Dimmitt's housing facilities are going to be taxed to capacity during the coming months. Many new people are moving to town daily and are having a hard time finding living quarters. Construction crews being used on the elevator project, the school building project, and the gin building which will soon get under way, are having trouble in locating living quarters. Everyone who has a bed room, an apartment or perchance a house for rent are requested to notify the Chamber of Commerce office, which will in turn keep in touch with the builders and their needs.

Despite the fact that many new residences have been, and are being, built in Dimmitt the housing situation remains critical, and any enterprise that adds to temporary increase in population creates a housing shortage.

The temper of the American people is on edge, unsettled world conditions and the war of nerves has made an inroad on dispositions that might otherwise take the fortunes of war and peace in a little more unruffled mood. While praying for peace, the average American has been anxiously watching the nations rearmament program with apprehension of the repetition of again too little too late. These factors coupled with a turbulent domestic era has put the general public on a nervous edge that results in the blowing of its top at every opportunity. Politicians, too, take advantage of every opportunity to create more disunity and discord. The McArthur episode under less strenuous conditions would have caused very little comment or feeling, but under existing circumstances it could have far-reaching effects and could conceivably slow up the military preparedness program upon which our very national existence depends. It seems to be universally conceded that General MacArthur is a military genius with a brilliant and successful record, but his actions and career have been exclusively devoted to the military, the field for which he was especially trained. He had been given a free hand in representing his country in Asia since the end of World War II and had, according to all reports, done an admirable job. However during recent weeks the General had apparently failed to cooperate satisfactorily with the Government he represents, and it is that government that must determine the policies of our country if we are to survive the crisis brought about by the communists' ambition for world conquest. The balance of power in a Democracy such as ours, must rest in our civilian officials and not in the military if the government is to remain in the hands of the people. Regrettable as the incident was the President was left no alternative other than to relieve the General of his command, probably the most distasteful duty any Chief Executive was ever called upon to perform.

Regardless of our personal opinions concerning the matter the action has been taken, the General has been relieved of his command and the President and his advisors have done what they thought best for the welfare of the nation. An honorable effort is being made to avert war of a global magnitude, or to be prepared for it if it does come. The proposition is bigger than personalities and should be considered as such by ever citizen of our country. It is not a question as to which do you favor? MacArthur or Truman, as is being asked on every hand. But what do you want, a world war while we are ill-prepared to fight or a delaying, localized action until our military might can be built up to the point where we can head the advice of another wartime president who said, "Speak softly and carry a big stick." Let's hope that our leaders can at least speak softly until they can cut a big stick.

There is no place in the American way of life for rabble-rousing, uprisings, and usurpation of power. Our nation will survive as a democracy governed by the principals laid down in the Constitution, and as such serve as a beacon of hope to other freedom loving peoples, or else it can falter, become divided and plunge the City officials this week issued a warning to dog owners to make arrangements to keep their canine pets at home or run the risk of having them destroyed. Everyone who has a pet dog is urged by city officials to have their pet vaccinated before the advent of the summer months.

RAYMOND KING RESIGNS JOB AS COUNTY AGENT

Announcement was made this week by the A. & M. Extension Service and Commissioner's Court of Castro County of the resignation of Raymond King as County Agent of the county, effective May 1st. Mr. King, who has been in Castro County for the past 6 years, stated that he was accepting a position with the Lubbock Cotton Oil Co., Lubbock, Texas as a public relations representative. In his letter of resignation Mr. King stated that after much consideration and thought he believed the offer from the Lubbock Cotton Oil Company was the best for himself and the future of his family and that it was with reluctance that he make this move for he had thoroughly enjoyed his work here in Castro County; but he hoped that he had been of some benefit to the people of this county and expressed his appreciation for the fine working conditions.

Both the Extension Service and the Commissioners Court feel that his loss will be greatly felt in this county. Mr. King was commended for his work with the 4-H Club boys and the agricultural program he had carried out while here.

Social Security Law To Be Discussed B & P W Club Meet

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Dimmitt wish to invite everyone interested in the new Social Security law to hear Mr. John Sanderson from the Amarillo Social Security office explain the changes in the law that affect everyone.

Mr. Sanderson will be in the District Courtroom Wednesday night, April 18, at 6:30 p. m. He will be glad to answer your questions and advise you of benefits which you and your family can get and how to get them.

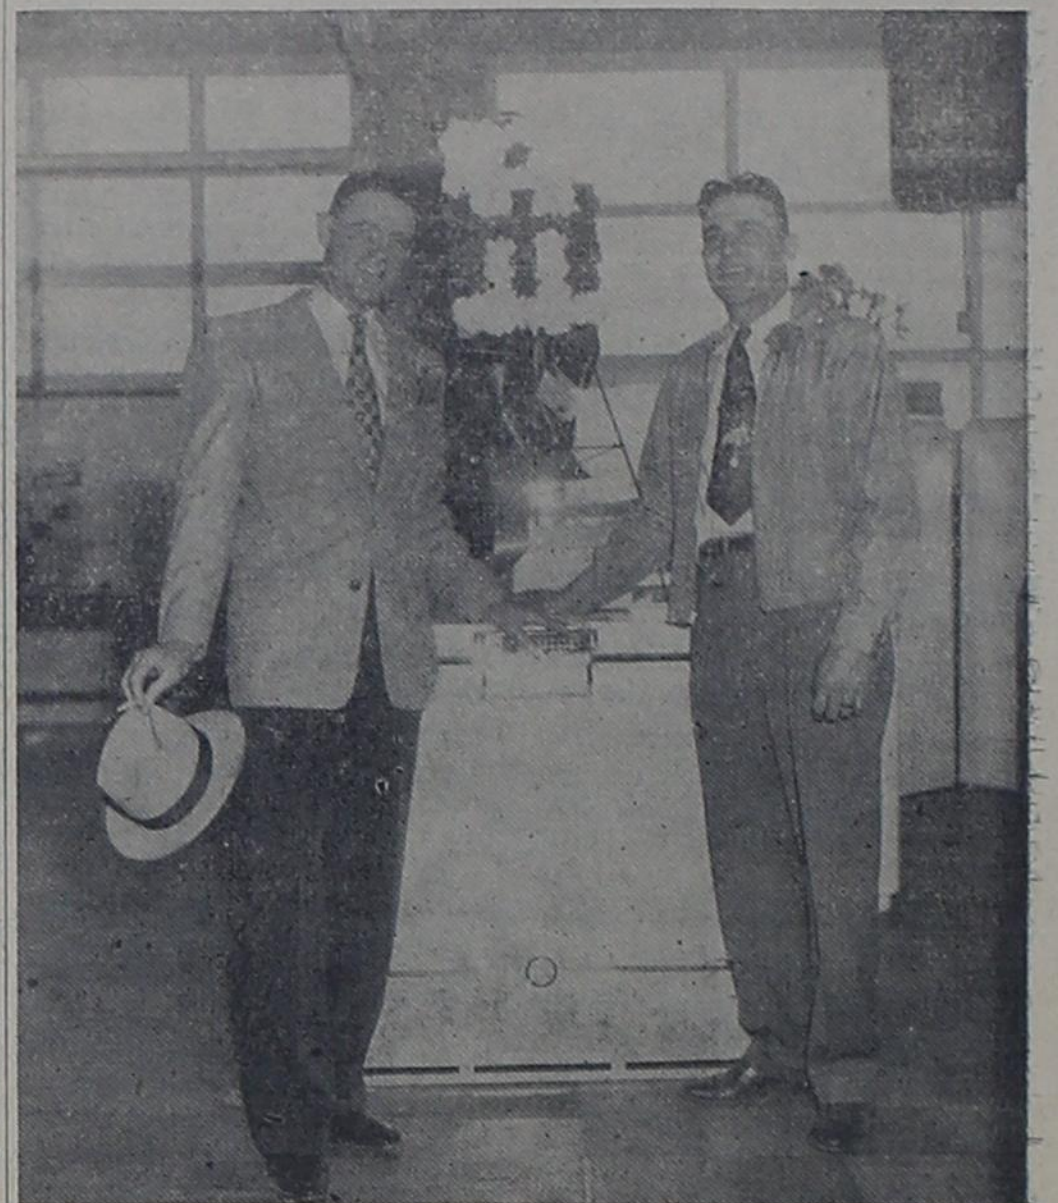

Do you understand how the new law affects household employees? Did you know benefits are the same for self-employed persons and those who work for wages, but taxes are different?

What does the law do for a World War II Veteran? Must I retire to get benefits?

These are questions which some of you are wondering about. No doubt there are many others, so take advantage of this opportunity to hear the Social Security law discussed.

Results of Castro County Dairy Show Are Announced

The largest number of cattle yet to be exhibited were entered in the Castro County Dairy Show last Friday at the Fair Grounds in Dimmitt. A total of 85 head of cattle were exhibited including 13 Jerseys, 28 Milking Shorthorn, 37 Brown Swiss, and 7 Guernseys. Leo Witkowski of Dimmitt and Bobby Joe Warren of Dimmitt shared grand championship honors in the Milking Shorthorn division of the Castro County Dairy Show here today.

The Milking Shorthorn division was a nip and tuck between Witkowski and Warren in all classes. Warren won the grand championship cow banner and Witkowski won the bull grand championship. Eight bulls and 21 cows were entered in eight classes.

Reeves Donnell, Canyon, judged the Milking Shorthorn division. He said that the competition was as close as any he's ever seen.

In the Brown Swiss division, the competitor was almost as close.

Martin Fulcher, Dimmitt, showed the grand championship cow. D. C. Burnett, Friona, won the banner among the 13 bulls shown. Twenty-four Brown Swiss cows were entered.

Other grand championship winners were Frank Huseman & Son who made a clean sweep in the Jersey division by taking both the bull and cow banners and Gary Crow, Friona, whose Guernsey cow was judged tops in the field. Koy Neeley, animal husbandry professor at Texas Tech, judged all divisions except the Milking Shorthorn.

A portion of the crowd which attended the event at the county fair grounds were Amarillo Chamber of Commerce trade trippers.

Mason King, one of the Amarillo boosters, awarded Gary Crow a model cow given by John Alldredge, Dimmitt Guernsey breeder.

The Hays Implement Company fed the show crowds and dozens of others at an open house barbecue. The firm just recently moved into its new, modern home.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Rogers Discusses Most Important Issue Before Congress Since World War II

by CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS

The news letter this week will be confined to perhaps the most important issue that has faced this country since the declaration of war ten years ago. It is the bill that is now before Congress known as the Universal Training Service Act. The bill passed the Senate as Senate Bill 1. It was completely rewritten by the House Armed Services Committee, and I will try to give you in brief the difference between the two.

COMPARISON OF HOUSE AND SENATE BILLS:
House Bill (H. R. 1752) Senate Bill (S. 1)

Minimum draft age 18½ years	Minimum draft age 19 years but none can be taken until after all available in 19-26 age group are taken.
No. such provision. Present law defers essential students.	75,000 scientific students deferred after 4 months training. Other essential students deferred as in present law.
UMT Commission established.	Establishment of UMT Commission left up to President.
Establishes National Security Training Corps.	No such provision.
Congress must pass on Universal Military Training Plan in the future.	No such provision; left up to the President.
Three-year termination date on draft. Concurrent resolution can end draft and start UMT any time.	Congress can review Universal Service and Training program after 4 years.
2% maximum number of women in Armed Services retained.	Eliminates 2% maximum number of women in Armed Services.
Those deferred made subject to induction up to 35 years of age.	No such provision.
Inductees can express preference for service in units of own race.	No segregation provision.
The debate on the floor has been heated and at times personal. The leader of the opposition is Congressman Dewey Short	of Missouri. He is the same congressman who on August 8, 1941, just four months before Pearl Harbor, made an extended speech on the Floor, and a very effective one, against the extension of the Draft Act. You will all remember that the extension of the Draft Act at that time carried by one single vote. Had that extension been defeated at that time, we would have been in a state of demobilization at the time the Japs struck. The legislation that is now pending is as important, if not more so, as was the extension of the draft act in 1941. It is a matter in which there is no place for partisan politics, personalities, local color, thoughts of the next election, or any other foreign matter. There is but one issue at stake, and that is: what is best for the United States of America as a nation? It is the bounden duty of every representative in this Congress to pray to God for the proper course to follow, and it is the duty of every citizen of this country to let his congressman know how he feels. If there has ever been a time in the history of this country when the members of this body need Divine Guidance, it is now.

All members are receiving a great amount of mail and telegrams from individuals, groups, associations and organizations. The American Legion as an organization has advised me of its full support of the House version of the bill. The National Business and Professional Women's Club, whose president is our own Sarah T. Hughes from Dallas, Texas, has taken the same position. Many church organizations have condemned the universal military training features of the bill. Much opposition has been expressed to the draft act and the universal military training measure being contained in one bill. This issue has been thoroughly debated on the floor. In this connection it is well for us to note that Honorable Carl Vinson, Chairman of the House Armed Services Committee stated in open debate that he would offer an amendment requiring the UMT Commission to present its program for universal military training to the Congress, that such program would be considered by the Armed Services Committee and reported back to the house with recommendations and changes; that it would then be subject to debate on the Floor and be open for amendments or any substitute bill that might be offered. This amendment would unquestionably leave the program solely in the hands of the Congress, where it should be. It is also well to note that the proposed Commission is to be made up of three civilians and two members of the military, one of which must be a reservist. This is most important because it leaves the control of the program, in its final analysis, in the civilians of this country and does not place it in the military.

It is history making legislation and tempers have run short during the debate. I do not look for any fist fights, but the verbal battles will not be forgotten for a long time. I do have a piece of information concerning this legislation that comes from what might be termed an isolationist district. I refer to the district of the Honorable Thomas E. Martin of Iowa. Congressman Martin sent out 32,000 questionnaires containing 56 questions. No. 4 among these was, "Do you favor Universal Military Training?" Out of a total of 3465 replies to the questionnaire the No. 4 question was answered as follows: "Yes", 2353; "No", 982. No. 5 question was, "Do you favor the drafting of 18 year-olds into the Armed Services?" "Yes", 1896; "No", 1432. Question No. 6: "Do you favor the drafting of World War II veterans?" "Yes", 869; "No", 2197. I give you this information from the questionnaire because I think it is important for you to know what is being done in other backyards, and especially in a district of the type represented by Congressman Martin. There are a number of other questions framed in the questionnaire on which I will give you information in the following weeks.

I said that this letter would be confined to the UMT legislation, but I can't resist giving you a piece of good news that I have just received about a veteran's wife. She is Mrs. Arne Crawford of Borger, Texas, who has two children. Her husband recently died of cancer in the VA Hospital at Amarillo. His claim for a service-connected disability had been refused three times by the Veterans Administration, but I was convinced that an injustice had been done and continued the fight, refusing to take no for an answer. The case was finally submitted to the top officials of the Veterans' Administration at my insistence, and we have received word this morning that the claim has been approved and that this young widow and her fine children are going to receive the benefits to which they are rightfully entitled for the unselfish service of the deceased husband and father.

High School Seniors To Attend Education For Citizenship Program

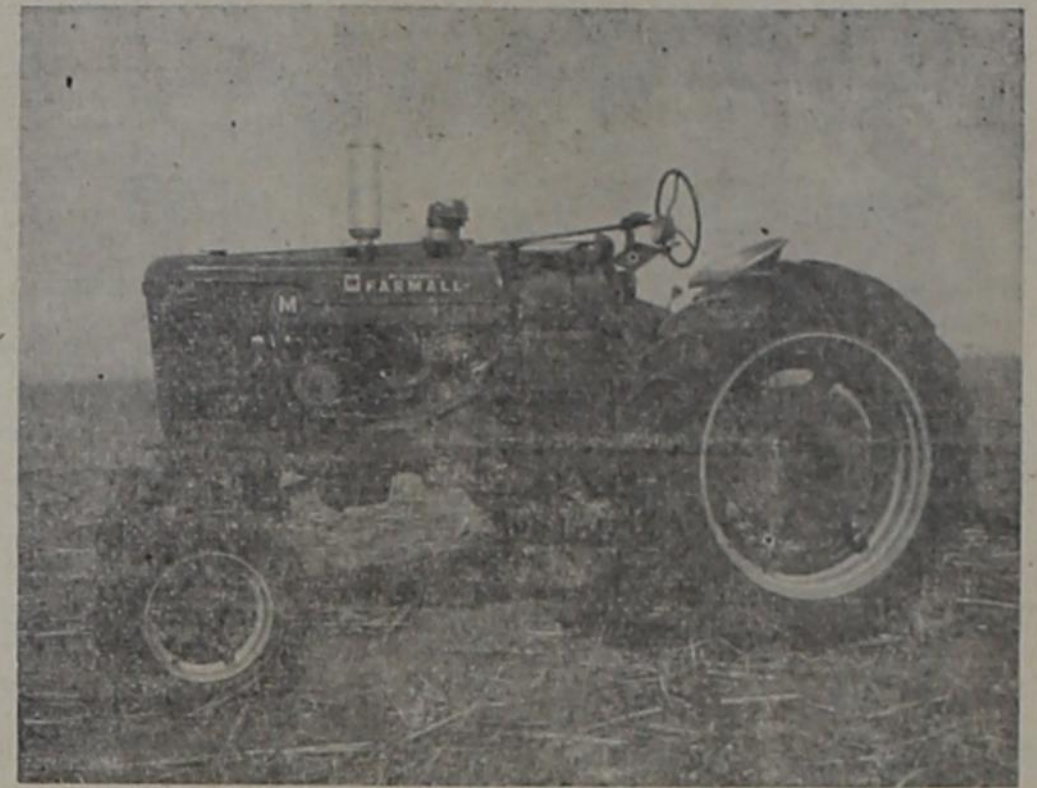

The Education for Citizenship Program, sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and co-sponsored by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce and Amarillo College, will be held in Amarillo on Friday, April 13. Feature speakers on the program are Representative Harley Sadler, of Abilene, member of the Texas Legislature, who will speak on "The Responsibilities of Citizenship," and R. Wright Armstrong, Vice-President of the Fort Worth & Denver Railroad, who will speak on "The System of American Opportunity." High school seniors will be in attendance from within a radius of 100 miles of Amarillo and some 25 or 30 counties will be represented. Some six or seven hundred high school seniors are expected. The program is primarily designed to inculcate into the minds of West Texas youth their responsibilities as future leaders and citizens and to bring forcefully to their attention some of the problems confronting our free enterprise economy, according to James F. Melton, manager of the taxation and legislation department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Approximately 25 business leaders in Amarillo will participate in the vocational guidance series in the afternoon where they will supervise small discussion groups in various vocations. This is the first project activity of the taxation and legislation department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in the Amarillo area in its newly reorganized program of activities.

Letters To The Editor

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE EDITOR, the MINISTERS, and the CHURCH OFFICERS in DIMMITT:

To-day in a huge eastern city two people were condemned to death for selling out their fellowman. Today, in our little western town, a tender glimmer of green trembles in the strong branches of the elms, the sun shines, birds twitter peacefully in our door yards, "school keeps", and we all go about with smug smiles of self-satisfaction. We are a part of Christian America, and the turmoil, starvation, bombings, and such does not happen here. Yes, we're part of Christian America, and Christianity is conceded to be the most civilizing force in the world. And western people DO have a sense of warm, friendly, hospitality and brotherly love too strong to be given to selling each other out. None of us would think of emulating the two mis-guided individuals who received their death decrees today. It couldn't happen here.

That was today in New York City and we are concerned with today in Dimmitt, Texas.

There are three strong, or at least three predominant churches in Dimmitt. These, as you know, are the Baptist Church, the Methodist Church, and the Church of Christ. TODAY, IN DIMMITT, ALL THREE HAVE A MEETING, a Spring Revival, IN PROGRESS.

I would not, for a moment, attempt to blame any person or any certain group of persons, for this situation. BUT IT OUGHT NOT TO BE. We love our neighbor. We are commanded to love him as we love ourselves. It is likely that one of the youngsters in Dimmitt will marry one of your children. A Dimmitt merchant will sell you your food today, and every day, and Dimmitt people call your name in greeting when you go for the mail. We belong to the same PTA, we attend the same meetings, or lodge meetings, we invite Dimmitt people to our parties, we have a Chamber of Commerce, but when we get together to discuss things vital to our soul's salvation we must divide into three very distinct groups and be most certain to have our meetings when they will conflict with each other!

Have we forgotten that charity begins at home? Are you concerned about the orphans in foreign lands? Well and good. So am I. But please, lets do more to let our brother right here in Dimmitt know that we are concerned about him. If I live but one more year in Dimmitt or any place else, let me live to see the time when SOME ONE cares enough to call up and say,

"We are planning a meeting in the near future. We know you are likely to have yours soon, too, and we want to set a date that won't conflict, because we want to visit you and we EXPECT YOU at our meeting."

I would not send this to Mr. Nelson without the courtesy of enclosing my name. But I am asking Mr. Nelson not to publish my name. He will have it and will be glad to divulge it to any person who comes to him in a spirit of sincerity and helpfulness. If my name is printed then it is merely one person's opinion, but if not you might consider it some one of importance to you—perhaps even your boss!

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Estes visited in Plainview Sunday.

Health Talks . . .

Certain diseases have descriptive words or phrases which stick in the mind long after the technical name and symptoms of the disease are gone. Tetanus is distinguished by its popular title of lockjaw; typhoid fever is easily remembered as the one that's spread by the 4F's, food, filth, flies and fingers; undulant fever symptoms rise and fall like the waves of the sea; and pertussis is better described by the name of whooping cough.

All of these infectious diseases are caused by the germs known as bacilli. Tetanus comes from a drumstick-shaped germ which thrives in many places, though it is most prevalent in stock yards and stock pens. Given plenty of air and sunlight the germ behaves itself; when it manages to get beneath the skins of humans, however, and the skin closes over it, cutting off the air, that drumstick brews up a poison which beats out a sad tune on your nerves and muscles.

The nerves and muscles get tighter and tighter when this poison spreads through or around them and they won't stretch and sends messages around the body as they are supposed to; the jaw nerves and muscles don't work right and the jaw is locked.

It takes only a tiny place for the germ to enter the body; nail, scissors, or any deep puncture-type wound closes more quickly than others and is possibly more likely to permit the germ to enter and shut off the air than other types, though thorough washing of all cuts and sores would be the best protection against tetanus. There are tetanus shots available which help the body in its defenses against the germ should it gain a foothold.

These advance shots for tetanus, like the advance shots for protection against typhoid, are particularly desirable for those whose work or living habits bring them into constant contact with the thriving places of the germs.

Typhoid fever is caused by a plump little germ that gets into the digestive tract by means of food, fingers, flies or filth. From the digestive tract it can spread throughout the body, taking about two weeks to produce the symptoms of typhoid fever; these symptoms may vary a great deal but they all combine to make you feel real sick. One of the most distinguishing things about typhoid is that your fever goes up higher every day.

After about two weeks of constantly rising fever, you usually break out in a rash which consists of tiny red spots along and above the waistline. Then for the next couple of weeks the fever goes down a little every day in pretty much the same manner as it went up.

With fever running as high as it does in typhoid, there may be delirium. Many complications are possible with this disease and that means constant medical supervision to prevent other illnesses from arising from typhoid. Such is the nature of the illness that even after you are over the disease, relapses are fairly common.

Sanitation and preventive shots have done much to cut down on the number of persons racked with typhoid fever; 30 years ago it was one of the leading illnesses. Undulant fever is one of these diseases that you cannot be protected against in advance. The method of control for this disease, which is also known as brucellosis, Malta fever and Mediterranean fever, is by inspection and elimination of the cattle, goats and pigs that are infected.

The most common form of undulant fever in this country is the strain that originates with the pigs; of the three varieties of the disease, it is fortunately the mildest. But even at best, it can cause serious illness.

The germ that causes undulant fever is a combination of two types of germs and enters the body through intact skin, or by mouth from the ingestion of infectious dairy products. Most germs need a broken place on the skin to get at you, but not the germ of undulant fever. Once it gets hold of you, this germ works slowly to produce signs of sickness; you gradually feel real bad, mentally and physically. Then maybe you feel pretty good again. Then a wave of bad-feeling swoops over you. The name, undulant, is descriptive of the rise and fall of the waves.

Undulant fever may act like so many other diseases that it is not always easy to diagnose; laboratory examinations are necessary to determine for sure that undulant fever is the cause of your trouble.

But it seldom kills. Rest during the wave of illness, plus special medications as your doctor advises, make up the usual treatment for undulant fever which has a way of gradually working itself out.

If undulant fever can be compared to waves of the ocean, whooping cough can be called a volcano. The rumble of cough, whoop and vomit are very much like nature at one of her more rugged moments.

Whooping cough is rugged. Though it rarely kills by itself it leads to other complications which kill and maim; pneumonia and central nervous system diseases are the most common complications.

Whooping cough kills more infants under two years of age than any of the other communicable diseases and 90 per cent of all deaths traced to whooping cough complications are in children under 5 years of age. As an infant killer, whooping cough has been confined in recent years by the preventive shots which are usually given infants about 6 months of age. A child who has been exposed to whooping cough but had not had a preventive shot may be protected completely from the disease or else get a slighter case by another type of injection.

SAFETY BEHIND WHEEL

Advise on this subject is readily given by anybody to anybody usually free of charge. There has been some special material prepared for female drivers (using the term loosely) to help the gentlemen understand more thoroughly what to do when they suddenly encounter a lady driver. First, you should already have insurance and a natural instinct for "ditchum", for when madam drives a car she should be observed at a distance.

Here are definitions of the parts of the car as women know them:

Clutch—A device for resting the left foot on while car in in motion.

 Choke—Small gadget to hang purse on.
 Throttle—Same as choke.
 Steering wheel—A place to put the hands while conversing.
 Horn, Rear view mirrors—Usage unknown Best be ignored.
 Gear Shift—Continuously being moved but never out of the way.
 Bumpers—Bumpers.
 Fenders—More bumpers.
 The reason for women behavior on public thoroughfare while in an automobile has been worked out partially by the Braly Method. The reason: "They (the ladies) are just trying to keep everybody else scared to death, so they will be careful and not hurt somebody."

Dissecting Demons

Marlin Truelock

If you care to learn the anatomy of a frog, fish, or any other animal or reptile, just visit the biology class of D.H.S. In the beginning, the students were a bit shy about removing a frog from a container of smelly formaldehyde and starting to work on his slimy body with a razor blade. Not only did it seem a bit unfair to the poor creature because he was already dead and couldn't defend himself, but the unpleasant smell of the formaldehyde was extremely difficult to remove from the hands. Soon the students learned to remove the skin from a frog without slicing off a portion of the left foreleg or removing one of the vital organs, and to take the flesh from the bones of a fish without snapping the backbone in two. Even the more squeamish of the students have made drawings of the bones and organs of animals they have dissected. It has been suggested that a course such as this could prove a great help for people with a weak stomach.

Society Sue

The Senior play cast was honored with a hamburger party given by Miss Suits after the play Tuesday night. Everyone had a nice time signing programs and talking about Forrest's "bouncing" performance.

After the Senior play Monday night Carlene and Guy Cox entertained Mary DeLozier, Gene Smith, Phyllis and Dale Allen. They enjoyed sandwiches and coffee.

If you saw some kids around Saturday night dressed in some sloppy clothes and painted up you might guess that it was some of the eighth grade. They had a "tacky party" in the band hall.

Carlene and Guy Cox enjoyed a chicken supper with Phyllis and Dale Allen Wednesday night.

It seems that all the boys are getting ready for the summer weather, they are getting all (well, nearly all) of their hair cut off.

The Choral Contest will be held Saturday, April 14, at Canyon. Dimmitt will be entered in the Mixed Chorus, Boys' Chorus, and small ensemble groups. It will be an all day affair and awards are to be given for first, second, and third place.

Wednesday night the Junior age High School teams had a tournament in the Dimmitt gym. The Dimmitt boys played one game with Petersburg to win the first place.

The girls played Olton first; the score was 3-2. The Dimmitt girls then played Kress (Kress drew a bye). Petersburg and Hale Center played, Petersburg winning (putting them in the finals with Dimmitt).

Dimmitt won the tournament, adding another trophy to Dimmitt's bulging trophy cases.

Band To Entertain P. T. A.

P. T. A. will be entertained by the Bobcat Band, Tuesday, April 17. Various kinds of music will be played by the band. The program will include pieces to be played in the contest, April 26, 27, and 28 have been set as the dates for the band contest at are playing solos in the contest. These soloists will be presented in a recital in the auditorium, April 24.

If you have been wondering about the pounding noise you hear each morning, it is probably the drums beating a march beat. The band is working on their marching as this is one of the things they will compete in at the contest. The band has made much progress since the time it was organized.

Senior Volleyball Tournament

The district volleyball tournament was held at Hart Wednesday and Thursday nights, April 4th and 5th.

The girls' team entered were Dimmitt, Hale Center, Hart, Nazareth, Olton, Kress, Sudar, and Petersburg.

Dimmitt played Nazareth Wednesday night winning the first two games. Then Thursday night the Bobbies played Hale Center. Dimmitt lost the first game, won the second and lost the third game. The Olton girls won the tournament.

The boys teams entered were Dimmitt, Hale Center, Hart, Petersburg, and Sudar.

The Dimmitt boys were unlucky Wednesday night, losing to Hale Center. The Hale Center boys won first place.

Coming Soon!

Eighth grade class play will be presented April 19-20, in the High School Auditorium, curtain time 8:00 o'clock.

The play is a comedy in three acts. Some of the Characters are: Father—David Honea; Mother—Faye Conard; Bob—Edgar Dennis; Jr.—Richard Woods; Carrie—Darlene Cates.

You are all invited to attend the first annual eighth grade play.

F. H. A. Club

The F. H. A. are now studying home decoration and landscaping. They have been through several of the homes of the country south of Dimmitt and in the Hart area. Plans are being made to visit more homes. They are visiting these homes to get ideas for their own homes and they have found some very interesting ones.

Mrs. J. A. Cox returned home Sunday night from Houston where she had been since November for a visit with her daughter, and family.

Your Judgment Will Tell You...
THIS BUILDING HAS WHAT YOU NEED!

THE STRAN-STEEL "Quonset 40"

We'll tell you what this famous "Quonset 40" has to offer, and let you decide whether it "has what it takes" to increase the value, productivity and efficiency of your farm operations.

- SPACE The "Quonset 40" is 40 feet wide and as long as you want it—40'x40', 40'x60', 40'x80', 40'x100' and so forth. Interior is clear-span, so that every inch of space is usable.
- LOW COST The "Quonset 40" is the first high-quality steel building to be made available at low cost. This is made possible by the unmatched efficiency of the Stran-Steel framing system, with its nailing groove that permits siding and roofing to be nailed directly to the framing members.
- DURABILITY The "Quonset 40" is framed with steel and covered with steel to give you the sturdiest, most durable building ever produced for the farm. It is fire-safe, sag-proof, rot-proof, warp-proof—strong with the uniform strength of steel.
- PROVED IN USE Tens of thousands of "Quonsets" have been produced by Great Lakes Steel Corporation to meet the needs of the armed forces in all climates.

"Quonset 20" Here are the same features and advantages as in the "Quonset 40" in a smaller building—20' wide and as long as you want it. Framed with durable Stran-Steel.

"Quonset 24" This adaptable, 24'-wide building is available with open side—with sliding doors—or with solid side panels. It provides an ideal building for many farm uses.

sisters, Misses Nora Jo and Sammy Lou McLannan, of Hereford accompanied him. The first Sunday they were here they took dinner in the Owen Andrews home.

Mrs. Henry Andrews came home the first of the week from the hospital at Hereford. She is doing fine, although she is still weak from her operation.

Mrs. C. N. McClure has been spending a lot of time at Amherst with her father who was seriously ill in a hospital. He was better the last of the week and if he continued to improve was expected to be able to leave the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Parris and Walker recently visited Olin's sister and family at San Antonio. While there Walker had the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sparkman, Sr. recently visited the home of D. M. Springer at Kress. Another brother, F. J. Springer and Mrs. Springer also of Kress, were present to enjoy the visit together.

Recent victims of measles were Peggy Little and Quinelle Cruse, and Monte Gripp had chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Simpson and Shirley moved last week to the former Zimmerman place, about a mile and a half south of Hereford. They have been papering and painting, preparing to move. They and the John Simpsons sold the home where they have all been living together. The John Simpsons have moved in with the Robert Simpsons until the new house to be occupied by the Robert Simpsons is completed. Mrs. Vara Lindley has been helping her parents the Simpsons, move.

Mrs. Media Owens from Kansas is making an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Earl Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Little took Saturday night supper at the home of his cousin, Byron Bransford.

Mrs. Shannon accompanied Rev. Shannon to Friona Saturday night for church services.

The Sparkmans Jr. are building on their place and hope to move sometime this spring. The place is located two miles east of Hereford on the Amarillo highway and was improved by Mr. and Mrs. Vestus Hodges a few years ago. The Sparkmans are adding on to the house, which now consists of four rooms built over a garage. The garage will be remodeled into bedrooms, and a livingroom, bath and kitchen added. They have been living two miles south of Dawn.

Henry Andrews is building a machine barn at his place. It is a very large barn and is of sheet iron construction type. The Owen Andrews have been adding a room and enlarging another room on their house. Mrs. Henry Dobbs helped Mrs. Andrews to paper on Friday. The Sparkmans, Sr., and Leonard Schmidt have also done quite a lot of work on the house.

The Frío Home Makers club met in the home of Mrs. W. A. Springer on Wednesday, April 4. Roll call was answered with material on chosen subjects being given. One interesting item was given by Mrs. Olin Parris who told that she had been advised in order to finish woodwork with a nice clear finish that won't darken with age, to first rub the wood lightly with white enamel then continue rubbing off the white. The enamel, if rubbed off properly, will not show but will prevent darkening of the natural finish.

Huseman and Schulte United in Double-Ring Ceremony

The Holy Family Church was the setting April 2 of the double-ring wedding of Miss Florene Huseman, daughter of Mrs. Leo Huseman of Nazareth, and Elmer Schulte, son of Mrs. Frank Schulte, also of Nazareth.

The bride wore a white satin dress with a bertha collar and panels of lace and satin alternately set in on both sides. Her veil of illusion had a head piece of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet edged in white carnations with an orchid for the center.

The bridesmaids, Miss Viola Huseman, sister of the bride, and Miss Althea Schulte, sister of the groom, were dressed in yellow marquisette with bertha collars drawn up with yellow rose buds.

The maid of honor, Miss Hildagarde Huseman, sister of the bride, was dressed identically with the bridesmaids, except in color. Her gown was in orchid. All three carried flares centered with white carnations.

The best men were Arnold Huseman, brother of the bride, and Leonard Schulte, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Leo Huseman wore a blue dress with white accessories and Mrs. Frank Schulte wore a grey suit with pink accessories.

Breakfast was served in the home of Mrs. Frank Schulte and the reception was held in the home of the bride.

The young couple will spend their honeymoon at Carlsbad Caverns.

When they return, they will make their home in the newly built house northwest of Nazareth.

world into an era of hopeless despair. In the final analysis Americans will support the government's program and once again see the war clouds, or threat of war clouds, clear away and allow our people again to turn their efforts in the peaceful pursuit of planning for the future with the assurance that every generation will not be called upon to fight a global war. As inefficient and cumbersome as the United Nations organization may be, it is the world's hope for an eventual lasting peace and unless whatever is done during the present crisis is done in the name of the United Nations no victory in the present conflict, or other possible conflicts, can be expected to endure.

Castro County hens seem to be vieing for outstanding performances this year. Eggs of record breaking sizes have been produced in local barnyards during recent weeks, some of which have been on display at the News Office. Then Tuesday Willis A. Hawkins, Jr., of Hart brought in an egg that by no stretch of imagination could be made to fit in an egg-shaped container. The Hawkins hen, probably through the unusually large eggs produced by some of her contemporaries and gave up at establishing any new records in that direction, probably because of obvious reasons. But not to be outdone the Hawkins' hen produced an egg, not a large one, shaped exactly like a bowling pin. This is the truth. The egg is on display in the News Office. The Hawkins bowling pin egg is an oddity and so far as available records reveal it is the only egg ever concocted by a hen in that particular shape, how she done it remains a trade secret, but is another good example of the varied opportunities, available in this fine county, for accomplishment and recognition. Moral: If you can't lay a bigger egg than the next hen then change the shape, make it different.

Plans are complete for the annual Castro County Chamber of Commerce banquet to be held Monday night in the high school gymnasium. A good program has been arranged and a large crowd is expected. Admission will be by ticket only as the ladies of the County Home Demonstration Clubs, who are serving the banquet must know by Saturday approximately how many will be present. If you haven't purchased your ticket yet, you can do so by contacting the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce or any member of the Dimmitt Lions Club, all of whom are serving on the ticket committe. Be sure to get your ticket before Saturday. It is possible that we were off of our usual form when we made our prediction on the current wheat crop. Green bugs are unpredictable.

Miss Alma Cox Speaks On "Planning Exhibits"

In a meeting of the Home Demonstration Council at the Court-house, Miss Alma Cox, Extension Service Specialist, spoke on "Planning Exhibits." "An exhibit should be simple and set forth one single idea," she explained. "Too many articles in an exhibit confuse the observer. In a club booth, it is best to use the demonstration that an average homemaker can apply to her own work." During the business meeting, detailed plans were made for serving the Chamber of Commerce banquet. Six clubs were represented at this meeting.
