SCHOOL DISTRICTS all across this part of the state are coming up with the bad news that tax increases are necessary, due mainly to the new Public School Financing Law, which revamped the state's method of funding public school education.

It had been expected in this area that schools in our part of the country would come up on the short end of the stick, and sure enough this is what happened.

This is another example of the rural areas being outvoted in the legislature, and of taxpayers being hit an extra blow in the name of equal rights. Personally, we're about ready for these equal rights to equal themselves out again.

CONGRATULATIONS to the United States and Russia's combined space program, who were responsible for this week's Apollo-Soyuz mission, the most ambitious since the moon landing, the first-ever joint venture between the two nations.

The space program has already paid a number of dividends by way of increased technology which has resulted in new and better equipment. Now, hopefully, it may start paying dividends by bringing the nation's of the world together.

COACH MIKE GARRISON, the new head coach at Friona High School, is on the scene, and we had a nice visit with him this week.

Garrison is full of enthusiasm about the 1975 football season at FHS, and if he manages to convey this enthusiasm to his players, as we're sure he will, then the Chieftains should have a good year.

The new head coach of the Chieftains has come up with a slogan for the team for the 1975-76 season.

Garrison wants the team at FHS to be known as the "Red Rage." That's a real catchy nickname. Floydada has its Mean Green, and Spearman has its Purple Pride. They'd better all watch out for the Red Rage!

SPEAKING OF FOOTBALL, the Texas Football magazine hit the stands this week, and once again it looks like Friona will be in a tough football alignment. Olton, last year's District 3-AA champs, are rated fourth in state for pre-season.

The Chieftains are rated third, behind Olton and Littlefield.

You'll recall that the Chiefs and Mustangs hooked up in a great defensive duel last fall in the district opener that Olton won, 6-0 and used as a springboard to the district title.

The Mustangs are loaded with veterans, so they are the rightful favorites.

WE WOULD LIKE to commend County Judge Paul Fortenberry and the county commissioners for their action in converting the permanent school fund from government bonds into certificates of deposit and bringing them to the county depository.

At least the money is on deposit in the county now, an economic boost for the area.

FOR 1975-76

Tax Hike Announced By School District

A raise in school taxes was approved for the Friona Independent School District for 1975-76, due to the new Public School Financing Law and the reduction of the assessed evaluation of district property for the current year.

"The new Public School Financing Law imposed a greater burden on the local school systems than before, as we expected. In addition, the assessed evaluation of property (in the Friona school district) is down $1,292,422 this year," said Superintendent of Schools Tom Jarboe relative to the increase.

The action came at the board's meeting July 12, and came after the board had examined the proposed school budget for 1975-76.

Due to the change in public school financing by the state, the Friona district is faced with raising an additional $89,000 over the previous school year. The decrease in property in the local district, attributed to the small number of cattle being fed as of January 1 this year, will cause the district to need another $20,000 in taxes.

The board, after much study and discussion, voted to raise the rate on real estate from 37.5 per cent of the evaluation to 50 per cent, and reduce the tax rate from $1.80 to $1.55. This would bring about an increase in real estate taxes of approximately 14.8 per cent, it was pointed out.

At the same time, personal property taxes (non real estate) are to be adjusted to full value. Their rate of increase will approximate 29 per cent. It was pointed out that taxes on personal property had not been adjusted since before 1964.

Taking everything into consideration, the school tax increase will be approximately a 17.2 per cent increase for everything averaged together—real estate and personal property.

Virtually every school district this part of the state is faced with increasing their taxes, as a result of the new Public School Financing Law.

The new law came into being after a Federal District Court ruling found the state's former method of financing to be "unfair" to certain school districts.

In addition to the tax increase, school officials found it necessary to raise the price of lunches in the school cafeterias for 1975-76.

An adjustment was made in January of this year, but the cafeteria still lost approximately $8,000, Jarboe pointed out.

New lunch prices will be 60 cents for students in Kindergarten through the fourth grades; 65 cents for students in grades 5-8; 75 cents for grades 9-12. Employees will be charged 90 cents, and all other lunches will be priced at $1.25.

In other business, the school board accepted the resignations of four teachers, and approved the employment of eight others. Since the meeting, four other teachers have submitted resignations.

Resigning were Karen Carter, kindergarten instructor; Lana Grogan, junior high science; Larry Turner, industrial arts; and James Andrews, junior high band director.

Also resigning are Mr. and Mrs. F.G. Crofford. Crofford has served as girls basketball coach for the past eight years. His wife was a fifth grade teacher. Forrest and Linda Harding also have resigned. They were P.E. instructors and coaches in junior high.

Approved for employment were Mary Ralph Smith, kindergarten; Edwin Alford, junior high coach; Gary Jones, high school assistant coach; Sheryl Saylor, home economics; Edgar Tipton, industrial arts; Doris Tipton, first grade; Mrs. Danny Murphree, junior high science; and Theresa Buck, junior high and high school girls physical education.

In other business, the board voted to accept the bid from Jake Diel Pavers to sealcoat the parking lots at the high school. Diel's bid was $4,608.32.

The approval of Friona State Bank as school district depository for the next two school years was passed on by the board.

A student handbook was approved for publication. The book is sponsored by the Student-Faculty Congress to assist students in knowing school rules and policies.

School Fund Is Invested By County

At a special called meeting of the Parmer County Commissioners Court on June 30, the court redeemed a total of $501,011.25 in U.S. Government Bonds belonging to the Permanent School Fund, and has re-invested the money at Friona State Bank, the county depository, in certificates of deposit.

The above amount, plus the interest that had accrued, was deposited in certificates of deposit in denominations of $100,000, to draw interest at the annual rate of seven and one-quarter per cent.

Added to an earlier bond series that had been acted upon similarly, a total of approximately $670,000 from the permanent school fund now on deposit in the county.

"Although it appears that there is little or no way to use the money or interest, this gets the money on deposit within the county, and should be a 'shot in the arm' for the economy," stated County Judge Paul Fortenberry.

The certificates of deposits were set up to mature on March 31, 1979, which is the tenure of the present county depository, which comes up for bid every four years.

According to Judge Fortenberry, the permanent school fund is a special fund that has been "in limbo" for a number of years.

Apparently, only the interest could ever be used from the fund, and according to school officials, using money from the fund for school purposes would only serve to reduce by that amount the funds they receive from the state of Texas.

The money has come from leases paid to the county for its public school land owned in Gaines County.

By having the money invested in certificates of deposit, the fund will gain approximately $48,575 in interest on an annual basis.

Bank Figures Healthy

Deposits at Friona State Bank set a record for mid-year, it was revealed this week.

The bank's June 30 statement revealed that Friona State Bank had deposits of $20,842,645.42. This was a healthy 12.5 per cent increase over the total of $18,526,573.11 which the bank had on deposit at the same time a year earlier.

Assets at the bank also showed a nice gain, from $21,176,838 to $23,606,988. This was an increase of 11.4 per cent in the past 24 months.

Practically the only part of the mid-year statement to show a decrease was the loan department. Loans dropped from a figure of $13,545,136 a year ago to $11,821,056 this year.

The increase in deposits was virtually due entirely to a whopping gain in time or savings deposits held by customers of Friona State Bank.

Time deposits amounted to $10,308,688 on June 30. This was an increase of $2,460,815 from the previous year's figures, or 31.4 per cent.

"I think this is an indication that people are a little more interested in saving money than they formerly were. They are beginning to put their money on deposit for an interest rate they can count on," stated Charles Allen, executive vice president at the bank.

Accident Takes Life Of Clovis Youth

Mitchell Aicher, a 1975 graduate of Clovis High School, was killed in a one vehicle accident on U.S. Highway 60 in Bovina early Wednesday morning.

Aicher, who was a passenger in a light, 1973 model pickup driven by James Farmer, 18, of Clovis, was thrown from the pickup and was pronounced dead at Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona.

Aicher, 18, was the son of Major and Mrs. Thomas I. Aicher of Cannon AFB, Clovis.

Farmer, who was pinned inside the vehicle, was taken to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo where he is now listed in critical condition.

According to Texas Highway Patrolman Royce Keck who investigated the 3:30 a.m. accident, the westbound pickup struck a concrete divider, hit a sign in the median, and traveled back across the right hand side of the road.

The vehicle then struck the bucket of a front-end loader, hit another sign, crashed into a large tractor and came to a stop on the roadway, investigators said.

Patrolman Keck said the pickup was apparently traveling at a high rate of speed. Because of the extent of the damage to the pickup, it could not be immediately determined if

Funeral services were pending as of Wednesday afternoon at Sherwood Mortuary for Aicher. He was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

He was survived by his parents, three brothers, Kevin, Mark and Scott and five sisters, Diane, Sue Ann, Kelly, Karen and Julie, all of the home.

Two Japanese Youths Visiting In Friona

BY CINDA JOHNSON
Star Staff Writer

Lions International is undertaking a very worthwhile program and two of the program's participants are in Friona.

The Youth Exchange Program was undertaken for the purpose of young people traveling to different countries and sharing in the culture of that country; to learn the ways of the country and live as the natives live.

The Lions Club of Friona has brought two boys, both of Japan, into the United States to live in Friona as part of the Youth Exchange Program. Akira Kitazawa and Keiichi Miyaka arrived at the Amarillo Airport Sunday, July 13, where they were met by the family they would be visiting for six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Von Edelman and family are hosting Akira while Keiichi is staying with the Hollis Horton family.

Both boys made application to come to America through Lions International in Japan, then from all of the students requesting to come, Akira and Keiichi were chosen to visit in Friona.

Akira Kitazawa, 20, is hosted by the James Von Edelman family. Originally from Yokohama, Japan, near Tokyo, Akira's father is the company manager of a fluorescent light factory. Akira has two brothers, one of whom is living and working in Alaska.

Akira also does not live at home but attends school at Tokai University where he is a sophomore majoring in Industrial Chemistry.

When asked about what he liked about America so far, Akira replied, "The food is very good, but I don't especially like your American rice. It is different from Japanese rice."

Since arriving in Friona, Akira has done many things that are new to him. Von Edelman has taken him out to see his farm. To help Akira feel like a real "farm boy" Mr. Edelman let Akira help move cattle and ride in a grain truck and combine. Akira said he liked that very much.

Akira is a quiet boy, probably so because he does not speak English very well. But one doesn't need to know English to understand that Akira is a very gifted musician. His instrument is the guitar which he plays very well. Classical music is his favorite.

"I have been playing guitar for eight years," Akira says. "I began my lessons in Junior High."

Akira also knows some judo and has demonstrated this art to the Edelman's youngest son, Brian. It was quite a shock to Brian to find himself flipped onto the floor by such little effort on Akira's part.

From Japan Akira brought the Edelman's a small doll. This is his gift to his American family to show his appreciation for their hospitality.

"My mother makes these dolls," says Akira. "She also teaches classes in making them back in Japan."

Keiichi Miyaka, 20, from Korasik, Japan, is staying with the Hollis Horton family. Keiichi's father is a member of the Lions Club in Japan and works as a businessman in Korasiki.

Keiichi is an Economy student at Kwansai Gaiuin University. He is not the only child in the family but has a younger sister who is living at home.

The thing Keiichi likes about America is the horizon.

and his family only eat with chop sticks.

Keiichi also commented on American rice. "Our rice in Japan is whiter than American rice," he says.

Current Comments From . . .

JIM FITZGERALD in THE MASON (MICH.) NEWS....When Betty Ford went to Europe with Gerry, she took her hairdresser with her. Which is a lot classier than a black Ace comb in your hip pocket.

My wife Pat always travels with a wig so, he says, she can swim underwater and still look nice for dinner. She has never been underwater in her life. She never goes into a pool above her toenails. At the ocean in Miami, she spreads her blanket in Georgia and worries about the tide coming in.

So the wig, which travels on a phony head in a wicker basket, is never used. It just takes up space in the car trunk and gives me one more bulky item to load and unload and scream about.

"All this dumb thing does is take up space," I screamed.

"Marcia would take up more space," my wife answered. Marcia is her hairdresser. My wife yearns for class, like the First Family has. She wants me to learn how to fall down without getting drunk first.

Pat was suggesting I should be grateful I don't have to rent two rooms at the Holiday Inn—one for Marcia and her dryer. After a few years, husbands learn to be properly grateful for such windfalls. The first time I complained about the money Pat spent on shoes, she said I should be grateful she wasn't a centipede. Incredibly, I had never looked at the shoe situation that way, even though in high school I went steady with a centipede.

The relationship between a woman and her hairdresser is a fascinating thing. I always said this, even before I saw the movie, "Shampoo." In case you missed it, this film stars Warren Beatty as a stud hairdresser who puts the make on all his pretty customers. This doesn't worry me. Even if Marcia were Marvin, I'm certain my wife would never be unfaithful during her noon appointment every Wednesday. It is at this time she learns what's happened in town during the past week.

Every Wednesday evening, after editing that week's newspaper, I go home and Pat tells me the good stuff I didn't publish. I sob in frustration and tear the newspaper into little pieces as she reveals all the news the editor missed.

There is no way my wife would give up her weekly gossip session in favor of mere lust. Sorry about that, Warren.

On extended trips, when my wife complains about the condition of her hair, I often suggest she visit the fancy hairdresser just off the hotel lobby. But no, only Marcia can be trusted with Pat's hair. At noon on Wednesdays, wherever we are, she bows her head toward home—and cups her ear. What are they saying at Marcia's mecca?

There was a morning at home when Pat was so ill she couldn't get out of bed. At noon I made a special trip home to see if she was still breathing. I'd forgotten it was Wednesday. She's gone to the beauty shop in a coma; she came home in an ambulance.

It is chiseled in granite somewhere that it is against law and nature for a woman to miss a hair appointment. In cases of extreme emergency it is permissible to trade appointments. It usually takes 56 phone calls to locate a woman who will trade an 11 o'clock on Thursday for a noon on Wednesday.

Sometimes it is necessary to make multi-cornered tables in which Pat gets Sue's appointment and then trades it to Shirley for Dawn's appointment which Shirley got in exchange for Laura's. It is no wonder Warren Beatty was sometimes surprised at who he woke up next to.

And after all that, she comes home and says: "It'll look a lot better once I comb it out."

Once she combs it out, it looks like it did before she went.

I wonder what that centipede is doing?

since arriving in Friona. He saw for the first time a horse and plans to ride one before he leaves. He has been swimming and watched the football boys work out at the High School. But the most exciting and unusual adventure Keiichi has had is to see the movie "Jaws."

"It was exciting," Keiichi says. "The movies in America are better than those in Japan. I liked it!"

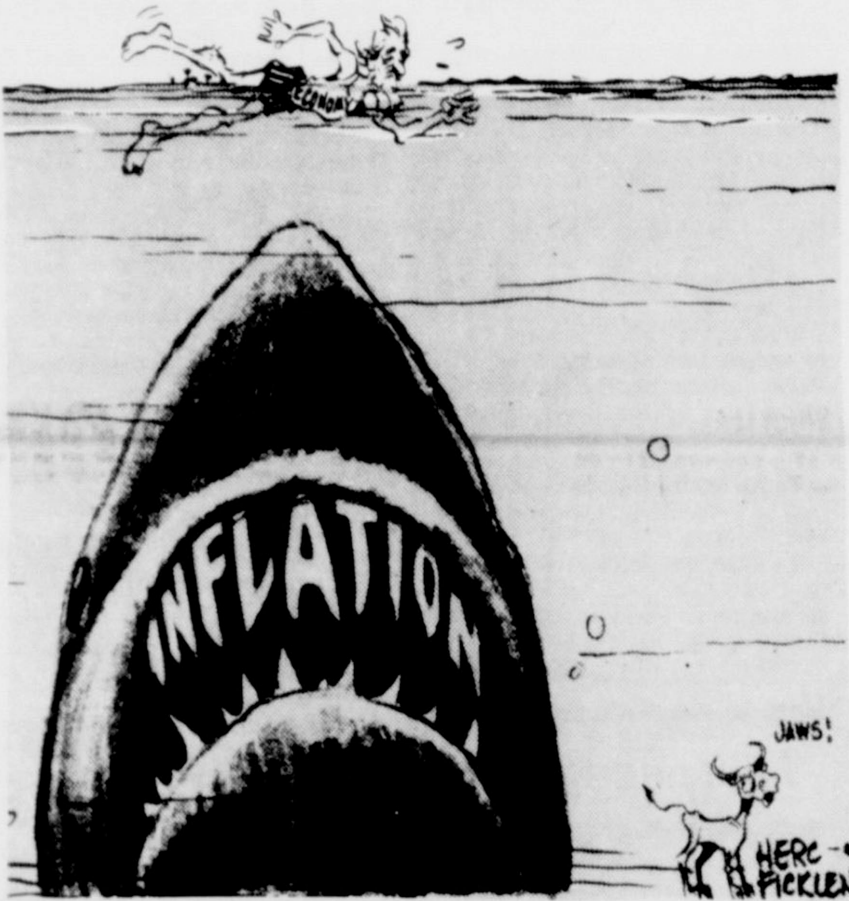

Keiichi also brought some gifts of appreciation to his American family. Among these were colorful umbrellas, dolls and kimonos, the traditional leisure wear of the women of Japan.

Both Akira and Keiichi were asked what their first reaction to America was. Akira replied, "Friona is hot and humid but in Japan we have cool weather. I am surprised at the heat you have here."

"America is big," is all Keiichi could say. "Very big."

All the people of Friona join in saying "welcome" to these visitors from Japan. Perhaps Akira and Keiichi can return home with many exciting stories to tell their family and friends about their stay in Friona, Texas.

"I have seen my first horizon since arriving in America," he tells. "In Japan I cannot see the horizon because of the many mountains."

Whether it is generally known by the majority of our citizens or not, it is nevertheless a fact that our city commission has levied what it calls a street tax on all citizens between the ages of 21 and 60 years, of $1.00 each. Purpose of the tax is to make an effort to keep our streets and gutters in passable and presentable conditions. It is also provided that this tax may be paid in labor if the citizen so desires, rather than cash, and the rate of pay shall be $2 per day, so that a married man may pay for himself and his wife with a day's labor.

Vandals Hit On Main Street

A report of vandalism and criminal mischief was sited in Friona Tuesday night, July 15.

The plate glass in the door of the new post office on Main Street was broken sometime during the night, reported Bill Denney, Friona Police Chief.

"We have no leads," Denney added. "Apparently the damage was done with a heavy instrument, but we haven't as yet been able to find such an instrument around the area."

The crime is listed as a class A misdemeanor under Texas law, and carries a penalty of a $2000 fine, one year in jail or both.

"When we find the person or persons responsible for the broken glass, they will have to replace it," Denney confirmed.

SCIENCE HAS MADE some fantastic strides in the last decade—it's now only 40 years behind the comic book.

SCS News

Cover cropping is an old out-dated practice that is no longer pertinent to today's technology. Wrong! Even though our father's used it when the old mankiller tractors were being used it is still useful. In fact more uses are being found all the time.

The age old use of sowing turnrows to small grains to keep them from blowing is still good. Now it has the added attraction of controlling erosion from tallwater.

Even irrigation will not boost new grass seedings enough to give it the vigor and size to survive the blow season. A dead litter crop will protect young seedlings and prevent high winds from killing them. This same dead litter crop also insulates the soil so that there is hardly any evaporation loss. This gives the grass a better chance because moisture conditions are better. When grass is seeded where no irrigation water is available a dead litter cover is essential for the germination of the seed as well as the survival of the seedlings.

Town people can utilize cover also. In odd areas where there is no grass such as alleyways, small grain can and does stop blowing dirt and looks better than weeds.

INSUR-MATION

By MILTON EVANS Parmer County Farm Bureau Insurance Phone 247-3280

Is there any way I can put the accumulated money in my present employer's retirement plan into IRA if I change jobs?

One of the advantages of IRA is in changing employers you may take the money in your present employer's retirement plan and reinvest it within 60 days in an Individual Retirement Account... thus avoiding the tax on the distribution from your former employer. If you do not put in more assets in your IRA, you can later transfer those funds to a future employer's retirement plan tax free. Investment alternatives include plans by insurance companies using retirement income life insurance and deferred annual premium annuities. Banks, savings and loans, stock and brokerage houses also have vehicles which may be used for the individual retirement account.

tor for the SGA, is directing the program for the 22nd summer.

Instruction is given by university professors and industry officials, and field trips to South Texas gas installations are scheduled.

Governor Sets Safety Week

"Texas farms and ranches play a major role in the economy of Texas and help feed millions of Americans," said Gov. Dolph Briscoe in a proclamation designating July 25-31, as Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week.

But in addition, Texas farms and ranches had a most "unwelcome harvest" while producing their 1974 agricultural products, the deaths of 285 farm and ranch assistants, according to Joe Smetana, Vice President for Farm and Ranch Safety, Texas Safety Association. This figure represents a 33 per cent increase over 1973 fatalities, which was a 16.9 per cent increase from 1972.

Causes of fatalities last year according to data from the Texas Safety Association and The Farm Bureau were accidents involving traffic (97), tractors (34), drownings (34), firearms (24), and fires and burns (21). Other causes recorded include falls (18), machinery (15), animals (13), electric current (10), and miscellaneous (19).

"Texans are proud of the farm and ranch families from whom come the abundance of food and fiber," says the Texas Safety Association, and strongly encourages safety practices to reduce the needless waste of human resources.

Oklahoma Services Held For Frionan's Relative

Funeral services were held last Friday in Apache, Oklahoma, for Thomas Titah Parker, last surviving child of Comanche Chief Quannah Parker.

Mr. Parker was the grandfather of Mrs. Mike Stephens of Friona. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens attended the services.

Parker, born in 1889 near Cache, Okla., died Wednesday at Anadarko after an illness of several months. His life had been spent mostly as a farmer in the Apache area.

Funeral mass was conducted at the Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church in Apache. Burial was in the Cache Creek Indian Cemetery by Crews Funeral Home of Apache.

Parker was the son of famed Comanche Chief Quannah Parker, who led the Kwahadi Indians in their last stand to hold their Texas Panhandle hunting grounds against the buffalo hunters and the white settlers.

Quannah Parker was the son of Kwahadi Chief Peta Nocona and Cynthia Ann Parker, who was taken from her Texas frontier home by Comanche raiders. He led the war party that attacked the trading post at Adobe Walls in the Panhandle in 1874.

Thomas Parker was married to Helen Fisher in 1919 in Oklahoma City.

He was a veteran of World War I and was a member of Rinker-Mason American Legion Post of Apache.

He farmed southeast of Apache until his retirement in 1949, and since 1955 had lived in the present family home north of Apache.

He was a member of Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church.

He is survived by his widow; five sons, Edward and Henry of Apache, Kenneth William of Hobart, Elmer Thomas of Payette, Idaho, and Charles of Lubbock; two daughters, Mrs. Teresa Evanson of Amarillo and Mrs. Ruth Lynn of Euless, Texas.

Also surviving are 24 grandchildren, including Ginger Stephens of Friona, and eight great-grandchildren. Two of the great-grandchildren are John and Amy Stephens of Friona.

Daughter Dies In Arizona

Joann Martin, 37, of Gilbert, Arizona, passed away at her home July 5. Mrs. Martin was the former Joann Agee, daughter of Mrs. Reeta Agee of Friona and was a 1959 graduate of Friona High School.

Memorial services were held July 8 at the Church of Christ in Chandler, Arizona. Burial was in the Valley of the Sun Memorial Park.

Survivors include her husband, Duane, three sons, Ricky, Rex, and Robin of the home, her mother, Reeta Agee of Friona, two brothers, Maynard Agee of Friona and Elden Agee of Liberal, Kansas, and two sisters, Betty Westel of Houston and Ann Ford of Lockney, Texas.

Pool Closed

Friona's Municipal Swimming Pool had to be closed Thursday and Friday for cleaning and re-filling.

Baker Duggins announced that the final two days of lessons, which had been scheduled for those days, have been re-set for August 4 and 5, at the same time they would have been held this week.

By Mike Chaney

Movie stampedes not being what they were, and the price of feed being what it is, the Longhorn may be moving back to the pasture. The Longhorn has retained all the characteristics which made them the bedrock of the western beef industry. Number one on their list of appealing traits is their foraging ability. With pasture land being depleted by grass guzzling steers in near record numbers, producers are renewing their appreciation of any animal that excels on the least possible pasture. That's the Longhorn. An ability to not only survive but to gain on rations consisting of cactus or mesquite and whatever kind of grass is available made the Longhorn a Texas trademark in the days of the trail drive. That same quality obviously was on the minds of cattlemen early this year for the first annual Texas Longhorn Breeders Association of America sale. While exotic breeds were drawing little attention the Longhorn sale was described as standing-room-only.

Quarterly Sales Tax Report Due

Comptroller Bob Bullock reminded 225,000 retail businesses Monday that July 31 is the deadline for sending in quarterly sales tax reports.

"Late reports are nothing but headaches for the taxpayer and for the Comptroller's Office," Bullock said. "I'd like to see every quarterly report filed on the deadline."

Reports due July 31 cover the April-May-June quarter. Forms for the reports were sent to all sales tax permit holders by Bullock's office in June.

"Most of the delinquent or tardy reports are just oversights and simple mistakes but the consequences under the law are just the same," Bullock said.

Six Packs Win Three; Stand 13-7 For Year

TENNIS TIPS....Friona High School tennis coach Mickey Griffin has been conducting tennis lessons in Friona the past two weeks. He is shown giving instructions to Cinda Johnson.

The Friona Six Packs have won three of their last five games, to stand at 13-7 for the season. Errors proved costly here Sunday, July 13, as the team dropped an 11-9

★ ★ ★ Major Stars To Play At Clovis

All-Stars were recently chosen from the four Major League teams. The 14-man team will compete in a District Tournament, July 23, at Clovis. The all-stars first game will be against the American League All-Stars, a team out of Clovis. This particular tournament that the Friona boys will be playing in will field nine teams.

The championship team, Friona State Bank, landed four players on the team. They were Tony Rios, Anthony Brady, Martin Mercado and David Bermea.

The second place team, Reeve Chevrolet, placed three boys on the elite squad: Robert Caballero, Hector Castillo and Salvador Saldona.

Juan Fuentes, Pilo Castillo and Kirk Wright were chosen from the Friona Star team. Mark Tucker, Joe Ortiz, Rudy Mendoza, and Mark Zachary were selected from the Friona Feed Yard team.

decision to the tough Tulia Pirates. It was the team's second loss of the year to Tulia.

In other games in recent weeks, the team scored a double-header win here, downing Portales 12-9 and then disposing of Littlefield in the nightcap, 20-0.

The following week, the Six Packs blasted the Muleshoe Royals 15-3 to avenge an earlier loss at Muleshoe. The losers jumped on starter Manuel Quintana for three runs, but he settled down and didn't allow another run to score. Raymond Delgado, the team's leading home run hitter, socked his fifth homer of the season.

In the Portales game, Quintana was knocked out of the box in the first inning, as Portales grabbed an early lead. However, Friona rallied, and Chacho Arce came on to finish the game with a good pitching job as Friona took the 12-9 victory.

S.D. Baize and Quintana hooked up to shut out Littlefield, 20-0. Baize, in his first pitching of the season, worked five innings and Quintana finished up.

In the Tulia game last Sunday, Tulia bolted to a 7-0 lead. Six Packs pitchers have found tough sledding in the early innings. Power hitter Manuel Nagar socked three home runs in his first four times at bat for Tulia. His last homer, a three-run shot, scored three unearned runs after a Friona error. The Six Packs had come back to trail by two, 7-5, prior to the home run.

Manager Frank Castillo said the Tulia team has lost only four games all season, two to San Angelo, one to a Lubbock team and one to Big Spring.

The Six Packs will visit Tulia this Sunday to try once more to beat the Tulia team. The following week they host the Lubbock Texans.

Final L.L. Games Pressure-Packed

By HAL BLACKBURN
Staff Writer

The last week of baseball action proved to be just as exciting as the preceding five. A lot of thanks goes to these kids, who have provided some real excitement for the community over the past few weeks.

MAJOR LEAGUE

Monday, July 7 saw Friona Feed Yard come up with a secure win over the Friona Star. Scoring 14 runs compared to the Star's one, the Feeders used powerful hitting and excellent fielding to take the win. They picked up nine hits including Mark Blankenship's third inning triple. Friona Feed Yard's winning pitcher was Rudy Mendoza, who held the Star batters to just three hits.

On July 11, Reeve Chevrolet handed Friona State Bank their second loss of the year, winning 13-3. Reeve pitcher, Robert Caballero, held the Bank hitters to just four hits, and accomplishment which has not been achieved by many teams this year. Although his team was having a bad night, David Bermea must not have known anything about it, as his second inning homer went high over the left field fence.

The Friona Star ended the year on a winning note, whipping the Friona Feed Yard team 9-6 on Thursday evening. The win left the Star with a 3-9 record for the year, while the Feeders ended up with a 3-7 mark.

Recognized as the Star's winning pitcher was Juan Fuentes.

MINOR LEAGUE

Ethridge-Spring Agency and the B.J. Bees got the action going in the minor league this week, as Hi-Pro was forced to forfeit a game to Ag-Chem the night before because only seven of Hi-Pro's players showed up to play.

A practice game was played even though the winners and losers had already been decided. Ag-Chem took the game by a score of 10-6. The BJ Bees defeated Ethridge-Spring rather handily, winning 15-5. Troy Crutchfield was the winning pitcher for the BJ Bees, who at this point had a 6-3 record.

Parmer County Implement gave the BJ Bees a run for their money during the last few weeks of the season, as they came up with crucial wins that moved them even closer to first place. In a make-up game played Saturday, the Parmer County team trounced Ag-Chem, 24-3, moving them within a game of first place. Behind the confident pitching of Jamie Perez, the Implement team never trailed while handling the Ag-Chem team rather easily.

As we have said all year, the minor league is more equally balanced than the other leagues. Our point was proven this Monday, as the final standings hinged on the last game of the year. With a win, the BJ

Bees would stand at 7-3, and become the champions. If Hi-Pro could upset them, it would move Parmer County Implement into a first place tie with the BJ Bees.

With Max Perea doing the pitching, Hi-Pro almost pulled it out. After six closely fought innings, the BJ Bees found themselves on top 18-16, and thus became the champions of the Minor League.

From this five team league, three of the five teams were above 500 for the year. The other two teams, Ag-Chem and Hi-Pro enjoyed brief stays at the top of the standings.

T-BALL LEAGUE

Piggly Wiggly continued to press Tasty Cream for the T-Ball League championship, as they whipped United Commercial Travelers, 26-6, on Friday evening.

Knowing that if they lost they would be tied with Piggly Wiggly, Tasty Cream went out on Saturday and swept U.C.T. right off the field, winning 26-16. With this win, Tasty Cream's record became 10-2, and they became the champions of the T-Ball League.

SENIOR LEAGUE

Thursday night's Senior League action was rained out, so Cattle Town and the Pioneer Cattle Order Buyers got things going Friday evening. Mike Hutson won his fifth game of the year against no losses, as his team came up with a 7-1 victory.

The Sherley Grain-Benger Air Park game on July 10 was not replayed, because it wouldn't have affected the first place outcome.

Senior Stars Drop Games To Tucumcari

Friona's senior league all-stars were eliminated from the playoffs this week by the Tucumcari stars, who won the first two games of the playoff series.

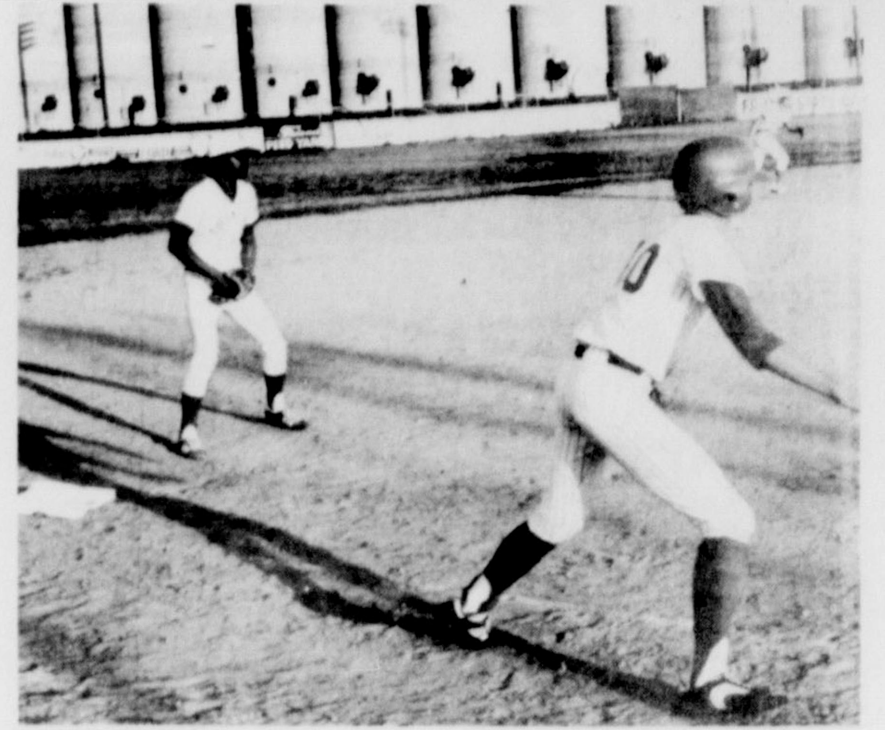

Tucumcari downed the Friona team 9-1 here Wednesday night on a no-hitter, and came back the following night in Tucumcari, for a 7-3 win to clinch the series.

Wednesday's game featured a masterful pitching job by Billy Dominguez of the visitors. His game was marred only by five walks, one of which produced Friona's only run in the first inning.

Dominguez had the unbelievable feat of striking out 10 men in the first nine innings (one reached base on a passed ball on the catcher). He had 16 strikeouts for the game.

On Thursday, Tucumcari erupted for all seven of their runs in the first inning.

Friona had a rally started in the fifth inning, with the bases loaded and a 3-0 count on leadoff hitter Joe Bermea, when a controversial call by the ump led to a double play against Friona and the team wasn't able to score.

LEADS OFF...Ronnie Cary of the Friona All-Star team is shown leading off third base in the third inning here Wednesday. However, Cary didn't get to score as Tucumcari pitcher Billy Dominguez bore down to strike out Paul Ortiz and Terry Wilcox. The New Mexico team's third baseman is Richie Martinez.

Author Explains Fossil Hunting

If you believe that there were dinosaurs, pterodactyls, and ichthyosaurs because you have seen them reconstructed in museums and yet you wonder how men found them and knew to put them together like that, Friona Public Library has just the book to explain it all.

On the best seller lists is "The Bone Hunters" by Uri Lanham. The author is a curator in the Museum of the University of Colorado and has written several books.

In ancient geological times, the heart of North America was covered by a shallow sea which has been called the American Mediterranean. Its waters were inhabited by dinosaurs and in the skies flew great leather-winged reptiles and dainty sea birds. Fishes several yards long thronged the waters in company with an astonishing assortment of gigantic swimming reptiles.

All had long since disappeared into the eons of time when men began opening the Great West. But by 1860 the first traces of them had reappeared and the race of the bone hunters was on.

The book handsomely illustrates the story of the famous and not so famous bone hunters. These men startled the scientific world and laid the foundation for much of today's work in paleontology. Into the Badlands and Great Plains, into laboratories and libraries and into the lives and minds of the subjects, the author takes the reader on an exciting reader adventure.

If you just won't keep your book past due date, the service at Friona Public Library is free for your enjoyment.
