Constitution, providing for prosecution of criminal cases by information, or indictment, and taking of testimony of witnesses by deposition, under certain circumstances," and those opposed to such amendment shall have written or printed on the ballot as follows: "Against the amendment to Section 10, Article 1, of the Constitution." Section 4. The sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds of the State Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expense of publishing, proclamation, and election.

Special Tax for Maintenance of Public Schools and Furnishing Free Text Books.

House Joint Resolution No. 27. Proposing an amendment to Art. 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas by changing Sec. 3, providing for a thirty-five cent tax levy for the maintenance of the public schools of Texas, and providing free text books in public schools of the State of Texas, and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3, Article 7, of the Constitution, be so changed as to read as follows (creating a new section 3):

Section 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and a poll tax of one ($1.00) dollar on every male inhabitant of this State, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools; and, in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem State tax of such an amount not to exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred ($100.00) dollar valuation, as, with the available school fund arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of this State for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside a sufficient amount out of the said tax to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State; provided, however, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient, the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the State, and the Legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by general or special law without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation; and all such school districts, whether created by general or special law, may embrace parts of two or more counties.

And the Legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts, and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such district, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties. And the Legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts heretofore formed or hereafter formed, for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection and equipment of school buildings therein; provided, that a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters of the district, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax, not to exceed in any one year fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of school district tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns constituting separate and independent school districts.

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1918, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for the levy of a special school tax for the maintenance of the public schools of the State and to provide free text books in the public schools of the State of Texas," and all those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "Against the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for the levy of a special school tax for the maintenance of the public schools of the State and to provide free text books in the public schools of the State of Texas."

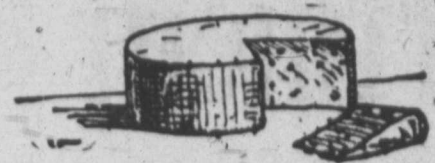

Section 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Section 4. That the sum of two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

Because of the present good supply of cheese in the country, and the prospect of continued abundant production this summer, those who know the food value of this dairy product and appreciate its appetizing flavor will be interested in the action the United States Food Administration has taken to facilitate its movement from the manufacturer to the table with as few delays and as small expense as possible.

Rules have been announced that will not permit dealers in American and Cheddar cheese to take advantage of advances in the market by selling cheese bought at a low price on the basis of higher costs that may prevail after the time of purchase. Commissions will not be allowed to enter into costs, reasonable margins have been fixed to prevent speculation and "dummy" sales have been prohibited. These and other regulations should make it possible for retailers to buy at lower prices, and, through the working of the fair price committees, the consumer should get a good food product at the cost of production plus only the reasonable charges for handling and a just margin of profit.

With the increasing demand for meat for our army and navy, and the request by the food administration for beefless days in hotels, restaurants and homes, the effort to stabilize the marketing of cheese comes at an opportune time. One of the best concentrated foods has a good chance to occupy a more prominent place on the menu as it already does in the allied countries.

ONE TON OF GARBAGE CONTAINS:

Sufficient glycerine for the explosive charge of fourteen 75 millimeter shells.

Sufficient "fatty acid" for the manufacture of 100 12-ounce cakes of soap.

Sufficient fertilizer elements to grow eight bushels of wheat.

A score of other materials valuable in munition making.

IF USED AS HOG FEED IT WILL PRODUCE

One hundred pounds of good, firm, first quality pork. Can you afford to destroy these valuable products when your government needs them to help win the war?

THE UNITED STATES FOOD ADMINISTRATION URGES EVERY HOUSEWIFE

To be watchful over what goes into the garbage pail; to put less in and take more out. But what must go into the pail should be kept separated from other household refuse, so that it can be utilized either for making munitions or for hog feed. Do not permit broken glass, crockery, phonograph needles or other foreign substances to get into the garbage pail.

REMEMBER, GARBAGE IS VALUABLE. KEEP IT CLEAN!

COUNTRY STORE POULTRY DEALERS MUST HAVE LICENSES.

The Food Administration issues the following:

The president's proclamation of May 14, requiring the licensing of those engaged in certain lines of business, including "operators of poultry and egg packing plants not already licensed by the United States Food Administration," has been misunderstood by some of those affected.

Under this classification anyone who sells poultry or eggs in any other way than at retail to the consumer, regardless of the amount of business done, must be licensed.

There are many country storekeepers whose business is mostly retail selling, but who buy eggs and sometimes poultry from the farmers. They have never considered themselves as operators of poultry and egg packing plants, but, in reality, that is what they are. The fact that they are in the retail business on too small a scale to require a retailer's license does not exclude them.

Fresh Beef Travels on a Rapid Schedule

Fresh beef for domestic markets goes from stockyards to retail stores within a period of about two weeks. Although chilled, this meat is not frozen; hence it cannot be stored for a rise in price.

A steer is dressed usually within twenty-four hours after purchase by the packer. The beef is held in a cooler at the packing house, at a temperature a little above freezing, for about three days.

It is then loaded into a refrigerator car where a similar temperature is maintained, and is in transit to market on an average of about six days.

Upon arrival at the branch distributing house, it is unloaded into a "cooler", and placed on sale.

Swift & Company requires all beef to be sold during the week of arrival, and the average of sales is within five days.

Any delay along the above journey means deterioration in the meat and loss to the packer.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

The Crop Outlook

The rains have finally come and nearly every locality has received sufficient to bring on the row crops nicely. A few reports declare that maize and kaffir are "made" now but for the most part, lack of the usual underground moisture will make it necessary to have more such rains at intervals during the season in order to insure a crop. A few places report heavy rains but most of the moisture has fallen in successive showers and has been readily absorbed by the thirsty fields.

Harvesting and threshing still occupies the center of the stage and yields range all the way from nothing at all to 25 bushels per acre. Around 12 bushels seems to be the average of the best fields in the Panhandle thus far reported. Some of the farmers in western Oklahoma, southern Kansas and Colorado, got higher yields.

Cottle county seems to be the driest county in the Panhandle at present while Harmon, Tillman and Washita counties in Oklahoma are getting very dry. Probably the greatest sufferers from the drouth, however, are the farmers in eastern and southern New Mexico, where, except for a few favored localities, the worst drouth in history has prevailed for two years past. Stockmen of that section have had to move their stock to pasture elsewhere or send #### them to market.

However, if sufficient rains come at once, sorghum may still be planted and will make a crop if the season is favorable from now on. It will, at least make feed even if frosts should cut the grain. "Some of the Plains farmers are sowing buckwheat which, like millet, is a quick maturing crop and therefore makes a good catch crop. Most of them, however, are putting in their time preparing their land for winter wheat as rapidly as the cultivation of the row crop will let them.—Southwestern Plainsman.

Talking About Plums

"Say, talking about plums, I can beat your record," said R. A. Baldwin Monday. "Here is a limb seven inches long from a Wonder plum tree at my house and that limb has fifty plums on it, over seven plums to the inch." The offering certainly did look attractive, and Mr. Baldwin says that last year he (or his wife, to be exact) picked and canned eighteen gallons of plums off that tree. This year it and other trees are so loaded that they have to be propped up to keep them from breaking down. Mr. Baldwin also has lots of apples, peaches and other fruit at his home place. The Wonder plum is one of the most prolific and surest fruits for the plains country.—Slaton Slatonite.

LIVE STOCK, REAL ESTATE—OUR SPECIALTY

Posted in pedigree and values. We solicit a share of your patronage. Write or wire us for dates. Our customers are our best reference.

CANYON, TEXAS

Canyon, Texas,
July 26, 1918.

Dear Sir:

This is to notify you that on and after August 1, 1918, we will be on a strictly cash basis. On account of circumstances this step has become absolutely necessary. We are paying from fifty to one hundred per cent more for our stock than at the same time last year. Our profits, fixed by the Government, are too small to allow us to borrow money to handle this high priced stock, for we are compelled to pay cash by all the mines and wholesale houses before we unload the goods from the cars.

Hoping that you will see our side of this question and will not ask us for credit we remain.

Yours respectfully,

Bottling, Pulping, Drying, No Sugar.
"Save on Sugar" is the latest S. O. S. flashed by the Food Administration to housekeepers. "Maximum Canning With Minimum Sugar" is the reply message to Washington, and with this slogan the women are going ahead with the campaign to save the perishables.
Here are six methods of preserving fruit without sugar:
(Note: All references given are to Farmers' Bulletins issued by the United States Department of Agriculture and may be secured from that department).
Sterilize and bottle fruit juice for jellies, beverages and sauces. (Bulletin 859, p. 5, 839, p. 21.—853, p. 18.)
Bottle concentrated fruit juice for table syrup. Combine with corn syrup when served. (Bulletin 839, p. 21.)

Reduce fruit to a thick pulp and bottle or can for winter pies, sauces and marmalades.
A tart butter is made without sugar. Sorghum, corn syrup or a little sugar may be added when opened for use. (Bulletins 900—853, p. 28.)
Drying is the simplest method of preserving fruit and saves both sugar and cans. (Bulletin 984.)
All fruits can be canned without sugar for winter use. (Bulletin 839, p. 15.)
Best Crops Around Vernon
"There is more feed on one section west of Vernon than I saw all the way between Chillicothe and Abilene." This is the statement of S. E. Trevathan, who has been visiting his uncle at Trent. Mr. Trevathan found practically nothing growing except between Vernon and Chillicothe.—Vernon Record.

Regarding Threshing Prices
Regarding prices charged for grain threshing this season, the U. S. Food Administration emphasizes that its chief interest in threshing operations is the conservation of cereal grains by efficient operation of threshing machines. The Food Administration has not fixed nor has it authority to fix prices which threshermen shall charge for their services.
"Who made these changes?" queried Mr. Schwab.
"Said the army officer: 'It was done locally, as we thought this would suit conditions better.'
"You're fired," declared Schwab. The officer protested that he could not be fired by a civilian.
"Be that as it may," responded the ship supervisor, "you're fired just the same. It's our business here to build the ships like the government has specified they shall be built, and nobody has a right to stick a finger in and delay the program. These ships are going to be built just as the government has set forth in these blue prints—and no other way."
"And they are being built just that way," emphasized Mr. Peden. "And the sooner we apply this rule to our own directions in helping to win the war, the sooner it is going to be over. When an order comes from Washington to save this, that or the other food, or put over some war fund campaign, let us not stop to haggle over minor details—let's do it. Let's get the habit of doing it—and doing it speedily."
Coming down to the actual details of the work of the food administration, Mr. Peden said that it had very much stabilized and lowered prices since being inaugurated, and he thanked the heads of Chambers of Commerce throughout Texas for the aid they had rendered him in his task of applying the food laws to the State.
"When the order first came to get busy," he said, "I spent considerable time trying to figure out just who to ask to help me out in this big work for Uncle Sam. After eliminating various classes of people in many vocations, I finally decided that it was the commercial secretaries of the State who could probably lend me the most aid. For I wanted aid that would be persistent, permanent, and that would not grow weary after a short time. Besides they were men trained to deal with the public. As a consequence most of you commercial secretaries are either county or district administrators, and I have not been disappointed in one of you."
He urged the necessity of the public paying more attention—as well as the merchants—to the rules of the price interpreting committee.
"You should take scissors or a knife and cut them out whenever they are printed, and carry them with you when you go shopping. These prices are based on good, fair returns to the merchant, and they should be absolutely insisted upon."
"While Texas has been a banner State, so far as the conservation of wheat and other food products is concerned, I had the greatest amount of credit to the people themselves, who have done it by their loyalty to the cause. There, of course, have been a few who have been disloyal, but these very few have been punished—and rightly—in order that one man might not profit because all his neighbors wanted to help win the war."
"In some instances I have observed cases of men who have grown discouraged over one thing or another—or over a blue outlook for their businesses. And I always say to them: 'Brace up—if the Kaiser could see you now it would please him. That's just what he wants to see—discouragement.' And in every case these men have gone back with their teeth set to do bigger, better, harder, more persistent work."
"My greatest wish is that after the war these lessons we Americans have learned of how to keep down speculation, to conserve, and to become thrifty shall remain as part of the life of our people for good and all."

STAY ON THE JOB OF WINNING THE WAR AND SPEED UP

Address of Administrator Peden Before Texas Commercial Executives at San Antonio.

"We must stay on the job of winning the war. That means not only the saving of food, but doing everything in our power toward speeding up every industry and every essential necessity."
"We must not grow weary of well doing. We must realize that we are all enlisted for the period of the war, and it is just as unpatriotic for a civilian to fall back when he receives orders to help the government as it would be for a soldier to quit when he is told to go over the top."
"This was the message that Food Administrator E. A. Peden of Houston had for the people of San Antonio when he came to the city to attend the joint meeting of the Texas Commercial Executives' Association and the League of Texas Municipalities.
"Whoever," he declared, "is so selfish as not to deny himself, might just as well be reaching with a long arm across the ocean and taking food away from some poor emaciated human being there—or from his own soldier son."
"I can not forbear also to impress upon you the great, urgent necessity—and the great help—civilians can render in this war by just being cheerful. That means going about your work every day, every hour, with a heart for it, knowing that by it more efficient and better work can be done, the morale of others held up, as well as the morale of our soldiers."
"A third important matter, and one of the largest, is: 'Learn to do what the government says do, and speed up on it.' I can not do better than give you an illustration to show what I mean by this. When the great Schwab moved from Washington to Philadelphia to be nearer his job of war-time shipbuilding, an officer came to him with a blue print from government officials. Here and there changes had been made.
"Who made these changes?" queried Mr. Schwab.
"Said the army officer: 'It was done locally, as we thought this would suit conditions better.'
"You're fired," declared Schwab. The officer protested that he could not be fired by a civilian.
"Be that as it may," responded the ship supervisor, "you're fired just the same. It's our business here to build the ships like the government has specified they shall be built, and nobody has a right to stick a finger in and delay the program. These ships are going to be built just as the government has set forth in these blue prints—and no other way."
"And they are being built just that way," emphasized Mr. Peden. "And the sooner we apply this rule to our own directions in helping to win the war, the sooner it is going to be over. When an order comes from Washington to save this, that or the other food, or put over some war fund campaign, let us not stop to haggle over minor details—let's do it. Let's get the habit of doing it—and doing it speedily."
Coming down to the actual details of the work of the food administration, Mr. Peden said that it had very much stabilized and lowered prices since being inaugurated, and he thanked the heads of Chambers of Commerce throughout Texas for the aid they had rendered him in his task of applying the food laws to the State.
"When the order first came to get busy," he said, "I spent considerable time trying to figure out just who to ask to help me out in this big work for Uncle Sam. After eliminating various classes of people in many vocations, I finally decided that it was the commercial secretaries of the State who could probably lend me the most aid. For I wanted aid that would be persistent, permanent, and that would not grow weary after a short time. Besides they were men trained to deal with the public. As a consequence most of you commercial secretaries are either county or district administrators, and I have not been disappointed in one of you."
He urged the necessity of the public paying more attention—as well as the merchants—to the rules of the price interpreting committee.
"You should take scissors or a knife and cut them out whenever they are printed, and carry them with you when you go shopping. These prices are based on good, fair returns to the merchant, and they should be absolutely insisted upon."
"While Texas has been a banner State, so far as the conservation of wheat and other food products is concerned, I had the greatest amount of credit to the people themselves, who have done it by their loyalty to the cause. There, of course, have been a few who have been disloyal, but these very few have been punished—and rightly—in order that one man might not profit because all his neighbors wanted to help win the war."
"In some instances I have observed cases of men who have grown discouraged over one thing or another—or over a blue outlook for their businesses. And I always say to them: 'Brace up—if the Kaiser could see you now it would please him. That's just what he wants to see—discouragement.' And in every case these men have gone back with their teeth set to do bigger, better, harder, more persistent work."
"My greatest wish is that after the war these lessons we Americans have learned of how to keep down speculation, to conserve, and to become thrifty shall remain as part of the life of our people for good and all."

Taking Care of the Binder

It seems to me that it is not generally realized that on the average ranch machines go to pieces much faster when they are not in use than they do from service. Instead of having good shelter ready for them when a job is finished a common practice is to haul them under a tree or beside a building somewhere. There they are left to be destroyed by the action of wind, rain and sun. Farm machines will stand a great many years of use if properly cared for, but their life is greatly shortened by constant exposure to the weather. The average farmer gets only from one-third to one-half of the service from his implements that he ought to do.

I know of no more fitting example than that of the binder. The average life in this dry climate is from four to five years. Some of them last in so low is not so much the severe longer and some even less time than that. The reason that this average use they receive in the field as it is neglect on the part of the owner in not providing the proper shelter for them when they are idle. In the year 1900 my father bought a binder. He used it for seventeen seasons. He tells me that in all this time the total cost for repairs has not been over $10. To all appearances it is good for many more harvest seasons. There are two things for which its long life may be accounted—it received careful handling while being used in the field and it was properly sheltered when harvesting was finished.

How often we see binders ready for the junk heap after two or three seasons' use. The blue sky is a mighty poor shelter and our brilliant sun and dashing rain are the worst enemies of iron and wood. The thing which should receive first attention in the care of farm machinery is a good dry shed to protect them from the weather. The life of a machine is increased many times by the proper housing and care when not in use. It is not necessary to have an expensive building. All that is required is one that will keep out the moisture and direct rays of the sun. Above all things it should be dry for dryness prevents rust and decay.

The time to make a machine ready for the next season is not when you have the leisure to do it. It should be attended to the moment it is hauled from the field after you have finished the job. It is not a wise plan to put it off. If you wait for a more convenient time you are quite apt to neglect it altogether. Other work will come on and you will consider yourself too busy to stop. The consequence is that you have lost a good chance to save yourself a lot of labor the very next time you need it. When a machine is needed is very often when time is most valuable. If it has been neglected the previous year and left to stand out of doors considerable time must be spent making repairs and putting it in such condition that it can be used. Often broken parts are found which make it necessary to secure repairs before the machine can go to the field.—Raymond Olney in Field and Farm.

Keep fire away from strawstacks and sell the straw for the use of the Army, specialists of the U. S. It is suggested that all straw be baled as soon after threshing as possible. If assistance in marketing straw is needed, the grain and hay reporting service of the Bureau of Markets is ready to help.

"Who Will Win This Battle?"

Your kidneys are the filters of the body. If they become inactive and fail to eliminate the waste matter, they are apt to throw the whole mechanism of the body out of order, thus toxic poisons can accumulate in the system and be as deadly as snake venom.

Besides causing the minor ailments of rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago and backache, neglect of the kidneys is apt to develop into more serious diseases, such as diabetes or stone in the bladder.

Rid the body of toxic poisons—clean the bladder and kidneys and cure the swings of rheumatism with Anuric and you win the battle of life.

Anuric was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and has benefited thousands of sufferers as well as appeased and eliminated the ravages of the more serious kidney diseases. Now procurable for 60 cents at any good drug store, or send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package.

SEAGOVILLE, TEXAS.—"I wish to state to those who may have rheumatism that I am 45 years old and have had rheumatism most all my life. In executing my duties as a peace officer of this state in the winter of 1910, I was exposed to some very bad weather, which brought on a very severe attack, in fact, it was so bad that I could not ride horseback, and I was compelled to abandon my duties for awhile. I then began a search for a permanent cure, which I did not find until I learned of Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets. I began taking them about 10 months ago and am satisfied that I am cured.

"I wish to say in conclusion that I cannot be loud enough in my praise of Dr. Pierce's Anuric."—T. J. ALLEN.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezeone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezeone cost very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezeone sell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

Citation by Publication THE STATE OF TEXAS, In the District Court of Randall county, August term, A. D., 1918. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Randall county, greeting: You are hereby commanded, that, by making publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the county of Randall, four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon C. C. Hemming, and the unknown heirs of C. C. Hemming, their heirs and legal representatives, whose residences are unknown, to be and appear before the District Court, to be holden in and for the county of Randall, at the court house thereof, in the city of Canyon, on the Fourth Monday in August, A. D., 1918, the same being at 26th day of said month, then and there to answer the petition of C. C. LeNeve, as plaintiff, filed in said court on the 24th day of July, A. D., 1918, against C. C. Hemming, and the unknown heirs of C. C. Hemming, their heirs and legal representatives, as defendants, said suit being numbered 868, the nature of which demand is as follows, to-wit:

Plaintiff alleges that he is the legal and equitable owner and in possession of the following described land situated in Randall county, Texas, to-wit: Survey No. 57, Block No. 2, located by virtue of Certificate No. 655 issued to Adams, Beaty and Moulton, containing 640 acres, more or less, patented to Phillip L. Shutt, assignee, December 3, 1880, by Patent No. 619, Volume 32, Abstract No. 35; that plaintiff has a regular and consecutive chain of title by properly executed and recorded deeds of conveyance from the said Phillip L. Shutt to himself.

That on February 24, 1881, W. M. Brown, as Comptroller of the State of Texas, purported to sell and convey said land to C. C. Hemming for default in payment of taxes for the years 1878 and 1879, said deed filed for record April 14, 1884, recorded Volume 2, pages 89 to 91, Deed Records of Randall county, Texas; that said deed to the said C. C. Hemming was without lawful authority and void, and a cloud upon plaintiff's title, but defendants are asserting a claim to said land under said deed.

Plaintiff prays for judgment for the cancellation of the deed and record thereof to said C. C. Hemming, removal of cloud from title and for the right and title to said land, and for general and special relief, etc.

Herein Fall Not, but have you then and there before said Court, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed same.

Another Editor Gone

Another Plains newspaperman who responded to the call for Y. M. C. A. workers in France was W. O. Kent, publisher of the Post City Post, one of the cleanest and most attractive papers in this section. Mrs. Kent was to continue the work but we learn from the Snyder Signal that the Kent home burned soon after Mr. Kent's departure and the Post had suspended.

This was, indeed, a calamity and Mrs. Kent has the sympathy of the entire Plains fraternity in her loss. We trust, however, that she will reconsider her decision to discontinue the publication of the Post since it is the only newspaper in Garza county and an excellent exponent of the country. We feel confident that Mrs. Kent would continue to make the paper the same successful production that her husband has led its readers to expect as many other Plains women have done when left in charge.

Elks Rooms Open to Soldiers

At a meeting of the Elks held at their home Monday evening, it was unanimously voted to place the club privileges at the disposal of the soldiers passing through Amarillo. This means that they may make use of the reading room, the various game tables, the bath room or just lounge about and rest.

The Amarillo Elks are very active in war work and this is only another way they have undertaken to make things as pleasant as possible for the boys who are "on the way."

To All Laundry Agents:

Our bankers, of Amarillo, insist that we must not overdraw our accounts. They also want to cut down loans. Our Supply Houses are now sending supplies to us either on a C. O. D. basis or with bill ladings attached. We are paying off our employees IN CASH every Friday. The Drug Stores, the Clothing Houses, the Meat Markets—and in fact nearly every business in Amarillo are either now on a CASH basis or will be shortly. Probably you have noticed their advertisements to this effect in the Amarillo papers.

We have to pay for our fuel before we can unload it and, as you know, all big businesses all over the country are now on a cash basis, or practically so, hence it becomes NECESSARY THAT WE CHANGE OUR BUSINESS METHODS TO MEET OUR OBLIGATIONS.

The Laundry Plants of Amarillo will go on a C. O. D. basis on and after July 29th, in order that we may keep abreast with the rest of the demands of our bankers and supply houses and meet our obligations with them promptly and without embarrassment to them by asking them to extend to us favors which they do not do to other people.

We will pay return charges on all moneys on the C. O. D.'s. We are sure that, in as much as you are a business man, you will gladly co-operate with us in this matter, as IT IS TO YOUR INTEREST AS WELL AS TO OURS. It will be better for you to get half as much laundry work and get the money for it as it is to get the amount you are now getting and make a loss on same in bad collections and claims to offset the accounts. We are sure that you will agree with us in this.

Allow us to suggest to you that you IMMEDIATELY notify your patrons that you are going on a CASH basis and if there be another laundry in your town, see him at once and get him lined up with you and BOTH of you put the proposition into effect at the same time. It may be a good idea for you to start your cash proposition on the 22nd, if you think best.

We have called on a number of our shippers and they are all glad to co-operate with us in the matter and in fact they are "raring" to get on a cash basis. They have lost enough to convince them that the CASH basis is the only solution to the financial problems which confront you and us today.

You have lost more or less on little claims which you have been compelled to pay in order to hold a patron's business. You know as well as ourselves that many of these claims were made in order to offset a bill.

THE TIME HAS ARRIVED NOW WHERE A CHANGE IN OUR BUSINESS POLICIES MUST BE MADE AND AFTER CONSIDERABLE THOUGHT ON THE PROPOSITION, WE HAVE DECIDED ON THE ABOVE PLAN AND WE WILL CARRY SAME THROUGH, AS OUTLINED ABOVE.

The Laundry Plants of Amarillo have been on a CASH BASIS for years and we do not deliver a bundle to any one in Amarillo, regardless of who he is, without the CASH then and there.

We are directing this letter to every shipper of laundry who makes shipments to the three laundry plants of Amarillo, regardless of how long they have been shipping to us. We want to be fair to one and all.

Trusting that you will arrange your laundry business as suggested above and in order to assist you, the three laundry plants here will insert a circular in every bundle, beginning at once, advising your patrons that we are going to go on a cash basis and asking them to co-operate with you, by not asking YOU to extend them credit. Many agents have already adopted the CASH basis in both their laundry work and shops.

Yours for a more profitable and pleasant business,

THE TROY LAUNDRY, J. N. Vernon, Prop.
AMARILLO STEAM LAUNDRY CO., R. H. Ames, Mgr.
PANHANDLE STEAM LAUNDRY CO., G. F. Lindsay, Mgr.

Chas. Harter,

Ag't, Amarillo Steam Laundry

We must collect as we deliver beginning August 1st.—Chas. Harter.

N. B. As I am compelled to go on CASH BASIS for laundry after August 1st, this being my principal credit business, I will discontinue book-keeping altogether. Barber and tailor bills must be cash, as I pay my barbers and tailors on Saturday evening.—Chas. Harter.
