Harris Heads Local Lions

The annual election of Lions Club officers last week elevated Weldon Harris to president and moved Tommy Assiter from 2nd vice-president to 1st vice-president.

A very interesting race for tall twister was climaxed, after much campaigning on the part of Arlis Powell and Don Cheek, when Ed Wester was nominated from the floor and won a clear decision over three other contestants.

Louis Anderson was named to the 2nd vice-president spot, Jack Covington remained in office as secretary, and Powell was named Lion tamer.

Bill Cagle and Glenn Black were named to the Board of Directors. Holdover directors are Wilson Bond, Don Cheek and Olin Watson, Jr. The new officers will be installed July 1.

With $425,000 in the bank for the building of the new Caprock Hospital District hospital, almost $30,000 collected in taxes and a vote of the people favoring the building of the hospital, its construction has been delayed now for almost a year by the group of plaintiffs bringing suit. It is evident that the new suit will again delay the building of the hospital.

At press time there was no official comment from the hospital board, nor the commissioner's court.

There was considerable discussion about the new suit alleging that county tax appraisals were not up to market value... and that improvements were not on the tax roll.

The entire suit is as follows:

"Rene Yeary et al vs Caprock Hospital District. Attorneys for plaintiff are Thomas J. Griffith and Ed M. O'Conner III both of Lubbock."

"Plaintiff's Original Petition"

"To the Honorable Judge of Said Court."

Glimpses Of Five New Books Given Club By Mrs. McIntosh

The 1922 Study Club met last Thursday in the parlor of the First Baptist Church with the program and social committees as hostesses.

Mrs. J. H. Barnard gave the devotional based on a recent story of Genesis at the First Methodist Church. This study was taught by Mrs. Jack McIntosh and was very challenging. "In the beginning, God..." We are all called to be God's gardeners, but God never coerces us as we are created sons and daughters of God, free to choose wisely or foolishly. Also the lives of the great patriarchs of the Bible are depicted in Genesis and challenge us to follow God's way as individuals and as nations.

Mrs. McIntosh gave the club members and twenty-five guests interesting glimpses into five new books by women authors: "The Trouble With Being a Mama" by Eva Rutland, an educated negro Mother's autobiography; born in a non integrated state but rearing her family in California where her husband is in military service. "On Our Way Rejoicing" by Ingrid Trowbisch, a Lutheran missionary-minister rears ten sons and daughters who now serve as missionaries or ministers over the entire world. This biography needs "tighter" writing.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank all of those who supported me for Mayor in the City election April 6th; I hold no ill will for those who did not see fit to vote for me for Mayor; I did my best to be a Mayor for all of the people for the four years you honored me with this office.

Many changes were made in the administration of our city government during my administration which we felt was necessary if we were to keep pace with progress for our community.

I have personally expressed to each of the Aldermen who have served with me so loyally and efficiently my deep appreciation for the many long hours and days we have labored together during these four years but I want to thank them publicly and want the citizens to know that they have been a dedicated and hard working team, we are grateful to all of the citizens of our community for your support.

Again thanks for the great honor you entrusted in me as your Mayor and I pledge to my successor my full cooperation and help in any way that I can for the success of his administration for I am for progress and the betterment of my community always.

doubt in my mind about a blanket increase. If some genius could come up with some method of evaluating and rating a teacher's ability...then teacher's should be paid on this basis.

In looking at our local tax situation, it is plain to see that the Governor's plan will require a lot more "local" tax money although his plan will cost a considerable amount less money...and of course will grant the teacher a smaller salary increase.

The Governor's plan will also hit the local tax pot for 20% of text book and retirement programs which we haven't had before.

Agreed that state money comes from the tax payer also...it's all money out of our pocket. Yet, the state money comes from several sources other than our property taxes.

Our property in the Floydada school district has all the tax it can stand. On this basis we would have to favor the TSTA plan for two reasons: 1. It will give our teachers a good pay scale, which will in term keep them from leaving and going to some other state which pays more. 2. It will not cost us as much tax on the local level.

And, now that we're on the topic of school taxes...it is apparent that some other means besides real and personal property must help bear the increased costs of our schools.

I was reading a big article in a New York paper not long ago in which it stated that some type of city sales tax would have to be used in that state to take care of the booming school needs...real and personal property tax had carried all of the expense it could stand.

This makes sense...this will get taxes from your migrant worker who may be here with his children in school for a three or four month period...and under the present plan pays no school taxes.

A city sales tax would get

Dr. Standifer received his Ph.D. in Plant Physiology and has worked the past three years with a team of two agricultural engineers, two agronomists, and two Extension Specialists in trying to develop techniques for the safe use of Trifluralin.

In his discussion, Dr. Standifer will cover work done in South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, particularly, relating to methods of incorporation and the adverse effects of the herbicide on cotton in relation to the depth and method of incorporation into the soil.

Degge said the meet is planned to begin at 6:30 p.m. with a barbecue, courtesy of the chemical distributors of the area and will be served in the Plainview High School Cafeteria.

Degge traveled to Dumas Monday night and spoke to a group of about 50 farmers concerning the forming of a Weed Control District in Moore County.

Boone Adams Joins Hinton Well Service

Boone Adams, of Ralls, has assumed the management of the Hinton Well Service in Floydada. He replaces the late Tex Thornton who was manager until his death in February. Adams and his wife, Ruth, have two daughters, Patty, age 14, and Johnnie, age 5. They have purchased a house in the Steen addition of Floydada and will move this weekend.

The appraisal and assessment for taxes within said district does not take into consideration the great difference in actual market value of irrigated farm land, non-irrigated farm land and pasture land, all of which results in an inequitable taxation upon the real property within said Caprock Hospital District.

The appraisal and assessment for taxes within said district does not take into consideration as to whether or not said real property is infested with the noxious bindweed, resulting in a lower market value of real property so infested.

The appraisal and assessment for taxes within said district does not take into consideration government allotments for each individual parcel of said real property within said district, resulting in an inequitable taxation.

The appraisal and assessment for taxes does not take into consideration the lowering of the underground water level, and subsequently reduction in irrigation capability of said real property, all resulting in a lower market value of said land.

The appraisal and assessment is grossly inequitable as among the several property owners within the district, varying from two percent to 15 percent of the fair market value of such property.

The defendants, Hollis Bond et al as directors of the Caprock Hospital District intend to issue bonds based upon the general tax revenues to be realized by the tax assessments and collections by defendant, C. J. Payne."

1254 Floyd County Farms Join Cotton, Feed Grain Programs

After the deadline had passed that a farmer could sign for the 1965 Cotton, Feed Grain program 1,254 of a possible 1,425 Floyd County farmers had joined the program, according to Tom Hutchins, manager of the local ASC Office.

A total acreage of 188,871 could have been in the program and 173,500 were signed-up. A total of 66,087 acres is to be diverted from active production in connection with the program. The diverted acres can be put in Castor Beans, Sesame, or another crop, as long as the crop does not violate the program, or the land can be fallowed.

The county's base cotton acreage for this year was 93,441 but reapportionment of cotton acres raised that acreage to 101,641.9. The county had a total acreage last year of 102,297 and produced over 118,000 bales of cotton of this acreage.

The county rated state in cotton production 1964.

Sterley Methodist Church News

Quarterly Conference for Sterley Methodist Church has been scheduled for this Thursday evening, April 8. Presiding for the meeting, which is to elect most of the officials for the next conference year beginning June 1, is Dr. J. E. Shewbert of 1410 Amarillo St. in Plainview, the district superintendent. Reports are to be heard from various church officials concerning education, membership and evangelism, social concerns, stewardship and missions.

The World Service leaflet distributed during March was titled "Go Forth." It speaks of the work on the local level in membership and evangelism and has a picture of instruction being given in evangelistic calling by Rev. Cletus Beights, a former member of the Northwest Texas Conference and at the time of the picture of the minister of evangelism in First Methodist Church in Fullerton, Calif. The command from Matt. 28:19 to go forth and make disciples still holds good.

The last two Sundays in March especially on March 21, saw good attendance, after a number of pretty lean Sundays. There is a good report from the church in the matter of financial payments along the line of meeting minimum standards in "percent items" and World Service. In a day in which "local situations" are connected closely to worldwide events, this is heartening. In the long run "all action is local", yet our concerns must go as far as human need exists, without "putting in on other people's business". But human need, anywhere, is the business of the church of the Risen Christ.

Farmers Night Promises Look Into Farm Future

Local farmers have been invited to take a look into their futures at McDonald Implement's New Holland Farmers' Night, Thursday, April 15, at 7:00 p.m.

This preview of what's ahead in farming comes in the form of a new motion picture by New Holland, "Farming's Fabulous Future," that will be shown at the event. The film is narrated by newsman farmer Chet Huntley. According to Clement McDonald, the film concerns recent dramatic advances in farming, what's new for the farmer today and what the future likely holds.

"The U.S.D.A., agriculture department heads at land grant colleges and state department of agriculture personnel in every part of the country were questioned about farming's future," McDonald said. "This look at what's ahead for those of us connected with farming is based largely on their expert opinions."

Service personnel will be present to help solve service problems---the meeting starts at 7 p.m.

Farmers Coop Gin Stockholders Name Two New Directors At Meet

At the annual meeting of the Farmers Coop Gins held last week two directors were elected by the group to replace outgoing directors Travis Jones and Roy Hale. They elected one new director, L. C. Pruitt, and re-elected Travis Jones to the board.

Over $29,000 in dividend checks were given out to the stockholders as they came in the door for the annual meeting. The scheduled speaker for the evening, Juan DeLeon Gonzalez failed to arrive for the meeting due to a bad plane connection. According to Jack Johnson, president of the board of directors, his plane landed in Cuba by mistake and Castro is still holding the man.

However, a good substitute was found in the form of Fred Rudolph of Coleman, Texas. In his speech Rudolph stressed the point that the most valuable resource in this world is not the minerals under the ground, the timber on a piece of land, nor what space holds in store for man, but rather man's mind.

He said the problem we have now and in future years is growing our children with minds inquisitive enough to meet the challenges of the age. He used the example of Eli Whitney in that after he lost out of the financial end of the cotton gin he started into the slave market years before the rest of the U. S. was ready for such, and finally he went into firearms and sold some 10,000 weapons to the Union forces during the Civil War. Rudolph went on to say that the world's greatest invention is man's teamwork by agreement. "Your coops are set up by such teamwork", he said. In the annual reports it was noted that the gins, too, are feeling the squeeze of the rising cost of operation and this becomes a problem, particularly when the number of bales of cotton ginned per year decreases at any time. Income was up $44,000 and expenses were up $15,000. About 200 stockholders, visitors, and guests attended the meeting.

Injured Youth Out Of Hospital

Charles Bryant, 16 year old negro youth employed by Harvey Tardy, was released Saturday from Methodist Hospital where he had been under treatment for a head injury.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Bryant, was injured the previous Saturday when struck in the head by a ditcher attached to the tractor he was driving. Some eighty stitches were required on his head. Mrs. Tardy said physicians told her the youth was practically scalped.

Bryant was driving the tractor and ditcher on a dirt road to a near by field. Mrs. Tardy said evidently something broke about the machinery causing the ditcher to hit the ground then it swung up striking Bryant.

The youth lost control of the tractor following the mishap. It crossed the road and an irrigation ditch but did not overturn. Charles Fulton was the first on the scene and brought Bryant to Peoples Hospital for emergency treatment before he was transferred to Lubbock.

Floyd Countians Will Pay $2,483,000 Income Tax

New York, March 27 -- With April 15 just around the corner, taxpayers in Floyd County are preparing to make their peace with Uncle Sam.

What will be the price of this peace? Just about what it was last April, despite the tax cut that was voted a year ago and despite the lower rates that are now in effect.

The answer is that incomes have risen since that time to the point where the taxes on the larger incomes, even at the reduced rates, will be even greater, in many instances, than they were before.

This is indicated on a national scale in the Federal budget, which lists the expected receipts from individual income taxes at $47.0 billion this year, or only 3.5 percent less than in 1964.

In some parts of the country and with some families, the change will be more than this and, in others, less. Overall income is the determining factor.

Last year, payments of individual taxes by residents of Floyd County came to approximately $2,427,000, according to a breakdown of the statewide returns reported by the Internal Revenue Service. Included is what was paid in the form of withholding taxes.

Local residents, as a result, contributed 0.13 percent of the taxes collected in the State of Texas as a whole, which amounted to $1,967,000,000.

Because of the changed situation since that time, the returns from the local area this year, based on preliminary earnings reports, are expected to be in the neighborhood of $2,483,000, a rise of $56,000.

The tax rates that went into effect in 1964 after the reductions, when they dropped to a range of 16 to 77 percent on personal income, went down still further on January 1, 1965. The range now is from 14 to 70 percent.

Despite this additional cut in rates, which will apply to income received this year, the Administration estimates that tax receipts from individuals will rise by $1.2 billion in the coming fiscal year.

It counts on a continued expansion of the economy, duplicating the achievements of 1964, when the gross national product rose 6.5 percent to a total of $223 billion.

Sealed Bids will be received by the Building Engineering Division, State Board of Control, Austin, Texas, until 11:00 A. M., April 8, 1965 for installation of chain link fencing at Texas Highway Department Maintenance Site, Floydada, Texas.

Peace Corps Tests Slated April 10

An opportunity for Floyd County area residents to test their aptitudes for Peace Corps service will come at 9 A. M., Saturday, April 10, at Room 16A, Lubbock Post Office Building, Lubbock, Texas.

The opportunity is the Peace Corps Placement Test. It is not passed or failed, but simply indicates where your greatest potential lies. The Peace Corps Questionnaire, which must be filled out and brought to the exam unless previously submitted, tells what an applicant has done in the past. But the placement test is aimed at showing what he or she CAN do in the future. Applicants do not have to register for the test ahead of time.

The Peace Corps Questionnaire can be obtained at all Post Offices. On college campuses, they are available at college placement centers or the offices of Peace Corps liaison officers, who are members of the faculty or college administration. If you can't find a Questionnaire, write the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

There are two parts to the Peace Corps Placement Test: a general aptitude test and a modern language aptitude test (for which knowledge of a foreign language is not necessary). Applicants should plan on about one and a half hours at the testing center, unless they wish to take the Spanish or French language achievement test, which requires an additional hour.

Test results are used, with the character references and Questionnaires, to provide the most suitable assignment for Volunteers overseas.

"ROOM TEMPERATURE CONTROL"

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jones, Anton, Texas

Mr. Jones says, "When our former heating system turned on it was so noisy that I had to raise the volume on our TV set. Now, our electric heating is so quiet that we never hear it when it's on."

Mrs. Jones says, "I like the individual control. Living areas, bedrooms, baths, different temperatures. This is easy with electric baseboard. We get the temperature we want."

The Country Club

ESTATE friend of ours phoned the house early morning and said, "we're coming up from Seagraves to play in your AM-AM golf tournament... best way to get to Floydada?"

Send has for many years heard talk about the very of course near Floydada that is situated in a canyon around a knoll in the middle of the course.

we have lived here only two years, it is evident people take a great deal of pride in the beautiful and country club located out on the Ralls highway. enjoyed telling about the course as we have visited in other area cities. It is one of our natural worthy of our pride.

ue that our golf tournaments draw players from a a. It is true that golfers from nearby Lubbock, and other cities come over quite often to play evenings and weekends.

ll leads up to the question, "where do we go from is evident that the Country Club board of direc- looking ahead to some very pressing needs. The pool at the club is getting in bad shape, the grass building, a modern club house is desirable just to few of its needs.

At this time, it seems that it would be feasible for the board of directors to put before the entire membership... voting and non-voting stock holders... a plan for these improvements.

It would appear that a positive program for upkeep and improvements would be heartily accepted by all members. No doubt there are many older voting stockholders who have a vote, but no longer take an interest in the club. On the other hand many younger associate members have families who enjoy the swimming pool, golfing, and of course would enjoy the improvements of picnic areas.

A recent meeting of the stock holders of the country club voted down a proposal for associate members to have voting privileges.

It is natural to assume that a voting member would be more concerned about the condition of the country club, yet if the board of director's plan for improvements is to materialize, it will take the support of the voting member, the associate member... and many who are not members but pay green fees when they golf.

In the meantime, the image of our country club is pretty well established by what "goes on"... on its premises, and if it is going to be a wholesome environment which the entire family can enjoy and appreciate there is no reason why the membership and the community will not support the improvement plans.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER SAYS:

World Geography Has Gotten Out Of Hand, Is Getting Worse

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reports on his geographical ignorance this week. Dear editor:

I was talking with a man in town who keeps up with such things as geography and the impending crisis in foreign countries, listening to him explain just what the situation in Viet Nam is, what North Viet Nam has done, what South Viet Nam has done, and what our foreign policy there is and what ought to be, etc., and to tell you the truth I was getting bored to death, so I broke in on the flow.

"Say," I said, "I see that Upper Volta is still on our side."

"What're you talking about?" he asked.

"Nothing, especially. It's just good to know that Upper Volta is still on our side."

"Upper Volta? What's that?" I knew I had him, but I didn't press the point, and came home and hunted up the newspaper I'd read the name in, to make sure I hadn't imagined it.

It's true. There is a country named Upper Volta, and its president, Maurice Yameogo, has just made a visit to Washington and been given the full red carpet treatment, with a 21-gun salute and a parade. Now I haven't taken a survey, but I'll bet a subscription to The Hesperian against a subscription to the New York Times that until Mr. Yameogo showed up in Washington and got his name in the papers and on television, there weren't 100 people in the United States, including teachers, professors, editors, politicians and owners of encyclopedias, who'd ever heard of Upper Volta.

What this proves is that regardless of how well posted a man is on world affairs, he can't know it all, there has to be a good part of the world he's ignorant of. In fact I doubt if there are a dozen people in the world who can sit down right now without any preparation and name all the countries on earth, and even among those who can it's about like memorizing the names of all the counties in the 50 states in the U. S., and knowing something about the internal politics of each.

Where geography got out of control was when we didn't stop with colonies, and here we are about to take on our space.

Yours faithfully,

with this legislation. In doing so, we are especially interested in seeing the passage of the best possible bill which will best protect and promote the interests of all the citizens of the affected cities and counties--both farm and city dwellers. It is most important that the main source of our economic growth and development, our present private ownership (see WATER page 7) face water developed and properly used relieves that much of the ever growing demand and pressure on our dwindling and precious underground supplies.

Therefore, we have been hopeful that a successful surface water project could be developed on Tule Canyon. The impetus and initiative for such projects must come from the "grass roots.". We have been heartened and grateful for the expenditure of time and money given so fully and unselfishly by many of the good citizens in our area.

Even at this stage not enough data has been developed to determine if this proposed water project is physically or economically feasible. Further studies are necessary and can best be supplemented and completed by the passage of legislation in your Texas House of Representatives and Senate.

This is a well recognized and customary procedure in such situations. This kind of legislation would create legislative authority for the formation of a municipal water authority.

Such an authority would have to receive a favorable vote from the citizens in each city which sought to be a member of the Authority.

We, as your legislators, have been asked by hundreds of citizens of Lockney, Silverton, Floydada, and Tulia--including the "city fathers" of these cities--as well as most affected county officials, to introduce and pass such legislation as described above. This proposed law has been drafted by attorneys hired by the already existing water organizations composed of the four above mentioned cities.

We have heard from only a couple of citizens who say they would oppose such legislation. However, we feel it our responsibility to use our limited resources to make available to as many interested citizens as possible, the full content of this proposed law and action.

In view of the fact that our mail and other contacts have been overwhelmingly in favor of this legislation, and in view of the fact that the present legislative session is rapidly drawing to a close, and further, in view of the fact that failure to act now would cause at least a two (2) year delay in whatever possible and potential development of surface water is available on Tule Canyon, we believe it our duty to proceed

Teacher Salary Raise

Harold Hudson in The Ochiltree County Herald (Perryton): Governor Connally sidestepped the salary demands of the Texas State Teachers Association by putting forth a program of his own which he says will increase teachers pay in the future although not giving them much of a raise now.

The TSTA plan asks for a $405 a year raise for teachers now with the state paying 80 per cent of the cost of the Minimum Foundation Program effective in September.

The governor's plan would not be into full effect until 10 years from now.

There seems to little dispute over the need for a raise in teachers salaries. The boom in the scholastic population, the desperate need to attract more young people into the teaching profession have combined into a situation that calls for action.

In Austin, where the legislature is considering the problem, the question is how to go about it.

We like the TSTA plan because the governor's plan has some hidden jokers in it. His plan appeals to some because it appears to cost less. Eighty per cent of the teachers in the state would be guaranteed more money in 1968 under his plan than they would get under the TSTA plan. Forty per cent would go beyond the TSTA salary brackets in 1967.

But the governor's plan would shift additional taxes back to the local districts instead of the state, so we fail to see where the Texas taxpayer would gain from it.

This additional tax is accomplished by including the cost of textbooks and teacher retirement, having local districts pay 20 per cent of the textbook cost and retirement programs.

Texas has had free school textbooks since 1921 with the state paying the cost.

It will be quite a departure if local school districts must dig up the money to pay for textbooks.

Local school districts already pay the full cost of constructing and equipping local school buildings. They must finance this debt completely from local property taxes, the only source of local revenue.

We can't see where the average Texas taxpayer will gain much by having local tax increases substituted for state decreases. In fact, we can't see much merit to doing away with the state ad valorem tax at the present time, as it is being advocated.

There's a joker in the deck somewhere.

Texas teachers are entitled to more money, and higher salaries are necessary in order to bring needed teachers into the profession.

Teachers are in a "buyer's market" now because there is a shortage, in some places a desperate shortage of teachers. At the same time, the number of students keeps rising, and more teachers are needed.

We think the state of Texas can afford a $405 a year raise for teachers, and we can finance it through state taxes. Let's

Letter To The Editor

STATEMENT: - April 1, 1965

As your elected representatives in our Texas Legislature, we think it appropriate to issue the following statement at this time.

Since early last year we have been aware and very interested in the proposal to place a dam on Tule Canyon for the purpose of providing a municipal and industrial water supply for various cities in our area.

We believe it is vital to protect, conserve and develop every drop of surface water possible, for recreation as well as a supply of public and/or private waters. More important is the fact that every drop of surplus keep our local taxes for buildings and other costs.

In Perryton, the local school district pays more than 80 per cent of the costs of running the school system. We are not ready to accept boosting it to 90 or 95 per cent just because the governor wants to reduce state taxes.

FROM THE SPORTS DESK

It is hoped that the seniors that travel to Olton to take part in the district meet this weekend will participate in the meet the following Thursday. A Regional Qualifiers meet is scheduled April 15 at Olton.

Some of these seniors were talking Monday about making the regional meet last year and seemed confident they would make it again. Just keep in mind, fellows, that you can't make the regional meet this year on your performance of last year. What you do this Saturday will determine whether or not you go to regional in 1965.

In going over the results of last weekend's track meet at Kress it was interesting to note some of the 19 records that fell. Bobby Murray, our pole vaulter, broke the old record with his performance, but it was bested by a lad from Slaton. Darrell Monday won second in the 440 and broke an old record. The

Frank Lenard Perkins Service in Silverton

SILVERTON (Special)—Frank Lenard Perkins, 82, former resident of Silverton, died at 10:10 a.m. Friday in Tulsa at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Mae Lee.

Services will be at 2 p.m. today in First Baptist Church with the Rev. Clyde Cain, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Silverton Cemetery under direction of Silverton Funeral Home. Perkins, a retired plumber, was a member of the Baptist church and Independent Order of Oddfellows.

Other survivors include five sons, Marion, Ott and Bud, all of Silverton, Len, Paducah, and Walt, Hereford; another daughter, Mrs. Stella Hall, Dimmitt; one sister, Mrs. Mollie Palmer, Arcadia, Tex.; 30 grandchildren and 53 great-grandchildren.

Second Singing Set April 11

The regular Second Sunday Singing group will meet at the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church on Sunday, April 11 from 2 until 4 p.m.

All singers, and those who appreciate good Gospel singing, are invited to attend and help make it one of the better meetings of the year. A large number of out of county singers is expected.

sprint relay team finished third and broke the track record. Rodney Bunch placed SIXTH in the 880 and beat the old track record. It was also interesting to compare the times turned in by the Class A and AA runners at the Kress meet with the AAA meet that was held in Canyon also last weekend. Our boys are in some pretty rough competition.

All you track fans should keep in mind that the finals in the district track events will be held at night this year. The preliminaries for the track events and the finals for the field events are set to begin at 1:30 p.m. The finals in the track events will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Floydada's local Go-Cart enthusiast, Ted Viramonte, took part in the Buffalo Lakes Race this past Sunday. He finished in the fourteenth position, but he was racing against some of the best drivers in the country.

The next few weeks of such meetings is the night at the bank building.

The Lions Club is planning to build some rest rooms at the ball park this year. It should be a great asset to the grounds and to the program.

Floydada Team Gathers 65 Points In Kress Track Meet

The Floydada Cindermen accumulated a total of 65 points in an invitational Track and Field Meet held at Kress this past weekend, but came out third in the AA Division behind the relay powerful Abernathy and Olton teams.

The day was perfect for the track and field events which showed in the fact that 19 records were broken and another was tied by the teams competing in the meet.

Abernathy won the honors with 109 points, but they were pushed hard by Olton who had 104.

The Abernathy crew, in addition to the 440-yard relay team and broad jump, the events in which the team placed first, gets a lot of its points from depth. For example, in the discus, which Bill Potts of Floydada won with a 137' 5-3/4" toss, the Abernathy fieldmen placed second, third, and fifth to amass several points. This is true in several other events.

Bill Potts won his two usual events, the Shot Put and the Discus with ease. Other winning and placing were: 440-yard relay, third; high hurdles, Sam Watts tied with Smith of Olton; 440-yard dash, Darrell Munday, second; Mile run, Tanguna, fourth; Pole vault, Bobby Murray, second.

Murray broke the old Pole Vault record of 10' 7-1/2" by topping 11' but was bested by Bobby Brake of Slaton with a 12' vault.

The division results follow:

- 440-YARD RELAY--1. Abernathy: 2. Olton: 3. Floydada. TIME: 4:33 (New record--old record 4:51 set in 1961 by Olton).
- 880-YARD RUN--1. Solis. Post: 2. Smith. Olton: 3. Davis. Lockney: 4. McElroy. FRESHSHIP TIME: 2:01.7 (New record--old record 2:08.7 by John Lowe, Canyon, 1964).
- HIGH HURDLES--1. Tie between Watts, Floydada, and Smith, Olton: 2. Gamble, Slaton: 4. Brake, Slaton. TIME: 16.6.
- 100-YARD DASH--1. Murphree, Friona: 2. Wade, Abernathy: 3. Mitchell, Lockney: 4. Digby, Olton. TIME: 19.1 (Murphree set record of 18.9 in prelims, breaking old record of 19.1 by Ritchie, Abernathy, 1963).
- 440-YARD DASH--1. Deberry, Olton: 2. Munday, Floydada: 3. Stowers, Friona: 4. Hale, Abernathy. TIME: 31.9 (New record--old record 32.4 by Parsons, Olton, 1964).
