George W. Redden, 69, was almost instantly killed Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock when he was struck by a Walker Bread Co. truck on South Hemphill Street about three-fourths of a mile south of the George W. Armstrong & Co. steel mills.

The accident occurred near Redden's home. He was employed as night watchman at the Armstrong Company.

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL CLUB WILL HOLD FAIR

Interesting Program and Large List of Premiums Offered for Trades Day Meet

The Randall County Boys and Girls Agricultural Club Fair is to be held at Canyon on next Trades Day, October 14.

All members of the various agricultural clubs and the girls canning clubs are urged to have their exhibits on hand. A special letter explaining our plans will be sent to club members in this regard.

The merchants of Canyon have all gladly contributed premiums which will be given as prizes that day. A total value of $90 in prizes has already been donated. A list of these prizes and the givers will be published next week.

This fair together with many other attractions being planned, including the giving away of the Ford car by Canyon merchants, should make next Trade's Day a day long to be remembered in Randall county.

The Nursing Situation

It has been decided by the War Council that the Red Cross shall undertake at once the training of a sufficient number of Nurses' Aids to meet the demands of the Red Cross in Europe. They are not intended in any way for service in the Military Hospitals, but to supplement the work now being carried on abroad in the care of refugees, infant welfare work and similar activities conducted under the auspices of the Red Cross. These requirements of nurses aids are a conversational knowledge of French, a course in Elementary Hygiene and Home Care of the Sick and 72 hours of hospital experience.

The committee on nursing activities of the Chapter will be held responsible for this work in their Chapter's jurisdiction. They will also be required to pass upon the candidates, making careful investigation as to their eligibility and loyalty and be ready to make an accurate classification of these women for service.

Instruction in Home Care of the Sick is not only for the purpose of preparing women for European service, but of preparing women to meet the serious conditions that are bound to arise in the community life after our professionally trained women have been called away into service.

The Chapters of the Southwestern Division have long been urged to take care of this instruction in a thorough way. The demand now has become most serious. There must not be a single American woman today who has not prepared herself for some definite job in connection with this war work, and who is not assured that she is preparing herself to be of the greatest possible assistance in the speedy termination of the war.

LYDA W. ANDERSON, Director, Nursing Service.

Red Cross will Gather Clothing for Refugees

Here is a chance for the Randall county Chapters to demonstrate their usefulness and efficiency in prompt and hearty response.

The destitute of Belgium and Northern France need your spare clothing.

Back of the German wall that has hemmed in Belgium and a part of Northern France, ten million human beings look to us for clothing as well as food. We, who are well clothed, can hardly appreciate in what dire need these people are for lack of necessities, stocks of clothing and raw material are long since exhausted. There are no imports other than those the Commission for Relief in Belgium has been permitted to make, and these never have been sufficient. The world is now short of both clothing and raw material, so the Commission can no longer purchase what is needed. But YOU can GIVE it.

Every household in the land has some spare clothing, worn or outgrown, of little use here, but desperately needed by the destitute there. This extract from a letter of a well-to-do lady of Brussels shows the conditions exactly.

"Perhaps you will laugh when you hear that I wear a cloak made from my husband's garde sivique overcoat, a waist made from his football shirt, and a skirt made of a dyed bedsheet. Mother had a suit made of the tablecloth, J. and M. have cloaks made of woolen blankets, and S. a dress made of burlap. But all this is only amusing in comparison with the wretchedness of the population. After all, we remain calm and confident of victory."

A recent Brussels advertisement says: "I will give up to 125 francs ($25) for new or worn bedsheets." There is an immediate need for every sort of garment, blankets, sheets and shoes.

The wonderful results of the clothing campaign of last March assisted in helping to meet the demands of the clothing campaign of last March assisted in helping the inhabitants in the occupied regions, most of whom must look to the outside world for protection against the rigors of winter, it is seen that we cannot send too much. As long as the war lasts Belgium and occupied France must depend chiefly on America for aid. To insure the steady supply of garments which are so much needed, we appeal again to the generosity of the American public to give and give largely.

All garments or packages are to be left at Holland Drug Store from Sept. 23rd to 30th, incl. Mrs. R. A. Stewart has charge of collecting garments in town.

Chairman have been appointed in each school district of the county as follows:

Mrs. Pyatt, Stone School House; Mrs. Tom Dowlin, Campbell school house; Miss Amelia Kunze, High Point school house; Mrs. L. Y. Burch, Burch school house; Mrs. John W. Byrd, Fairview; Mrs. Parker Hauna, Umbarger; Mrs. Walter Johnson, Wilson school house; Mrs. John Hutson, Johnson school house; Mrs. Peter Myers, Jowell school house; Mrs. Jim Knox, Knox school house; Mrs. Mit Slack, Raph school house; Mrs. Ralph Rusk, Rusk school house; Mrs. Emmet pritchard, Pleasant View; Mrs. James Park School; Mrs. Walter Weber, Costly school house.

The Kind of Garments Needed

Every kind of garment, for all ages and both sexes, is urgently needed. In addition, piece goods, light warm, canton flannel and other kinds of cloth from which to make garments for new born babies, ticking, sheeting, and blankets, woolen goods of any kind, and shoes of every size are asked for. Scrap leather is needed for repairing footwear.

Since the clothes will be subjected to the hardest kind of wear, only garments made of strong and durable materials should be sent. It is useless to offer to any afflicted population garments of flimsy material or gaudy coloring. Make the gifts practical.

Garments need not be in perfect condition. A hundred destitute women in the occupied regions are eager to earn a small livelihood by repairing gift clothing and making new garments adapted to needs with which they are familiar.

Men's wear—shirts (preferably of light colored flannels), undershirts, underdrawers, trousers, coats, work-suits (overalls, suits (3 piece), shoes, overcoats, jerseys, sweater-vests, socks (sizes 10 1-2 and 11).

Women's wear—Skirts, drawers, corset-slips, petticoats, blouses, shirts, overcoats, suits (2 pieces) pinafores, shoes, cloth hats, knitted caps, stockings (sizes 7 and 8).

Boy's wear—shirts, union suits, undershirts, trousers, coats, suits, hoes, overcoats, jerseys, socks (sizes 1 to 9).

Girl's wear—Dresses, skirts, overcoats, nightdresses, drawers, stockings (sizes 1-6), undergarments, petticoats, suits (2 piece), blouses, shoes.

Boy's and girl's wear—Hooded caps, pinafores, woolen union suits.

Infant's wear—Swan-skin swaddling clothes, cradle chemises, bodices, cradle dresses, sweaters, bonnets, bibs, nickerchiefs, diapers, shoes, baby dresses, hooded cloaks, jacket, shawls, socks.

Miscellaneous—bed-ticks, bed sheets pillow cases, blankets, mufflers, etc.

Woolen goods of any kind whatsoever are acceptable; soft hats and caps for all ages, and sweaters of any kind and size.

Men's shirts and pajamas, so worn or shrunken are no longer to be serviceable are particularly welcome, since the material can be utilized for making children's garments.

Do Not Send

Garments or flimsy material or gaudy coloring, ball dresses, high heeled slippers, etc.

Stiff hats, either men's or women's straw, dress or derby.

Anything containing rubber, rain-coats, rubber boots, etc. Note: rubber heels may be easily removed from shoes.

Books, toys, soap, toilet articles.

Notes or communications of any sort or description must positively not be sent.

50 PER CENT FREIGHT GIVEN IN THE DROUTH DISTRICTS

Feed Must Be for Immediate Use. L. W. Hillam, county agent, was down from his headquarters in Amarillo yesterday making arrangements for the Agricultural Fair and attending to other matters. He gave out the following concerning the lowered rates for shipment of feed:

The government is allowing farmers and ranchers in the drouth district who have had crop failures and who have insufficient feed for their cattle and other live stock the privilege of a 50 per cent freight rate on all feed shipped in providing the feed is for immediate use. Those desiring to take advantage of this rate, apply to Judge C. R. Flesher or L. W. Hillam, county agent for freight exemption certificates. These certificates are to be presented to the local freight agent and are to be requested before the feed is ordered.

Our Individual Part

Some observers think that the most characteristic thing about the American soldiers in France, something which astounds the enemy and excites the admiration of our allies, is the capacity of the American soldiers to do individual thinking and fighting. The German fights successfully only in mass formation, in organized hordes, while every American soldier has an initiative and independence of action which gives him remarkable efficiency in open fighting. They are not senseless cogs, but each is an individual working unit in a great machine.

Every American at home should feel an individual responsibility and do his or her individual part in winning the war. There is not an American citizen who can not help win the war. The Fourth Liberty Loan drive, which begins September 28, offers a great opportunity for concerted action and for individual action, and the loan will be a tremendous success if each American will do his or her individual part as each American soldier in France does his part. OUR SOLDIERS DESERVE SUCH SUPPORT FROM THE PEOPLE AT HOME.

Not a Bomb-Proof Job

The Army Y. M. C. A. often has the job of getting food through to the soldiers when the regular supply trains are unable to cope with conditions. During the big push on the Chateau Thierry front supplies distributed by the Red Triangle were often received by men who had had practically no rations for two days. The trucks on which supplies were transported were under fire constantly for several nights and some of them were hit by shell fragments and shrapnel, but the drivers went on. Under the unusual conditions of this attack, tons of supplies were given away with out charge. No soldier is ever refused what he needs because he is short of funds.

Italians Like Our Movies

Italian soldiers like American moving picture comedies so well that American soldiers, flyers, and Y. M. C. A. secretaries are kept busy at the shows translating titles.

JOHN BAIN HAS BEEN PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

The following letter was received last week from John Bain by his parents:

Dear Dad and Mother: Got your letters last night. This is the first time I have heard from home in two weeks. Wish some of you would write every day, for I may not be here very much longer as we get our over-seas clothing in the morning. I don't know for sure the exact day we leave, but have a pretty good idea.

Had more fun today than I've had since I came down here. A bunch of us fellows took a "driving test." There were eighty men in the test. We were out of the "Truck Train" Company. So when the officers put us on the "convoy test,"—if you know what that is, you know more than I did, then. Well, the major asked everyone what experience they had had with a car. Everyone of the men, except myself and a boy by the name of Roy Wilson, also from Texas, said they had from eight to twenty years experience. The major asked me what I did in civilian life, and if I had ever driven a car. I said about all I did before I got in the army was to pull the bell cord over hard tails, and that all the car driving I had ever done was when I brought the plow points to the shop on Saturday night. He asked Roy W., next, his experience and he told what he did. Said he plowed six days out of the week, and on Sunday morning he sheared his mules—but Sunday afternoon he had lots of fun riding around in a little Ford with his girls. Th major said to me to step into his "Pierce-Arrow" and let her slide, and believe me I did. Well to cut the little thing short I got the medal for being the best driver, and the other Texas boy was next to me. The men with the twenty years' experience were sure taken down.

Say, I want to tell you something else. I am Sergeant now. The pay is $44 per. We get our stripes in the morning. There were sure some bum drivers in the car contest. Guess you know it though, by me being the best driver. Write me every chance you get. Tell the kids to write.

SANDY.

Parisians Enjoy Baseball

The Frenchmen plays no favorite in his applause at the Paris Baseball League games conducted under the Auspices of the American Y. M. C. A. If the shortstop makes a good play, he applauds. If a moment later he lets an easy pickup roll through his legs, the Parisian applauds just the same. It's all the same to him but he likes the game as he does everything else American.

THE "CLOWN" PRINCE WRITES TO HIS PAPA

The following was taken from a newspaper published in France and sent to Nevada relatives by a Nevada doughboy, who is now fighting in France:

"On the Run, Somewhere in France Everywhere in France, All the Time." Dear Papa: I am writing on der run as der brave and glorious soldiers under my command have not seen der Rhine for so long dat they have started back that way, and of course I am going mit dem. Oh, pap, dere has been some offel dings happened here in France. First, I started in my big offensive, which was to crush de fool Americans, but they know so little about military tactics dat dey vill not be crushed just like I want 'em. I sent my men in der fight in der big waves, and ven dey got to de Americans dey all said "Boo" as loud as they could holler. Vell, according to vat you have always told me, de Americans have turned and run like blazes. But vat do you tink? Dem fool Americans don't know anything about war, and instead of running de odder vay, dey came right toward us. Some of dem vas singing about "Ve won't come back till it's over, over dere," or some odder foolish song, and some of them were laffing like fools. Dey are so ignorant. But dey are offel reckless mit der guns, and ven dey come toward us it vas dat my men took a notion dey wanted to go back to de dear old Rhine. Ve don't like de little dirty Marne river, anyhow. And, oh, pap, dem Americans use such offel language. Dey know nothing of kultur and say such offel dings right before us. And dey talk blasphemy, too. Vat you think dey said right in front of my face? One big husk from a place dey call 'Missouri,' he said—oh, papa, I hate to tell you vat an offel ting he said—but I can't help it; he said: "To hell mit der kaiser!" Did you ever hear anything so offel? I didn't tink anybody would say such an offel ting. It made me so mad. I wouldn't stand and hear such an offel ting so I turned around and 'run mit de odder boys. Vas I right? Vat? And, oh, papa, you know them breastplates vot you sent us—can you send some to put on our backs? You know ve are going de odder vay, now, and breastplates are no good, for de cowardly Americans are shooting us right in der back. Some of our boys took off der breastplates and put 'em behind but de fool Americans are playing "De Star-Spangled Banner" mit machine guns on dem plates. Can't you help us? You remember in your speech you said nothing could stand before the brave German soldiers? Oh, papa, I don't believe dese ignorant Americans ever read your speech, for dey run after us just like ve vas a lot of rabbits. Vot you tink of dot? Can't you send dem some of your speeches right away? Dey don't know how terrible ve are. Can't ou move my army back to Belgium vere ve von all our glory? My men can vip all the vimmen and children, vot dem Belgians can bring us. But dese Americans are so rough and ignorant. We can't make 'em understand that ve are the greatest soldiers on earth, and ven ve try to sing "Deutschland Ueber Alles" dey laugh at us like a lot of monkeys. But ve are getting de best of de Americans. Ve can out run dem. Papa, if ve are not de best fighters on earth, ve are sure de best runners. Nobody can keep up mit us when ve tink of der dear old Rhine, and my army never did tink so much of dot dear old river. Let me know right avay vot to do by return postoffice.

September 12 times.

The Perfect Baby Of The Future

A Simple Method That Has a Wonderful Influence upon The Future Infant.

Before the arrival of baby knowing women for over half a century have used with regularity the time-honored preparation, Mother's Friend.

Here is a most wonderful application for the abdomen and breasts. It penetrates the muscles, ligaments and tissues, rendering them pliant to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion.

By its use the anxious weeks of pregnancy are made comfortable. The usual wrenching strain, bearing-down and stretching pains are counteracted. The system is prepared for the coming event, and its use brings rest, repose and happy anticipation.

By the regular use of Mother's Friend during the period the muscles expand easier when baby arrives, and naturally the pain and danger at the crisis is less.

Mother's Friend is prepared after the formula of a noted family doctor by the Brad-said Regulator Co., Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is for external use only; is absolutely and entirely safe and wonderfully effective. Write them for their instructive and interesting "Motherhood Book."

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written just what every woman wants to know and will be a splendid little text book of guidance, not only for yourself but will make you helpful to others, and in the meantime obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist, and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.

Cleaning Up After the Hun

Within twenty four hours after the Germans were driven out of Chateau Thierry, Y. M. C. A. workers had opened a hut with a canteen and facilities for the comfort and entertainment of the soldiers. There was a big job of housecleaning to do first, for the huns had left rubbish and filth piled high in every room of the old house. Men who had been prominent ministers and bankers back, home scrubbed floors and lifted heavy cases. When the canteen opened, a line of soldiers formed and continued to form until the Military Police ordered all soldiers off the street.

Another Use For The Flyer

Not long ago when a Boche airplane dropped bombs indiscriminately without due regard to the life and property of Americans, the space beneath a camionette or little automobile served as shelter for five persons, three men and two young women. The scene of this little drama was on the road to Verdun and the dramatic personae were five Red Triangle workers who had been searching for supplies for their canteen.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

AT THE BASE HOSPITAL, FT. SAM HOUSTON

Clean white beds, the very best of attention from the surgeons and nurses, and plenty of cheer-up consideration from the Army Y. M. C. A. secretaries make confinement at the base hospital as attractive as illness or injury can be made. Mothers and other relatives and friends with their beloved soldiers in the hospital can find comfort in the fact that their boys are not being neglected. The "Y" man supplements the regular ministrations of the military and the Red Cross with frequent and regular visits, bringing books, writing the patient's letters, and complying with his every wish as nearly as it is possible for him to do so. The Y. M. C. A. secretary in the picture is making his regular afternoon visit at the base hospital, distributing books to the soldiers.

When the soldiers reach the convalescent period, the "Y" furnishes movies, entertainment, and music for the convalescing soldiers.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that never killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freestone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freestone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freestone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

A Texas Boy's Experience

Fred Koch returned home from Norfolk, Va., Tuesday evening, glad to be back home, but still pleased with his trip east when he saw more strange sights in one week than he had seen before in a life time.

When he left Texas several weeks ago the train was crowded with about 1,500 men, a good many hard characters among them. The food served en route was nothing to brag of: sandwiches and potted ham, and one boy suffered from ptomaine poison on the strength of it, and was put off the train at the first station.

When running at a speed of over fifty miles an hour three men fell off but nobody seemed to care, and the train went on.

In Indiana the train came to a stop near a big apple orchard, and the men nearly famished began robbing the trees. The owner came out with a shotgun, but with fifteen hundred men against him, he was helpless, and his trees were stripped. The same thing happened at Sedalia, Mo., where a saloon was emptied of its wet goods within a very few minutes. After that at most places where the train stopped the merchants locked their doors against the gang. In Virginia, Fred says, they saw some of the finest apples that ever grew on trees, and some of the men invaded a country place with a colonial mansion. Upon the porch a dignified gentleman with a long white beard was sitting, who when he saw them probably took them for drafted men and cordially invited them to help themselves to all the fruit on his trees. This seemed to get next to the visitors, tough as they were, and they left the place without touching anything.

Along with the white men on the train were two car loads of negroes. A cowboy had words with one of them and took after him. Another negro picked up a rock and hit the white man behind the ear. This was too much for the crowd who captured the thrower, and began calling for a rope. A lynching seemed to be in order, but the darky suddenly broke loose and scaled a cliff so steep that nobody cared to follow him.

Finally the travelers reached Norfolk, Va., and saw Newport News across the bay; big ships passing every minute, and the whole place a beehive of industry.

They were taken to some big barracks where several hundred men slept in one room. Among the men who had come from the South were lots of rowdies, but when they were put in with another bunch from New York: deformities, gunmen and other scum, Fred realized that if he wanted to keep his grip, he had better check it every morning.

The next morning they were put to work building up the foundation of a warehouse along the bay, and had to work in the muck. It was dirty work but not very hard, in fact most of the men seemed to loaf on the job, and supervision was slack. Fred worked with an old Irishman, who took the boy under his wing, and told him:

"I don't want to boss yez, kid, but experience should count, and dis is the way to hold a shovel. My name is Pat Carling, and I was sixty years old yesterday, by Jasus."

Pat gave the boy several pointers, and was a very efficient time killer having come from Lee Hall, where according to him a man would be fired if he worked to fast. All the contractors were getting ten per cent and did not care if their jobs never came to an end.

Patriotism did not seem to be rampant in Norfolk, and the majority displayed a callous indifference, which was not inspiring. Many of them appeared eager only to work the government.

Human life was cheap in this maelstrom. Several men got hurt, one killed by a piledriver, but nobody apparently cared. One Sunday a sailor fell into the bay getting off a street car upon a bridge where there was no landing. He drowned in plain sight of the crowd without anybody coming to the rescue.

The Virginia people seemed to think the world of the many negroes working around the barracks, whom the Texas plainmen detested. The cooking and serving was all done by negroes, and while the fare was ample its preparation was unclean and unsanitary.

Gambling was a nightly occurrence at the barracks. Adjoining Fred's was a bed used for a crap game in operation for hours every night. This was strictly against the rules, and one night three soldiers on guard came rushing in. The lights, however, were turned out, and with so many men the soldiers could not tell who had been gambling.

There was one sailor in the barracks who could outcuss any man living. One day he let loose a stream of profanity for several minutes without ever repeating himself a single time being a regular artist at the business.

Among the boys from home Fred ran across Henry Wilson and Carl Morrow, both homesick, who when they heard that he was starting back for Texas begged him to wait a few days till they could go also.

Getting back was not so easy as it looked. The men in charge kept part of the wages back, and did not want to turn a man loose unless he had mighty good reasons to offer. Fred's telling that he wanted to go back to school, which was to start within a few days, was received with skeptical laughter, and he had to find a better excuse than that to get his final dismissal.

To sum up his experience, a man going to work in these Eastern ports must make up his mind to rough it. The work, however, is easy, and the wages good. Any man who can drive a nail straight may pass off for a carpenter, and get eight dollars a day. If the kind of work does not suit, he is given something else to do. Laborers, skilled and unskilled, are comparatively scarce, and the government seems to be willing to put up with a good deal of imposition on the part of its help.—Quana Tribune-chief.

Paris Green and Airplanes
The means by which the Nation's supply of paris green escaped serious curtailment is announced by the Food Administration, which regards this chemical as essential in the protection of certain crops against the ravages of insects.

The supply of acetic acid heretofore considered indispensable in the manufacture of paris green was taken over some months ago for the manufacture of airplane "dope," the material used for making the cloth on airplane wings weatherproof.

In co-operation with the War Industries Board, the chemical experts of the Food Administration called a conference at which the situation was outlined and plans solicited to solve the acetic acid shortage. By arrangement with large yeast manufacturers, vinegar, which contained about 10 per cent acetic acid, is now being supplied manufacturers of paris green of which an adequate supply—at least normal—is now assured. Department of Agriculture experts advise also that lead arsenate and calcium arsenate, which are cheaper (especially the latter), can be used as an equivalent substitute for paris green in many cases.

Killed by Former Wife
Roy Winters, telephone lineman at Ralls, was killed at Jayton last Sunday afternoon by his former wife, who shot him four times. They had been divorced and the court had decided to let them divide the time of their two children between them and he had gone after them to spend a while with him, which resulted as above. This is a deplorable tragedy and without excuse.

Winters and his divorced wife had each married again, it is said.—Crosbyton Review.

Cattle Moving Fast
According to Inspector Howell, more cattle have been shipped from this section during the last ten days than for months before. More than 200 cars went out from this division the last of last week and the first of this, the major portion going to Kansas City.

Mr. Howells thinks that if the shipment of cows and heifers continues there will be a serious shortage of she-stuff next year.

Twenty-four cars were shipped from Dalhart Saturday and Sixty-one from Texhoma. The following shipped Monday: Frank Letts, 5 to Kansas City, 1 to St. Jo. T. H. Corkhill, 2 to St. Jo., Jno. Feltz, 3 to Kansas City.—Dalhart Texan.

Many Workmen Go East
G. C. McDaniels, examiner in charge of the local office of the U. S. Employment Service, reports that many men have been sent to various eastern points during the past week. The men are given transportation and receive excellent wages in the different industries where they work on Government contracts.

Last week, 24 men left here for Muscle Shoals, Alabama, to work in the plant of the Air Nitrate Corporation.

New calls for laborers, both skilled and unskilled, are received daily at the Employment Service office, and the demand for labor continues keen. Anyone who wants to work can readily be placed by Examiner McDaniels.—Southwest Plainsman.

A complaint was filed a few days ago against Bland Burson and Emmett Puckett for stealing six sheep, and Emmett has been placed under arrest and Bland, who was at Canyon, probably has been arrested by now, as a warrant was issued for him. Boy's Crop Will Bring $800
We have at least one progressive young farmer in Terry county, even if his dad is a cowman, pure and simple, and that is Arthur Scudday, who lives out near Tokio. We saw a fair sample of his broom corn this week, which people who know broom corn will class A1, and will bring between $300 and $400 per ton. He has about ten acres in and will get two and one half tons off the ten acres. This crop alone will net this 15-year-old boy around $800.—Brownfield Herald.

Burns all the gases in coal which in soft coal amounts to more than half the fuel and which are 'wasted up the chimney with the ordinary underdraft stove. The two top drafts discharge heated air into the combustion chamber with a rotary motion, which moves it with the rising gases more thoroughly than is possible with a single draft and these gases are thus oxidized and burned. The stove has a larger positive radiating surface than any other stove of the same diameter. Its handsome appearance with door surfaces milled air tight are additional points in its favor and are not found in any other hot blast. THE MARTYRS

Now that they have suffered reverses, Germany and Austria are putting out feelers with a view to an "understanding" by which the war may be brought to a close. An insidious campaign of peace propaganda has been inaugurated in all of the enemy countries as well as among the neutrals where it is less painstakingly disguised. The rejection of all previous proposals is made much of as indicating that the central powers are being martyred by their enemies and, if utterances by German statesmen might be relied upon, German "demands" have been quite materially changed in the last few months.

There is no need to remind our soldiers at the front of all that the allied nations and the world at large has suffered at the hands of the Hun. The soldiers have constantly before them horrible examples of the "frightfulness" practised upon the people of the occupied portion of France, of Belgium, of Poland and Serbia. There is no danger of the boys "over there" being inclined to make an inconclusive peace with the enemy. They went across for the express purpose of "licking" the Huns and not one of them has lost that ambition by reason of what he has seen of Hun atrocity.

The danger lies with those at home. While it is natural that we should all hope for an early cessation of hostilities, we must not allow love for the boys or business reasons or misplaced sympathy to influence us toward a peace that will be "a scrap of paper." It has been pointed out many times, that any negotiated peace would turn out just as the Russian peace did. It would simply give the German military machine an opportunity to rehabilitate itself when the world would again be plunged into war—no doubt with many times more deadly and horrible weapons than those employed today.

We must not forget that there was a time when an "understanding" was sought by all of the allied countries in the hope of averting the horrors of a great war which they readily foresaw. Virtually every country in Europe offered its services as mediator but Austria, urged on by Germany, would accept no mediation. It was evident that Austria wanted war and purposefully made her demands upon Serbia such as no state could accept and retain its sovereignty. In vain did Serbia humble herself before her oppressor, agreeing to all but two of the preposterous demands of Austria's ultimatum and suggesting that these two be submitted to The Hague tribunal or a conference of disinterested nations. For fear that Austria might weaken, Germany made haste to declare war on Russia, thereby forestalling further efforts on the part of the entente toward a peaceful settlement of the matter.

There is no question that the people of Austria and Germany have suffered during the war but their sufferings are not to be compared with those of the people of the countries invaded by their troops. Their farms and homes have not been destroyed; they have not been brutally treated and forced to labor for their country's enemies; their children have not been killed before their eyes or maimed for life to satisfy the "All Highest's" pleasure in "frightfulness"; their young women and girls have not been mercilessly sacrificed to appease the bestial desire of their captors. Apparently most of the people of both these countries are still upholding their governments in the prosecution of the war and if the present struggle should end before the horrors of war are brought home to them as they have been to the allied nations, there is no reason to think that they would hesitate to take the field again if those in authority so ordained. While it is true that the people have very little to say in regard to such questions under their governments, still a very decided sentiment among them against war would make itself felt and would act as a check on the military power.

We must have a military victory because that is the only sort of victory that the Huns will understand or respect. It was to be expected that the Germans would try to save their own country from the fate which they themselves visited upon the territory which they wrested from their neighbors. If the worst were to happen and Germany be invaded by the allies, they would still rely—and safely—upon the fact that the invaders are Christian people who would not be guilty of such acts of wanton destruction and cruelty as they themselves inflicted upon the unfortunate people of Belgium, Poland, Serbia and France.

A military victory will enable the allies to dictate what shall be done to those responsible for the utterly useless and inhuman butchery that has been going on the past four years and will continue unto the end. That they should suffer condign punishment is the sentiment of all and at that they can expiate only in an infinitesimal degree, the misery and suffering that they have caused the world.

Human Skeleton Unearthed

While out in his pasture two miles southeast of Anson one day last week, Billie Bradley discovered bones protruding above the earth in an embankment of a ravine, and on digging in, he was amazed at the discovery of what proved to be decomposed fragments of a human skeleton, consisting of a large portion of the skull, arm, bones and teeth.

The body was evidently that of an early inhabitant, and had likely been placed some three or four feet under the earth, but as time passed the waters of the ravine had washed the earth away.—Anson Western Enterprise.

BRIEF WAR NEWS

The war situation for Tuesday is summarized by the Associated Press as follows:

While the Serbs and their French allies are wresting from the Bulgars some of the strongest positions they have held in Macedonia for two years, Marshal Foch's forces are nibbling at the German lines on the western front in the face of more determined resistance.

The Near East furnished the most sensational news of the day, however. The offensive which has been launched there seems not only the most successful but the most pretentious in many months.

It appears probable that a further advance by the Franco-Serbian troops will necessitate the recall of the Bulgarian divisions which have been lent to Emperor William to bolster the Teutonic resistance in France and Flanders. An official Serbian report declares that the re-constituted army of the battered, but not beaten, little kingdom has taken not only 3,000 prisoners, but important positions. The Bulgars admit having retired, but declare the attack has been checked to the north of Gradeshitsa. There is nothing to indicate, however, the advance of the Serbs and French had been definitely held up.

The lull in the fighting in the west is regarded by military critics as merely the prelude to further heavy blows at the foe by the Americans, British and French armies.

The British advanced their lines slightly at several points. They are making steady progress in the investment of St. Quentin, a difficult task even under most favorable conditions.

General Petain's veterans are forging ahead slowly but surely in their grim and desperate struggle for the St. Gobain forest which the Germans have been ordered to hold at all costs. Not only is the position a natural citadel, but the Teutons have fortified it in every way their ingenuity could devise. Notwithstanding the difficulty of their task, however, the French are moving on, taking prisoner General Pershing's command launched hours have been the quietest since its irresistible drive against the St. Mihiel salient. There are indications that the Germans intend to retire behind the Hindenburg line in this sector. They are burning villages along the Moselle and in other sections. This procedure ultimately is preliminary to a retreat.

On the American front the last 24

Another victory has been recorded for the Americans, British and French on the newly constituted eastern front. Detachments of the allies have routed Bolshevik forces in the vicinity of Archangel and it is reported many of the Red Guard officers went over to the allies when their men fled in panic.

The Austrian peace note appears already to have become almost ancient history. The blunt and unmistakable refusal of President Wilson to parley with the central powers except on the terms he previously laid down seems to have voiced the sentiments of the entente. They are likely to let the reply of the United States suffice for all as they did the case of previous peace proposals.

One Weak Spot

Many Canyon People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's The Back

Many people have a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up, day and night. Backache is often from weak kidneys.

In such case a kidney medicine is needed. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. For backache and urinary ills. Canyon people recommend the remedy.

Mrs. J. A. Wallace, W. Houston, Canyon, says: "I was troubled by a weak and lame back and irregular action of my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Holland Drug Co., cured me. I gladly advise anyone to use Doan's, who is troubled with kidney complaint."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wallace had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ed Gibson returned Wednesday from Palmyra, Mo., his old home. It was his first visit in eleven years. He said the corn crop in that section of Missouri he visited was burned up, and that the Plains looked better to him after the trip.

Weekly Financial Review

In normal times the fall demand for money is just getting into full swing on Sept. 1, but this year the seasonal requirements have come earlier, as a result of the early movement of the great wheat crop and the general inclination to be forehanded in replenishing stocks.

The demand for the industries has been increasing through the summer, and money would be very tight if the supply was restricted to the old-time facilities, but because of the Federal Reserve Bank the pressure is softened.

As a result of the rapid movement of the wheat crop, the sections in which it was produced will liquidate indebtedness and have some free capital, but the wheat will have to be carried some where until it is eaten, and the cotton crop is coming to market at the highest price level on record.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Wirt and Lorenzo and wife returned this morning from Kansas City and other points where they have visited for some time.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

SENDING THE "CIVIES" HOME

Many a kid brother is sporting his soldier brother's Sunday silk shirts and best serge suits these days, and brother doesn't mind, because he is wearing the very latest style for men—khaki of the regulation military cut. The Army Y. M. C. A. helps the rookie soldier with his civilian clothes problem. "Y" furnishes wrapping paper, and a "Y" man is on hand to help with the wrapping, furnishes the twine, and assists with the addressing of the bundles of "civies" (military parlance for civilian clothes). These bundles are sent back home to be packed in moth balls until after the war, or worn out by the kid brother.

Here is a parcel post shipment of clothes to go back home a few hours after a bunch of Louisiana boys had reported for service at Southern Department camp.

GOT THIRTY HUNS BEFORE HE DIED

SCOTTY, YOUNGEST SOLDIER IN PERSHING'S FORCES, IS MOURNED BY ARMY.

HIS HEROIC DEATH RELATED

Red Cross Establishes Tailor Shop in Berne to Supply Captured American Officers With Uniforms—New Plan for Training Flyers.

(From Committee on Public Information.) Washington.—Private Albert E. Scott, the youngest soldier in General Pershing's army in France—he was but fifteen years of age and a Brookline, Mass., high school boy when he enlisted—is dead, shot through the head by a German sniper after he had laid thirty foes to rest, and the army mourns its boy hero.

A soldier writer for The Stars and Stripes, the A. E. F. paper, tells this story:

"In the regiment they are talking these days of all the good pals they left in the fierce, unforgettable chase they gave the Germans in the front retreat from the Marne. For most of all—a little officer and a bit more fondly—they talk of Scotty.

"He was a good kid, they say, and he died of his gun.

"His great chance came when on that historic July 18 his regiment got the order for which, through many a month of dreams, it had longed—the order to advance. It went 18 kilometers without stopping, chasing the Boche up hill and down dale, fighting its way through patch after patch of inviting woods that would prove treacherous with hidden machine guns.

"In the first days of that battle, the movement was so swift that more than once a small German rear guard and an advance Yank platoon would meet in the forest and fight out then and there a complete and separate battle all their own. So it was with the Indians, as Scotty's regiment was nicknamed, one afternoon, as they were making their way past the bitterly won town of Epieds.

"At the cross road they saw troops approaching them in column of squads. The officer in charge caught them in the focus of his field glasses. They were Boches, coming on. The Yanks waited, itching to open fire, but biding their time. Suddenly the Boches deserted the road and came on them through the forest.

"The lieutenant placed his men along a roadside ditch. He placed Scotty and his sho-sho beside a tree and squarely opposite a narrow woodland path that opened across the way. He could see straight down that path, and the Boches were bound either to come along it or to cross it.

"See that path, Scotty?" said the lieutenant. "That's your target. Not one of them must cross it."

"Yes, sir," said Scotty, and dropped beside his gun.

"Then from the high branches of many a tree and from many a shelter the German fire opened, and the Yank fire answered.

"A gray figure darted suddenly into the leafy path. He fell.

"Another appeared. He fell.

"There was perhaps ten minutes of that, and what was left of the German party was withdrawing when a handful of soldiers scampered along the road. They were Germans, but they shouted as they ran, 'Don't shoot, we're Americans.'

"For a moment, just for the space that a breath is held, Scotty thrust his head up to see. From his perch in some tree a sniper shot him in the forehead. Another bullet found his heart. He fell forward, dead, on his gun.

"They had killed him, but the number of their dead that are counted as his was thirty."

Roller skates as a part of the speed-up program in force at the Rock Island arsenal, Illinois, have been adopted by women messenger employees.

Women employed in the time division at the arsenal are voluntarily working the first Saturdays and Sundays of each month closing the pay roll sheets so that all arsenal workers may be paid promptly.

According to the "Arsenal Record," published by the employees, Rev. M. E. Krotzer, pastor of the Presbyterian churches at LeClaire and Princeton, Iowa, is putting in his five weeks' vacation as an arsenal worker. The same paper reports the fiftieth anniversary as an arsenal worker at Rock Island of Emil Beck, seventy years old, inspector in the tin shop, who went there when the arsenal consisted of a small group of wooden buildings, relics of Civil War days, and employed from 200 to 400 men only through the summer months.

Cuba has a closing law which shuts all stores, warehouses, shops, etc., in the larger cities at 6 p. m. week days, and all day Sundays. Retail food stores keep open until 8 p. m. week days and 10 p. m. Sundays. Barber shops remain open until 7 p. m. on Mondays and Fridays, 11 p. m. Saturdays, but cannot sell perfumes while general stores are closed.

A company has been formed in Yokohama, Japan, to turn out a substitute for Portland cement. The new material will be made of lava and lime.

Captured American army and navy officers are reaching German prison camps without clothing and shoes. The American Red Cross has established a tailor shop in Berne to supply them with proper uniforms, according to information just reaching the bureau of prisoners' relief.

The officers, it seems, in being hustled back from the front by their captors lose their overcoats, blouses and even trousers. Frequently their leather shoes, which are greatly coveted by the Germans, are taken from them, and they are forced to wear wooden shoes. The clothing of others is so damaged in strenuous fighting as to need replacement.

To outfit the forty commissioned Americans known to be in the German camps and others who may be captured later, the Red Cross purchased a tailor shop in Paris and moved tailors and outfit outright to Switzerland. This shop is now turning out each week 12 uniforms made to measurements supplied by mail by the various prisoners in the various camps. The men are supplied, also with underclothing, shoes, toilet articles, towels and food. The food is particularly necessary to supplement the meager prison fare for which the Germans make the captured officers pay in money.

The stripping of prisoners apparently takes place only at the front in the heat and confusion of battle. Camp committees, appointed by the prisoners themselves, see that American prisoners receive supplies sent them.

Experienced flying officers are being returned from abroad to act as special instructors in the more advanced courses of aviation training which is being developed by the air service.

Recent practice in elemental training now gives the candidate more time in the air with his instructor than heretofore. The new plan is known as the Gosport system or "All Thru," as it is popularly called here, and insures closer contact between the cadet and instructor. When the cadets arrive at a flying field from the ground school, where they have learned much of the theory of flight, engine control and repair, radio, signaling and other kindred subjects, several of them are assigned to an instructor who stays with them until they are qualified in elemental flying. They are then sent to the special schools for final work and training in their particular line, as pursuit, reconnaissance, artillery control, or bombing pilots. The old practice of giving a cadet so much time in the air under instruction and then turning him loose for his first solo flight, in a "stink or swim" fashion, is being discontinued, and what is believed to be a more safe and sane system is being adopted.

Organization of forty air squadrons has been authorized. Four will be located at Houston, Tex., and 36, or a training brigade of three wings, on Long Island, N. Y.

The base of this Long Island training brigade, as now planned, will be Hazelhurst field, near Mineola. The

Announcement

To our Patrons and the People of this County:

We have decided to go on a strictly cash basis October 1st.

In making this change in our business methods we have many regrets, for this reason, that we will work a hardship on some of our customers and friends, who have been loyal to us through thick and thin.

Please remember, we have been doing business together for a long time, and our business relations have always been very pleasant. Present conditions, owing to War Times is the only thing that prompts this move. The excessive prices we are compelled to pay for goods has caused this turn to cash.

Future business is problematical at best, and we must trim our ship to weather every storm.

We want you to continue to trade with us, and we will strive to show you every courtesy as we have done in the past.

Under these conditions and by being able, on a cash basis, to discount all invoices in buying goods, we will be in a position to make you a better price on the goods you buy than you have received in the past.

With every good wish for your success, and with very best regards,

HOLLAND DRUG CO.

P. S. Under our new ruling it will be CASH to EVERYONE, and there will be no exemptions and no favors.

squadrons will be quartered in groups of four or nine outlying fields. These squadrons are to serve under field conditions simulating, as nearly as practicable, the conditions behind the lines in France.

Information received by the children's bureau of the department of labor seems to indicate that everywhere in the United States children are receiving less milk than they should have. Such decreases are undoubtedly due in part to the high cost of milk. It is the poorest families that have been forced to make the greatest reduction in the amount of milk purchased. But that reduction would perhaps not be so great, the children's bureau says, if all mothers fully realized the value of food in the diet of their children.

Milk has been called the "perfect food." Authorities agree that it supplies the elements necessary to the growing child in the most digestible form. In spite of its increasing cost, it supplies those elements also in the cheapest form. It is estimated that on the basis of its nutritive value, milk compared with meat at 40 cents a pound, and eggs at 45 cents a dozen, should be priced at about 27½ cents a quart.

Workers for Children's Year, to whom the weighing and measuring test for children under five years of age has revealed how many children in the United States are undeveloped as a result of improper diet, are engaged in campaigns to bring the importance of milk to the attention of mothers and to make it possible for them to procure enough milk to keep their children strong and well. Many milk stations where mothers may receive pure milk at a nominal cost, or free, if they cannot afford to pay for it, have been established in connection with children's year work, and public measures for ensuring a pure and adequate milk supply have been undertaken in many communities. Among these measures are the establishment of pasteurization plants, the inspection of the milk supply, and the passing of regulations controlling distribution.

The total value of all imports into the United Kingdom during the first six months of 1918 were $3,173,851,129; of exports, $1,201,211,086. For the same period of 1916 the values were: Imports, $2,310,730,038; exports, $1,176,758,033. The submarine has not destroyed the commerce of Great Britain.

Camp Shelby, Miss., will be remodelled and converted from a tent camp into a cantonment with permanent quarters and camp utilities, at a total cost of $5,467,378.

"Big Chief" Learns English.

When "Big Chief" Henry went into the army from his Cherokee reservation in Delaware county, Oklahoma, he did not know a word of English. That was last March. Now he carries on a fair-sized conversation with his pale-face brothers in khaki, for he has been studying English in one of the Army Y. M. C. A. classes.

The Indian is handy with the gloves. He gets into a Y. M. C. A. prize ring down in Beaugard every once in a while and cleans up two or three opponents of an evening.

To be sure the work is done well Swift & Company, through its branch houses and car routes, brings the meat to the retail dealer for you.

Swift & Company lays out car routes covering towns—big, little, medium size—which are not served by a Swift branch house.

Salesmen find out in advance what is wanted by the dealers in every town.

They are followed by refrigerator cars loaded with retailers' orders, which are delivered at each town—fresh, clean, and sweet—once or twice each week.

Swift & Company operates a large number of car routes like this, from fourteen distributing plants.

This is a necessary and natural part of the packers' usefulness. It fits into the industry in an orderly, effective way. It makes better meat cheaper from one end of the land to the other.

Cleanliness Means Healthy Hogs

For the most part health in a hog is a matter of cleanliness, says the Indiana Farmer's Guide. To be sure there are exceptions to this, for there are certain ills to which swine are liable and against which even cleanliness in surroundings will not prevail. On the average farm, however, observation reveals that anything is considered to be good enough for the hog. Dirty feedlots, packing in drainage and bearing the refuse and accumulations of a long time, are to be found almost everywhere. On the idea that "a pig loves a puddle" no effort is made to eliminate the puddle which his porkship makes in a scum-covered hollow receiving the drain from a manure pile. Anything will do for a hog!

Hogs kept amid such surroundings and compelled to sleep in poorly ventilated quarters or around old straw-stacks and manure heaps are exposed to many physical risks which must eventually reduce the profits. Owing to this construction the hog comes closely in touch with the ground more largely than most other farm animals. He breathes the air lying nearest the earth. His snout is his chief means of exploration as he pokes about in search of food. This last seldom comes to him unsoiled.

Strange, indeed, if he does not pick up or come in contact with every sort of germ which might assail his constitution! He appears by nature to pick up every sort of infection. That he survives the environment in which he finds himself is due to his strong powers of resistance. Yet, withal, he is not "bullet-proof"—and when he does get sick it is pretty nearly always due to the fact that even in the case of a hog there is a limit to what he can endure.

The ideal place for hogs through the warm months is the open, well shaded, well-drained lot. Where it is possible this should be large enough so that the animals will not run the grass all off. Sun should get into most every part of it some time during the day, for sunlight is the best of disinfectants. There should be plenty of good water available for drinking purposes. Puddles and wallows are not wholly objectionable, but they should be eliminated if the source of the water forming them be the leaching from some accumulation of manure or is sewage polluted, such as a drain from questionable sources. A concrete wallow which can be cleaned periodically will prove a source of comfort to the animals, and by the use of some form of dip their natural desire to wallow may be turned to an effective means of keeping them free from vermin.

For the open lot, shelters that can be moved about are convenient and desirable. Some shelters have handles on each end, by means of which three or four men can easily pick them up and move them elsewhere. Such an environment means as a rule healthy pigs. Today, with pork bringing what it does and with the world crying for food, one can ill afford to overlook the things which means health in the hoglot. We should get rid of the notion that a hog requires filth to thrive. The opposite is true.

How They Showed Their Gratitude

How sincere the gratitude of the French people is toward the Americans is shown in a note which accompanied a gift of flowers from the inhabitants of a French village to the Y. M. C. A. secretary of former soldier, on the occasion of the feast day of Joan of Arc.

Bearing bouquets of roses, about 500 single flowers, they came, with the youngest, a girl, presenting, together with the flowers, a manuscript adorned with the tri-color. It was of course, in French, and here is the translation:

"Mr. John, in honor of Ste. Jean, allow us to address to you our best wishes for your happiness on this her festival day. We do not know how we can convey to you our gratitude for the kindness which you have always shown us and for your friendship toward us. Also we feel embarrassed to offer you our assurances of affection. However, be assured that they come from the hearts of your big friends and little friends and are sincere as can be.

"You have left your family, your country, your friends, to add your name to the names of our heroes, yours is a noble task, and you have a right to our administration which we are but feebly expressing through these few flowers." They are but the token of the friendship which we entertain toward you and all the American people. Please accept them Mr. John, as the expression of our sincerest thanks. Viv la France."

GIRLS! WHITEN YOUR SKIN WITH LEMON JUICE

Make a beauty lotion for a few cents to remove tan, freckles, sallowness.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply you with three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Squeeze the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle, then put in the orchard white and shake well. This makes a quarter pint of the very best lemon skin whitener and complexion beautifier known. Massage this fragrant, creamy lotion daily into the face, neck, arms and hands and just see how freckles, tan, sallowness, redness and roughness disappear and how smooth, soft and clear the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless, and the beautiful results will surprise you.

Constructive work at home must run well ahead of destructive work at the front.

A TYPICAL SOLDIER GATHERING

The Army Y. M. C. A. is the gathering place of the soldiers in every camp. It is his substitute for home, and he soon learns to go there when he is threatened with homesickness. He is seldom disappointed, for the "Y" slogan is "something doing all the time."

This crowd was too big to get inside the building, so they had the program outside. The soldiers are listening to a lecture on mental and physical cleanliness by Dr. Clark, a noted sex lecturer. The picture was taken at Camp Travis, San Antonio, Texas, where thousands of soldiers from Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and other states receive their training for the big adventure.

ARMY HEALTH RATE BEST EVER KNOWN

DEATHS FROM DISEASE REMARKABLY FEW, BOTH AT HOME AND IN FOREIGN LANDS.

TWO NAVY HEROES ARE CITED

Rowed Through Flames to Rescue Men From Burning Spanish Steamship—Work of Children's Year is Proving Very Effective.

A health rate which as far as known has never been surpassed has been established by the American armies both here and overseas, according to reports received by Surgeon General Gorgas.

For a recent week the combined reports of the American expeditionary forces and of troops stationed in the United States show an annual death rate for disease of 1.9 per 1,000, less than two men per 1,000 per year. The annual death rate from disease of men of military age in civil life is 6.7 per 1,000.

This new rate is based on approximate strength of 2,500,000 men, and includes men living under abnormal conditions. The overseas record was made while American soldiers were participating in the heavy fighting in the Marne salient, when they were compelled frequently to sleep and eat under the most primitive conditions.

An idea of the progress being made in military sanitation is gained by a comparison with the following: During the Mexican war the annual death rate from disease was 100 per 1,000. During the American Civil war the rate in 1862 was 40 per 1,000, while during 1863 the rate jumped to 80 per 1,000. The disease death rate for the Spanish-American war was 25 per 1,000. As far as available records show the lowest figure heretofore recorded was 20 per 1,000 during the Russo-Japanese war.

Two men of the American navy proved themselves heroes and won commendation from Secretary Daniels for the rescue of seven men from the burning Spanish steamship Serantes July 13 last. They are William E. King, seaman, and Clarence F. Ready, machinist's mate, second class, U. S. N. R. F., of the U. S. S. Isis.

The two men took the port launch of the Isis to the side of the burning ship and rescued from the burning forecastle seven men who were hemmed in by flames and who were too panic stricken to jump into the water.

The launch's trip to the Serantes was made through an area of burning gasoline and the rescuers were in constant and imminent peril. Their commanding officer reports that the conduct of King and Ready during this time was cool and courageous. They probably owe their own lives and the lives of those they rescued to their steady nerves and cool judgment. Their commendation was for bravery and their initiative in undertaking the rescue.

The army general staff has completed plans for expansion at some of the camps and changes at training centers. Additional plans are being worked out and will be put into effect.

Camp Hancock, Georgia, is to be a machine gun center and will be enlarged to accommodate between 55,000 and 60,000 men. The officers' training school now housed in tents at this camp will be provided for in barracks and quarters similar to those at other cantonments. These improvements outside of enlargement of the camp, will cost about $2,000,000.

It has been decided to make Camp Grant an infantry replacement camp to accommodate between 55,000 and 60,000 men. The present capacity of this camp is about 42,000. The alterations and changes necessary will be made after the division now located there has been removed.

Field artillery firing centers are to be located at West Point, Ky., Camp Jackson, S. C., and Fayetteville, N. C. Options on sufficient land for this purpose have been secured at all these places. It is planned to locate six brigades at Fayetteville, six at West Point and four at Jackson.

It has been decided also to erect permanent buildings for the officers' training schools at present housed in tents at Camps Lee, Gordon and Pike. These schools have a capacity of about 6,000 men. The estimated cost of these improvements is about $6,000,000.

As a result of the immediate and growing needs of the army for trained nurses, Miss Jane A. Delano, director of the department of nursing of the Red Cross, has sent an appeal for enlistments from this year's graduating classes at 3,000 nurse training institutions throughout the country. It is expected that about 13,000 students will be graduated as nurses between now and October 1, and it is hoped many of these graduates will be enrolled so they can be assigned to the nurse-corps before that date.

To Get Rid of Mound Ants.

The best authorities on ant control have recommended fumigating them with carbon bisulphid. This treatment is successful, but requires at least three ounces to the nest, which at the present price of the dope would cost about ten cents to treat each one. It further requires for best results that liquid be liberated under a metal tub inverted over the nest and that this tub remain five hours before removing. Obviously the use of a number of metal tubs and the frequent changing of them from one nest to another would make the extermination of these ants over a large acreage an arduous and expensive task.

Here is the new method: Very finely powdered or pulverized sodium cyanide or potassium cyanide is thoroughly mixed with an adulterant powder, preferably very fine dry sand or road dust. Do not use any sort of meal as an adulterant, as this might cause the mixture to be eaten by the chickens with fatal results. The mixture is then put into a metal can and carried into the field, and with an old teaspoon a small amount of the mixture is poured into the entrance of the ants' nest until it fills it and forms a small pile or cone over the hole. This is done preferably during the day, when many of the ants are outside and active. It will require usually less than a teaspoonful of the mixture to each nest. The ants outside the nest, attempting to enter, try to carry some of poison mixture away in their mouths but as it is too finely pulverized to pick up, they must moisten it with saliva to make it into a pellet.

This is the secret of the success of the method. An ant never carries off more than one pellet before it drops dead, and although there may be thousands outside the nest, they are still insufficient to remove all the poison. As the entrance is plugged with the moisture, the ants attempting to tunnel through it from beneath are momentarily suffocated by the poisonous fumes. Other ants inside carry the suffocated ones deeper into the nest and try in their place to pass thru the poison, only to be themselves suffocated. This activity underground continues until many hundreds of the dead ants have been carried deep into the underground chambers and with each dead ant goes a small amount of the poisonous powder adhering to it, until all the ants in the nest are finally asphyxiated. Very rarely indeed do enough survive underground to force a new opening to the nest, and if this happens it is a simple matter to pour another teaspoonful of the cheap mixture over the new entrance when it has appeared.—Eugene M. Smythe in Field and Farm.

Self Defense DEFEAT BACKACHE AND KIDNEY TROUBLE WITH ANURIC.

Many people in Texas, as elsewhere, have suffered from rheumatism and kidney trouble and have found Anuric to be the most successful remedy to overcome these painful and dangerous ailments.

The lucky persons are those who have suffered, but who are now well because they heeded Nature's warning signal in time to correct their trouble with that wonderful new discovery of Dr. Pierce's, called "Anuric." You should promptly heed these warnings, some of which are dizzy spells, backache, irregularity of the urine or the painful twinges of rheumatism, sciatica or lumbago. To delay may make possible the dangerous forms of kidney disease, such as stone in the bladder.

To overcome these distressing conditions take plenty of exercise in the open air, avoid a heavy meat diet, drink freely of water and at each meal take Anuric Tablets (double strength). You will, in a short time, find that you are one of the firm endorsers of "Anuric."

All druggists sell Anuric for 60c; or send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c. for trial package.

JACKSBORO, TEXAS.—"I am more than well pleased with the Anuric Tablets. I was disturbed five to eight times at night and sometimes more. I was so well pleased with the first supply of Anuric that I went to town and bought two bottles. It is the only thing that ever gave me any relief for the kidneys and I want the world of sufferers to know it. I think Anuric is the best medicine on the market to-day."—A. J. MILLER.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Put up in 25-cent vials and sold by all druggists. They are clay, sugar-coated. Contains May-apple, jalap—harmless but efficient.

MILITARY TRAINING

West Texas State Normal College

The U. S. Government has ordered certain important changes in the program for military training at Colleges.

The Vocational Unit will be maintained at only three schools in Texas—The University of Texas, A. & M. College, and the Prairie View (Colored) Normal. Entrance to the Vocational Unit of these Schools can be made only through the Local Draft Boards.

The West Texas State Normal College is positively on the latest revised list from Washington, of colleges designated to give Military Training to the College (or officers) unit. Boys above 18 years with 12 1-2, or more, high school units are eligible now and should make application to this institution at once. We have already received mail from the War Department, Washington, D. C., for the "Commanding Officer Students Army Training Corps, West Texas State Normal College" and we have a promise that a government representative will be here early next week.

We regret that the Vocational unit has been eliminated from this institution, but the Government has seen fit to make this change and we gladly follow its leadership.

Men who can satisfy College entrance requirements will find the following advantages here:

1. The same Military Training as at all other Colleges giving this work on exactly the same terms.
2. In addition to this, the West Texas State Normal College will furnish FREE BOOKS and other equipment.
3. The West Texas State Normal College has the best single school building owned by the State of Texas.
4. The West Texas State Normal College has the best Library and laboratories and the largest faculty in West Texas.
5. The West Texas State Normal College has the best indoor gymnasium and swimming pool in the State.
