Heart Shine May Be Key To Human Aging Process

By ALTON BLAKESLEE, AP Science Reporter. CHICAGO (AP) — Birthdays truly make your heart glow.

The older you get, the more your heart will actually shine or fluoresce if exposed to ultraviolet or black light.

It shines more because more "age pigment" accumulates in living cells of the heart. This pigment is a strange and perhaps very significant fact in the puzzle of why and how we grow old and die.

The pigment shines with a kind of orange light when the heart is inspected with ultraviolet light.

The age pigment concentrating in human hearts, nerves, brain and muscles is being investigated for clues to aging.

The story is told in an exhibit today to the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science.

Children up to about age 10 apparently have none of the age pigments in their hearts, autopsy studies show.

But the amount increases in proportion to age thereafter, scientists of the gerontology branch, National Heart Institute, and Baltimore city hospitals find.

In persons of advanced age, perhaps 20 per cent of the heart is made up of the age pigment, which is relatively inactive and seemingly useless.

But it is replacing some of the contractile tissue of the heart cells. A big question is whether this is connected with the higher death rates that come with age.

The age pigment was first noticed many years ago. Main goals now are in trying to isolate and identify it, and determine what it means.

Where the pigment comes from and why are also still unknown. It doesn't seem to be correlated with heart failure, or any particular disease.

Lyndon's Return To Senate May Affect Campaign Hopes

By DAVE CHEAVENS, Associated Press Staff Writer. With a sly smile, Lyndon Baines Johnson told an audience of home folk in Texas recently he seldom thinks of politics more than 18 hours a day.

This was by way of admission that the Senate's Democratic leadership is up to his chin in the kind of activity he hopes will give him another six-year term in Washington, solidly even more firmly his party command position and perhaps lead to the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Johnson's chief political aim right now is to clinch re-election for the Senate next year. If a whirlwind barnstorming tour into every section of Texas can do it, he hopes to scare potential opponents off the senatorial range.

In January, Johnson leaves the cow country trappings behind and steps back into the arena of the Senate. There his strategic direction of a Democratic majority, festooned with presidential hopes, may call the turn on his own political future.

There will be no easy going for Johnson. He will be the bobbing, weaving man in the middle between liberals demanding a strong civil rights law and Southerners fighting a stubborn rear-guard action.

USE GLOVES. He must handle with gloves three presidential aspirants in Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts, Sen. Paul Douglas of Illinois and Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota.

He will be under fire from liberals such as Sen. William Proxmire of Wisconsin, who doesn't like what he calls Johnson's high-handed dictation of majority policy.

He will rub up against the sandpaper opposition of other liberals, like Sen. Paul Douglas of Illinois who says that as a Southerner, Johnson won't do for the party's presidential nominee.

He will face almost certain disagreement from the Democratic Advisory Council for the middle road course he has made it clear he will continue to pursue.

But Johnson, the lanky, dark and handsome grandson of an Indian fighter, has proved himself alternately a fighter when he needs to be and a pacifier if that course beckons.

SAYS NOTHING. Pushed into the presidential race by Speaker Sam Rayburn, Johnson smiles and says nothing beyond the statement he made on a national television program recently that if the July convention should ask him to serve as its nominee, he would "have a look at it."

Most friends think it wouldn't take a long look either. As a country-born poor boy who

TOY CARS TO BE TREATED AS BIG CARS

Owners of toy cars were being warned this morning that these vehicles are prohibited on sidewalks and streets by Police Chief C. L. Rogers and Sgt. Stanley Bogard.

"Although these vehicles are little more than toys," Bogard said, "the state law requires that they have license tags and that operators have driver's licenses if they are on public streets."

Rogers said "We have had numerous complaints from residents regarding children riding these cars on yards and in driveways." The vehicles come under all rules and regulations of motor vehicles and are subject to the same restrictions, he added.

Bogard said tickets would be issued to drivers of the cars who violate the law. "They are dangerous for their drivers," he said, "as they do not have adequate brakes or lights."

"A regular car could run right over one of them without seeing it," Rogers said. He added that fathers of youngsters violating the law are subject to fines if the youngster is arrested.

Cook Funeral In Plainview

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dobbins and daughter, Beverly, and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hall and daughter, Linda, have returned from Plainview where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Louise Cook, a sister of Mrs. Dobbins and Mrs. Hall.

Mrs. Cook was born and reared in Big Spring but had made her home since 1947, in Plainview where she was the owner and operator of the Jack and Jill Shop. She had been in ill health about four years, but her death on Christmas Eve was unexpected.

Last rites were conducted at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Plainview Methodist Church, where she was a member, with Dr. J. H. Crawford pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Plainview Memorial Park.

Survivors include her son, Jimmie Lee Mason, Lubbock, her mother, Mrs. Isla Davis, Plainview, three sisters, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Dobbins of Big Spring, and Mrs. Marvin Young, Plainview; her grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Griffith, Plainview; and two grandchildren.

Among others from Big Spring attending services were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Neel, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Neel, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Saunders, Mrs. George W. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Jones and Jimmie Mason.

Henson Rites In Stanton

STANTON (SC) — Services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Church of Christ for Mrs. Lou Ella Henson, 78, resident of Stanton for more than half a century.

Mrs. Henson died in the hospital here Sunday afternoon. Elmore Johnson, Church of Christ minister, will officiate, and burial will be in the Evergreen Cemetery under the direction of Arrington Funeral Home.

Mrs. Henson was born Feb. 12, 1881, in Sardis, Miss. She came to Stanton in 1906 from Bell County.

Surviving her are a son, Lloyd Henson, Stanton; two daughters, Mrs. Hall Kennedy, and Mrs. Jim Hopkins, Stanton; 10 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Three Die In Crash

The smashed fuselage of a Cessna 195 hangs high in the trees off the north-south runway at Carter Field near Fort Worth. The plane crashed last Sunday, while attempting to land.

Butcher, 23; James Cummings, 26, and Edward Bristol, 48, all Dallas businessmen, died in the crash.

Tucker Rites Slated Monday

Last rites were to be said at 3 p.m. Monday for Johnnie Frances Tucker, 86, retired rancher and longtime resident of Big Spring.

Mr. Tucker died at his residence at 2111 W. 3rd Street at 12:30 a.m. Sunday.

Services were to be conducted in the Nalley-Pickle Chapel by the Rev. Cecil Rhodes, pastor of the West Side Baptist Church. Burial was to be in the City Cemetery.

Mr. Tucker was born Aug. 30, 1873 in Burnett and came here from Baird in 1921. He was a member of the Methodist Church. Until the immediately past season, he had served for five years as the Santa Claus for the Mead's display on South Gregg Street.

Surviving him are four daughters, Miss Jewell Tucker and Mrs. Ethel Fergus of Big Spring, Mrs. Zoie Weed, El Sinoe, Calif., and Mrs. Ida Dansby, Modesto, Calif.; a son, John Robert Tucker, Big Spring; nine grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

YULE PHONE CALLS SCORE RECORD HIGH

Christmas outdid even Mother's Day. Services were to be conducted in the Nalley-Pickle Chapel by the Rev. Cecil Rhodes, pastor of the West Side Baptist Church. Burial was to be in the City Cemetery.

Southwestern Bell Telephone reported record offerings of long distance calls over the Christmas holidays, outstripping even the volume on Mother's Day.

From 6 a.m. to midnight Christmas eve, 3,168 calls were offered to the toll board of the telephone company here, but this was merely a warm-up for the booming 4,296 calls on Christmas Day. This figured out at about one call for every three telephones listed.

Mother's Day had engendered 3,118 toll calls and Father's Day, inevitably the pig-tail, had 1,894.

Grieving De Gaulle Cancels Receptions

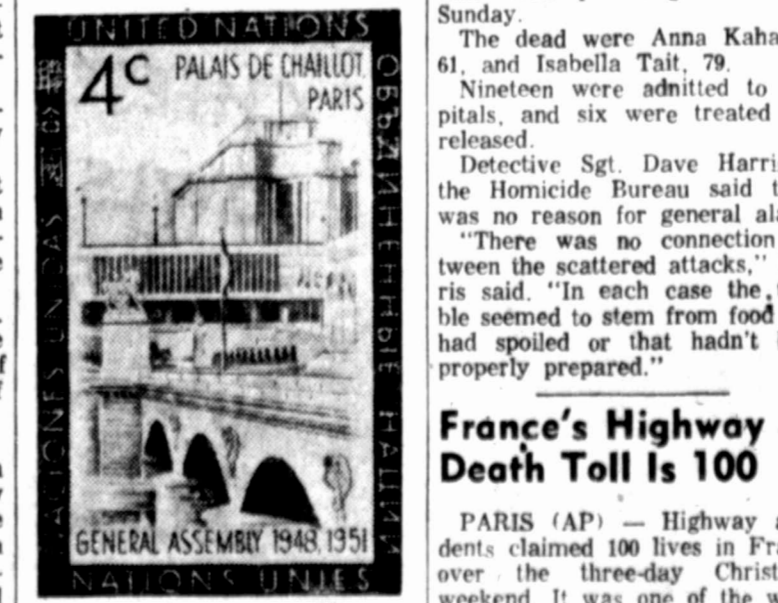

PARIS (AP) — Because of mourning for his younger brother, President Charles de Gaulle today canceled receptions he had scheduled this week.

The 62-year-old brother, Pierre, died in the American Hospital in suburban Neuilly Saturday night after heart surgery.

Stamps In The News

By SYD KRONISH, AP News-features. The first United Nations commemorative stamp of 1960 will perhaps be one of the most talked about issues in recent years. The new stamp honoring the General Assembly contains an error of spelling not noticeable to most collectors.

Around the edges of the stamp, as with all U. N. issues, are the words "United Nations" in English, French, Russian and Spanish. In this one, the Russian writing is misspelled.

Department will issue a special 4-cent stamp to commemorate World Refugee Year, reports Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield. It will go on sale April 7, 1960.

Says Summerfield: "President Eisenhower emphasized in his proclamation announcing United States participation that one of the major goals of the World Refugee Year is to focus interest on the refugee problem. This commemorative stamp will certainly be a significant contribution toward achievement of that goal."

10 Persons Injured When Earth Slides Hit Train

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Two massive earth slides in the space of 20 minutes pushed part of a crack 13-car passenger train into Puget Sound 12 miles north of here Sunday.

Ten persons—six of them crew members—were injured, none seriously. The Great Northern Railway's Empire Builder, bound for Chicago with 188 passengers aboard, was about 30 minutes out of Seattle when the first slide struck. It derailed a four-unit diesel locomotive.

Twenty minutes later, with help already on the scene another slide again slammed into the diesel units.

It carried the diesel units and a baggage-mail car out into the Sound. A mail-dormitory car was left teetering on a seawall.

Strung out along the tracks were six other cars, all derailed but still standing upright. Four pullman cars and a diner stayed on the tracks.

Coast Guard vessels based here had reached the scene before the 20-minute period.

Bickley Rites Held Saturday

STANTON (SC) — Services were held here Saturday for Mrs. Frances Gertrude Bickley, longtime resident of Stanton and mother of Jimmy Bickley, high school principal.

Mrs. Bickley died Christmas Day in Stanton, and services were conducted the following day by the Rev. Wallace Kirby, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Burial was in the Evergreen Cemetery under the direction of Arrington Funeral Home.

Mrs. Bickley came here in 1931. Surviving her are three sons, Jimmy Bickley, Stanton, A. J. Bickley, Terminal, Harrison Beckley, Midland; four daughters, Mrs. Allene Blocker, Mrs. Glenn Powell, Mrs. LaRada Barnhill, all of Stanton, and Mrs. Lois Graves, Fort Hancock. She also leaves 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

2 Die, 25 Stricken By Food Poisoning

DETROIT (AP) — Two women died and 25 persons, including eight children, were stricken ill with food poisoning in Detroit Sunday.

The dead were Anna Kahanak, 61, and Isabella Tait, 79. Nineteen were admitted to hospitals, and six were treated and released.

Detective Sgt. Dave Harris of the Homicide Bureau said there was no reason for general alarm. "There was no connection between the scattered attacks," Harris said. "In each case the trouble seemed to stem from food that had spoiled or that hadn't been properly prepared."

France's Highway Death Toll Is 100. PARIS (AP) — Highway accidents claimed 100 lives in France over the three-day Christmas weekend. It was one of the worst holiday traffic tolls in the history of this nation of 44 million.

In a four-day Christmas period last year only 28 deaths were recorded.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The Big Spring Country Club people were pleased over the bids they received on their new clubhouse. The lowest bid was about $10,000 under the cost estimated by the architects.

If all goes well, the club could be in its new quarters by the middle of next July. Present plans call for the golf shop now being used at the old course to be moved to the new layout.

It's a pleasure to report that Dexter Pate, third string quarterback of the Big Spring Oilers the past season, is well on the way to recovery. Pate missed most of last season because of a nose injury he experienced in a scrimmage. Little was thought about the ailment at the time but the wound wouldn't stop bleeding. He had to spend some time in the hospital on a couple of occasions.

Dexter is already planning to resume football, although his doctor says the injury is still out on him. It'll probably be spring before he rules one way or another on the boy returning to molekicks.

Young Pate will be a junior next fall and, if he's given the high sign by the doctor, could make Jerry Tucker and Tommy Whatley hustle for the regular job.

The University of Oklahoma's all-opponent football team included three Texans — although one of them plays for a non-Texas team.

He would be Don Ury of West Point, who hails from Venus, Texas, but who attended Cleburne High School.

The other two are Maurice Duke and Jack Collins, both of the University of Texas.

A golf professional named Hans Merrell, who works at Mogadore, Ohio, took 19 strokes on a par three hole in a tournament at Pebble Beach, Calif., earlier this year.

His troubles started with a slice. His second shot hit a rock and bounded into heavy underbrush. He took five futile whacks, buried the ball with the sixth, picked it up and moved to the beach, thereby incurring two penalty strokes.

The next shot sent it back to the weeds, where three more strokes buried it anew. After two more penalty strokes, Merrell finally chipped the green — where he was two-putted.

Don Brownlee, the former Odessa High School cage great, is drawing praise for his play on the Baylor University basketball team.

I like sports writer Fred Russell's story about a Notre Dame's zealot, who approached coach Knute Rockne one day and asked:

"We gonna beat them Protestants tomorrow?"

Rockne reminded him that both Protestants and Catholics could be counted in the ranks of the Irish players.

The fan tried a new approach. Said he:

"That Flanagan sure is a fine back, ain't he?"

"Yes, he is," replied Rockne. "By the way, did you know he was a Protestant?"

The fan mulled that over, then fired back:

"Ain't he the so-and-so that fumbled against Army?"

A horse named Cow Town won a race at a Toledo, Ohio, race track last summer. His jockey was Victor Bovine.

Selection System Beat Us, Says Southwest's Mentor

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — A lopsided system of picking Southwest all stars was blamed for their defeat by Arizona State University Coach Frank Kush.

National all stars cut down the Southwesterners 21-16 in Saturday's second annual Copper Bowl game at Tempe.

"Things will be different next year," said Kush, Southwest copilot with Ben Martin of the Air Force Academy.

"The system of selecting players has to be equalized. The Southwest area and its talent are too limited," said Kush.

"The Nationals draw from the rest of the nation," he complained. "We were outgunned on the offensive line and couldn't match their passing game."

The two teams battled evenly in the first quarter before 16,000 and a national television audience. After that the Nationals seized control.

Bill Burrell, All-America guard from Illinois, intercepted a Southwest pass to set up the first National score. Angelo Coia of Southern California pounded over from the six-yard line.

Roger Leclerc of Trinity, who missed three conversion attempts, kicked a 28-yard field goal giving the Nationals a 9-0 half-time lead.

Quarterbacks Richie Lucas of Penn State and Larry Blesat of Michigan State scored for the Nationals in the fourth period on National plays.

The Southwest's only score came on a 41-yard pass from Arizona quarterback Jim Giest to end Bill Spanko of Arizona State University.

The Nationals dominated offensive statistics, rolling up 342 yards to only 153 for the Southwest.

Burrell shared most valuable player honors with National guard Ron Mix of Southern Calif. Lucas was named outstanding

Unitas Has A Great Day In Colts' Win

By JACK DAVIS

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The Baltimore Colts, counted out of the race by many after three losses in their first seven games, are the world champions of professional football again today.

They clinched the title for the second straight year by staging an inspired 24-point fourth quarter Sunday to rout the Eastern Division champion New York Giants 31-16. Last year the Colts defeated the Giants in the playoff 23-17 in a sudden-death overtime period.

Colts quarterback Johnny Unitas, voted the pro football player of the year, proved to a capacity crowd of nearly 60,000 in Memorial Stadium and televiewers in 44 states that he deserved the honor. He ran two touchdown passes and threw for a third. It was the 39th straight game he has thrown a scoring drive.

Still, it was the defense on both teams that shone.

During that wild last period, when Giant quarterback Charley Conerly was trying to get New York back in the ball game with long passes, the Colts secondary picked off three interceptions. Conerly had only four intercepted off during the entire season.

"Their defense made all their points for them today, not the offense," said Giant coach Jim Lee Howell. "Both defenses were better than the offensive teams."

If there were a single crucial play for the Giants, Howell reasoned, it was in the third quarter when New York, on the Colts 26, decided to go for a first down on a fourth-and-one situation. The Giants were leading 9-7 at the time.

Halfback Alex Webster tried to barrel through his right tackle spot, but the Colt line surged in on him en masse, and Baltimore took over the ball on downs.

"The team seemed to go down a bit after that," Howell said, "though they never stopped trying."

That they were Unitas and Lenny Moore were the key men in an 86-yard, 10-play drive that produced the Colts' touchdown early in the fourth quarter to put them ahead 14-9. A Unitas-Moore pass and run play moved the ball to the New York 12. A punt and the versatile Unitas rolled out to his right and scored from the four standing up. From then on the Colts were home free.

It was the same great Unitas-Moore combination that clicked for the first quarter touchdown that gave the Colts a 7-0 lead. This score — on a 60-yard play — came the first time the Colts had the ball. Unitas faked a handoff to Alan Ameche and then, from his own 40, fired the ball to Moore. Fleet Lenny took it on the New York 38 and sped all the way for the score.

The Giants started out impressively moving quickly into Colt territory. But Conerly was caught 18 yards behind the line by rushing defensive end Gino Marchetti, and Don Chandler punted over the goal line.

New York got going again late in the quarter on a beautiful draw play, with Mel Triplett shooting the middle for 25 yards to the Colts 17. Then came a break that could have had some influence on the outcome.

Conerly barely overshot Rote in the end zone. Rote dived for the ball and fell. Colt halfback Johnny Sample, a step behind, fell over Rote, and his knee hit Rote's chin inflicting a mild concussion. Rote didn't get back in action until midway of the third quarter.

The Giants worked the ball down to the three-yard line before the Colt defense stiffened.

Pat Summerall came in then to kick the first of three field goals which kept the Giants in the thick of it until the roof fell in that last quarter.

New York played the Colts off their feet during the third quarter. Baltimore didn't get a first down until the period was almost over — but the Giants were unable to muster more than a third field goal. Summerall's last effort was a comparatively short 15-yarder climaxing a drive that started on the Colts 44.

After the Colts had taken the lead, Conerly tried to get the Giants downfield with a 25-yard pass aimed at Rote. But little Andy Nelson from Memphis State grabbed the pigskin and ran it back 16 yards to the Giants 14.

After one plunge by Ameche, Unitas lobbed a corner pass to Richardson for all the scoring the Colts would need.

Conerly, still hoping to pull it out, fired two more long ones. Sample got in the way of both of those, however. The Maryland State scabback returned one of them 42 yards for a touchdown, literally fighting his way for the last three yards while two red-and-white jerseyed players tried to drag him down. Sample returned his second interception 34 yards before he was racked up.

The Giants finally managed to dent the Colts goal line with a 32-yard pass from Conerly which end Bob Schmelker caught about two yards inside the end zone. But there were only 32 seconds remaining, and the issue had been decided.

The statistics were much closer than the score. New York chalked up 16 first downs to Baltimore's 13, and outstruck the Colts, 118 yards to 73. Baltimore had a slight edge in passing, with Unitas completing 18 of 29 tries for 264 yards, and Conerly completing 17 in 38 tries for 250 yards. None of Unitas' heaves was intercepted, and neither team fumbled. New York was penalized 23 yards to 30 for Baltimore.

The game grossed $666,281. With taxes, rentals and operating expenses taken out, it left a net take of $555,743.16. The Colts players and coaches will get a check for $4,674.44, with $3,083.27 going to each loser.

23 Cage Meets Are Scheduled Thruout Nation

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Twenty-three, count 'em, college basketball tournaments are carded for tonight with practically every top team in the country involved in the big ones.

Six tournaments got under way last Saturday, and the other 17 start tonight. They'll all wind up by the end of the week.

In Los Angeles, the final of the first annual Los Angeles Festival could wind up in a replay of last season's NCAA championship between California and West Virginia.

The Bears have won 22 games in a row, the longest winning streak among major schools. They run head-on into Illinois (5-0) in their first game. West Virginia (8-0), led by All America Jerry West, plays Stanford.

The other two openers match Southern California against Northwestern and UCLA against Michigan.

At Raleigh, N.C., the Dixie classic starts with Utah (8-0) favored to break a 10-year stranglehold by North Carolina schools. The Utes play Duke in the first round. Wake Forest tangles with Holy Cross; North Carolina State meets Dayton and North Carolina is matched against Minnesota in the other games.

Other major tournaments getting under way tonight include the All-College at Oklahoma City, the Blue Grass at Louisville, the Southwest Conference at Houston, the Hurricane Classic at Miami and the Motor City at Detroit.

In New York, they still are marvelling at Oscar Robertson's fantastic 47 points in Cincinnati's 96-56 rout of St. Bonaventure Saturday in the first round of the ECAC Holiday Festival.

Big O and Co. meet St. Joseph's of Philadelphia in the semifinal tonight — the same club they smothered, 123-79 earlier in the season.

Bell and Carter Tip Lillard Duo

The Big Spring team of Bill Bell and Bill Carter learned to score a victory over Bill Lillard and George Pike in an exhibition bowling match at Bobby Layne's Bowl-A-Rama here Sunday afternoon.

Lillard is a Texan who is on the Brunswick advisory staff. He later offered instructions to local bowlers.

Bell and Carter combined for a three-game score of 1119, 11 pins better than Lillard and Pike were able to achieve.

Bell posted a 561, with a 201 game high.

Unbeaten Tom McNeely Is Matched With Geo. Logan

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

A couple of young heavyweight prospects and a pair of veteran middleweights are the stars in this week's boxing program.

Undefeated Tom McNeely of Boston and once-beaten George Logan of Boise, Idaho, clash in the television headline (NBC 10 p.m., EST) of a heavyweight card at Madison Square Garden. Middweights Holly Mims of Washington and Dick Tiger of Nigeria meet in the Wednesday night TV (ABC 10 p.m., EST) title at Chicago Stadium.

McNeely, 22, has a 15-0 record including 13 knockouts. Logan, 23, has a 12-1-1 record, including 10 kayos. The lone loss was by split decision to Hurricane Jackson, onetime top contender.

Four other heavyweight corners also are matched in 10-rounders on the same card. Unbeaten Lee Williams of Boston opposes Don Warner of Philadelphia and Irish Billy Ryan of Boston mixes with Bartolo Soti of the Dominican Republic.

ANNUAL SWC TOURNEY TO BEGIN AT 2 P. M.

HOUSTON (AP)—The Southwest Conference's annual basketball preview—the pre-season tournament —hits the hardwoods today with Southern Methodist and the Texas Aggies sharing the favorites' spotlight.

Arkansas and Baylor, two teams expected to give the top contenders a run for their money, kick open the action at 2 p.m. at Rice Institute Field house.

The Ponies, 5-2 for the season and victors over highly-regarded Georgia Tech, meet a sophomoreish Texas Tech team, which has only four lettermen, two hours later.

A&M takes on the 1958 conference champion, Texas Christian, at 7:30 p.m., and Rice and Texas will close the first day's play at 9 p.m. Finals are scheduled for Wednesday night.

The Aggies and Frogs come in where the '58 tourney left off. A&M beat TCU, 61-45, in that meet's finals, then fell behind in conference play when injuries hit its ranks. TCU took the flag with a 12-3 record but lost all its starters.

Sharp-shooting Texas rides the darkhorse seat. The Longhorns have peppered the basket for an 86-point game scoring average—the league's best—in winning five and losing two pre-season games.

But Rice, 3-4 for the year, is even with the Longhorns in the odds books by virtue of their home court advantage.

The Aggies are a solid 12-point favorite over Texas Christian, and dopesters figure the Ponies a 13-point choice over Tech's young Raiders. Arkansas and Baylor also are quoted as even.

Six of the eight teams worked out briefly after their arrival Sunday. Texas came in later while Arkansas stopped off for a work-out in Texarkana and was not due in until early today.

Early ticket sales had officials looking for a record gate for the second consecutive year. The tourney moved here in 1953 after suffering two years of financial failure in Dallas.

Sale of 72 sponsorships at $100 each guaranteed the meet $7,200 and officials said they expected more to be snapped up. Each sponsor gets 16 full-tournament tickets.

Local Cage Teams Back On Courts

Both the Big Spring High School and HCJC basketball teams return to practice today.

The Steers, now 10-4 on the season, are entered in the annual Odessa Tournament, which starts Friday and continues through Saturday.

The HCJC squad will be the host team in the eighth annual Howard College tournament, which starts Thursday and extends for three days.

The Jayhawks have won nine of their first ten starts and will enter the meet as one of the favorites.

Tom Landry May Land Pro Job With Houston Today

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—An announcement may come today that Tom Landry, defensive coach for the New York Giants in the National Football League, has been hired as coach of Houston in the American Football League.

Bud Adams, owner of the Houston franchise, would not comment on reports that Landry was to coach his team but indicated Sunday night that he was trying to contact Landry so that an announcement might be made.

Owners of the proposed Dallas franchise in the NFL said they had made no contact with Landry and the Dallas club of the AFL already has a coach, Henry Stram.

Bellaire Opposes Dallas Standout

DALLAS (AP)—Houston Bellaire meets Dallas Jefferson and Dallas Hillcrest clashes with Dallas Crozier Tech tonight in feature games of the Cotton Bowl High School Basketball Tournament.

Bellaire and Hillcrest are favored to meet in the finals.

Cannon Covets Ole Miss Win

By ED TUNSTALL

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — More than 83,000 fans in the Sugar Bowl stadium New Year's Day and a national television audience may see what lifts All-America halfback Billy Cannon above the ordinary football player.

The 210-pound Louisiana State standout closes a fabulous college career against Mississippi in the 26th annual Sugar Bowl game. And nothing—not even his Heisman trophy—would be closer to Cannon than another victory over the Rebels.

It is with Cannon, now more than ever, that LSU hopes for a second straight Sugar Bowl triumph. With the LSU injury list growing, Cannon's power running will be more than just the bread-and-butter ingredients of the Tiger attack.

Quarterback Warren Raab hurt his right knee badly just before the season ended and sophomore halfback Wendell Harris, who booted five field goals, broke his left arm. And as if that didn't hurt enough, halfback Johnny Robinson broke his left hand in a fall last week.

This then, throws the weight of the LSU offense on Cannon, a chore all too familiar to the 22-year-old back. He's used to being a marked man and coming through when it counts most.

What is it with Cannon that made him the outstanding player of the 1959 season, a year in which he won the storied Heisman trophy and was noted The Associated Press Back of the Year?

It isn't that he is bigger, or scores more points or makes more yardage. He can easily be eclipsed in these departments.

Examine Cannon's record for the 1959 season. He gained 398 yards on 129 carries, an average of slightly better than four yards a crack. Fullback Charlie Flowers, his All-America counterpart in the Mississippi backfield, was far ahead of Cannon in yardage production.

But few, if any players matched Cannon's all-around brilliance. He was among the Southeastern Conference's leaders in pass receiving, punting, pass interceptions, punt and kick-off returns and scoring.

His stand-out virtue was the perpetual ability to come through with the big play at the right time, and you need no better witness than the Mississippi club.

His 89-yard touchdown run that whipped the Rebels last October has been praised countless times. It came when pressure was greatest and when LSU needed it most.

Cannon's No. 40—to be retired by LSU after the Sugar Bowl game—will be the target of the Mississippi defense Friday. And LSU's betting that it will prove just as elusive as it has been for the last three years.

AGAINST GIANTS 'Old Men' Did A Fine Job: Weeb

By LOU PANOS

BALTIMORE (AP)—"Those old men did a fine job," chuckled Weeb Ewbank.

The stubby Baltimore coach, still glowing over the 31-16 victory his Colts racked up over the New York Giants Sunday for the National Football League championship, was referring to his defensive line.

He was thinking, no doubt, of pre-season comments — fortified by a mid-season slump — that age had robbed the Colt forward wall of its brilliance.

But on the money play Sunday it was "the old men" who put the stopper on the surging Giants and helped turn a tense defensive struggle into a rout.

Leading 9-7 in the third quarter, New York was on the march and threatening to break the game wide open. With fourth down and inches to go just outside the Baltimore 26, quarterback Charley Conerly called on Alex Webster for a line smash which would have meant a first down.

Webster barreled toward right guard and tried to dive over the battling linemen, only to meet an unyielding mass and wind up in the arms of all-pro end Gino Marchetti (age 32) and tackle Ray Krouse (also 32).

Besides Marchetti and Krouse, the Colt defensive line included all-pro tackle Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, who's pushing 29, 34-year-old tackle Art Donovan and 30-year-old end Don Joyce.

Ewbank noted that Colt quarterback Johnny Unitas, who tossed two touchdown passes and scored on a four-yard end sweep, also was under pressure by the Giant defense. He was smeared seven times for losses totaling 56 yards, compared with 45 yards lost by Conerly on five breakdowns in New York pass protection.

"We wanted the ball," explained Ewbank. "I stressed to John he shouldn't throw until he was ready."

"But I believe his caution led to the victory. He had no interceptions and I believe that was the key to the game."

How does this Colt team compare with the one which beat the Colts 23-17 in the sudden-death overtime thriller for the 1958 championship?

Not as good, said Giant tackle Dick Modzelewski. "We faced a much better club last year. But you can't take it away from them. They're champs."

Conerly, still hoping to pull it out, fired two more long ones. Sample got in the way of both of those, however. The Maryland State scabback returned one of them 42 yards for a touchdown, literally fighting his way for the last three yards while two red-and-white jerseyed players tried to drag him down. Sample returned his second interception 34 yards before he was racked up.

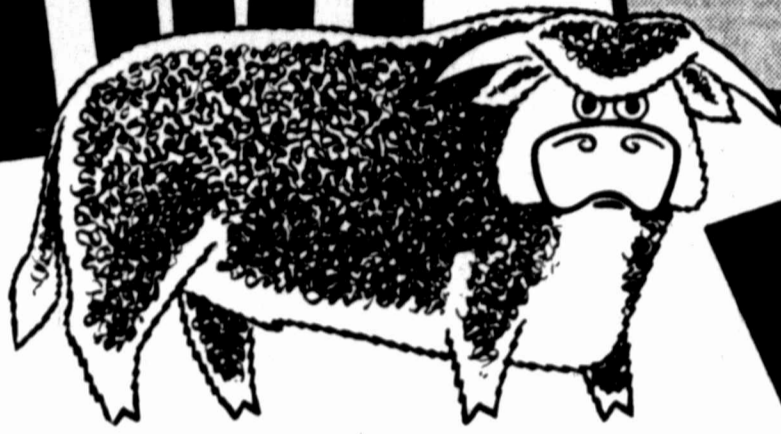

The Giants finally managed to dent the Colts goal line with a 32-yard pass from Conerly which end Bob Schmelker caught about two yards inside the end zone. But there were only 32 seconds remaining, and the issue had been decided.

The statistics were much closer than the score. New York chalked up 16 first downs to Baltimore's 13, and outstruck the Colts, 118 yards to 73. Baltimore had a slight edge in passing, with Unitas completing 18 of 29 tries for 264 yards, and Conerly completing 17 in 38 tries for 250 yards. None of Unitas' heaves was intercepted, and neither team fumbled. New York was penalized 23 yards to 30 for Baltimore.

The game grossed $666,281. With taxes, rentals and operating expenses taken out, it left a net take of $555,743.16. The Colts players and coaches will get a check for $4,674.44, with $3,083.27 going to each loser.

MRS. WALTER DALE SMITH

Ernestine Wood, Dale Smith Wed

LAMESA. (Spl.) — In a double ring ceremony at three o'clock Sunday afternoon Ernestine Wood became the bride of Walter Dale Smith. The altar at First Baptist Church was lined with candles and centered with a candle tree and cascading southern smilax interspersed with white poinsettias for the service.

Officiating was the Rev. Milo B. Arbuckle, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Wood, A teacher in the Midland public schools, she is a graduate of Texas Technological College, Lubbock.

Smith's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Smith of Hughesville, Mo. An associate of the CPA firm of Sproles, Woodward, Laverty and McGee, Midland, he holds a B. S. degree from the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.

The program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Dick Edwards at the organ, and vocalists E. J. Peltier and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wittner.

The bride was given in mar-

Holiday Visitors Returning Home

FORSAN — Mr. and Mrs. Rip Bailey, Muri and Cathie, had as their guests Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Langley, Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Bailey and their mother, Mrs. Viola Bailey, Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Green, Pecos, and Mrs. Bill McIntosh, Big Spring, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Oglesby and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Green and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oglesby, Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall and son, Odessa, were here to join the others in the Oglesby family. The Sammy Porters of Forsan spent Christmas in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McAdams and sons in Big Spring.

Mrs. McAdams also is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Oglesby. Visiting here from Pecos are Mr. and Mrs. Randall Stanton and daughters. They were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Strickland, Jeannette and Marie, and of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Strickland and their daughters.

Mary Anne Attaway Is Wed To Delmar Hartin

A Sunday afternoon wedding ceremony was read at the First Baptist Church for Mary Anne Attaway and Delmar Leland Hartin by Dr. P. D. O'Brien who was assisted by the Rev. R. B. Murray of the Northside Baptist Church.

The wedding party stood at the altar that was decorated with a sunburst arrangement of commode foliage centered with a poinsettia. The floral pieces were flanked by candelabrum that held wedding tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Paul Attaway and the late Mr. Attaway, 501 Main St. Mrs. E. E. Hartin and the late Mr. Hartin are parents of the bridegroom.

Reyford E. Beckham of Garland, brother of the bride, escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Carl Bradley sang O Perfect Love, The Wedding Prayer and I Love Thee as nuptial selections accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Bob Craig.

The bride designed her ballerina length wedding dress which was of white satin covered with lace. Her veil of handmade lace was a gift from a friend in the Philippines. It was held by a headpiece composed of five petal-like loops. She wore earrings that were a gift of the bridegroom.

An orchid was carried on a white Bible which had also been carried by her sisters in their weddings.

Jeannette Martin of Jonesboro was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ray Wethers and Arlene Hartin. Junior attendants were nieces of the bride, Luray and Elaine Biffar. All feminine attendants wore red velvet street length dresses with hats of white whimsie with red velvet bows. They carried white fur muffs to which tinted carnation corsages were pinned.

Following tradition the bride borrowed the gold expansion bracelet worn by her mother and two sisters in their weddings; her dress was new and a blue garter was a wedding present. She had pennies in her shoe that carried the birth dates of the couple.

Viron Hartin served as his brother's best man and groomsmen were Elton Hartin, El Paso, Weldon McElreath, Fort Worth, and Bill McElreath, Henry (Bud) Hill of Abilene and Richard Tucker were ushers.

Linda Northcutt of Irving, a flower girl while Ray Martin Jr., of Jonesboro, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Sherill Gambill and Judy Daniels, former students of the couple, lighted the altar tapers.

WEDDING TRIP When the couple left for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the new Mrs. Hartin wore a turquoise wool knit suit with brown accessories and white fur bandera. She pinned flowers from her wedding bouquet on her lapel.

When the couple return they will

Anniversary Party Given

LAMESA. (Spl.) — A family dinner at the home of their son, Elmer Boyd, at 6 p.m. Christmas Day marked the 61st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Boyd, residents of Lamesa since 1924.

The couple married on the "prettiest day the Lord ever made," said Mr. Boyd, as he recalled their wedding in Jones County, Boyd, who is 81, was born in Navarro County and moved to Jones County in 1894 with his family. Mrs. Boyd moved to Jones County from Kentucky in 1897, and exactly one year from the day she arrived in Texas married her husband.

The couple's home is at 407 N. Ave H. In addition to operating a restaurant in Lamesa, Mr. Boyd has served as chief of police for Lamesa and was constable for four years; he began his employment with the City of Lamesa in 1928.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd had two sons: Johnny Alvis, now deceased, and Elmer, who lives in Lamesa and operates the Boyd restaurants. There are two grandchildren living and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Boyd and his brother T. H. Boyd, who lives 3 miles northeast of Lamesa are the only two of 17 children still living.

make a home at 4801 Wayside in Fort Worth. She is on the faculty of the Lake Worth School System and he is presently enrolled in the School of Sacred Music, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Hartin is a graduate of Big Spring High School and Mary Hardin-Baylor College. She taught school two years at College Heights Elementary School in Big Spring.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Big Spring High School, Howard County Junior College and Hardin-Simmons University. He has been employed by the First National Bank and taught at Boydston Elementary School here.

Members of the bridal party and the mothers of the couple greeted the wedding guests at the reception held in Fellowship Hall of the church immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Reyford Martin of Jonesboro and Mrs. Reyford Beckham of Garland, served from the silver punch bowl and coffee service. The white laid table was centered with a floral arrangement which circled a Japanese candelabra about which white carnations were spiraled. The all-white three tiered bride's cake was topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Elva Biffar registered the guests. Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Northcutt of Irving, and Mrs. Mary Stafford of Dallas were out of town guests.

MRS. DELMAR LELAND HARTIN

'ROUND TOWN With Lucille Pickle

A little pin found its way back home during this holiday season and MRS. SHERMAN SMITH, who received it, was quite surprised when it arrived in the mail from Dallas.

When KING SIDES was high school principal here, more than 16 years ago, and OPAL DOUGLAS was a teacher in the local schools, Mrs. Smith accompanied a group that included them on a trip to Austin to a teachers' meeting. She had purchased a new suit that had the cunning little pin on the lapel. Everyone liked it and passed the pin from one to another until Mrs. Smith forgot she ever had it. That is, until she got it through the mail with a little note saying it had been away many years, seen many places and met many people but it was nice to get back home.

She presumes the note and the pin came from Miss Douglas; she's not real sure it's the same pin... she never had it long enough to get really acquainted.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD (BOOGER) HARVEY and their son, Harry, spent Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Odum and Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Appleton. While Mr. Harvey had to return to their home in Alice, Mrs. Harvey and Harry will remain here through Jan. 1.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES WEIR and family of Houston returned to their home Sunday after visiting Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Hill.

Back to Memphis Sunday evening went JOHN ARTHUR LAWRENCE who spent a brief holiday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Lawrence Sr.

Holidays guests in the home of MR. AND MRS. DEWEY PHILLIPS SR. are JAMES PHILLIPS and his family from Joliet, Ill., and her brother, WILLIE MOORE of East St. Louis, Ill., who expect to leave Tuesday for their homes.

MR. AND MRS. CLYDE GREGORY and their family were also here from Dumas for Christmas.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS O. VICK, Stan and Gregg, are visiting in Little Rock, Ark. with Lt. and Mrs. Jimmy Porter. Lt. Porter, a former Big Spring resident, is stationed at Jacksonville AFB.

From Madrid, Spain, comes a greeting from MRS. WILMA G. CLARK who plans to be there until Jan. 10 when she will go to Lisbon, Portugal, for a month. She then will spend two months in Seville and afterwards will tour Italy, France, Switzerland and the Low Countries before going to Antwerp after which she plans to be back here in May. Her present address is Av. de la Mabana 122, casa B, Madrid 16, Espana.

MR. AND MRS. HOUSTON COWDEN and MR. AND MRS. ED BRINDLEY will leave Wednesday or Thursday for El Paso where they will spend the New Year holiday. They expect to see the Sun Bowl parade after which they will be guests of MR. AND MRS. PETE McDANIELS who are entertaining a party of a hundred friends at a barbecue. The group plans to attend the horse races at the new Smiland track.

From notes on Christmas cards we learn: From MRS. ERNIE KEFFER (LOUISE MAYES) in Malibu, Calif., that her brother, JOE HAYES, and his family will finally get to come back to the states in March. They have been living in France for a number of years. He is a government employe. They will be stationed at Moses Lake, Wash. From former Herald employe CLIFTON LAW-HORNE in Corpus Christi comes word he took himself a wife on Dec. 7.

MR. AND MRS. SID WOODS returned Sunday night from Fort Worth where they spent the Christmas holiday with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rayermann.

MRS. R. D. McMILLAN accompanied her son, BOBBY, to Dallas today for a short holiday during which time they will view the newly released moving picture, Ben Hur.

MRS. ADA WYCHE and her daughter, Jackie, have returned to their home in Anaheim, Calif., after spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, and other relatives.

N. PETTY of May is a guest in the home of his niece, Mrs. Faye Johnson.

Salad Cue

Some cooks like to marinate cooked vegetables—carrots, snap beans, broccoli—and then add them to a bowl of crisp greens for an interesting salad.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Buckingham of Coahoma are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Linda Marie, to Airman Apprentice William R. Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Johnston of Sand Springs. No wedding date has been made.

Resolutions Greet Guests

A scroll bearing resolutions for the new year greeted guests at the R. E. McKinney home Sunday afternoon when they entertained with open house from 3 until 6.

The scroll of white felt was lettered in gold and bore the resolution to Quit Smoking, Quit Drinking and Quit Cavorting Around.

The McKinneys received their guests and were assisted in the courtesies by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cook, Mr. and Mrs. James Underwood, Dr. Floyd Mays, Mrs. Leona McKinney of Dalhart, and Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Allen of Edna.

Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Talbot served refreshments. The table was laid with a deep green cloth with a center band of gold metallic cloth. This was centered with a large green candle surrounded by holly.

More than a hundred couples called during the afternoon.

Gressetts Guests

Of Forsan Family

FORSAN — Here to be with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gressett, are Mrs. J. C. Pye and her family from Crane, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gressett of Snyder. They attended the wedding of their brother, Kenneth (Babo) Gressett, who was married Saturday evening to Mary Patrick in Big Spring.

Visiting friends here from Monument, N. M. were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Cox, who are former Forsan residents.

Weekend guests of Mrs. Vera Harris are her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Ray and Gerald from Overton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Philley and children have been visiting with relatives in Abilene.

Cecil Klahr, Big Lake, was home for Christmas with his father, J. F. Klahr, and Jeannie, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Klahr, and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Klahr and children.

Open House

For Esmonds

LAMESA. (Spl.) — Complimenting the Blaine Esmonds of Austin, Mrs. Bob Lindsey Jr. entertained with an open house at her home, 304 N. 14th St., from 3 to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Esmond is the former Christine Lindsey, the hostess' daughter, and there are three grandchildren, Candy and Cookie, and four-month-old Doug.

Holiday decorations were featured throughout the house with the mantle banked in greenery and red lights setting the theme.

On the serving table laid with a red and white damask cloth printed in gold, were two brass candelabra trees; one with green lights, and the other with red lights. Both were banked in cedar and glitter balls. Crystal appointments were used, and the guests were served punch, finger sandwiches, fruit drops and jewel banana bread.

Unrest Cited In Iraq Issue

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Reports of unrest sweeping southern Iraq roused speculation today that Premier Abdel Karim Kassem may be moving troops into the area to counter a threat of revolt rather than to launch any move against Iran.

One merchant said a demonstration had been staged against Kassem in the Iraqi village of Amereh and anti-Kassem leaflets distributed.

There were reports also of new Iraqi troop movements west of the frontier above Khorranshahr.

Previous reports of troop movements on the Iraqi side of the Iraq-Iran frontier raised fears in Iran that Kassem might be planning military action in support of his claim to land occupied by Iran adjacent to the Shatt-Al-Arab estuary.

DEAR ABBY

SPURN IT

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Like most teenagers, I like to read magazines. Well, I have just returned from the newsstand. Have you seen what is put out for us to read? "I LEARNED ABOUT SIN FROM MY HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER." And "WE WENT STEADY ONE NIGHT TOO LONG." Also "I WAS CHASED BY A LOVE-WILD GIRL," and "I'M GOING TO MARRY THE FIRST MAN I SEE!"

If it is true that teenagers are headed for the dogs, I think adults who print such magazines are pushing us in that direction. Not only are those magazines not fit to be read, but they give others the wrong impression about teenagers. Abby, what can be done? DISGUSTED TEEN-AGER (Columbus, Ohio)

DEAR DISGUSTED: Three cheers for you! The only reason a commodity remains on the market is because there is a demand for it. SOMEBODY must be buying this trash. If you and enough like-minded teen-agers refuse to buy these magazines, they will disappear in a hurry. Don't look for repentance from the people who publish them. They don't care if it smells as long as it sells.

DEAR ABBY: I have a daughter-in-law who is driving me crazy. She is a great one for talking. But each sentence she utters ends with a ripple of laughter whether she is talking about somebody's funeral or planting tulips. Any suggestions?

NERVOUS WRECK DEAR NERVOUS: Your daughter-in-law is probably nervous, too. People whose EVERY sentence ends with "a ripple of laughter" need sympathy, not criticism.

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for advising mothers to keep their children at home when they come down with a "light" case of measles.

If only mothers realized the terrible injustice they are doing to others (especially to women in the early stages of pregnancy) when they allow their youngsters with measles to roam the neighborhood.

Because a little neighbor girl came to our house with a light case of measles, I lost the baby I wanted so much. Perhaps I was lucky. Many women who have contracted German measles early in their pregnancy give birth to babies who are blind, deformed and mentally deficient. There are NO light cases of physically or mentally defective babies. DISAPPOINTED MOTHER-TO-BE

Parties Seek Gain On Rocky Decision

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both major parties strove today to capitalize on a stunning political surprise — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's withdrawal from the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

Republicans pictured the GOP as a unified party, one which refrains from rending itself apart in brawling convention contests — a party which can now devote all its energies to electing Vice President Richard M. Nixon to the presidency.

Democrats depicted the GOP as controlled by old pro conservatives, who do not give "progressives" like the New York governor a look-in. There was even talk—notably by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas—of drafting Rockefeller for a high post under the Democratic president to be elected next November.

Neither party had much to say in public about the problems posed for it by Rockefeller's "definite and final" announcement on Saturday that he would not be a candidate in 1960 for the presidential nomination, and would not accept the vice presidential spot.

One big poser for the Republicans was how to pump any drama into their convention opening in Chicago next July 25. It will be like a mystery novel of which every reader knows the ending. Nothing now sighted on the political horizon can prevent a first ballot nomination for Nixon. The only suspense lies in the choice of his running mate.

And if political custom holds, Nixon and not the delegates will make that choice. He said Sunday, as he left in high good humor to attend the Colts-Giants football game in Baltimore, that it was too early to talk about the 1960 ticket.

The Republican national chairman, Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, praised Rockefeller for "so clearly stating his position." Morton said he felt Nixon was well ahead in the GOP presidential nomination picture.

The White House declined comment on Rockefeller's withdrawal.

Adlai Stevenson: "His withdrawal leaves his party no free choice of candidates. He often seems like a thoughtful and sincere liberal, and for the sake of the country I regret that his views found so little encouragement in his party. But, as he says, the Republican leaders want no contest, and so the Republicans now have no choice."

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex): "I am not surprised. It has been obvious for some time that there is no place in the national Republican party for the able and progressive governor. I think the Democratic president to be elected next November should give serious consideration to asking Gov. Rockefeller to serve in the Democratic administration in some high official position."

Sen. John F. Kennedy (Mass): "I was really surprised. I heard something about it earlier but couldn't believe it."

Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California: "The Republican party 'turned deaf ears to a newer and more liberal voice than that of Vice President Nixon. The conservatives are in complete charge. I have a feeling Gov. Rockefeller's fate was all settled when Mr. (Thomas E.) Dewey got through talking to Mr. Nixon in Washington last weekend."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn) had no immediate comment. Sen. Stuart Symington (Mo) was traveling in Africa and could not be reached.

Texas Traffic Toll 27, Highest In U. S.

By The Associated Press The traffic toll in Texas over the Christmas holidays rose to 27 by Sunday midnight—the third highest in the nation.

California with 35 had the most traffic fatalities and New York was second with 29. Texas was tied in third place with Pennsylvania and North Carolina who each had 27 also.

Indonesians Open Trial Of Yank, Then Delay Case

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—The trial of Allan Lawrence Pope, Miami pilot charged with flying a bomber for Indonesian rebels, opened today but was quickly recessed until Jan. 2 to consider defense protests.

The 31-year-old American was stern faced but otherwise outwardly indifferent as he was brought under guard before an Indonesian air force court-martial for the trial that could mean a death sentence.

Pope, who flew combat missions in the Korean War, was captured May 18, 1958, after his B26 was shot down over the Banda Sea during the uprising in Sumatra and the Celebes.

Four charges were lodged against him. They were helping enemies of the state and carrying arms and ammunition, each of which carried a maximum death sentence, and rebellion against the state and killing Indonesian nationals. The latter two carry maximum sentences of 15 years imprisonment.

Pope's Indonesian lawyer, appointed by the court, challenged the validity of the trial. He also protested he had not been given time to prepare his case since the English translation of the charges was delivered to him only two days ago. He also raised other points concerning the Geneva Convention on Prisoners of War.

The presiding judge ordered the recess after the prosecution pleaded for time to reply to the defense objections.

The Communists, waging an anti-American campaign in Indonesia, have been trying to make political capital of the case. They have distributed pamphlets demanding the death sentence for Pope.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A team of experts has decided the Department of Health, Education and Welfare is "over-sanitized." That means it has too many rest rooms.

The survey showed the department had a dozen rest rooms on each of its four floors. They were spacious and quite uncrowded. So it was decided to close up half of them and convert them into storage space, conference rooms and file rooms.

One official said, "We've all had to double up while adding to our staffs. The most free space I've been able to find around here is in the rest rooms and it's literally true that we have held some of our smaller conferences in them."

Says Negro Frats Need More Whites

NEW YORK (AP) — A Negro state official says Negro college fraternities should accept more white members.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Herbert E. Tucker Jr. of Massachusetts told the national convention of Omega Psi Phi Sunday that so far Negro fraternities have accepted only "token white membership."

"The way things are now," Tucker said, "the sons of present members often do not join our fraternity because they prefer the well-established white groups."

New 3 3/4% Interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

And the Bonds you already own are better than ever, too!

NEW SERIES E BONDS TURN $18.75 INTO $25.00 14 MONTHS QUICKER THAN BEFORE

Three new dollar benefits make U.S. Savings Bonds a smarter buy than ever. First, all the series E and H Bonds you owned before June 1, 1959, automatically earn an extra 1/2% interest from June 1 until maturity. Second, every new Bond you've bought since June 1 pays a new, higher rate of 3 3/4% if you hold it to maturity. (For Series E Bonds that means only 7 years 9 months—14 months quicker than ever before!) Third, all your E bonds, old or new, now carry an automatic extension privilege; they'll keep on paying liberal interest for as long as 10 years beyond maturity. Three big new reasons to buy new Bonds—and hang on to the ones you have. Sign up now to buy them regularly at your bank, or through the Payroll Savings Plan at work. There's no easier, safer, more American way to save. New Bonds help your country while they build for your future—and give you a better deal than ever, too.

YOUR MONEY GROWS 33 1/2% IN JUST 7 YEARS AND 9 MONTHS WITH NEW SERIES E BONDS!

Gov. Rockefeller Gets The Message

The unequivocal statement by Gov. Nelson Rockefeller that he will not seek the Republican nomination seems the matter up for Vice President Richard Nixon as the standard-bearer for the GOP. Nothing short of the personal demise of Mr. Nixon or a sudden and total soursness of the Russian and economic issues could upset the appellation to the extent that someone not a candidate could be tapped for the nomination.

Mr. Rockefeller concluded, perhaps accurately, that most Republican leaders simply do not wish to have any contest for the GOP nomination in 1960. While that may avoid bitterness over the struggle for the nomination, it also will run the risk of producing a completely dull Republican national convention. While there is always the risk that spirited contests can lead to permanent divisions, there is also the risk that a political party can suffer ballot atrophy because of lack of activity or struggle within the party.

However, most Republicans who cut any ice in the party have come to the conclusion that the image of President Eisenhower as a peacemaker will persist and will be transferable to Mr. Nixon; that despite such annoyances as a resumption of the steel strike there will be prosperity; that the average voter won't be wooed from either of these comforting stations. Hence they simply don't want to rock the boat, and Gov. Rockefeller with rare objectivity has perceived that any potential boat-rocker will get the deep freeze from those in control of party machinery. After all, they say you can't fight city hall.

It Just Sounded Like Something Else

Brig. Gen. Ariel Neilsen of Forbes AFB rescinded his new "buddy" policy after the proposed system was noised about and several senators teed off verbally against it.

Under the buddy plan, each squadron was to be divided into groups of three to five airmen with a noncommissioned officer assigned to each group. The group leader was to be "responsible for knowing what the airman does with his off-duty time, whom he associates with, and to counsel him on the areas where he shows a weakness."

Any idea that the plan would mean policing an airman's activities around the clock was completely wrong, said Gen. Neilsen, commander of the 21st Air Division. The main idea was to keep airmen out of trouble and also to assist Strategic Air Command in retaining good men and eliminating undesirables.

Sen. Mike Mansfield said that he thought the plan was "carrying the spirit of togetherness a little bit too far." Others nipped at and wanted a closer look before barging into it with guns blazing. Gen. Neilsen, as a good military man, probably knows an untenable position when he sees it; at any rate he called the whole thing off.

The plan might be put down as a worthy idea but with some attributes the smack of just a little bit too much of the cell system in some anti-democratic societies. It was doomed resistance. The average American in or out of military service is suspicious of snooping, prying, checking or anything that might be construed as spying. Calling it counselling just doesn't put enough sugar coat on the pill.

Message Of Peace To All People

WASHINGTON—In 11 countries President Eisenhower met heads of state and heads of government—men who run the gamut from democracy through dictatorship. They spoke for struggling new nations only just freed from colonialism and for European powers that still suffer from the torments of the last war and shudder at the threat of a new one.

In short, for those who could run—and it has meant a great deal of running—and read it has been a concentrated lesson in political science. But of all the personalities encountered it was, for this observer, the head of state in the 12th state visited by the President who remains most vividly in mind. The Vatican, where the President called on his first stop on the tour, is a state within a state and the Pope is both its spiritual and temporal head.

THE WARM HUMANITY of Pope John XXIII comes through all the layers of Vatican ceremony. His is a beneficence rooted in the soil of Italy which his ancestors have worked for so many generations; an inheritance that his learning and his long experience in the hierarchy of the church have enriched rather than obscured.

Even in a group in a formal audience you feel that he is speaking to you, with a kind of humor even, of what it means to reconcile the ways of God to Man. Part of this may be the cheerfulness of his smiling face and the vivid and frequent gestures with which he punctuates his talk as he sits remarkably at ease on the gold throne in the audience chamber.

His endorsement of the President's mission for peace could hardly have been warmer. The words that he spoke seemed to come out of conviction and, therefore, to stand for more than the formal utterances so plentifully strewn along the President's path.

IN THE NEXT TO LAST STOP, in Madrid, the confrontation was with a dictator who wields very nearly absolute power. The President's stop in Spain, which was added to the schedule after it had first been formulated, meant a great deal to Francisco Franco. All the organs of propaganda, and this means really all the media of communication, were turned loose on the theme that the Eisenhower visitation was proof that Franco's policies have been right.

The visit was particularly important for Franco just now, because the first stirrings of protest have begun to come to the surface. This has come not from the extreme left and the Communist underground, but from professional men and members of the upper class who are moved to protest in whatever way they can the intolerable weight of the dictatorship and the inevitable corruption it has brought with it. While the President's visit can be related to the need for the American bases that have been built in Spain and the dollars that have gone to bolster the faltering Spanish economy, it did produce some cynical laughter in free Europe.

IN THE QUICK LESSON in political science that was ours the character and personality of Franco—El Caudillo—were instructive. He is cold, proud, haughty, and yet behind the mask of pride is a crafty understanding of the uses of power. The horrors of the civil war that raged for four years, beginning in 1936, were so deeply seared into Spanish memory that even those who loathed the Franco regime must have been content to say until recently that at least it meant peace.

With signs that this attitude is changing it would be ironic if Eisenhower's visit to Madrid served to help repress the first beginning hopes of freedom. For Franco and his Falangist party, capitalist democracy is equated with Socialism and Marxism.

According to diplomats in Paris, Franco wants very much to become a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. President De Gaulle has thrown out hints that he would like to bring this about.

BUT IN VIEW OF ALL NATO'S other troubles and the cross currents of rivalry rumbling strong this is not likely to come about, even if it were American policy to bring it about. Spain will remain in limbo outside the alliance and yet with United States bases.

It can be argued that by going everywhere—or nearly everywhere—and seeing everyone the President has been careful to avoid putting his stamp of approval on any one political system or philosophy. He has committed himself to peace on earth and good will for all men and it is fitting that his mission ended on the eve of Christmas.

If the diverse people to whom he spoke failed to heed his message it will not be held against him. Others who come after him must struggle with the realities of power as they relate to the fantastically difficult task of achieving peace in a world wracked by hatred and suspicion. ### Rockefeller Isn't Any Too Happy

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's a study in frigidity.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's statement Saturday — that he will not be a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination — was a cold piece of business.

There was nothing friendly in it toward Vice President Richard M. Nixon or the professional Republican politicians.

Although Rockefeller's withdrawal leaves Nixon unopposed for their party's presidential nomination, the governor never mentioned Nixon's name.

Rockefeller, in fact, didn't even promise to support the Republican party or its nominee. The most he was willing to say was that he expects to, Newsmen tried to get him to say specifically Sunday whether he would back Nixon. But he replied he would not go beyond his statement Saturday which said, in part, "I expect to support the nominees, as well as the program, of the party in 1960."

FURTHER IT IS possible to read into Rockefeller's words the idea he will be a critical thorn to both the Republican bosses and the Eisenhower administration before the Republican convention opens in Chicago July 25.

Rockefeller, in stepping aside, at no place indicated he felt the majority of rank-and-file Republicans preferred Nixon over him or even that he wouldn't have a chance against Nixon if he did oppose him.

He put his reason for withdrawing squarely on the "great majority of those (Republicans) who will control" the convention.

This is what he said, in the sequence of his thinking:

1. The majority of professionals

don't want a contest among Republicans for the nomination.

2. Therefore, in order to overcome the opposition of the pros to him, he'd have to give the rank- and- file Republicans a chance to choose between him and Nixon by going into state primaries.

3. BUT THIS WOULD take up so much of his time and energy he couldn't properly fulfill his obligations to the people of New York who elected him to do a job of governor.

In the past few months Rockefeller, while whisking around the country to appraise his chances, was critical a number of times of the Eisenhower administration.

That he may continue to be now, from the sidelines, can be read into this part of his statement:

He listed the various issues facing the country, at home and abroad, and then said: "I will contribute all I can" toward a "profound and continuous act of national self-examination."

He said: "I shall speak with full freedom and vigor on these issues that confront our nation and the world."

Nixon now looks like a sure-shot for the Republican presidential nomination. But the future is unpredictable. And Rockefeller did not rule himself out as a possibility.

He said he would not be a candidate for the nomination. But he didn't say—as he did in the case of the vice presidency—he would not accept the nomination if it is offered to him.

So, if somehow Nixon gets sidetracked, Rockefeller is still available.

THIS DAY IN TEXAS

By CURTIS BISHOP

Two adventurous Texans launched a good-sized treasure hunt on this day in 1865 as Col. W. C. Dalrymple and Jacob Snively enlisted 10 men for an expedition into the Sierra Nevada Mts.

Snively, a noted prospector, was sure they would find gold there in abundance.

Five others from San Saba joined the expedition and they entered the mountains in January. Indians attacked them immediately and they decided discretion was the better part of valor.

But the treasure urge was still there and in May, 1867, they took up the hunt again. This force held off Indian raids but no gold was ever found and the expedition became just another wasted effort to locate treasure.

Dalrymple was born in North Carolina in 1814 and came to Texas as a young man of 21. One of his first jobs was a guard protecting the workmen building Austin from the Indians. He first lived in Travis County, then moved to the San Gabriel River. He served with the Rangers, then with the Confederate Army, and after the war represented the county in the legislature.

He is best remembered, however, as a surveyor. He died in 1898 at Georgetown.

This And That And Other Stuff

One thing and another:

I see where a manufacturer who makes his living creating products for the snob market has come up with a new idea.

The fellow plans to produce backless gloves for ladies so that gentlemen who kiss the backs of the girls' hands will not have to caress the skin of the bovine but instead can give lip service to the ladies' own lanolized skin.

Now there's an item that should sell.

The English fox hunters who for years discriminated against the nimble little creatures are themselves being discriminated against.

A group of individuals championing the cause of the bushy-tailed animals is trying to ball up the fox hunts in the tight little isles by planting false scents, which send the dogs of the hunters running off in all directions.

The group calls itself the "League Against Cruel Sports."

"We feel these hunts are a bestial way of amusing people," a spokesman for the group said recently.

As if that is not enough the "League Against Cruel Sports" got help from another quarter.

Coveys of noisy boys have added to the confusion by planting themselves in the paths of the hunts and turning the foxes straight back into the packs of dogs and hunters.

Do you get the picture? A fox hunt probably is confusing enough where the game animal runs away. Imagine, then, the reaction where he decides to join the party.

The fox hunters are also getting static from the local trains. The foxes have been getting crafty. They strive to play the hunters against the trains and that by darting back and forth across the tracks.

The hunters soon decide that the net result is not worth the risk involved, so the bugler signals a halt and the hunters repair to the clubhouse or the nearest gin mill to discuss their frustration.

Anyone for a dart game?

A refugee from a Communist country recently went to work for an American concern in Switzerland. He met and married a girl, who happened to be the daughter of an English doctor. Still later, arrived from the Communist country to spend his vacation in Switzerland.

The parents of the husband then showed up following receipt of an invitation from the newlyweds.

You would have thought that the fathers-in-law would have had to make themselves understood through sign language or by using an interpreter.

Not so. They conversed very well in Latin, required of students in medical courses practically the world over.

Thar's Gold In Them Thar Snow Hills

About a month ago I was invited to take a free loader's ride out to Squaw Valley, Calif., where the Winter Olympics will be held in mid-February (Yup, 1960 means both Leap Year and the Olympics.) Sauntering ever deeper into my electric blanket, storm boots and earmuffs, I shuddered at the invitation, not so much for virtue outraged by such payola, but because of all that snow and all those crazy skiers. Someone has to face up to the fact that persons who deliberately court broken arms and legs on waxed slats are not normal, and I do.

There are easier and less expensive ways to acquire compound fractures at home; say, the bathtub or wet linoleum in the kitchen. And your friends will be just as eager to autograph the casts as if you had come apart on a ski trail.

SKI-MADNESS, LIKE THE dancing madness that seized Europe in the Middle Ages, is now devastating the population. There was a time when only mad Englishmen and Sherpas went out in the perpetual snow to assault Mt. Everest and other innocent slopes.

However, no native hillock in our homeland is now safe from skiers, such is the popularity of winter sports, and the smart ambulance chaser today operates in the winter wonderland. Thar's gold in them thar hills.

Such, indeed, is the popularity of winter sports that sedentary souls like myself now crowd the ski circuit. Oh, no, they wouldn't touch the stuff, meaning snow, with a 10-foot ski pole. The idea of climbing up and sliding down mountains on lumber appalls them.

WHAT THE NO-SKIING skier finds so fascinating about ski resorts is (1) the snappy clothes that have been designed for derring-do on snow and ice, (2) the relaxed atmosphere around the big fireplace in the main lounge and (3) the house bartender in as faithful a stance at the bar as ever the St. Bernard on patrol in the Alps.

In the old days, many an Alpine skier testified that the St. Bernard and his brassy cask were the best part of the sport. It is not going too far to say that the bartender in the American ski resort is the modern St. Bernard, offering succor alike to skier and non-skier.

And in the evening, in the glow of a log fire, who can tell one from the other if the cast is off? Clothes make the skier when dusk begins to fall. Probably the only major difference between the two is that the non-skier skiing is the difference between profit and loss.

FOR YEARS, I HAVE FELT that the seashore would be lovely if it weren't for the water and all that sticky sand. And my feeling is that I might be reconciled to skiing if it weren't for the snow and those things you strap on your feet.

However, for sedentary characters such as I, there is a chance this winter to participate in both skiing and the Winter Olympics. The Olympics are to be televised and I am making careful plans for spectator sportsmanship on my part.

In order to get into the proper spirit I shall sit in front of the teevee with my feet in a pan of ice, the windows next to my chair open, my frame suitably clothed in Arctic gear and a St. Bernard on a leash.

Thus I shall suffer no more discomfort than on the slopes. 'Tis the better part of valor, when bones are brittle, to woo pneumonia rather than traction. (Copyright 1959, United Features Syndicate Inc.)

Inflation And Negotiation At Stake

WASHINGTON — Federal mediators may come and go, the management representatives and steel union leaders may be called into continuous sessions, but the fact is that neither side has the slightest intention of giving in at this time.

The future procedure is plainly marked out. The union leaders do not say so, but actually they want a "political" settlement. By this is meant a governmentally-imposed agreement. The union strategists think that in the end the steel managers will be compelled to accept it.

This is what has happened many times before. The companies will not, of course, accept responsibility for an inflationary settlement. If, however, the government puts them in a situation where they cannot do anything but yield, they will have to agree to such a settlement and then later raise prices.

THIS HAS BEEN THE HISTORY in major strikes, and the unions feel that their influence is such that the administration in power, whether it is Republican or Democratic, must conform to the pattern.

The argument is made that Congress will be urged to pass legislation providing for compulsory arbitration if there is no settlement. This means, of course, the breakdown of the collective bargaining tradition and the introduction of more and more compulsion in labor-management disputes. This could prove advantageous to the labor unions because of the enormous political influence that they usually exert.

Again and again, management has been virtually forced to yield to the demands of the unions through governmental intervention. In the current situation President Eisenhower has up to this time stood up well against the pressure for a "political" settlement. Inside his official family nevertheless are those who have been urging him to change his attitude. It is an open question of how long Mr. Eisenhower will be able to stand firm.

IF THE LABOR UNION leaders were convinced that management would under no circumstances yield, there would be a quick settlement. For the differences between the two sides are by no means irreconcilable. Actually, this year's contract isn't half as important as the precedent to be created by this year's negotiation. The work rules are the real stumbling block. Conditions vary in different companies. The steel managers feel that they must, by this present controversy, disabuse the labor leaders of the idea that a work rule once adopted cannot be changed thereafter, and that clauses once agreed upon in the past are not subject to collective bargaining in subsequent years.

The principle involved is important to both sides. It could bring a frustrating condition to the steel industry unless solved. Machinery to bring about a settlement is available, but the unions have taken the position that they will not yield at all, and that management cannot be granted the right to negotiate changes in the work rules.

THE NEXT STEP, OF COURSE, is the vote to be taken next month under the auspices of the National Labor Relations Board. The steel companies are very anxious to see what the men will say by their votes. On the ballot will appear a summary of the companies' latest offer, and the men will be asked to vote "yes" or "no" on it.

It is expected that the union position will be upheld by a substantial margin. But the important point will be the size of the opposition. It would seem that this will be higher than the 7 per cent noted in the postcard poll just taken by the unions, because the actual campaign by the companies to state their case has not yet begun.

When the voting is over and the steel workers presumably have rejected the final offer by the companies, a decision will have to be reached by the unions whether to keep the men at work as the 80-day injunction expires, or whether to continue to let them work while negotiations are resumed.

BUT EVEN WHILE THIS happens, the pressure from influential members of Congress will begin, and the chances are in the end that if a "political" settlement is made, it will deal a body-blow to the whole crusade against inflation. The companies will then feel justified in raising their prices. This would be a disappointment to all those who believe in a stabilized economy. It will be a demonstration of the power of unions to force inflation on the American people. (Copyright 1959, New York Tribune Inc.)

Wrong Number, Sorry

RICHMOND, Va. (U) — There is no telephone listed for J. G. Henning elementary school here and there won't be. But there is a telephone listed for J. G. Henning and he and his wife are tired of answering "Sorry, wrong number," the school was named for his late father.

Tail Of Blizzard Brushes N. Texas

By The Associated Press
The tail of a blizzard that swept the Mid-West Sunday brushed the northern part of Texas, leaving up to 8 inches of snow in the upper Panhandle.
The heaviest snowfall was at Stratford near the Oklahoma line. Chief Deputy Sheriff Sid Board estimated 6 to 8 inches of snow fell and at places was whipped into drifts five feet deep by winds up to 45 miles an hour.
Dalhart had three inches of snow, Perryton and Dumas each had an inch, and Amarillo had a light snow.
During the day skies cleared and temperatures rose above freezing to remove most of the ice and snow.
Other sections of Texas escaped the snow storm, which had been set off by a fast moving cold front that cleared skies and dropped temperatures as it raced into the Gulf of Mexico.
Skies were clear over the entire state early Monday with temperatures ranging from 25 degrees at Dalhart to 50 at Brownsville shortly before dawn. Other points with freezing weather included Lubbock and El Paso with 29 and Amarillo with 31.

The forecast called for fair and cool weather through Tuesday with lows of 20 to 30 degrees in Northwest Texas, 26 to 36 in Southwest Texas and North Central Texas, and 30 to 40 degrees in East and South Central Texas.
Small craft warnings were displayed along the coast because of gusty winds which were expected to decrease Tuesday.

Anthropology Meet Opens

MEXICO CITY (AP)—About 800 Western Hemisphere anthropologists gather today in an ancient building close to an old Aztec plaza to discuss customs of the past folklore, archaeology, and the threat of the atomic age.
It is the 58th annual meeting of the American Anthropological Association, the first ever held in Latin America or in any country with a language or culture North American.
Meeting jointly with the association—another first—is the 71st gathering of the American Folklore Society.
Delegates registered Sunday at the old medical school building close to the famed Zocalo, where Aztecs centuries ago worshiped bloodily atop ancient pyramids.
Dr. Ignacio Bernal, Mexico's director of prehistoric monuments of the National Institute of Anthropology and History, said over 650 signed up Sunday, and that he expected a total of around 800 to attend today's opening ceremonies. Dr. Bernal is president of the Congress.
He said about 500 are from out of Mexico, mainly from the United States.
The sessions will be devoted to reports on widely varied subjects, followed by discussions. Presiding will be Sol Tax, president of the association.
Among those on today's program is Earle Reynolds, who sailed a yacht through dangerous atomic test zone waters in the Pacific. He will talk on "Radiation and Ongoing Human Evolution."
The association claims a membership of over 4,200 throughout the world.
Many delegates Sunday visited the famous University City, escorted by National University President Dr. Nabor Carrillo Flores and others.

Cold Cash

Actress Stella Stevens holds a copy of a national men's magazine carrying photographs of her in the nude. She says in Hollywood, Calif. she doubts that she has hurt her career by posing in the nude despite an editorial in the Memphis, Tenn., Press-Scimitar referring to the incident as "Stella's Mistake." The editorial criticized "the cruel press agency of Hollywood," but Miss Stevens said press agents had nothing to do with it. She said her motives were cold cash ($2,000) and publicity.

TV Sages Call Year Precarious

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—What kind of a year was 1959?
It depends upon who is looking backward. If it is John Jones and family, it may be memorable as the year in which he finally got that raise, in which the house needed — and got — repainting, when Mrs. Jones finally got that stole she wanted.
But if you were watching television closely this weekend, you now know that it was also the year of what one NBC man summed up as the "horrorific gallery of aches and pains." Or that, if you were tuned to ABC, it was the year when things started to look up a bit.

The world, if one is to believe NBC's communicator — experts, flows back from their looking and deducing posts around the world, is in a precarious state, and the United States hasn't done much to help things get any better.
Our government's present policy said NBC's Moscow correspondent seems to be leading the United States in a retreat from all its previous stands. We seem to be accepting the present Soviet frontiers and the status of captive peoples, added its London man. Red China is trying to take over Asia, said the Far East correspondent, and implied the chances are pretty good for its success. Nixon will beat Stevenson, guessed the Washington man in the program's one look ahead.

LESS DIM VIEW
Over at ABC, however the far-flung correspondents, while obviously just as wrapped up in charting U.S. foreign policy, took a less dim view and even looked backward at some news events.
They noted the Castro revolution, the death of John Foster Dulles, the Khrushchev visit, the Eisenhower trip. And they seemed more hopeful about the state of the world.
At least one man dared to call the 12 months past "the year when peace broke out."
Only at CBS did the broadcasting savants find time for other than international affairs. This was the year, CBS' guest specialists recalled, when important strides were made in psychiatry and medicine; when at least three important books of non-fiction were written, and when Hollywood turned out some pretty adult films.

Together Again
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—The Bob Crosbys are together again, hopeful of saving their 21-year marriage.
The couple separated after an argument last month. Mrs. Crosby told police at the time that her husband came home in an angry mood and pushed her. She said Crosby was stabbed in the arm and chest when she grabbed a letter opener to defend herself.

Happy Birthday

The City of San Juan, located in the heart of the Rio Grande Valley of Texas, celebrated its 50th anniversary in a unique way. The merchants set baskets of fruit in front of their stores and combined their two major industries—citrus and tourists—by inviting their winter tourists to take home some fruit "on the house." Here Robert L. Kirkland, of Emporium, Pa., happily accepts some "liquid sunshine" from Miss Linda Koester of San Juan, one of the Valley's beautiful Citriann hostesses.

They Have Sleepers On Broadway, Too, As Actor Discovered With 'My Fair Lady'

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I've been working my fool head off," says Brian Aherne, "all because I got involved with a sleeper." From the British-born actor, I learned that there are also sleepers on the stage. The term has long been used to designate modest movies that achieve unexpected success — "Marty," "Champion" and the like.
Aherne wasn't looking for anything like a long run after he finished 13 months in the road company of "My Fair Lady." The producer wanted him to sign on for another five years at a fine salary.
"I couldn't possibly," he said. "If I had stayed with the show any longer, I would have lost my health, my wife, my family. It was absolutely exhausting. I don't understand how Rex Harrison was able to do it for two years in New York and one in London."

Aherne limped back to Hollywood to marshal his forces. Then he received a call from his longtime co-star, Katherine Cornell. She said a talented man named Jerome Kilty had put together the correspondence between Mrs. Patrick Campbell and George Bernard Shaw for a reading.

They ended up giving a highly charged rendition of a romance that spanned four decades. The tryout was cheered from Arizona to Florida.
"We suddenly discovered we had a hit on our hands," said Aherne. "None of us ever suspected it. We thought it was something that might go over in academic communities. So it was booked as a concert through Sol Hurok.
"We were scheduled a year ahead to play big college auditoriums and one-nighters; the tickets were already sold. We can't even get into New York until March."
