NUMBER 21

AMERICAN LEGION BOYS HAVE BIG SHOW FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

The big barbecue and roundup pulled off by the American Legion boys was a success from start to finish. Notwithstanding the rain of Thursday night and Friday morning, by noon there was a crowd of at least 1,500 people on the ground. Dinner of barbecue, bread, pickles and coffee were served to the people. After dinner everyone started in to have a good time some going to the reunion grounds, where they rode the merry-go-round, tried their luck for kewpie dolls and other amusements. Others went to the rodeo grounds to witness the riding, roping and bulldogging. Old-timers claim that this part of the program was the best they have seen in this country in a long time.

Prizes in the contests Friday were awarded as follows:

Bronc riding—C. O. Edwards, first; Son Kelly, second; Barry Hart, third. Steer riding—George Johnson, first; Jess Poston, second; Slim Taylor, third.

Calf roping—Ball Parkinson, first; E. A. Driver, second; Texas Jack, third.

First money was $60, second $30, and third $10 in each event.

Several lady riders were present, and a riding exhibition was given by Miss Tad Barnes of Amarillo and Miss Gladys Kelly of Post. These two riders are considered among the best lady bronc riders in the state.

Promptly at 4:30 in the afternoon the big air plane flew in sight and "Chubby" Watson started with his part of the program. He rode the plane standing on top, hanging by his hands, knees and toes, and finally by his teeth from a wire suspended from the plane, giving the spectators all the thrills they would need for at least one afternoon. Lieutenant Tomcay had charge of the plane for Watson.

Friday night a big boxing exhibition was staged and several good bouts were given.

Joe Keith and Kid Kelly, the principals in the main event, fought four fast rounds to a draw. Kelly, who is a Ft. Worth fighter, forced the fighting and had the better of the open exchanges, but Keith, a Pacific coast boy, who is headquartering at Hereford, punished him in the infighting.

Carl Robinson of Amarillo, lost the decision to Floyd Terry, a local boy, in the semi-final. Robinson forced the fighting at all points, but Terry gave him a good lacing.

Kid Walgest of Amarillo won easily from Slick Easley of Canyon in the four-round curtain raiser.

Saturday, the second and final day of the big occasion, came in with the sun shining bright. By noon there were at least 2,500 people on the ground, many coming from Amarillo, Hereford, Plainview and other surrounding towns. After the free barbecue was served, all went to the rodeo grounds where the best show of the two days was given.

Prizes for the rodeo events for Saturday were awarded as follows:

Calf roping—Clay Neal, first; Slim Taylor, second; Ball Parkinson, third.

Goat roping—Clay Neal, first; Human Hines, second; Johnny McDonald, third.

Bulldogging—Ball Parkinson, first; Hal Bruner, second.

Steer riding—Jess Poston, first; Slim Taylor, second.

Miss Billie Barnes of Amarillo and Miss Lois Kitchens of Post, gave an exhibition in bronc riding, and Miss Tad Barnes of Amarillo and Miss Ruth Roberts gave an exhibition in steer riding.

Saturday night another boxing program was offered. Slick Striley going down for the count in the second round of his bout with Stuffy Turner, a local lad, and Ed Walgest, an Amarillo boy, bit the dust in the second round of his bout with Alvis Lynch, one of the students at the Normal.

Joe Jacobson of Amarillo and Jeff Sanders of Canyon fought four fast rounds in the main bout, the honors being even. Sanders outweighed Jacobson fifteen pounds but Jacobson was faster with his punches and kept his opponent guessing.

In the curtain raiser, Patsy Britton a local lad, won over Kid McMinn of Amarillo. Jack Ross of Wichita, Kans. downed Roy Stewart of Oklahoma City twice in the wrestling match. The first fall coming in 10 1-2 minutes and the second in 15 minutes. Both falls came after the appliance of scissor holds.

Harry Myers of Amarillo was the referee.

The local Legion boys are to be complimented on the way they put on this big show, and Manager H. C. Gamble states that it was also a success financially. He also states that regardless of some of the talk made, that every penny of the prize money, something over $2,000, was paid and that every contestant of the rodeo was perfectly satisfied.

Lutherans to Have All Day Services Sunday

The Lutheran Congregation east of Canyon will celebrate their Mission and Festival, August 21st. All day services will be held at Six Mile Crossing in the canyons on the Jennings place. The mission festival is an annual event in the Lutheran Church, on which day the cause of missions is especially presented to the people. The mission festival of the local congregation last year was attended by a large number of visitors from neighboring congregations and was the largest gathering of Lutherans ever held in the Panhandle. Rev. O. P. Hinge, pastor of the local congregation, states that a large number of visitors have again been invited and if the weather conditions are favorable a large crowd is expected. Speakers and a soloist from neighboring congregations have been engaged for the day.

H. M. McDONALD'S FORD STOLEN TUESDAY NIGHT

H. M. McDonald's Ford was stolen from the garage at his home on West Missouri Street Tuesday night and had not been located yesterday afternoon.

On the same night Sterling Jordan, an eighteen-year-old boy who was in jail awaiting grand jury action on a charge of the theft, broke jail and escaped. He had been in jail about two weeks, having been caught in Canyon with a Harley-Davidson motorcycle belonging to a Floyd County boy. His home is at Meridian.—Floydada Hesperian.

Fire at the Will Meyers Home

Last Friday afternoon after lighting the oil stove, Mrs. Will Meyers stepped out into the yard to watch the airplane which was flying over the reunion grounds. When she returned to the kitchen she found it in flames. Luckily, her husband was at home and calling him they managed to get the burning stove out of the house. The wallpaper was burned from the walls and ceiling of the kitchen, but after a very hard fight the flames were extinguished without much other damage to the home.

Swisher County Fair

The dates for the Swisher County Fair are Sept. 22, 23, and 24. The purses in all classes are very liberal and open to the world. It is hoped that Randall county will have good exhibits at their fair, as we are expecting a number of exhibits from that county, as there have been numerous requests for premium lists.

Come to Canyon to live.

Randall County Fair September 28-29-30

In an interview this week with C. F. Walker, manager of the Randall County Fair, he had the following to say:

"Please remember that this is a home affair, and should interest every citizen in Randall county, as this is the place to improve conditions in every department by competition, which is the spice of the world."

"It is the desire of the management to have every line of agriculture, as well as art, baking, fancy work of all kinds, and any other line of work or exhibits the people desire as this is their fair and all should take a part."

"The concessions will be clean, and there will be several large wholesale houses that will probably make annual exhibits, as it is their desire to build permanent stands for this purpose."

"The sale and show pavilion will be built at some early date, as the funds are now rapidly increasing."

"The swine breeders of the county are donating hogs to be sold at auction on October 1, and there are quite a number of entries all ready listed. Please furnish me with your donation as soon as possible, as we expect to print a catalogue of the fair as soon as possible, also any person or firms wishing advertising space, please let their wants be known."

"The following auctioneers have donated their services free for the sale, Oct. 1, to dedicate the sale pavilion: R. B. Campbell, McNeil Bros., Adams and McCreary. With this line of stuff we should have a good sale."

Canyon Merchants Strong for Fair

Canyon merchants are very much enthused over the coming Panhandle-Plains Tri-State Fair is the report made by W. B. Estes, after spending the greater part of Saturday at Canyon.

O. N. Gamble, of the Canyon Supply Company said: "Amarillo is launching a move in the matter of an all Panhandle-Plains Tri-State Fair commensurate with her strategic location. She owes to the towns in her territory this opportunity to center specimens of our resourcefulness. Canyon supports Amarillo merchants gladly and we are with you and for the Fair."

Mr. Estes said that he interviewed quite a number of the merchants of Canyon and everyone of them is a hearty supporter of the Fair and they offer their fullest co-operation.—Amarillo Tribune.

R. B. COUSINS, FORMER NORMAL HEAD, TO BE SUPT. OF HOUSTON CITY SCHOOLS

The following article taken from the Houston Post, regarding R. B. Cousins, former President of the West Texas State Normal College will be of interest to his many friends in Canyon. The article follows:

"R. B. Cousins is the next superintendent of the city schools. Prof. Cousins was elected to fill the unexpired term of Superintendent P. W. Horn by the city school board Monday night. The school board, after meeting at 7:30 p. m., and approving the minutes of the previous meeting on motion suspended the regular order of business and went into executive session behind locked doors to elect a new superintendent. No addresses on behalf of the various candidates by their friends and partisans, who had filed petitions in their interest, were allowed by the board."

"The board went into executive session at 8 o'clock and remained in closed conference until 10:30 p. m., when it opened the doors and Vice Chairman C. H. Hurlock announced the election of Prof. Cousins. Chairman Hurlock had previously stated that the claims and qualifications of the various candidates would be carefully and fully considered by the board in making a choice for the position."

"Prof. Cousins, who was present at the open meeting of the board, was asked by Chairman Hurlock if he desired to make a statement. Replying, Prof. Cousins said in part:

"I am deeply sensible of the compliment passed upon me by your board composed of representative citizens of Houston in being selected as the superintendent of your city schools. The compliment is enhanced by virtue of the splendid array of men and women from which you made your choice. It is still further enhanced by the fact

Fruit Train on Santa Fe is Wrecked

A Santa Fe fruit train was derailed in the cut about a quarter of a mile east of the State Highway crossing at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. The frame which holds the front cylinders on the big Mallet type engine gave away, allowing the cylinders to drop to the track, derailing the engine and twenty cars loaded with oranges.

Ten cars were bunched into one big pile, and caused the wrecking crew no end of trouble in clearing them out of the way.

Oranges were scattered all over the right-of-way, but after the Santa Fe cops got on the job, promiscuous eating of oranges was stopped, much to the chagrin of the onlookers.

The track was torn up for about three hundred yards, and traffic was delayed until late Tuesday night.

J. A. Huckabay, the fireman, was the only person injured, and he received only slight injuries when he jumped from the engine.

More Rain for Randall County

A slow rain fell over Randall county Friday morning with good results to the feed crop, which had begun to need a little moisture.

Another rain came Sunday night and Monday morning. The weatherman has been very liberal with his wetness in Randall county this year.

TWO IMPORTANT THINGS FOR THE WHEAT GROWER

Now is the time to think of treating your wheat as well as preparing your ground for seeding.

C. F. Walker, County Agent, says he has in his office bulletins for treating wheat for smut. Treatment consists of soaking the grain for ten minutes in 40 per cent formaldehyde of one pint or pound in 40 gallons of water and then dry as soon as possible. He will be glad to assist anyone in using this method. In the preparation of your seed bed, this is the important time to destroy all of the volunteer wheat, oats and barley as this is one of the best methods for this control of the green bug. The green bug is dependent largely on volunteer grain for its existence from the time the crop of the current year is cut until the young grain is above ground in the fall, or even until spring, in many cases.

It therefore naturally follows that if the volunteer grain is destroyed the green bug must perish.

House Action May Cut Off All Supplies

Austin, Aug. 14.—Appropriations made by the House for scholastic purposes are "ruinous to the state department of education," declared Annie Webb Blanton, state superintendent of schools in a statement given out today.

The state department of education, according to Miss Blanton, will be unable to furnish supplies for the schools, audit financial reports, gather statistics or affiliate the high schools unless a change is made in the appropriation bill.

"Members of the House voted without knowing the details of the school requirements," said Miss Blanton. "The only hope for the schools lies in the firm stand which may be taken by the senate."

Stork Special

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Newlin, Saturday, Aug. 13.

Miss Mabel Rogers returned Tuesday from the Ozark Mountains where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Gladys Thompson. Miss Mabel has a position in the Normal here this winter.

Miss Ida Rowan spent Saturday afternoon in Amarillo.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 16.—The House late tonight refused to adopt the free conference report on the educational appropriation bill and thirty minutes later Speaker Thomas announced that "as the hour of adjournment sine die of the special session had arrived, the speaker now declares the House adjourned." The vote on rejection of the report was 66 to 58.

Governor Neff said late tonight that he would not call another special session to night but would "possibly do so tomorrow."

In discussing the action of the House in rejecting the report and the inability of the Senate to agree on the educational bill the governor said that he doubted if they would be able to agree in another sixty days. It was obvious that he was not pleased with the situation but understood the necessity of calling them to provide for the educational institutions.

The senatorial redistricting bill was finally passed today when both houses adopted the free conference report. The Senate amendment that it shall not take effect until April 1, 1924, was left on the bill. The rural school aid bill report was also adopted by both houses. It carries $1,500,000 for the first year and $1,000,000 for the second.

The Dean prohibition amendment law was adopted by both branches. The bill exempts the purchaser from the offense and the referee makes him a competent witness against the seller of the liquor. The provisions of the suspended sentence law shall not apply to persons above twenty-five years of age.

The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the pink boll worm law and the bill is finally passed.

Both branches also adopted the free conference report on the Johnson bill amending the truck tax bill by the regular session. The tax shall not appeal to farmers and non-commercial trucks.

Gov. Neff Calls Extra Session

Austin, Aug. 17.—Governor Neff issued a proclamation this morning reconvening the Legislature in a second called session at 10 o'clock today.

Appropriations for educational institutions is the only subject contained in the proclamation.

The subjects in the proclamation follow:

- 1.—To make appropriation, within the available revenues, for the support and maintenance of the State Government and institutions.
- 2.—To consider and act upon such other matters of vital importance as may be presented by the Government pursuant to section 40, article 3, of the constitution of Texas.

Happy Chautauqua Begins Next Week

Happy will have her big Chautauqua next week, August 24, 25, 26, 27, and 28. They have an exceptionally strong program this year, but owing to the busy season for the farmers, they will give only night entertainments. The Redpath-Horner people are putting on the Chautauqua.

Rev. C. W. McNeely of Happy was in Canyon Monday afternoon and stated that they were expecting to have a great time throughout the week, and extended an invitation to the people of Canyon to attend their Chautauqua.

Mr. Humphries, the registrar of the Normal College, has bought the Miss Faire Wiggins home.

J. W. Green has bought the L. B. Nobles farm three and a half miles south of town.

Mrs. Tommie Montfort, Misses Harriet Graham and Mattie Swayne, left Monday for Estes Park, where they will attend the Students' Y. W. C. A. Conference.

RANDALL COUNTY'S GOOD ROADS

That stretch of good roadway connecting Canyon and the Deaf Smith line, a distance of seventeen miles, has been completed and accepted by the state authorities. This is not a hard surfaced road, but is one constructed by county and government aid. It is to be one of the best demonstrations of what an earth road can be made, when properly safeguarded through a prescribed upkeep provision. As one of the conditions of securing government aid for a strictly earth road, the county must allocate itself to set aside one hundred dollars per mile, annually for maintenance.

With this provision, it is not difficult to determine that following each and every rain, the road can, and will be properly dragged. If there exists a necessity, a grader will be placed where needed, and so, through a program of strict surveillance, the "little things," are to be prevented from becoming "big things." Repairs are to be made when discovered, and thus, the entire route be kept to a high standard.

Randall county, like other progressive counties, has not been overlooking the importance of good roads. The county commissioners and other officials and private individuals are to be congratulated on the excellence of the roads under their supervision. Division Engineer Lott, in a recent conversation made the statement that he knows of no better piece of dirt road in Texas than that from Canyon to the dividing line between Randall and Deaf Smith counties. This is not a little, or trifling endorsement, for Mr. Lott's place with the State Highway Commission is not at all dependent on his statements complimentary to one or the other counties, in the particular subdivision of the state over which he has engineering oversight.

It is a matter of pride to Randall, and her neighboring counties to be able to say with truth: "There are no better dirt roads in the state of Texas than these in Randall county." Before reaching the so-called class, there is considerable work that must be done in several of the Panhandle-Plains counties, but they are each and all interested, and it goes without saying that none of them will stop short of the best possible condition, considering funds and facilities at hand.—Amarillo News.

WHAT SHALL THE HARVEST BE?

The breaking of the law results finally in punishment. We may get by with it for a while, but there comes a time when the law breaker is caught. No matter how daring the highwayman, there has never lived one yet that was not finally brought to justice by his own hands or the hands of the law or the hands of justice. The same is true of the moral laws, the laws given to Moses and the commands of the God of Heaven. There will come a time when justice will be meted out, and there will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth. Sin is rampant in the land. The wholesale desecration of the Sabbath, and disregard for the sanctuary are two of the leading sins of the land, closely followed upon this is the divorce evil, adultery, being, swindling, gambling publicly and in the homes. The people of America are pleasure wild, and let nothing stand in the way of pleasure, not even to the extent of sacrificing, virtue and common decency.

Verily, verily, harvest time is coming and there will be reaping of the seed that is being sown. "What shall the harvest be?"

Since the Columbia River salmon canning industry was started by pioneer fishermen, in 1876, a total of $130,000,000 worth of salmon has been taken from the 90,000 acres of fishing territory in the river from Cascade locks to its mouth.

Howlers

The fellows who howl about the farmers ordering goods are often the same ones who order their stationery from out of town printers. It is a fact and can be proven that a good publishing and printing plant in a town is a greater financial help, to merchants than to the publisher but they don't see it.—Kotian Advance.

Lubbock people, as a whole send enough money for printing out of Lubbock every year to keep a good sized job printing establishment busy while many of the business and professional men are absolutely loyal, and have every line of printing done at home.

And as it is stated above by the Advance, the firms who patronize the out of town printers are the fellows who howl the loudest about the other fellow trading with mail order houses.

There is no reason in the world for any Lubbock firm having to send one dollar away from Lubbock for their printing. There are two well equipped printing establishments here, who are ready to do the work and can do it. We sometimes hear the complaint of Lubbock printers' prices being too high. The trouble usually is that the fellow who is kicking will get prices on a small amount from the local printers and compare these prices with a big order price from the out of town man. Be fair with the local printer, give him a chance at every order and then if satisfactory figures cannot be obtained we have nothing to say when the order is sent out of town, but at the same time these people should take into consideration the difference in the prices of their goods in Lubbock and the place where they order their stationery. There is sometimes two sides to the question.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Nebraska State Journal: William H. Harvey, who was widely advertised for a short time before the campaign of 1896, is again challenging public attention. From his home at Monte Ne, Ark., the author of "Coin's Financial School" is now sending out a new publication called "Common Sense," in which he points out a considerable length the cause of the present wave of crime and also the origin of the financial depression.

Knowing Col. Harvey's mind as we do, it is not necessary to read the entire document to find what he is driving at. There is, of course, a capitalistic conspiracy. Interest is at the bottom of most of our troubles. The short way out is for the Government to loan money to everybody at so low a rate of interest that it will prove no burden. To find the money required for this transaction is of course a mere matter of printing.

Glenwood Park, Minneapolis, has imitation rocks made of concrete which can hardly be told from real rocks.

Average production of cotton fields in the United States for the last ten years has been 175.7 pounds an acre.

Being Late to Church

Some people were born late and never quite contrive to catch up. They always rise just a little late in the morning, sigh over it, but are a little late to breakfast and to luncheon and to dinner, and just a little late going to bed again. Either they are not aware of the existence of the clock, or it represents a hopeless ideal, which they admire afar off, but which they long since gave up attempting to achieve. If by any chance they sometimes manage to meet the stern necessities of trains and other inconvenient fixities it is usually by the considerate assistance of friends. Those people are late to church as they are to everything else. We expect it and admit it and tolerate it with a smile.

But there is a very different class of persons, who are late when it suits their own convenience and not otherwise. Those people are perfectly aware of the nature of promptness and the demands of time. If there is anything to be gained by punctuality, anything to be lost by tardiness, if a good bargain may be missed or a valuable contract go to a competitor, they arrive with the exactness of the clock. But when merely it is a question of others' comfort it is another matter. At a directors' meeting or a dinner party or a funeral, these persons or discriminating unpunctuality, always appear five or ten minutes after the appointed hour, and a dozen or fifty of the more precise are incommode.

No doubt a good deal of valuable time is saved by the practice. On every public occasion someone is always late, and by being the last arrival you avoid waiting and will gain a few minutes that can be profitably employed elsewhere. All the same, one of the worst objections to unpunctuality is its abominable selfishness. You are piling up others' waste minutes into hours to effect a small saving of your own.

The people of deliberate tardiness are always late to church. After everyone else is seated and the service is well begun they walk in with leisurely indifference and seem to think they have honored God sufficiently by coming at all.

Now, you are not obligated to go to church at all. If you do not go you are the worst offender. But if you do go, a proper respect for the minister, for God and for yourself requires that you should be there and decently composed when the service begins.—Youth's Companion.

Count Your Blessings
A noted writer in one of the magazines pens the following lines this week that contains many truisms: "Would you be willing to go back to the standards of living that prevailed in 1821? In spite of all the praise of 'the good old days,' would you be content to give up the many conveniences we have gained in the past century?"

"Next time you step into the corner store, take a look around. Of all the articles on the shelves how many were on your shopping list 15 years ago?"

Make it 20 years and you will find that most of the things you buy today—and could not do without—were not even made then. The telephone now places the farmer in instant communication with the source of the latest market reports, and saves him many hours of precious time in the event of sickness or accident. You eat more wholesome food. You wear better clothes. Your home is better furnished. You have more sanitary houses. You seek more healthful amusements. "It was advertising that first proclaimed the usefulness of these things, that created an immediate and universal demand for them, that established a world-wide distribution which made them readily accessible to us all. Your whole standard of living has been raised—and why? Because of men who make these better things are telling you that you will be more comfortable, happier and healthier if you use these higher grade goods. You men and women who buy things, let this impress you. You are better men and women because of advertising."

McCormick invented the reaper and thereby made himself an everlasting benefactor of the farmer. But it was advertising that carried the wonderful news, with its far-reaching significance to the "man with the hoe." It is advertising that makes it possible for you to buy "the best" with the utmost confidence in the promises made by the advertisement. It is advertising that encourages the inventor to make new comforts, and advertising enables you to use them almost immediately. TEACHERS' CONSOLIDATED INSTITUTE
PANHANDLE AND PLAINS COUNTIES
SEPTEMBER 5-9, INCLUSIVE, 1921

ADVANTAGES OF A LARGE INSTITUTE

Present day tendencies towards larger organizations for effective work have now become an established practice in most progressive communities. The Consolidated Teachers' Institute, held at the West Texas State Normal College during the past two years, has fully demonstrated the value of concerted effort as it applies to the profession of teaching. Teachers need that enthusiasm which comes from the association of large numbers engaged in a common cause. A comparison of methods of procedure and results achieved helps in the elimination of error. Besides, intimate contact with recognized educational leaders gives the inexperienced teacher an ideal towards which to strive. There can be no profession of teaching until those in authority adopt some rather definite educational policies, and until teachers employ organized, intelligent effort towards the accomplishment of predetermined plans.

Twenty-three counties, employing more than 800 teachers, will be represented in the consolidated institute which convenes in Canyon, September 5 to 9, 1921. The program of this institute contemplates two distinct kinds of performances: inspirational addresses and class room work. The primary purpose of the addresses before the general assembly is to learn from leading authorities the most important tendencies in education, to get a broader outlook upon school problems, and to emphasize the dignity of the teaching profession through the exemplified ability of prominent men and women engaged in this work. In the class room work the best methods of procedure in solving concrete problems will be demonstrated.

THE FACULTY

Superintendent P. W. Horn of the Houston City Schools has achieved for himself as an authority in school affairs a reputation second to no other man in the South. His long and varied experience in the leading schools of Texas entitles him to a most careful hearing by any audience of school men and women interested in progressive thought. He has an intimate acquaintance with every phase of our school problems, and he has made many valuable contributions to their solution. Superintendent Horn will have charge of the Intermediate Grade Section during the entire week of the institute.

Dr. Shelton Phelps, Professor of School Administration in Peabody Normal College for Teachers, is admittedly one of the best authorities of the South on problems of the high school. He is energetic and wide-awake to the needs of high school teachers and pupils, and his addresses are inspiring and uplifting. Dr. Phelps will conduct the High School Section.

Miss Mabel Carney, Professor of Rural Education in Columbia University, has achieved eminent distinction through her contributions to the solution of rural school problems. Her instruction is not, as is often the case, based upon theory alone; it grows out of actual experience with rural school life. Not only this, but her delightful personality adds a charm to her work. Miss Carney will have charge of the Rural School Section.

Mrs. Otho Hanscom, Associate Professor of Education in the West Texas State Normal College, will have charge of the Primary Section. Mrs. Hanscom is one of the most successful instructors in primary work in Texas, and her services are in great demand for this work. Last year she conducted the Primary Section in the institutes at Corpus Christi, Quanah, and Mineral Wells.

Miss Anna K. Garretson, Supervisor of Primary Work in the Austin City Schools, will have charge of one division of the Primary Work. Miss Garretson has had excellent training for this work, and she has had valuable experience not only as supervisor of primary work in city schools but as instructor in institutes in various parts of the State.

The work for the Primary Grades will be divided into two sections: (a) First and Second Grades; (b) Third and Fourth Grades. This arrangement will enable teachers to get work which will function in the particular grade they are to teach in their schools.

BAR TO SELF-GOVERNMENT

In India Idol Worship of Brahmanical Hierarchy Would Revive, Writer Asserts.

The danger, when it comes to self government for India, and every Anglo-Indian recognizes it, is that we may put back into power the Brahmanical hierarchy which, by all the wiles of priestcraft, by organizing aboriginal worship and blood sacrifices, by astrology and "miracles," has held the lowlier races of India enslaved, body and soul, these three thousand years. Even the English-speaking masters of art in Calcutta university, after their graduation, go back to temples reeking with the blood of bulls and goats, and chant Vedic mantras before hideous idols. Exactly so far does their study of Mill and Huxley emancipate them. And this, in flat defiance of the fact that all the best of their sacred books sternly condemn this evil ambition and its instruments, black superstition and idolatry, the things against which the Buddha made his heroic protest. But long centuries ago, the dark Brahmanical reaction drove the Buddha's followers out of India. Nevertheless the British trustees for the welfare of India continue to do all things in their power to advance the natives of that many-colored congeries of peoples along the path of real liberty.—Charles Johnston, in the North American Review.

HE ROSE TO THE OCCASION

Teacher Insisted That Norman Should Write Poetry, and Result Was Remarkable Effusion.

The sophomore class at N— high school had a genius for a teacher. She could write poetry and every Friday required her pupils to do the same. Norman could play baseball, but poetry was outside his ken. Still the teacher insisted that he do it, and finally issued as her ultimatum that he either write it or she would mark him failure on his monthly report. A failure mark meant that the team would lose one of its best players, so Norman tried to write a poem. His attempt was so wretched that his teacher tried sarcasm.

"You are a genius," she told him. "Now see if you can't write a poem about yourself and your wonderful abilities."

Later she found Norman's effort in his memorandum book, but she has kept the finding a secret. For he had written:

Lives of school teachers all remind us
That they'd better get a man,
And departing leave behind them
Fewer nuisances if they can.

Devoted Nurse's Death.

The story of a nurse's devotion in France was told by Maj. Gen. Cuthbert Wallace at a meeting convened by the London national council of women to consider shorter hours for hospital staffs.

"There was," said the general, "a certain hospital in France where the German bombers were coming over night after night. Some people get restless when they know that bombs may be dropped on them. The wounded man—although he was practically indifferent to shell fire—in a hospital very often gets seized with this horrible fear, this inability to keep still. There was a certain nurse who was looking after a ward in which there was a man who was bedridden and could not get out of the way. She had gone off duty one evening when these bombers came over. She knew of this man and went back to her ward. She was not on duty, but she sat at this man's bed and sang to him. A bomb fell. That woman was killed, but the man was left. The name of this heroic nurse was not revealed.

Not Particular.

Two local fire laddies recently went on a hunting trip.

Hearing a shot, one yelled to the other:
"Get something?"
"You betcha," the other replied.
"What is it?"
"Pheasant."
The other, approaching, laughed derisively.
"Huh!" he said, "that isn't a pheasant; it's a screech-owl."
"Oh, well," said the first hunter, "what's the difference? When I eat a bird I eat its meat. I ain't particular what kind of a voice it's got."—London Tit-Bits.

May Be Big Gold Field.

That free gold of untold quantities would be found in the gravel of the channel where once flowed the Rogue river has been the belief of Oregon miners for more than half a century. And so it happened that the owner of the old Waldo mine near Grant's Pass the other day made the greatest strike ever made in this section when he turned gravel for the first time. His holdings consist of 4,200 acres and it is believed that almost every foot of them lie over the old river bed and that nearly all of it is rich in pay dirt.

Danced to Death.

It was a Polish wedding and there were quite a number of guests. Each one that danced with the bride was to pay $1. They had been dancing and celebrating all evening and it was early the next morning when the bride had danced about forty-five times, therefore making about $45. She was determined she would make $50 before she quit and had almost succeeded when she fell to the floor dead.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS

1. All teachers should be on hand for the opening exercises Monday morning, and they should be prompt and regular in attendance throughout the week.

2. A record of the daily attendance of all teachers will be sent to the County Judge or County Superintendent whose teachers are in attendance upon the Institute.

3. The program and all numbers on the program will begin and close on scheduled time. No one speaker has the right to time allotted to any other speaker. Besides, teachers of all people should be systematic.

4. An Employment Bureau will be maintained for the benefit of school authorities in need of teachers. Teachers desiring a position should see Superintendent F. E. Savage, Room 209.

5. Arrangements will be made for County Judges, County and City Superintendents to meet with their teachers. Those desiring such conferences should hand announcements to the Secretary of the Institute, stating the time and place of such meetings. The following rooms will be available for these meetings: Room 210, Room 212, Room 216, Room 211. Whenever possible, these meetings should be held at 3:00 p. m.

6. Social occasions will be arranged in order that teachers may get acquainted with each other. On Tuesday Evening at 8:00 o'clock, the West Texas State Normal College and the citizens of Canyon will entertain the teachers in the college auditorium.

7. All teachers should register immediately upon arriving. A table will be provided for this purpose just in front of the main entrance to the auditorium. No teacher will be considered as having "registered" who has not paid the fee ($1.50) voted by the teachers at the 1920 Institute.

8. Teachers should provide themselves with paper and pencil, and they should take notes on all class room work and on lectures before the general assembly. We as teachers should prove to the public that its outlay of money for institutes is well spent. Besides, the good we may get from these institutes and apply in our schools later will mean better schools, and incidentally a chance for an increase in salary. The public is always willing to pay for what it gets.

REDUCED RAILROAD RATES

Reduced railroad rates have been granted to teachers attending the 1921 Institute. Tickets may be purchased September 3, 4, 5; and they are good until September 11. Teachers who are to attend this institute should take a receipt (on a regulation blank provided for "the certificate plan") from the agent where the ticket is purchased, and this ticket should show continuous passage to Canyon. For the ticket to Canyon, teachers will pay full fare. This receipt, when signed by Travis Shaw at Canyon and properly validated by the ticket agent at Canyon, will be good for a one-half fare return ticket.

MALEKULANS NOT ALL BAD

Pugnacious South Pacific Islanders
Scrupulously Honest, Though
Careless of Human Life.

The sending of a small naval force to Malekula Island, in the New Hebrides, for the protection of planters against the natives brings some incidental information about a peculiar people with the undesirable habit of being the most bellicose inhabitants of any island in the South Pacific. Malekula Island has long been under the joint control of France and England, and at intervals some display of force has been necessary to make the islanders respect the local representatives of a more advanced civilization. Despite their reputation for pugnacity, however, there is much, declares a recent writer, to be said for the Malekulans. For one thing, they are remarkably honest; the traveler who goes among them knows that however he may fare as regards personal safety, he is in no danger whatever of losing his personal property. And if he is careful not to irritate his hosts, he is likely to come away with a pleasant memory of the native village community, its discussions of community affairs in a kind of village forum, its dances, and its children's playground under the banyan tree. He learns also that many of the villages have a social club for men and that the islander, who is also a crack marksman with bow and arrow, takes great satisfaction in belonging to it.

JUST MISSED SEEING FATHER

Little Incident Reported From France Shows That Political Trickery is Not Unknown There.

When it comes to the matter of political trickery, modern nations one and all seem to be pretty well tarred with the same brush. The following incident retold with a flavor of Gallic irony by the Cri de Paris is said to have taken place at Toulouse:

On election day a young man came to a booth to vote.

"But, monsieur," said one of the overseers, "you have already voted."

"I? Allos done! I am certain that I have not."

A search being made of the records, it is discovered that there has been an error in the recording of the Christian name. It is not Marius Tartarin that has voted but Gonzague Tartarin.

"Gonzague!" cried the young man; "you are quite sure that he has voted?"

"Yes, indeed! Look, here is the register."

"Ah, how I regret not having been here," said the young man. "I would have embraced him with much pleasure. He is my father."

"Your father?"

"Yes, and I have not seen him since he died, four years ago."—The Living Age.

A "General Settlement."

In the rich spoil that the Hapsburgs accumulated over many centuries, much of which is coming back to the nations that owned it, there is hardly a more interesting item than the coronation robes that Italy now proposes to have returned to Palermo, Sicily. Henry VI, emperor of the Holy Roman empire in the twelfth century, subdued the Sicilies and took back to Germany the gorgeous costume that Saracen artisans had made for Norman kings who had come into control a hundred years earlier. Since then the robes have been worn by Hapsburg monarchs at their coronations, and of late years they have been kept, between these ceremonial occasions, in the imperial treasury in Hofburg, Vienna. The robes include a magnificent mantle, a wonderfully embroidered alb or long gown of fine linen, and a girdle of gold scales. As between Austria and Italy, it certainly looks like what Weelum Sprunt would have called a "general settlement."

A Fellow Feeling.

"I saw an ant on the window sill of my room on the seventh floor of the hotel where I stopped in Kansas City," related Gabe Gosnell of Grudge, who was just back from a brief stay in the Big Burg. "I looked at him a long time, and says 'I'm little feller, I don't know how you got here, away up in the air above the ground you are used to, but you don't look any more out of place than I feel, with all the cuffed and buffed and uproar going on around me day and night, in a never-ending hooraw,' says I."—Kansas City Star.

New Roads in France.

Four great mountain roads are to be re-laid and rebuilt in the upper Vosges, leading from France into Alsace.

The Commission des Routes of the district of the Vosges is looking to the near future when tourists will pass that way. Largely, the roads existed as strategic military mountain roads and the present effort is in line with making them available for pleasure automobiles. Taken together they will form a new approachable circuit and entrance into upper Alsace.

Science Can Overcome Locust.

Fruit trees are always the special objectives of the locusts when they sound the rallying cry, and when thorough preparations are not made against their coming they can leave a trail of ruin in the wake of their flight; but the science of the day is almost a match for the pest, and no such havoc can attend his attack as he achieved in the earliest days of his destructive history.

Citizens Make the Town

It is almost trite to say that citizens make the town. Yet so true is the statement—so obvious the fact—that it is frequently forgotten. Towns grow as a result of the efforts of individual citizens.

Vernon has been fortunate in its citizenship. Years ago good women planted trees along the streets, starting a movement that has made the town an outstanding community in all Northwest Texas. Two parks such as would be a credit to any community, a public library, and the Hill Crest Country club are all valuable assets. And while the latter is a private enterprise, it has a community value which will make it more of a pride to the entire citizenship a score of years hence than now.

The gift announced Tuesday of two acres of land by Otis T. Bacon of Wichita Falls is an event of large importance because it evidences a civic interest without which no community can hope to make the best. As such Mr. Bacon and his partner, Mr. Bentley, are due the thanks of all Vernon. This is the more true because these men were not citizens of the town. Merely having a financial interest here they recognize some obligation to the community.

Doubtless all of these evidences of civic interest are but a beginning of the things which such a spirit will impel others who are amply able to do for their home town throughout the years.—Vernon Record.

Ambition

When I grow up, I think I'm going to be

A cow-boy, or a general and see

If I can rope and throw a steer, or wear

A sword, like Uncle in the picture there.

A cow-boy never cries. He's brave I know,

Just' grins and bears things. Daddy told me so.

One day the gate to our big yard slammed tight—

Upon my fingers, and I screamed out-right.

My daddy said to me, "Come, son, don't cry.

A cow-boy's brave." Then I just thought I'd die;

But held it right inside of me. And then

Another time my mother said, "Now when

You are my little soldier, you must stay

At home to guard your mother all the day."

So I just staid, and not a bear came here.

I guess they were afraid with me so near.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF RANDALL.

To the Honorable Commissioners' Court of Randall County, Texas.

W. H. LEWIS.

And, upon due consideration, it is ordered by said Court that said application and petition be heard and further considered and action taken thereon at the next regular term of this Court, to-wit, on the 12th day of September, A. D. 1921, and that any person or persons interested in the lands therein described be commanded to appear at said time to protest, if so desired, against the action prayed for by the petitioner.
