HILL PRAISES THE AMERICANISM OF THE PANHANDLE

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE LUNCHEON HELD TUESDAY.

Committee to Work With President J. A. Hill on Housing Problem of the Summer Normal.

President J. A. Hill was leader at the luncheon of the Randall Commercial League Tuesday. There were twenty present. Mr. Hill stated that a few months ago there were always nearly forty in attendance, and asked why did decline in attendance. The luncheon has for its object making Canyon a better place in which to live. Is the decline in attendance a sign of less interest in this aim, or on account of the summer vacation?

A resolution on the railroad strike was read, and adopted unanimously by a vote of the League. This resolution is printed on another page of this edition of the News.

On motion by D. A. Shirley, the president was asked to appoint a committee to draft resolutions on account of the departure of one of our very active members, Rev. Ted P. Hollifield.

Rev. Aulick, who recently came as pastor of the First Baptist church, was called upon by the leader. He stated that he was certainly glad to be a citizen of Canyon. He had lived in five different states, and had never seen an aggressive town which did not have a commercial organization. He highly praised the work that the League was undertaking.

Mr. King of Austin was introduced. He believed that the League was on the right track in the work it was putting over. He liked Canyon and the Canyon spirit as he saw it among the business interests.

President Hill stated that he hoped a public attempt would be made to take care of the rapidly increasing attendance in the summer school. He believed that it was profitable to the community to bring more students here during the summer. He wished that an effort be made individually and collectively to solve the problem, upon which he had been giving considerable time. There was nearly 1500 students enrolled this summer with but little advertising. Mr. Hill believes that more than 2000 will be enrolled next summer if we can take care of that many. He stated that he had no scheme to present at this time, but wished to have counsel on the subject. A motion was passed directing President C. H. Jarrett to appoint a committee to work with Mr. Hill on the question.

Mr. Hill closed the program by speaking for a few minutes upon his appreciation of the citizenship of the Panhandle-Plains country. He certainly appreciated being a citizen of this section after his visit to the north and east last month. He characterized our citizenship as the purest in America. This country needs the whole hearted support of the American people. Our institutions need this, whole hearted support.

Mr. Hill stated that every where he went he heard broken English spoken by all public servants. He resented having a wop tell him the meaning of Plymouth Rock.

There is an alarming lack of American spirit today owing to our large percent of foreign population. This American spirit, the spirit of service must be cultivated in the schools and the churches.

The government seems to be helpless to stop immigration. Immigration should be stopped until America assimilated the vast mass of foreign population now in this country.

WILL CANVAS VOTES

County Chairman, A. N. Henson, has mailed notices to the precinct chairmen to meet at the Court House next Saturday for the purpose of canvassing the returns of the recent primary election.

He also calls attention to the fact that next Saturday is county convention day in which delegates are to be elected to the state and district conventions, and as it is probable that precincts elected no delegates to said conventions, he suggests that all citizens interested meet at the district court room at 3 o'clock Saturday for the purpose of electing said delegates.

PIPKIN HOUSE BURNED.

The home of Bud Pipkin on West Evelyn street was burned Tuesday morning, all of the furniture going up in flames with the home. The family had been away on a visit, and no one was at home. Mr. Pipkin had returned Monday, but stayed all night at the home of his father, J. C. Pipkin.

The alarm was sounded at 1:20, when two men at the Palace Hotel saw the flames. They rushed to the west part of town, one of them gaining admission. He states that it seemed as though the fire had started in the roof at the southwest corner. The cause of the fire is a complete mystery. Mr. Pipkin had the house and contents insured.

FIRE AT CRYSTAL HOTEL

Fire was discovered in one of the second story rooms of the Crystal Hotel at 12:45 Monday afternoon, and the fire department was called out. The origin of the fire is unknown. It was burning briskly when discovered but was soon extinguished without particular damage.

NOT GIVE FIRE LOCATIONS.

Manager H. Prichard stated yesterday that the telephone operators had been instructed not to give locations of fire to any but members of the fire department.

The operators call members of the department as fast as they can after the alarm is sounded. Scores of people calling in for the location interfere with getting word to the members of the department. This information will not be given in the future.

Paving Work Will be Started in Canyon During This Week

D. F. Moxley, representing the Panhandle Construction Company, and R. E. Rohman, civil engineer from the Hess & Skinner firm, are on the paving job in Canyon, and will probably start actual construction today.

Paving material is now on the way, and will be rushed through as fast as the railroad situation will allow. The first load of machinery is here and brought down to the public square Tuesday afternoon.

Under the terms of the contract, the company has sixty working days in which to complete the job.

DELINQUENT TAXES

There is a complaint being made that in some counties the delinquent tax lists have not been published for several years, yet the law says it must be done. Commissioners sometimes figure that they will not get back in taxes enough to pay for the printing, but that does not meet the letter of the law.

If people who are delinquent are made to know that their property is about to be sold for taxes most of them will hurry around to the collector and pay up. If the stuff belongs to somebody who doesn't care enough for his title to keep the taxes paid, it ought to be sold to someone who will pay. It is not fair to collect taxes every year on one man's lot and let an adjoining lot go free from year to year. Assessors and collectors should see that all property is listed and the taxes paid.—Amarillo Tribune.

"RUN OVER BY AUTOMOBILE.

Miss Walta Luttrell was run over by a Ford Coupe Tuesday morning, at the crossing at Huntleigh Hall. She was on the sidewalk, and a car was standing in the middle of the road. She did not notice the approaching Ford, and the driver did not see Miss Luttrell until she stepping from behind the standing car. The car passed over her body. She is not considered seriously injured.

BAPTIST LADIES ENTERTAIN

On Tuesday, July 25, Mrs. B. T. Johnson entertained the B. W. M. U. in their usual Missionary meeting. After the program the society presented our beloved Mrs. Fronbarger with an electric perculator and toaster. Six of our younger girls served cream and cake to about thirty women.

On Tuesday, July 18, the B. W. M. U. gave a delightful reception at the Baptist Church for Mrs. Aulick, our new pastor's wife. About sixty women were in attendance.

Baptist Assembly to Start Program on Next Wednesday

The Third Annual Session of the Panhandle Baptist Assembly will start at the New Encampment Grounds next Wednesday, August 2, and will continue until the 11th. The daily program is printed on another page of this issue of the News.

Rev. Fronbarger calls attention to the following general rules of the Assembly:

1. Every person coming upon the grounds and remaining for two days or more, shall pay the regular registration fee of $1.50. No family shall be asked to pay more than $4.00. By "family" we mean a man and his wife and dependent children.
2. Visitors coming to the Assembly for one day, or fraction thereof, shall be asked to pay a fee of 25 cents; or a family fee of 75 cents.
3. All the registration and ground fees shall be paid at the Burser's office upon arrival.

This camp rental fee is for any one camp; that is, for a man and his family that live in one tent, or for a party that lives in one tent. Each several tent will constitute a camp in the sense of this rule.

HAD FAREWELL SERVICE

There was a large attendance Sunday at the Methodist Sunday School, this being the last day for Fred H. Ives as superintendent.

Frances Strawn and Ruth Eddins from the Methodist Home at Waco gave a very interesting program, after which a collection for the Home was taken by W. J. Flesher, who is one of the trustees. More than $500 was pledged to be paid by this fall.

There were a number of uncontested candidates in the state and district races. The largest number of votes cast for any of these candidates was in the case of Lee Satterwhite who received 1040 votes. Marvin Jones was next with 7035. It was anticipated that probably more than 1400 votes would be cast in the primary this year, but it is evident that a large number of poll tax payers did not go to the polls.

Farmers Getting Ready For a Big Picnic Near Canyon on August 5th

The committee in charge of the big picnic to be held at the Bates place on Saturday, August 5th wishes the people of Randall county to understand that every person living in Randall county is most cordially invited to attend, and invitations will be sent to farmers living in adjoining counties.

The impression was abroad that it was a picnic only for members of the Texas Farm Bureau. This is not the case. All of the farmers of the county and people of Canyon who wish to go to the picnic are cordially invited by the committee.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION.
The primary has come and gone—revealed some startling things. Very few people realized that Cullen was so weak senatorial timber a larger number were shocked to find that Jim Ferguson was so strong.

Probably the greatest surprise is that Cullen was eliminated from the primary. Culberson has been the wheel horse of Texas politics for many years. Few men have possessed the political foresight as has Cullen. He counted too much on friends flocking to his rescue as he have in the past. It is likely the anti-saw a chance to land a seat in the senate, and deserted his former god in favor of Jim Ferguson who was running upon a strict prohibition platform.

The Ku Klux Klan showed surprising strength, and landed in office its members in practically all parts of the state. Mayfield, choice of the Klan, leading in the senatorial race. Neff, choice of the Klan, was re-elected, but only in spite of the Klan. On the line through the list of candidates, Klansmen were the leaders. This is especially true in the rural towns of the state, where the Klan is anti-Klan, the Klansmen winning practically every instance.

There is little choice in the senatorial race. The News was for Ousley because he was the brainiest man in the race. Ousley is a poor campaigner. He can think and write, but cannot speak and shake hands. Mayfield is a spell-binder who knows how to appeal to the crowd. He has the backing of the railroad interests, and many of the labor organizations. There is nothing left to do but vote for him on August 26, but going to be a bitter pill for a lot of Texans who will vote against Jim Ferguson rather than for Earle Mayfield.

Resolution is Adopted on the Railroad Strike

The following resolution was adopted unanimously at the meeting of the Commercial League Tuesday:
Whereas the people of the United States of America, their moral and physical welfare are at this time seriously threatened by a dominance of the transportation facilities and fuel supply by a small percentage of the population through the medium of strikes to enforce their demands;

And whereas, properly constituted authority acting under sanction of the Government of the United States has been ignored in the adjudication of these demands;
And whereas, many acts have been committed directly attributable to the attempted enforcement of these demands in which life and property of the people of the United States have been sacrificed;

And whereas, the said people as a whole are the bearers of the burdens arising from these conditions;
Now Therefore Be It Resolved, by this organization that we deplore the conditions that have arisen whereby the laws of the constitutional government have been disregarded by the few to the detriment of the people of the United States of America;

That we accord to every worker the right to cease labor as he may see fit;
That we accord to every worker his contractual right of laboring in all legitimate occupations without fear of molestation to himself, his family, or his property;

That we do not accord to any individual or class of individuals the right to interfere with the production of legitimate labor or with the transportation or distribution thereof;

And Be It Further Resolved, that this organization stand squarely behind the decisions of the Labor Board of the United States of America affecting these matters, and that we call upon all commercial organizations to do likewise and to uphold the Government of these United States.

Adopted this 25th day of July, A. D. 1922, at Canyon, Texas, by the Randall County Commercial League.
We know now where they get those sea-legs.—Asheville Times.

Flies and weeds go together. It is a very noticeable fact that Canyon has more flies than usual this year. This is no doubt due to the large number of weeds. Get busy and cut the weeds and swat the fly.

BUSINESS FAILURES

John Wannamaker once said that 95 out of every 100 businesses started, failed. Bruce Barton came along and disproved this theory, which, for a number of years, was quoted as "statistics show."
Some figures appeared in the Abilene Reporter a few days ago under the caption "Burying Failures" that were inspiring. For instance, since May, 1920, when depression began, there have been 38,000 business failures—and almost 2,000,000 businesses that haven't failed.

In other words, during the period of depression only one business out of every 53 has failed.

To quote the Abilene Reporter: "In May, only 1960 failures. Many will snort and wonder why the 'only.'"

"If they turn back four months, they find 2723 failures in January.

"Steadily the storm subsides. Observing this, young blood desires to put to sea—to try its hand. So, in May, 954 new companies were incorporated in the principal states, with capital of $100,000 or more apiece. Thousands of smaller ones also ventured forth. They are the rowboats.

"How much did they fail for? That is the important question. Failures during the depression that now is nearing its end, have had total liabilities or debts at the rate of about $600,000,000 a year.

"Assets have averaged enough to pay 50 cents on the dollar.

"The total or net loss, due to failures, has been running around $300,000,000 a year—or about $3 a year for each American. That, after all, is not such a big price to pay for getting out of the woods."

The principal reasons business fail are: lack of capital; lack of experience, or executive ability on the part of proprietors; too much borrowed money, credit, or purchase of terms rather than merchandise.

Less than 2 per cent of the businesses in the United States failed since depression began. Business men are becoming more efficient, more aggressive, more progressive. Indeed it is inspiring to know that it has cost us only about $3 per capita to get out of the woods.

Raising and holding at arm's length a full grown person sitting in a chair proves that Brigadier General Charles Granville Bruce is a man of remarkable strength. Bruce is the leader of this year's ascent of Mount Everest.

A moving pavement under the Paris boulevards may soon be installed. If the plan goes through, a circular moving subway will pass by the Palais Royal, the Bourse, the Opera and the Place de la Republique. Passengers can get off and on at any point on its route and by means of frequent staircases reach streets above. The traveling platform will consist of three bands moving at progressive speeds to enable passengers to step from one to another without danger of falling. Ten miles an hour would be the speed of the fastest band.

Abundant fossil flora found in rock beds in North Dakota shows that what is now a treeless plain was once covered with splendid forests of hardwoods, interspersed with conifers. Numerous and thick beds of lignite make it clear that in this region there were great swamps at one time. Fig trees and a fan palm with leaves six feet across indicate that the climate was as warm or warmer than that now prevailing on the South Atlantic slope of the United States.

A Newspaper's TWO Sources of Revenue

Subscriptions and Advertising Are the Only Sources of Revenue a Newspaper Has and Often the Subscriptions Do Not Pay for the Cost of White Paper

Advertising today, especially in newspapers, is the greatest business getter there is. This is acknowledged by men who know. People read advertisements in newspapers. They have been educated to do so. Every merchant in our town ought to advertise. You remember the story about John Wanamaker? The first day he was in business his receipts were $24.64. He kept the 64 cents and spent the $24 the next day in advertising. We all can't duplicate this feat, but according to the best statistics available three per cent of the gross sales should be put aside for advertising.

Possibly you will say, "I don't need to advertise. I've been in this town thirty years and everybody knows me."

Probably they do, but did you ever stop to think of the sales you lose because your fellow competitor advertises? He may advertise the same goods you have in your stock, but the people don't know you have them. The other fellow gets the sale because he advertises. And, then, how much more business you would do if you did advertise?

We know of one merchant who advertised a lot of goods at 19 cents a yard. They cost him 27 cents. He took a clean loss, but while the sale was going on he could buy new goods at 12 cents. He put them in with the other goods and the result was that he cleaned his shelves of the old goods and he broke even on the deal. Advertising and good buying liquidated his stock without a loss.

We can't all be John Wanamakers, but we all can advertise in proportion to our business. Results will be sure if you advertise honestly and give service. A newspaper can bring people to your store, but it can't make people buy your goods. Your clerks must do that, and it depends on the service you give as to how successful your business will be.

What is done in the big cities can be done right here in this town if you will show the pep, give the service and advertise. Make business good. You can do it through this newspaper.

LATE MOLTERS ARE GOOD LAYERS

By R. M. Sherwood, Poultry Husbandman, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

How to judge the poultry flock to save the layers and dispose of the poor ones without resorting to the tedious process of trap-netting, is a very live question just now. The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station is constantly besieged with questions like these: Has the hen with yellow beak and shanks laid many eggs? Is the late molting hen a good layer? How do the public bones in the good layer differ from those of the poor layer?

The Station has, for some time, been studying the relation between body characters and the number of eggs the hen has laid. In a study using S. C. White Leghorns, it has been found that color of beak and color of shanks are two of the most accurate indicators of egg production. The fowls with the yellow beak and shanks in September and October, had been poor layers. Late molters were the better layers. Counts were made of the number of primary wing feathers molted on October 4th. Those hens molting afterward, being termed late molters, laid as many eggs from October 1st to February 1st, as did the early molters. It is thus seen that the late molters, having continued longer in production the previous season, were not later in beginning the succeeding season's production. This was not found universally true in the fowls observed, but in general the conclusion seems justified.

A thin pliable skin, free from fatty deposits, and pliable public bones were indicators of high production. The width of the pelvic arch capacity, depth of body, and length of keel were found to be much less accurate indicators of egg production than the other characters mentioned.

The characters that showed the greatest correlation with egg production were those which were probably uniform when the pullet began to lay, but showed changes and differences as the laying season progressed. For instance, in cases where many eggs were laid, the yellow pigment was used in the egg yolks, and the shanks and beak became pale; fat went to the egg yolk rather than to the body; lime that in poor layers would have gone to the bones was utilized in the production of egg shell, and feather growth, which requires large quantities of food, was retarded while the hens were laying heavily. It was interesting, therefore, to note that the hens under observation which actually laid more eggs were the ones in which the yellow pigment faded completely from the beak and shanks as the season progressed; their skin was thin, free from fat and pliable; the public bones were pliable, and the hens usually molted late.

The hens must have laid for a number of months or a season before good layers can, with much certainty, be selected. Therefore, to avoid carrying too many poor layers until their performance can be found wanting, the successful poultry raiser should first secure stock from fowls of known high production, because egg production is inherited. He should give them proper feed and care and allow them to lay eggs according to their breeding. He should then cull, as described above, those that for some reason have not responded to the care and attention given them.

Several Teachers Resign Positions

At the beginning of the next regular session of the Normal College, several of the familiar faces of faculty members will be missing from the classrooms of the old W. T. S. N. C. Many of these losses could have been avoided if the salary schedule could have been what it should be.

Miss Elizabeth S. Davis, for two years an instructor in the English Department, has been granted a leave of absence to do graduate study. Mr. Ford Fronabarger, now instructor in Education, will take Miss Davis' place. Mr. Fronabarger holds a B. A. and an M. A. Degree from the University of Texas, and has for several years been a very successful teacher in the Amarillo High School and Simmons College.

Mr. Frank R. Phillips, who is now doing graduate work in Cornell University, will be acting Head of the Department of Agriculture for the next year, taking the place of Mr. Fred H. Ives, resigned. Mr. Phillips will continue to do his work in vocational agriculture, and an additional instructor will be soon secured to do the class room work which Mr. Ives has hitherto been doing.

Miss Grace Penrod of the Spanish Department, will be given a year's leave-of-absence to be spent either in study or travel. Miss Grace Cavness, who is an A. B. graduate of the Southwest Texas State Normal College, will substitute for Miss Penrod.

Miss Verne Mansfield, Physical Director for Women, has offered her resignation to take effect at the end of this quarter. Miss Mansfield has been with the College for one year. She is to be succeeded by Miss Ethel Gray of Austin, who holds an A. B. Degree from the University of Texas and the Degree of Bachelor of Physical Education from the American College of Physical Education, Chicago.

Miss Gray is a teacher of successful experience, and was at one time connected with the East Texas State Normal College at Commerce.

Miss Mable Rogers has resigned as instructor in the Training School to accept a position at a higher salary in Clayton, New Mexico. Her successor will be announced later.

Miss Allie Mae Aiken, Head of the Art Department, who has been doing graduate work in Columbia University for the past year, has resigned to accept a better paying position in the North. Her successor will be announced later.

Miss Mary S. Yocom, kindergarten teacher in the Training School will be on a leave-of-absence for the coming year to do graduate study in some northern university. Miss Ruth Lowe, who received a permanent certificate from the College last spring, will substitute for Miss Yocom next year.

Miss Sadie O'Connell's leave-of-absence will be extended through the next regular session owing to the bad health of her father. Miss Muriel Phillips will continue to substitute for Miss O'Connell.

Miss Rambo to Normal, Illinois

Miss Jessie E. Rambo, Head of the Department of Home Economics for the past eleven years, has resigned her position in the West Texas State Normal College to accept a better paying position in Normal University, Normal, Illinois.

Miss Rambo is a graduate of the Normal University, and in going back to her Alma Mater she will be closer to her aged father and mother. Miss Rambo first became connected with this college in 1911. For the past year she has been doing graduate work in Columbia University. During her stay she has been one of the most influential women in the faculty. She has built up a home economics department here that is recognized as one of the best in Texas by all the state institutions of higher learning.

President Hill announces that the successor to Miss Rambo will be Miss Helen Brown Burton, who has been Head of the Department of Home Economics in the State Teachers College at Wayne, Nebraska, for the past four years. Miss Brown holds a B. A. Degree from the University of Indiana, a B. A. Degree from Louis Institute, Chicago, and an M. A. Degree from the University of Chicago. She is strongly endorsed by those who know her best, and is said to be a favorite with the students of the school from which she comes.

Miss Watkins to Teach in Porto Rico

Miss Georgia Watkins, who has been a professor in Home Economics in the West Texas State Normal College for the past two regular sessions and three summer sessions, has accepted a position as professor of Home Economics in the University of Porto Rico, San Juan, Porto Rico.

Miss Watkins announces that she will leave Canyon at the end of the Summer Session and go by way of New Orleans to her home in Indian Springs, Georgia, where she will visit her family for a short time. She will then go to New York City where she expects to visit her two sisters and other relatives and friends for a few days. She is to sail on the "San Lorenzo" for San Juan on September 9.

The University of Porto Rico is operated under the supervision of the United States Government, and all classes are taught in the English language although practically all of the University's students are of Spanish blood. Miss Watkins received her appointment from the U. S. Governmental authorities.

Miss Watkins' work in the College has been most commendable, and she leaves a host of friends who will be greatly disappointed to learn that she is leaving us.

Pearson Appreciates Support

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE FORTY-SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

I wish to thank the people of the Forty-seventh Judicial District, composed of the Counties of Donley, Armstrong, Randall and Potter, for their generous support in the recent primary. I believe in democracy and accept the verdict of the majority with good grace. We should all unite in the support of those in authority, to the end that law and justice may prevail, thus securing to every citizen the full enjoyment of true liberty and happiness and the safety and protection of his person and his property, none of which is possible to full realization except in a well-ordered society. Believing in tolerance, I concede and respect the right of every citizen to exercise his own choice, and this right, I hold, is one of the chief virtues of true democracy. Our courts should always administer the law fairly and impartially, without favor, for only when the courts are so administered can they have or do they deserve the respect and support of a justice-loving people.
