Benefit Payments Increase Farm Incomes During This Year

The income of farmers is being markedly increased by benefit payments which the Agricultural Adjustment Administration is making and will make to those who take part in production adjustment programs. These benefit payments have supplemented the increased income of farmers resulting from the general price rise in agricultural products since last March.

This price rise, however, has been somewhat offset for increased prices of things farmers buy. During the months from August to December, benefits to farmers will be equivalent to a 20 percent increase over the cash farm income for same period last year.

Material increase in farm incomes have been noted in the cotton, wheat tobacco and the corn and hog belts, where payments have been made or are being made to those who required adjustments in production. Other farm areas are benefitting from marketing agreements, which among other things, are designed to improve prices paid to farmers.

Between March and September the net increase in farmers' cash income, exclusive of benefit payments, was about 16 percent more than usual. Including the benefit payments, the net increase amounted to more than 50 percent. Increased buying by farmers has already been reflected as a result of the higher level of farm income, though this higher level is more or less regional. Mail order sales in general are at least 25 percent higher than they were a year ago, and in the South, where cotton and tobacco adjustment programs are underway, mail order purchases have risen more than this.

Similar effects are being noted as benefit payments reach communities in the wheat and corn and hog belts. Recently Floyd County has benefited a great deal from the Agricultural Adjustment Programs. Cotton acreage reduction benefits combined with the higher price for the cotton marketed, which increased price resulted from the cotton program, has made Floyd County farmers' income higher this year than in several. Merchants and other businesses have benefitted indirectly from the Agricultural Adjustment Programs in a like manner of increase in income in most cases.

Floydada Folk Celebrate Thanksgiving Day in "Good Old Time" Fashion

Thanksgiving Day, this year especially, meant a great deal to Floydada and Floyd County people. Although financial conditions are not what they were before the depression, people locally took "time out" from their labors Thursday to celebrate Thanksgiving Day, and in "good times" fashion.

Many made of Thanksgiving Day one of recreation and rest at home, while others went for a visit with friends and relatives in other cities. Football games were the feature of the day. Many saw Lubbock Tech College defeat Kansas State Aggies, others went to Matador for the Lamessa High School-Matador High School game.

Locally the fans saw a thriller when the Floydada High School Whirlwinds trampled the Happy High School Jacks 19 to 0 in the season's most sensational game. All in all the day was spent joyously by everyone concerned. This year, as has not been the case every year, Thanksgiving Day was beautiful and warm and ideal for driving or attending a football game.

Processing Program Tax Must Be Paid on Hogs Killed And Sold

Process tax on hogs must be paid by everyone who kills hogs, unless the pork is used for home consumption, according to the information released. The money received from tax on hogs, killed and sold, will be used by the federal government in financing the swine program soon to be announced.

Floyd County is in division No. 2, of the Dallas District. Tax on hogs, killed and sold, in Floyd County must be paid to C. S. Holderness, chief processing division, federal building, Dallas, Texas.

Below is given five provisions, one of which states the amount of processing tax, governing the swine program:

1. Everyone who slaughters hogs and sells the meat must pay the processing tax. The party who owns the hogs at the time it is slaughtered is the one to pay the tax.
2. A man may kill a hog produced by himself and consume it with his own household and under this condition is not subject to processing tax.
3. If the party (in case No. 2) sells a portion of this hog he must pay a processing tax on the portion that he sells. In this case he makes out forms for the entire hog and claims exemption for that he consumes at home.
4. A restaurant or hotel that slaughters its own hogs and feeds the pork to the boarders must pay a processing tax, because the boarders cannot be construed as being a part of the household of that individual.
5. The tax is 50 cents per cwt. from November 3 to 30, $1.00 per cwt. December 1 to 31 inclusive, $1.50 per cwt. from January 1 to 31, inclusive, $2.00 per cwt. after February 1, 1934.

RURALIZATION OF INDUSTRY

We were impressed by what Secretary Wallace said in a speech in Chicago not long ago. He remarked that the President's land policy "may in time be recognized as the most important since the Homestead Act."

As Mr. Wallace interprets the program of the Administration—and he ought to be in the best position to do so—the definite aim is to restore rural life to millions who have been herded into the cities. That does not mean setting many millions more people at work in the highly competitive business of farming, as Mr. Wallace explains it, but it means the establishment of local industries, utilizing local raw materials, in country districts where the farms and forests can supply the materials readily on the one hand, and where the local population will be the primary customers for the output of those industries.

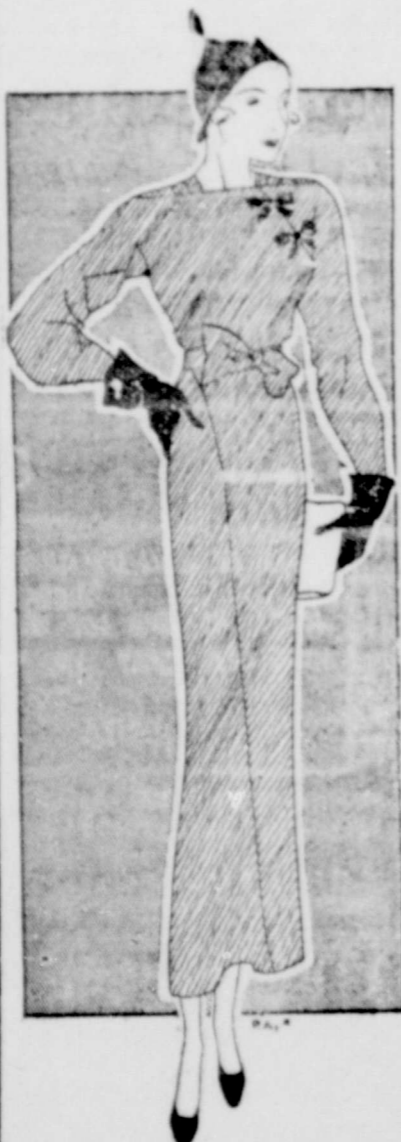

As an ideal to be aimed at, this cannot be too highly praised. Taking the lumber industry as an example, and the goal of Mr. Wallace's program of reforesting all the less desirable agricultural land as having been achieved, what could be more natural, even inevitable, than the establishment of local woodworking plants in every reforested district, to say nothing of such other industries as depend upon wood products for their raw material, like certain kinds of rayon, methyl alcohol and other chemical processes.

Such a program as that will take time and a lot of it. It ought not to take so long to get industries established in agricultural regions where the raw materials are the product of annual crops, like cotton, corn or wheat.

We hope this general idea will be stimulated and encouraged. It seems at the moment doubtful whether many of the big industries will regard it as economical to manufacture their products in thousands of scattered plants; yet Henry Ford does just that, and does it successfully. It is time that the concentration of industry in big factories in big cities, which began when steam power was introduced, were done away with. With electric current universally distributed it is easy to operate power machinery on the farm as in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Collins attended the Lamesa Matador ball game in Matador Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Eubank visited in Lubbock Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Eubank's parents.

THE VERY LATEST

The early or first spring frocks which are scheduled for a showing not so many weeks away are reflected in this light crinkly wool frock for right now wear.

First of all, sleeves are coming back to straight lines, even though they may be full. While hip lines still demand and get attention, the athletic figure will likely have its vogue in the spring, so skirts now have already commenced to show a fullness in style line.

The frock or daytime dress above is a beige gray with two pert black bows placed well up toward the left shoulder. With black gloves and hat the effect is a conservative smartness that hints of chic tailoring.

Miss Faye Foote, of Sudan, Miss Edith Sanders, of Lubbock, and Messrs. Paul Whitfield and Hubert Couch, of Anton, visited in Floydada Thanksgiving Day with Kendall Onstott. The party went to Lubbock for the Tech-Kansas ball game Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunn, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. S. J. Dunn, visited in Crosbyton Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Dunn and family, Mr. Dunn's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement McDonald, of Quitaque, visited Sunday and Sunday night here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Kirk, of this city, had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kenniston, Mrs. Kirk's parents, her brother, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kenniston and sister, Miss Elizabeth Kenniston, of Plainview, Sunday.

Bank for Cooperatives Ready to Consider Applications For Farmer Loans

Houston, December 4.—A. C. Williams, general agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston and acting president of the Bank for Cooperatives, announced today that the Houston Bank for Cooperatives is ready to consider applications for loans to farmers' cooperative associations. James A. Smith, treasurer, and John B. Jones, secretary, who were elected at the meeting of the directors in Houston last week, took up their duties Tuesday morning.

"The first two applications received by Houston Bank for Cooperatives were from widely separated farmers' cooperatives in Texas," said Mr. Williams. "Loans requested by these borrowing cooperatives were for effective merchandising of vegetables and alfalfa, and financing the respective organizations. The amounts of the loans applied for vary from $10,000 to $30,000."

The Houston Bank for Cooperatives, capitalized at $5,000,000, will make loans to farmers' cooperative associations to provide working capital for their business operations and provide capital to finance or refinance the purchase or lease of necessary buildings and equipment. This bank will make loans to farmers' cooperative purchasing organizations as well as cooperative processing and marketing organizations. The interest rate will be 4 1/2 per cent on long term loans, at this time, for buildings and equipment owned or leased by cooperatives. Short-term loans usually not to exceed 12 months, on working capital for merchandising of agricultural commodities and food products, will bear 4 per cent interest.

Under the law, all cooperative associations borrowing from the Houston Bank for Cooperatives, are required to own at the time the loan is made, stock of this bank, in the amount of $100 for every $2,000 or fraction thereof of the amount of the loan. In other words, on a loan of $10,000 the stock requirement would be $500.

The Houston Bank for Cooperatives was the sixth regional cooperative bank to be organized in the United States. One will be established in each land bank district. These twelve regional banks and the Central Bank for Cooperatives which is located at Washington, D. C., were authorized by the Farm Credit Act of 1933.

State Health Department Advances Warning About Shelled Pecans

Austin, Texas, December 4.—Pecans, the favorite nut of thousands of people, may be a source for the spread of disease, according to E. C. Koerth, director, Bureau of Food and Drugs. The pecan itself is not to blame, but the manner in which it is shelled and later handled is the cause for this warning.

The shelled pecan industry has assumed large proportions in the last few years and the shellers in other states have attacked the Texas product on the ground that the shelled nuts are not handled in a sanitary manner. The large packing houses that have the nuts shelled in their own packing plants maintain a satisfactory standard of sanitation. The evil of the shelled pecan industry is where pecans are taken into individual homes where no supervision is possible.

Many Mexicans, Negroes, and a few whites do this work at home, with at times the neighbors coming in to help them out. It is possible for the communicable diseases to spread by shelled pecans, and for that reason it will be to the public's advantage to ask where the pecans were shelled and under what conditions. The food inspectors of the State Department of Health have investigated the home shelling of pecans for hire and report that many homes where this work is done are most unsanitary.

All persons engaged in shelling pecans should have a health certificate the same as any other food handler. The purchaser should demand that the pecans they buy shall have been shelled by such a person and handled in a sanitary manner and under supervision to lessen the chances for the spread of tuberculosis, colds, dysentery, typhoid, and other diseases.

One Murder—Two Confessions

A COMFORTABLE REDUCING DIET

Who wouldn't enjoy reducing with such an array of appetizing eatables as shown above. Research workers say it can be done; that his business of taking off weight need not be a hardship.

Results of a study supervised by Dr. Leo K. Campbell of Rush Medical College, Chicago, reveal the fact that a person can reduce and still completely satisfy his appetite.

The diet used, of which the above foods are typical, is as follows:

TOP: Breakfast—1 serving of fruit; 1 egg; 1 slice of toast; 1 pat of butter; coffee (black or with very little cream and sugar).

MIDDLE: Lunch—2 servings of vegetables (1 cooked and 1 raw); 1 small serving of lean meat, or 1 egg, or 1 tablespoon cottage cheese; 1 slice of bread; 1 pat of butter; 1 glass of milk; 1 serving of fruit.

BOTTOM: Dinner—1 large serving of lean meat; 2 servings of vegetables (1 cooked and 1 raw); 1 slice of bread; 1 pat of butter; 1 glass of milk; 1 serving of fruit.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poisons. Cosmetics won't help at all.

Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. Big at drug stores. Refuse "something just as good" for it may scribe, loosen teeth or erode rectum. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for. ©1932, C.M.Co.
