MA FERGUSON PROHIBITIONIST

Hands Butte A Hot One When He Insinuates That Next Governor Camouflages

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Democratic candidate for Governor, last Saturday, from her home at Temple, issued a statement in reply to the "charges and insinuations" being made against her and in connection with her candidacy by Dr. George C. Butte, who was nominated by the Republican Executive Committee, as her opponent for the Governorship.

She denounces as false certain statements made by Dr. Butte and designates as both infamous and contemptible certain insinuations uttered "by this man who proclaims he stands upon the mountain top of a broad patriotism."

Her statement is as follows.

"To the Good People of Texas: The campaign of slander and bitterness that the Republican candidate for Governor is waging against me, justifies this statement:

"The press has carried the charge that I am not favorable to Prohibition. This charge is false. I have been a consistent and life-long Prohibitionist. It is a well-known fact that during the time my husband was Governor I never allowed a drop of any kind of intoxicating liquor to be served in the Governor's mansion.

"I stand now as I have always stood, in favor of individual, precinct, county, state, nation and world-wide Prohibition. I favor the most rigid enforcement of all liquor laws, including the Dean law and the Volstead act, and I favor the passage of a law that will put the drug store bootlegger in the penitentiary.

"I am a friend of all our educational institutions from the country school to the university. I favor taking all of our educational institutions out of politics and will, when I am Governor, counsel and consult with the friends of these institutions about all matters in which they may be interested.

"The Governor's office will be open to the ex-student's associations of our University and all other State schools, and I shall at all times welcome advice and suggestions from them.

"The charge that the Republican candidate has so often repeated, that I will barter pardons, patronages and appointments it is too base to discuss. Only a diseased and corrupt mind can believe that I, an elderly woman, whose life has been spent in Bell County, Texas, and against whom no charge has ever been made, could be undmindful of my official oath and untrue to the millions of good men and women who have so signally honored me.

"These charges and insinuations would be in bad taste as coming from anyone, but coming from one who describes himself as 'standing on the mountain top of a broad patriotism,' are both infamous and contemptible.

"In making appointments to the judiciary I will do so only after consulting lawyers of the highest character and standing, and my judicial

As announced in last week's Star there is presented above a sextette of physically perfect and pulchritudiously pleasing to the eye West Texas reared babies, three of whom are Callahan County products, little Misses Vivian Virginia Nunnally, Ellen Gee Tankersley and Charity Gilliland, all of Baird.

The pictures and the text that accompanies them are reproduced through the courtesy of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, in which splendidly enterprising journal they appeared last Monday, following the accompanying text:

"There isn't anything much more beautiful than a baby—be it either boy or girl—unless they chance to be twins, and then they are doubly beautiful. But when you get six wee bits of humanity together, the sight is a thing of beauty and a joy forever," as John Keats, the poet puts it, in his famous poem, 'Endymion.'

"And here is the beauty and joy forever," for in the accompanying group picture are to be found half a dozen sturdy young West Texans. They are introduced to you as they appear in the cut, left to right, top row first:

"Mrs. R. E. Nunnally of Baird, holding her daughter, Vivian Virginia Nunnally, aged 13 months, who won $5 when adjudged the prettiest baby exhibited in the Baby Show, held in connection with the Callahan County Agricultural, Stock and Poultry Exhibit, recently in Baird.

"Then comes Maude Dean Dunkin, 20-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunkin of Brownwood, who won a silver cup at the Brown County Fair at Brownwood.

"Next to her is Ellen Gee Tankersley, 9-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tankersley of Baird, who scored 100 points as the most perfect baby in the Callahan County Exhibit.

"On the bottom row is Charity Gilliland, 4-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Gilliland of Baird, who scored 98 points as the most perfect baby in the Baby Show held during the recent Callahan County Exhibit at Baird and won second prize.

"Helen Rebecca Heeter, 17-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Heeter of Merkel, was winner for girl babies at the Merkel Community Fair, September 20, and last, but not least, is Thomas Right Hale, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Hale of Merkel, who carried off first prize in the Baby Boy Class at the same Fair.

SENIOR HIGH GIRLS ORGANIZE SNAPPY BASKET BALL TEAM

It will be interesting to Bairdites, especially to those who are interested in the Baird High School's athletic welfare, that under the careful supervision of Miss Lois Bailey, as coach, a Senior Girl's Basket Ball Team, with Nina Walker as Captain and the following students as players: has been organized.

Alice Carille, Millie Morrison, Madge Holmes, Lillie Morrison, Nina Walker, Euless Stephens. Substitutes: Jack Stephens, Emma Burks, Christine Glover.

This team promises to be a strong one and it is hoped it will carry off first honors in Callahan County.

PEP SQUAD OF BAIRD HIGH TO ROOT FOR FOOTBALLERS

The Baird High School "Pep Squad," which was organized a few weeks ago and by whose efforts in assisting and stimulating and encouraging the football boys, Baird's eleven is daily growing aggressively stronger, will keep "pepping" until the last gridiron battles fought to a finish.

The members of the Squad are High School students large and small, and they are diligently trained by Yell Leaders Nina Walker and Louise Bell.

BABY BOY DIES SUDDENLY.

Hubert, the little seven months old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Manning died suddenly at an early hour Monday morning at their home east of Baird. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Andrews at the graveside in Ross cemetery, Monday evening at 4:30 o'clock. The young parents have the sincere sympathy of all in their sorrow.

T. E. D. CLUB MEMBERS HONORED WITH PARTY

The members of the T. E. D. Club were honored with a party, Thursday night, October 9, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Haley, in Northwest Baird.

Upon arriving the club members were ushered into the living room, where a very pleasant evening was spent in games, music and "conversations"—the latter especially—holding sway, as everybody seemed to have more or less to say regarding the welfare of the Senior Class, and many other things—of course.

After a few hours had been spent in these pleasures and the late hours were steadily approaching, delicious refreshments were served to the following:

The hostess Miss Ogilvy and the Misses Blanche Jones, Mary Bounds, Louise Bell, Saloma Alexander, Maggie Walker, Mary Darny, Euless Stephens, Nina Walker, Reasa Faye Enneb, Belva Evans and Helen James. Reporter

YOU CAN'T LEAD "US"

Meaning, Of Course, All Loyal Democrats, Out Of Camp By Butte Sebterfuges

It's a political scream now. Yes, the howl is going up and there's a scramble for vantage ground in the camps of Israel. Samuel, of old, said to Saul:

"What is all this noise I hear?" "The bleating of the sheep and the lowing of the cattle!"

Yes, Ma Ferguson has arrived and the has-been crowd are playing their cards for Ma's political scalp. Some of the old would be's met in Dallas the other day and proceeded to organize and re-constitute—and they named the Democratic League or Anti-Ferguson Democrats, and then proceeded to endorse the Republican nominee for Governor. Democrats, eh? But oh, God! Pass the smelling bottle—the carcass stinketh!

We remember, a long time ago, when our bridges were built out of poles; they were floored with poles, hence, full of cracks. And our old mule, that we always rode to mill, sure did shy the castor on pole bridges and, always, we had to blind-fold old Pete and back him across the bridges.

So this has-been crowd have met and with anti-Ferguson stuff—and we expect they will begin to holler anti-Prohibition Party pretty soon, nice slops to catch some folks; but Brother Love is working it overtime. Yes, the bolters, the men who walked up to the Democratic Primaries and said:

"I am a Democrat and pledge myself to support the nominees of the Democratic Primary."

Did, eh? Now you think to come and put the blind bridle of prejudice on the boys and back 'em on to the Republican bridge, all full of cracks and crevices and holes—leading 'em out of the Democratic fold over into the camps of the doggone Republicans. But, Brother Love, you can't do it—Grand Old Texas—she's too Democratic.

Now who in the Devil would follow a bunch like that, pledge breakers. Men who will vow a political vow—am a Democrat—then hop over into the Republican's back yard, and climb upon the fence and begin to scream for the Democratic boys to come over and help mow the grass on a Republican lawn.

We repeat it: Who the Devil and Tom Walker would follow leadership like this? Why you, but a few moons ago, Big Chief Tom Love, was the bellwether in the camps of Democracy, State and National—a Dictator—had his vest pocket full of political gum drops for those who would lick salt from his hand.

A big guy up there in the National Democratic Convention; then, in turn, comes back down home, walks up to the Democratic lick-log and vows a vow and signs that he will abide by and obey the mandates of that political machine and follow its fortunes; but, in the opinion of Brother Tom, the machine slipped a cog, belt string busted, the horse cast a shoe and his colt got bested in the race—and now he's 'flew the coop,' got over into the Republican

THE ZR-3 ENDS HAZARDOUS TRIP ACROSS ATLANTIC

Thousands Sec Dirigible Moored and Acclaim Commander, Crew and Passengers.

Lakehurst, N. J.—The ZR-3 slumbered Wednesday night, safely cradled in the Lakehurst air-drome after a memorable flight across the ocean.

Her German crew slumbered also and her four American passengers. The dirigible, which had set a new record for sustained flight, appeared none the worse for the effort. She swayed crooningly to and fro to the tune of soft creaking tackle. Her luminous sides shimmered under the beams of a moon that penetrated her glass-domed hangar.

But the humans whom she had carried so far sheltered beneath her protecting bulk—they were red-eyed and weary. They had traveled 5,066 miles under hazardous circumstances and they had done it in a continuous flight of 81 hours and 17 minutes.

This was the official record as computed by Dr. Hugo Eckner, commander of the dirigible and president of the Zeppelin interests, and by Commander J. H. Klein, Jr., of Lakehurst Field, who made the transoceanic flight.

The approximate average of the British R-34 during her westward flight of 3,200 miles across the Atlantic in 108 hours, made in 1919, was 29.63 miles per hour.

As a further indication of the strides lighter-than-air aeronautics have taken during those five years the fuel tanks of the ZR-3 were one-quarter full when she berthed. They held seven and one-half tons, enough, according to Lieut. Commander S. M. Krauss, to have carried her 1,800 knots farther or a goodly part of the distance to the Pacific Coast.

When the R-34 reached her destination at Mineola, L. I., from East Fortune, Scotland, her fuel tanks held barely a half hour's supply. For her to have proceeded further would have been to court disaster.

The giant Zeppelin ZR-3 reposed in her berth at the naval air station air-drome, Lakehurst, at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday. A mighty shout went up from thousands as the air vessel came down.

ELECTION PURPOSES DISCUSSED BY DAVIS

Administration is Responsible to People, Declares
Candidate.

Quincy, Ill.—Government administration is responsible to the people and all have an equal share as stockholders in a great enterprise John W. Davis told Quincy voters in calling upon them to "review the report of your board of directors and either re-elect them with your officers for the ensuing term or wipe the slate clean and try another administration."

"That is the very purpose of a popular election," Mr. Davis said. "That is the reason why the founders who formed this Government and gave us this structure that has defended our liberties and our lives for more than a century, made it not optional, not by choice, but inevitable that your public servants should return to you at frequent intervals and give an account of their stewardship and to receive from you either the plaudits, 'well done, good and faithful servants,' or the converse of that approval, 'depart, we never knew you.'"

"Now, what are you going to answer to that problem? What have your board of directors to bring to you? There are ten of them in this particular corporation. And then they come back to you this year and say that one of those directors who had charge of all the real estate belonging to the corporation had disposed of the most precious part of the corporation's holdings, and when it was looked into it was discovered that he had taken bribes as a consideration for doing so. They called him a secretary of the Interior and his name was Fall."

Mr. Davis called attention to the responsibility which he said, faced the voters every four years in the election of "their chief magistrate." "We occupy no segregated island," Mr. Davis said.

SUPREME COURT UNANIMOUS FOR MRS. FERGUSON

MRS. FERGUSON FAVORED ON EVERY POINT IN DECISION;
LOWER COURT UPHELD

LOWER COURT IS UPHELD

San Antonio Man Refused Injunction; Name on Ballot is Now Assured.

Austin, Texas.—The last vestige of the ancient bar against women in office has been swept away by the Texas Supreme Court in holding Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson of Temple and all other women in the State eligible to elective positions.

Attempts to bring out of the dim past and establish as present day law the fragments of an old order were cast out by the higher court of the State which pronounced women as independent entities on an equality with men.

While holding that Mrs. Ferguson is qualified to vote, the court also held unconstitutional that part of the statute which seeks to confer on a private citizen the right to bring suit testing the qualifications of a candidate for Governor. This right belongs to the Legislature, the court said.

The plaintiff, Charles M. Dickson of San Antonio, has fifteen days in which to file a motion for re-hearing and it was stated the case will not be sent back to the Court of Civil Appeals for issuance of the decree until expiration of that time. It would then be too late for any action as all ballots would have been printed.

In a thirty-three page opinion written by Associate Justice Thomas B. Greenwood and concurred in by Chief Justice Cureton and Associate Justice Pierson, the Court held that: Charles M. Dickson, plaintiff had no legal authority to bring the suit, since the law under which the case was brought is clearly unconstitutional.

That the Fifty-third District Court, Judge George C. Calhoun, did not have jurisdiction to hear the case, thus overruling Judge Calhoun on these jurisdictional points.

That Mrs. Ferguson is not disqualified either by her sex, by her married status or by the fact that she is the wife of James E. Ferguson, who has been declared by the State Senate to be ineligible henceforth to hold office in Texas.

The decision is regarded as a complete and final victory, not only for Mrs. Ferguson, not only for the women of Texas, but for women throughout the land, as it was one of the first cases to directly test the effect of the suffrage amendments.

The suffrage amendments to the Federal Constitution and the State Constitution were interpreted as giving women not only the right to vote, but also the right to hold office. To hold to the contrary would be to create a rule out of accord with the customs of the time and the morals of the people, the Court held.

RED CROSS RAISES $10,000,000 IN 21 DAYS FOR RELIEF

Terrific catastrophes, such as the Japanese earthquake, prove the wisdom of the people in maintaining the American Red Cross as their national and international relief agency. The readiness of the Red Cross for duty in the greatest of emergencies was also proved by test.

The record shows: Sept. 3, President Coolidge assigns the duty of raising $5,000,000 to the American Red Cross; Sept. 4, Red Cross Chapters in over 3,500 communities given fund allotments; Sept. 12, fund totals $5,563,000; Sept. 17, fund nearly $8,000,000 and President announces formal closing of campaign; Sept. 27, fund passes $10,000,000 mark.

In 21 business days the Red Cross doubly performed the duty entrusted to it—all the while keeping a steady flow of relief supplies going out from many Pacific ports to the stricken areas in Japan. Thus was the confidence of the American people in their Red Cross justified and the wisdom of Red Cross preparedness to cope with an unprecedented relief emergency confirmed.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess Calomet tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style Calomet, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, prices ten cents for the vest-pocket size;
thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—ady.

VOTE!

Vote on Election Day, Tuesday, November 4!

Vote as you please—but vote!

The suffrage is not your inherent, God-given right. The suffrage is a privilege given you by your country, the United States of America, the richest,
the most powerful, the freest nation of earth and of all lands the most desirable. It is a privilege that carries with it the responsibility of the good American citizen to carry on the work of the patriots who gave us the Declaration of Independence.

Abraham Lincoln, fifty-nine

REPUBLICANS HOTEL TO RAISE $3,000,000 CAMPAIGN FUND

Object of Canned Editorials Paid for in Doubtful States, Says George B. Baker.

Chicago, Ill.—William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican National Committee, informed the special investigating committee of the Senate that it is the "hope" and "expectation" of his organization to raise a total of $3,000,000 for the national campaign, presidential, senatorial and congressional.

At the same time Mr. Butler denied charges of Senator Robert M.
La Follette, the independent presidential candidate, that his committee would mobilize a large mass of funds in certain states during the last weeks of the campaign. His denial was in reply to questions by Senator Shipstead, Farmer-Labor, Minnesota.

"We have no such intention and have no such preparations," Mr.
Butler said. "We have no ability to do it. We have no funds for purposes, of that kind. There is no intention of doing anything of the sort. I want very much to conduct this campaign in such a way that when I get through it will be something to be proud of."

Under a grueling cross-examination by Senator Caraway (Dem.), Arkansas, regarding the budget plans of his committee, Mr. Butler testified that originally he had estimated $2,500,000 as the amount that would be required for the national presidential campaign. This sum was increased by $500,000 later, he added, after it had been decided to take care of the senatorial and congressional campaigns as well. Calling attention that evidence before the committee was that the Republican organization already had collected approximately $1,700,000, Senator Caraway asked if it was expected to collect an additional $1,300,000.

"Yes," Mr. Butler replied.

"What are your plans for collecting it?" asked the Senator.

"Nothing, except the solicitations which are going on all over the country among our friends for funds," was the reply. "There is no special plan."

Pressed by the Arkansas Senator, Mr. Butler said the collection of funds was under the direction of the national treasurer, William V.
Hodges.

"I have talked with the treasurer and I know what the general plan is,"
Mr. Butler added.

"Would you mind telling us what that general plan is?" pursued Senator Caraway.

"Why, the plan is simply to be in communication with our friends all over the country," Mr. Butler replied, "for them to send in their subscriptions, that is all. We have had committees appointed in various places for that purpose, I presume."

Senator Caraway developed that the national committee had assessed New York State for $1,000,000 of the proposed $3,000,000 campaign fund, Pennsylvania was assessed $600,000 and Illinois $300,000, so that, Senator Caraway said, three States were to raise two-thirds of the total. He added that on the same proportion of assessments among other states, the committee would have raised something like $1,000,000,000, but Mr. Butler took exception to that conclusion.

Chicago has a tong war on among the Chinese. Kill! kill! kill! the wide world over is the curse of this age. If the Devil has not got his deadly grip on a good portion of the human race, what is the cause of all the wars, killing, strife and bloodshed going on all over the world? Human life, in every country under the sun, never was so insecure as it is today.

Dr. Butte says he is "not a Ku Klux, never has been and never will be," to which Jim Lowry of the Honey Grove Signal, just as truthfully adds: "Dr. Butte is not Governor of Texas, never has been and never will be."—Olney Enterprise.

Murder! suicide! bootleg booze!—soul mates of dirty politics, are a few of the things that vexeth the people just now; but we hope we will get a rest after the election, when one bunch of politicians have saved the country and the other bunch have lost themselves.

The Butte speeches are still repeating that old chestnut about 150,000 Republicans voting in the Primary for Mrs. Ferguson. The proof of this falsehood—revamped in this campaign—is that no Republican candidate for Governor of Texas has ever polled over 91,000 votes in a general election.

It is likely that there are more than 150,000 Republicans in Texas, but if so they do not ALL vote, and some of them vote the Democratic State ticket for State officers, and the Republican ticket nationally.

"I am a life-long Democrat; have voted the Democratic ticket straight, without a scratch; but I am going to vote for Dr. Butte!"

How often you see letters like this extract in the daily papers. Well, all we have to say is that any Democrat who votes the Republican ticket has fallen from grace. We believe this because we are a Methodist. But some who do not believe it in church matters, practice it in political matters.

How a Democrat can go straight half a century as a Democrat and then glibly tell us through the newspapers that he has fallen from grace and is proud of it, is beyond our ken.

Some time ago the Abilene Times stated, in reply to an article in The Star about bolting, that "W. E. Gilliland, J. E. Ferguson, J. W. Bailey, O. B. Colquitt and others bolted the ticket in 1922."

We denied the charge emphatically, for we never bolted a Democratic ticket in our life and, in fifty-one years as a voter, never scratched but three names on a Democratic ticket, and this scratching had no more effect on the result than a vote for Peddy had in 1922 or a vote for Butte will have in 1924. In reply The Times of Wednesday, October 15, says:

We certainly do beg your pardon Brother Gilliland. But you remember how you "poured it on" Mayfield after he had received the nomination, and at the same time stated that you never expected to go into another primary? And don't you remember how you boosted Peddy against Mayfield? And do you not remember that the pledge says on the Democratic ticket that "I agree to support the nominees of this party," and that voting is not the only way of supporting a nominee? Turn to your files, Brother Gilliland, and read your editorials appearing in The Star along in October, 1922, and then compare with the editorials you now carry each week and see if they are consistent? We certainly beg your pardon.

Explanation accepted, but in the last Editor Fisk is off again, about The Star boosting Peddy against Mayfield in 1922, and he refers to files of The Star for October, 1922, as proof of its editor's inconsistency.

Suffice to say that the editorials printed in The Star in October, 1922, do not show that we "boosted Peddy" over Mayfield. The truth is we never did regard Peddy's candidacy as amounting to anything. As proof here is an extract from an editorial printed in The Star of October 6, 1922, in reference to the law suits to prevent Peddy's name being printed on the ballot. The Star said:

"Mr. Mayfield is almost certain to win over Mr. Peddy in the election, even if the latter's name is printed on the ballots."

Not an editorial printed in The Star in 1922, is inconsistent with editorials printed this year or any other year. The editor is a Democrat, but not of the brass collar variety; but we will compare Democratic records for half a century with any politician or newspaper man in Texas.

We never voted anything but a Democratic ticket and never expect to. However, the editor of The Star is not a candidate for any office and is not an issue in Callahan or Taylor Counties. The Star is for the Democratic ticket straight down from John W. Davis—State, District, County and Precinct offices.

Where does The Times stand this year, for or forinst the bolters? Or is it just neutral?

About our saying in 1922 that we never expected to enter another primary: We said that and something else we said: That we reserved the right to change our mind—and did!

But, honestly, we feel more like saying that now, than in 1922, when some preachers of my own and other churches in Texas, are on the stump, telling the people that a party pledge is not morally binding. If the people, including church members, become imbued with that idea, anarchy in church and state will follow.

If we have taken more interest this year than in the election in 1922, it is because we consider the danger to the Democratic party greater. We expect to see Butte busted wide open and want to help do the busting. That's all.

Editor Butler, of the Clyde Enterprise says that he is supporting Dr. Butte for the same reason that the editor of The Star voted for L. L. Blackburn, a Republican, for School Trustee, because he considered him better qualified, and he considers Dr. Butte better qualified than Mrs. Ferguson.

A lame excuse is better than none, but the time to consider Dr. Butte's qualifications was before you voted in the primaries, not after, was it not?

The difference between Editor Gilliland's voting for school trustee when no nominations were made, and Editor Butler voting for a Republican nominee for Governor of Texas, is so great that it seems ridiculous to use it as an excuse.

We violated no party pledge in voting for a Republican for School Trustee, while Editor Butler, in supporting Butte, violates his party pledge, twice given this year.

Editor Butler, of the Clyde Enterprise, says that if we will prove to him that Zeke Marvin had anything to do with nominating Doctor Butte that he will support Mrs. Ferguson. But how do we know he will obey this third promise when he has violated the first two by supporting Butte, the Republican nominee for Governor?

It is immaterial who nominated Butte. He is not the nominee any Democrat in Texas promised to vote for. Zeke Marvin bolted Mrs. Ferguson's nomination the day after the primary. It would be natural for the Republican leaders to consult with the Klan leader who had bolted his party, and we are satisfied that they did. Actions speak louder than words some times.

We are under no more obligation to support Mrs. Ferguson than Editor Butler. We voted against her in the first primary and for her in the second. Editor Butler, we understand, voted against her in both primaries, but we both accepted the same party pledge as a privilege for voting in the primaries. We are complying with our part of the agreement, though we lost our first choice for several State offices in the two primaries.

If Editor Butler has discovered some evidence of Mrs. Ferguson's unfitness for the office that he did not know when he voted and his conscience will not allow him to vote for her, he would be justified in not voting, but not in voting against her. That is our idea, but, understand, we are not the keeper of any one's conscience but our own.

Discovering that the opposing candidate is better qualified for the office is no excuse for violating the pledge. That simply means that no one is morally bound to observe the pledge. That kind of discussion is barred now by the votes of the Democrats, and we ought to do what we promised to do.

MRS. FERGUSON WINS

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson won a sweeping victory in the suit filed against her in the District Court at Austin, to prohibit her name from being placed upon the ballots. The case was decided in favor of Mrs. Ferguson and appealed to the higher courts and finally decided by the Supreme Court last Saturday.

The Supreme Court held that Mrs. Ferguson is in every way eligible under the law to hold the office of Governor, and the contention of the plaintiff, Dixon, was decided adversely to him, on every point. District Judge Calhoun held that Dixon had a right to bring the suit, but held that Mrs. Ferguson was eligible to hold the office.

The Supreme Court held the law unconstitutional permitting a private citizen to bring this kind of a suit, but sustained Judge Calhoun's decision on all other points. All legal obstacles against Mrs. Ferguson having been settled, the deck is now cleared for action. Now boys (and the girls too), let us show the high brows backing Butte what Democrats of Texas can do when it comes to a real battle—and bury Butte and his chief butters head downwards and so deep that they will not scratch out for fifty years. We can do it if all will go vote for country, home and constitutional government

Names at the head of the ticket count for nothing to a loyal Democrat who regards a pledge as morally binding and not to be explained away because the nominee is a woman, or the wife of a man one may not like personally.

Think of C. Bascomb Siemp, the patronage huckster, being selected as the private secretary to the President! From this you can draw your own conclusion.

"The Democrat in Texas who, this fall, aligns himself with this corrupt and dishonest Republican administration, is either ignorant of that party, or is indifferent to the public welfare, or is taking orders from some society to which he has sworn allegiance, and whose orders he is required to obey. You can take your choice.

J. D. BOYDSTUN VISITS OLD HOME IN ROCKWALL COUNTY

J. D. Boydston returned Sunday evening from a week's visit with relatives in Rockwall county. He reports a most pleasant visit. He was accompanied by his grand daughter, Mrs. Corinne Driskill, who remained for a longer visit with relatives and friends. The Roysse City News-Times had the following to say in regard to Mr. Boydston's visit to his old home: "A familiar figure to all old timers of Rockwall county was here this week meeting his old friends. The party to whom we have reference is Mr. J. D. Boydston, now of Baird, Callahan county. Mr. Boydston's father, B. F. Boydston, long since dead, settled in Rockwell county in 1848 and was prominent in the history of this section for many years. J. D. Boydston was for a number of years a leading merchant of Rockwall, afterwards going to Baird, where he was actively engaged in mercantile pursuits. It was quite interesting to hear him and Mr. Lamberson recount the incidents connected with the early history of Rockwall county, when they got together here Thursday morning. Mr. Boydston is now in his 80th year, but he is yet vigorous both in mind and body.

WASHINGTON

The American Federation of Labor's campaign committee, headed by Samuel Gompers, announced it had begun distribution among workers of 3,000,000 leaflets urging defeat of Congressional candidates deemed unfriendly to labor.

The body of former President Woodrow Wilson is soon to be removed from the crypt in Bethlehem Chapel of the Washington Cathedral and placed in a marble sarcophagus, where it will remain in the chapel temporarily at least. The sarcophagus, which was designed by the cathedral architect at the order of Mrs. Wilson and probably will be completed within a month was said to be of simple design, with the only ornamentation a crusader's sword carved in relief on the marble slab cover. There will be besides a brief inscription.

With the consent of the State of Washington, the Supreme Court entered a decree which will have the effect of returning to the Yakima Indians certain lands erroneously granted to the State as school lands by the Secretary of the Interior.

The Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe Railway Company has been given authority by the Interstate Commerce Commission to acquire control of the Concho, San Saba & Llano Valley Railroad Company by lease.

The Federal Reserve Board has announced the voluntary withdrawal from State bank membership in the system of the First State Bank of Mission, Texas.

A request that the proposed investigation of agricultural conditions be withheld until after election was made to President Coolidge by Louis J. Taber of Columbus, Ohio, master of the National Grange.

A letter from President Coolidge expressing hope for a broad and liberal response to the public appeal of the disabled American Veterans, in connection with its "forget-me-not" day, November 8, was made by the organization's commander, Frank J. Irwin.

The War Department announces the selection by Senator Mayfield of Texas of Daniel Fulbright Walker, Alvord, as his candidate for examination to be held, beginning March 3, next, for admission to the military academy at West Point with the class of July 1, 1925.

RECORD DISASTER YEAR KEPT RED CROSS BUSY

In 192 Places in United States Its Relief Operations Cost $737,603.

One hundred and ninety-two disasters resulting in 735 deaths and injury to 1,932 persons, rendering nearly 44,000 homeless and causing property losses estimated at more than $44,750,000, established a new record in the United States in the year ended last June 30, according to reports of the American Red Cross. In all of these disasters immediately relief activity was applied by the Red Cross, which expended $737,603.37 through the national organization and the local chapters in assisting stricken communities.

As the nation's chief relief agency, whose service covers over 43 years, the Red Cross is expected to be on duty almost as soon as a disaster strikes any locality. This trust and confidence is amply justified by the increasing equipment of the Red Cross, which recently organized a mobile disaster unit of experienced workers ready in all parts of the country to respond on the instant to a call for active duty. This unit is capable of operating in several disaster areas under one general direction, and recently was at work in seven communities in five states at the same time.

Ability, alertness and increasing skill of volunteer workers in more than 3,500 chapters are reasons for the preparedness of Red Cross for disaster operations. The call for a disturbance in a restricted local area or for millions in relief funds for a staggering catastrophe such as the earthquake in Japan.

The Red Cross, however, is far from being self-satisfied, for the organization is giving the most serious consideration to measures for preventing disasters. Its relief administration and rehabilitation policies have won for it nation-wide regard. That this important work can always measure up to every demand needs the continued support of the American people through Red Cross membership. The annual enrollment will begin Armistice Day, November 11, and every American is urged to join or renew membership in the Red Cross.

Help yourself by helping others with your dollar Red Cross membership. The dividend in good works is guaranteed.

UNIVERSITY HEADS MAY NOT GET RAISE

The Boards of Both University and A. & M. College Recommend $10,000 Salary for Presidents.

Austin, Texas.—It is known that the State Board of Control is not inclined to recommend $10,000 salaries for the presidents of the University of Texas and A. & M. College in making up the biennial budget of appropriations for the Legislature. The board members think the occasion does not demand it, since these institutions are not angling for new presidents of prominent reputation and that to recommend it would disrupt the entire scale of salaries in the several higher institutions of learning. The present able presidents received less than $10,000 until that figure was made possible for the head of the A. & M. College by adding Federal funds to the State appropriation.

In this connection it is also probable that the board will ask the Legislature to fix a maximum salary for the presidents of the institutions of learning so as to retain the relationship fixed between the institutions. The board adopted this scale in its last budget, which will probably be retained. State University president $7,500, president of the A. & M. College $7,500, president of C. I. A. $6,500 and the several teacher colleges $5,000.

A recommendation that maximums be fixed would carry with it the statement that these are State institutions and would not receive Federal funds, available funds or fees if they were not State supported. All of these institutions receive fees from students and the A. & M. College gets money from the Federal Government.

The board will submit a strict itemization of every dollar it recommends for the institutions of learning, and if the Legislature desires to make lump-sum allowances by departments, as it did two years ago, that will be its privilege, say the board members.

At this time the board is working on the budgets of the Texas Technological College and of the eight State teacher colleges. It is expected to rank with the C. I. A. for the present and later with the A. & M. College in salary basis.

The governing boards of both the University and A. & M. College recommended $10,000 salaries for their presidents. The A. & M. president was already receiving it through additions from special funds, but the University president was not. The Board of Control two years ago adopted a scale ranking the institutions in salaries, placing them in this order: University, A. & M. College, C. I. A. and the teacher colleges. It has adhered to that rating and will seek to have the Legislature preserve it.

WILL SLAY ALL CATTLE IN INFECTED AREA

Order Given to Shoot 300 in Hoof and Mouth Quarantine District.

Houston, Texas.—Possibly, that every cow within fence in the infected area where the foot and mouth disease was found in Harris County will be ordered shot within the next few days loomed when the three milk cows belonging to Glen Peck, one-half mile from Webster, were found infected. They were ordered shot at once. Seventy-five head of dairy cows belonging to Mrs. Frank Peck, Glen Peck's mother, were shot.

Orders were given to shoot 300 head of cattle at Geona. All of the 300 head have been under fence and, like Mrs. Peck's cattle were not killed with the range cattle last week because they were under fence when the disease was first discovered.

Infection in these cattle was caused, Dr. Marion Imes said, by contact through the wire fences with cattle of the open range.

Up to the present time approximately 8,000 head of cattle have been shot and buried. All of them have been buried in trench No. 1 on the Jacobs ranch, where the first cattle were killed, or in trench No. 1 on the McFaddin ranch.

McAdoo to Be Operated On. Baltimore.—William Gibbs McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, will undergo an operation at Johns Hopkins Hospital here for the removal of gravel from the bladder. Dr. McAdoo has arrived in Baltimore and is now at the hospital.

ZR-3 MAY BE SEEN HERE DURING FAIR

Giant Dirigible May Pass Each Other Here on Sunday, October 26.

Dallas, Texas.—The two largest dirigible airships in the world, the ZR-3, America's war prize, just delivered from Germany in a flight across the Atlantic, and the Shenandoah, now on the Pacific coast, may both be seen at Dallas on Sunday, Oct. 26, the last day of the State Fair of Texas.

It is indicated by telegrams received from Curtis D. Wilbur, Secretary of the Navy, by Dr. W. E. Hubbert of the Navy League committee arranging a Navy Day celebration at the fair on the closing Sunday, that the ZR-3 may start on a transcontinental tour westward at the same time the Shenandoah begins her return voyage eastward. If this schedule materializes it is the expectation that the giant air cruisers will pass each other at Dallas or that both will pass over the city on the same day.

Propose to Register Nonvoters.

Washington.—A well-defined movement, backed, seemingly, by members of all parties, has developed looking toward the listing of all voters who fail to vote at national elections. It is thought that the preparation of lists of nonvoters, and the publication of these in local communities, would create a greater interest in the value of the suffrage privilege to every citizen, and make for a better and more intelligent citizenship.

R. B. Creager Visits White House

Washington.—Col. R. B. Creager, Republican State chairman for Texas, is in Washington to discuss the Texas political situation with Republican leaders. He will remain in the capital for a week, returning to Texas in time to cast his ballot in the general election. Col Creager visited the White House, where the President evinced much interest in the Texas situation. That Texas will have a Republican Governor is now felt sure, President Coolidge was told.

barnyard, and gee! how this Republican maverick is crowing for votes?

You know, a long time ago, in the days of the open range, when the cow rustlers would scour the range for mavericks, and stick their brand and mark on 'em—that's what the Republicans are doing now, prowling around in the Democratic corral, looking for mavericks in the big political roundup—but take it from us Grand Old Texas is a whopper in area, and the biggest Democratic corral on earth—and, we thank you, not in the danger zone.

Of course these pledge jumpers are making a lot of fuss, but who is going to follow them? Who has any confidence in a fellow who will violate a pledge? Why when a fellow goes wrong morally, politically, religiously or otherwise, ain't no telling where he'll head in. Maybe, two years hence, he will be in a Socialist camp—and, by the way, we have more respect for a Socialist than we have for these Republican mavericks, browsing around on the commons among the hateful Republicans, and playing second fiddle at the hay rack.—Colonel Dick McCarthy in The Albany News.

CELEBRATES 90TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. G. M. Hall left last Friday for Fort Worth, where she went to attend a reception to be given her father, Mr. A. S. Witherspoon, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Ferguson, Sunday, October 19th, the occasion being his 90th birthday. Mr and Mrs. Witherspoon are a remarkable couple, Mrs. Witherspoon being in her 90th year also. They have been married 66 years and are both vigorous mentally and physically. Mrs. Witherspoon is an ardent supporter of Mrs. Ferguson for governor, and was probably the oldest lady in the county to vote for her in the recent primaries. We wish Mr. Mrs. Witherspoon many more happy years.

4th QUARTERLY CONFERENCE BAIRD METHODIST CHURCH

The closing conference for the conference year was held at the Baird Methodist Episcopal Church, Wednesday night.

Rev. W. M. Lane, the presiding Elder, accompanied by Mrs. Lane, came down from Abilene in an auto to attend the Conference. This is Brother Lane's last year as Presiding Elder, and the members of the Baird Church are sorry to lose him; but that is our church law.

The Quarterly Conference showed collections in fairly good shape, but the membership must make up the shortage before the Annual Conference, Wednesday, October 29, at Abilene.

The report shows exactly 300 members and church property valued at $52,500, with $10,000 indebtedness. All members who are due anything on salary or conference collections are urged to pay by next Tuesday night at the very latest.

BOXING TO BE REVIVED IN TERRELL STADIUM

Walter Varner, a Callahan County boy, an ex-soldier and a prime favorite with the boxing fans of the county, will meet his old opponent, Eddie Sorrey of San Antonio, middle weight champion of Texas, in a ten round boxing bout in the Terrell Stadium, tomorrow night, and the Baird Municipal Band will furnish the music.

Both men have been training hard for the encounter, and will enter the "squared circle" in the pink of physical condition. Sorrey weighs 160 pounds, Varner 152. Frank E. Stanley will be the official referee and E. D. Merrill the official time keeper.

The general admission to see this scientific encounter will be $1; ring-side seats 50c extra.

"I made a clean, fair campaign in both primaries. I was nominated by the Democratic party by a majority of nearly 100,000 votes, and I know that the sense of fair play that is so prominent in the makeup of the good men and women of Texas, will cause them to rebuke the campaign of slander and misrepresentation that is being made against me, and I ask them to see that this is done."

THANKING KINDLY FRIENDS

From the depths of a grateful heart, suddenly stricken by the dread monster, Death, out of a clear sky of happiness, I thank those kindly, sympathetic ones, who, in my bereavement and sorrow, gave me and my little fatherless boys their ministering help.

May God's choicest blessings descend upon you one and all.
