Housing Authority quits

The Castro County Housing Authority went out of business this week, turning Dimmitt's huge agricultural project, back to its creditor, the Farmers Home Administration. The action left the future of the housing project up in the air.

CCHA board members blamed a restrictive federal court order and "the demands of the Texas Rural Legal Aid" for plunging the housing authority from a $76,000 surplus less than a year ago to near-bankruptcy today.

CCHA Commissioner Rayphard Smithson met with FmHA officials in Temple Tuesday to formally turn the huge housing project back.

Officials of the Housing Authority, FmHA and the county filed the final papers here Wednesday morning.

"The Farmers Home Administration said they'd operate it until the harvest season is over, but beyond that they don't know what they'll do," CCHA treasurer Doug Proffitt said. "They're going to make a very in-depth study, and will make their ultimate decision very carefully, because the decision they make will affect every other housing project in Texas."

Proffitt added, "We simply couldn't operate under the demands of the TRLA and the restraining order issued by Mary Lou Robinson (federal district judge). We had an impossible situation."

In a letter to Lee Tunnell, district director of the Farmers Home Administration, CCHA board members gave their reasons for throwing in the towel:

"The constant harassment, demands and threats of lawsuits by Texas Rural Legal Aid, and the red tape that we must go through to accomplish anything has caused an impossible situation.

"For the past 10 years the Castro County Housing Authority has paid its own way. On Sept. 30, 1979, we had $76,000 in the bank and owed FmHA approximately $92,000 (on the long-term, low-interest mortgage).

"Now we are broke. We have been unable to run the Authority in a business-like manner, due mainly to Texas Rural Legal Aid.

"We cannot evict people for nonpayment of rent because our management plan has not been approved by the National FmHA office. They have not approved our management plan because the Texas Rural Legal Aid has raised some objections.

"We have not been able to raise the rent when needed, and in fact had to refund or credit rent collected . . . due primarily to the FmHA dragging its feet on authorizing the rent increase in writing, when in fact we had been told verbally . . . to go ahead and increase the rent. . . ."

"We are very sorry that it has finally come to this. We have tried to operate the project for the interest of the people living there."

Smithson commented at Wednesday morning's meeting with county and FmHA officials, "It's a sad day in our history when the taxpayer—"

UW drive to start Tuesday

The 1980 United Way campaign will be launched with a Kickoff Breakfast at 7 a.m. Tuesday in Lamar Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church.

The campaign will be conducted Aug. 12 through Aug. 22, according to Campaign Chairman Dale Wells.

The campaign is a community effort and full participation from residents is needed to make the United Way a success, Wells said.

The breakfast will be free. Wells urged that each Dimmitt business have a representative there.

The Methodist Men will cook the meal.

Emergency loans are approved

Castro County received the natural disaster status that it sought when the USDA last week approved emergency loans through the Farmers Home Administration and the Small Business Administration.

Castro was one of seven Texas counties authorized to make emergency loans. The others are Bexar, Guadalupe, Hansford, Knox, Travis and Williamson. Most of the counties received the status due to "severe drought and excessively high temperatures." Only Castro and Hansford counties had hailstorms as a listed reason.

Of the 1,030 farmers in Castro County, all have suffered production losses and all acreage is damaged as a result of the heat and hail, according to the National Disaster Damage Assessment Report. The ASCS office estimated it will distribute $2,500,000 in disaster payments.

"Please contact the Castro County ASCS office if you have any questions," ASCS County Executive Director Charley Hill said. Producers needing emergency loans should contact the local FmHA office before April 30, 1981, he added.

Corn, grain sorghum and cotton acreage affected by the heat or hail since June 1 and which will not be harvested for grain or lint must be appraised for disaster payments prior to cutting for silage, haying, grazing or plowing, Hill said.

County is second in corn production

Castro County ranked second in 1979 Texas corn production, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown reports.

Ranked second only to Parmer, Castro County carried 13% of the state production of corn with 17,176,800 bushels of corn produced.

Production of corn in 1979 totaled 132,300,000 bushels valued at $370,440,000. In national standing Texas ranked 13th.

Planting season for corn in Texas ranges from February until May and harvesting lasts from July until November. Of the 1,400,000 acres planted 1,260,000 acres were harvested.

The top ten counties in Texas corn production are mostly located in Northern High Plains, Southcentral, and South Texas areas.

Union pickets local firms

The Texas Farm Workers Union marched in the county again last week, this time picketing three vegetable packing plants in Dimmitt.

The chanting, banner-waving picketers marched in front of the Western Vegetables plant last Wednesday afternoon, at Dimco, Inc., last Thursday, and at the main facility of La Mantia, Cullum, Collier & Co., Inc., Friday.

But the demonstrations were peaceful. The picketers stayed beyond property lines and didn't interfere with workers or trucks that were dumping, processing, loading and shipping the county's 1980 crop of cucumbers, onions and potatoes.

However, a TFWU spokesman harangued workers over a bullhorn throughout each demonstration.

The TFWU picketers usually numbered 20 to 30, many of whom appeared to be youngsters under 16. Apparently, no workers at any of the local plants left their jobs to join the picketers.

Workers tell TFWU: 'We don't need you'

In the wake of the Texas Farm Workers Union's organizing efforts here last week, a group of Dimmitt area workers issued a public letter Friday calling on the TFWU to "leave us alone."

The original letter bore petition-like rows of signatures, all with Hispanic surnames.

The spokesman who submitted the letter to the News requested that the signatures not be printed. However, he signed the typewritten copy of the letter on behalf of the others, and his name is available upon request.

Here is their public statement:

Open Letter to the Public:
For the past few weeks all we have been hearing about is "la huelga," the strike.

The strikers' grievances, demands, goals, beliefs and their way of thinking are what we have been hearing, but is this handful of people really representing the true feelings of the majority of agricultural related Mexican-Americans in this area?

The answer is an emphatic NO!

The general feeling is that we do not need these people in our community. While they MAY help a handful of individuals, such as the union leaders, they will actually hurt the vast majority of our people who are dependent on the vegetable harvest and on other farm-related jobs.

We all know that the farmer is struggling for survival; the farmer does not have a guarantee for his vegetable crops.

plant Friday afternoon. While approximately 25 picketers marched and chanted, the two men argued their opposing viewpoints for more than half an hour, but never raised their voices to each other.

organizer Jesus Moya spelled out the union's goals for packing-shed employees:

- A union contract covering all line workers.
- A $6-an-hour wage, as is paid now in California.
- A 40-hour work week, with overtime pay for more than 40 hours.
- Pay for a full eight-hour day when a worker is used only part of a day.
- A medical insurance plan paid by the company.
- Seniority rights and a company-paid pension plan.
- An arbitration committee of labor and management representatives to handle any grievances filed by workers or by the company.

In his office at LCC, plant manager Lee Drake responded to Moya's proposals.

If the plant had to pay a $6-an-hour wage, he said, "We'd shut 'er down."

"The farmers are already losing money on the onion crop," Drake said. "The farmer simply wouldn't be able to afford to grow vegetables any longer, because it's the farmer who pays most of the processing costs."

A $6 wage with $9 for overtime would amount to $420 for an average 60-hour work week, Drake noted.

"There are people in specialized fields, who had to have special training for their jobs, who don't make that kind of money in this area," Drake said.

"What would it do here if the shippers started paying $6 an hour?" Drake asked. "The field workers and tractor drivers are going to say, 'Hey—if that guy is getting $6 an hour for pushing a wheeler or sorting potatoes, I'm going to get $8.' That's what happened in California—tractor drivers get $8.75, and the farmers are going to bigger and bigger tractors. The net result is higher costs and fewer workers."

Hourly wages for seasonal vegetable workers here range from the federal minimum wage of $3.10 to $3.75 for loaders and graders, Drake said.

"Everybody makes at least minimum wage here," Drake said. "It's the federal law, and we abide by it. We also pay time-and-a-half for over 40 hours a week—that's federal law, too."

Commenting on the union's request for a full day's pay for a partial day's work, Drake said, "It's very rare for our workers to have a short day. This happens sometimes on the loading crew, but on the other hand they get paid a lot of hours when they aren't loading. We aren't guaranteed a market, or a certain number of orders every day."

Concerning medical and hospitalization insurance, Drake commented, "No, we don't have hospitalization insurance. We have liability insurance that takes care of anyone hurt on the

The "dear old golden rule days" are just two weeks away for students and teachers in Castro County, with Aug. 21 as the first day of classes at Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth.

Reporting day for all teachers is Aug. 18 in all three schools, with two days of in-service sessions scheduled before classes begin.

DIMMITT

The first day of in-service for Dimmitt teachers includes speaker Dr. Dudley Moore of Canyon and a luncheon for all teaching personnel.

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will sponsor the Teacher Appreciation Luncheon Aug. 18 in Lamar Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church.

The school board and the administrative staff will host a get-acquainted social for all new personnel Tuesday, Aug. 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the city hall assembly room.

The enrollment schedule in Dimmitt High School calls for all seniors and any new high school students to enroll between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., Aug. 11 through 15.

Registration for all other Dimmitt students is Aug. 20 at the three school buildings.

Freshmen will report for enrollment from 9 to 10 a.m., sophomores from 10 to 11 a.m., and juniors from 11 to noon at Dimmitt High School.

Enrollment in elementary grades will be conducted at Richardson Elementary from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

At Dimmitt Middle School, registration will be in the library from 9 to 10:30 a.m. for eighth grade students, 10:30 a.m. to noon for seventh graders.

Those who miss registration in the morning may report for a combined registration between 1 and 3:30 p.m., Principal Emmett Broderson said.

Dimmitt schools are already signing up students for the Migrant Education Program. (See story, Page 10.)

The city schools are also preparing for their Early Childhood Screening for pre-kindergarten children, to locate students who might have learning problems. (See story, Page 11.)

Labor Day, Sept. 1, is the first holiday for Dimmitt students and Oct. 6 will be the first in-service day for teachers after classes begin. The district TSTA convention is Nov. 7, allowing students a day of rest from school.

Further holidays include Thanksgiving Nov. 27 and 28 and Christmas Dec. 22 through Jan. 2.

The first in-service day in the second semester will be Feb. 13. March 13 is another in-service day, followed by the spring break March 16 through 20. Good Friday falls on April 17 and students will have the day off. May 1 is an in-service day. Dimmitt's last day of school will be May 26, and teachers will have their last in-service day May 27.

HART

Two days of registration are planned for students in Hart.

On Aug. 19, seniors will register between 8:30 and 10 a.m., juniors from 10:30 a.m. to noon, sophomores between 1 and 2:30 p.m., and freshmen from 3 to 4 p.m. Elementary and kindergarten students are to report sometime between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Parents of kindergarten pupils are asked to accompany their children for registration and to bring birth certificates and health records.

Eighth graders are to report to school between 8:40 and 10 a.m. on Aug. 20, and seventh graders from 10:30 a.m. to noon on the same day.

The first holiday for Hart students will be Sept. 1. Teachers will have an in-service day Oct. 6 and the TSTA convention Nov. 7. Thanksgiving holidays will be Nov. 27-28, and Christmas holidays will run from Dec. 22 through Jan. 2.

Another in-service day for teachers will come on Jan. 16.

Feb. 20 will be a holiday for students due to the Castro County Junior Fat Stock Show. The scheduled spring break will be March 16 through 20. April 16 will be an in-service day for teachers, and April 17 is a holiday due to Good Friday. The last day of classes will be May 26, and teachers will report for one more in-service day May 27.

NAZARETH

Nazareth High School students will enroll Aug. 20. However, pupils in kindergarten through eighth grades will enroll in their regular classes. [See CLASSES, Page 14]

City water use at all-time high

Water usage in Dimmitt hit an all-time high during July, topping 100 million gallons for the first time in history.

The official total was 102,040,660 gallons, according to City Manager Garnett Holland.

That's 2.24 million gallons more than the previous record of 99.8 million, set in July 1977.

However, the record tapturning by Dimmitt water customers didn't even strain the city's new water system.

Holland said the city "never came close" to having to ration water during the month, as many Texas cities are having to do.

It would have been a different story, Holland said, if Dimmitt voters hadn't passed the million-dollar bond election that paid for a new well field in 1977.

"We'd be rationing today if we were still depending only on the old city wells we had before we added the new well field and reservoir," Holland said. "The old system would not have been able to handle this kind of demand."

July is usually the peak water-usage month in Dimmitt as the vegetable processing plants get into full swing and homeowners water their lawns and gardens and cool their homes.

Another major factor in the July total was the heat wave, which sent the temperature soaring past the 100-degree mark three days and kept it in the high 90's the rest of the month.

BACK IN BUSINESS—With tornado rubble pushed aside, workers for La Mantia, Cullum, Collier & Co., Inc., process onions where the east end of the big warehouse building used to be. Weather covers were built over the company's big onion processing machine—which was left relatively undamaged by the July 27 tornado—and it was put back into operation last Thursday. Now, stacks of "Sugar Time" onions are building up on the sun-drenched floor, and shipping is back on schedule.

Shelley's Chatter

Saturday buzzes with activity

BY WYLLIE SHELLEY
 Helen Andrews was the birthday lady last Saturday, so to celebrate her 75 years, the Andrews family received of Lincoln and daughters-in-law Jane, Barbara and Jo. Barbara was hostess at a brunch for 30 friends who went out to the farm home. The party was given by Denise and Dennis, who are daughters-in-law. Jane, Barbara and Jo served coffee, cake, egg punch and delicious fruit. The party was a success with many guests and a good time was had by all.

And Carla tells me that Carl Lee Kemp took the wedding fellows out for the barbecue. These I heard were there, Andy Kemp, David Prudy and Mark Fowlkes of Fort Worth and Jim Snyder from Baird, and Carla's friend Pete Geren of Fort Worth came in later. And we had fun out at Fred and Juanita Bruegel's house after the wedding. Music was by the Cason kids from Hereford. Two tables full of good food were served by the Bruegel girls Heidi, KaKa and Wendy.

And we visited with many friends. Saw Mrs. Steve Taylor from Amarillo, the farmers on and on.

Carl and Gail Bruegel were hosts to house guests Saturday, her mother Mrs. Jessie Garrison and friends, Millie Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Lambert and sister Brenda Hicks and girls. Fonda, Ronda and Tonda from Childress, Gail's sister Jo Ann and Mitchell Rule from Quanah.

Down at the Steak House for dinner we got news from Nonah Barringer. She and Mary Gabel took the kids of the Christian Church to El Povern last week. There were 93 juniors running around over the mountain sides. Nonah took a bunch of Junior high the week before to the mountains. She had a hike to the old copper mine. It is very old, two miles from the camp. Mr. Barringer is minister of Western Circle Christian Church.

And at the eatery we saw Nita Manning of Clarendon having dinner with Doyle and Betty Hoover. Ed Manning is minister of the Presbyterian Church at Clarendon.

And Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spinherne and Jackie and son David and wife Babette were having Sunday dinner and their recent guests were Franz Brorman, Willie Evers, Joseph and Gertrude name were here from something like Wilhelmshaven, Germany. They are kin of Mrs. Spinherne and all went to Vega to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brorman and kin Margaret Brorman.

Clara gave me this trip story. Leonard and Clara Dollar and daughter Betty left for their vacation July 21. They went to Mianesota for Clara's 20th year class reunion at Aitkin. They got as far as Des Moines, Iowa the first day. That's really traveling! Couldn't believe what they had to spend for motel! Got to Cottage Grove the 22nd; visited with Clara's brother, Mr. and Mrs. August Elmi and family. On the 23rd, Clara's brother Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elmi, from Ahoka, Minn. came to visit them. They took them out on their big boat, on the Mississippi River and St. Croix River, was really beautiful. It was the first time for the three to ever be on a big boat. They stayed till the 24th and left to go up to Aitkin then got a cabin out at Edgewater resort, right on the lake. Spent one day at Talisade, Minn. where Clara was raised. Went out to the old home place and was sad to see it all falling down. Visited with George Lehmann, Violet Schults, and Tex Bullie's. Went to McGregor, Minn. to visit Mae Watson, her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Tom Revane from Billerica, Mass. and her son Mr. and Mrs. Mike Watson from Kansas City, Kan. People really showed "northern hospitality." Had the class reunion Saturday, July 26 at the American Legion Hall in Aitkin, Minn. Clara said, "Really great to see the kids I went to school with. Out of 140 kids there were about 100 who were there." Some Clara remembered, but some she had to look at the name tag! Sunday July 27 they headed out to North Dakota, stopped at Fargo, called a cousin she hadn't seen for 22 years but didn't have time to go by to see them.

They stopped at Bismark, N.D., called another cousin but no one was home. So they went to Hazen. Found them all out at the City Park, wedded too far from where Clara was born. Stopped at Hazen. Got to see a lot of cousins that Clara hadn't seen for 22 years. Stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Gail Adell and son and uncle at Hazen. Also saw Pauline Adell (aunt) Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adell, an aunt and uncle. They took them to Zap to see Mr. and Mrs. Art Adell, another aunt and uncle, and saw some more cousins. Stopped at York to visit Mr. and Mrs. Martin Adell, still another aunt and uncle. They came through South Dakota. It was the first time for them to come through there. Went through the black hills, really pretty through there. They took lots of pictures. They stayed at Alliance, Neb. and then drove on home July 30. In all they went through nine different states. Said it was nice to go visit, but good to get back home.

Robert and Frances Duke recently made a trip down south to see their boys Larry and Bob and Bob's wife Jeannette. Traveling with them were Robert's sister LaVerne and her husband, Bob Gunderson, from Oregon. They stopped in Big Spring to visit Robert's sister-in-law, Vivienne Duke, and her daughter, Wynona Payte and family. They visited with Bob and Jeannette from Galveston, and Larry and his girl friend, Julie in Houston at Robert's cousin house, where they all had supper. The cousin is Mrs. Haynes.

Aural Davis was hostess last weekend to friends Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Farmer. Mrs. Farmer is the former Marian Spence who lived here a few years ago and her daughter Peayne Spence and her husband, son Randy and Mrs. Spence and daughter Whitney All of Abilene. Aural's daughter Suzanne Ellis and daughter Julie of Amarillo. Julie has been here for a few days while mom Suzanne attended the home economics convention in Dallas. Some teachers at Stephen F.

Parties and weddings highlight week

Johnnie Vannoy went back to San Antonio — her old home town, for a visit with kin and friends. Johnnie is a sister of Alva Tisdale.

I am just now meeting Mike Sperry. He is with Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber and moved to Dimmitt awhile back from Anniston, Ala. He is a nephew of Joyce and Edwin Hunter. Goes to church with Bedford Church of Christ folks, not married yet!

Yvonne Frye of Port Neches has been here for a visit with her mother Lottie Bearden and some friends. She went home Friday.

And Susan Nelson went home to Beeville by plane out of Lubbock Sunday, after a visit with granddad B.M. Nelson and the cousins Nathan, Connie, David and Rex.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mauk went to Portales, N.M. Saturday to attend the one o'clock wedding of a cousin James Litton Hilliard of Portales and Mary Frances of Albuquerque. The ceremony took place in the pretty back yard of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hilliard. Three big pecan trees were the background with a reception in the house. Gene King says their daughter's wedding will be next. That is this week.

Raymond and Mary King came over from Lubbock to attend church with the Methodists and have dinner with Russel and Myrtle Lois Moran. And other church visitors were passing through town. They are Jay and Dot Dasch who are doing construction work in Midland, but live in Houston. They and granddaughter Angie Barnes had been to WTSU where Angie will go to school this fall. And they went on to Palo Duro to see "Texas" the Pageant. Seems they are friends of Howard Quiett the Methodist pastor.

Paul Dannevik of Albuquerque is here for a visit with his son Bill and Martha and young Paul. Paul Senior has not been well but feels better in Dimmitt. That is good!

Bill and Bernice Meacham are here from Artesia, N.M. to visit his brother Roy who is very ill in Plains Memorial Hospital. Roy and Billie's son Wayne and Donna are here from Denver to see the Meachams.

We are going to miss Reeford and Betty Burrous who have recently moved to Dumas where Reeford is with the telephone company. They came by and left a card of thanks which is on the classified page of this week's paper for the kindnesses shown them following the death of Betty's brother, Zane Donald.

Jim and Robertha Bagwell were hosts to their family last week, son Robert and Billie Faye Bagwell and Mike and Donna here from Hazlehurst, Miss., daughter Christine Bell from Perryton, Grace Maria Holland from Midland, La Trelle Bagwell who teaches school in Apple Valley, Calif. here with her friend Doris Lemly, and Grace Maria's daughter Donna Kay Fralla from Elk City, Okla.

I visited a few minutes Sunday evening with LaVerne Bates who works at the information desk at the hospital. She says, Martha and husband Ernie McBrayer and children Chad and Seth of Amarillo were here for Teresa and Andy's wedding, also to see aunt Jo Beth Bates and grandma LaVerne.

Goose Ramey tells us that his great nephew Little Joe Mapes was killed by a horse Sunday. We don't know the details, Joe is the son of Bob and LaVelle Mapes in the area of Walsenburg. The Mureal Funeral chapel have charge of the services that will be Tuesday. He is the grandson of Elzie and Sarena Teague, who are at the family home in Colorado.

The Moran's Sunday afternoon coffee guests were Joe and Gladys Benson, Glenn and Koma Ratcliff, Nolan and Evie Froehner also for a visit with Raymond and Mary King of Lubbock.

Earnest and Marie Sammann had a trip to New Zealand last month, pleasure and business selling their invention of a corn saver "picking up corn when the wind blows it down." They report that Island a very green grassy place, probably a million more sheep than people, some trees. We had a girl here as exchange student one year — she is Susan Ryan now married to Dale Hildebrandt in Canada. Susan lived with Lonnie and Janice Bell.

Mamie Birdwell and sister Wilda Hawkins and Bobbie and Harlan Dodd attended the Hawkins family reunion at Hawkins chapel just north of Loving this last weekend.

Oleda Schumacher was hostess at the Thursday Bridge Club at Senior Citizens Party Room with dinner at the center, guests were Fawn Welker, high score; Polly Manning, second high; Emily Clingsmith, Myrtle Shoffy, Johnnie Vannoy, Jo Gregory and Susie Reeves.

Richard and Peggy West are the parents of a little son who was born July 1 in Portales, N.M. He has been named Edward Dale. He was premature and is in the newborn ICU at Albuquerque but is doing fine.

Shirley Underwood tells me the Dimmitt City Ladies Golf Tournament will be Aug. 9 and 10, that is Saturday and Sunday, at our country club. It will decide who the champion lady golfer of the city is. To enter contact Bob Lindsey at the Pro Shop, 647-4502. A Mexican supper will be served following play Saturday night. I hear they have much fun out there at the country club, style shows, golf and games.

Two Hereford girls with Dimmitt grandparents received scholarships recently from West Texas State University. Kylene Behrends, daughter of Clarence and Mary Behrends of the Easter community, will be a freshman at WTSU. She plans to major in computer information systems. Her grandparents are the Henry Behrendes of Easter and the T.B. Dyers.

LuAnn Berryman, daughter of Elaine Berryman, is a sophomore majoring in accounting. LuAnn's father is the late Sammy Berryman, who was raised in Dimmitt, as was her mother.

The J. W. Stone home at 507 W. Halsell has a pretty front porch. A half-barrel has red petunias. Rose colored ivy geraniums bloom in a planter on a stand. A large flower pot contains a beautiful green and white Wandering Jew. Mary Louise is the one who has the green thumb. She likes to take care of the plants after she gets home from work at Hays Implementation. The Stones visited in Dumas over the weekend with their daughter, Joan Payne and family.

Boyd Hodges and Matt Reynolds of Panhandle visited Boyd's grandmother, Beral Hance, Friday afternoon. Boyd has been in Washington, D.C. this summer working for Congressman Jack Hightower. He also spent a week with Kent and Carol Hance and family. Both young men will return to college soon, Boyd to Texas Tech and Matt to Baylor University, where he is a junior.

Dr. and Mrs. Morgan Williford of Longview were guests recently of Dr. Charles and Esta Vandiver, who took them to Palo Duro Canyon where they saw "Texas." They also vacationed in New Mexico and attended the opera in Santa Fe.

Lonnie Parsons of San Antonio led the singing last week at the First Baptist Church revival. He is a very interesting and unusual young man. A former attorney, he has been in revival work four years. He has a bachelor of arts degree in music and a master's degree in music from Trinity University, San Antonio. He spent four years in military service, part of it in Korea, where he was stationed 14 months. His wife, Janice, joined him in Korea (he had to pay her way) and she taught music in an American military school. After their return to the States and his discharge from service, he attended law school in Houston. He was with a law firm in Houston before moving to Kerrville, where he had a good law practice. I failed to mention that before he went to law school he joined an opera company.

Four years ago he realized that his life's work would be in music. So he gave up his law practice and now sings in revivals all over America. He said he helps with revivals with Dr. David Ray about 10 times a year. Dr. Ray was the evangelist for the revival here.

Lonnie and his wife have two small sons, and San Antonio is their home. He left for his home Saturday morning.

Lou Ann Bradley and daughter, Michelle, of Denton are visiting her parents, Jim and Ruth Hays and her brothers, David and Norman and their families, and Doug Hays.

Mrs. Jon Calcote and her daughter Charlene Warnock of Eldorado have been visiting Mrs. Belle McAfee and her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Minnick Jr.

STOP and remember that changing times and technologies do not change the basic needs of people.

What is the greatest non-monetary gift you can give to help in the fight against an incurable disease? Your time.

In this year of financial unrest and uncertainty, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation stresses the value of volunteers who donate their time freely to help.

The 1980 Breath of Life Campaign will be held during National Cystic Fibrosis Week, Sept. 21-27, in the Dimmitt area, and Chairman Karen Robertson is asking volunteers to donate their time to fund-raising activities. The door-to-door campaign will be on Sunday, Sept. 21.

"A gift of time is especially meaningful to the families who are living each day knowing that for a child with CF time is running out," Mrs. Robertson said. "Only 50 percent of the children born today with CF can be expected to live past their 19th birthday. By donating time, volunteers are actually helping to buy time for these kids."

In addition to raising funds to support research, clinical care and education programs, the Breath of Life Campaign is aimed towards alerting the public to the signs and symptoms of cystic fibrosis.

Residents of Dimmitt who can give time as volunteers to the Breath of Life Campaign are urged to contact Mrs. Robertson at 615 NW Seventh St., 647-5477.

UNHELMETED motorcycle riders are more than twice as likely to die or be seriously injured in an accident than helmeted riders. A state study shows that motorcycle accident deaths more than doubled in the first four months after the helmet law was repealed.

PICKETERS representing the Texas Farm Workers Union march in front of the dumping bins and loading docks of La Mantia, Cullum, Collier & Co., Inc., Thursday afternoon. The 25 or more picketers — about half of whom were children — carried TFWU flags and shouted chants while others addressed the LCC workers with a bullhorn or presented the union's arguments to LCC officials. None of the LCC workers joined the picket line, and the picketers did not interfere with the dumping or loading of potatoes that were being processed.

Moves law practice

Edwards buys Huckabay Abstract

Attorney Jack L. Edwards has purchased Huckabay Abstract Co. from Bettye Huckabay and has renamed it Castro County Abstract & Title Co.

Edwards also has moved his law offices to the abstract office at 105 E. Bedford.

Huckabay Abstract Co. has been owned and operated since 1957 by Mrs. Huckabay and her late husband, Bob.

Mrs. Huckabay said she will work with Edwards during the transition period, then plans to go into legal secretarial work.

Until this week, Edwards was associated for eight years with the law firm of Burkett, Ross & Edwards. He moved to Dimmitt after his graduation from the Texas Tech School of Law, and was the first attorney ever to be sworn in and licensed in the Castro County Courthouse.

Edwards serves as the city attorney for Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth, is president of the Dimmitt Lions Club, past president of the Chamber of Commerce, and is a member of the United Way board and the Senior Citizens' Advisory Board.

Edwards said Debra Ball will join the firm Sept. 1 as secretary.

The phone number of the new abstract-law firm is 647-2635, Edwards said.

Christian center to sponsor seminar

A Word of Faith teaching seminar sponsored by the Living Faith Christian Center at Fifth and B Streets in Olton will be conducted Friday through Sunday. The seminar will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and at 10:45 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday.

man from Christian Fellowship Church in Big Spring on Saturday night and Cal Langford from the Word of Faith Outreach Center in Amarillo on Sunday morning.

Pastor Alan Carson will conduct Sunday night services, and invites all interested persons to attend the seminar.

The Evangel Temple Singers will provide music during the three-day seminar.

Field day slated at Halfway center

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station will host its 71st Annual Field Day

Sept. 9 at 1 p.m. The field day is open to the public.

Other agencies located at the Lubbock-Halfway Center and cooperating in the event are the USDA-SEA, National Weather Service, Texas Forest Service, Agricultural Extension Service and the High Plains Research Foundation.

Highlights and topics featured will include weed control, water management, cotton, and a low energy precision application irrigation system for more efficient moisture utilization. Specialists will be available for discussions of specific problems.

Displays and exhibits will be featured for public viewing.

Dr. Levon Ray will retire Aug. 31 from a long career as an experiment station professor and cotton breeder, and a retirement dinner and party is scheduled for him Sept. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the KoKo Palace in Lubbock.

Reunion set for DHS class

A class reunion Aug. 16 at 2 p.m. in the Castro County Senior Citizens Center will be held for the Dimmitt High School graduating class of 1944.

Texas DPS accepting trooper applications

The Texas Department of Public Safety is accepting applications for the position of state trooper. Applicants selected will enter training at the DPS Academy in Austin and classes will begin January 12, 1981.

Major C. W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Department, said, "General qualifications are: applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age, good moral character, a citizen of the United States, good physical condition, and have at least 60 hours of college."

The student officer will participate in and study a variety of law enforcement subjects while in training. Upon completion, the graduate will be qualified to enter the following DPS fields: (1) Driver License (2) Highway Patrol (3) Motor Vehicle Inspection or (4) License and Weight.

The pay during the training period is $1,034.00 and increased to $1,179.00 upon graduation. After twelve months of service, the pay will increase to $1,346.00. Uniforms, vehicles, weapons, and related equipment are furnished in addition to life insurance, hospitalization insurance, paid vacations, state holidays, sick leave, and Social Security benefits. The State Employees Retirement System provides for retirement of law enforcement officers after 20 years of service at age 50.

The Department of Public Safety is an equal opportunity employer and is recruiting qualified female applicants as well as persons from minority groups.

Those interested may contact any DPS office and receive an application plus complete information about the benefits and employment procedures.

View from the library

By BRICK AUTRY

Once several issues back, this column featured an article about the Texas Panhandle Library System meeting in Amarillo and how the System's art prints were distributed. According to the plan each librarian would receive ten art prints and return on a certain date to get ten more upon trading in their first ten art prints. On paper this seemed a good plan.

There were several things that made the plan hard to execute. Just take 22 librarians and 10 art prints each and pack all into a small cramped office.

At first all the librarians got to pick their art prints. Since it was such a hassle to organize a trade between 22 librarians it was decided that each librarian would take only two art prints to trade. Pretty soon that didn't work either. Each librarian (including yours truly) brought the least popular art prints. Then there were problems when the librarian either forgot or refused to bring their art prints. During this time several unpopular art prints were constantly being circulated. The best and the most popular ones went to the librarian who could claw and scratch herself to the head of the line. Rhoads Memorial Library always lost out because the librarian couldn't hack all those greedy women. Finally after much thought the System Coordinator arranged a somewhat formal procedure. She wrote a letter saying "You have art print 'A' and 'B'. You will bring them to the meeting and take art print 'X' and 'Y' home with you. You must comply or the TPLS will be very unhappy with you and will arrange to punish you severely." It wasn't her nicest note.

The first trade off went well. Yet, never underestimate the ability of the human spirit to be just plain cussed. Do you know what the librarians are doing now? They are calling up and asking the office to substitute their art prints. About the time the office staff has it all ready someone calls and wants a change.

The Texas Panhandle Library System met last Monday and not surprisingly, the office staff all came down with a terrible case of Monday illness.

City to host LL tournament next summer

Dimmitt has been chosen as the site of another baseball tournament, according to Little League President Roger Malone.

The city will host the 1981 Little League Area Tournament sometime next July, Malone said. The first-level playoffs will include teams from Dimmitt, Tulia, Friona and Bovina.

"The winner will advance to the district tournament which will be held in Berger," Malone said. "We'll learn more details about it sometime next spring."

Dimmitt hosted one of the three state Babe Ruth League tournaments last month, and has hosted several area and district Little League tournaments since the junior baseball parks were built about 10 years ago.

THE International Pipe Smoking Contest held in Flint, Mich. consisted of 43 contestants who vied to see who could keep their pipes going the longest. Given 3.3 grams of tobacco, Paul Strong won the contest by keeping his pipe smoking for an hour and 39 minutes.

THE three most common names in Germany are Schultz/Schulz, Muller and Schmidt.

Brockman gets scholarship

Teresa L. Brockman of Nazareth has accepted a $200 residence hall scholarship to attend West Texas State University during the 1980-81 academic year.

Brockman, who is an incoming freshman, plans to major in accounting at WTSU. The valedictorian of Nazareth High School this year, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Brockman.

Miss Duke begins mission in Italy

Sandra Duke, daughter of Robert and Frances Duke of Dimmitt, left last week on an 18-month mission in Italy for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon). Miss Duke graduated from Dimmitt High School in 1974 and attended Amarillo College and West Texas State University. While a student at WTSU, she joined the LDS Church. She has lived in Utah the last seven months. She has spent the past two months at the Missionary Training Center in Provo, where she received intensive training in Italian and other skills needed for missionary service.

She was home the latter part of May for a farewell visit with her parents and her grandfather, R. E. Duke. While in Texas, she accompanied her parents to Big Spring to visit relatives, and to Duncanville for a family reunion and visits with her brothers, Bob and Larry, and other relatives. Miss Duke called her parents from the Salt Lake

Nazareth Rickwartz family has family reunion

By VIRGIE GERBER
Marie Brockman hosted a Rickwartz family reunion at the Nazareth Legion Hall on Sunday. About 85 relatives enjoyed a pot-luck dinner and lots of visiting. Later on they visited the cemetery and Holy Family Church. Those attending came from Amarillo, Houston, Channing, Sedan, New Mexico and Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. David Acker of Canyon and Clara Kleman flew to Frankfurt, Germany on Friday for a two-week visit with Douglas and Elaine (Acker) Sanford who are stationed there. Ralph and Sharon Brockman and girls spent several days at the races in Ruidoso last week and also enjoyed the 3 1/2 hour tour through Carlsbad Cavern. The trip was taken after their daughter Melissa had recuperated from her appendectomy the first part of July.

LeRoy and Dorothy Pohlmeier spent several days in Colorado last week. They visited Tom and Brenda Conrad and family in Colorado Springs and Lyn and Pam Bogle and family in Center.

On Sunday, Brenda and her two boys and Pam and her son came to visit here with the Pohlmeier and Conrad families. Pam's daughter Chris came home with her grandparents for a few extra days visit.

A baby shower for Mrs. Greg Schulte was given on Friday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Monette Schilling of Dimmitt. Many useful and pretty gifts were received.

Mrs. Julene Gerber is recuperating at home after having had surgery in a Plainview hospital.

Marie Brockman spent a week in Kansas City visiting her daughter and family Ed and Lorene Riley and son Patrick.

About 25 friends of Werner and Kay Hoffman spent the weekend at Lowake. They enjoyed camping out at the river.

NEW YEARBOOK—To Yearbook Editor Jeff Isaacs, publication of the 1980 "Bobcat" annual represents the completion of a year's hard work. Those who have bought yearbooks may pick them up on weekdays at the Dimmitt High School principal's office, or at an "autograph party" to be held Sunday afternoon in the high school cafeteria.

Yearbook party planned Sunday

An autograph party is scheduled Sunday afternoon for all who purchased 1980 Dimmitt High School yearbooks.

The party will be from 2 to 4 p.m. in the high school cafeteria, according to Jeff Isaacs, editor.

The yearbooks came in last week, and were passed out initially Sunday afternoon, with 88 of the 200 that were ordered being picked up.

"If you picked up your annual last Sunday, bring it back this Sunday and get it autographed," Isaacs advised.

J'Lynn Ryan, annual staff sponsor, said that all who purchased a yearbook are on a master list, and that it's not necessary for a student to present a receipt to get his or her yearbook.

Thirty extra copies are available at $15 each, Mrs. Ryan said.

Those who are unable to attend Sunday's autograph party may pick up their yearbooks at the DHS principal's office any weekday between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., Mrs. Ryan said.

Boosters will huddle tonight

The Dimmitt All Sports Athletic Booster Club is making plans for an active year, beginning with a meeting at 8 tonight (Thursday) at the high school cafeteria.

The meeting is open to the public, President Marvin Bryant said.

The Booster Club will make plans tonight for its annual "Meet the Bobcats" event to be held Friday, Aug. 15, at Bobcat Stadium. The special night will include introductions of the high school football players and their coaches, cheerleaders, and Booster Club officers, and the sale of homemade ice cream.

agri-facts

In order to make one thing perfectly clear, the American Farmer is not the cause of inflation. . . . in fact he is probably the number one inflation fighter in the country. Producers of agricultural products are now competing in basically a free market. . . . they are producing as much as possible and more efficiently than anyone in the world. . . . now or ever. Food prices, of course, have gone up during the past two years, but the fact is that 80 percent of the increases came after the farmer sold the food. Major increases came in the costs of labor, transportation, packaging and retail marketing. Overall crop prices were down last year. . . . a fact reflected in the 11 percent unit value drop in farm exports. Production meanwhile was up. As long as it stays up farmers will be doing more than their share to keep inflation down.

Young readers' awards presented at lawn party

By TEENY BOWDEN

The church library summer reading program came to a close Thursday morning with a lawn party at the church. Seventeen of the 36 who participated were present. Verna Sadler had charge of the games; Bennie Ross had charge of the refreshments; Mary Weiland and Teeny Bowden had charge of presenting the awards. In addition to Gwendolyn and Melinda, Melody Sadler, Stacy Waggoner, and Patricia and Teresa Jurado reached the moon and were presented little robots and "moon rocks," for reading 25 books. Gwendolyn and Melinda Wilson were presented awards Sunday morning for having reached Mars, and for reading the most books in their age group. Patricia Jurado won the award for the most read in her age group and Jana Waggoner read the most books in the pre-school group. They were presented books as awards.

'Little Cheerleaders' clinic set next week

Dimmitt High School's varsity cheerleaders will conduct a "Little Cheerleaders' Clinic" Monday through next Thursday for girls 4 through 12.

The clinic — a repeat of a program that proved to be highly popular among young girls last summer — will be held in the Dimmitt High School gymnasium, from 8 to 11 a.m. daily.

The varsity girls will pass on the techniques, cheers and drills which they have learned at cheerleaders' camps on college campuses.

Enrollment fee is $15 per student. Proceeds will go into the Pep Club's "spirit fund" to purchase supplies for pep rallies and games during the year.

Girls interested may contact any varsity cheerleader or bring their registration money to the high school gym at 8 a.m. Monday when the clinic opens. Varsity cheerleaders are Crystal Fitzgerald, head, Kim Watts, Paula Porter, Bonnie Nino, Pam Nelson and Beth Benton.

Girls participating in the clinic should wear shorts, comfortable tops, and shoes with composition soles.

Social Security in Castro County

By JANICE B. ULMER

This past spring, Social Security conducted symposiums throughout the country to obtain public response and input to our programs. Many valid questions were raised.

This week and next, this column will present several of the most frequent inquiries along with the responses of the Lubbock District Manager, Laura Peacock.

Question: Despite reassurances that Social Security is in good shape financially, I still read reports by various government officials that Social Security will not be able to pay some benefits in the 1980's. What is the real truth, and why do these stories keep popping up?

Answer: Social Security benefits are paid with Social Security taxes, which are actually divided into separate trust funds. These are the old-age and survivors trust fund, the disability trust fund, and the health insurance trust fund. Although the total monies available in these funds are adequate to pay all benefits due under reasonable economic forecasts, there will be a cash-flow crunch in the old-age fund by 1982, as opposed to an excess in the disability fund.

The proposed is simple: shift money from the disability fund to the old-age fund. Congress is expected to take the necessary legislative action soon to allow this interfund borrowing. Under our best judgement about the economy, this step will permit Social Security trust funds to continue paying benefits timely for the next 25 years — and then some.

The Social Security system remains under constant study and scrutiny in order to provide the executive and legislative branches with a sound basis to consider any changes the program needs well in advance.

I remain confident that this basic social program for our country will always pay benefits on time, as it has for the last 40 years.

Question: We keep hearing what a good deal Social Security is — if it is such a good deal, why don't government employees want to be covered by Social Security?

Answer: When the Social Security Act was enacted in 1935, the Federal Civil Service Retirement System had been in existence for 15 years and was well established. Civil Service employees were not covered under Social Security at the time because there seemed to be no need for Federal employees to be covered under two retirement systems.

Federal employees are concerned with ensuring that retirement benefits paid for over the years are preserved, more so than they are anti-social security. Government employees have paid taxes to support the Civil Service Retirement Fund since 1920. It is at a higher tax rate than under Social Security, and in addition is paid on their full salary, rather than a base amount.

A Congressionally-mandated study on the feasibility and desirability of providing Social Security coverage for Federal employees has recently been completed and has been submitted to the Congress and the President for further study.

ONE-WORLD MONEY You'll Pay for Money Policy DICTATORSHIP

Here's your chance to fight

Save This Nation

Bill, do you know that the moneychangers are planning to close our banks, declare national bankruptcy, declare our money worthless, wipe out our savings, just to establish one world money? Do you know that the Federal Reserve System is a private profit corporation which has 12 Class A stockholders and that these moneychangers are more powerful than the President and Congress combined, that neither Congress nor the President controls our money system except this group, and that a former chairman of their board told Congress they could shut this country down in a week? Do you know that Congress has put control ($2704) of pricing farm products and all other commodity futures, as well as complete control of the pricing of all gold and silver futures in the hands of the Federal Reserve System, this private corporation? They have everything rigged now to declare national bankruptcy and make our money worthless anytime they want to do it...and that, do you know, Bill, that you can read a few issues of the SPOTLIGHT and "The Day the Dollar Died" for proof, if you want it...Do you know that H.R. (4986) gives this same Federal Reserve System (a private corporation) the power to declare "Bank Holidays" nationwide or in selected areas? and that these bills have already been passed this year? This means the Federal Reserve System can close all the banks, and no depositor will be allowed to touch his money until Washington gives its OK? This bill will allow the "Fed" (a private corporation) to suspend all reserve requirements for banks, which in turn will increase a massive money supply, which in turn will create runaway inflation. Bill, do you know that F.H.A., S.B.A., and bank loans can be a trap? If foreclosures come, they would like to use the county sheriff to foreclose and confiscate the land and property away from the people. Bill, do you know that in spite of what you have heard, our government has obligated itself for about $5 TRILLION dollars, and that your share is about $113,000? The Arabs have already decided to refuse to take the dollar. Other European nations are planning to follow suit and force us into one world money and bankruptcy, which would be the biggest money theft of all time...and worse than that, do you know, Bill, that President Carter has signed a new treaty with the United Nations to make it illegal for us citizens to own private property...and...a treaty supersedes the Constitution of the United States? But, Bill, there's a way out of this. Do you know that the people of this country have a legal law case which was tried in Minnesota 12 years ago...and what happened was that they overturned the Federal Reserve Bank Act, the National Bank Act, and stopped foreclosure on a mortgage that was held against a farmer...and that court case has stood up to this very day? Investigation shows that the case was tried in a common law court with a common law jury in a justice of the peace court. That proves that the ULTIMATE power to save this nation, under Almighty God, lies in the hands of the people on the county and in common law juries and a justice of the peace court. Did you know the COUNTY government is the highest government in the land and that a common law jury can nullify or turn over any man made law that is not compatible to or with the Constitution? You haven't heard many people tell you that lately, have you? Well, the people in county courts can stop the Federal government in its tracks today...so if you want to stop illegal foreclosures...and save your farms and homes...and help save the nation...and help stop national bankruptcy...then its very important that you and everybody else attend this Seminar at the Friona Community Center, Friona, Texas on August 9th at 8 P.M.

Miss Bruegel, Andrew Kemp recite vows here Saturday

Teresa Elaine Bruegel and Andrew Perry Kemp exchanged marriage vows in a formal ceremony Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bruegel of Dimmitt. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson Kemp of Fort Worth, formerly of Dimmitt.

Lee Cole officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The altar setting was backed by three 15-tier candelabra, framed by two seven-branch brass candelabra, and flanked by two 15-tier spiral candelabra. The altar rail was accented with garlands of lemon leaf and Boston fern, tied with bows of candlelight satin.

Candles in hurricane globes were attached to pews along the aisles to mark the bridal path. Each candelabrum was accented by plumosa and a bow of candlelight satin.

The bride's sister, Sheri Lynn Bruegel, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sharalyn Fowler and Kathryn Roberts, both of Denton. Jamie Baker, the bride's cousin, was the flower girl.

A. J. Kemp served as his son's best man. Groomsman were Mark Fowkes and Craig Vandiver, and ushers were Jim Snider, Steve Nutt and the bride's brothers, Curtis and Gary Bruegel.

Ronda Wise performed wedding music at the organ, and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Allan Carson, who sang several duet arrangements, including "Turn" and "There Will Never Be Another."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Venice lace designed by Galina. The molded bodice was fashioned with appliques of lace, and a wide pattern of lace was applied on the scoop neckline. Soft pleated ruffles enhanced the shoulder line and continued across the back. The softly gathered, floor-length skirt swept to a chapel train in the back with scattered patterns of Venice lace applied on the front. A border of satin ribbon enhanced the entire hemline and marked the waistline.

She carried a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis, plumosa and springari greenery.

The bride's attendants wore identical cocktail length gowns in green and aqua voile. Each bodice was in a fitted style, with a scoop neckline that featured a V-line capelet. A circular skirt ended in a handkerchief line at cocktail length, and a matching hand-rolled belt marked the waistline.

Each bridal attendant carried a single gardenia with plumosa and springari greenery.

The men of the wedding party wore traditional black tuxedos.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bruegel Sr., six miles west of the city. The bride and groom were chauffeured from the church to her grandparents' home in the rumble seat of a Model A Ford roadster replica provided by Dan Nelson.

The bride's cousins, Katrina, Wendy and Heidi Bruegel, and friends served punch, cake, coffee, champagne and hors d'oeuvres from bride's and groom's tables inside the home and from a serving table in the front yard. The reception also included outdoor dancing, with the Caisson Kids of Hereford providing the music.

The bride's table was covered with an imported white handkerchief lace cloth, and featured a centerpiece of white stock and daisies, arranged in an antique vase. The groom's table was covered with an imported Ecu cutwork cloth, and had a centerpiece of yellow mirlongs and tiny mums arranged in a brass bowl.

Following a wedding trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, the newlyweds will be home after Aug. 11 in Fort Worth.

The bride, a 1979 graduate of North Texas State University, is a speech pathologist with the Fort Worth Independent School District. The groom attended Texas Tech University and is now associated with National Finance Credit Corp.

KELLEY HILL WITH 'IMPRESSIVE REWARD'... Grand Champion Mare at state 4-H show

Hill and his mare win state 4-H title

Kelley Hill's mare, "Impressive Reward," lived up to her name when she captured the Grand Champion Mare trophy at the recent State 4-H Horse Show in Fort Worth. Hill, who grew up showing horses as a member of the Castro County 4-H Horse Club, is now a sophomore honor student at Texas Christian University.

The son of Bud and LaQuita Hill of Dimmitt, he is a member of the Texas Youth Team and the Junior American Quarterhorse Association. Winning the state championship is the highest pinnacle yet by any member of the honor-studded Castro County 4-H Horse Club. But Hill and Impressive Reward haven't reached the end of the trail yet. By winning the state grand championship, the young man and his mare qualified for the southern regional finals. Hill also is on the Texas team that's competing in the JAQA's Youth World Finals this week in Tulsa. And he may get to compete next November in the ultimate quarterhorse show, the Open World Finals in Oklahoma City. Impressive Reward is a sorrel mare with a blaze on her face and one stocking-foot. She stands 15.1 hands high.

Sanders family holds reunion

The family of the late Frank and Grace Sanders had a reunion after Hart Day at the Legion Hall in Hart. Attending were Polly and M.L. Simpson, Sazan and Bill Sanders, Diane, Joe Bob, Charley and Will Sanders of Dimmitt. Also, attending were 37 family members from Hart, Springlake, Clovis, Big Spring, Lubbock, Beville, San Marcos, Dodd, and Floydada. Children of the late Hob and Ilo Sanders were Jessie Ray Ebeling, Oleta and Leon Sanders of Dimmitt, Tommy and Edna Sanders of Earth, Kenneth and Mary Sanders, Wade and Kelly Sanders of Whiteface.

Local youths attend Rotary-sponsored camp

Five Dimmitt youths and two adults last week attended Camp RYLA, sponsored by District 573 of Rotary International at Camp Summerlife near Taos, N.M. Attending from here were Tim Wales, Joe Nino, Jim Smith, Phil King and Bryan Gregory, accompanied by County Judge M. L. Simpson, who served as a camp counselor. Paula Moore, R.N., of Dimmitt served as the camp nurse. The Dimmitt youths were all sponsored by Rotary Clubs in Dimmitt, Amarillo and Lubbock. Camp RYLA is a youth leadership training camp for high school junior and senior boys. RYLA stands for Rotary Youth Leadership Assembly. Featured speakers during the four-day camp included Thomas James Patterson, assistant to the dean of the Texas Tech College of Business Administration; Boone Pickens, founder of Mesa Petroleum Co.; Max Sherman, president of WTSU; Dr. Jarvis E. Miller, president of Texas A&M; Don Markham of Moore Business Forms; Ralph McLaughlin, president and board chairman of Saunders Co., Inc.; Eric Hilton of the Hilton Hotel Corp.; William Kistler Jr. of Hughes Tool Co.; Bill Landess of Merrill Lynch; Nancy Garms, Amarillo attorney; Dick Harris of the Bank of the Southwest; Joe D. Garms, Amarillo psychotherapist; Jim Brewer, Amarillo security officer; Tom R. Amason of the Bank of the Southwest, area promoter for Camp RYLA; and Robert D. Amason, business professor at Texas Tech.

Rotary Club has visitors from Austria

Two young Austrian women spoke to the Dimmitt Rotary Club at its Friday noon meeting. They were Cornelia Moser from Rohrendorf and Dorothea Menschick of Grieskirchen. Both are students in technical schools in their home country, and are visiting the US on a cultural exchange program. Miss Moser, a student at Krems Secretarial School in Vienna, explained that her hometown is about 80 kilometers from Vienna. Miss Menschick attends a physical therapists' college in Salzburg. Her father is a doctor and has been mayor of her home town for 12 years, she explained. Grieskirchen is located on the Blue Danube, and her area is a wine-growing region, she said. The young women's American hosts are Dr. and Mrs. Carl Nowlin of Littlefield, who took them to see the Panhandle-Plains Museum at Canyon and the outdoor musical, "Texas," during the week. After meeting with the Rotary Club Friday, the two Austrian students asked to see the tornado damage at the La Mantia, Cullum, Collier & Co. warehouse in North Dimmitt. They had never seen a tornado or tornado damage. They took pictures of the scene and asked many questions about the cause of tornadoes, etc. Speaker at this Friday's Rotary Club meeting will be Patricia Bruno, information director of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District.

More about Union pickets...

[Continued from Page 1] job, and we also have Workman's Compensation." From his vantage point out in the street, Moya observed, "The farm worker in Texas is the most exploited in the nation. They have the highest disease rate and mortality rate in the nation, with no protection. Farmers and spraying companies spray chemicals on their crops when they feel like it, and the workers have no protection. "What about pay for the farm workers that were laid off by the tornado? If they can't work, do they get any consideration or compensation from the insurance companies, as the company does? "Also, farmers are asking for disaster designation, for federal subsidies, for guaranteed loan rates. But what about the workers who are also affected by a disaster situation? "Farm workers were excluded from the National Labor Relations Act of 1935," Moya continued, "and Texas is a right-to-work state where the workers have virtually no protection under the law. Child exploitation is still present in farm work, but look at the manufacturing companies and the welding shops—you don't see children working in those places." He added, "The majority of farm workers are Mexican, or of Mexican background. They have been denied their rights, harassed by the police, exploited by low wages, harassed by the immigration people who collude with the growers." Moya predicted that if the farm worker's situation doesn't change, "I think in the future you're going to see turmoil in the Southwest—violent turmoil, not just strikes. This is because of the lack of sensitivity of the growers. When people can't solve their grievances legally, they resort to whatever means is left to them." He added, "Sooner or later we've all, together, got to come to grips with these problems—what is your responsibility to me and what is my responsibility to you? How can we build a better, more decent, more equitable society? That's what we are trying to do."

Drake, citing some of the problems that he feels would come with the unionization of agricultural workers, commented, "In most fields, if the cost of living goes up, your rates go up. But in farming, when the cost of living goes up, it just goes up. There's no way the farmer or processor can set the price—they can't just pass it along. In the food industry, all these costs are passed backward. The farmer is the only businessman in the US that this happens to." Drake added, "The farmer and processor are not guaranteed anything. The hired workers are the only ones in the industry who are guaranteed their wages by law."

Saturday the TFWU picketers went back to Hereford, where they staged a downtown march in protest of alleged police harassment. Before leaving, Moya said the picketers had encountered no police harassment in Dimmitt, although he felt they had been harassed on local highways by state troopers.

Religious perspective

By K. G. CARROLL do have some deep religious convictions to be heard, even though they don't all agree on every religious precept or doctrine. The atheists and agnostics insist on freedom of religion and speech to try to limit the freedoms and speech of those who do believe in a holy God and righteous living. I believe that it is time that those who do have some religious convictions, exercise their freedom of religion and speech to regain some of the religious freedoms that have been lost through the persistence of those who have sought to limit ours. Is it a shame or disgrace to have and express a strong and devout faith in a living God who has so abundantly blessed us both individually and nationally? There are no doubt many sincere Christians of various religious affiliations who have a deep and sincere love for God and are tired of the infidels trying to put us down and make fun of us because we happen to believe what God has said to us in His word. I may not agree with your opinion on a matter but I will fight for your right to believe what you want to and to freely express yourself, but likewise, I demand the same right for myself because what I have to say may be just as urgent and important as what you have to say. So I'll have my say while believing that there are many others like me who have a lot of ideas and thoughts which would be a blessing and encouragement to others if they would only speak out and express them. Texas temperatures vary across the state COLLEGE STATION — Newcomers may find it hard to get used to Texas weather — especially this summer's sizzling 100-degree temperatures. However, as natives know, the state's immense size and varied climates and geography can cause significantly different spring and summer weather even in the same month. According to meteorologists at Texas A&M University, the Panhandle town of Stratford had a 29-degree reading on May 4, 1978. Two weeks later, Presidio recorded a 108 reading. Also in 1978, Dimmitt reported 18 consecutive days of freezing temperatures in March, while Lajitas, west of the Big Bend National Park, had four consecutive days in the 90s.

It has been noted that in many small town newspapers, various articles of religious persuasion appear from time to time. Some of these articles are written by a local minister of the community. In some of the larger communities, the newspaper employs a religious editor who writes religious articles and news in the community. Other newspapers carry syndicated columns by well-known religious personalities who write articles attempting to answer some of the more common religious questions and problems faced by the average citizen. In reading some of the various articles published in the newspapers, I find a few of the articles to be informative and beneficial to those who may have a certain problem or specific need. Sometimes other articles hammer away at a certain religious or denominational doctrine which is of little interest to those who are not of a particular religious persuasion. Sometimes, certain articles have little if any religious or practical value but they seem to continue to be found in some newspapers nevertheless. It is probably because of such a conglomeration of religious beliefs presented, mixed with a lot of nonsense, that most people pay little or no attention to the articles that appear. But isn't it true that most people would enjoy an article that is well written, not denominationally biased, informative and interesting to anyone's religious interests? What would be the reply of the majority of the public if individually asked their religious preference and why? Some would say, "I don't discuss religion and politics." This is a common statement made by many who really mean that they are so uninformed on both subjects that they don't care to embarrass themselves by revealing their ignorance on the subject. Yet most citizens have made little protest to the infidels who have so blatantly insisted that Bible reading and prayers in public was an offense to their personal convictions, when in reality, they have no religious convictions and don't want anyone else to have any either. I am convinced that it is time for those Americans who

It costs less to live in Texas, survey shows

It costs less to live in Texas, a family resource management specialist says. In other states, families need $20,517 to maintain an "intermediate level" of living, but in Texas they need less, a family resource management specialist reports. Nancy Granovsky, who is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, cites recent family-budget figures released by the Bureau of Labor Statistics from the latest "Texas-brag" material. This brag is no joke, either, she says. According to the report, Dallas families can buy that same "intermediate level" of living for $18,301 and Houston families can get it for $19,025. These budget figures are derived from what it would cost an urban family of four with an age-38 husband, employed full-time, a non-employed wife, a boy age 13, and a girl age 8 to buy specific goods and services for a whole year, at autumn 1979 prices. Dallas and Houston are the only two areas in Texas for which specific data were collected. There's even more "brag" to report: Texas costs less at lower and higher budget levels, too. At the lower budget level, families in other states would have to spend $12,585. However, Dallas families would pay only $11,687, and Houston families would spend only $12,000 to maintain the same level of living. On the "high side," families in other states needed $30,317 to stay in that living standard. Dallas families who wanted to live at these higher budget levels only had to spend $27,004, and Houston families needed $27,686. Why? Absence of a state income tax is a major reason. But what if you aren't part of a four-member urban family? Other report figures the same story. For example, single people (under age 35) trying to maintain an intermediate level of living in Dallas would pay $6,405. In Houston, they would pay $6,659. However, in nearly any other state it would cost $7,180. A one-parent family with two children trying to maintain the lower level of living would have to spend $8,882 in Dallas — and $9,196 in Houston. But in any other state it would cost $9,564. What do these "made-up" budgets really tell us, though? — and what do they not tell us? Mrs. Granovsky says they do not tell us what it really costs people in Texas to live. Instead, they say what a "standard" marketbasket of goods and services costs in two areas of Texas and in other regions of the United States. This marketbasket includes items ranging from food and housing to tooth-paste and taxes, but it certainly does not cover everything Texas residents or those of other states really buy, the specialist adds. However, the "made-up" budgets do provide one thing: a way to compare budget costs across the United States, and, no matter how they do it, the answer is still the same. It costs less to live in Texas.

Drouth increases plant diseases

While extreme heat and dry weather is slowing growth and killing many field crops in Texas, certain plant diseases are thriving and infecting drouth-stressed plants. A serious threat to corn and sorghum crops is charcoal rot. It is a disease caused by a soil-borne fungus, said Dr. C. Wendell Horne, plant pathologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Plant damage occurs only when a plant stand is under moisture stress at heading or ear-forming time. Charcoal rot fungus grows in the base of the stalk and eats inner portions. This causes the stalk to stop transporting water and nutrients. The plant becomes weakened at the ground line, and Horne said a modest windstorm will cause plants to lodge, or fall over. To salvage the crop, producers who detect this disease should harvest as soon as grain moisture levels permit. Harvesting before lodging occurs will allow more grain to be taken into the combine. Horne said charcoal rot fungus is widespread in nature and is present in many if not most fields. Rotation with other crops that are less susceptible helps lower fungal populations. Growers tend to plant crops to fit wet years, said Horne. Most crops are overplanted for moisture conditions such as the state is presently facing. Too much competition between plants results in smaller, weaker stalks which produce less grain. During low-rainfall periods, crop residue is broken down more slowly and this may make soil-borne diseases a bigger problem. Shredding as a means of early stalk destruction will aid in breakdown. Horne said shredding, plus measures to retain soil moisture, are other ways to avoid drouth stress diseases.

your co-op advertising dollars have to be spent or they can't help you sell

Chances are that you have cooperative advertising dollars available to your business right now. Millions of co-op dollars go unused every year because retailers either don't know they're available or don't know when or how to use them.

Manufacturers make these co-op dollars available because they want to help you sell their products. We want to help, too. We can help you choose from a wide array of formats . . . individual dealer ads, tie-ins with corporate ads, dealer listings, etc. We have artwork available on many products that will cost you only half-price . . . or less . . . to advertise.

So don't let the sales potential offered by your co-op program get away from you. Call us today, and we'll help you determine the best dealer advertising to give you the strongest impact and frequency.

Aldermen okay changes in business trash fees

The Dimmitt Board of Aldermen Monday night approved more changes in trash collection fees in an attempt to bring the fees "in line" for different types of businesses.

City Manager Garnett Holland presented the city's recommended changes for 49 small businesses which do not generate a large volume of trash.

"Nearly all of them will be lowered from $15 to $8," Holland said.

The changes in fees will cause an added deficit to the Garbage Dept. of more than $3,600, Holland said. That department is already running $1,400 below the break-even point.

"We're working with a $10,000 deficit now," Alderman Doug Lapins said. In addition to the $5,000 deficit in the Garbage Dept., Lapins referred to the expense of $5,200 for land-fill work demanded by the state but not included in the approved budget.

Police Chief Ron Mitchell requested that the board allow a rewriting of the occupational permit secured by a commercial dance hall. He said that the permit should stipulate that the dance hall furnish at least four bonded security guards to work each dance and that the guards be responsible to the police department.

La Estrellita (The Star) Dance Hall in East Dimmitt is the only commercial dance hall presently operated in the city.

Private clubs and teenage dances will not be affected by the alteration. The aldermen requested that Mitchell discuss with Fire Marshal Guy Waldrop any problems the building might have and the number of people allowed to occupy the building and still comply with fire codes.

The board also discussed increasing the hotel-motel occupancy tax charged to visitors of Dimmitt.

Lapins told the board that many cities in Texas charge a hotel-motel occupancy tax, including 1% to promote tourism and 2% to support the arts.

Dimmitt presently charges the tourism tax, a revenue which goes to the Chamber of Commerce, but Lapins wanted Holland to check into adding the support-of-the-arts tax and its bringing revenue to Dimmitt's library and possibly the museum without adding more burden to city residents.

"It's possible income that would not come from taxing the local people," Alderman Wayne Collins said.

In further action, the board: —Was pleased to have Holland's report that the swimming pool had created $972.06 in profit. The swimming pool will close for the year at 6 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 17.

—Reviewed a petition to close the east-west alley in Block 141, between fourth and fifth and Grant and Cleveland.

Holland said that the alley was unused. All but one property owner on the block signed the petition. Alderman asked the request be put on the agenda for the next meeting, Aug. 18.

—Hear City Attorney Jack Edwards' report that four or five local people are counting for, the census. The Census Bureau representative told Edwards that they were "finding a lot of people."

Police calls

Local law officers had a busy weekend. By Sunday morning, there were 21 inmates in the county jail.

Most of the prisoners were booked for public intoxication or illegal alien charges. Dept. of Public Safety troopers arrested 12 during the week — eight of whom were turned over to the Border Patrol after paying $50 fines for public intoxication. Four of the DPS arrests were for DWI offenses.

A story in the News led to the clearing of a theft case this week. City police reported that a man found some mats in a garbage container at the cemetery and returned them to Case Power & Equipment Co. He had read about their theft in the newspaper, police said.

Steven Rountree of T&R Building & Repair in Anton reported his bobtail truck and 15½ squares of shingles had been stolen from a church parking lot at Northeast Seventh and Bedford last week. Eight squares of the shingles had been on the truck and the rest were taken from the church roof, Rountree reported.

The truck was later found south of the sewage plant, but the shingles are still missing.

John Alldredge reported that a bicycle saddle had been stolen from his home at 600 SW Third.

Two brothers and their uncle were arrested at 12:11 a.m. Monday at Allsup's Convenience Store on charges of disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and simple assault on a police officer.

The incident occurred when city police tried to arrest one of the brothers after reportedly seeing him urinate on the east side of the store. Officers said he resisted arrest and that a scuffle broke out that eventually involved two city officers, two sheriff's deputies and the three men who were arrested.

A 24-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct and assault on a peace officer as the result of an incident in the sheriff's office Saturday.

Police said the man came to the sheriff's office to see if he could bail out a friend who had been jailed for DWI. Then, police said, the man saw a woman who was being booked for DWI and tried to get her released, also. Officers said they told him both persons could be released the next morning.

The man pressed the issue, officers said, and was told to leave, but then started calling the city and state officers names, and eventually got into a fight with two officers. He was jailed under $200 bond, which later was changed to a personal recognizance bond, and was bailed out shortly after being jailed.

A 29-year-old Tahoka man was charged with DWI and possession of marijuana after police officers spotted his car weaving erratically in the 400 block of Southeast Second Street Saturday night.

After being stopped and taken-in for a breathalyzer test, the man was charged with DWI and jailed. Police officers said that when they went back to secure his car, they spotted seeds and leaves on the floor, which led to the discovery of a bag of marijuana in the glove box and two marijuana "roaches" in the ash tray. The man was subsequently charged with marijuana possession.

Tommy Torres Jr., 301 NW Fifth St., reported to city police Tuesday that his bicycle had been stolen from his home, apparently sometime Monday or Monday night.

It's a red-orange three-speed bike that was home-made from odd parts, Torres said. It has a built-up seat, new handle grips and new 20x2120 tires and tubes.

The case is under investigation.

Fair booths all taken

"Fair booths are sold out," Chamber of Commerce Director Delores Golden said this week. The Castro County Fair, scheduled for Sept. 4-6, will have 18 booths of both commercial and non-profit organizations.

Among the booths to be on display throughout the three-day festival are the Right to Life (Nazareth), Neo-Life, Frame and Gallery Shop, Soil and Water Conservation, Conklin Products, and the Church of Christ (Dimmitt) film booth.

"We will have several arts and craft booths including one from China Shop in Plainview," Golden said, adding, "Besides the local people, some people will be coming from Amarillo, Lubbock and Sudan."

The Senior Citizens and different individuals will have hand crafted items. A jewelry booth will also be on display. The organizations may set up their booths Thursday, Sept. 4, from 3 to 6 p.m. or before 9 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 5.

Booth spaces will be marked off.

Displays are encouraged

Ice cream supper set for Clayton

A benefit ice cream supper for Bill Clayton is being planned for Aug. 26 at the Expo Building.

The supper, coordinated by State Executive Committee-man Carl King and Ray Joe Riley, will be open to the public.

Clayton is expected to make a statement concerning the "Bribal" grand jury investigation and his pending trial. Clayton backers who are putting together the supper "are strong believers in the premise that a person is innocent until proven guilty," King said.

"We expect people from Muleshoe, Littlefield, Hereford and Castro County to be here," King added.

HAVING trouble sleeping?

An estimated 10 to 50 percent of the population has sleep problems sometime. The Texas Medical Association advises avoiding daytime naps, getting plenty of exercise and avoiding heavy meals before bedtime as a few ways to help encourage a good night's sleep.

Joe Mapes

Funeral services were held in Trinidad, Colo., Tuesday for Joe Mapes, 26, of La Junta.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mapes of Aguilar, Colo., former Dimmitt residents, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Teague of Dimmitt.

Mr. Mapes, an employee of the Wineglass Ranch at La Junta, died Friday evening from injuries he sustained when a horse fell on him.

Born Sept. 14, 1953, in Tullia, he attended public school at Walsenburg, Colo. He married Debra Lacauso Aug. 28, 1976.

Other survivors include a daughter, Amanda Jo; and two brothers, Jim of Larkspur, Colo., and Larry of Walsenburg.

The family has requested memorial contributions to the Youth Activities Fund of the Southern Baptist Church in Trinidad, in lieu of flowers.

L. E. Clay

Funeral services for Leland Edward Clay of Hobbs, N.M., son of Ellie Clay of Hart, were held Wednesday at 10 a.m. in Parsons Funeral Home chapel. Interment followed at Hart cemetery.

The 49 year old man was struck and killed in a Sunday car-pedestrian accident in Hobbs. Police questioned a suspect in the hit-and-run incident, but no charges have been filed.

Clay died at 11:35 p.m. New Mexico time at the scene of the accident.

In addition to his mother, Clay is survived by two daughters, Sherry Dunham of Amarillo and Sheila Clay of Houston; two sons, Kent of Dallas and Brent of Amarillo; three brothers, Thurman of Hart, James of Nara Visa, N.M., and Lee of Silverton; a sister, Pauline Adams of Easter; and a granddaughter.

Council urges farmers: keep kids off equipment

The National Safety Council has launched a nationwide program to urge farmers and ranchers to adopt a "no riders" rule to keep children off moving farm vehicles.

Dr. Gary S. Nelson, a safety engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said the council acknowledges that most rural children and young farm visitors enjoy following adults to watch, or participate in, the daily jobs of running a farm. However, of the 1,900 accidental work deaths in agriculture in 1978, accidents involving tractors accounted for 150 deaths and thousands of serious injuries.

According to Nelson, hundreds of children fall from tractors and other machinery each year, often to be run over by the drive wheel or trailing equipment. Children have fallen into feed or forage wagons and suffocated, or have been mangled by unloading mechanisms.

Even in a cab, a child is not totally safe, Nelson declared. Quick stops or turns may cause the child to be thrown against objects inside the cab. He said cases are also on record where the cab door came open, allowing the child to fall out. In addition, a passenger can get in the way, annoy or distract you or move needed for cars, credit, insurance, school records, wills, medical records, as well as magazines and newspapers, the specialist recommends. Dr. Chenoweth is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

CARS
Ask motor vehicle officials about requirements for getting a new driver's license and plates for your car, she suggests. For moves within Texas, you are allowed only ten days to apply for a new driver's license.

Texas law requires that you obtain Texas license plates within 30 days, if gainfully employed within the state.

In other states, the time requirements may differ. To register a car in most states, you must prove ownership with a certificate of title.

If you are from a state that doesn't issue title certificates, have some proof, such as a notarized bill of sale, the specialist advises.

CREDIT
Notify ahead of time any people you owe money so they don't think you have "skipped town," Dr. Chenoweth recommends.

Cut or tear only those credit cards from stores in towns where you now live. Write the store's credit department and give a forwarding address for any final statements. Cards issued by national retail chains will probably still be acceptable in the new area.

For a bank credit card, re-apply to get one from a bank in the new location.

INSURANCE
Your move will usually affect insurance rates, so notify the agents involved, the specialist advises. Check with the insurance company to determine what protection you have on personal property while your belongings are moving. Most moving companies provide basic liability insurance that is limited to only a few cents per pound of goods.

SCHOOL RECORDS
Find out in advance what records the new school district will require. Some schools require the mailing of records directly to them.

WILLS
Since state laws vary, check with an attorney about your will, she suggests. Consider problems you might encounter with out-of-state executors or guardians.

MEDICAL RECORDS
Other paperwork details include medical records — such as vaccination records and doctor's prescriptions, Dr. Chenoweth continues. Ask your current doctor or dentist to recommend someone in your new town and have records mailed directly.

MAGAZINES, NEWSPAPERS
Remember to notify any magazines or newspapers well in advance. Most magazines contain a change-of-address form, and post offices can usually supply postcards for this purpose.

a control and cause an accident.

Farm wives are cautioned that a tractor is not a suitable place to baby-sit. "Operators should always check that no children have sneaked aboard and that all bystanders, young and old, are safely out of the way before moving equipment," Nelson said. Never assume that there are no children around when backing, turning or moving machinery, not even in the open field.
