CONSERVATION DISTRICT SUPERVISORS BOUNCE GRASS JUDGING CONTEST DEC. 1

Chairman of the state contest at the Fort Worth Fat Stock show to be held January 26 to February 4, 1951. The second and third teams will be given ribbons and three ribbons will be given for high individual scores. A team consists of three members.

The boys entering the contest will be given score cards and will apply on expenses of a trip to the state contest at the Fort Worth Fat Stock show to be held January 26 to February 4, 1951.

have forty-five seconds to identify and check the characteristics of each plant. If the boy fails to identify the plant, no credit will be given for other characteristics of that specimen. Both native vegetation and introduced plants will be used.

Points in Judging Grasses
Characteristics of a plant include several factors. The grazing value, or worth of a plant for livestock feeding, will be checked as good, fair or poor. The season of best use, such as cool or warm season will be shown.

The plants will be marked as being annual or perennial. The origin, or whether it is a climax decreaser, climax increaser or invader, must be decided. Climax decreasers are plants that decrease under improper use. Climax increasers are plants that increase and spread into space left by climax decreasers. Climax plants are best, while invading plants are those not native to the site.

Grass judging contests are becoming very popular over Texas and are being held in connection with most major fairs and stock shows. Most farmers and ranchers are acquainted with livestock judging and how to pick a desirable animal. If these same individuals were asked to identify native vegetation on or tame grasses in irrigated pasture mixtures, they could not do so. Vegetation varies a great deal and it is essential to be familiar with the various plants if the proper use is to be obtained, district officials point out.

Big Cotton Acreage Seen; Plan Carefully Says Gibson

(By Bob Gibson, County Agent)
The Secretary of Agriculture has requested enough cotton to be planted to produce at least sixteen million bales of cotton in 1951. The South Plains area is the only place in Texas where an appreciable increase in acreage can be planted; therefore South Plains cotton producers are encouraged to plant more cotton in 1951, but not to such an extent that it will be detrimental to good farming practices. No cotton producer should decrease the number of livestock on his farm and should grow enough feed to meet his needs for the coming year. This increase in cotton throughout the State of Texas is going to create a great number of problems not experienced this year. Some of these problems are: A scarcity of good planting seed, shortage of fertilizer, shortages of insecticides, and shortages of labor for cultivating and harvesting. In order to minimize these problems every cotton grower should locate, and secure, a supply of good planting seed. In selecting the variety to plant a producer should select one that is adapted to this area, and if there is one that is storm-proof he should plant at least part of his farm to it, so that it can be harvested with machinery. The harvesting problem in 1951 in all probability will be more severe than in 1949, and storm proof varieties usually show a greater profit when mechanically harvested.

Secure Insecticides Early
The ever-present insects will cause a shortage of insecticides. To meet this problem every person, who can do so, should secure and store on his farm enough insecticides to go over his cotton, at least twice. He should secure this insecticide sometime during this winter. It is also an economical proposition to use ground equipment for spraying and dusting until the cotton reaches a rank growth. More of the ground sprays and dusters are needed on the farms.

Those persons planning on fertilizing cotton should secure their fertilizer as early as possible so that fertilizer manufacturing companies can anticipate the demand and will be in a position to meet the need. There is definite need for more cotton to be produced in 1951, and from information received it is possible that there will not be any control on cotton for at least two years.

Churches to Hear State Leaders in Sunday School Work Campaign Sunday to Thursday

Dr. W. P. Phillips, southwide Baptist Sunday school leader will arrive from Nashville by plane Sunday afternoon to speak here Sunday night at the regular service.

The First Baptist church of Floydada is joining a four county group of Baptist churches in a Sunday school enlargement campaign.

Andrew Allen, state Baptist Sunday school head, a native of Petersburg, will direct the campaign and speak at the morning worship service here Sunday, November 26.

Mr. Allen will be assisted in the direction of the Floyd association by M. D. Rexrode who is associate in the Baptist Sunday school department. Mr. Rexrode is a native of Lockney.

Dr. W. P. Phillips, southwide Baptist Sunday school leader will arrive from Nashville by plane Sunday afternoon to speak here Sunday night at the regular service. Dr. Phillips will speak Monday through Thursday night at 7:00 and give direction to the local Sunday school enlargement campaign. Mr. Phillips is the author of several books on young people and adult Sunday school methods. He formerly was Texas state Sunday school director, is now field man for the Sunday school department of the Southern Baptist convention.

Dr. Phillips will be assisted by Miss Bertha Mills of the Texas Baptist convention, Dallas. Miss Mills was hired by the late Dr. Truett to direct the nursery of that church. She has held that position for 30 years. She will give direction to the cradle roll and nursery department of the local church.

The local workers of the church are now engaged in a religious survey of Floydada. It is hoped that many prospects for the churches will be discovered. Cards that prefer other denomination will be given to the pastors of the preferred churches as a community service by the First and Calvary Baptist churches.

A Thanksgiving offering was taken by the church last Sunday to remodel the education building for better efficiency in Sunday school work.

Other services of the church, beginning with the church school, will be held at the usual hours.

Guest Speaker To Tell of India Next Sunday

Guest speaker at the First Christian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock will be a veteran missionary, Rev. Church Smiley, of Fort Worth, who has spent the past 20 years in India, where he was sent by the Christian churches.

Announcing the speaker this week, E. A. Powell, minister of the local congregation, said that Rev. Smiley will bring the story of India from his experiences there, especially the religious aspects of Indian life, and of recent political and economic events in that nation.

The general public is cordially invited to hear the visiting speaker, said the pastor.

Other services of the church, beginning with the church school, will be held at the usual hours.

MAIL SERVICE BETTER

With the passing of passenger and mail service for south plains points over the Denver and the Q A & P Railway companies, and the adjustments which have been made to accommodate demands of the post office patrons by the use of trucks, improvement in the first class mail service has been made.

Sole remaining mail carrying train serving this area at this time is the Santa Fe which operates one train daily to Floydada, giving one in and one out dispatch.

The revised schedules have speeded up mail deliveries for the most part. Here are the schedules given by Mrs. Barbara H. Smith, postmaster, for the Floydada office: Mail truck from Lubbock reaches Floydada in the evening at 9:45, enroute to Childress and a connection with the Denver there for points east and south. Mail for this dispatch must be in the local office by 6 o'clock p. m.

On the west - bound trip from Childress the truck is scheduled to be in Floydada at 8:30 in the morning serving Petersburg and Lubbock enroute west. Mail for this connection west should be in the post office here by 8 o'clock a. m. This arrangement is especially of an advantage for air mail.

Another mail to Lubbock and points west is dispatched by T. N. M. & O. bus at 4:30 in the afternoon. To make this dispatch mail must be in the office by 4 o'clock.

Mail to Plainview and Lockney by way of Santa Fe daily except Sunday must be in the office by 11 a. m. Same schedules are maintained on Sunday as on week-days, except the mail going out on the Santa Fe which operates no Sunday train.

To Silverton the same contract service is being continued as heretofore, one round trip daily. Fred Bell is contract carrier on this star route.

Billy Wayne Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Morris, Route 3, Floydada, is now stationed at Camp McCord, Washington. He recently completed his basic training in the Air Force at Lackland Air force base.

Crash Injures Glenn and Mrs. White Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn F. White were in a car collision Friday evening about 7 o'clock at Loving in Young county on the road west to Floydada from Fort Worth, resulting in multiple injuries to the couple and to Ed Pharris, a Wichita Falls man. Their injuries include: Glenn White a broken ankle, three broken ribs, a gash in the forehead;

Mrs. White a broken wrist, lacerations and bruises; The Wichita Falls man a shattered knee, other serious injuries and lacerations.

The accident caused a power failure on the electric line which forced postponement of a football game at Bryson, when the 1950 Ford driven by the Whites struck a light pole after rolling out of control from the highway and pulled down power lines. The couple were thrown out of the car.

The autos collided at the intersection of Texas Highway 199 and Farm Road 61. Pharris was headed north, the investigating patrolman, said, and the Whites west.

The Whites were taken to Graham, where Glenn White Tuesday was still hospitalized, possibly to be brought on home this mid-week. Mrs. White came home Saturday with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Stephens, who went down following receipt of news of the wreck. Stephens said four good tires could be salvaged from the White car, but otherwise it is a total loss.

The Whites moved to Fort Worth two weeks ago. Glenn had taken up employment there with Consolidated Aircraft.

Mrs. J. E. Newton, of Dougherty, went to Graham Saturday to be at the bedside of her injured son.

Newell Surveying Kent County Lands

Floyd County Surveyor, W. D. Newell, who also is a licensed state land surveyor in Texas, is spending some of his time this week in Kent county, where he is re-running land lines for property holders there.

Recent oil developments in Kent have called for the re-marking of lines and re-running land lines that were established when the county was first developed into a cattle grazing area.

It is Newell's second trip to Kent. He also spent some time earlier in the fall in Dickens county where he ran property lines for land owners as a result of the increased interest in oil development there.

Newell says a large per cent of the land in all of the counties of Kent and Dickens are under lease. His work in running the boundary lines of these tracts has called for search of the records in those counties and he has run across some interesting historical facts dating back to the eighteen eighties.

VISIT SAN ANTONIO

Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Powell, in company with Dr. James Wester, spent the past week in San Antonio on business and visiting their daughter, Mrs. Fern Pack.

Johnston, Ginn Battley Named On Committee

Henry W. Schacht, Jack D. Stansell, and Walter M. Knight, members of the Floyd County PMA county convention, meeting in the Agricultural building, Monday, November 20, 1950, selected three members and two alternates of the county committee. These elected were: G. B. Johnston, chairman; James C. Ginn, vice-chairman; Richard M. Battley, regular member; Jack D. Stansell, first alternate; Buck Sams, second alternate.

Mr. Johnston and Mr. Ginn were members of last year's county committee. Mr. Johnston will begin his twelfth year of consecutive service as county committeeman. Other members, except Mr. Stansell have served on past programs of AAA or PMA.

County committeemen, with the community committeemen, are responsible for the local administration of such farm programs as agricultural conservation, price-supporting loans and purchase agreements, Federal crop insurance, and other program that might arise due to an emergency.

Robert H. Gibson, county agent for the Agricultural Extension service, is an ex-officio member of the committee.

Titles Exchanged in Story
In last week's article relative to community committeemen, the names of Lee Rushing and Cecil Purcell were exchanged. The article should have stated that Cecil Purcell was elected chairman of the community committee in Community B and that Lee Rushing was elected alternate-delegate from Community B.

KINDERGARTEN YOUNGSTERS VISIT THE J. N. GULLIONS

The kindergarten department of the First Methodist church, of which Mrs. Edd Johnson is superintendent, with Misses Betty Boteler and Betty Chowning as her helpers, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gullion in their home Sunday morning and carried them a Thanksgiving basket of fruits and candies. There were 18 children in the group and they sang songs for Mr. and Mrs. Gullion.

Mrs. Gullion told a Hesperian reporter this is the third year the children and their sponsors have called on them. They truly appreciate the visit and the gifts she said.

Tip Off is Turkey Orders Family Thanksgiving Gatherings As Business is Suspended for Day

One of the most generally observed Thanksgiving holidays in the history of the community appeared in prospect Wednesday morning for Floydada today.

Save and except for the gingers, and possibly some of the grain and feed men, all business activity will be suspended in the industrial part of town.

In the retail section a survey late Tuesday indicated that there will just be no business. Enough cafes will be open to feed those who are dining out and the traveling public will be able to wangle some gas and oil from an occasional station that will be operating but other-

School Damage in Monday Fire

Damage estimated at a figure upward of $3,000 was done at noon Monday by fire in the locker and storage rooms of the Floydada High school athletic department, and two firemen fighting the stubborn blaze were slightly injured.

Richard Simpson was singed and knocked down by a back lash from the confined smoke and fumes and Fire Chief Carl Rodgers also had singed hair and slight burns and an injured arm as a result of the heavy puff of blaze when asphalt caught fire. Simpson was hospitalized temporarily and dismissed after first aid treatment.

The fire probably caught from an explosion in a hot water heater in the athletic dressing room. Fire Chief Carl Rodgers thought. The building and contents were in order Sunday night at dark when line coach Charles Read made an inspection visit, he said.

The loss is thought covered by insurance. Considerable loss and damage was done to football equipment. After the fire Monday afternoon Coach Watson and young men of the high school were sorting out and checking the football equipment. Little basketball and no band equipment damage was reported.

The buildings adjacent were undamaged. The fire was got under control within a few feet of highly valuable equipment of the manual training department. This was housed in a former army barracks converted and joined on to the athletic building under the same roof. Band equipment was in another building.

Bridgeport Pioneer Brother-In-Law of Mrs. Borum Passes

Mrs. E. R. Borum returned home Wednesday from Bridgeport, where she went to meet her sister, Miss Blanche Groves, who has returned from Soo Chow, China. Miss Groves has been a missionary from the Baptist church for over 25 years there.

On Tuesday, at the home of Miss Groves, the family enjoyed a family reunion with a big dinner and all the family present, including Mr. and Mrs. Jake Green, another sister of Mrs. Borum.

On Wednesday, Mr. Green suffered a heart attack and passed away on Saturday. He was buried Sunday in East Side cemetery in Bridgeport. Mr. Green was a pioneer business man of Bridgeport and was well known to a number of Floyd county residents, who have lived in Wise county and Bridgeport at one time.

Receipt a good many empties the first of this week and what seems to be the near approach of the end of the harvest season for forage feed forecasts an early end to maize on the ground. The Q A & P hit Floydada, Dougherty and Boothe Spur with 20 empties as of Saturday night and there was two days of loading that made quite a dent in the pile up of grain, but didn't fully alleviate the situation, of course. A man with grain on the ground has grain on the ground until it is all picked up. Should the Quanah route be able to furnish the empty railway cars there'd be quite a flood of maize from points north and west where the railways just can't make it. All of the railway people are doing their utmost, of course. An illustration is the fact that the Santa Fe had two brand new empties in Floydada one day last week. Just barely out of the shop they'd never had a grain door fitted into them and there wasn't any other cooperation necessary.

Last year County Agent Robert H. Gibson guessed so close to the cotton production in the county that we hesitate to question his judgment this season when he says 35,000 bales, as quoted in the press last week. The fact is, as we recall it now, the agent was within the final ginnings by several hundred bales last year. We accept the figures of a fellow who figures that close for this year, too. But we do have tongue in cheek. Perhaps our conversations have been with the fellows who were situated in hail streaks, had had cotton seed to begin with, or something of the kind. With cotton skyrocketing like in the past week's market, we could stand a 35 thousand bale crop pretty easily. We had thought for sure 25,000 bales would be the limit, however. That is how bad you can be fooled when you don't get out and get around like a newspaperman ought to do.

Recently the Jaycees made up some funds and bought some badly needed (as they thought) safety signs to protect the youth of the city. Now it appears the youth, or if not them, some of the cut-ups among the elders, who thought otherwise. Anyway, the Jaycee safety signs disappeared on the night of Halloween and few of them had been recovered a few days ago. There'll never be any sure fire way of figuring out human nature. Who would have guessed that anybody would resent a safety sign at a dangerous street intersection, or that its removal, under the guise of a goblin's trick, would be thought cute? Well there are such things as prove.

Recently a writer in Reader's Digest discussed the burning question of how we can win the cold war with Russia. His final conclusion was that it would come about through the enemy's weak spot — smoldering opposition of the Russian people. (We have not been asked for an opinion about Reader's Digest but offer the thought that some of these days it is going to be a considerably discredited magazine. But that is not the subject here.) The smoldering opposition to the Russian regime has been smoldering for centuries, and it is still smoldering. We had thought that long before now the people of Russia would have thrown off the yoke of communism in much the same manner or after the general pattern of the way they threw the czars in to the discard. It has not happened and it may not happen. But we do hope the ordinary people of that unhappy country sometime, somehow, will get their opportunity to gain real freedom. "The movement toward freedom," writes this Reader's Digest contributor, "has always come from the people," and he concludes "... then the revolt will gather strength and sweep the Russian homeland."

This is a country where government is carried on by trial and error. It has to be that way in a republic and more so in a democracy, such as the United States is becoming more and more as it leans toward socialism. Thus do we explain to ourselves, without becoming unduly warm under the collar about the things that are happening to us. The error is found, if an error it be, after the trial is made. This is preliminary to reference to the tax dodging which is legal for churches, schools and some others, including cooperatives. Some kind of corrective measure to get these people in line will be adopted eventually, we imagine. It will come a bit more quickly if the heavy tax forecast beginning soon, is clamped on. A man gets restive when he finds himself paying a tax bill he thinks another man should be helping to pay, especially if it turns out to be a tremendously heavy burden. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander is an old saying. And if it is really true that billions in taxes are being passed on unfairly to others by coops, churches and schools, and they continue to get away with it, there'll be no reason why we can't all coop, or church or school. Since there'll be nobody left to pay the taxes something will be done about it, of course.

Speaking of the outlook for the immediate years ahead, as reported in the public prints, Congressman George Mahon evidently is trying to build up morale among people of the 18th district against the blood and sweat and tears which he foresees as our lot. Several addresses over the district have carried this message, or an undertone which ran through his talks. Congressman Mahon ought to know. He is not a defeatist. He would like for the people to see through his eyes, however, what the trend of the times call for.

Here's a tip for some candidate to lay away against another campaign some of these times: A Uruguyan, running for president, has promised that if he is elected all the roads will run downhill and gasoline and free milk will be piped to every home.

ENJOY YOURSELF

it's saner than you think

It would be easy to let the breath-taking power, the luxurious ride and the gleaming good looks of a Buick sweep you off your feet.

And once you've sampled the sweet response of Dynaflo Drive*—you feel a big lack in anything else.

But let's be practical about all this.

What does it cost to buy—and to own—this star performer?

The first answer is a look at delivered prices—and most people still are surprised to find that a car which offers so much actually costs so little.

That's true, whether you put the SPECIAL, the SUPER or the superb ROADMASTER against other cars of comparable dimensions. They certainly shine on a first-cost basis.

But this is only half the story, as you'll soon find out on any used-car lot.

Year in, year out, the resale prices of Buicks stay much closer to first cost than the prices of cars with lesser merit.

And among recent models, Buicks with Dynaflo Drive command such a premium that you can almost figure you get this dream drive for free.

So why not let yourself go? Why not walk right into your Buick dealer's now and say, put me down for one of those!

There's no time like the present for showing your good judgment.

Vegetable Cheese Treat

Bright idea for a fall main dish is corned beef and cauliflower in mellow cheese sauce served piping hot in individual casseroles. These three "Cs"—cauliflower, corned beef and cheese sauce—are a texture and flavor trio superb, and make imaginative use of one of fall's most dramatic vegetables with delicious, nutritious cheese.

Make this hearty main dish now while cheese is so abundant and so reasonable.

Cauliflower Scallop

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 cauliflower | 1 1/2 cups milk |
| 1 cup coarsely chopped cooked corned beef | Salt, pepper |
| 3 tablespoons butter or margarine | 1/2 pound mild flavored pasteurized process cheese, shredded |
| 3 tablespoons flour | Buttered crumbs |

Break the cauliflower into flowerets and cook in boiling salted water until tender. Drain well, and arrange in 3 or 4 individual casseroles. Sprinkle the cauliflower with the chopped corned beef. Make a cream sauce with the butter or margarine, flour, milk and seasonings. When thick and smooth, add three-fourths of the shredded cheese, and stir until it is melted. Pour this cheese sauce over the cauliflower and corned beef in the casseroles, bake 10 minutes in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., sprinkle with the crumbs and the remaining cheese and bake 10 more minutes.

Bulldogs Gain District Crown

The Spur bulldogs won the district 3-A title Friday night when they defeated the Floydada Whirlwinds 26 - 0 while Paducah was trimming the Tullia Hornets.

The Bulldogs scored in every quarter, and appeared to be able to handle the Whirlwinds with more ease than any team in the district. The Spur team clicked both on the ground, and in the air, scoring two touchdowns each way. They were never seriously threatened by the Whirlwinds, who were unable to get their offensive to work.

In the first quarter, Spur kicked to the Whirlwinds, the ball ending up on the 15 yard line. The Whirlwinds moved the ball to their own 22 but were unable to make a first down, and Guthrie punted the ball to the Spur 50 yard stripe, the return carrying the ball to the Whirlwind 43. The Bulldogs made short work in

Mr. Dan Goldsmith, 3024 Curran Road, Louisville, Ky., owner of Coogla Cut Rate Store at 935 West Broadway, says there just aren't enough words in the English language to praise HADACOL correctly. He says he knows most folks don't realize what a change HADACOL can make in their life if their systems are deficient in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin.

Here is Mr. Goldsmith's statement: "Before I started taking HADACOL I was run down and nervous—and had a hard time sleeping nights. With my work in the store I have to spend sometimes 14 hours a day on my feet. Since I am in the retail business I saw how many folks were asking for HADACOL so I decided to try it myself. After the first couple of bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now I have all the pep and energy in the world, my nerves are steady as ever and I really do get a good night's rest. HADACOL is wonderful—I not only take it, but recommend it to all my customers. I praise the day Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc put HADACOL on the market."

HADACOL is So Different
Thousands are benefiting from HADACOL... whose systems lack Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL is so wonderful because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when iron is needed) to carry these great Vitamins and Minerals to every body organ—to every part of the body.
Give remarkable HADACOL a chance and if you don't feel better with the first few bottles you take—you get your money back. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. © 1950, The LeBlanc Corporation.

carrying to the Floydada 11, mostly power through the center with 205 pound Dick Gibson doing most of the ball carrying. From the 11 Gibson went over his own left tackle for the score, and Charles Grimland booted the extra point.

In the second quarter, Spur drove the ball from their own 36 yard stripe to score, the final play a pass from Grimland to Gibson for 28 yards. Grimland's conversion attempt was wide.

Fumble Ends A Threat
In the third quarter, Floydada kicked to Spur. On the first play, from their own 44, Spur fumbled and the Whirlwinds recovered on the 44, and carried the ball to the Spur 27 before a fumble ended that threat. A 15 yard penalty put the Bulldogs on their own 12, and a passing attempt to make the 25 yards needed was intercepted by the Whirlwinds who returned to the Spur 15.

The Whirlwinds were unable to gain, and Spur took over on downs. A Grimland to Gibson pass clicked for 70 yards and three running plays carried for a touchdown, Gibson smashing over left tackle for 4 yards and the score.

The Bulldogs scored early in the fourth quarter when the Whirlwinds were forced to kick from their own 3, the kick carrying to the 30. A pass from Grimland to Vernell McAlpin for 30 yards scored the touchdown and Grimland's conversion was good. That ended the scoring, and although the Bulldogs threatened twice more in that quarter, the Whirlwinds put up a determined resistance and held off the attacks.

'Stars in My Crown' Rich in Heart Appeal

Manager Jack Deakins of Floydada theatres is so sure that "Stars in my crown" is going to make a hit with Floyd county people and that those who do not see it will wish they had, that he has put his personal endorsement on the forthcoming cinema at the Palace theatre.

"Stars in my crown" is to be screened here on Sunday and Monday, November 26 and 27.

According to prepared preview it is a heart-warming story of a small Southern settlement at the close of the Civil War and of a preacher who leads the way in making his community a better place to live in.

Joel McCrea enacts Josiah Gray, ex-cavalryman who comes to the little village of Walesburg, inspires the community to build its first church, marries the pretty organist, Harriet, and becomes a second father to their little ward, John. The parson's steadfast courage and honesty make themselves felt on almost every member of the village and he even wins the iconoclastic Doc Harris over to his side when he saves the life of the latter's fiancée. Faith after all the doctor's medical knowledge has failed. Only one man proves stubborn in his resistance to Josiah's precepts of honor and humility. He is Lon Backett, the town's richest man, who tries to exert his own authority over that of the law, but who in the picture's stirring climax, is forced to bow to the stronger will of the indomitable preacher.

Humor and Naturalness
Although "Stars in My Crown" has its share of rugged action, it is the atmospheric details of a small, growing village, the homespun humor and the vivid naturalness of characterization which give the picture its warmth and color. There is the glowing sequence, for instance, in which the experienced Uncle Prill and the neophyte John go fishing, or the uproariously funny Medicine Show scenes, or the episode in which Doc Harris removes a fish hook from a young victim, or that in which Josiah backs the town bully into a pool of mud. Then there are the various moments in which old-fashioned ballads and folk tunes of the period are sung in choral groups, authentic as well as charming melodic touch.

The picture has been beautifully cast, with Joel McCrea's portrait of the parson, who can preach with his fists as well as with words, one of the most satisfying characterizations he has ever attempted. Ellen Drew is excellent as his industrious young wife, with Dean Stockwell winning many of the laughs in the role of little John who would like it always to be summer so that there would be no school.

Among others who appear in the good supporting cast are Alan Hale, Lewis Stone, James Mitchell, Amanda Blake, Charles Kemper and Ed Begley.

"Stars in my crown" is indicated as a film treat for film-goers of every age.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Floydada and Floyd County And The Folks In Your Big Family

We Take Great Pleasure in announcing the showing of the picture "STARS IN MY CROWN" But—

Words Fail Me

I wish that I had the talent to write an advertisement worthy of this attraction . . . one that would cause every man, woman, and child in Floydada and Floyd County to see it!

The usual adjectives simply do not fit this movie and they cannot describe the feeling you have when you see this human, down to earth story of Real People. Whom to know is to love and remember! And certainly you will take these "FOLKS" to Your heart!

I believe honestly that this wonderful Family Film will make the entire community feel better — Happier — More Contented — More Neighborly!

It Will Be Shown
SUNDAY & MONDAY
November 26 - 27
at the
PALACE THEATRE
Floydada, Texas

I personally recommend that this is a picture for the whole Family and bringing you this picture makes me happy to be a part of our community.

Sincerely,
J. G. Deakins

E. Magazine akes Feature Battey Farm

Electrification Magazine, a monthly distributed periodical of great interest to rural electric cooperative members, paid a great tribute to the David S. Batteys in its November edition, which featured Thanksgiving. Well-bred turkeys, of course, fitted right into the theme for this edition.

The fact that the Batteys are planning to retire from the turkey-raising business after development of the outstanding flocks of the nation, doesn't take from the fact that they have used many ingenious methods to gain their objectives nor from the fact that they have made a great deal of painstaking work off. Here is the story of rural electric service has had an important part in bringing thousands of Thanksgiving turkeys to market this month.

Among the turkey farmers who have taken advantage of the opportunities brought their way through rural electrification are Mr. and Mrs. David S. Battey of Floydada, Texas, whose turkeys are known for their fine breeding and quality. The Batteys, numbered among the top breeders in the nation, ship breeding far and near.

The Battey farm is electrified by the Floyd County Rural Electric cooperative from which they have received service since 1945.

The Batteys originally took their turkey eggs to Plainview to be hatched, but the trouble and losses in doing this prompted them to buy their own incubator, and because they were so successful in hatching the eggs with electricity they added more hatching units, bringing egg capacity to 7200. Turkey eggs from Battey's R. O. P. pens are worth $2 each, while flock eggs are sold for 50c each. The electric incubators are kept full all during hatching season. Filling each of the 1800-egg incubating units with these eggs represents quite an investment, but the Batteys have found the co-op's service always dependable and report that no outage has ever affected the hatching.

Raised Turkeys Since 1936

The farm also boasts an electric brooder into which the young turkeys are placed for the first week of their life, later to be removed to the brooder house with the older birds.

The Batteys have been raising turkeys since 1936, but it took five years of cross breeding to develop the broadbreasted and perfectly balanced birds for which the farm is famous. In 1941 they began trap-nesting to keep an accurate check on egg production; the hens with the best egg production and highest hatchability were found, and the pullets hatched then were used for subsequent hatches. Trap-nesting has taken a lot of time, and it has taken still more time to keep accurate records on hens, but it has paid off with exceptionally good turkeys.

The Batteys have produced 24 grand champion, 54 turkey that have placed first, and 30 reserve champions. Ten grand championships and several plaques in dressed turkey shows have also been won by Battey's stock. Early this year a turkey hen exhibited by the Batteys was judged the grand champion bird of the Broad Breasted Bronze breed at a Fort Worth turkey show in connection with the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show.

Rural electrification has made the turkey raising business both possible and profitable for people like the Batteys, and helped to insure the high quality of the turkey—that are sold in the country's markets.

Some of these radio announcers should change their line and frankly say: "Due to conditions beyond our control, we present the program originally scheduled for this time."

Carving Turkey An Easy Job

COLLEGE STATION — Carving turkey at Thanksgiving or Christmas is really quite easy when a few simple rules are followed, says F. Z. Beanblossom poultry marketing specialist for the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service. He has several suggestions for making the job easy.

First, Beanblossom advises using a sharp knife. Nothing is more discouraging than to saw away at a roasted turkey with a dull carving knife.

Place the turkey on its back with the legs facing the carver. Pieces of apple or bread cut in wedge shapes and placed along the back of the turkey will form a cradle and hold the bird in position.

Hold the end of the drumstick with the left hand and cut down between the body and thigh. A little pressure applied with the left hand on the drumstick away from the body will help locate the hip joint and make the removal of the leg easier.

To carve the drumstick and thigh, first separate them at the joint. Next lay them flat on the platter and place the fork astride the bone and cut parallel to the bone.

After the necessary amount of dark meat has been carved, return to the bird and place the fork astride the breastbone and cut into the wing joint. Press down to dis-joint the wing.

Next, start cutting breast meat with a downward sawing motion. Thickness of slices may vary according to the carver and the needs of the occasion. When one side of the turkey is finished, reverse the turkey and repeat the process.

Beanblossom states that it is entirely proper for the person doing the carving to stand. It is also helpful if the guests will engage themselves in ordinary conversation and occasionally comment on how well the carver is doing the job. This helps to relieve the tension of those inexperienced in the art of carving turkey.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(Nellie Witt Spikes)

OUR THANKS, O LORD

By Edmund H. Brown

O Lord, while others offer thanks for wealth and fame and power and such.

Accept, we pray our gratitude for little things that mean so much. For all the beauty we can see in fertile acres stretching far; And oh, we thank Thee, Father, for pale-painted skies and evening star! For singing birds and flowers sweet, Dew-sprinkled grass at flush of dawn;

For drifted clouds against the blue And sunlight splashed upon the lawn.

For dear familiar sounds of home Expressing love more prized than gold.

We thank Thee that such things as these For us the sweetest pleasures hold.

We would give thanks for humble tasks
We needs must do for those we love,
The things that make our simple world
Wherein we daily live and move.

The little things - yet are they small?
Wealth cannot buy the peace they give.
And so we thank Thee, Lord, for these,
The little things that help us live.

So it is time for Thanksgiving again. How many thanks we owe our forefathers who felt the need and the joy of a day set apart in a new, strange, and often forbidding land where they had come so bravely to set up new homes. There are so many things that we need to take stock of and give thanks for many things. I know conditions look dark and many are grieved but the times when our Savior was here on earth were bad times. He never failed to give thanks and remember. He always gave thanks in advance of His petitions as well as thanks for the letter you got, a smile, a moment of joy and laughter, or a cherished moment that has passed.

The fires are warm, cold water quenches our thirst, the sky is blue. Count your blessings instead of counting your troubles and finding fault. Do we pick up unpleasant experiences and put them in our minds? As well put pieces of waste paper in our pockets instead of the paper money that has been blessed with the imprint of value.

God bless every one of you who read this column and may your day of Thanksgiving bring you many things to give thanks for. Prayer of the week: "Father, I cannot know what each day holds for me, for my loved ones, or for our world, but I accept your precious promise, and give thanks that all is well that even now Your perfect plan is unfolding in me and in the world! I believe; help Thou mine unbelief!" Amen

Thanksgiving

For 329 years, since the first year after the original colonists landed at Plymouth Rock, Americans have paused following the harvest season to offer Thanksgiving for the benefits that have been theirs.

There have been lean years as well as those that were bountiful. Peace—the credo of all Christian men—has in some years been replaced by warfare and strife. But on every Thanksgiving occasion there has been much for which we—and our forefathers—could give thanks.

At this Thanksgiving season there will be those of us who will discount the riches and blessings that have been our lot. But now—as never before in history—humanity looks to the United States for Thanksgiving. And all our people can be thankful that we share our bounty with the peoples of other lands in the cause of a permanent peace.

GRATITUDE

As Thanksgiving day draws near one begins to count his blessings and to wonder just what he should be thankful for on this day, the day set aside for prayer and praise.

The American people should feel grateful for the blessings that they, as a nation, enjoy. The freedoms are very important. Americans enjoy freedom of speech, freedom of worship, and freedom of the press. They are blessed with democratic form of government, free public schools, and an adequate supply of food. Their country has untold resources and many luxuries that are enjoyed by all. The down-trodden are given opportunities to rise and are not trampled underfoot.

This is the American way of life. Gratitude indeed should be in every heart on this Thanksgiving Day, and on every other day, as well.

Pep Assembly Held

On Friday, there was a pep rally in the auditorium at 9:00 o'clock. The band played several songs, and everyone joined in giving the school yell. Several of the teachers led a yell, and three of the football players led one also. The rally closed when the band seated in the balcony played the school song for group singing.

Big Spur Boys Take Floydada

The Spur Bulldogs pulverized the younger Floydada Whirlwinds 26-0. Power was the keynote of the Spur attack. However, beautiful faking and brilliant passing by quarterback Grimland had the Whirlwinds guessing throughout the contest. Dick Gibson, senior, 205 pound halfback, made the first score of the night. He went 12 yards to climax a 63 yard drive. Soon in the second quarter Gibson scored again, going 8 yards. The point was kicked to send the score to 13-0. A pass play covering 85 yds. from Grimland to Vernell McAlpine had the fans hysterical. Gibson scored the next play, covering 6 yards.

Early in the third quarter a pass from Grimland to Gibson covered 30 yards to end the scoring. The extra point was good.

Throughout the night Floydada was held to 2 first downs and 55 yds. rushing. The Whirlwinds completed only one pass for 15 yards. Spur's win over Floydada gave the Bulldogs the right to represent District 3-A in the state play-offs. Spur will play Levelland, the District 4-A representative, at Lubbock Thursday night, November 23.

Band News

The Whirlwind band journeyed to Spur to play for the last football game of the '50 season, Friday night. For the stunt the band made formations depicting the four seasons of the year.

The band formed a sleigh and played "Jingle Bells" to represent winter. It made a bicycle to represent spring and played "Daisy Bell." The group then formed a sail boat to represent summer and played "Sailing." The band signified fall by forming a school house and playing "Hail, Hail, the Gang's all Here."

 Jo Beth Mooney and Travis Young surely do have a good time in English I, the 3rd period.

Green and Ronnie surely do like 4th period math. Ronnie, she has a boy friend. What's the matter with Winnie??

Peggy Brown left us last week to get married. Best wishes, Peggy. Peggy Lanham's new boy friend is Keith Stansell. I see them together quite a lot.

Rumor has it that several freshman girls are having very little success in flirting with one of the upper classmen.

Jim Dan S. and Frances Allen seem to have a good time in 6th period English. What will James say, Frances??

Well, what have we here? Did you ever hear of Jimmy Vickers? It seems that he is going with Millie Carmack, and they have been having a pretty good time. Good luck, kids!

 It looks as if Norma R. and I surely do have a good time in 3rd period study hall. A love romance, maybe? What will you say, Norma?

Lorraine, looks as if Norma is beating your time, or do you see a couple.
 Say, Jimmy Derryberry and Len B. surely get along well together when Eddie Lyons is around.

News of the Aggies

Floydada chapter of Future Farmers sent to Tulla on November 18, to enter the chapter conducting and farm skill demonstration contests.

The Jr. and Sr. chapter conducting and the Sr. farm demonstration teams competed against eleven other schools. They were as follows: Plainview, Tulla, Kress, Hale Center, Quitaque, Lockney, Abernathy, Roaring Springs Silverton, Petersburg, and Happy.

The chapter sweetheart, Billee Newberry, went with the boys and their sponsor, Mr. Barber, and entered the sweetheart contest. She competed against the eleven schools listed above.

Registration papers were sent off last week for the pigs that were given to several of the boys from the Floydada chapter.

Most of the boys have received reservations for the Fort Worth Pat Stock show.

Assembly Program

An assembly program was given Tuesday, November 21, by the boys chorus under the direction of Miss Ruby Lee Bevil.

"We're the Boys of the Chorus" was their opening song. This song was written by Miss Bevil and some of the boys. Other songs were "Oh, Suzanna", "It's Me O Lord", "Nobody Knows", "Through a Long and Sleepless Night", and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot". Jackie Hutchinson, Billy Jo Hall, and Dennis Wilks were the featured soloists.

Lewis Reddy, Adrian Helms, Don McGuire, Alvin Simpson, and Dan Clark were the comedians.

The program was enjoyed by all, and the student body is looking forward to another program by the boys' chorus.

Introduce New Ford Friday

The 1951 Fords, featuring Fordomatic drive, the new automatic transmission, will be introduced in Ford dealership throughout the nation Friday.

(November 24) Bishop Motor company will show the new models in Floydada.

"Ford cars for 1951 accomplish notable refinements in styling, beauty, engineering, riding qualities, economy, safety and ease of handling," L. D. Crusoe, vice-president and general manager of Ford Division, announced.

Addition of the new automatic device will make available to Ford buyers a choice of three transmissions and two engines -- six different power combinations in all. Both the conventional three-speed transmission and the Ford overdrive will continue to be available. These, with the new Fordomatic drive, will be offered with either the 100-horsepower V8 or the improved 95-horsepower six engines.

Introduction of Fordomatic climaxes several years of intensive engineering research by the company to develop a fully automatic transmission that is simple to operate, economical, long wearing and easy to service. The device, which will be optional at extra cost, combines the advantages of a hydraulic torque converter and a planetary gear train to provide maximum performance and a smooth and economical flow of power.

The new models have a wide range of color combinations, and a choice of upholstery.

The "51 safety glo" instrument panel is completely new. A "channeled" instrument cluster adds safety and convenience, and the speedometer pointer has a glowing ring which encircles and illuminates the figures showing the speed.

A outstanding feature of the new cars is a new "softer" ride which is made possible by suspension improvements and automatic ride controls. A new control valve was developed in the hydraulic shock absorbers, which adjusts the cushioning effect. The Ford deluxe line includes the business coupe, tudor and fordor models. In the custom line are the club coupe, tudor, fordor and convertible. The Country Squire station wagon and the Crestliner complete the passenger car line. The V8 engine of the six are optional on all models except the convertible and the Crestliner.

A stitch in time gathers no moss. -Brown-Holmes Co.
