FRIONA'S SCHOOL BOARD, and Superintendent of Schools Tom Jarboe, did a tremendous "selling job" for the local area, when they met with representatives of Moody's Investors on October 27 in New York City.

As a result of that meeting, the school district received an "A" rating on the $1.4 million in bonds, and this was beneficial to the school and its taxpayers in the long run. This rating was an advancement of two places from the school's previous bond rating.

The improved rating will save the school district anywhere from $150,000 to $200,000 through the 16-year bonded indebtedness.

Although the interest rate on the bonds was higher than the school officials would have liked, this improved rating will partially offset the interest upswing.

It was pointed out that wives of the school board members, and of Superintendent Jarboe, accompanied them on their trip to New York. It was a once in a lifetime trip, so they decided to share it with their wives.

But Jarboe asked us to point out, and we are happy to do so, that the expenses involved in taking the wives were paid by the individuals, and not by the school.

Supt. Jarboe said it was an enjoyable trip, especially in light of the accomplishments. "New York is a good place to visit, but I don't think any of our group is ready to pull up stakes and move up there," he said.

We salute the board, and Superintendent Jarboe, on a job well done. They still have the bulk of their work in front of them, however, in terms of bidders and then the actual construction work.

THE SUSAN B. ANTHONY dollar has had a less than illustrious career. It was announced this week that the controversial dollar coin, introduced 16 months ago, is still far from gaining the acceptance which the government had hoped it would.

Of the 850 million coins minted, only 300 million are now in circulation. The rest of the coins are in Federal Reserve and U.S. Mint vaults, and production on the coins has come to a standstill.

The government, it is said, has spent almost $600,000 on a nationwide promotional campaign, and is experimenting with ways to make the dollars more appealing.

Businessmen complain that the coin looks and feels too much like a quarter, and if you have had any of the "Susie" dollars, you know what they mean. The U.S. Treasury Department is considering minting a new version, perhaps using an alloy that would give the coin a gold color, and placing an eagle on the back with a large raised numeral "1".

The only trouble with using an alloy is the fact that most alloys which would be used might turn the coin a sickly green after a short use, but experts are working on this problem and say they have a solution.

The government, it is said, isn't just being stubborn in wanting to replace dollar bills with dollar coins. It costs two cents to print a dollar bill, which lasts only an average of eighteen months in circulation.

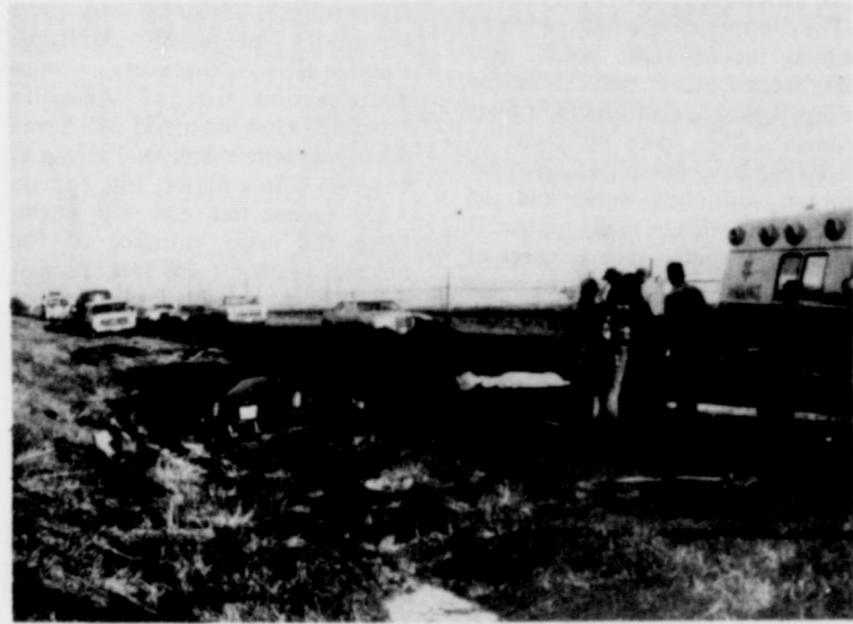

The cost for minting the dollar coin is around three cents each, and the average life for a coin is 15 years. This would be an annual savings of $50 million.

We're all for saving money. Hopefully the government will come up with a better alternative than the Susie dollar.

Youth, 17, Killed In Head-On Collision

Dagoberto Rodriguez, 17, a Hereford resident who had been staying in Friona, was killed at about 5 p.m. Tuesday in a near head-on collision on the eastern outskirts of Friona near the Roadside Park on Highway 60.

Investigating officers said that Rodriguez was driving a 1974 Pontiac headed west, which veered into the lane of a 1974 Mack truck driven by Joe Aguirre of 411 Cleveland.

Officers theorized that the evening sun, hanging low, may have been in Rodriguez' eyes. Also discovered was a pouch containing a controlled substance, in the seat of the car driven by the 17-year-old.

Aguirre was driving a cotton burr truck for Bermea Brothers. His truck was also a total loss. He was treated and released at Parmer County Community Hospital.

Rodriguez was pronounced dead at the scene by Friona Justice of the Peace Frances Euler. Officers gave his home address as 532 George Street in Hereford, but he had been staying at the Holiday House Motel in Friona, and was returning to Friona after working at the Hereford Tortilla Factory.

Identification of Rodriguez was delayed somewhat, since he did not have a driver's license.

Investigating the accident were Art Lopez and Steve Talkington, patrolmen with the Department of Public Safety.

School Given "A" Rating On Bonds

The Board of Trustees for the Friona Independent School District and Superintendent of Schools Tom Jarboe have been busily engaged during the past couple of weeks, securing a rating for the $1.4 million in school bonds, and then selling the bonds.

At a meeting in New York on October 27, the school officials met with Moody's Investors, presenting them with a pictorial booklet which the group had prepared on the area, giving pertinent facts on the area's economy, population figures, etc.

The school had solicited information from several industries locally, which gave facts on their economic status. Also included was information from the High Plains Underground Water District.

On Wednesday, October 29, a representative of Moody's called and informed Superintendent Jarboe that the district has received an "A" rating on the sale of the bonds. This rating was two steps above the rating which had previously been held, which was B-AA.

On Monday, November 10, the board opened the bids on sale of the bonds. Six bids had been received. The best bid, from Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc., Houston, reflected an effective interest rate of 8.4877.

After considerable discussion, the board voted unanimously to accept the bid and sell the bonds.

"Although the interest rate is somewhat higher than we had hoped for, we felt that this would allow us to stay within the 10-cent increase we promised the taxpayers, provided the values within the district remain stable," Jarboe said.

The next step in the process is to meet with the architect, make final plans for the proposed improvements, and allow him to draw up the proposed changes, and then advertise for bids.

Bids on the proposed school improvements could be awarded by early in 1981. Jarboe said it was the goal of the school officials to finish the work as rapidly as possible. It is hoped that the work can be finished prior to the starting of the 1981-82 school term.

The bond issue was approved by voters in the school district on September 30. The school has proposed improvements and additions in the elementary and junior high system, including a number of energy-saving changes.

City's Annual Thanksgiving Service Slated

The Friona Ministerial Alliance announces that its annual Thanksgiving service will be held Sunday, November 23 at 7 p.m. at St. Teresa's Catholic Church.

"Members of all faiths are invited to give thanks, praise, honor and glory to the God who created and sustains us all," said a spokesman for the alliance.

The service will incorporate singing, scripture reading and the principal message, which will be given by Rev. Archie Echols, pastor of the First United Methodist Church.

A special Thanksgiving offering will be received during the service, which will sustain an emergency fund to be used throughout the year at the discretion of the pastor-members of the alliance.

Special music will be under the direction of Geary Brogden, Minister of Music at First Baptist Church. Brogden will direct a community-wide choir. Those wishing to be a part of the choir are invited to attend rehearsals on November 16 at 4 p.m. and on November 23 at 6 p.m.

One Injured Thursday In Bus-Pickup Mishap

One person was hurt seriously in a school bus-pickup collision south of Bovina Thursday afternoon. But residents of Parmer County breathed a sigh of relief when they learned that the school bus had emptied its passengers prior to the wreck.

Mariann Price, driver of the Farwell ISD bus, had just let her last passenger off the bus and was headed back toward Farwell. She had her young daughter on the bus with her.

The bus collided with a northbound pickup driven by Jessie Retana of Bovina. Retana, his wife Antonia, and two daughters were taken to a Muleshoe hospital. The wife sustained a broken collarbone and leg, and was transferred to Lubbock. The others were treated and released.

Mrs. Price and her daughter were taken to the Cannon AFB hospital, where they were kept overnight for observation and released. The bus driver had a bump on the head, it was reported.

Emergency vehicles and volunteers from all over Parmer County and from Clovis, N.M. converged on the scene of the wreck, as it first was feared that the wreck results might have been much worse than they were.

FHS Speech Team Grabs Sweepstakes

Friona's Forensics team emerged victorious in their first tournament of the season last Saturday at Muleshoe, taking the sweepstakes trophy at the Muleshoe Invitational Speech Tournament, from a field of 20 schools.

The FHS entrants were paced by debaters Mark Blankenship and Mark Zachary. The defending state champions took up right where they left off in the spring of 1980, with a win. Christy Bengé also scored a win in poetry interpretation.

Other major point-winners for FHS were Kipi Fleming, who placed second in prose reading; Janette Reed, second in informative speaking, and Amber Smith, third in poetry.

Contestants making the finals of their events were Dana Smith in persuasive speaking; Patti Hinton and Rhnea White in poetry, and Sandy Spring in prose reading.

Other students participating were Stan Miller and Richie Malouf, debate; Cindy Drake and Tim Mercer, prose; Ava Rameriz, persuasive; Gwen Maurer and Stanley Ellis, informative speaking.

Friona beat out class 5A Lubbock Coronado, who placed second in the race for sweepstakes, and class 4A Pecos, who placed third.

Other schools participating were Denver City, Shamrock, Levelland, Dumas, Dimmitt, Canadian, Sudan, Post, Boys Ranch, Abernathy, Shallowater, Spur, Lubbock Cooper, Floydada, Lubbock Dunbar and Muleshoe.

UF Drive At 35 Per Cent

Friona's United Fund campaign had achieved 35 per cent of its goal: $4,048 as of Friday morning. This included only nine of 47 UF workers reporting.

Workers were to have a coffee at 9 a.m. Saturday at the Girl Scout House for a further report.

FRIONA FLASHBACKS

....from the files of The Friona Star

50 YEARS AGO--NOV. 7, 1930

A telegram received by J.D. Thomas, attorney for the Friona Independent School District, states that the attorney general of Texas has approved the bonds for Friona's new $60,000 school building, voted at a recent election and which have been in controversy since that time. This action wipes away all legal opposition to the sale of the bonds which will be sold immediately, and work of construction of the new building will go forward at once. The school building which will be erected at the north end of the athletic field, will be 250 feet long and 85 feet wide. It will be one story high and contain a large study hall, gymnasium and nine class rooms, and will relieve the present congestion in our schools.

45 YEARS AGO--NOV. 1, 1935

County Agent Alex R. Bateman has notified the wheat growers of the county that Saturday, November 9, will be the closing date for making application for signing Wheat Contracts and requests all who are interested in signing one of these contracts to call at the Maurer building previous to that time and make their application for contract.

40 YEARS AGO--NOV. 1, 1940

The contractor, who has the job of building the new club house, now being erected by the members of the Friona Woman's Club and the Junior Woman's Club, with his force of workmen, have been making rapid progress with their work, and the building will soon be ready for use. It is a frame building with a veneer of red and gray stone, which when completed, will make of it one of the most picturesque buildings in Friona.

30 YEARS AGO--OCT. 26, 1950

Paving of the Oklahoma Lane-Bovina 9-mile strip was assured this week with a letter from District Highway Engineer S.C. McCarty to Parmer County officials. This project, costing some $84,000.00 is financed through state and federal funds under the Farm-to-Market portion of the Federal Aid Highway Act of 1950, and it is scheduled for construction sometime within the next two years. Likely the construction will commence next summer, but it is part of a two-year program now being formulated by the highway department.

25 YEARS AGO--OCT. 28, 1955

The City of Friona this week was tendered deed to 10 acres of land, covering the present cemetery sight, for care and development as a perpetual care park. G.B. Buske, cemetery association president, and the directors delivered the deed to the city after several conferences and discussions, wherein all agreed upon need of cemetery improvement. Lots will be sold by the city, and for some time the cemetery association also will assist in lot sales.

The Friona High School band passed another milestone in its history Tuesday night in the Buffalo stadium at Canyon. The band entered marching contest for the first time and received a superior or first place rating for its performance.

20 YEARS AGO--OCT. 27, 1960

Sealed bids were opened Tuesday afternoon at Parmer County Community Hospital on the hospital's proposed addition. Panhandle Engineers and Construction Co. of Amarillo submitted a low bid of $53,263. Seven other bids were submitted ranging to $64,792. The addition will contain 3,250 square feet and will extend from the main entrance of the hospital south for 108 feet. Part of the present building will be altered and changes will be made in office arrangements. McMurty and Craig are architects for the addition. If the Amarillo firm's bid is accepted by the directors, work may be completed soon since the bid only specified 84 calendar days for construction time.

15 YEARS AGO--OCT. 28, 1965

Deposits at Friona State Bank as of October 1, showed a healthy climb of 17.2 per cent over the total for the same date a year ago, a quarterly statement issued by the bank revealed this week. Total deposits as of October 1 this year stood at $6,492,126.17, which was a net gain of $947,868.77 over the figure of $5,544,257.40 which was on deposit at the bank October 1 of 1964.

10 YEARS AGO--OCT. 29, 1970

The new Community Shelter Plan for Parmer County indicates that there is public shelter for most of our people, according to County Judge Archie Tarter. The plan provides official information that will tell the people what they need to know to have the best chances for survival in the event of a nuclear attack.

Mules Beat Frosh, 42-14

The Friona Freshman Chieftains were defeated by Muleshoe, 42-14 in a game here November 6. The loss was the first in District 2-AAA for Friona.

Despite the loss, running back Charlie Morgan gained 233 yards on 24 carries, including scoring jaunts of 25 and 13 yards.

Reese Fleming added 38 yards on eight tries, and Kevin Brogden came up with 12 yards on three times. Brogden also ran a two-point conversion, to round out Friona's scoring.

In the pass receiving department, Robert Escalante had two receptions for 57 yards, and Charlie Veazey caught one pass for nine yards.

The team clinched at least second in district, depending on the Muleshoe-Littlefield game, and should Littlefield beat Muleshoe, the local freshmen would tie for first place.

Their final season record was 3-4, with two of the team's losses being to junior varsity teams.

Mules Pile Up 40-16 Victory

The Friona Chieftains surprised the favored Muleshoe Mules by scoring first to take a 3-0 lead in their game at Muleshoe last Friday. The Chiefs also scored the final 13 points in the game.

But in between the Friona scoring, Muleshoe lighted the scoreboard with 40 points, and claimed a 40-16 win in the District 2-AAA game.

The win kept the Mules on their collision course with Littlefield.

The loss kept Friona winless for the season, with just Friday's game with Olton left for the team to avoid a winless year.

The Chieftains took advantage of an early Muleshoe fumble to take the game's early lead. The Mules gained only four yards in three plays, and were forced to punt. But the snap to the punter was low, and he was tackled for a loss at the Muleshoe 35.

Friona could gain only to the Muleshoe 31 in three plays, and faced fourth and six. They elected to try a field goal, with sophomore kicking specialist Mark Montoya teeing the ball up at the 38—a 48-yard boot.

Montoya's soccer-style kick was high and true. It just cleared the crossbar, and the hometown fans were stunned when the scoreboard read 3-0, Friona, with 6:38 left in the quarter. Memories of their near loss to the Chiefs in '79 must have been revived.

But the Mules responded. They drove 75 yards for a touchdown, capped by a 49-yard pass to speedy tailback Felix Norman, and took a 7-3 lead with 4:06 left in the quarter.

On Friona's first play following the score, Nelson Jackson tried a pitchout to his brother Tony but it was wide. Muleshoe recovered at the Friona 15. Four plays later, Charles Walker went over from the five, and the kick gave Muleshoe a 14-3 lead.

Aside from the field goal, Friona had a terrible first half. The team had minus four yards at the half, and had suffered three turnovers. Muleshoe turned their second turnover into an instant score, with Walker going 35 yards to make the score 20-3.

Late in the second quarter, Muleshoe intercepted a pass and had the ball at the Friona 15. But a fumble set them back, and a 36-yard field goal try was wide.

Martin Mercado passed 25 yards to Nelson Jackson, for Friona's only first down of the half, and the team tried a 56-yard field goal as time expired, but the kick was blocked.

Harkey Is Pace-Setter

Ex-Friona resident Ron Harkey continues to hold onto a two-point lead in the Friona Star's football contest. Counting the current week's contest, three weekends remain in the contest, so with 66 points yet to be earned, nothing has as yet been settled.

Harkey scored a 15 for the past week, a better than average score, and gained ground on most of the field. R.L. Blakely of Hereford likewise scored 15, and remains in second place behind Harkey.

The leader has a score of 156 points, and Blakely is next at 154.

Next come Mike Field of Dimmitt and Danny Guerra, tied at 152, for third place. Steve Clark, Jerry Hinkle, Sarah Mears and Steve Williams are tied for fourth place with scores of 151.

Of the contestants entering last week, only Skip Sirnic outscored Harkey, and his 16 earned him the weekly first prize check of $10.00. Sirnic, a former champion in the contest, also used the score to move up a few notches in the standings. He now trails Harkey by seven points.

Sirnic was the only contestant to correctly pick 16 of the contest games, but a total of 14 contestants had scores of 15, so the tie-breaker score (Houston vs New England) had to be consulted to determine second and third prizes for the week.

Flossie Rhinehart of Bovina took second place, missing the score by 14 points. She picked Houston to win, 31-27, and the actual score was 38-34. Mrs. Rhinehart received $6.00. Third place went to David Clark, who missed the score by 17 points, picking Houston, 31-24.

College student Sarah Mears of Canyon narrowly missed one of the top prizes. Her tie-breaker guess was just 18 points off, as she picked Houston, 30-24.

Other contestants picking 15 games right were Myrna Cain, R.L. Blakely, Paul Melton, Pauletta Curtis, Ron Harkey, Wright Williams, Phillip Johnson, Sam Drager, Ted Giddens, Matt Loftis and Elizabeth McLellan.

Muleshoe drove to the Friona 15 with the second half kickoff, but Friona stiffened and denied them a score.

A little later, Friona had the ball for a bad series. A lateral to Jackson lost four yards, and Mercado was sacked for a big loss. Standing in his end zone to punt, Montoya got a high snap.

Chasing the elusive ball, Montoya alertly decided to bat it out of the end zone, giving Muleshoe a two-point safety and Friona a free kick.

The Mules then came back on a 33-yard run by Walker, to up their lead to 28-3 as the third quarter wound down.

The home team suddenly became point hungry. A 34-yard pass to Felix Norman made it 34-3, and brother Larry Norman ran nine yards to make it 40-3 with 7:22 left to play.

Never quitting, the Chiefs started a drive. Helped by a Mule fumble of their punt, the team went 79 yards, with Jackson hitting Craig Lookingbill for the touchdown. But it wasn't your standard scoring play.

A bad snap caused Jackson to chase the ball down, and as defenders closed in, he reversed his field and lost yardage from the Muleshoe 11 back to the 40, when he spotted Lookingbill near the goal line and fired to him.

The Chiefs passed for two PATs, but were called for motion. Their second try failed, so the score became 40-9.

Friona then held Muleshoe at midfield on fourth down and took over once again.

Mercado dropped back, and fired a bomb to halfback Mike Hubbard, in for the first time since breaking a bone in pre-season. Hubbard, streaking down the sideline, took the ball about the ten, and never broke stride, going in for the touchdown. Montoya's kick made the score 40-16.

Due to their fumbles of the first half, and being sacked, Friona never got on the plus side in yards rushing, finishing with minus eight yards. Only their 98 yards gained passing got them into the black for their night's effort.

RECEIVES PLAQUE.... Jim Tucker, former Hereford resident now of Friona, was honored with the "Top Hand" award from the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame and the Western Heritage Center of Hereford. The award was presented last Friday, November 7.

LOTTA LEAVES.... With the advent of fall, most residents have had the problem of leaves covering their lawns in recent days. The above couple, Jennifer Carson and Amber Cook, found a job raking leaves for Jennifer's grandparents, David Carson, at 405 W. 14th.

"Americanism" Program Highlights Progressive Study Club Meeting

"Americanism: Our Right To Vote" was the theme of the program presented to Progressive Study Club members Tuesday, October 28.

The meeting began with the roll call answered with "One Presidential Qualification." Thoughts for the evening were presented by Nancy Edelman.

The club members were then entertained by a trio consisting of Nancy Roden, Marcia Herring and Adabeth Smith. Johnnie Walters was the accompanist for the trio.

A political debate was then presented by Nedra Cash and Lunell Horton. Each gave views, goals and principles of the different political parties.

The business meeting was conducted by Roxanne Hurst. A report was given on library business and business on club house standings was discussed.

Hostesses for the evening were Nancy Edelman and Linda Gromowsky. The political theme was carried out with patriotic decorated cookies, coffee and tea. The hostesses served eleven members and one guest, Linda Copeland.

Progressive Study Club members were "All Tied Up" in their meeting Tuesday, November 11. The meeting began with the roll call answered with "Favorite Tie-Ups." Members answered with favorite or unusual tips on how to wrap packages.

Nancy Edelman then read the thoughts for the evening, a poem by Rod McKuen.

Jacquelyn Hight and Linda Griffin then entertained the members with a selection from the musical "Bright New Wings." Mrs. Griffin portrayed the Biblical character of Martha and Mrs. Hight portrayed Mary. Becky Weatherly was the accompanist for the duet.

The members were then wrapped up in the Christmas spirit with Beth Thompson's program on professional tips on gift wrapping. Mrs. Thompson showed members how to wrap packages economically with newspapers, butcher paper, shelf paper, and also how to dress up these wrappings. Different ideas on decorating flat packages were presented as were ways to make and decorate bows. Members also learned to make pom poms. Mrs. Thompson suggested to members that they select a theme and color for all their Christmas wrapping.

When asked how and when she got interested in special gift wrappings, Mrs. Thompson said that it began about three years ago when a club called Ruthie's and asked for a program on wrapping tips. Mrs. Thompson was an employee there and she did the program. Since then she has continued her interest in new and creative ways of wrapping packages.

The club members were treated to refreshments of fresh fruit, cheese and an assortment of crackers. Ann Osborn and Lois Norwood served as hostesses and served ten members and three guests, Beth Thompson, Angela Sircic and Louise Walker.

Club members will learn how to make candy from Martha Schueler on November 25.

MR. and MRS. JIM MAYNARD....Jim and Opal Maynard will be honored with a reception on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. The reception will be held Sunday, November 23 from 3-5 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church in Cordell, Oklahoma. Hosting the occasion are their children, Jerry and Belle Maynard of Nowata, Oklahoma, Jimmy and Barbara Maynard of Friona and Karen and Jim Fuller of Rocky, Oklahoma. The Maynards lived in Friona from 1955-1964.

Ministerially Speaking

BY ARCHIE ECHOLS
Minister

Friona United Methodist Church

"Let's have a change," seemed to be the mood of elections last week. Not only the president, but many elected positions experienced a change. Out of all this I was reminded of one thing: Change is a part of life. The seasons change, our family make-up changes, our age changes; we even change jobs, and houses, and towns. (It hasn't been too long since this was a new town to me.)

All of us have some resistance to change. The reason is because change is hard on us. It usually takes a full year to recover from major changes such as marriage, changing jobs, or moving. We never fully recover from some changes, such as the death of a loved one. Even positive changes, which we desire, cause us stress. Why is change so difficult for us?

The first reason is simply that we are comfortable with the familiar. It takes less energy and strain to do things with which we are familiar. Habits are much easier to follow than to break. We may be able to handle some changes in our routine, but many of our habits (such as driving, eating, talking, walking) are the very thing which keep us alive and save our thinking and energy for other experiences.

The second problem with change is that it implies failure. "If I need to change, then I must not have been right up to now." Many times we fail to move from one positive situation to another even better situation because we don't want to evaluate what we have been doing. And then many of us hang on to what we know is bad, just because we don't want to admit defeat. (Many times people will hang on to second marriages with the same problems as the first, just to keep from saying, "I failed again.")

Another problem is that change is risky. There is never any guarantee that change will be for the good. There is always the possibility that change could make things worse. Many people stay in bad situations (an unfulfilling job, an abusive marriage, ghetto living conditions, an unhappy choice of colleges) simply because of the fear of the unknown--"It might be worse."

Another common problem is the fact that change usually brings with it some loss. Moving to a new town means a loss of friends in the old one. Growing older means the loss of some things we used to be able to do. Even growing up and getting married or going to school brings great loss, both to the child and the parent.

However, change is necessary for growth. Without change, we would all still be infants. The only other alternative, both to individuals and to institutions such as the church, is death. No matter how difficult the struggle, we must constantly seek change. This is the task of Christianity--"Behold, I make all things new." Rev. 21:5.

How is this possible? Where do we get the security to face the difficulties of change with courage? From the good news that has been proclaimed to us and to the world. "You are loved by God. You are O.K." No one can separate us from that security. With God as our foundation, we are able to withstand the changes of the world, and even create some of our own.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Dana McDonald, Keith Rempe

Dana Sue McDonald and Keith Ray Rempe exchanged wedding vows Saturday, October 25 at 4 p.m.

The double ring ceremony was performed in the Lazbuddie United Methodist Church by Father Tim Schwertner. He was assisted by Rev. Louis Crenshaw, pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don C. McDonald of Lazbuddie. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Rempe of Muleshoe.

Friona Man Involved In Project

Reuben A. Haase of Friona has been selected as a member of a team to construct an attached solar greenhouse beginning on Friday, November 14.

Team participants were selected from more than 40 persons who applied to join Stacy Reese, West Texas State University instructor of horticulture in the plant science department of the School of Agriculture; Dr. Ron McBride, assistant professor of industrial education and technology in the WTSU College of Education; and Dr. Earl Gilmore, research professor with the WTSU Alternative Energy Institute.

The intensive weekend session during which participants will build a solar greenhouse on the south side of the Combs-Worley Cottage at the Amarillo Children's Home, 3400 S. Bowie, will begin with a training session on Friday evening.

The Solar Greenhouse '80 Workshop, sponsored by the Texas Solar Energy Society and the WTSU Alternative Energy Institute, is one of 15 workshops conducted in Texas. AEI personnel plan to offer similar workshops during the spring, but participants will have to provide materials and costs.

Participating team members will register from 6-6:30 p.m., Friday, at the Children's Home main building. Instruction will be provided by Reese, McBride and Gilmore; Gary Beyer of Austin, project manager of Solar Greenhouse '80 with the Texas Solar Energy Society; and Meg Mooring, Ken Starcher and Pat Acker, research associates with the AEI.

commandor and was accented with copper satin bows. Palm trees flanked the archway. Silk flowers adorned the memory candle which was nestled in an arrangement of fresh cushion mums. A kneeling bench completed the altar setting. The pews were marked with copper satin bows.

Traditional wedding selections were presented by Debbie Menefee of Ft. Towson, Oklahoma, cousin of the bride. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jimmy Johnson, organist. Miss Menefee sang "Annie's Song," and "Wedding Song." Mrs. Johnson played the "Wedding March." A recording from the Book of Ruth was sung by a choir of monks.

As the bride was presented in marriage by her father, she wore a formal length gown of white organza fashioned with a high neckline on a sheer bodice trimmed with Venice lace and pearls. The long fitted sheer sleeves were trimmed with silk Venice lace. The full a-line skirt extended to form a chapel length train accented with scalloped lace.

Her veil of illusion was encircled with Venice lace and was attached to a lace and pearl capulet.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of silk roses, oriental poppies, stephanotis and daisies mixed with lace and silk flat fern.

Carrying out bridal tradition, the bride wore a cameo brooch that belonged to her great-grandmother McDonald for something old. Her veil was new. She borrowed her wedding dress from her sister and wore the traditional blue garter.

The groom wore a white tuxedo trimmed with white satin.

It's True.

"After installing the heat pump in my own home and monitoring it very closely for two or three years, we were so impressed with the heat pump that we're using them in quite a few new homes that we are building. The heat pump is easy to adapt to different types of buildings and homes. We've run detailed comparisons of other heating and cooling systems and are very satisfied with the efficiency of the heat pump. I feel like the heat pump is the product of the future and the advantage of it is that it is available now."

The things said about the heat pump are true. Find out more about the heat pump. It can save for you.

Look Up and Live!

Cotton harvest is here and the Coop urges extreme caution when operating farm equipment near electric lines.

In recent years, many incidents have involved cotton module builders. The extended portion of the cotton module builder can easily come into contact with overhead electric lines if the operator is not careful. The same problem exists with overhead baskets on cotton strippers.

We urge farmers and their employees to be alert to these potential hazards and take every possible precaution to avoid serious injury or death. When moving a module builder, be sure the packer arm is lowered as far as it will go. When using a stripper with an overhead basket, be sure to check for overhead lines before dumping.

Lower packer arm as far as it will go before moving module builder.

We have had lines torn down with cotton harvesting equipment this year. Also, some incidents have resulted in injury to the operators; but, fortunately, no fatalities so far.

If some piece of equipment does contact these 7200 volt overhead lines, it's important that you or the operator not try to simply back away. The line could break, or if it's already broken, it could tangle in the equipment and break again, compounding the problem and increasing the danger.

Jump clear of the machine, being sure not to touch the ground and the machine at the same time. Move quickly away at a right angle to the power line. Then call Bailey County Electric Cooperative at (Area Code 806) 272-4504 whether the line is broken or not.

It was a pleasure to visit briefly with Laura Bartlett at the local post office early this week. Laura and her husband, Houston, have lived out west and south of town on F.M. 1731 for several years, but call Bovina home.

She has been a part time employee of the Bovina post office for some time and when I've been there, I've enjoyed seeing her friendly smile, but I wasn't expecting to see it in the Friona post office.

Mrs. Roscoe Parr Sr. returned home Friday after spending a couple of weeks in the home of Rev. and Mrs. L.C. Roots III and sons, Timothy and Tim, who live at Greenland, Arkansas.

Mrs. Roots, the former Sandra Brock, is Mrs. Parr's daughter. She came to Friona for a visit and was accompanied home by her mother.

Enroute home Mrs. Parr was an overnight visitor in the home of Ozell Williams Landrum in Tulsa. Mrs. Landrum is a former Friona resident.

Keith Brock of Plainview was a Wednesday evening visitor in the Parr home.

Major and Mrs. Phillip Bates and children, Jay, Duane and Melissa, have gone to Montgomery, Alabama, where he will be stationed at Maxwell Air Force Base.

About three months ago the Bates family came to Friona from Great Falls, Montana. Capt. Bates attended a ten weeks school of instruction in Denver. He was accompanied by his wife and the three younger children.

The older children, Amy, Dan and Robert, stayed in Friona with their maternal grandmother, Martha Evelyn Bates, and are attending local schools.

Amy is a High School freshman, Dan is an eighth grade student and Robert is in the fifth grade.

Major Bates is a career man in the United States Air Force.

Rudolph and Clara Renner took an unusual trip for them in the early fall. They flew to Boise, Idaho, where they were met by some of Clara's kin.

After spending a couple of weeks or so with two of her sisters and members of their families, they returned home. They especially enjoyed being in Idaho for the apple harvest and brought as many apples as they could carry on the plane home with them.

Eugene and Doris Boggess returned home Monday after spending a long weekend visiting in Midland. They were guests in the home of Robbie and Hal Rucker and Lisa and Mitch Welch.

Twenty-seven members of the Monroe White family had a family get together last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin White of Winlock, Washington, are visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, Mr. and Mrs. L.R. White and Mr. and Mrs. Ray White.

On Sunday these four couples were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Ted White and children; Mr. and Mrs. Troy White and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie White and children and Donnie White, all of Friona, for a family dinner at the Parmer House.

Others present were Rhnea White, who attends South Plains College, Levelland, and Max White, a student at Texas Tech University, Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stephens were Saturday visitors in the home of Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Stephens in Dumas. While they were in a grocery store there, they saw Bill and Mary Sheehan.

The Sheehans are former Friona residents who have lived in the Moore County Capital a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunt of Midland, Texas, were Friona visitors last weekend. Mrs. Hunt is the former Macie Kathryn Watson.

On Sunday some other members of the Watson family, including Martha, Amy, Dan and Robert Bates and Nelson and Lorraine Welch, were also guests in the home of Mrs. J.M. Watson.

Mrs. Ella Dukes has gone back to her home in Colorado Springs after a visit in the home of her sister, Mrs. Watson Whaley.

Other guests in the Whaley home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Smith Pope and Lou Whaley, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wiley, Lubbock; and Michael Wiley, San Antonio.

Ralph and Sue Wiley are former Friona residents. They recently made a trip to Charlotte, North Carolina, where they visited the boyhood home of the late R.G. Wiley, who was the father of Ella Dukes, Alice Whaley and Ralph Wiley.

Friona cooks played a good part in the Southwest Recipe Roundup in Sunday's Amarillo paper. Carrie Tatum's name was the only present Friona resident whose recipes I saw, but there were two others we can rightfully claim.

Zula Carlton, Plainview, was one and Harletta Carthel was the other. Zula and Wilburn lived here a long time before their jobs with Southwestern Public Service Company and the Texas Highway Department necessitated a move to the Hale County Capital.

Harletta grew up at Vernon, but her husband, Danny, grew up here. At the present time, the Carthels and their two children, Justin and Ki Ki, live on a farm near Gruver, Texas.

Reading the recipes in the section was a pleasure, but when you know the cook the recipes are even more interesting.

Alice Hough is home after spending several days as a surgical patient at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo. She is making satisfactory progress and expects to be up and around real soon.

D.L. Harguess is a surgical patient at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo this week. He had surgery on Tuesday and his condition is satisfactory.

Weekend visitors in Rush Springs, Oklahoma, last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Arlen May and children, Keith and April. The May family visited Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Shotts.

ONE MORE TIME--during a heavy fog, a freighter collided with a small fishing boat out of San Francisco. No damage was done, but as the captain of the larger ship tried to maneuver his vessel in the fog, his liner rammed the smaller vessel once more. This time the worried freighter captain called out, "Can you stay afloat?" "I think so," replied the skipper of the fishing boat. "Why? You want to try again?"

A Good-Sized Guy Taking On Tough Job for Mountain Fuel

(Editor's note: Don Cash of Salt Lake City, Utah, is married to the former Kay Burleson of Friona. Kay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Burleson of 1107 West Sixth. Both Don and Kay are graduates of Texas Tech. The following article deals with his recent promotion.)

He's a good-sized guy, this R. D. Cash, about 6-2 or 6-3 and no fat. He keeps a trace of Texas Panhandle accent and parts his black hair just left of center.

R. D. "Don" Cash is the new president and chief operating officer of Mountain Fuel Supply Co., the honcho over all operating and supervisory activities of the company and all its subsidiaries.

For Mr. Cash, it marks the summit of a career that began while he was pushing brooms and doing other menial chores in his father's propane and butane distributorship three decades ago.

Change in Stance

For Mountain Fuel, his appointment and a host of others mark a change in stance designed for the growth years ahead.

How do the two stories weave together?

Begin with Mountain Fuel, since its story begins in 1935 and Mr. Cash's doesn't start until 1942.

It was 45 years ago that MFS lumped all its predecessor operations together. Until then, exploration, drilling, transmission and utility operations were all separate. The reorganization was for better financing, says MFS spokesman Dale Zabriske.

Mid-1970s Change

Things went along fine until the mid-1970s, when oil and gas prices began going up and the rewards for investors were supposed to follow suit. In late 1976, the company reorganized again to create Wexpro Corp., an exploration and development subsidiary created to maximize the returns on those activities by selling natural gas to the parent company and selling oil on the open market.

The hassles this move created with the state Division of Public Utilities and the Public Service Commission are now legendary and complicated, but the upshot of the state regulatory pressure was to push MFS into a position of turning to the federal government for regulation of its activities in lieu of the state.

Company Divides

When the company split into two divisions last weekend, transmission and distribution, it put the distribution function (the utility portion) in the hands of the state and tried to put transmission into the federal grasp.

The company has filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to have federal jurisdiction over its transmission functions, chiefly because, as chairman B.Z. Kastler told shareholders, the federal government allows better prices.

Now the company is gearing itself to compete for its bread and butter in the oil and gas fields. And now it's time to see how Mr. Cash fits in.

Believes in Pride

"I've always believed in pride in my work," he declares. "If a man can tell himself he's doing a good job, that's what he needs, not money."

There was plenty of room for pride because there wasn't much money in his early jobs. "I began working for my daddy. You know how that is. A lot of menial details. Then I had jobs as a janitor in a drugstore, a grocery bagger, in a filling station. I was a welder for a while and I worked road construction. I worked on drill rigs."

He farmed and ranched for a while, too, because in the Texas Panhandle at that time you took the jobs that offered work, he says.

Different Pace

"Being raised in a small Texas county was great," he smiles. "There wasn't much to do so you dreamed up a lot to keep interested. There's a different pace there, like in any small town. I do regret that I can't raise my own son in a town like that."

He went to Texas Tech in Lubbock, where he picked up an engineering degree. He met his wife, Kay, in college. Today they have a 7-year-old son.

From Texas Tech he signed on with Amoco Production Co., and during his 10 1/2 years with them he bounced from Lubbock to Fort Worth, Denver, Oklahoma, Chicago, back to Denver.

Must Settle Down

"Moving's OK when you're young, but when you've got a family you've gotta settle down."

So in 1976 an experienced petroleum engineer met a growing exploration and development utility. Don Cash signed on as vice president for exploration and drilling for Mountain Fuel Supply Co.

"The worst thing about working for a major oil company is the size. It was huge, and it was well run, but you kinda get lost in an organization that size. Mountain Fuel was an opportunity. It was small, with potential for growth."

Grew With Firm

He grew along with the company. He was promoted to executive vice president of Wexpro shortly after its creation and in 1979 he became president and chief executive officer.

"What was the goal? Money?" "No, money's your best negative motivator when you're looking for a job. It's never your best positive motivator."

In other words, you can turn down a job because it doesn't pay well, but you don't take one because it offers more money. There's pride to consider.

Met Challenge

So he came to Mountain Fuel for the challenge and met the challenge and won. Any drawbacks?

"There's one. Like the drawback of a small town. In a utility, everybody knows what you're doing."

The regulation by government is sure to raise the hackles of a utility chief—or is it? "I think our Public Service Commission overall is doing a pretty good job," he comments.

This is from the former president of Wexpro, a company that for years has been a favorite target for the slings and arrows of regulation.

Free Market Man

But he contends he's a total free market man. He also admits he can't set a balance between regulation and free enterprise. It might be different if

TSTI Rep. To Give Program

Don Markum, Drafting and Design Program Chairman, from Texas State Technical Institute, will be in Friona on Friday, November 21 at 9:45 a.m. at the Friona High School. Markum will be making a Drafting and Design Presentation to Friona High School students. He will also be talking about other programs and training offered at TSTI-Amarillo.

Those programs include: Auto Body Repair, Aircraft Mechanics, Auto Mechanics, Boot and Shoe Operations, Commercial Art in Advertising, Construction Technology, Cosmetology, Drafting and Design, Diesel Mechanics, Electronics, Interior Design, Industrial Maintenance, Meat Processing and Marketing, Printing, Professional Truck Operations, Saddle and Tack Making, Technical Office Training, and Welding and Fabrication.

R.D. Cash, at 38, is the new president and chief operating officer of Mountain Fuel. His background is engineering.

Mountain Fuel was a monopoly, but it's not.

Surprise. "We sell a competitive fuel. A lot of people lose sight of that. If we weren't competitive, say with electric heating, nobody would buy our gas."

"So if we set too high a profit," he says, the company may find itself losing customers. "Your builders are putting in gas furnaces and water heaters. They're smart enough to know what people want."

Inflation is what's driving the price of everything, including natural gas, through the ceiling, he says. And since the country didn't get into this inflationary mess in one year, chances are it's not going to get out in one election or one presidential term, either.

Bank Slates Seminar Thurs.

Friona State Bank is sponsoring a "Family Financial Seminar" on Thursday, November 20 at 7 p.m. at the bank.

Local attorneys will participate in the seminar, and will be on hand to discuss wills, deeds and any family financial situation of which there are questions.
