OUR NATION IS IN the midst of a major problem this week, with the strike of the air controllers, and their subsequent firing by President Reagan.

The walkout by the controllers this week has threatened to cripple the nation's airline industry.

One of our area's oldest and most reliable companies, Braniff, had already been in an economic pinch, and was just about to work itself back into the profit picture, when the controller strike hit this week.

We were glad to see the president respond to the strike by starting the procedure to fire the strikers. As federal employees, they had signed an oath not to strike. The government also has hit the union, Patco, with tremendous fines since the strike started. There should be some way to pay these fines to the airlines which are affected.

The thing we're afraid of, and are praying will not happen, would be a major accident, which might be caused by the people who are being pressed into service by the strike. The controllers are not only messing up the country; they are gambling with thousands of lives as well.

It's about time that the residents of our nation realize that strikes never really solve anything.

A good case in point is the strike this summer by the major league baseball players. Spokesmen for both sides in the strike admit that neither side won—not the players, and certainly not the owners.

And the bad thing is that the public, the baseball fans, were deprived of their sport for the summer, and most of them are saying that when play resumes, that they (the fans) will be the ones on strike.

So, it appears that professional baseball, which was fighting pro football for the attention of fans spending their bucks for entertainment, may have shoved itself backwards and have a long, uphill fight on its hands.

Certainly the fans have lost their interest in the current season, and the World Series, if it is played, may be the most anti-climactic ever played.

If the pro football players had any ideas about going on strike, they might wait a while and see how professional baseball fares, following its first mid-season strike.

Of course, the strike by the air controllers is much more vital to the nation than was the baseball strike. It involves human lives, in addition to jeopardizing the nation's economy.

We saw some figures earlier, when the strike was threatened, to the effect that the strike and the resulting cancellation of flights, could cost the nation's economy around $200 million per day.

In a nation which is fighting a daily battle against runaway inflation, any action which causes the economy to make a further slip should be viewed as anti-American. It's a shame there aren't enough trained air controllers so that those who walked off the job Monday could be permanently terminated—without so much as a 48-hour notice.

The best thing that could happen to our country would be a law outlawing strikes of any kind. We have stated before that strikes are the main tool which can be used to completely cripple this nation.

In recent years, this would not have been possible. But now that we have seen the work by the conservative alliance, which bucked the liberal elements to get the tax cut bill passed, perhaps the strike syndrome would be a good target.

Good Rain For Area

The Friona area received substantial moisture again during the past week, as two weather systems passed through the area.

Last Saturday, August 1, an afternoon thunderstorm left a little over a half inch of moisture in the city, then a late thunderstorm after midnight that night deposited almost an inch in addition.

The total measurement for the two "shifts" was 1.49 inches. The late-night shower was accompanied by one of the loudest thunderstorms to visit the area in some time. The booming claps of thunder lasted for well over an hour.

On Thursday, August 6, a cool front from the north passed through the area, dropping temperatures rapidly from a high of 91 down into the 70s within an hour or two. Moisture which had been received by 8 a.m. Friday amounted to just .17 inch, although more rain was in the prospects, and temperatures were much lower than normal.

The Parmer County History Book Committee has delivered the final section of the book to Craftsman Printers of Lubbock, it was announced this week by Grace Whitefield, co-chairman of the committee.

Two-A-Days Begin Monday For Football

Football players are to report at Friona High School on Monday, August 10, for the beginning of two-a-day workouts. Players are to be dressed by 9 a.m. Monday for the first workout.

Prospective players who have not yet received their physical examination are reminded that they must have this examination before they can begin working out.

Daily times for the two-a-day workouts will be announced at the first day of practice.

The players will begin working out in pads on August 14. The first controlled scrimmage is scheduled for August 20.

Mrs. Whitefield said that the committee was now waiting for the printers to send them the first draft, to be proofed.

"The book committee would like to thank everyone who contributed information, stories, pictures, sketches, encouraged others to do so—in short, everyone who contributed in any way to make this history book possible," Mrs. Whitefield said.

"We especially want to thank the newspapers, such as the Friona Star, Bovina Blade, State Line Tribune and Muleshoe Journal, for the excellent publicity they have so generously given the book activities these past 18 months," she added.

Mrs. Whitefield went on to say that the committee wished to thank all who had ordered books and announced to those interested that the committee was again taking prepaid orders for books, at $35.00 if picked up or $37.50 if mailed.

Orders for books should be sent to Parmer County History Book, P.O. Box 577, Friona, Texas, 79035.

Mrs. Whitefield urged county residents to buy as many books as they will need, because extra books will not be available after the book is published.

Group To Tennessee Via Cycle

"We're planning to do something a little different from the ordinary," admitted Leland Gustin of Friona this week.

Gustin and his wife Geneva, along with Roy and Paula O'Brian, left Friona early Friday morning for a trip to Nashville, Tennessee, and back.

The thing that makes their trip different from other folks is that they are going by motorcycle—complete with camping gear.

"We're going to start out by camping out, at least. A Holiday Inn may start to look pretty good before we're through," Gustin laughs.

The Friona area foursome planned to make it as far as Oklahoma City to spend their first night. At Eureka Springs, Arkansas, they plan to stay with former Friona residents Charles and Pat Bass, and to attend the Passion Play.

PUBLIC MEETING IS SET

Four-Lane Road Is Topic Monday

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation will conduct a public meeting on Monday, August 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the Friona Community Center located on State Highway 214 north of Friona for the purpose of discussing the construction of U.S. 60 in Parmer and Castro Counties from 2.0 miles northeast of Texas-New Mexico State Line to Castro-Deaf Smith County Line.

This proposed improvement will consist of the construction of two additional lanes to form a four-lane divided facility with the exception of those sections through the towns of Bovina and Friona which have recently been reconstructed.

Maps and other drawings showing the proposed location and geometric design will be displayed at the public meeting and together with environmental studies and any other available information about the proposed project are on file and available for inspection and copying at the Resident Engineer's Office in Littlefield, Texas.

Personnel from the State Department of Highway and Public Transportation will be in attendance at this meeting to answer questions and give information concerning the design, the State's Relocation Assistance Program and right of way acquisition.

All interested citizens are invited to attend this public meeting.

Rhea Bradley of the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation, points out that a consulting engineer for the department will present three basic proposals at the meeting: (1) do nothing; (2) improve the existing highway and (3) construct a new four-lane divided highway.

Bradley has said that he believes this section of Highway 60 carries the heaviest concentration of truck traffic in the entire state, due to the concentration of feed yards and packing plants in the area.

Since the need for a four-lane facility on Highway 60 has long been underscored by local residents, it behooves all elected local and civic officials, as well as the general public, to attend this meeting, to voice their interest in the project.

Signup Is Underway For Meets

Members of Friona Country Club are urged to sign up for the annual Club Championship tournament, which will be played August 22-23.

Deadline for signing up for the tournament will be August 20, according to Chris Fontanilla, Friona Country Club pro.

As of Tuesday of this week, there had been 20 men golfers and six women signed up.

Also on the schedule is the annual member-guest tournament August 29-30. Deadline for this tourney will be Thursday, August 27.

In an interview at the time he retired, Lovelace pointed out that when he first was elected as sheriff, he had only one deputy, at Friona, and no radios. When he retired, he had deputies at Friona, Bovina and Farwell, five dispatchers who worked around the clock, and several radios.

They will attend a "Veter Rally," (a motorcycle accessory manufacturer) which will be held on the Loretta Lynn Dude Ranch near Nashville, Tennessee. Then, the Frionans will go on into Nashville to tour Opryland and to see the Grand Ole Opry.

35 YEARS AGO--JULY 26, 1946

Mr. and Mrs. J.V. (Smiley) Fulk and son and daughter of Chula Vista, California arrived here on Thursday of last week and are spending several days visiting their Friona friends. Mr. and Mrs. Fulk established the Friona Cafe here several years ago, and have been operating a cafe at Chula Vista during the war and since, but have sold their business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Osborn and Roy Clements and family left Sunday to spend their vacation in the mountains of New Mexico.

30 YEARS AGO--JULY 26, 1951

Directors of Parmer County Fair Assn. met in Bovina this week to make plans for the September 13-14-15 show. Wendol Christian is president of the association, Virgil Teague is vice president and John Blackburn is acting secretary.

Added entertainment in Friona has been provided with the opening last Thursday evening of the miniature golf course. This is the second year for the miniature course, operated by Dillie Kelley.

25 YEARS AGO--JULY 26, 1956

Considerable cash will be deposited to an account earmarked for a swimming pool in Friona this week. This was a result of a good-natured session at Bi-Wize Drug, which became serious and a container for contributions was arranged.

The grand opening of Marcum & Claborn Furniture Company will be Saturday of this week, announce J.L. Marcum and J.C. Claborn, owners.

20 YEARS AGO--JULY 27, 1961

A budget calling for the expenditure of $413,914.75 has been set for the Friona Independent School District for the 1961 school year, according to Superintendent Alton Farr. This is an increase of $14,000 over last year's budget.

15 YEARS AGO--JULY 28, 1966

Rains of up to four inches fell in the Friona area this week. Some farmers in the Black Community said the rain "overflowed the rain gauges" in some instances.

10 YEARS AGO--JULY 29, 1971

All 60 units of the Friona Apartments, 1300 N. Walnut are full. The apartments, which began renting March 1 of this year, were filled up last Wednesday, less than five months after they were first opened to the public.

5 YEARS AGO--JULY 25, 1976

Carl Orbison of Hereford was injured Tuesday, July 20 as he fell 25 feet down a grain dryer shaft he was working on. The accident occurred two miles north of Highway 60 just east of Friona, at approximately 11 a.m. Orbison was being raised out of the shaft, when the cable release on the back of the winch truck lifting him gave way, dropping the platform he was on to the bottom of the shaft. Parmer County has been designated the number, one corn-production county in Texas, according to Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White in a report released last week. Corn production for 1975 in Parmer County totaled 29,448,000 bushels harvested on 225,400 acres for an average yield of 130.6 bushels per acre.

Mrs. Laymance Is Chairman Of CF Campaign

The Lone Star Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation announces the appointment of Mrs. Baxter Laymance as Chairman of its 1981 Breath of Life Campaign in Friona.

The Campaign will be held to provide the community with information about Cystic Fibrosis and to raise funds to support research, education and care programs for CF patients.

The number one genetic killer of children, Cystic Fibrosis is inherited and incurable--claiming three lives each day. An estimated one in 20 Americans is a symptomless carrier of the recessive CF gene. Currently, half of all children born with CF will die before reaching their 20th birthday.

REMEMBER WHEN?

If you thought that the cotton stripper was a modern invention, then perhaps you should take a good look at this variety, which was horse-drawn. We wish we knew the farmer's identity, but do not. The photo was given to the Star several years ago by the late O.F. Lange. If you need a piece of new equipment, a new car or whatever, it would pay you to visit the folks at Friona State Bank, who brought you this glimpse from the past.

Law Enforcement, Emergency Reports

We realize that statistics are boring and most of the time they are not too interesting or informative. But, we hope that each of you takes the time to look over these statistics, because otherwise, you might become a statistic.

No one can make you a better driver other than you.

As grim as they are, Department of Public Safety statistics show that seven per cent more Texas residents died in traffic accidents for this period of time than they did last year.

Through June 1981, 1,718 traffic fatalities were reported. Last year at the same time there were 1,605 deaths attributed to traffic mishaps.

This year, to date, there have been 80,126 injuries reported in traffic accidents in the State, and last year at the same time there were 73,202 injuries reported, which is an increase this year of nine per cent.

Over 27,000 accidents involving motor vehicles in traffic were reported, and 142 of these were fatal. Over 7,400 persons were injured in those accidents and 19,603 escaped injury.

On U.S. and State Highways, there were 10,987 accidents reported with 144 of these severe enough to cause death and there were 3533 injuries associated with those wrecks.

On farm-to-market roads in the State, there were 2854 accidents reported with 52 of these fatal accidents and injuries which amounted to a total of 980.

On County Roads, so far this year, 18 persons have died and 572 were injured. There were 1,615 accidents reported occurring on these roads.

In cities under 2,500, 7,028 accidents occurred with 184 of them fatal and 2,502 persons receiving injuries.

The largest number of accidents occurred between the hours of 4 and 5 p.m. and on Friday.

More persons between the ages of 25-34 died as a result of accidents in this state and this more than doubled the number of teenaged drivers who were killed in accidents this year to date.

Nearly 10,000 persons who were involved in motor vehicle accidents were involved in accidents in which the automobile was entering at an angle.

Of these types of accidents, 35 persons were killed and 2500 were injured.

The second highest occurrence of accidents involved rear-ending, which accounted for about 1973, and the third highest incidences of accidents occurred when one car was leaving the driveway and was hit by another car.

In 1981, more males died and were injured in traffic accidents than females. Some 40,000 men were involved in accidents where there were 19,000 females involved.

Most often, accidents occurred on normal road conditions with no defects reported wrong with the vehicle and they happened most often on clear days on dry surfaces.

Most of the accidents involved a car and the second most accidents involved trucks with motorcycles coming in as third in this category.

Library Award Is Presented

The Texas State Library and the Texas Library Association have received a John Cotton Dana Library Public Relations Award for their 1980 campaign to encourage Texans to use their libraries.

"A lot of things to a lot of people. Check us Out!" was the message of television spots, radio scripts, newspaper ads and artwork for bookmarks, bumper stickers, lapel buttons and bus cards. The campaign was a joint project of the Texas State Library and the Texas Library Association's Ad Hoc Committee on Public Relations and the Public Relations Advisory Council.

The Texas project was one of four year-long projects from throughout the United States in the top category. An additional 21 libraries were also recognized for projects completed during 1980. The contest is sponsored by the Public Relations Section of the American Library Association's Library Administration and Management Association and the H.W. Wilson Company, a publisher of materials for libraries. The award is named in honor of John Cotton Dana, the long-time librarian at Newark, New Jersey, who did much to stimulate the use of library resources.

Around The House

By LAURA JACOBS
 Families of yesteryear can teach today's families how to cope--successfully--with today's economy.

Their "lessons" focus on cooperation, positive attitude and a bright look to the future.

History tells us that when the economic conditions of a given population begin to deteriorate, family behavior changes to meet economic needs.

Many families return to the "extended family system" because it becomes more difficult for individual family members to maintain separate households.

This means other family members come to live with "Mom and Dad and the kids."

Aunt Suzy may come to share housekeeping and child-care responsibilities in return for lodging, or Cousin Bill may join the family while he attends the local university, or a grandparent may come to stay during the winter months to avoid the high cost of heating a separate dwelling.

Not only do family members tend to "pull together" during times of economic hardship, so, too, do friends and communities. In fact, it's not unusual for non-family members to become part of one's family. During the "depression era" single individuals would "hire on" to a family. They would help with the field work, gardening and other household tasks in return for room and board and sometimes a nominal wage.

Because these individuals lived with the family, they often became unofficial "adopted" family members. In addition to the creation of "extended families," hard times often create "extended communities."

As resources become scarce, it becomes more difficult to employ individuals who can provide services needed by the community. So community members form their own committees, task forces and work teams to do the work--road repairs, traffic control for special events, roadside mowing, maintenance of community buildings and local child care, for example.

Examples given today's families by yesteryear families who managed well in times of economic decline should give us faith and confidence in ourselves and our families.

The heritage of our earlier families has already proven that a poor economy need not be our downfall.

A positive attitude and a bright look to the future--the coping tools of yesteryear families--are still the most valid tools for coping with hard times today.

Jim and Kellie Serratt, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, soloists, sang "Through The Eyes Of Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Kellie. Friona School Nurse Completes Training Course

Tommie R. Mercer, a school nurse from Friona, has completed a summer training course at Baylor College of Medicine on assessing health care needs of migrant children.

Children from migrant farm worker families often have multiple medical problems complicated by poverty and poor health habits, said Dr. Robert Roush, director of Baylor's Center for Allied Health Professions.

Because the school nurse may be the only health professional these children routinely see, it's vital for the nurse to be well-schooled in recognizing physical and mental abnormalities, Roush said. Other important aspects of the nurse's job are making necessary referrals to physicians or agencies, and following up on each child's progress.

Classes covering topics such as dental problems, bone and muscle disorders, cardiovascular abnormalities, child abuse and chest, lung and skin diseases, were taught by Baylor faculty from the Department of Community Medicine.

The project was funded through the Texas Education Agency, which contracted with Pan American University in Edinburg, to enhance the delivery of health care to migrant students. Pan American subsequently entered a contract with Baylor College of Medicine to conduct and evaluate the program.

The feminine attendants wore formal length dresses of soft blue with soft blue lace overlay and cape. They carried baskets of silk spring flowers.

David Chrisman of Roswell served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Steve Chrisman of San Antonio, Texas, brother of the groom, and Les Bice of Plainview, Texas.

Serving as ushers were Rondee Clark of Friona, brother of the bride, Deon Robinson of Friona and Sammy Davis of Plainview.

Ginny Chrisman of Roswell was the flower girl. She is a sister of the groom.

Timothy Clark of Friona, brother of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Guests were registered by Peggy Hudson of Friona and Cynthia Bice of Plainview.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered in a floor length blue knit table cloth with a white lace overlay. The table cloth was gathered with big blue satin bows and blue silk flowers. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with four hearts.

The groom's table was round and was covered with a blue knit table cloth with ecru lace overlay. Iced tea was served from a silver punch bowl. Sugar bells, lemon slices, nuts, mixed fruit and nut breads were also served.

Punch was served to the bride and groom from crystal glasses that belonged to the bride's late Great-Great Aunt. The mints were made by the bride's aunt, Judy Myrick of Clovis, New Mexico.

Serving from the bride's table were Renae Monroe, Kim Smiley and Pam Rhodes. Cheryl Chrisman of San Antonio, sister-in-law of the groom, served from the groom's table.

Following a wedding trip to Red River, New Mexico, the couple made their home at 810 Raleigh, Plainview.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Friona High School and is attending Wayland Baptist College, Plainview. She is presently employed by the Caprock Plains Baptist Area Center in Plainview.

The groom graduated from Goddard High School, Roswell, in 1978 and is currently employed by Scott's Tractor in Plainview.

Linda Wise, Kevin Welch Exchange Wedding Vows

Linda Jean Wise of Dimmitt and Kevin Gene Welch of Friona exchanged double ring wedding vows Saturday, August 1 in the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt. E.C. "Buddy" Payne III performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wise of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Welch of Friona.

As the service began the candlelighters entered the sanctuary along the bridal aisle between lighted hurricane lamps and large silk bows of mauve and wine.

The bridegroom ushered his parents to the altar where his father placed a lighted taper signifying the Welch family. Gary Wise, brother of the bride, ushered his mother and father to the altar for the placement of the Wise family taper.

The altar was backed by three candlelit arches, while an archway in front was covered with baby's breath and plumosa. Greenery backed the kneeling bench. On the lower level, two spiral candelabras, large Boston fern and white bows enhanced the altar rail.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Dale Winders, organist, and Mrs. Jim Peggram, pianist.

Traditional wedding selections were presented by Kimberly Peggram and Kyle Wise of Dimmitt, brother of the bride. During the seating of the guests, Miss Peggram sang "Time In A Bottle" and "You Are My Special Angel." As the candles were being lit the two singers sang "My Tribute" and Kyle sang "This Is The Day."

During the service, Mr. Wise sang "I Could Never Promise You" and the couple sang "God, A Woman and A Man" as they lit the unity candle. After the Lord's Prayer, a Christian benediction, "The Christian Edelwiss," was sung.

As the bride was presented in marriage by her father, she wore a formal length gown of white organza with a scooped neckline edged with venise lace and pearls. The bodice was covered with re-embroidered lace and pearls. The hooped skirt was ruffled with drapes of organza, topped with medallions of the lace and pearls. A pink silk rose embellished each drape through the chapel length train.

She wore a hat trimmed in venise lace and pearls. The left brim was turned up with two pink roses and tiny white flowers. A chapel tier of English illusion was attached.

She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white silk rosebuds with large silk roses matching those on her skirt. Ribbons of wine, white and mauve fell from the bouquet.

In keeping with bridal tradition, the bride wore her mother's garter and wedding handkerchief for something old. A diamond drop, given to her by the groom, was something new. She borrowed a ruby and diamond ring from her sister-in-law, Rhonda Wise, and wore the traditional blue garter.

Susan Wise of Temple, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Mrs. Darrell Buckley of Dimmitt was the matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Wise of Dimmitt, sister-in-law of the bride, Rhonda Parsons of Dimmitt and Sherice Price of Turkey.

The bridal attendants wore floor length dresses of mauve quiana. The sleeveless dresses featured a draped back, softly gathered bodice and crystal pleated skirt. A halo of baby's breath, white and tinted plumosa adorned their heads. They carried fan-shaped bouquets of wine and mauve silk flowers, ribbons and lace. The maid of honor carried a fan similar to the other attendants with three large pink roses.

Davy Carthel of Friona was the best man. Groomsmen were David Barnett, Jim Murphree, Mitchell Wiseman, all of Friona, and Brad Stout of Amarillo.

Serving as ushers were Gary Wise of Dimmitt, brother of the bride, Garland Coleman of Dimmitt, uncle of the bride, Troy White and Terry Wilcox of Friona, brothers-in-law of the groom.

Candlelighters were Mrs. Garland Coleman of Dimmitt, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Stan Roberts of Levelland. They wore wine colored dresses identical to those worn by the bridal attendants. They wore wristlets of mauve roses.

Garland Coleman III of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer. He wore a charcoal coat and vest, a striped ascot tie and striped trousers. His suit was a replica of the one worn by the groom. He carried a needlepoint pillow with the bridal couple's names and dates.

Holly Suzanne Wise, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a white dress of organza accented on the hooped skirt with pink silk rosebuds on the drapes. Her hat was a replica of the bride's hat. She carried a lace basket of mauve and wine rosebuds and baby's breath.

Scroll attendants were Vacresia and La Tawn White, nieces of the groom.

Presiding at the guest register were Mrs. Troy White of Friona, and Mrs. Terry Wilcox of Trinidad, Colorado, sisters of the groom.

Special guests were Mrs. G.E. Coleman, Sr. of Dimmitt, grandmother of the bride; W.H. Welch of Amarillo, groom's paternal grandfather; and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Harkins of Plainview, groom's maternal grandparents.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered with an organdy cloth with hand appliques of handkerchief linen centering the cloth and along the edges. Punch was served from a silver punch bowl. A four branched silver candelabra held an arrangement of baby's breath filled with pink rosebuds. The five-tiered wedding cake was decorated with roses, rosebuds and other flowers of the bride's chosen colors.

Mrs. Kevin Welch

The groom's table was covered with a floor length rust colored cloth. Ecru lace decorated the hemline. Copper appointments, chocolate mints and a cake decorated with a molded pheasant accented the table setting. The centerpiece in a copper bowl contained rust toned silk flowers and pheasant feathers. Coffee was served from an antique coffee samovar.

Hostesses at the reception were Mrs. Charles Wales, Mrs. Donald Wright, Mrs. Jim Cleavinger, Mrs. Buster Tidwell, Mrs. Rayphard Smithson, Mrs. Ewell Kelley, Mrs. Kenneth Cleveland, Mrs. Rex Wooten, Mrs. Percy Parsons, Mrs. Bill Birdwell, Mrs. John Gilbreath, Mrs. Stanley Schaeffer, Mrs. Barry Love, Mrs. Bill Snider, Mrs. George Bagley, Mrs. Jody Minnick, Mrs. Gene King and Mrs. Fred Kuntz.

For a wedding trip to points of interest in Northern Colorado, the bride chose a jacketed sundress of burgandy trimmed in navy. She carried white accessories and wore a corsage of pink and mauve rosebuds.

The bride is a 1977 graduate of Dimmitt High School and a 1981 graduate of Texas Tech University. She will teach in the Lazbuddie Elementary School.

The bridegroom is a 1975 graduate of Friona High School and a 1979 graduate of Texas Tech. He is engaged in farming in the Black Community, where the couple will reside, after August 8.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Thompson House Restaurant in Hereford. The tables were decorated with baskets of rose mauve flowers and honeycomb wedding bells.

Five Frionans Make Tech Honor Rolls

More than 1,800 students at Texas Tech University, Lubbock, qualified for the deans' honor rolls in the six colleges during the first term of the 1981 summer session.

They included five residents of Friona. They are Diana R. Gustin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Gustin; Jay L. Jarboe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jarboe; Renae Monroe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Monroe; Sharla Bengé Trimm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bengé; and Holly S. White, daughter of John F. White.

To qualify for a dean's honor roll, a student must have a grade point average of 3.0 or more on a 4.0 scale and must have taken at least six semester hours of work.

Texas Tech has an enrollment of more than 23,000 students in six colleges: Agricultural Sciences, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Engineering and Home Economics.

Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Hyde have had visitors recently. The son and daughter of Mr. Hyde's brother, the late Cyrus Hyde, who lived at Mesa, Arizona, many years, and their spouses have been here.

So have Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newby of Geronimo, Oklahoma. They had been to Greeley, Colorado, where they attended funeral services for Mrs. Alice Scoffield. Mrs. Newby and Mrs. Scoffield, nieces of Mrs. Hyde, have visited here many times.

Rev. Don Kimbrough and his wife, Eva Dean, of the West Camp Community in Bailey County, also visited in the Hyde home late last week.

Maxine Bolding of West Palm Beach, California, who is spending the summer with the Hydys, went home with the Kimbroughs for a visit.

Decimae, Jay, Sue and Brent Beene are home again. They've been down to Corpus Christi to visit Ramey Beene. They also did some sightseeing.

This was Brent's first trip to that section of Texas and he had a lot of fun seeing Padre Island, swimming in the gulf, playing on the beach and doing whatever else boys this age enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wooley of 609 South Tennessee, Amarillo, became parents of a baby girl Friday, July 31, at High Plains Baptist Hospital.

Bill and Fadine Wooley of Muleshoe are the paternal grandparents. The baby was named Sarah Beth. She was born on her Grandmother Wooley's birthday and is the first child for Scott and his wife.

The Wooleys are former Friona residents and Scott is a graduate of Friona High School.

Jimmy D. Hughes of Houston has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Vivian Hughes, and other Friona relatives and friends. Saturday evening Viv and John and Jean Terry hosted a family cookout in the Terry's backyard marking Jimmy's birthday.

Others present were Kenny and Rene Doss and daughter, Kristin, Jacquita Hughes and Gary Bruegel, all of Dimmitt; Mitch and Kathy Terry and sons, Scott and Nathan of the Rhea Community; Karen Edwards and daughters, Michelle and Holly, of Amarillo and Tracy Rust, Friona.

While Jimmy was here he also got involved in a family project. Randy Terry recently purchased a house at 1401 Columbia and his Uncle Jimmy helped with the paper hanging and re-decorating.

Randy, who is a spring graduate of West Texas State University, Canyon, is employed by Herring Implement Company and has been living at home.

Grandmother Viv says, "I'm thinking he is going to miss his Mother's cooking, since Jean is an excellent cook."

The Alan Clarks had out-of-town visitors last weekend. They were Rachel and Julio Caraffa and children, Gabriel and Melina of Santa Fe, Argentina.

Rachel and Mrs. Clark became friends while both of them lived in Hereford a few years ago. Rachel's parents were missionaries in Argentina when she met Julio, who is a native of that country.

He's a Baptist preacher and was guest speaker at the Baptist Church on Washington Sunday.

George, Leslie, Will, Sarah and Robin Rushing are home again. They spent a long weekend vacationing and attending a reunion of Leslie's mother's family at Lake Texhoma.

Most members of the family live in the East Texas-Arkansas area, so Lake Texhoma is centrally located for most of them.

However, since the Rushings and Leslie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cooper of Farwell, live in the Panhandle, it takes some long distance driving to get to the reunion.

Cordie and Helen Potts recently had an unusual experience. They drove to Douglas, Wyoming, which is

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Donna Rector, Dennis Morgan

Donna Gaye Rector and Dennis Craig Morgan were united in a candlelight ceremony Saturday, June 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church of Friona.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rector of Friona. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan of Farwell, Texas.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Archie Echols before arrangements of brass candelabras holding yellow tapers. The altar was centered with double brass arches with a heart shaped candelabra interspersed with white roses and greenery. A kneeling bench stood in front of the altar, on which two lighted candles stood. Flanked on each side of the altar were a pair of seven branched brass candelabras, two bouquets of yellow gladiolas, carnations and greenery sprinkled with gypsophilia and two brass spiral candelabras. The spirals were decorated with yellow carnations and greenery. Palm trees complimented the candelabra arrangements.

The unity candle was complimented with yellow carnations, greenery and bows. The candle was decorated by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lloyd Rector, and was a gift to the bride.

The family pews were marked with yellow bows and carnations and greenery sprinkled with gypsophilia.

Johnnie Walters presented piano selections and accompanied Sharla Duggins as she sang "Time In A Bottle" and "Wedding Song." As the couple lit the unity candle, she sang "We've Only Just Begun."

As the bride was escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her father, she wore a formal length gown of ivory silk organza. The victorian neckline, bodice and bishop sleeves were trimmed with schiffli embroidery and accented with silk venice lace. Seed pearls enhanced the lace of the bodice and sleeves. The empire waistline, trimmed with an ivory satin ribbon covered with venice lace, attached the chapel length train with two deep ruffles of schiffli embroidery. Venice lace motifs with seed pearls accented the full skirt.

Her ivory hat was covered in schiffli embroidery and featured an upsweep on the right side which was accented with three ivory fabric roses with seed pearl centers. Falling from the back of the hat was a fingertip length veil edged in schiffli lace.

She carried a silk cascade bouquet of ivory dogwood blooms encrusted with yellow baby's breath with ivory and yellow love knot streamers.

Following tradition, the bride wore a diamond and pearl lavalier belonging to her maternal great-grandmother, the late Eva Roberson, for something old and borrowed. Something new was her wedding attire. She wore the traditional blue garter and pennies minted in the years of their births in her shoes.

Darlene Heinrick of Lubbock was the maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Sheri Martin, cousin of the bride, and Gayle Goodwyn of Lubbock.

The feminine attendants wore gowns of pastel lime green chiffon with an empire bodice and spaghetti straps. The gowns were accented with a deep ruffled flounce around the shoulders and hemline with a double chiffon bow in the back at the waistline. The dresses were designed and made by the bride's mother.

They carried ivory fan arrangements of yellow silk lilies, daisies, baby's breath and ivory sweetheart roses with yellow streamers. Green carnations with picot ribbons adorned their hair.

Lauri Rector of Lubbock, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Mindy Woody of Bovina, niece of the groom, served as the candlelighter.

They wore gowns of pastel lime green chiffon with high necklines accented with a ruffled flounce at the neckline and hemline with a chiffon sash.

They wore flowers in their hair matching the ones worn by the bridesmaids. Lauri carried an ivory lace basket filled with silk yellow lilies, daisies, baby's breath and ivory sweetheart roses with yellow bows.

Jason Rector, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer. He wore an ivory suit with an ivory shirt and green carnation boutonniere. He carried a heart shaped ivory satin pillow covered with lace and trimmed with ivory satin ribbon.

Wade Jameson of Fort Worth served as best man. Groomsmen were Roger Needham of Eules and Mark Powell of Hurst. They wore ivory tuxedos with ruffled shirts and green carnation boutonnieres.

The groom was attired in ivory tails with an ivory ruffled shirt. His boutonniere was an ivory rose with baby's breath.

The fathers were attired in tan tuxedos with ivory ruffled shirts and boutonnieres of yellow carnations.

The bride's mother wore a floor length yellow chiffon dress with a floral chiffon cape falling from the neckline and a chiffon sash.

The groom's mother wore a long mint green dress with a lace overlay bodice. Both mothers wore corsages of green cymbidium orchids.

Serving as ushers were Gary Rector of Lubbock, brother of the bride, Rickey Woody of Bovina and Michael Gilley of Buey Eros, New Mexico, both brothers-in-law of the groom.

Presiding at the guest register was Cindy Chesher of Friona.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered with a white satin cloth with a lace overlay. The table was centered with the bridal bouquet and the bridesmaids' fans. The crystal punch service, nut and mint dishes completed the table setting.

The three-tiered wedding cake was accented with yellow roses and lattice and scroll work. The cake was topped with satin bells and doves.

Serving at the bride's table were Mrs. Steve Matthews of Lubbock, Mrs. Michael Gilley of Buey Eros, New Mexico, sister of the groom, and Cindy Chesher of Friona.

The groom's table was covered with a green cloth with ivory lace overlay. A two-tiered sour cream chocolate cake with icing was served by Mrs. Rickey Woody of Bovina, sister of the groom. The cake was decorated with dark chocolate icing swirls and topped with brown and ivory silk flowers. The silver coffee service completed the table setting. Both the bride and groom cakes were
