Dallas Firm Picked For Master Planning

By DON HENRY
It took only 35 minutes for a special committee Thursday night to select the engineering firm of Forrest & Cotton to conduct a master planning survey of Big Spring.

committee members recommend to their respective boards that the costs be split 65 per cent for the city, 10 per cent for the school district, 20 per cent for the county, and five for HCJC.
Broken down to dollars — based on $53,000 for the survey and $40,000 for maps — the costs and percentages:

being listed among the first items of consideration.
The $53,000 includes printing 250 copies of the master plan report. Forrest & Cotton was picked over Homer Hunter of Dallas and Ken Esmond of Odessa, respectively, by the committee. The other firms, Freese & Nichols of Fort Worth; S. B. Zisman of San Antonio; Vogt, Ivers, Seaman of Cincinnati, Ohio; and Parkhill, Smith & Cooper of Lubbock, were given less consideration during the 35 minutes of discussion.

$1,300,000 In Construction Contracts Slated At Webb

Contracts are expected to be formally awarded in the next few days for $1,300,000 of construction at Webb AFB.
Three days of bid tabulations were completed Thursday by the Corps of Engineers in Fort Worth. Contracts will be awarded as soon as it is determined none of the apparent low bids contain errors.

of $356,999 was apparent low on construction of an alert hangar. United Enterprises Inc. (New Orleans) was apparent low bidder on a maintenance hangar with a proposal of $714,733.
The alert hangar will enclose some 21,100 square feet. The maintenance hangar will occupy about 40,900 square feet.

fense Command unit now stationed at Webb. Architectural and engineering services for the project are furnished by Puckett & French of Big Spring.
Bidding was extremely close on all of the work, the Corps of Engineers reported. Suggs Construction Co. was second low on readiness crew and flight simulator buildings with an offer of $234,851 — just $1,000 above Pioneer Builders. Suggs was in fifth place on the maintenance hangar, although the firm's bid was only about $17,000 higher than the winning $714,733 offer.

Doctor Sits In Jail While Victim's Funeral Pends

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—A graying, dignified appearing doctor sat in a jail cell today while arrangements were made for the funeral of the prominent attorney he shot down Wednesday.
Dr. Harold Eidinoff waited under a murder charge, without bond, as authorities tried to decide their next step. A year ago he had been adjudged insane. Three months later he was released.

calmly, onlookers said. A bystander heard Mrs. Andrews scream and grappled with the gunman.
An officer took over and found that under a dark leather jacket the gunman wore a bullet proof vest. A little later, police discovered the gunman was Dr. Eidinoff, also 50.
Police Lt. Al Hijar said Thursday Eidinoff had spoken readily of the shooting and blamed Andrews for a long period of legal trouble, accusing Andrews of showing nude photographs of Eidinoff and his first wife, taken on their honeymoon 22 years ago.

Held In Slaying

Dr. Harold Eidinoff attempts to duck photographers as he was booked in El Paso in connection with the fatal shooting of Ted Andrews, El Paso attorney and school board member. The killing, which took place at the International Airport, climaxed a legal feud of several years between the two men.

More Cuban Trials Begin

HAVANA (AP)—Further trials of Batista officers are under way in Santiago de Cuba, capital of easternmost Oriente Province. Army Lt. Vicente Ruiz was sentenced to death there Thursday.
War crimes trials resume in Havana today after a three-day break. The names of those to face the military courts in Havana have not been disclosed, but they were believed to be lesser offenders.
Two tribunals were planned in the capital, one at La Cabana military fortress where most of those under arrest are confined, and the other at the Camp Columbia army headquarters.

Father Lorenzo consented to represent them after trained attorneys had refused to take the assignment.

Congress Help Is Better Paid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many congressional hired hands are faring better financially than are their bosses.
It is estimated that 248 of them are being paid more than $16,000 each per year, while more than 500 others are eligible for upwards of $10,000 each.
That's considerably less than the $22,500 annual salary paid senators and representatives, but the difference is more imaginary than real.
Out of his annual salary, a senator or representative usually must finance two homes, one here and one in his home state, and must foot the bill for campaign costs, contribute to all sorts of charities, and entertain visiting constituents.
The average employe has no such expense, although some of them kick in modest sums to the boss' campaign funds. It's considered good job insurance.

BULLETIN

CHICAGO (AP)—From 8 to 12 persons were reported trapped today in a burning nursing home west of Chicago.

First Baby Gets A New Kind Of Publicity

HOUSTON (AP)—Estelle Posey was a celebrity the minute she was born 30 days ago, Houston's first baby of 1959.
"A seven-pound girl born to Mrs. Betty Posey, 28, right on the stroke of 12."
But fame was short for Estelle. Her father, Charles Posey, 40, was stabbed to death six months before she was born.
Soon after her birth, city detectives raised a little fund for the almost destitute mother. They marvelled at the way she kept her child, clean and neat, hair brushed and clothes crisply starched and ironed.

The small police fund dwindled quickly and the mother asked friends with more money to take five of the seven children. The couple, receiving $66 monthly welfare benefits, said they would do what they could. So in moved five little Poseys, including Estelle.
Last week, Trinity County deputy Sheriff Lynn Evans heard an unusual complaint. A cow had been killed on the highway. Estelle's host had stripped the carcass.
"His said the cow was frozen," the deputy said, "that he thought it was perfectly good."
Apparently it had caused the children no ill effects. But a county attorney filed a petition to declare the children wards of the state.

The hearing was held Monday in Groveton and Judge Robert Liles declared the children neglected and dependent. He took the children—Cheryl 5, Eugene 4, Louise 3, Garrett 1, and Estelle—to Conroe in his own automobile.
"Witnesses testified that pig stys in the area were cleaner than the house in which the children were being kept," the judge said.
And last night, clean again and well fed, the Posey children slept in Conroe's Kiwanis Club shelter. They're wards of the state now, the judge said.
And Estelle, 30 days old today, may not remember how fleeting is fame.

Mexico Stirs Over Incidents

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Hostility to a world neighboring Guatemala mounted in Mexico today, fired by a report that Guatemalan demarcators had destroyed a border bridge and Guatemalan planes had flown over a Mexican city in the southern area.
Guatemalan police in turn charged that 20 armed Mexicans had crossed the border Thursday and plundered the village of Santa Ana.
Mexico's government Party of Revolutionary Institutions called on half a million persons to assemble in Mexico City Sunday before the Presidential Palace to demonstrate support for President Adolfo Lopez Mateos.
Lopez Mateos broke diplomatic relations with Guatemala last week after President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes had rejected a Mexican protest against the strafing of Mexican fishing boats. Three fishermen were killed. Guatemala claimed they were trespassing.

Sen. Green Quits Post

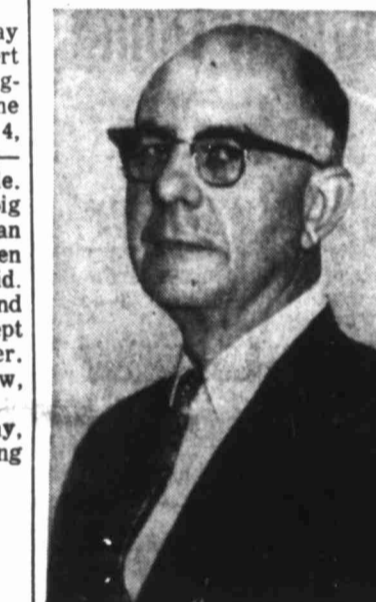

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ninety-one-year-old Sen. Theodore Francis Green (D-RI) today submitted his resignation as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He gave falling eyesight and hearing as his reason.
The Providence (R.I.) Journal had called editorially Thursday for Green to step down. The editorial said it believed Green lacked the physical strength and was too old to hold the important post at this time.
Green's letter to Johnson said "as we both well know, my decision to resign is not based upon misleading newspaper articles or slanted editorials by a few callous newspaper writers."
Green underwent an eye operation at Lankenau Hospital in Philadelphia last fall for the removal of a cataract.

United Fund Chairmen Honored

These are some of the Howard County United Fund leaders who received certificates of appreciation at the annual UF membership meeting Thursday. Left to right are Dan Krausse, budget chairman; Lewis Price, general campaign director; Horace Garrett, big gifts division; R. H. Weaver, public employe gifts; and Cliff Fisher, general employe gifts. Clyde McMahon, right, retiring president, presented the awards.

RAYMOND RIVER

AWARDS GIVEN

Raymond River Is New UF President

Presidency of the United Fund of Big Spring and Howard County passed Thursday evening to Raymond River.
River, who has held many key jobs in Fund campaigns and who was the organization's vice president this past year, succeeds Clyde McMahon.
Other new officers are: K. D. Hest, vice president; Jack Davis, treasurer, and W. H. Wharton, secretary.

Dan Krausse, budget committee chairman.
A financial statement showed that the UF has total resources of $78,434.49, and has obligations (reimbursements due member agencies and operating expenses) of $68,272.49. It is dependent upon continued collection of outstanding pledges (in the amount of $28,725.35) to maintain its balances.
New trustees elected Thursday night: Lawrence Adkins, Andy Brown, Wayne Burns, Chester Cathey, Burl Cramer, John Currie, Roy Cornelison, Sonny Cole, Jack Davis, Mrs. Curtis Driver, R. M. Dean, Wesley Deats, Marion Edwards, Mrs. W. A. French, Tom Guin, Cui Griggs, Fred Gebert.

Poison Smog Hits Britain

LONDON (AP)—Choking clouds of frightening smog lifted slightly from London today but still rolled their poisonous way across the rest of Britain.
Londoners hoped that the break meant there would be no repetition of the "yellow death" smog that killed 12,000 persons in Britain in 1952.
Enough fog was left, however, to slow all road and rail traffic. The capital's airport, 20 miles from the city center, was completely closed in.
Dense smog settled on Manchester, metropolis of the north. But a quick break in the Western approaches gave ships the chance to run for Welsh ports.
Government scientists warned that the concentration of smoke and poisonous fumes in the fog already is worse than on the first day of the killer smog in December, 1952.

Lawrence Adkins, Andy Brown, Wayne Burns, Chester Cathey, Burl Cramer, John Currie, Roy Cornelison, Sonny Cole, Jack Davis, Mrs. Curtis Driver, R. M. Dean, Wesley Deats, Marion Edwards, Mrs. W. A. French, Tom Guin, Cui Griggs, Fred Gebert.
Also J. R. Hensley, Joe Holliday, W. A. Hunt, Mrs. J. E. Hogan, Mrs. Jack Irons, Col. James A. Johnson, Floyd R. Mays, R. R. McEwen Jr., Mrs. K. H. McGibbon, Mrs. Clyde McMahon.
Also, Arnold Marshall, Floyd McIntyre, Mrs. Don Newsom, Wendall Parks, Randall Polk, Champ Rainwater, Ike Robb, Fred Sallings, Adolph Swartz, A. K. Steinheimer, Leroy Tidwell, R. H. Weaver, Jack Wallace, Ralph White and Wayland Yates.

POLL TAX SCORE

Table with 4 columns: Year, Exemptions, Total. Rows for 1958 and 1957.

Tax Office To Open Saturday For Tardy Voters To Qualify

Your last chance to obtain a poll tax receipt or an exemption certificate, if you qualify for such an exemption, expires at midnight Saturday.
The office of the tax collector will remain open all day and to midnight Saturday as a convenience to belated citizens who have not qualified themselves to vote in the 1959 elections.
Friday morning, 4,568 poll tax receipts had been issued. Exemption certificates granted stood at 1,337. The total qualified voters for 1959 balloting stood at 5,925. This was lower than the 6,342 registered at the same date in 1958 and nearly 1,000 under the total at this time in 1957.
Highest number of poll tax and exemption certificate receipts issued in recent years was in 1955 — 10,363.
Poll tax is $1.75 for most citizens. For a few persons who suffer certain disabilities, the cost is $1. It was the practice in other years to grant exemption certificates to such persons but the law has now been changed and they must pay the reduced fee.
Exemption certificates are issued to all citizens who were 60 years of age or older on Jan. 1, 1958. There is no fee. Exemption certificates are also available for new residents of the state who have moved into Texas in the last year but have not resided in the state for a full 12 months period.
Such certificates entitle these new citizens to vote after they have been a resident of the state for a year and of the county for the required six months. Certain individuals who are not quite 21 years of age but who will become 21 ahead of the election dates are also eligible for exemption certificates.
The office of the tax collector anticipates a sizeable turnout of last-minute poll tax applicants.
It also expects that a considerable number of taxpayers will show up at the office to pay their current real and personal taxes—in order to save their property from becoming tax delinquent.
All property taxes become delinquent on Feb. 1.
Such tax bills bear a penalty of 1.5 per cent if not paid before midnight on Jan. 31. The office reported that the percentage of unpaid real and personal taxes is small but that the actual figure is not yet known.

Experts Make Statements At Senate Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Directors of the nation's civilian space efforts said today the Soviet Lunik, or moonshot, was a success.
Three experts of the National Aeronautic and Space Agency testified the moon shot showed powerful thrust and a good system of guidance.
Dr. Homer Stewart, a NASA planner, said the same guidance system could direct an intercontinental ballistic missile more than 5,000 miles to a target with an error of less than 15 to 20 miles.

Questions by the Senate space and preparedness groups inquiring into military might indicated that the Soviets remain ahead in the race for outer space.
Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), chairman of both the space and preparedness group, recounted the series of spectacular Soviet successes with satellites and then said: "This committee wants to know where we now stand. When can the American people expect to catch up with the Russians?"
Dr. T. Keith Glennan, administrator of NASA, accompanied by Stewart and Dr. William H. Pickering, director of NASA's jet propulsion laboratory, answered questions about the Soviet moon shot.

MORE THRUST

Glennan said it proved that the Russians have substantially more thrust or power for satellites and missiles than this country had developed.
Stewart estimated that a power thrust of between 250,000 and one million pounds was used to hurl the Lunik into space.
With advanced equipment, he said, the moon shot vehicle might succeed with as low as a quarter of a million pound thrust. If the equipment was poor it might take a million pounds, he added.
Stewart said the guidance directing the shot was "of good quality" and timing of the shot indicated an effort either to hit the moon or pass close to it.

Pickering said tracking stations in California tried to catch the Russian moon shot on its initial phase and missed, but later received several hours of signals from far out in outer space.
He said other tracking stations also did good work signals.
"It did go out past the moon," Pickering said.

Pentagon space and missile leaders expected for questioning include Dr. Herbert York, director of research and engineering; William M. Holdaway, guided missile chief; Roy Johnson, director of the Advanced Research Projects Agency; and Dr. Werner von Braun, German-born director of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency.

BUILDUP URGED

Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, the Air Force's top missile man, testified Thursday. He urged a greater buildup in long-range rockets to counter a "very dangerous...ballistic missile threat" from the Soviet Union.
Schriever said the deterrent powers of the United States and its chances of survival are endangered by Soviet possession of a long-range missile.
Secretary of Defense McElroy said in his opening testimony the United States does not plan to match the Russians on intercontinental ballistic missile production in the next two years.

But he said later that the first operational base for Atlas ICBMs will be in use next June at California's Vandenberg Air Force Base.

The counsel for the Senate group, Edwin Weis, interpreted McElroy's testimony as meaning the first operational squadron of ICBMs will be ready in July of this year. McElroy did not challenge this statement, but a high Air Force official later said it didn't quite reflect the situation.
The official told a newsman "we will have some operational capability then" but that a full squadron of about 10 missiles probably will not be ready for several months after that.

McElroy explained during his testimony that production of the Snark missile is continuing on a limited basis but gradually will be terminated after one squadron is equipped with them.

McElroy disclosed he had a written agreement signed by the individual members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff there are no serious gaps in the country's new military budget and that it is adequate.

Hardin-Simmons Exes Told Of Problems Facing U.S. Colleges

Some 60 former students of Hardin-Simmons University last night heard the story of increasing demands being placed on institutions of higher education by mushrooming population and enrollment of higher percentages of college-age young people.

Outlining the problem were Dr. E. A. Reiff, H-SU president; Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, president emeritus; and other officials of the school.

They were here in the interest of Hardin-Simmons plans for providing facilities for an enrollment of 3,000 to 3,500 in the next few years. Present enrollment is about 1,600.

One former student met for a dinner session at the First Baptist Church. After hearing the university officials appeal for support, several were named to a committee to conduct a "low pressure" financial campaign among local ex-students and friends of the school.

Another committee — made up of Mitchell Malouf, Mack Alexander, Forrest Gambill and Mrs. Erma Stewart — was appointed to explore the possibilities of forming an ex-students association here.

Dr. Reiff traced a continuous struggle to provide adequate facilities for the school from its modest beginning in 1890. He said the fire which destroyed Behrens Auditorium a year ago triggered the current $1.5 million expansion campaign which actually had been in the planning stage for several years.

So far, the drive has raised $705,000 in cash and pledges from about 1,500 people.

"We hope to have 5,000 to 10,000 persons participating by the time we're through," Dr. Reiff said.

Construction was ordered this week on a new chapel-auditorium, a new student center, and enlargement of Caldwell Hall, music building.

day if we take care of our share of the "war baby" crop which will hit the nation's colleges in 1960." Dr. Reiff said, "We've also got to start getting ready for 10 years hence."

"They say America is riding yesterday's train in education today. We don't want Hardin-Simmons to remain in that boat, and we invite you to join with us in meeting the problem."

Dr. Richardson, who introduced his successor in the H-SU presidency, pointed out that Hardin-Simmons has numerous Big Spring friends who have aided the school materially and otherwise in the past.

"Our current expansion program is well under way. We know it will succeed if our needs can be laid before our ex-students and friends," he said.

Statistics were released showing that the Texas birth rate is up 111 per cent since 1940. The percentage of college-age youths seeking college training has increased by 210 per cent.

Similar trends are evident throughout the nation, the H-SU officials said. College enrollment which now totals about 4 million is expected to hit 8 million within 10 years.

To accommodate the flood of students, American colleges will have to do more in the next 10 years than they have done in the last 300, the educators said.

Accompanying Dr. Richardson and Dr. Reiff here were Duane Amburn, presidential assistant; Dr. William Mathis, dean of the H-SU School of Music; and Dave Timok, university photographer.

Bail Jumper, Theft Suspect Involved In Stolen Car Case

Law enforcement officers are attempting to untangle the activities of a Big Spring bond jumper arrested on Thursday in Drumright, Okla., in a car which another Big Spring man is accused of having stolen.

The man sought for the car theft is missing, and the FBI, as well as the officers of Oklahoma and Texas, are endeavoring to find him and determine how the two men and the hot car got together.

Doyle Nelson, 23, was indicted here last week on charges of forgery. He was at liberty on $1,500 bond prior to the grand jury session. He did not show up on the date his case was called, and his bond has been ordered cancelled.

Thursday, Nelson was arrested in Drumright, after the car in which he was traveling had been involved in a hit-and-run accident. The car, according to Miller Harris, sheriff, was one stolen from the Tarbox-Gossett used car lot here on Jan. 23. Sought for by its thief is Guy Gambill, former salesman for the motor company.

Officers said that Tarbox-Gossett found a note signed by Gambill on that date in which he told them his mother was ill in an unnamed town and that he was "borrowing" the car to go to her bedside. Car theft charges were filed against him.

Drumright officers said that Nelson said he had last seen Gambill in Lubbock. He does not know his present whereabouts, he insists.

Records at the sheriff's office show that Gambill, 37, and Nelson were cellmates in the county jail in the interval between Sept. 5 and Dec. 31, Gambill, then giving the Howard House as his address, was arrested for writing a worthless check on Sept. 5. He pleaded guilty to the charge in county court, and his fine and jail sentence aggregated 117 days which he served. He was freed on the last day of the year.

60 On Honor Roll At LHS

LAMESA — Sixty students were listed on the "A" honor roll for the fall semester at Lamesa High School.

The honor roll was released Thursday by the office of High School Principal Abe Holder. Twenty-one boys and 39 girls were "A" students.

Census Deadline Is Noon Saturday

Response has been great, but the school district again urged parents with children who haven't been counted for the school census to report by Saturday noon.

Dan Conley, who is supervising the annual census, asked parents of these children to call the census office, AM 4-6619, by noon Saturday, the deadline.

The census applies to any child who will be six years of age or before Sept. 1 of this year or who will be under 18 on that date, Conley said.

He added that the office has been swamped with calls about children who had not been enumerated, but he felt that there were still some who had not been reported.

Lutheran Leaders Confer Here

PLAN

and junior college growth, parks and recreational areas, water and sewer line extensions, public buildings, airport development, land use, and hospitals.

Springer also added he would make a study of housing, which was not set out by the committee in calling for proposals.

Forrest & Cotton felt that the city could get back as much as $12,500 of its $15,000 fee should the city elect to follow its suggested water, sewer, and street plans and retain the firm to engineer such projects to completion.

It was pointed out that Hunter and the Parkhill Smith & Cooper would do the same thing, this being a common practice among engineering firms entering into such surveys.

Now the members will return to their various groups and recommend that the firm be employed. Working on the committee are Ralph White and Hudson Landers, County Commissioners Court; Dr. Malone and John Coffey, HCJC; Clyde McMahon and Dr. Floyd Mays, school board; Dr. Lee O. Rogers and Zachariah, City Commission, and Dr. J. E. Hogan and Dr. W. A. Hunt, Chamber of Commerce.

All but Dr. Hunt were present Thursday.

C-C PROJECT

The master plan idea originated last winter when Dr. Hogan, as president of the Chamber, outlined it as a Chamber goal.

The Chamber studied the matter and with the help of Esmond, who recently completed a like plan for Odessa, presented it to civic leaders in a mass meeting in the summer. The Chamber then asked the city to continue the study, and the commission agreed.

The group considered seeking federal aid in the financing and drew up a list of firms which were acceptable to the government.

However, after some study, local sponsors learned it would be almost impossible to secure the needed aid and dropped the idea of federal participation.

The committee appointed by the different agencies then interviewed each of the firms and kept the bids unopened until Thursday night when the committee met to make a selection.

Khrushy Doing A Job For Us

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Nikita Khrushchev is doing a job for us, according to a propaganda that the west seems unable to do for itself.

Khrushchev's statements to the 21st Soviet Communist Congress show fear among leaders of countries he has been hoping to impress. His protests about the purity of Soviet intentions toward the West are being taken as a skeptical reception.

Khrushchev solemnly told the Soviet Communist Congress that the U.S.S.R. "never interferes and has no intention of interfering in the domestic affairs of other countries." Only a few sentences beyond that, he opened his cold, Barmal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic. Nasser was "wrong" to take action against the Communists in Syria and Egypt.

Such Khrushchev protestations of innocence must have sounded strange, too, to the Soviet Union's Finnish neighbors. Only a short time ago Moscow seriously menaced Finland's economy by halting Soviet-Finnish trade because Finland had installed a conservative government. Relations didn't improve until Finland got a government that promised to get along with Moscow.

Soviet and Chinese Communists are causing concern in Asia, particularly in Indonesia where President Sukarno seems to be backing away cautiously from the bear's embrace.

Asians are alert to the pressure Moscow placed upon Yugoslavia's Tito. The Yugoslav president now is winding up an Eastern trip. His neutralist attitude has been equated in Indonesia and elsewhere in south Asia with the Panjasilas-five principles of peaceful coexistence which require strict non-interference in another's affairs.

The Panjasilas also are known as the Bandung principles adopted by African and Asian countries at Bandung, Indonesia, in 1955. Red China and the U.S.S.R., by their pressure on Tito, are viewed by many in Asia now as violators of those principles.

Whenever the Communists have an opportunity to throw charges of interference and imperialism at the United States, there is a great propaganda boom and cry. Moscow makes the most of such situations. But when the shoe is on the other foot, Western propaganda seems to take little advantage of it.

Guilty Pleas Due Next Week

Defendants billed by the recent grand jury who have indicted they desire to enter pleas of guilty to the charges against them will probably get their opportunity to do so early next week.

Gil Jones, district attorney, said he would not make any attempt to have the guilty plea hearings on Friday due to the fact that the court was busy with civil matters.

On Monday and Tuesday, Judge Charles Sullivan and Jones will be in Glasscock County where a grand jury is to be in action.

It seemed probable that the 11 persons who told the court Thursday they desired to plead guilty cannot be accommodated until Wednesday.

Jones said, however, he anticipated a very short session of the Glasscock County grand jury and that he might be back in Big Spring early enough Monday to present some of the cases if Judge Sullivan so desired.

Traffic Deaths Creep Downward

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents in the United States took a heavy toll in 1958, but the number of persons killed, 37,000, was the lowest since 1954.

The National Safety Council, reporting today on motor vehicle accidents said it estimates that 1,300,000 persons suffered crippling traffic injuries.

The cost, including property destruction, wage loss, medical expense and overhead cost of insurance, was put at $5,400,000,000.

"When you think of the price we are still paying for highway accidents in life and limb and money," the council commented, "there is little cause for complacency or satisfaction over the reduction of the death toll."

'Y' Campaign Exceeds Goal By 10.9 Per Cent

The YMCA membership campaign victory dinner turned out to be just that and more Thursday evening.

Reports at the final session of the general division—and there may be more reports to come—showed the goal had been exceeded by 10.9 per cent. The over-all goal, general and sustaining, was over by 10.9 per cent.

Dan Krause, general membership chairman, expressed appreciation to workers and to those who have supported the YMCA through memberships. He regarded it as a strong vote of confidence, following as it did on the heels of a capital funds campaign.

The general division had enlisted 701 members for $6,960 as compared with a quota of 600 members and $6,000. The sustaining member division had 160 members for $5,405. Together this made 861 members for $12,365, whereas the objective had been 750 members and $11,500.

One of the oddities of the campaign was the receipt of some capital funds gifts. Previously $450 contribution and a $5 a month pledge to the building fund, were reported. Thursday another $100 building fund gift came in. Moreover, there were some people who telephoned the YMCA to say they had not been contacted for membership and they wanted to join.

Bill Quimby's (C) division set the pace in the general group with 245 members for $2,418. Ranking next was Roy Worley's (D) division with 174 members and $1,665. Following were the (A) division headed by Joe Pickle with 144 members and $1,455, and the (B) division headed by Wendal Parks with 138 members and $1,422.

Robert R. McEwen was the high individual worker with 33 members, just four short of the all-time record hung up by Grover God, former general secretary of the Y. George McAlister's team got 71 members, eclipsing the old record of 62 set by a team headed by Sonny Edwards.

Bill Hensley, with 10 members, was the pace-setter of the sustaining division.

Team captains surpassing quotas were Mrs. J. L. Johnson, Mrs. J. D. Caudle, Mrs. Franklin Nugent, Jerry Worthy, Al Milch, Kate Irons, Ell McComb, Tom South and Pete Cook as well as McEwen and McAlister.

New quota busters, not previously reported, were Justin Holmes, E. L. Terry, John Gary, Louis Gene Thompson, Mrs. G. H. Wood, John Dibrell, Warren Wilson, Roy Worley.

Except to contact renewal prospects not reached during the campaign, the membership drive is concluded, said Bob Hardy, general Y secretary. It was billed as a four-day campaign and that's the way it will be, he said.

Crockett Wildcat 'Blows Out,' Flow Pegged At 7,500 Barrels

Oil estimated to run over 7,500-10,000 barrels the day blew out of a Crockett County wildcat this morning before crews were able to contain it.

Locally, a new Ellenburger wildcat has been struck in Borden County, and the Texas Co. located another try in the Good Southeast (Fusselman) field of the same county.

The Crockett wildcat, Turner No. 3 Shannon, about five miles southeast of Iraan, was coring in the Queen sand at 1,851 feet with cable tools at the time of the blow-out. It kicked off and started flowing and in doing so blew the tools out of the hole.

Oil gushed into the air from 200-250 feet, and engineers pegged the flow at between 7,500 and 10,000 barrels per day. Crews were finally able about 11 a.m. to get the flow shut off. Prior to the blow-out, operator had reported 100 per cent anhydrite in the Queen formation.

Virginia Sets Integration

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Officials make preparations today for Monday's opening in Norfolk and Arlington of Virginia's first integrated public schools. Charlottesville got a delay.

A group of segregationists sought a test of legislative power with the state administration.

A rapid-fire series of events Thursday brought these developments to a head from stretching from Baltimore, Md., to Norfolk.

1. Judge Simon E. Sobeloff of the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals refused to stay a lower court order directing the admission of four Negro pupils Monday to Stratford Junior High School in Arlington.

He did, however, grant Charlottesville a temporary postponement of its desegregation order.

Sobeloff told the Charlottesville School Board to submit within 20 days to U.S. Dist. Judge John Paul a plan which the board proposes to bridge the gap between segregated and integrated classrooms. If Judge Paul feels the plan is a full step toward compliance with the desegregation order, then the school board has until next September to accomplish complete integration.

2. School officials in Norfolk announced plans to reopen six white secondary schools, closed since September, on an integrated basis Monday and called on the public to "show sincere understanding and cooperation to assure a smooth, orderly opening."

3. Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. rejected the appeals of a segregationist bloc in the General Assembly for approval of emergency legislation that would delay the integration plans in Norfolk and Arlington.

A showdown between the no-integration forces and the Almond administration appeared imminent in the Legislature. At the same time, Alexandria school officials were called on to defend in federal court their rejection of 14 Negro applications for admission to white schools.

Cops Converted, Charges Are Filed

FORT WORTH (AP)—Murder charges were filed today against a dishwasher who had a hard time getting anyone to believe his confession.

David Perales, 30, was charged with killing Mrs. Lila Mae McRummond, 44.

Perales' story at first fell on unbelieving ears.

He told police he was in his room at his hotel about 12:15 a.m. Wednesday when Mrs. McRummond came in uninvited. He said she was a stranger to him.

Perales said the woman opened a beer, disrobed, danced around him, lay on a bed and began yelling. He strangled her then, he said.

Police, who thought she had died of natural causes, saw things Perales' way after an autopsy showed Mrs. McRummond died of strangulation.

Train Accident Victim Is 'Holding Own' In Hospital

Roy Holler, 37, oil field driller whose right arm was crushed under the wheels of a T&P freight train Wednesday afternoon, continues to make satisfactory progress at the Big Spring Hospital, it was reported by relatives this morning.

Holler, in addition to losing his right arm and most of his right shoulder in the mishap, also sustained a skull fracture, it was said. He is in a semi-conscious condition but physically is holding his own and, unless complications develop, will recover.

Relatives were told that the wheels of the train as they passed over the man's body seemed to have either pinched shut or scoured over the arteries and veins. Officers who were at the scene of the accident four miles east of here, were amazed at the small loss of blood sustained by the victim. Doctors said that this circumstance probably contributed materially to Holler's survival.

Edison Case Ready For Jury

DENVER (AP)—The trial of Oma Roy Edison was expected to go to a U.S. District Court jury today. The 42-year-old Tyler, Tex., oil worker is accused of abducting 12-year-old Susan Dudek from near her Durango, Colo., home last July 18. The girl later was assaulted and released near Artec, N.M.

Eidson, if convicted, could be given the death penalty. Rival attorneys said they would complete their cases today in final arguments before a jury of seven men and five women.

Eidson testified yesterday that a friend he met in a tavern borrowed his car for four hours the afternoon Susan was kidnapped.

The husky, dark-haired defendant testified earlier that he went shopping for groceries during the afternoon of July 18.

Susan testified for nearly two hours earlier this week. She pointed out Eidson as her attacker.

DEAR ABBY

LEAP YEAR GONE

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been in love with a man for six years, but I feel cheap because he has never actually asked me out. We have spent a lot of time together but it has been all my doing. I manage to "accidentally" turn up where I know he will be. I have invited him over to my apartment and have asked him to be my escort to places I am invited. But, Abby, what gets me is that he always accepts, and seems to enjoy my company. He doesn't go with anybody else. WHY doesn't he ask me out? Am I making a fool out of myself or not? How can I get this man?

DISCOURAGED DEAR DISCOURAGED: After six years, he knows it is no "accident" that you "turn up" wherever he is, if he had any serious intentions, he would have expressed them by now. Drop the secret. You'll never trap him while he is still young enough to run.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for almost a year and my husband's snoring keeps getting worse and worse. What causes it? He never snored a bit before we were married. Thank you.

CAN'T SLEEP DEAR CAN'T: Better have him see a doctor. Maybe he has ALWAYS snored but you've never noticed it.

DEAR ABBY: My husband recently passed away after 28 years of philandering, lying and heavy drinking. My old sweetheart that I gave the brush-off to 30 years ago called on me. His wife passed away 8 years ago. Before he was in the house 10 minutes he was begging me to marry him. He said he never stopped loving me. His character is beyond reproach, which is more than I can say for myself. He is a loyal church-goer and a High Degree member of his lodge. I told him everything and he said, "Let me cast the first stone." Then the big dope put his arms around me and almost cracked my ribs. Do you think it is too late for me to turn over a new leaf and make this man happy?

SINNED DEAR SINNED (and who hasn't?): Of course you can make him happy. You have a winning combination: Humility, honesty and the willingness to do better. Good luck!

DEAR ABBY: I have trouble with blondes. Every time I go for a girl and she is a blonde she turns out to be a gold-digger. I notice on TV whenever they have a gold-digger she is a blonde. The last blonde I went with asked me to buy her a record every time I took her out. She kept me bused buying her records. Should I pass up all blondes & keep on going with them until I find a good one? BLONDE TROUBLE

Ike Farm Plan Faces A Rough Go In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's program to curb farm surpluses and reduce tax-supported agricultural subsidies faced today a seeming dead-end future in Congress.

This was the consensus of congressional reaction to the President's special farm message Thursday. It presaged two more years of bitter congressional infighting over farm policy.

It also raised the possibility that Democrats, now in top-heavy control of Congress, would invite another presidential veto with a far stronger program than would be acceptable to the administration.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson told a news conference the administration will not send Congress a bill to carry out its recommendations but would be ready to help Congress draft legislation. That put the burden of deciding on changes pretty much up to Congress itself.

The President's message, in the most general terms, laid its chief emphasis on the point that the five-billion-dollar-a-year agricultural program "has not worked."

It urged abandonment of the 25-year-old practice of pegging price support levels to the dollar parity between farm costs and farm prices that existed in the "golden years" of agriculture before the 1920s.

PERCENTAGE PLAN In its stead, the message proposed pegging price supports to a percentage of the average market price of immediately preceding years.

As an alternative, Eisenhower recommended broad discretionary powers for Benson to fix commodity price supports at a level conforming to "existing standards."

"Not a ghost of a chance" was the prospect of enactment given by Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.), chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee.

"This is an antifarm message," declared Chairman Harold Cooley (D-NC) of the House Agriculture Committee.

The message drew some support from Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.), a former secretary of agriculture, said it points in the direction of a sounder farm program. The present program, he said, costs too much and gives too little results.

Sen. Spessard Holland (D-Fla.) said "high supports and regimentation have brought farmers nothing but grief and loss."

But there was little general endorsement of the program, even from Republicans.

Sen. Milton R. Young (R-ND) said he had read the President's message with "great disappointment and considerable disgust."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) called the recommendations "a tragic failure of executive responsibility."

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Senate Democratic leader, tersely said Congress "will produce a workable farm program" of its own. But while Democrats thus talked of evolving their own program, some influential farm leaders were suggesting that wide splits within Congress could mean no agriculture legislation of any consequence in the next two years.

Negro Page Boy Out Of A Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — "The whole thing is quite embarrassing," said the congressman. "I'm confused," said the Negro boy.

"The whole thing is just unfortunate," said the boy's aunt. That's how the leading principals sum up the imbroglio that came to a climax Wednesday when James A. Johnson Jr., 14, a Chicago Negro, arrived in Washington to become a page in the House of Representatives.

He was told the job had been filled. The youth said he had been assured of the job by Rep. Barratt O'Hara (D-Ill.). But Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.), chairman of the House Patronage Committee which handles such matters, said the appointment had gone to another Chicago boy recommended by Rep. Thomas J. O'Brien (D-Ill.).

Veteran Capitol employees do not recall any Negro ever having served as a House page. Walter said no racial favor was involved. Walter said he had told O'Hara there was no opening for young Johnson.

The boy's aunt, Miss Ethel L. Page of Washington, said O'Hara informed her last week that James' appointment had been approved. She said O'Hara had telephoned again the next day to say there had been a slight hitch in approval of the appointment but that James should come to Washington anyway, prepared to be sworn in on Feb. 1.

Denver City Man Killed In Crash

DENVER CITY (AP)—A three-vehicle collision six miles north of here yesterday killed one man and injured two others. Killed was William Thurman O'Keefe, 46, of Denver City. The Last Go-Round

Saturday evening is the last go-round for obtaining a poll tax receipt or an exemption certificate which will qualify you to vote in elections of 1959. We do not know, aside from city, school board and college board elections, what will occasion the polls to open during 1959—but we do know that without your poll tax receipt or your exemption certificate, you couldn't vote on anything. Hardly a year goes by without a referendum on a bond issue or issues, and it is quite probable this will be no exception. There could be consolidation or annexation votes. There could be special elections to fill important vacancies in state or national posts. There could be any number of special issues before the public for a decision. This is not an "on year" in the sense you will be taking part in primaries or general elections, but with the legislature in session, there could be some matters submitted as constitutional amendments. Don't put it off another minute, for after Saturday all the regret in the world can't get you a chance to speak up in the affairs of the community, state and nation. Be a good citizen; get that poll tax receipt or exemption certificate.

Bobby Burns No Darling Of Reds

The bicentenary of Robert Burns' birth was celebrated throughout the world last Sunday — even in the Soviet Union, where a commemorative radio program from Moscow hailed him for "his hatred of the English oppressors, of their domination of his beloved Scotland." Most of us Americans will see a wee bit of Scotch (blood) in our veins pass through the Burns fever at some time in our lives, even if we are forced to keep a glossary at our elbow to unravel his dialect. But what the Communists see in him, aside from their loving him because he hated the English, is beyond us. For Burns was an individualist, a lover of hearth and home, a fiery patriot and a man with a deep concern for his fellowman. His faith in a Supreme Being never wavered. He might have been adressing atheistic Communists when he wrote, "An atheist's laugh's a poor exchange for Diety offended." He took religion seriously, and set many of his prayers to rhyme; and it was said of him that these rhymed prayers gave him "a high place among secular psalmists." True, he lived a hard life, and burnt the candle at both ends, but he sang like an angel and he saw beauty in the humblest things, including a mouse.

Robert Burns would have lasted about 10 days in any Communist country, for he had a way and a will of his own and he pulled no punches. He said what he wanted to say, forcefully and unforgettably, and he reciprocated unreservedly the love all sorts and conditions of people lavished on him, for he had first lavished it on them.

Elections And Presidential Power

WASHINGTON — The "dictatorship amendment"—as the proposal to remove all limits from the tenure of a President is now being called — hasn't much chance as yet to be passed by Congress. But it illustrates a significant and dangerous tendency—the desire of a political group to perpetuate itself in office through the use of governmental machinery. On the surface, the proposed amendment—which would repeal the present constitutional provision limiting a President to two terms—appears to remove a discrimination because, as President Eisenhower said in an offhand remark at a press conference, any citizen should be eligible at any time to the presidency. But the reasons for the present limitation had little to do with the right of some individual citizen to be a candidate. Rather, the purpose was to prevent any political group or clique from getting a permanent or at least indefinite hold on the White House and the executive branch of the government.

Thus, the patronage and favors which an incumbent administration can bestow are so far-reaching in an electorate, where tens of billions of dollars a year are being spent by the federal government, that it would be easier now than ever before to get a stranglehold on local political organizations and to align pressure groups behind a continuing administration. It seems odd, of course, to read that a Democratic party congressman who sponsors the amendment is terribly sorry that Mr. Eisenhower is what is called a "lame duck" President. The lament is that Mr. Eisenhower cannot wield White House power effectively because he is not permitted to be a candidate to succeed himself. Just why any Democrat should be worried over the fact that Mr. Eisenhower is supposedly losing influence in his second term isn't too clear. For logically the present constitutional amendment should be working in favor of the Democratic party, since Mr. Eisenhower, it is claimed, can't be politically as strong as he might have been without the third-term prohibition. Theoretically, therefore, the present provision is actually helping to elect a Democrat President in 1960.

Digging a bit deeper into the mystery, it would seem that the Democratic party, which has become the majority party, has much to gain by lifting the ban on presidential tenure and giving the chief executive an indefinite lease on the White House, subject only to one election every four years. If a dictatorship were to arise in America, it could come out of the tremendous power derived by a President from the right to continuous office. This correspondent has always been opposed to any limitation of presidential tenure but only when it is also provided that the people may at any time remove a President or the Congress which would elect him. This is what is known as the parliamentary system, which affords the people a chance to keep a good President but to turn one out of office at any time if he isn't satisfactory.

The fixing of a definite date for a presidential election means that political power can be concentrated over a four-year period and the electorate can be confused by a multiplicity of issues at the end of the four years. Under a system, however, whereby an election can be held at any time, the people can focus on a single issue and decide for themselves whether they want a given policy continued or discontinued.

The current proposal—which would give a President the right to succeed himself for as many terms as desired and would require an election only at a fixed date every four years—would permit political dictatorship. This is one reason why the conservatives in both parties in Congress will fight it. As a matter of fact, many states have adopted the single term for governors in order to rid themselves of boss rule and the monopoly of a single political organization.

Leadership cannot be limited by the Constitution. If President Eisenhower should decide to go to the people on any issue which he felt was of a critical nature, he could mobilize public opinion more quickly today than if he were a candidate to succeed himself. For the American people would say that his thinking is not influenced by third-term ambitions and that he is politically disinterested. All that he nowadays about the weakening of a President's power in his second term is either a political tactic designed to hurt the Republican position or else a means of expressing disapproval because the incumbent has not taken as firm a stand as some people want him to take on particular issues. A President can be powerful if his view on a specific problem of government happens to be sound and a correct reflection of the will of the people.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Anastas Mikoyan is getting a good press in the United States. He has, as a newsman who followed him through much of his current tour told us, a rare feel for public relations.

Mikoyan was conducting a campaign. He was trying to convince us that Russian leaders are friendly, reasonable, warm, sociable human beings. He would like to have Americans asking themselves: "Why doesn't our government sit down with these nice people and find a way to peace?"

But just as a wise, cautious voter tries to look behind the campaigning techniques of a man running for office, the American people must look behind Mikoyan's techniques before buying his product.

And behind Mikoyan's tour of sweetness and light there lies a record that Americans must not forget.

It is a record of Soviet tyranny, of broken pledges and treaties, of refusal to meet sincerely endless attempts by our government to find a way to peace. Mikoyan talks coexistence, but Red Russia has refused to coexist. Since 1918 it has extended its rule of force over millions of people. It has crushed freedom in many lands. It has plotted against this country. It has stirred up trouble around the world.

For the sake of peace in a nuclear age, Americans must never cease trying to find just settlements with Russia that are backed by enforceable guarantees. But there must be no settlements based on smooth talk by a smart salesman.

Same Old Story On Labor Laws

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two major proposals for a new labor law—it would be the first in 12 years—have been dumped into Congress' lap. Any chance for such a law? Yes and no.

It's an old story, an old argument: Should anti-corruption proposals be combined in the same bill with proposals to prohibit certain kinds of union pressure on employers and employees? Or should they be handled separately?

The Eisenhower administration and Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) have both offered bills calling for strict accounting of union funds and measures intended to give rank-and-file union members more control of union affairs. Both hit hard at bribery and collusion between employers and union agents or middlemen fixers.

The AFL-CIO has pretty much endorsed that kind of legislation. But the Eisenhower proposal goes farther than the Kennedy bill to this extent. It would prohibit certain practices by unions to pressure employers and employees into recognizing them as bargaining agents.

For example, the Eisenhower bill calls for tight new bans on union secondary boycotts and certain forms of union picketing. In a secondary boycott an employer not directly involved in a labor-management dispute is pressured by a union in such a way as to force concessions from an employer who is involved.

The Eisenhower bill also would bar union picketing where another union already holds bargaining rights or where employees show they don't want to be represented by the picketing union.

Both Kennedy and the AFL-CIO have said that mixing boycott and picketing restrictions with anti-corruption remedies would endanger the chance of getting any labor legislation this year.

Kennedy's bill—and those parts of the Eisenhower bill which resemble it—is similar to the Kennedy-ives bill which passed the Senate 88-1 last year but died in the House. Former Sen. Irving Ives (R-NY) and Kennedy sponsored it.

But Eisenhower is expected to insist, as he did in 1958, that any bill passed by Congress should contain boycott and picketing provisions.

Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark.), chairman of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, is preparing labor legislation of his own. Kennedy argues the reason for no labor legislation since passage of the Taft-Hartley Act in 1947 is "that every time a bill was brought out, an effort was made to do too much."

Neither the Eisenhower proposal nor the Kennedy bill contains anything that might be generally considered as tending to hamstring unions.

Judge Has Sense Of Humor, But Not On Bench

BALTIMORE (AP)—"We've got a doubleheader today," smiled Judge Simon E. Sobeloff to reporters as he prepared to tackle two school integration cases.

To those who didn't know the neat, precise, professional looking federal jurist, the gentle wise crack might have been an eye-opener.

The remark, which he made prior to hearing the Charlottesville and Arlington Va. school cases Thursday was indicative of a strong, subtle sense of humor which Sobeloff reveals off the bench.

But the tanned, dark-eyed judge brings a studied approach to the school integration cases which have come before him and other jurists of the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals.

His ruling in favor of a longer breathing spell before Charlottesville schools are integrated was indicative of his philosophy that the spirit of the law is not to be subordinated to the letter of the law.

"The school board, he concluded, 'should be assisted in its determination to move within the frame and spirit of the court's decree.'"

Practically all of Sobeloff's 64 years have centered on the law, ever since he made political speeches at the age of 13. That led to his appointment as a page boy in the House of Representatives while he completed high school in Baltimore.

While studying law at the University of Maryland, where he was an honor student, Sobeloff clerked in a state attorney's office. Later he was secretary to State Supreme Court Judge Morris A. Soper, whom he joined in 1956 as a judge on the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals.

After he had resigned as chief judge of the Maryland Court of Appeals in 1954 to take over as U.S. solicitor general, he argued the government's case in one of the hearings on the school integration issue before the Supreme Court.

Old Revenue

WAUSAU, Wis. (AP)—Mayor Ben C. Schuck is not only Wausau's chief executive, he's pretty good at collecting old bills—for the city.

When he took office Schuck found a stack of old bills nobody had bothered to collect. Most of the money was due for paving improvements, some of them made in 1953.

The mayor said that in some cases residents had not paid because they felt the jobs weren't completed. "In such cases we did the work and collected the bills," he said.

"My office has collected $4,343 in old bills," he declared.

College Cookbook

CHICAGO (AP)—A cookbook is sending Swedish cooks to college. The American Daughters of Sweden presented the University of Chicago with $16,000 toward a $30,000 endowment fund for scholarships for coeds of Swedish descent.

Most of the fund was raised from the sale of a 180-page cookbook containing recipes for 22 different ways to prepare herring as well as many other Swedish delicacies.

Snaky Indian

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—The West is still wild. A 44-year-old Indian was jailed and charged with assault after he shot another Indian who, he claimed, "was going to turn himself into a snake and bite me."

Around The Rim

How To Improve Your Mind

Suggestion to the Meningers, et al: The structure and operation of the human brain has been compared to similar details of electronic computers. It is well known that such comparisons are acceptable only on the surface, the deeper mechanism of the human brain being as yet only partly understood and quite unique.

The oversimplified comparison, however, does point out a principle of the organic brain which the new science of hypnosis could make use of: that sensory impulses coming into the brain set off reaction channels which dart across nerve chains with incredible speed, some being lost because of lack of power to cross the synapses, others being channeled into new areas through previously established patterns.

There are some 10 billion nerve cells in the brain, and an astronomical number of possible combinations; enough to account for practically all the myriad facets of the mind.

It is this building of established channels and reaction patterns that creates each individual personality; the newborn infant has few of these, being born with a completely blank mind. As the child matures, the countless millions of patterns established in his brain by experience create the person. It is thus that any particular experience shared equally by a number of persons will elicit distinct reactions from each, the experience and its reaction themselves becoming still another factor in the building of the mind. The person's reaction to the experience is as important, if not more so, as the actual experience in establishing reaction patterns. Thus, a mature person often suffers a childish reaction, or a reaction built upon a childish basis. Clinical treatment of the more abnormal reactions centers upon canceling the earlier reaction of the child and substituting the more mature reaction of the adult.

The hypnotic trance is a short-cut method of getting to these reaction patterns, and each may be sought out by age regression. As the subject relives each experience, the experimenter calls upon the adult mind to cancel, not the experience, but the childish reaction to it, and to substitute the reaction of the adult.

Thus, new channels are built around the old without impairing the memory, and any nervous impulse through the re-established region takes a new route; the newly channeled impulses, combined, tend to cancel out other, unformed childish reactions and create new bypasses; it is not necessary, then, that the subject be taken through each and every detail of his life.

If enough of the older patterns be modified, the subject's mental ability should be appreciably increased, through the expunging of emotional blocks that result in such things as imperfect recall.

Another Dimension For Stereo Sound!

Honey, are you living with a stereophonic buff who blasts off every evening until the neighbors call the cops? Does your living room look like a cross section of the Atlantic cable or an outside spider web in one of those horror movies? Are you about to leave home? If so, don't delay! Two speakers and enough wire to fence in Texas ain't enough! The next development in faithful reproduction of sound is a third speaker. I have this from the horse's mouth, if Rudolph T. Bozak will forgive me saying so.

Mr. Bozak is a leading authority, designer, inventor and manufacturer in the stereo and hi-fi field. And he says the next development in stereo, one of the nation's fastest growing (and most expensive) hobbies, will be a third speaker. "Why compound the felony?" I asked. "A third speaker would simply round out the sound, especially for vocalists," Mr. Bozak said. "Stereo's two speakers now broaden or widen sound, and that's all right for an orchestra or an opera going full blast.

"But those two speakers give a soloist too much 'width.' It's like someone hollering down a rain barrel. The third speaker, when it's developed, will localize, or focalize, or pinpoint the soloist in proper perspective.

"Of course, maybe humanity won't stand still for it," Mr. Bozak said thoughtfully. "I don't think the future is quite as frightening as you do. I don't believe the buffs will blast us clear out of our homes, or that we will have to throw all the furniture out of the house to make way for the stereo equipment, or that we'll all break our necks falling over all those wires."

"But why do stereo fans have to turn up the machinery fortissimo, until everyone else in the neighborhood is planning murder?" I asked.

"I honestly don't know," Mr. Bozak, a mild-looking gentleman in his early forties, replied. "I guess we get ourselves worked up into a frenzy, a kind of ear-shattering mood. And then the police start knocking. And you can't much blame the neighbors when some stereo fans want to reproduce accurately just any sound, like trains going through a tunnel, or dive-bombing."

It is Mr. Bozak's theory, despite the decibel-addiction of some hi-fi buffs, that stereo is the tranquilizer of the middle-aged man. Comes the pause in the day's occupation, known as the neurotic hour, (after daddy gets home from work) and the executive or ulcer-type citizen likes to unwind his throbbing ganglia to good music.

"The middle-aged man in the executive bracket is in love with good music," Mr. Bozak declared. "He's the one who goes out and spends the money for stereo. The American woman may be the nation's cultural light and guide. But in the stereo department, it is the man who is the long hair.

"His wife wants romantic music, like the largo from Dvorak's 'New World Symphony.' But he wants to unwind from his executive suite chores with Bach or Scho/please Mr. Editor, fill in the name here of the Russian composer Shos-to-ko-vitch."

"Can a do-it-yourselfer really ever build and finish a stereo system?" I asked.

"Well-I-I-I," said Mr. Bozak, "there are two types. There is the doer vs. the piddler. The doer finally gets the system built and all the wires hidden. But after months of living in a home that looks like a stretch of outdoor clothes lines in a tenement district, the piddler's wife goes to Reno."

The Gallup Poll

Public Backs Ike On Budget Views

PRINCETON, N. J.—In the clash between President Eisenhower and Congressional Democrats over the budget, the President holds a great initial advantage in public support for his philosophy of "holding the line."

Just what may happen to this advantage, however, will depend on how well and how hard the Democrats sell their philosophy that an expanding economy requires more federal aid even if it means deficit spending to accomplish this.

The important political significance is that the public—by a vote of more than 7-to-1—still thinks in strictly orthodox terms regarding the budget, or "like a family, the government shouldn't spend more than it takes in."

Behind this overwhelming vote is a feeling on the part of many voters that operating in the red during the next year or two will result in serious inflation and have a generally harmful effect on the nation's economy.

Some political observers have felt that if prices continue up between now and 1960, the Republicans will have a ready-made issue in blaming the Democrats and their policy of deficit spending for rising prices.

Democrats challenging the President, therefore, have yet to convince voters of their economic philosophy—namely, that increased spending is needed to make certain of national growth and progress to keep pace with Russia.

Some key questions and results in the Gallup Poll's nationwide study of the public's attitude toward the budget:

"Do you see any connection between an unbalanced budget and the prices of things you buy?"

Prices will rise	56
Prices will drop	43
See no connection	1

"Do you see any connection between an unbalanced budget and the value of the dollar?"

Inflation, value of dollar decreases	58
Value of dollar increases	41
See no connection	1

"If the time should come when government income cannot pay for all the things in the budget, which would you favor—cutting back on certain things or increasing taxes?"

Favor cutting back	72
Favor increased taxes	15
No opinion	13

When voters who favored cutting back under these circumstances were asked what they would like to see pared, two areas of the budget were mentioned most often.

The No. 1 item which voters would like to cut back on is "government operations"—salaries, personnel and other expenses incurred in the day-to-day operation of the federal government.

The next most frequently mentioned was foreign aid.

Silence Is Golden

FARMINGDALE, N. Y. (AP)—The 20,000-pound thrust jet engines of the F-105 jet fighter-bomber have been muffled at Republic Aviation's airfield here by a huge silencer.

Snubbed around the tail of the big plane, the two-story high $250,000 silencer soaks up the roar when the J-75 engines are being tested. It's so effective, company engineers claim, that you can stand in the shadow of the muffler and carry on a normal conversation while the jet engine is running full blast.

Durable Cow

MERINO, Colo. (AP)—Colorado highway patrolmen thought they were seeing double for awhile. They investigated an accident in which a car struck a cow. Later the same night, they investigated another accident involving a car and a cow — same cow. The cow escaped without injury. Damage to the two cars amounted to $475.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The Arizona League of Towns and Cities announced this position on new state taxes: "It isn't for or against them. But if the Legislature enacts new taxes, it wants a 10 per cent cut.

Judith Davidson Bride Of Jimmy Bumgarner

In a double ring ceremony, read Thursday evening at East Fourth Baptist Church, Judith Lynn Davidson became the bride of Jimmy Neel Bumgarner.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Davidson, 1613 East 13th, and Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Bumgarner, 1609 East 17th. Vows were taken before the Rev. Ernest Stewart, pastor of the church, as the wedding party stood in front of a setting of palms flanking candelabra holding taper. Central interest of the background was a large basket of white gladioli.

Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Morris Dean Sewell, who also accompanied Mrs. Stewart as the sang O, Promise Me. The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her frock of white cotton was fashioned with a full skirt, which was worn over crinolines, and a fitted bodice with rounded neckline. She wore a tiny hat of white braid, embellished at the edge with flowers of white centered with seed pearls. The bride carried a white orchid.

Attending as maid of honor was Kay Dimpfl, who wore a pink dotted swiss frock with full skirt and low front and back. Her flowers were white carnations in a corsage.

Best man was Morris Dean Sewell. Friends gathered after the wedding for a reception given at the home of the bride's parents, where the couple was assisted in receiving by their parents and Miss Dimpfl.

Terry Jo Davidson, sister of the bride, was at the guest register. A white cutwork cloth edged in blue covered the table from which a wedding cake was served. In three tiers, the cake was frosted in white and trimmed with blue flowers with a bride and groom figurine on top. Tiny white columns separated each of the tiers.

For a wedding trip, the bride wore a beige dress with black accessories. When they return, the Bumgarners will make a home at 309 East Fifth. A sophomore in the local high school, the new Mrs. Bumgarner is a member of the Future Homemakers of America and the Rainbow Girls. The bridegroom is a graduate of BSIS and will enter a college this fall. He is now employed by Hull and Phillips Food Store.

MRS. JIMMY NEEL BUMGARNER

Alaska Is Theme For OWC Coffee

For the Newcomers Coffee at Webb Air Force Base Thursday morning, hostesses used the theme of Alaska's admission to the United States. Guests gathered at the Officers Club for the affair.

Centering the table was an arrangement of pale blue carnations with a flag of Alaska in the center. This was awarded as the special prize to Mrs. Marcia Duff.

Winners in games of name bingo were Mrs. Thomas Shinn and Mrs. James Shattuck.

The reason? Shoes. Now that Three, was made up of Mrs. H. J. Royer, chairman, Mrs. Glenn Hartwell, Mrs. William Forens, Mrs. J. Stein, Mrs. D. N. Caraway, Mrs. A. L. Terpening, Mrs. T. G. Humphries, Mrs. D. H. Holton and Mrs. Paul Nelson.

Son Is Born To Coahoma Couple

COAHOMA — Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Sheedy are the parents of a son born Monday in a Big Spring hospital. He has been named Mickel Ray. Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Turner are the maternal grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Sheedy are the paternal grandparents; all are residents of Coahoma.

Mrs. Burrell Cramer and Donna spent the weekend visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold House and family of Midland. Mrs. House is Mrs. Cramer's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvon DeVaney and children attended a reunion of the Hill family held in Hereford last Sunday. They also visited in the home of the Arlon DeVaneys and Wayne DeVaneys in Lubbock Saturday.

Frank Kelley of Colorado City was a guest speaker at the regular dinner meeting of the Coahoma Lions Club this week. He talked to the group on water conservation.

Mrs. E. H. Dunn of Big Spring was a guest in the home of Susie Brown Sunday. Jim Shelburne has been a patient in the Veterans Hospital in Big Spring for the past week.

K. Morrison P-TA To Buy Recorder

A recorder will be bought for use by the pupils at K. Morrison School if a decision at a meeting of the P-TA of that school Thursday afternoon.

Money from the sales of the cupcakes, which members provide each week, will be used for the project. About 35 were present at the meeting; R. T. Newell brought the devotion.

Rebekah Team Drill

Gene Crenshaw, team captain for Big Spring Rebekah Lodge No. 284, asks that all members of the degree team meet at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the IOOF Hall for preparations for the initiation ceremony next Tuesday, and will be in Snyder Monday evening to help with a newly organized Rebekah lodge.

COOKS RELAX Cooking's A Breeze With New Products

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor

Inventors of new food products were as busy as bees in 1958. Ingenious and convenient are the many packages of eatables that came on to the scene. Here are some of the foods we tasted and thought worthwhile having on kitchen shelves:

Ready-to-eat crisp rice cereal, sweetened and flavored with cocoa for appeal to those who favor chocolate flavor.

Cooks who like to use cornflakes for meat loaves and patties, breadings and for desserts will find corn-flake crumbs, in 9½-ounce packages, save time.

Fluffy orange-flavored frosting for a two-layer cake now joins other frosting flavors and needs no cooking.

Orange pudding-cake mix makes a top layer of cake and a bottom layer of orange-flavored sauce; its 10½-ounce package serves six.

MINUTE SUPPERS For the supper-in-a-minute crowd, heat-and-serve cans of spaghetti twists with meat balls are unusually good.

A twin envelope packet of onion dip mix comes ready to be added to cream or cottage cheese, or sour cream; the mix may also be used as a quick flavoring in meat loaf and hamburgers.

Golden pound-cake mix comes in a 9-ounce package and includes a small aluminum foil pan; two packages may be prepared at once and baked in a regular-size loaf pan; 3 packages in a 10-inch tube pan.

Quick-frozen onion rings appear in a 4-ounce package, ready to be made hot and crisp, as a go-along for steak or to give a caserole topping a lift.

A cream and Roquefort cheese spread comes in a clear plastic oblong 5-ounce container with a snap-on lid.

CALLING GOURMETS For gourmets, spiced cherry preserves, made from ripe Danish cherries and a famous Danish cherry liqueur, taste out of this world.

For epicures, ready-to-serve wild rice in 10-ounce cans boasts the wonderful flavor and texture of the cook-et-home variety.

New packaging also came on the scene. Round buttery crackers now have a good chance of staying crisp because one box holds three individually waxed-paper wrapped packets; while one packet is eaten, the other two stay crisp.

Spice and herb packages boast colorful food illustrations, names set off in easy-to-read type, instructions for use and recipes. Even tea bags have been redesigned; folded into a special way, they make it easy for the tea to flow through and produce a good brew.

Best of kitchen aids — a lid lifter that is inexpensive and really works. Used on vacuum-sealed baby-food jars, for instance, the lids have a bend and the jars may be re-capped perfectly.

Matching plastic-coated paper plates and cups have gone high style — new designs fit almost any occasion and decor.

Bake Sale Slated

Webb's Girl Scout Troop 301 will hold a cake sale at the Base Exchange, Saturday morning, from 9-12. F. G. Sidler, store manager, is pictured discussing arrangements with Sharon Nickolson, center, and Jon Etia Gardner, right. The troop is trying to raise funds to help them in the many activities they have planned in the near future.

Gifts Presented To Pack 1 Den Mothers

About 50 attended the monthly meeting of Cub Pack No. 1 at Airport School Thursday night. Mrs. Sidney Blanchard, Den 3, won the award for having the largest representation from her den with 18. Raymond Sanchez was awarded the Bobcat badge.

Each of the four Den Mothers received gifts of appreciation for their work with the Cubs. They are Mrs. A. J. Hooten, Mrs. Blanchard, Mrs. Leo Frank, and Mrs. H. E. McBeth.

The Road To Glamour Never Runs Smoothly

By VIVIAN BROWN

What's with your reducing goal? If you are like most women, you aren't happy with whatever is happening along those lines. Either you starve and don't show a loss, or lose quickly and gain it all back a few days after you give up your imbalanced diet. As one girl writes:

"I have been trying for years to lose 15, but I have tried the short-term goal, hoping that once I lose a few pounds, the rest will come easy. I manage to lose two or three pounds, and then before I can go on, I have gained it all back. The whole idea of reducing is a great mystery to me. Is there any sure method of losing weight and keeping it off?"

DIET BLUES

The reason most Americans are overweight is that they eat too much and exercise too little. When you reach the point where you have lost two or three pounds, you probably have established your calorie requirements, and just eating a little less than your norm results in the weight loss.

Eat slowly, chew your food well, and continue to eat the minimal food intake for good health, and you should lose. You should not skip meals or give up one food completely, however.

There are some people who eat a great deal more than they need because of boredom and frustrations. Develop a hobby and you may forget about the dinner table.

FOOT WOES

Are you foot-happy? Most people suffer from corns, bunions and callouses, as this letter indicates: "I am a real foot-sufferer. My feet are very attractive, but minor problems — callous and a shrunken tendon in my small toe make me feel miserable a great deal of the time. My feet ache just from walking through a department store or taking a stroll. By the end of the work day, I am ready for bed."

"How do average people keep their feet healthy so that they do not have these complaints?" Feet need constant care as you grow older. A hot foot bath at night, using a foot soap or a specially prepared foot therapy, may help your feet to feel lighter all the time. The bottled preparations have minerals formulated especially for foot relaxation.

The important thing with foot care is to be consistent. You can't wait until your feet hurt, and then expect miracles when you give yourself a treatment. Keep the callouses off with pumice and the nightly foot soakings. Use little pads at the first sign of toughness on a toe that may turn into a corn, and you may ease your entire problem considerably.

If your feet have a tendency to perspire, shake foot powder into your shoes before putting them on.

Duplicate Bridge Winners Named

In the duplicate bridge games, played Thursday evening in the Officers Club, Webb Air Force Base, winners were named in three classes.

North-South winners were Mrs. James Collins and Capt. Hal Hart, first; Mrs. J. D. Robertson and Mrs. Garrett Patton, second; Mrs. Zita Bruffart and Mrs. M. A. Ruhl, third.

East-West winners were Mrs. Charles Pierce and Mrs. R. R. McEwen Jr., first; Mrs. A. R. Holman and Mrs. Kyle Riddle, second; Maj. and Mrs. Frank Shearin, third.

All bridge players, civilian and military personnel, are invited to join the games each Thursday at 7:15 p.m. at the base.

College Students Guests Of Parents Between Terms

COAHOMA — Bill Tindol and Douglas Warren, students in Sul Ross College, are visiting here this weekend with their parents, the Melvin Tindols and the George Warrens.

Visiting at home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Garrett, this week are Bob Garrett, student at Sul Ross and Sue Garrett, student at Hardin-Simmons. Mr. and Mrs. Arlon DeVaney and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Nixon, all of Lubbock, spent the weekend here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. DeVaney and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nixon and the Roy Kennedys.

Jennie Smith was the guest of honor Friday evening when her grandmother, Mrs. Melvin Tindol, entertained a host of young people celebrating her granddaughter's 14th birthday. Parlor games furnished the entertainment, and refreshments were served to 25 classmates of the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Menser, Tommy and Jerry Ann spent the weekend in Waco visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jolley Ballard. Mrs. Gertrude Rush of Fort Worth Beach, Fla., is visiting here with her brother, the Ray Halls.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley McQuary of Colorado City visited here Sunday with Ira McQuary and Mr. and Mrs. Charter Hale.

Favorite Dress Old? Let Shoes Perk It Up

There's a hidden bonus in the brand-new 1959 spring fashion look for the woman with the well-loved but worn-to-death dress. Every woman has had such a dress and couldn't bear to throw it away, hoarding it in spite of a guilty feeling that this implies closed clutter and probably means she is wildly neurotic.

But this spring, old-fashioned can be worn with a valid new look to work its spell all over again.

The reason? Shoes. Now that the great upheaval of the chemise, trapeze and empire has relaxed into a shapely, wearable line, the emphasis is on legs—and shoes. It is, in fact, the new shoe that gives the new 1959 look.

The recipe for rejuvenation is simply this: Add a high, wide scarf or a high, swatched belt, texture, or texture, and concentrate on the new shoes in the new open, delicate look, the newest since the needle toe.

The graceful, elongated last is still with us, but there is less shoe to the shoe. The sides are lower or become straps — wide straps, sling straps, T-straps and asymmetrical straps — or are opened with intricate cut-outs.

Tanners and shoe manufacturers have been busy producing a whole spectrum of luminous shades and "hot" pastels, and new silicone finishes will keep the flower-fresh colors soilproof against even fingerprints. New non-crack suedes take bright tints without rubbing off; the new aniline leathers are wondrously flexible, and the new patents don't crack.

Whatever the color or texture of the dress there will be shades and textures in the new shoes to match, tone or contrast with it. If it is black, try black on white shoes, or blue on bone.

Ordinary mattress is made with about 200-300 springs. Wired together, they sag together under your weight. When you push down on one, you push down on all. They're not free to push up and correctly support the shape of your body. This "sagging support" is bad for your back, your comfort, your rest.

Beautyrest mattress is made with over 800 separate springs. Not wired together, they can't sag together. Each is free to push up under you. Together they firmly support the weight and shape of your whole body. In the new Beautyrest springs have been power-packed to give 12% more firmness.

Reward For A Year's Service

Jack Alexander, left, accepts a bronze plaque honoring him for his service as Kiwanis President in 1958, as he hands the gavel to the new president, Sherman Smith, extreme right. Looking on at the ceremony are Floyd Parsons, Big Spring, lieutenant governor for Division 22, Kiwanis clubs, and Carlos (Cotton) Clover, Odessa, governor of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district. The occasion was the annual installation dinner of the Big Spring club Thursday night.

Kiwanians Launch 30th Year, District Governor Is Speaker

Kiwanis is more than a service club, Carlos (Cotton) Clover, governor of the Texas-Oklahoma District of Kiwanis International, told Big Spring Kiwanians and their guests at a dinner meeting Thursday night.

"It is a way of life," the Odessa accountant who is just beginning his term as chief officer of the clubs for the two states, declared.

He was speaking at the installation dinner for the local club which is now starting its 30th year of existence. Delegations from both Kiwanis clubs in Odessa, the club in Midland and the Lamesa club were on hand to join the Big Spring group.

He was introduced to the group at the Cosden Country Club by Jack Alexander, retiring president of the Big Spring club.

Clover emphasized the importance of each individual recognizing his personal and individual responsibility toward his community and declared that it is imperative each person find a way to contribute his share toward the betterment of the place in which he lives, his state and the nation.

Floyd Parsons, Big Spring, who is lieutenant governor for Division 22, was installing officer for the occasion. Sherman Smith was handed the gavel as president; Marvin Baker and Ernest Welch were welcomed as the club's vice presidents. Benny Pierson, secretary-treasurer, could not be present as he is in the hospital. The new directors, J. C. Pickle, Allen Robertson, John Rogers and Marvin Baker were introduced.

Alexander as retiring president reported on projects pursued by the club in 1958. He was presented with a plaque in appreciation of his services.

Sherman Smith, new president, pledged himself to continue the progressive program of the organization and besought the cooperation and help of all members.

Special dinner music for the occasion was provided by Mrs. Don Newsom, vocalist, accompanied at the piano by Jack Hendrix. Sam Blackburn was master of ceremonies for the evening. Wives of the club members were special guests.

Out of town visitors in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Clover included John Moravick, district secretary; Margie Scott, assistant district secretary, all of Odessa; Ed Martin, Ray Smith and Naomi Anderson, Permian Club, Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Koch, Bill Shaw, Jack Sice and Delmar Bert, all of the Odessa Kiwanis Club; Bill Bachman and Lloyd Fulman of Midland; Carrel Knipp, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cline, all of the Lamesa club.

Bewildered Fliers Eye Space Venture

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—Bewildered but proud, two veteran Air Force test pilots were trying to digest today the news that they might soon swap their supersonic jet planes for a spaceship.

Capt. Tom Bogan, 35, and Capt. William Bradbury, 33, were informed Thursday that they had been chosen with 108 other men as candidates for man's first venture to outer space.

Their names were the first to be released after the spacemen program was announced Tuesday by Keith Glennan, U.S. space chief.

"It was pretty hard to believe," Bogan said, Bradbury nodded in agreement.

The two pilots were interviewed by news director Ken Conner of radio station KFRB, who had learned of the men's selection from an undisclosed news source. Air Force officials confirmed it.

Bogan and Bradbury are on temporary duty at Eielson Air Force Base near here, from Wright Patterson AFB, Dayton, Ohio.

Bogan flies a F106 in sub-zero temperature tests. Bradbury speed tests a F101B.

Bogan of Goodland, Ind., and Bradbury, who hails from Houston, Tex., told Conner they have had no special training as yet for the space venture. But both have more than double the required 1,500 flying hours and are within the maximum height of 5 feet 11 inches.

Multiple-Car Mishaps Listed

Multiple-car accidents were the case Thursday. Two of the three accidents involved more than two cars.

Four cars were in an accident at 18th and Main. Driving cars in the accident were Neva Jackson, Knott Rt.; Ted Fields, Rt. 2; Billye Clements of Garden City, and Marvin Hull, 1304 Settles.

Three vehicles, operated by Florine Drew, 1503B Wood, Jarrell Shortes of Ackery and Lloyd Murphree, 208 Willa, were involved in a collision at Eleventh and Owens. At Birdwell and Yale, Perry Phillips, 1702 Harvard, and Charles Blake, 1607 Donley, were in collision.

This morning, Royce Cone, 1422 Tucson, and Lucille Mesker, Gail Rt., were in collision in the 800 block of Eleventh.

'Penny Parade' Attracts 600

By actual count, 600 persons joined the Penny Parade at Station KEDY-TV, Thursday evening, to make donations to the drive being carried on by the National Foundation.

This is the announcement made by Joan Forrest, whose program, Alexander's Sketchbook, was devoted to the parade, along with the 15-minute period of Bruce Frazier, Cosden's Farm Reporter.

Over 5,000 pennies were included in the sum raised, $432.50.

Assisting with the work were Explorer Scouts, Bud Ware, chapter chairman; Mrs. H. H. Stephens, campaign chairman, and Bo Bowen, county health nurse.

Killer Of Brother Goes To Hospital

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Diana Daye Humphries, 16, who killed her brother because nothing exciting happened around their home, was sent to a state hospital at Austin Thursday for an indefinite period.

The commitment order by Travis County Judge Tom Johnson wasn't contested.

Robert D. Humphries Jr., 14, was shot to death Sept. 10.

"I was bored," Diana said in a signed statement to officers. "all we do is eat, sleep and watch TV."

A Harris County court committed the girl to the Austin hospital on a temporary basis.

Two state doctors testified they considered Diana mentally ill and recommended that she remain in the hospital for additional treatment.

Chaplain Verlin Mikesell will have charge of Protestant services at 11 a.m. Sunday at the base chapel. He will deliver a communion meditation in recognition of the observance of holy communion.

Jesus Questioned About Tribute

SCRIBES AND PHARISEES MARVEL AT HIS ANSWER

Scripture—Luke 20:9-26.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL. IT WAS Tuesday of Holy Week when the events of today's lesson took place. Jesus had pronounced the doom of the unbelieving Israel which rejected Him in the parable about the wicked husbandmen.—(Luke 20:9-18).

The chief priests and scribes were so angered by this that they "sought to lay hands on Him," but they feared the people. So they "watched Him," and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of His words, that so they might deliver Him into the power and authority of the governor.—(Luke 20:19-20).

So low had these so-called holy men fallen that they would do anything wicked to snare Him who had come to earth to save them.

These men came to Jesus, flattery Him by addressing Him as "Master" and saying: "We know that Thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest Thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly."—(Luke 20:21). Then they asked Him: "Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no?"

"This was the burning question of the time," writes Dr. Wilbur M. Smith, noted clergyman and editor of Peloubet's Select Notes. "A distinction must here be drawn between the customs or duties upon goods (familiar to our own day) and the land tax with poll tax. The latter only passed into the 'Fiscus' or imperial treasury. With perfect accuracy, therefore, it could be described as 'tribute to Caesar.' This tax was exacted annually, and as the Jews were not yet a subject to military conscription, it formed the chief sign of their subjection to the Roman yoke."—J. Gordon Gray.

The Caesar of this time was Tiberius.

Based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., and used by permission. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

Christ perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, "Why tempt ye Me? Shew Me a penny" (a denarius, worth about 18 cents in our money). "Whose image and subscription hath it? They answered and said, Caesar's. And He said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's."—(Luke 20:22-25).

These spies who had been ordered to take note of His words and report them to His enemies "marveled at His answer, and held their peace."—(Luke 20:26). In his comments on our lesson titled "A Truth for the Classes to Carry Away," Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes: "There is one difference between rendering unto Caesar and rendering unto God that I do not see mentioned in the commentaries, and thought would be a good conclusion to the lesson. We render unto the government by compulsion, we cannot escape doing so, and if we neglect doing so, officers of the law are sent to us, and we are punished. On the other hand, rendering unto God the things that are His is never by compulsion, but rather is based upon love and gratitude to God. One is compulsory, the other, voluntary. Our rendering anything unto God is but a recognition of God's goodness to us. The question is, are we truly rendering to God? That is our personal responsibility. Let us see that we fulfill this duty to our Father in Heaven with thankful hearts and love.

Dr. Wilbur M. Smith suggests that both younger and older classes might be introduced to the lesson by showing them, if possible, a coin such as those used in Jesus' time, borrowed from a coin collector or dealer. If not possible, show them a half dollar of our United States coinage showing on one side the words "United States of America," and on the other, "In God We Trust."

Pope's Proposal Directed At Eastern Orthodox Churches

By TOM HENSHAW AP Religion Writer

Pope John XXIII's plan to summon an ecumenical council to explore the possibilities of Christian unity appears to have been directed primarily at the Eastern Orthodox Churches.

And, although the fastest show of interest came from Western Protestant leaders, it seems that any form of unity forthcoming from such a council would be between the Roman Catholic and Eastern churches.

Since the 16th century Reformation, the Roman church and most Protestant denominations have been moving apart rapidly through new interpretations of old doctrines.

The Eastern churches, on the other hand, have undergone very little doctrinal change since 1054, which is generally agreed upon as the year in which the East-West schism became irrevocable.

The creed of the Eastern churches is based upon the decision of the first seven ecumenical councils. Later major statements of doctrine largely have defined relations with Protestants and Roman Catholics.

In the recent past, the Roman Church has shown extraordinary consideration to those groups that splintered from the Eastern churches and recognized the primacy of the Pope.

They retained their old Eastern rites — Byzantine, Alexandrian, Antiochian, Armenian and Chaldean—which differ from the Latin rites in liturgy. Some of their clergy may marry, but Latin priests may not.

The break between the Christian churches of the East and West began as early as the year 330 when the Roman Emperor Constantine moved his court from Rome to Byzantium, later Constantinople, now Istanbul.

Constantinople, steeped in the tradition of the Greek philosophers, soon rivaled Rome as the fountain of Christian leadership. Most of the early creeds condemned as heresies arose in the East.

The final break between Rome and Constantinople came over the creed word "filioque"—and from the Son. The West held that the Holy Spirit came directly from the Father and Son; the East, only from the Son.

Unlike the Roman Catholic Church, the Eastern churches are not ruled by a single supreme pontiff. Their system of church government has been best described as "an oligarchy of patriarchs."

There are five major patriarchs, independent of each other, in Constantinople, Alexandria, Antioch, Jerusalem and Moscow. There also are lesser independent patriarchs for the Serbs, Romanians, and Georgians.

In addition there are six autonomous archbishops of Mount Sinai, Cyprus, Athens, Bulgaria, Japan and Albania.

The divisions are along social and racial rather than national lines. Part of the Patriarch of Antioch's flock living in the United States would still regard the patriarch as its head.

While the patriarchs and archbishops operate their sees independently, the Patriarch of Constantinople is first in rank of honor, similar to the position of the Archbishop of Canterbury in the Anglican communion.

THE SECRET PLACE "The best secret is in the secret place of the most high which abides under the shadow of the Almighty."—Psalms 91:1. By CLYDE NICHOLS What If You Gain The Whole World? Jesus asked the question: "What has a man profited if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" We are greatly concerned with preparing ourselves and our children to make a good living, forgetting that it is far more important to live a good life. We seek feverishly for the answer to what is good for us, and never think to ask, "What am I good for?" We study to ascertain from where our world came and what is eventually going to happen to it. We avoid the question of where we came from and where we are going. Jesus knew these things. Listen: "Knowing that he came from God, and that he returned to God, he girded himself with a towel and washed the disciples feet." He knew why he was here because he knew where he came from and where he was going. He knew where he came from and where he was going because he knew God. Why are we so concerned about knowing all the right people, and then willfully neglect the need of knowing the only Person who really matters? It was Mark Twain's little daughter, impressed by the never-ending number of acquaintances who sought to honor the writer, who said to him one day, "Daddy, isn't it wonderful? Pretty soon you're going to know everybody, except God!" That is the danger we all face—the danger of missing the best. Gaining the whole world and losing our souls. There is a legend which tells of a man who, while walking on a mountainside one day, picked a strange and beautiful flower. When he did the side of the mountain opened and he found himself in the entrance of a cave. Inside he found a king's ransom in gold and precious jewels. Eagerly he filled his hands and pockets with the treasure. As he turned to leave a voice whispered, "Don't forget the best." He thought to himself, "I have the best," and walked out into the sunlight with his riches. Suddenly, the cave closed, the gold and precious jewels disappeared, and he was left alone on the mountainside. Then, he remembered—the beautiful flower—he had forgotten the flower. Don't forget the best! "What has a man profited if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?"

Give God A Chance—God Will Open Doors For You!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mt. Whitney in California: 14,496 feet high! Just one of the spires of the cathedral we live in.

When God made this world of ours he gave us many a glimpse of Himself. In the towering peaks we see His dignity—in the fertile plains, His providence—in the wild storms, His wrath—in the shimmering rainbow, His mercy—in the mighty falls, His strength—in the mirror lake, His peace.

But to reveal His Love—the greatest quality of God's nature—He gave us His Son, Jesus Christ . . . born in a stable . . . slain on a cross . . . risen to reign forever.

This world is the Cathedral in which men worship Him. Its altars are the churches to which the faithful throng.

Life is God's gift: To live in His Cathedral . . . and work . . . and play . . . and WORSHIP!

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

They're still talking about that proposed bond issue which could give Coahoma a new high school, gymnasium and football field, but nothing has been done toward setting the date for the election.

The University of Houston, which sends its track and field team here March 28-29 for the American Business Club Relays, now have three Australians among its athletes.

Pat Clohesy and Al Lawrence of the "land down under" have been in school here since last fall while Barrie Almonds, another Aussie, enrolled at midterms. Almonds has done the half-mile in 1:49.6 and the mile in 4:07.2.

John Macy, another member of the team, is a native of Poland. Eddie Southern, the University of Texas track great who raced in the ABC Relays last year and who was drafted by the Chicago Bears of the National Football League last week, hasn't played football since he was a sophomore in high school.

Stanton High School has an abundance of football lettermen back from last season, should be loaded in both football and basketball for the 1959-60 school term.

Charles Minor, one of the Pampa Harvesters' better basketball guards, has been lost to the team for several weeks due to a dislocated shoulder but he will, in all probability, be back by the time the team takes part in the state playoffs.

Larry Cruise, who helped Pampa defeat Big Spring in state quarter final play last season, flunked out at midterms at San Angelo College last week.

Big Spring Timing Association officials are looking for a spot for a drag strip.

The drag races here have been discontinued for the present time, due to the fact that Webb AFB is re-activating the section of the runway which the B-37A used for their runs. The strip will be rebuilt and strengthened for use by late type aircraft.

The drag races have been held at Webb the last two years. During that time, more than 2,000 contestants roared down the 1-320-foot strip in quest of trophies.

The drag races made money for the organization, even after a lot of equipment was purchased, and officials reasoned that by operating another two years under the same conditions they could have had enough money on hand to practically build their own strip debt free.

Lefty Chubby Moser has been having miseries in the back but he's looking forward to a successful baseball season with the Big Spring Steers, nonetheless.

Moser, who is a crafty hurler with two seasons of varsity experience behind him, sees no reason why the Steers shouldn't win District 2-AAAA championship honors. He says they have more power on paper than any other conference club.

Chubby would like to go to some school like the University of Arizona on a baseball scholarship after he leaves high school. He'd like to try his hand at collegiate football, too.

Sleer Coach Roy Baird has already booked a game here with El Paso Austin and a swapout series with Pecos, although the conference schedule still hasn't been drawn.

AT SAN DIEGO

Traffic Is Fierce Around Top Place

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Writer
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The traffic was fierce today, with 35 professionals crowded within a margin of five strokes as play swung into the second round of the $20,000 San Diego Golf Tournament.

Heading the procession with a precarious lead, as the 141 pros again attacked the par 36-36-72 Mission Valley Country Club course, were Mike Souchak and Bob Duden.

Souchak, 31, a veteran of tournament play from Grossinger, N.Y., and Duden, 38, of Oswego, Ore., each went around in 33-32-65 Thursday.

Duden has never won a major PGA tournament, and his earnings last year amounted to $1,070. But he played like a champion Wednesday. He finished well in front of such stars as U.S. Open Champion Tommy Bolt and Arnold Palmer, the 1958 Masters winner and victor Sunday in the Thunderbird Invitational at Palm Springs.

Bolt settled for a 36-36-72, and Palmer, who won this event in 1957, had 34-38-72.

Two Goliat Teams Record Wins Over Angelo Quints

Two Big Spring Goliat Junior High School basketball teams, the Ninth and Eighth Graders, registered wins over San Angelo Edison contingents here Thursday evening.

The Ninth Grade Yearlings, coached by Dan Lewis, hung on to plaster the visitors with a 45-42 defeat after the Big Spring Eighth Graders had won, 29-26.

The triumph left Lewis' team with a 9-1 win-loss record for the season. The Eighth Graders currently have a record of four wins and seven losses.

Jimmy Madry was practically the whole offensive force for Big Spring in the Ninth Grade engagement. He scored 24 points.

In that one, the Mavericks were slow in getting started. Coach Lewis said all of his players were in uniform when the game got underway. The Mavericks trailed, 13-6, at the end of the first period and were still behind at half time, 23-21.

The Mavs played without the services of one of their best guards, George Ryan. George Rice paced the Big Spring Eighth Graders' attack with ten points while Victor Cuba had seven for Edison, all as the result of free throws.

Anthony Miller tossed in 14 for San Angelo in the Ninth Grade engagement.

Ninth Graders:
BS GOLLIAD (45) — Tucker 1-5-5; Ellis 2-1-7; Schwarsbach 3-4-4; Jones 1-3-3; Madry 9-2-21; Bain 0-3-9; Nelson 0-0-0. Totals 16-13-48.

Hawks Seek Third Zone Win Tonight

With their backs against the wall in West Zone basketball play, the Howard County Junior College Jayhawks host Lubbock Christian College at 8 o'clock this evening.

This is the first home game in two weeks for the Hawks and a very important occasion it is. The local collegians are now 2-2 in conference play. They can never again afford to be generous in zone competition, if they have designs on finishing one-two in the race.

Lubbock CC has been down all season but last Monday the Lubbock club rose up and clopped the chops of Odessa JC, handing that team its second reversal in zone play.

At the present time, Clarendon and Frank Phillips are again occupying the top spots in the league standings, just as they did at the close of play last year.

HCJC, Odessa and Amarillo are all involved in a fight for third place.

The first two teams in the race become eligible to play in the Texas Junior College Conference Tournament.

Overall, the HCJC team has a 13-6 win-loss record. The Hawks had a lot of trouble with Lubbock in Lubbock recently but finally pulled out to win by six points.

Lubbock is led by Jay Sherrard and Dale Glaze. The latter played with Schreiner Institute last season. Jack Tarbet and James Teague also lend a lot of help in the Pioneer attack.

Glaze and Sherrard each scored 22 points for Lubbock in the Pioneers' 83-82 win over Odessa.

Odessa outshot the Pioneers from the field by 20 points but the home club made 33 free losses, compared to only 12 for Odessa.

The Wranglers lost both boys on fouls, committing 29 infractions in all.

The Jayhawks played fine ball for a half against Frank Phillips earlier this week but the Plainsmen really took charge after play was resumed and won going away.

Probably starters for HCJC tonight are Bobby Davis and Gilbert Bell at the post positions and Ray Clay, Benny Carver and Tommy Zinn outside.

The Hawks also play here Monday night, at which time they oppose Frank Phillips in a return game.

SEEK 2ND 2-4A WIN

Longhorns Visit Midland Tonight

The Big Spring Steers and the Midland Bulldogs renew their friendly basketball feud in Midland at 8 o'clock this evening.

Midland won a three-point decision over the Steers in a game that was decided in overtime a couple of weeks ago in Big Spring. The Bulldogs are the decided favorites in this one.

Big Spring has a 1-3 win-loss record within District 2-AAAA and is considered out of the race for the championship. The Steers would like nothing better than to spoil the Bulldogs' chances of winning, however. For that reason, they are apt to be "up" for this one.

Midland hosted Odessa last week and dropped a four-point decision. The Bulldogs now face the massive task of trying to beat Odessa in Odessa.

Big Spring played a fine game against Odessa earlier this week, losing by a score of 71-62. The Steers beat the Bronchos from the field but Johnny Malaise's club proved more accurate at the free throw line.

Overall, the Steers have a 17-9 win-loss record while Midland has copped 17 of 20 starts.

The Steers will have to concede the Bulldogs plenty of height. In 6-foot-6 Mike Humphrey, the Bulldogs have one of the best rebounders in the league.

Probable starters for Big Spring include the conference's leading scorer, Bill Thompson (who had an even 100 points in the first round of conference games), Preston Hollis, Zay LeFevre, Benny McCrary and Joe Bob Clendenin. Jimmy Reece, Jimmy Poteet, Bobby Fisher and Carl Peters are the Midland starters, along with Humphrey.

There'll be a B game, starting at 6:15 p.m.

Zubiate, Raughley Lead Fem Circuit

Hamilton Flying Service walloped Jack's Grocery No. 3 by taking all four games in the Webb Rock and Rollers bowling league this week. Hamilton Flying also took top team honors, 902-2509.

Cooley Shamrock won second with 792-2281. Cooley Shamrock downed Christensen's Boot Shop 3-1, and Roy Bruce Phillips 6-6 knocked down enough to defeat Mike Hammer Mobile Homes, 3-1.

Mary Zubiate, Hamilton Flying Service, rolled high game and series, 203-542, while her teammate, Marie Raughley, was close behind with 194-516.

Splits were picked up by: Ginger Kobi, 5-10, and Doris Homberg, 5-6, both of Jack's Grocery; the 3-10 by Audrey Piper of Hamilton Flying, and Dot Kain of Roy Bruce Phillips 6-6 got the 5-6.

Next week, Hamilton Flying and Christensen Boot Tangle, Jack's Grocery and Mike Hammer are matched, and Roy Bruce 6-6 rolls against Cooley Shamrock.

Mary Zubiate won two dinners at Carlos' Restaurant because of her play.

Zora Folley Wins Over Argentina

DENVER (AP)—A triphammer left and one savage two-kick in the fifth round carried cool Zora Folley to an unanimous decision over Argentina's Alex Miteff in their 10-round heavyweight fight last night.

Thoroughly beaten though he was, the black-haired butcher boy from Buenos Aires said he is far from ready to call quits to his ring career. Though his right eye was puffed nearly shut, the 24-year-old Alex insisted Folley "did not hurt me once."

Donald Hale Has Loop's Top Game

There were no runaway matches in the Cosden bowling league this week, as three teams scored 3-1 wins and two shared a split: Operators 3, Sales 4; Welders 3, Lab 1; Painters 3; Styrene 1; and Chemical 2, Maintenance 2.

Donald Hale sported a 225 top game with 543 series for the Welders. Chemical department pulled an 843 top team game, and Lab furnished high series with 2307.

Lab led the field with 49 points, Chemical has 44, as does Welders, and in order are: Sales 39, Painters 39, Maintenance 30, Operators 30, and Styrene, 29.

Coyotes To Play Dawson Tonight

GAIL (SC)—The Gail Coyotes, still undefeated in District 8-B basketball play, visit Dawson for a game tonight.

In their last start Tuesday night, the Coyotes flogged Loop in a game played at Gail, 75-58.

Jorgy To Fight

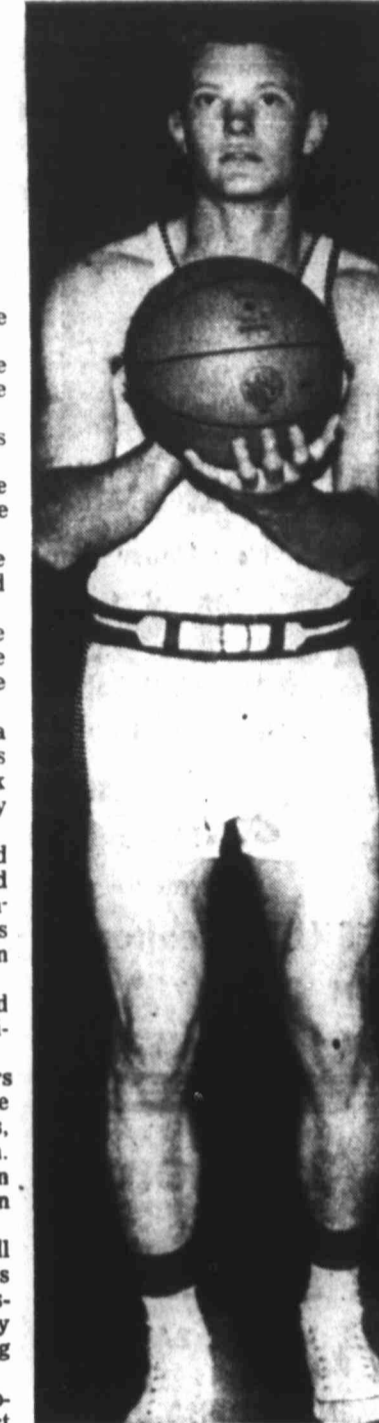

HOUSTON (AP)—Paul Jorgensen, the world's No. 2 featherweight fighter, signed a contract yesterday to meet the featherweight champion of Mexico, Manuel Quijano, in a 10-round bout here Feb. 11.

Earl Minton Top Scorer In Loop

Tom Conway's succeeded in roughing Prager's Men Store, 3-0, Donald's nipped Snider's, 4-1, B&P Distributor's clubbed Alexander's Jewelry, 3-1, and Wilson Bros. slammed Toby's, 2-1, this week in the Merchant's bowling league.

Tom Conway's had high team game of 848 and high team series of 2415. Earl Minton grabbed a 245 high game and 633 series for Prager's.

Jayhawk Queens To Visit Belton

Playing under the leadership of Coach Arah Phillips, who recently resigned, the Howard County Junior College Queens meet Mary Hardin-Baylor tomorrow at Belton in a 2 p.m. engagement in one of their final games.

The game will be a part of the Belton school's Charter Day Program.

The Queens' final games will be Tuesday at Abilene where a doubleheader will be played with Hardin-Simmons and McMurry on the H-SU court. The Big Spring squad will be divided to play those opponents.

The Queens' final game will be Tuesday at Abilene where a doubleheader will be played with Hardin-Simmons and McMurry on the H-SU court. The Big Spring squad will be divided to play those opponents.

Wayland as the quick, defensive-minded aggressor and Clarendon as the meat, sharp little underdog squad.

Clarendon stepped out in front 2-0 early in the game, but Wayland hit a couple of quick buckets and maintained a two to three point lead most of the first quarter. The Comets' scrappy and inspired play kept Wayland on its toes the entire first half.

Early in the second period, Clarendon opened fire with a field goal and tied the game, 15-15, the last time the Comets were in contention. The Queens piled up eight points within a few minutes and by halftime owned an 11-point lead.

Worrying Clarendon, with a fast break that, while it didn't net many points, probably wore down the Comets, Wayland proceeded to the win on strong defense in the last half.

The Quarterback Club, which hadn't expected to make a profit on the game, received $367 from advance and gate sales, approximately $125 over its expense. President of the club, John Currie, said that the organization had decided to turn the proceeds over to Arah Phillips, whose resignation was effective at the end of the last semester at HCJC.

The effective of Women and women's athletic director, has in turn said that she would use the funds for an HCJC girls' athletic banquet.

NY Or LA Will Get Title Go

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The "secret" finally is out. Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson is going to fight Sweden's Ingemar Johansson. Best guess on the site and date is New York or Los Angeles in June or September.

Some 10 days ago promoter Bill Rosenzohn said the match was "90 per cent made." A week ago it was all set but the signing. After prolonged negotiations by a staff of legal brains, the two warriors finally signed Thursday in the shadow of the smorgasbord at a Swedish restaurant.

But the mystery isn't over yet. The date and site will be named within 30 days. At the moment, Rosenzohn says New York and Los Angeles are the winter book favorites, with Colorado Springs a strong third. He can stage the bout anytime between now and Sept. 30.

Within the next week or two Rosenzohn will visit Philadelphia, Minneapolis, Indianapolis, Colorado Springs and Los Angeles. First he will meet with Mayor Wagner of New York Feb. 3.

There is one slight problem, as far as Rosenzohn is concerned. The contract permits Patterson to take another fight before Johansson. There is no such thing as a non-title bout for a heavyweight champ.

Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, won't say yes and he won't say no. The best he will say is: "Floyd will have a sharper one way or another." That could mean an April match with someone like Brian London as promoter Harry Levine of London has been trying to arrange. Or it could mean one of Cus' secret fights in the gym.

D'Amato appears to lean toward Colorado Springs as a site for one of Patterson's defenses.

"They offer such a high guarantee ($500,000 gate) that they qualify for serious consideration," he said. Although the Johansson match was being discussed at the time, it is possible he might consider some other opponent for Colorado's Centennial and then a Johansson match in September.

The Johansson match is being heralded as a "sure million dollar gate" by D'Amato, who has no idea of missing out on such a bonanza by losing the title before then.

"I would like to fight four times this year," said Patterson.

There is another hitch that could lead to matters. Eddie Machen, knocked out by Johansson in September, is suing to let him to go through with an alleged rematch agreement. Papers have been served on the fighter and Edwin Ahlquist, Swedish promoter and adviser to the European champ. However, Rosenzohn and all concerned claim they have been assured the threatened suit will be no problem.

Johansson, first Swede to box for a world ring title, is a handsome 26-year-old boxer with a dimpled chin and tousled dark brown hair. He has a perfect 21-0 record as a pro with 12 knockouts. He vaulted into the No. 1 contender position by knocking out Machen in one round. The one blot on his record was his disqualification for running and not fighting in the 1952 Olympic finals against the late Ed Sanders of the United States. He claimed he was advised to stay back and make the other man lead.

Patterson called the Swede the most dangerous opponent he has met.

"He knocked out the No. 1 contender (Machen)," he said. "That speaks for itself. I hear he is a very hard puncher."

DON'T BLAME BRIER FOX

CLEBURNE (AP)—Allen Baird and Clayton Baird, cousins and managers of bakeries at Abilene and Houston respectively, hid in a North Texas hill country where they were hunting foxes.

Allen lured the fox call, which made a noise like a stricken rabbit.

Clayton, gun ready, crouched beside Allen as they both scanned the prairie.

Suddenly a furry object slammed into the back of Clayton's head, knocking him sprawling. Both men recovered to see a red fox trotting off through the brush.

Now and then the fox glanced back angrily at the strange rabbits in the brush pile.

Clayton says next time he won't wear a cap made of rabbit fur.

THEY RE-GREW HAIR!

Mr. H. Newhouse, Woodale, Ill. Mrs. H. Halter, Miami, Fla.

Noted Hair Expert Warns "Don't Put It Off Till It's All Off"

Hair Specialist Here SUNDAY Will Show How To Save Hair And Prevent Baldness

CORAL GABLES, Fla. — New home treatment methods of saving hair and improving its growth will be demonstrated in Big Spring on Sunday, February 1, only.

Trichologist J. J. Staller will be in charge representing the dynamic Harlow Hair Experts organization. He will personally examine hair-worried men and women from 1:00 to 8:00 p.m. Sunday at the Settles Hotel.

This new treatment is neither "mail order" nor "cure-all." It is adapted to the individual after a personal examination and progress is checked personally at regular intervals by a Harlow expert.

WHO CAN BE HELPED? For many years now Harlow Hair Experts have been checking the hair of thousands of people across the country. They have encountered and dealt with hundreds of cases of every kind of hair trouble. From this experience has grown the body of scientific knowledge leading to the development of the new Harlow home treatment.

Will the new Harlow treatment cure baldness? "No!" For we cannot help men and women who are slick-bald after years of gradual hair loss. But if you still have fuzz and your scalp is still creating hair, you can at least save and thicken what you have. Some conditions, such as "spot baldness" usually have complete coverage if caught in time!

Other conditions that usually bring on excessive hair loss—dandruff, follicle clogged with sebum or seborrhea—can be corrected by the Harlow home treatment if caught before the "hair factories" are destroyed.

Evidence of the success of the Harlow method is quickly expanded to serve hundreds of cities in 32 states.

The most important thing is: "Don't wait until it's too late." Surveys among men and women in all walks of life show that the worst enemies of your hair are (1) skepticism and (2) procrastination. The average balding person justifies his condition with one of the other of these two statements: "I don't think anybody can stop hair loss" or "Oh, I'm going to see an expert when I get around to it."

Baldness won't wait for doubters to be convinced or for procrastinators to take action later. You're going to keep right on losing hair till you're bald... unless you get your scalp in healthy hair growing condition again!

SATISFY 95 PER CENT "Actually, our biggest problem is not in doing what we claim," says Harlow, "but we satisfy at least 95 per cent of our clients which, when you consider that almost every person is a doubter—or a putter-offer—where hair is concerned, is an excellent showing. Getting these doubters and putter-offers to come in for an examination is really the problem."

EXAMINE YOU FREE We want to make it clear that you incur absolutely no charge. Your obligation is coming in for an examination.

Your only obligation is to yourself to ease your mind of hair worries by learning how to save and thicken your hair at home. We will tell you frankly and sincerely whether or not you can be helped, how long it will take and how much it will cost. We do not accept cases that will not respond.

GUARANTEE SATISFACTION The Harlow Hair Experts will give you a written guarantee that you must be satisfied within 30 days or it costs you nothing. For a free examination and discussion of your hair problems ask the desk clerk at the Settles Hotel, Sunday only between 1:00 and 8:00 p.m. for Mr. J. J. Staller's room number. He does not make appointments, so come in at your convenience.

You won't be obligated or embarrassed in any way. Examinations are given in private.

Cold Front Hits Gulf

A Canadian cold front which pushed into Texas Thursday had reached the upper Gulf Coast Friday.

Behind it left chilly temperatures and scattered rains, now reported heavy, in the South Plains and some portions of Central Texas.

Shortly before dawn, Weather Bureau radar screens revealed showers extending from 5 miles south of Mabank in Kaufman County to 8 miles north of Canton in Van Zandt County. A light shower showed up 10 miles north of Athens in Henderson County. Otherwise it was clear over the state except in the Panhandle and far West Texas areas where it was clear to partly cloudy.

Pre-dawn temperatures ranged from 19 at Dalhart to 65 at Galveston.

A new five-day forecast issued by the Weather Bureau on Friday morning called for temperatures over the state 3-6 degrees below normal through Feb. 4. Little precipitation was indicated, most of it in East Texas.

Mahon Explains U.S. Must Feel Way In Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Texas congressman said last night that Congress is required to appropriate for defense without knowing the nation's exact requirements or Soviet Russia's real strength.

Rep. George Mahon (D-Tex.), chairman of the House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, appeared on a panel connected with the American Legion's national security commission. He said that nearly 4 billion dollars budgeted for the Defense Department next year is about enough money.

"But we find it difficult to get adequate information on our requirements," Mahon continued. He added that the information provided by the chiefs of the armed services is helpful, but it "has to be colored by their own individual requirements."

Mahon said no one in this country has been able to get accurate information about Russia's military and scientific strength.

Therefore, Mahon said, this country must go on the assumption that Russia was a threat yesterday, is a threat today, and could be a greater threat tomorrow in scientific and other military fields.

Stickney Convicted, Faces Death Penalty

HOUSTON (AP)—Howard Stickney, 20, today faced death in the electric chair for the murder last May 24 of Mrs. Shirley Elaine Barnes, 26.
A jury of 10 men and 2 women convicted the former Highway Department technician after deliberating 2 hours and 53 minutes.
Stickney showed no emotion as the verdict was returned. His mother, Mrs. Frances Stickney, 52, broke into sobs and was led from the courtroom.
A defense attorney, Charles Keilin, asked the jury to convict Stickney of no more than murder without malice, which carries a maximum sentence of 2 to 5 years. He said Stickney loved Mrs. Barnes.
"Would this boy want to kill the woman he loved?" Keilin asked.
Asst. Dist. Atty. Neil McKay, in opening final arguments, said: "If you give him the supreme penalty, you will still fall short of doing what he did."
Keilin attacked a confession the state put into evidence.
Stickney admitted to police and reporters that he killed Mrs. Barnes and her husband, Clifford, while on a swimming party at Galveston. Mrs. Barnes' nude body was found in her Houston apartment May 27.
Stickney said he fled to Canada after disposing of the bodies. Barnes' decomposed body was found near the Brazos River June 18, two days before Stickney was arrested near Perth, New Brunswick.
Stickney and Barnes were employees of the State Highway Department district office here.
Stickney said in his statement that Mrs. Barnes was in a car and her husband was lying on the

Calvert 'Gift' Probe Warms Up

AUSTIN (AP)—Two more witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear Tuesday as the Travis County grand jury continues its probe into the $28,000 in cash allegedly received by state comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

Sam Kimberlin Sr., motor fuel division director, was questioned yesterday by the grand jury.

Dist. Atty. Les Proctor said the investigation was to determine whether or not the election code was violated.

Subpoenaed to appear Tuesday are Waldo E. Lewis Jr., audit division director, and Gus Farrar, chief clerk.

Calvert contends the money was received as Christmas gifts. He denied the amount from employees since 1949 totaled $28,000 as alleged by the Senate Investigating Committee. He said none of the money was used for political or election purposes.

NTSC Choir To Sing Here

The North Texas State College A Cappella Choir will be presented in concert at 3 p.m. Feb. 15 in the HCJC Auditorium under the auspices of the Music Department.

Directed by Fred McKinley of the NTSC School of Music, the student choir of 40 select voices will give programs in Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

Cities to be included on the tour are Ada and Lawton, Okla., Fort Worth, Roby, Big Spring, and Carlsbad, N. M.

Jack Hendrix, head of the music department, and Ira Schantz, head of the voice department, handled local arrangements. Hendrix and Schantz are graduates of the NTSC School of Music.

House Panel Hears Pleas For Money

AUSTIN (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today heard requests for more money as judges and several state departments outlined their needs for 1960-61.

Committee Chairman William S. Heatley, representative from Paducah, worked his 21-men while other House members and Senators rested until Monday.

The Legislature recessed yesterday for the weekend after more bills were formally introduced. Tax expert Rep. Frates Seeligson of San Antonio warned his fellow members that Gov. Price

Singers Wanted For Easter Presentation Of 'Messiah'

Mrs. Walter Parks is appealing for all local vocalists to join a community chorus for the presentation of the Easter portion of Handel's "Messiah" on March 23.

Rehearsal is planned for 3:30 p.m. Sunday in the HCJC auditorium. Volunteers interested in participating should be on hand at that time. The rehearsal will be finished by 5 p.m.

W. A. Daves, high school choral director, is to direct the community program.

The concert will be staged in Municipal Auditorium at 8 p.m. March 23. It is being planned as a benefit program for the Howard County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Disc Jockey Claims Record
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A tired and drawn but still smiling radio disc jockey went to bed Thursday night after claiming the world record for staying awake 225 hours.
Dave Hunter of WZRO at Jacksonville Beach turned off his record turntable at 6:09 p.m. in the showroom of a Jacksonville automobile dealer. He had been there spinning records 9 days, 9 hours, 9 minutes and 9 seconds.

Central Airlines To Extend Service
Central Airlines will inaugurate its new service to Plainview and Lubbock Sunday, just 10 days after the Civil Aeronautics Board granted the extension of the route beyond the presently-served city of Amarillo.
Plainview and Lubbock will be served with two round-trips daily to Amarillo and through-plane service to Wichita, Kansas City and other cities. The schedules have been arranged to give Plainview travelers ideal connecting airline service to such cities as Dallas, Fort Worth, Austin, Houston, San Angelo and other points to the south. There will be two flights daily both north bound and south bound.
