County Goes Dry, 393 For, 862 Against, Returns Show

By a more than 2 to 1 majority on the repeal of the 18th amendment issue and a majority of more than one third on the beer issue Floyd County voters went to the polls Saturday and voted the county dry.

The bond issue amendment which will authorize the issuance of $20,000,000 bonds to be used to get Federal relief funds, passed by a large majority. Home Rule and Home Stead also was given the approval of Floyd County voters.

Results of the voting in the county as a whole were:

- Beer 428 for, 797 against
- Bonds 662 for, 507 against
- Home Rule 535 for, 351 against
- Homestead 918 for, 234 against.

Two communities in the county carried the repeal and beer issue, those being Providence and Goodnight. The homestead amendment passed by the largest majority of any of the other acts voted on.

Much interest was shown in the five issues presented to the voters in the election Saturday.

Floydada and Lockney both went dry by a two to one majority and passed the other amendments by almost an equally large vote.

32 prospective players on the Whirlwind squad were in attendance. Coach R. P. Terrell and Assistant Coach Ernest Carter encouraged training among the players and said that if the men did not intend to 'stick' for the whole season not to come out at all.

Each of the boys present made a short talk following instructions by Terrell and Carter, in which they were enthusiastic about the prospects for a good team.

Only Minor Details Of Hog Marketing Program Known Here

Details are slight on the government hog marketing program in Floyd County as far as this section is concerned.

V. S. Payne, special farm agent, is in receipt of a letter from the extension department which states that farmers should get in touch with their commission agents before shipping. Since the number of hogs that can be processed in one day is limited the necessity of this action is stressed.

"Anyone interested in selling hogs under the emergency hog marketing program should write their commission agents, stating number of hogs and when they expect to ship," Mr. Payne said.

Shipping points for Texas are at Houston, Fort Worth and Dallas.

Floydada Business Payrolls Increased 2,142.80 N. R. A. Survey Shows

A partial survey of the business and industrial section of Floydada made yesterday by committees appointed by J. C. Wester, captain of Manpower Division of the local N. R. A. organization, revealed that Floydada business firms were meeting the N. R. A. requirements.

During the N. R. A. campaign, the canvass revealed, the payrolls of the businesses have been increased $2,142.80 monthly. This amount includes salaries for added employees, increase in salary for those working before the N. R. A. started, and extra help.

34 people have been put on the payrolls, either as regular workers, part time or extra help according to the check up. The total of the number of people added to payrolls and the amount of the increase in payrolls will probably increase when a few of the firms not canvassed are seen.

Following a completed check up on the city business and industrial section and the survey tabulated a house-to-house N. R. A. consumer canvass will be started. It is expected that this will be started the latter part of this week in Floydada.

Those on the committees appointed by Mr. Wester and working yesterday were: Roy Snodgrass, R. E. Fry, Lon M. Davis, Geo. McAllister, Harry Stanley, D. M. Hopper, J. C. Gilliam, and Calvin Steen.

Some names of additional members of N. R. A. were added.

Floyd County Soaked By Rains During Past Few Days

Lakes in Floyd County are brimming and bar pits along the roads are still wet as a result of the rains received during the past several days. The entire county has been given a good soaking by the moisture.

Roads in parts of the county were almost impassable the latter part of last week and the first of this week, after the heaviest of the current rains. Monday night the heaviest moisture precipitation was had with more than one and three fourths inches reported from many sections of the county.

Farm work is at a standstill until fields dry out sufficiently to allow farmers to go into them with plows. Although the rain was unusually heavy it is not thought that any damage was done to cotton almost mature. In some places it is reported that cotton is opening in a few spots.

There is probably a better season for wheat now than in several years at this season of the year. Some wheat plowing was underway when the rains started. The temperatures the first of this week have been decidedly lower with no hot weather. Of the series of rains none were accompanied by wind but fell slowly and soaked into the ground.

At Monticello Mr. Turner will be joined by his wife who has been visiting her relatives there several weeks and they with the two trucks will enter Colorado, where Mr. Turner will load his trucks with Elberta peaches for the return trip to Floydada.

It will be remembered by many local people that Mr. Turner sold several truck loads of Colorado peaches on the local market last year, and that the fruit was of a very delicious variety. He says that the fruit is considered very scarce this year, but that the quality is said to be better than usual.

UNDULANT OR MALTA
FEVER SHOULD BE GUARDED AGAINST BY EVERYONE

Austin, Texas.—Undulant fever or Malta fever, a disease contracted from cattle, hogs or sheep which are infected with contagious abortion, is being reported fairly regularly throughout Texas and is being similarly reported throughout the United States. This indicates that it constitutes a public health problem and also the necessity of its more general recognition.

Undulant fever is so because of the wave-like variations in temperature.
The symptoms include rise in temperature, loss of weight and strength chills, sweats and joint pains. The disease has rather a low mortality rate, but important because symptoms may persist for a number of weeks and even months before normal health and strength are restored.

In Texas, the goat, horse, and cows are the usual spreaders of this disease. The germs of undulant fever enter the body through the mouth or skin. Therefore, care should be used in handling animals known to be infected and dairy products from the same sources should be pasteurized, if used. More men acquire this disease than women and adults seem more likely to have it than children. More cases are found in the rural areas than in the cities.

The true prevention of undulant fever is based upon the detection of the disease in live stock and the elimination of infected stock from the herds. Dairy herds should be tested for Bacillus abortus. This is a task that cannot be accomplished in a short time. Pasteurization of milk will prevent the spread from this source. Frequently the recognition of undulant fever in a community causes much alarm. However, there is no cause for apprehension, as many people are not susceptible to the infection. The disease will probably never appear in Texas as an epidemic; however, to those unfortunate enough to contract it, it is a most discouraging experience both from the standpoint of the patients well being and the family economies.

Mrs. S. G. McRoberts and dau-ughters, Miss Adele and Mary Francis, returned Sunday noon from Jacksboro, Texas, where they had spent six weeks visiting with relatives. They returned with G. E. and S. E. McRoberts, Mrs. McRoberts' sons.

TEXAS PROPERTY VALUES LOWEST IN QUARTER OF CENTURY RECORDS SHOW

Austin, August 24.—Property valuations for tax purposes are the lowest in Texas in a quarter of a century.

Three years ago the tangible property upon which the state could levy an ad valorem tax was close to the four million mark. The figure reported to the automatic tax board this year was $2,851,912,889, believed by George H. Sheppard, state comptroller, to represent the smallest amount of taxable property rendered in 25 years.

Exemption of $3,000 of the assessed valuation of residence homesteads from taxation accounted for a large part of the decline. Another substantial reduction was caused by the general decline in values, Sheppard reporting a material drop in valuations as fixed by the county boards of equalization.

Another sizeable amount has been lost to the state for taxation by legislative enactments remitting state taxes to counties to construct needed improvements or to provide funds to speed recovery from calamities.

State taxes have been remitted in whole or in part in 18 counties, thus eliminating $325,293,401 in values from the state tax rolls. The counties have used the remission as a basis for bond issues payable out of state taxes. The property will not again be subject to ad valorem taxation by the state until these bonds have been retired. Many of the issues were extended over long periods of time and accordingly will not be paid off for many years.

Sheppard believes there is a ray of light shining through the clouds that have cast gloom over the depleted state coffers.

He pointed out that the estimates of probable revenues were calculated before the state and nation had turned the corner to economic recovery. Real estate valuations were based on a rock bottom quotations.
An extra allowance for probable delinquencies was made.

If real estate values rise and more money is placed in circulation it is likely the state will receive much more from its levies than has been anticipated, Sheppard said.

There also is owing to the state approximately $40,000,000 in delinquent taxes. A portion of this sum also would be liquidated if conditions generally improve, Sheppard believed.

During the last tax period the delinquencies approximated 30 per cent.
Sheppard is hoping delinquencies during the new tax period will be greatly below this.

A FULL YEAR'S WORK

Down on the farm, 'bout half past four,
I slip on my pants and sneak out of the door,
Out to the yard I run like the dickeus,

To milk ten cows and feed the chickens, Clean out the barn, curry Nance and Jiggs,

Separate the cream and slop the pigs, Work two hours, then eat like a Turk, And, by heck, I'm ready for a full day's work.

Then I greased the wagon and put on the rack,

Throw a jug of water in an old grain sack,

Hit up the horses, hustle down the lane,

Must get the hay in, for it looks like rain,

Look over yonder, sure as I'm born, Cattle's on the rampage and cows in the corn,

Start across the medder, run a mile or two,

Heaving like I'm wind broke, get wet clean through,

Get back to the horses, then for recompense,

LABOR DAY SEPT 4TH

Don't postpone getting the tires you need now. Enjoy your last summer holiday on a new set of Goodyears. Prices are still lower than they were last fall. Play safe. Before you start out, drive in and let us look over your tires.

BUY THIS TIRE

Prices are marching up. But if you act in time you can still buy Goodyears at prices shown here—and most of them are lower than they were last fall. . . . Look at this new 1933 Goodyear Pathfinder. With FULL CENTER TRACTION, 20% thicker non-skid tread, and stouter Super-twist Cord body, it turns in more miles, more blowout protection, more safety, than you could get from any tire costing four times as much a few years ago. . . . Now is certainly the time to replace worn, dangerous tires with Pathfinders all around. No one can guarantee how long today's still low prices can last. We have your size. Be sure to get Goodyear quality tubes, too.
