Light Rain And Freeze Due To Speed Harvest of Cotton

Cotton ginning in Floyd county this week approached the 50,000-bale mark, with 48,000 estimated by County Agent Robert H. Gibson for Tuesday night...

The harvest was slowed down somewhat by the light moisture over the week-end and by successive cold mornings beginning Sunday but practically all gins had a backlog of seed cotton and continued on a 24-hour basis...

Light moisture recorded here at 19-hundredths of an inch did not exceed about a quarter of an inch anywhere in the county, reports indicate. The drizzle was accompanied by cold that reached a low of 30 here on Sunday, 25 on Monday and 29 on Tuesday...

PROPERTY OWNERS ENTHUSIASTICALLY ASSENT TO HIWAY 70 PAVING PLANS

The enthusiastic acceptance by 65 or more property owners Tuesday night of the city's plan to carry through on a voluntary program of curb and gutter improvement on Highway 70 through Floydada, led city officials this week to believe that they are going to get the unanimous approval of all the property owners...

There are about 150 property owners who have lots adjacent to the highway, a few of them non-residents, but those who attended Tuesday night's call of the city council to discuss the city's proposal were all for it, and the authorities believe the probability of a dissenter is most unlikely...

In the meeting at which Mayor J. A. Patterson presided, the proposal of the city was gone into by Richard F. Stovall for the council. Points principally stressed were: (1) The city is committed to the project in connection with an improvement program the State Highway Department now has on the boards for re-constructing the highway through the city...

(2) A voluntary program, quickly approved and quickly financed by escrow payments, will save the property owners 25 per cent to 30 per cent of the cost that would be entailed if the city has to carry out the program under separate engineering and construction with assessments against the property owners to meet the cost...

Particular advantage to the property owners in the proposal other than the money saving, is the fact that all of the work can be carried along, all at the same time under one authority. The property owners, who are taxpayers of course, also will help their city in an economy move to avoid extensive costs which separate contracts and assessments would involve...

Among those at the meeting who expressed willingness to go ahead under the voluntary plan were W. A. Gound, Glad Snodgrass, W. J. Waller and C. D. Poote. The last-named will have some expense in moving improvements adjacent to the right-of-way. At least six property owners have this same problem. Among these is Panhandle Oil and Refining company, which already has extensive changes under way in anticipation of the street improvement program...

For the city council City Attorney Stovall pointed out the necessity for the approval and financing campaign to be finished in a hurry. "We need to have all the money in escrow in 30 days to get out of the way of the highway department," he said. This will call for fast work, with 150 property owners to be contacted...

Television Sets Await Programs

A considerable number of television sets already installed over Floyd county have been alerted for the first television program available in this area to be aired tonight beginning at 8:00 this evening. Views and Comment

New line up in Texas interscholastic football puts Floydada high school back into approximately the accustomed pattern, with teams the school has been in the habit of playing as their opponents next year. The change as reported, among other things, puts Slaton high back on the local schedule. It adds Tahoka, but leaves Paducah in a bracket further east and south. Lockney required to move back up a notch to 2A doesn't get as good a break, catching at least two conference opponents that always put out big, bruising teams.

A map of Texas with the counties marked up showing how the majority voted in the general election, reflects the fact that people do, consciously or unconsciously, vote their pocketbooks to some extent. Take the area of the state where the government hay distribution has been the salvation of a good many small herds of livestock and you'll find most of them in the Democratic column, whereas where this consideration was not effective and the people were hit by the drastic drop in the price of cattle and sheep the counties went into the Eisenhower camp. Incidentally it might not be amiss to say that Texas has no more gone into the Republican camp this year than it did in 1928. Just came along one of those situations where the party asked the people to go along with more than they could stomach.

It is a fact that while the retail price of beef has come down to some extent the cattlemen are right in the general statement that "even though cattle prices have declined drastically the price of meat over the counter has gone down very little as every consumer well knows." The cattlemen were right, it turns out, in trying to keep the government's hand out of the meat regulating business. It is a far cry from the government proceeding without regard to cost in a high emergency like was probably justified during a part of the time in World War II, to trumping up reasons for taking over to meet the hue and cry of the rabble in the kind of "emergency" that has been in effect in the meat industry the past year or so.

Perhaps it ought to go into the records that many, many, families have little or no meat on their menus in the United States these days. After other expenses, including taxes, there isn't any money left in these homes for the luxury of meat, especially the higher priced cuts. A good many people right here in Floydada are not acquainted with that fact any more than are the government people. One way many have been getting around paying for the expensive government-patterned hoop la prices for meats has been to "go in with the neighbors" on a beef. This practice has kept meat on many tables where the families could afford to pay the high retail prices but had no intention of doing so. While the retailers have viewed this practice as coming under the head of the customers' own business the government has seemed to frown on it as an evasion of the control program.

For the record. For those who may be interested in the way our vote finally went in the general election last week, we should put it in the record that we did vote for the Democratic nominees. While most others made up their minds with ease one way or the other, we halted between opinions on the question of how to be rid of what we had in Washington without getting what we used to have there. For a person who is not sure that what he did was the right thing it is a comfort that the rest of the electors also voted their own convictions and that we now have in the works the results of their composite judgment of what is best for the country.

Of all the clubs and civic organizations of one kind another that you meet-yourself-coming-back-from-one-of-them-when-you-start-to-another, our weakness or fancy is the Junior Chamber of Commerce, called Jaycees for short. Young fellows who haven't learned yet that things can't be done, they crash brick walls, fight windmills, insist that staid property owners should put some, deplore unsanitary conditions. Not only do they talk, they also work and often. Most of the things that don't get done in the community are matters which are discussed, passed on favorably and referred to a committee, the members of which have something else to do and do it as soon as dismissed. Not so, so often, with the Jaycees. Right now—months ahead they are talking to the postal department. Can't we have more good looks, up-to-dateness and conveniences at about the same cost, they ask, down at the post office? Can't the department pay enough to get something that will somewhat impress the thousands of anonymous persons who visit Floydada post office? The young men don't know but that some such a thing can be done. The old heads are afraid it will raise taxes, as though taxes hadn't already been done a pretty good job by.

Milk production may be cut as much as 25 per cent by heavy infestations of cattle grubs in the milking herd.

Hornless cattle can be fed and housed in less space and with less danger of injury. Horns have no place in the dairy herd.

Conservation District News

An irrigated pasture has been worth $1800 to S. J. Latta who has 20 acres of irrigated pasture east of Floydada.

Mr. Latta, who is a cooperater with the Floyd County Soil Conservation district, started the business of irrigated pasture by seeding ten acres of preennial rye and yellow blossom clover. This fall, he seeded another block of pasture — which is a mixture of preennial rye, Bromegrass, Orchard grass and Kentucky 31.

Mr. Latta wishes to have 30 acres of pasture on which to carry as many cattle as possible. This grazing started in March this year with 35 head of cattle; 25 head were stock cows and five head were yearling heifers. The irrigated pasture was grazed about ten days then irrigated and allowed to make a new growth before grazing.

Mr. Latta states he received about 80 days grazing with 35 head on the first ten-acre pasture of preennial rye and yellow blossom clover from March to the first of November.

The spring planted ten acre pasture of preennial rye was first grazed about June 15. The same system of watering and grazing was followed on this pasture as was used on the older planting. There was considerable annual grasses and some volunteer cane which provided a lot of grazing in the spring planted pasture. It was grazed four times for a total of 40 days grazing by 35 head of cattle.

The only time the 35 head of cattle were off the two ten acre pastures and the 15 acre stomp lot was during the month of August when a 20 acre native grass pasture was grazed. Last month Mr. Latta began feeding bundles to supplement his pastures.

During the year Mr. Latta sold ten of his steer calves for about $1800. Although pastures are very profitable on some farms, it will depend on the farmer's interest as well as his farming system whether he should have an irrigated pasture on his farm.

These are some observations made by Mr. Latta during the establishment of his irrigated pastures: (1) If the land needs leveling, be sure to level before a good stand of grass and legumes is established; (2) Put in temporary borders to control irrigation water; (3) Make some small drills in the direction the water should go; (4) Drill the seed about 1/2 to one inch in depth; (5) Water grass and allow about ten to 14 days for drying and new growth; (6) Mow to control weeds which are not grazed.

Mr. Latta plans to take advantage of the fact that the pasture is building up his soil by plowing up one block after it has been in pasture for a few years. Seeding pasture looks like a good way to kill two birds with one stone; improvement of the soil and reaping a large profitable yield.

DEDICATED TO THE COMFORT OF MY DEMOCRATIC BRETHREN

I got up this morning, ate some biscuit, butter and molasses, went to town and found the Democrats flabbergasted.

I went walking down the street and there sat an old Democrat. I says to him, "Brother you look like a little bunny." "Oh, go on," he says, "it's not so funny."

I says, brother, cheer up and have some fun, the worst may be yet to come.

I went on a little further and there sat another old Democrat. He began to snif and whine. He said "Adlia fell far behind."

Reading and Lighting and 'Rithmetic

Look what some figure-happy statistician just found out. From kindergarten through high school, school kids have to plow through a pile of books 18 feet high. A photograph taken of this pile of books would make your eyes ache.

Close visual work is hard on the eyes. A New York State survey of 83,000 students showed only one in 20 kids had vision defects at kindergarten age. By senior high, eye troubles affected six students in 20.

Good lighting is one readily available means of making seeing easier for these students. Lighting engineers find that over half the schools still use old, globe-type fixtures that give only one-sixth the light that ought to be on the desks.

In those schools that have installed modern lighting, teachers report that students are more eager to study, are happier and require less discipline. The teachers find their jobs easier.

To help schools analyze what light is needed, General Electric engineers work out various lighting systems in model classrooms where effects can be demonstrated and compared. A booklet is offered, "Making Schoolwork Easier on the Eyes," in which current practices are summed up. (Write the Lamp Division, Nela Park, Cleveland, Ohio.)

It is the aim of General Electric to translate its engineering help into public service at the community level.

Foster and family, both of Plainview.

Next time you want to study parent-child relations first hand, go to the grocery store during the rush hour. There you'll find all shadings of (a) long-suffering little ones, (b) impatient mammas, (c) spoiled brats, and (d) happily adjusted families.

We reached there the other day at what must have been nursery hour, for almost every basket cart was equipped with a youngster. One small fry was bullying his mother by screaming loudly whenever she refused him the six boxes of cookies, ten bananas, eight bars of candy and other essential foods which he persistently loaded into the basket. Another, much too young to understand what he had done wrong, would get shaken, no-need, or hand-slapped every time he made an inquiring motion toward the boxes and sacks in his mother's cart. When he asked to be taken up, she snapped: "No! You sit right there until we're ready to go!" Thus taking all possible pleasure out of the pushcart ride.

One patient little fellow, whose mother had evidently got her nap that afternoon, was struggling with a box of frozen chicken. If he let it slip back into the cart, she would gently restore it to the small seat in which he was riding. Finally, when he tired of the game and began to fret, she picked him up quietly and held him in her arms as the groceries were being checked.

After all the turmoil we had witnessed as we threaded our way among shelves and shoppers, it was like a blessing.

We wanted to say to the other mothers we had passed: "Pardon me, madam; did you know your home life is showing?"

Whirlwinds in First Conference Battle Defeat Whitefaces 31 to 0

(by Kenneth Rimmer)

The Floydada Whirlwinds made it eight straight victories for the season last Friday night at Wester field when they defeated the Hereford Whitefaces 31 to 0. It was the first conference game for both clubs.

Floydada and Canyon are now tied for the district 2AA lead with one win and no losses in conference play.

edy Hereford back, also proved to be a dangerous runner.

Dane Clark, Wind fullback, was the big gainer for the locals, and passing by Carmack and Clark also accounted for much yardage. Targets for the Whirlwind passers were Chapman, Stovall, Bearden, Clark and Helms. The Floydada line played its usual fine game and also presented their ball carriers the pig skin in scoring territory twice, once on a fumble and once on a blocked punt.

Helms played a good game even though he was on the ailing list, but was not called to carry the mail his usual number of times.

First Quarter Sparring
The Whitefaces kicked to the Winds to open the game, and most STANLEY VICKERS — Whirlwind tackle is a sophomore, but is seeing considerable service this season. Blocking a punt against Hereford last Friday Stanley set up the Winds last touchdown.

JIMMY DUNN — Whirlwind tackle has seen lots of service this year in his line position. Though not a starter Dunn has shown up well and has another year with the Winds.

of the first quarter was spent in testing the opposing lines. Both teams showed a good offense in mid-field, but were unable to penetrate very deep. The stiff south wind played a big part in the game and kept the Winds fighting to keep the ball away from their own goal line in the first quarter.

In the second stanza things began to pick up and the locals were able to pick up 19 points. The first score came when Billy Carmack went over from the one yard line to score following a 70-yard jaunt by full back Dane Clark who did a fancy bit of running after blockers cleared him into the secondary. The first two kicks for the point after touchdown were blocked. The third score came when Carmack hit end Brooks Chapman for a 55-yard pass and run. This was a beautiful pass play with Chapman finding the ball hanging over his shoulder. He took it without breaking stride or slowing up. He was not seriously threatened in going the remaining distance. The PAT was also a pass. This time Carmack to Frank Stovall. This ended the scoring for the first half, but the whistle found the Whitefaces in hot water owning the ball on their own one yard line. Score at halftime 19-0.

The Hereford band and pep squad performed first at the half time and were followed by the Whirlwind representatives. The fine performances of both schools were enjoyed by the fans.

Punting Duel Opens Second Half

Opening the second half the Winds kicked to the Hereford team. The two clubs found the going rough on the offensive and an exchange of long punts followed. Connie Bearden's punt sailed 55 yards and over the goal line. The Whitefaces put the ball in play from the 20 where they fumbled and Charles Hartman, hard charging Whirlwind tackle recovered for the locals. On a running jump pass Carmack hit Bearden and he worked his way across the goal line for the score. The kick for point after touchdown was no good and the score at the end of the quarter was 25 to 0.

The fourth quarter score came after Stanley Vickers charged through from his tackle position to back a Hereford punt on the Whiteface 18. The ball bounced back to the one yard line where it was covered by Stovall to give the Winds possession from that point. Clark pushed over from the one for the score. Pass for extra point was no good. This ended scoring for the night and the game ended shortly thereafter. Hereford spent most of the last period trying desperately to score with their passing game. Final score 31-0.

Starting for the Winds were Reddy, Bearden, Clark, Baxter, Chapman, Barber, Hartman, Stovall, Carmack, Helms and Grimes. Others seeing action included Gordon Joiner, W. J. Hardine, Billy Baker, Stanley Vickers, Jackie Jarrett, Jimmy Dunn, Zack Cummings, Ronnie Upton and Kent Covington.

The Whirlwind line played its usual good game and kept the Whitefaces pretty well at bay throughout the game. The Hereford center had trouble getting the ball back to his backfield men most of the time. Guards Grimes and Reddy may know what his trouble was.

In the yardage department FHS gained 211 yards rushing, HHS 125; the Winds passed for 140 yards and the Whitefaces went to the air for 55 yards; both clubs were penalized 85 yards. Clark was high man for the Winds scoring 12 points and gaining 148 yards in 15 tries. For the Whitefaces Duane Wallace had a net of 52 yards on running plays.

Hereford "B's" Defeat Winds

Last Thursday night the Whirlwind B squad journeyed to Hereford and were defeated 19-0. The Hereford team was a little too much for Coach Paul Huntington's charges. The Whirlwind "B's" have one more game this season before winding up their football practice.

ther Appling's sermon on stewardship made me think of the following lines, but of course, (they could not possibly be true, or could they?)

Stewardship
 I bought gasoline; I went to the show;
 I bought some new tubes for my radio;
 I bought candy and peanuts, nut bars and ice cream;
 While my salary lasted, life sure was a scream.
 It takes a careful spending to make money go round.
 One's method of finance must always be sound.
 With habits quite costly, its real hard to save;
 My wife spent ten "bucks" for a permanent wave;
 The church came around begging.
 It sure made me sore;
 If they'd let me alone, I'd give a lot more.
 They have plenty of nerve: They forget all the past;
 I gave them a quarter the year before last.

— From Lookout.

Center News

(by Mrs. J. E. Green)
 CENTER, November 13. — More beautiful days. After a cold, rainy Sunday. But we can use some more rain. Never the less, we had a very good crowd Sunday.
 Bro. Raby, of Wayland, preached Sunday morning in the absence of Bro. Hodges. The Hodges were called away Sunday to attend the funeral of a young relative at Leveland. The young man, who was in the army, was killed in a car accident in Alabama. Our deepest sympathy.
 There is some sickness in our community. Mrs. Ross has been ill with the virus flu. So was Mary Grace Dunn. Both are able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Green and Don Clark made a trip to Lubbock last Wednesday. Mrs. Green visited a while in Lorenzo on the way back with old pioneer friends, Mrs. Roy Ezell and Mrs. "Fiddler" Robertson.
 Mr. and Mrs. Victor Green spent the week-end with his home folks, the J. E. Greens and attended church here Sunday.

Friday afternoon Don Clark and Margaret Green and Mrs. Green went to Phillips to visit relatives. They found the Grandmother, Mrs. K. J. Matthews, who visits here often, just back from the hospital and still confined to her bed. The Greens returned home Saturday afternoon.

Some of the club women attended the Achievement Day at South Plains Saturday. The others regret that they could not go.

The Vinsons and Allens report a very enjoyable and profitable fishing trip.

The community enjoyed a tacky party Tuesday night at the school house. About 40 people were present.

Jolene Robertson visited Sunday in the home of her Grandparents, the J. R. Robertsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Plumlee and baby of Los Cruces, New Mexico, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Plumlee. Bobby is on furlough. We were glad to have them in church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Denison attended the funeral service at Littlefield last Wednesday for Mrs. Berry Campbell, a cousin of Mrs. Dennison's.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennison visited in Lubbock, Monday with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer Dennison and family.

The Home Demonstration club will meet Friday, November 14 with Mrs. Walter Sims. Women, all come and bring somebody with you.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ardry of Highmore, South Dakota, came to Floydada Monday to visit friends and to visit with Mrs. Ardry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Davis of Hale Center. They had been in Borger visiting their daughter Mrs. C. M. Reynolds.

The flip of a lever eliminates dead furrows with the Massey-Harris No.33 Roll-Over Plow

There's no longer need for troublesome dead furrows splitting your fields. The new Massey-Harris No. 33 Roll-Over plow lets you start on one side of the field and plow on the same "land" until the entire field is plowed. Just flip the lever when you come to the end of the field. The "top" plow automatically rotates into position and locks rigidly in place. You can turn on a dime and wheel down the furrow you've just made. You don't waste fuel and time crossing wide headlands. It's ideal for contours, hillsides and level land.

Stop in and see the new, revolutionary Massey-Harris No. 33 Roll-Over plow next time you're in town. We'll show you how it'll save you time and money in your fields.

Organize Fund Drive for Free County Library

A county-wide organization to give every person in the various communities an opportunity to donate to the county free library fund will be launched November 17 and continue through November 30. Plans for the campaign were announced by Mrs. James H. Barnard following a meeting of the library steering committee Monday afternoon in the library room of the court house.

Mrs. Barnard, who was chairman of the meeting, said: "The committee plans to stress the buying of books for children and young people, recreational, inspirational, how-to-do-it books and other books that stand the test of time and real value.

"From our teachers in the schools we learn that books for English assignments are greatly needed.

"Tuesday at the high school, each student was asked to hand a list of 5 books they would like to see placed on the library shelves. The teachers, county wide, will be able to give us much important matter on book selection for the library.

"The committee plans to contact the Floydada ward school principal and the principal of each rural school and of the two Lockney schools."

Take Organization Measures

Judge Frank L. Moore and the commissioners court are working on two most important steps in getting the library to functioning. First, it is their plan to appoint a county library board, which will act on behalf of the court in administering the library, with final approval resting in the hands of the court; and second, they hope to soon announce the appointment of a librarian.

Mrs. Sam Spence, county treasurer, will handle the gift money on behalf of the Commissioners court. From the tax money collected into the general fund of the county, the library fund is being given its proportionate share as set aside by the court in the county budget for 1953.

The library's county fund accrues only as current taxes are paid. Five cents of each dollar, paid into the general fund of the county, less collection percentage, goes into the newly created library fund. This fund cannot be expended for any other purpose.

Floyd County Library Fund

Mrs. Spence requests that all gifts checks be made to "Floyd County Library Fund." The committee precinct workers will turn in their cash and check donations to Judge Moore or to Mrs. Spence. Weekly reports of the amounts of gifts donations will be published in the county papers.

Present at the meeting Monday afternoon were Mesdames Joe Foster, Charles Boedecker, Dee Copeland, Ewald Quebe, Ed Holmes, Chas. Smith, Riley Holmes, Howard Drysdale, West Thornton, Mesdames Bill Staniforth, Menard Fields, W. R. Daniel, John Shipley, and Mrs. Billy Brown, Ed Wester, Miss Jane Hale, Jim Word, and Olin Watson.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Barnard had a meeting with the Lockney superintendent of schools, J. B. Irons and others, Mrs. Dee Copeland was elected chairman for Lockney with Mrs. Edgar Hays as assistant chairman. All the Lockney clubs will be contacted for the fund drive for the library, beginning next Monday.

session the same day indicted Farmer, charging murder with malice.

Change of Venue Ordered

An effort to get a jury in a trial set for June 25 of the same year in 99th district court failed and Judge G. V. Pardue ordered a change of venue to Floyd county on June 28. Trial here was delayed until the latter part of October while the new court house was being completed. The trial was finished and turned over to the jury in a night session on November 1. The defendant pleaded temporary insanity, saying he blacked out and was unconscious of events for more than a day before the fatal shooting. His former wife and family spent the period of his trial here in loyal support of their husband and father, and one daughter, a 19-year-old miss, testified for her father.

To Appeals Court February 23

Judge Alton B. Chapman overruled the amended motion for new trial filed by court-appointed defense attorneys on November 29. Statements of fact and bills of exception filed February 23 of this year went to the higher court in the form of a transcript on March 31.

Attorneys for the defense and state filed briefs on the first of September and the case was argued before the high court on October 8. District Attorney Travis Shelton of the 99th court and District Attorney John B. Stapleton of the 110th court appeared for the state and Clifford Brown and Lawrence Melcher, of Lubbock, for the defendant. Brown and Melcher, together with Kenneth Bain, Jr., were court-appointed representatives of the defendant.

If the higher court refuses the motion for new hearing the mandate in the case will come back to the Floyd county court for sentence to be passed. In this event the 110th district judge will have the responsibility of pronouncing sentence and setting the date for the execution of the death penalty.

The case is the first in Floyd county judicial annals in which a jury returned a death penalty.

of biege taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice tapering to points at the waist in the front and back and attached to a full shirred skirt.

She wore half mitts of taffeta and carried a net fan accented with white mums showered with satin ribbon. Her stole was net and she wore a hat of net with a satin bow at the back.

Miss Mary Louise Manning and Miss Velma Seale, bridesmaids, chose aqua net gowns fashioned similar to that of the maid of honor. They also wore net stoles, taffeta mitts and carried fans with mums.

The flower girls, Nancy Hall, Hereford, niece of the bridegroom and Janice Preston, Littlefield, niece of the bride, wore white net dresses, half mitts and carried satin baskets trimmed with net.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractive in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a strapless bodice which was shirred in front, and taffeta fashioned with a collar effect and had small covered buttons down the front. The skirt was full and extended to ballerina length. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a halo of net and satin accented with seed pearls. She wore satin mitts and carried a white bible lapped with a cascade of white slipper mums and stephanotis. For something old she wore a penny in her shoe, new was a necklace of seed pearls, a gift from her sister, Mrs. Sterling Cummings. Something borrowed was a bible belonging to Velma Seale and something blue was a garter given her by Mary Louise Manning. Best man was G. V. Hall, Hereford brother of the groom, and ushers were Dan Trew, Hereford and Wayne Collins Floydada.

Mrs. Jim Mercer of Canyon secured names for the register. For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Norman selected a wine wool suit and navy accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a gray suit complimented with black accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Reception at South Plains
A reception honoring the couple was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cummings of South Plains. The bride's chosen colors of aqua, brown, and white featured in the table and room decorations.

The serving table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a crystal punch bowl surrounded with white mums interspersed with brown oak leaves. The wedding cake and candelabra holding blue tapers completed the table appointments.

Misses Jo and Barbara Hall served punch and cake and Mrs. N. E. Tyler presided at the bride's book. For the wedding to Santa Fe, New Mexico, Mrs. Hall wore a brown and gold suit complimented with brown accessories and corsage of white mums.

Mrs. Hall is a graduate of Lockney High school and attended West Texas State college, Canyon. Mr. Hall graduated from Floydada High school and attended North Texas State college, Denton. He is engaged in farming at Hereford where the couple will live.

KITCHEN AND FIELD NEWS

(from Floyd County Rural Electric Cooperative, Inc.)

Nancy Morekel and Claude Weathers

Irrigation wells have been connected recently for—

Reed Lawson of Lone Star community, Floyd county;

O. A. Stout, Hale Center; Walter Hanna and Jack Parkey, Harmony community, Floyd county;

Wm. C. Koeing, Fred Borchardt, and Fritz Steinfeld of Providence community, Floyd county;

And E. B. Noel of Muncy community, Floyd county.

Bad and Katherine Turner went to Dinmitt Thursday night to a Thanksgiving supper given by the Willson & Son Lumber company of the Dinmitt for the employees and their families of all the Willson lumber yards in this area.

Opal Rogers visited in Abilene over the week-end with her uncle, C. R. Rogers and family.

There will be ironer demonstrations in the REA kitchen, Thursday and Friday, November 13 and 14. There will be a demonstration each morning from 10:00 to 11:00 and one each afternoon* from 2:30 to 3:00. Mrs. Alma Pearson will iron a shirt in less than three minutes blindfolded. Everyone is invited to attend. All dealers are welcome to use the demonstration kitchen, and we are always glad when specialists come our way. Hope it will be possible for you to be with us on one of these days.

On Wednesday afternoon, November 19, 2:00 p.m., at the REA kitchen, in Floydada, Bob Gibson, county agent, will give a demonstration on how to bone a turkey and make turkey steaks.

This is a very interesting demonstration — turkey steaks are delicious — and this is such a nice way to store some turkey in your food freezer.

Everyone is invited to attend.

It's wise to remember —

When power goes off, first check for a blown fuse. If that is not the trouble, call us. Replace a blown fuse only with a fuse. Anything else may cause trouble. The fuse is the safety valve of your electric system.

If you see anything wrong anywhere along the pole line, let your co-op know at once. Be sure to give a definite location.

Never touch wires unless you are absolutely sure the current is shut off.

Have all wiring done by a competent electrician with approved materials and according to specifications recommended by your co-op and by REA. (National electric code.) Electricity and moisture do not touch electric cords or appliances with wet hands or while standing in a wet place.

Do not run extension cords under rugs, over nails or around pipes or radiators. When you disconnect an appliance, pull on the plug, not on the cord.

Do not hesitate to call your co-op, come by the office or write for information at any time. This is your co-op—it's purpose is to serve you.

Start your turkey-shopping early for one of the ways to save holiday time, suggests the U. S. Department of Agriculture specialists, to those homemakers who will be buying turkeys to put in their home freezer. However they advise against stuffing the birds before freezing because of the risk of food poisoning. What may seem like convenient advance preparation, they warn, may be a health hazard. Stuffing inside a turkey takes a long time to reach the freezing point. Meanwhile, bacterial growth may start and continue later as the bird thaws, and then as it warms up slowly in the oven. One study made by industry showed that the center of the stuffing did not get hot enough to kill spoilage bacteria until long after the meat of the bird was well cooked.

Demonstrations will be arranged for any group of our members — please contact us about the things you are interested in attending.

On November 21, Ray Tilson, of Amarillo, will give a sewing machine demonstration at the REA kitchen. Everyone is invited to attend. How to do cut-work with a dial-stitch machine is one of the things that will be demonstrated.

Melvin Henry, manager, Lee Rushing, Route 3, Floydada, Oliver Harmel, Route 1, Plainview, directors; and W. E. Grimes, attorney, attended the Texas power reserve meeting in San Antonio last week.

W. C. Snodgrass, Herman King, Oliver Harmel, Earl Edwards and W. E. Grimes attended board of directors meeting on Monday at the co-op office.

K. L. (Red) Gregory, and Arthur Womack, Jr., will attend a meter school at A. and M. college, College Station, Texas, from November 10 to November 14.

Miss Susie Johnson of Amarillo State home management supervisor with Farmer's Home administration was here for a meeting on Friday in the county court room. This was a meeting for their garden demonstrators and a follow-up meeting of the garden tour made last July. On this tour Miss Johnson made pictures from which colored slides have been made. These slides were shown and a round table discussion of the methods that had been followed in each particular picture were discussed. It made an interesting and worth-while program, as each picture told a story and showed the advantages and disadvantages of different procedures.

At the meeting held in the county court room recently in regard to the CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) in Floyd county, the group decided that a trailer would be placed at the gin in each community in which any cotton anyone wishes to donate to this program could be placed. Be sure and remember this worthwhile program and help Floyd county meet its quota.

Bill Hodel of Lockney was a co-visitor on Tuesday morning. Be sure and mark the demonstration dates on your calendar — we are looking forward to having you with us.

Is the biggest "little" business in Texas?

Texans can't do business without truck transportation.

No community can exist, even if it is on a rail line, without trucks to haul goods away from the railroad and get them to stores and homes.

There are 1,788 Texas towns that have no rail service at all. If it were not for trucks, they would have no commerce with the rest of the State and the nation.

Wherever you live in Texas, whatever you do—trucking services are essential to your way of life. Trucks belong!

The Ford F-5 is the most popular heavy-duty truck, nationwide, in the 1 1/2-ton weight class! It out-sells everything in its class, because it out-values competition. Here's an all-purpose performer with a payload capacity that goes over 8,000 lbs. ... lets you carry big bulky loads with ease. Choose new V 8 power—or all-new Six!

Put Yourself in a Nash Rambler

The New Kind of Car Specifically Designed for Today's Traffic

WHEN you put yourself behind the wheel of this compact custom car, you'll discover a whole new motoring "feel". You'll snake through traffic with feather-light handling ease... cruise effortlessly on the open road.

Yes, in a smart Nash Rambler, you'll feel equally at home in city traffic or open highway!

You'll slide into tight parking spots that other cars must pass up. And whether you're engaged in stop-and-go driving or long-distance cruising, the miles will slip by with scarcely a flicker of the gas gauge. This is the all-time record holder in the Mobilgas Economy Run—31.05 miles to the gallon with over-drive.

You'll be amazed at the spaciousness that is yours to enjoy in this compact automobile. Plenty of room for your family to travel in comfort. And like all Nash cars, the Rambler provides the extra safety and rigidity of exclusive Airflyte Construction.

You get value plus in the beautiful Rambler—you enjoy a whole host of custom "extras" at no extra cost—even de luxe radio and Weather Eye Conditioned Air System.

Yes—put yourself in a Nash Rambler today, the new kind of car specifically designed for today's driving and parking. It's the car for you.

See us and make a "Traffic-Test."
