Dougherty-Floydada School Consolidation Election May 18

Majority Approval Required From Both Districts

Petitions have been submitted to the county judge's office seeking a school consolidation election on Saturday, May 18. The petitions ask for an election to consolidate the Dougherty school district to the Floydada school district.

The Dougherty petition carried the signatures of 20 qualified voters from the Dougherty school district. The Floydada petition asking for the election carried the signatures of some 27 qualified voters.

According to the judge a majority vote is required of the Dougherty voters seeking consolidation to the Floydada district. Likewise a majority vote is required in the Floydada school district to accept the Dougherty consolidation.

There are 65 sections in the Dougherty school district, which is bounded by the county line on the south and east; by three miles north of highway 70 on the north and the west line is approximately ten miles east of Floydada.

Actually the northeast corner of the district goes about nine miles north of the highway.

There are three teachers at the Dougherty school this year with present enrollment now 43 students.

Lions Broom Sale Today

Today is the day you buy your annual supply of brooms and light bulbs, according to the Floydada Lions Club. The truck will be on the square — the Lions and Scouts will go door to door.

Proceeds are to be used for the Floydada Youth Program.

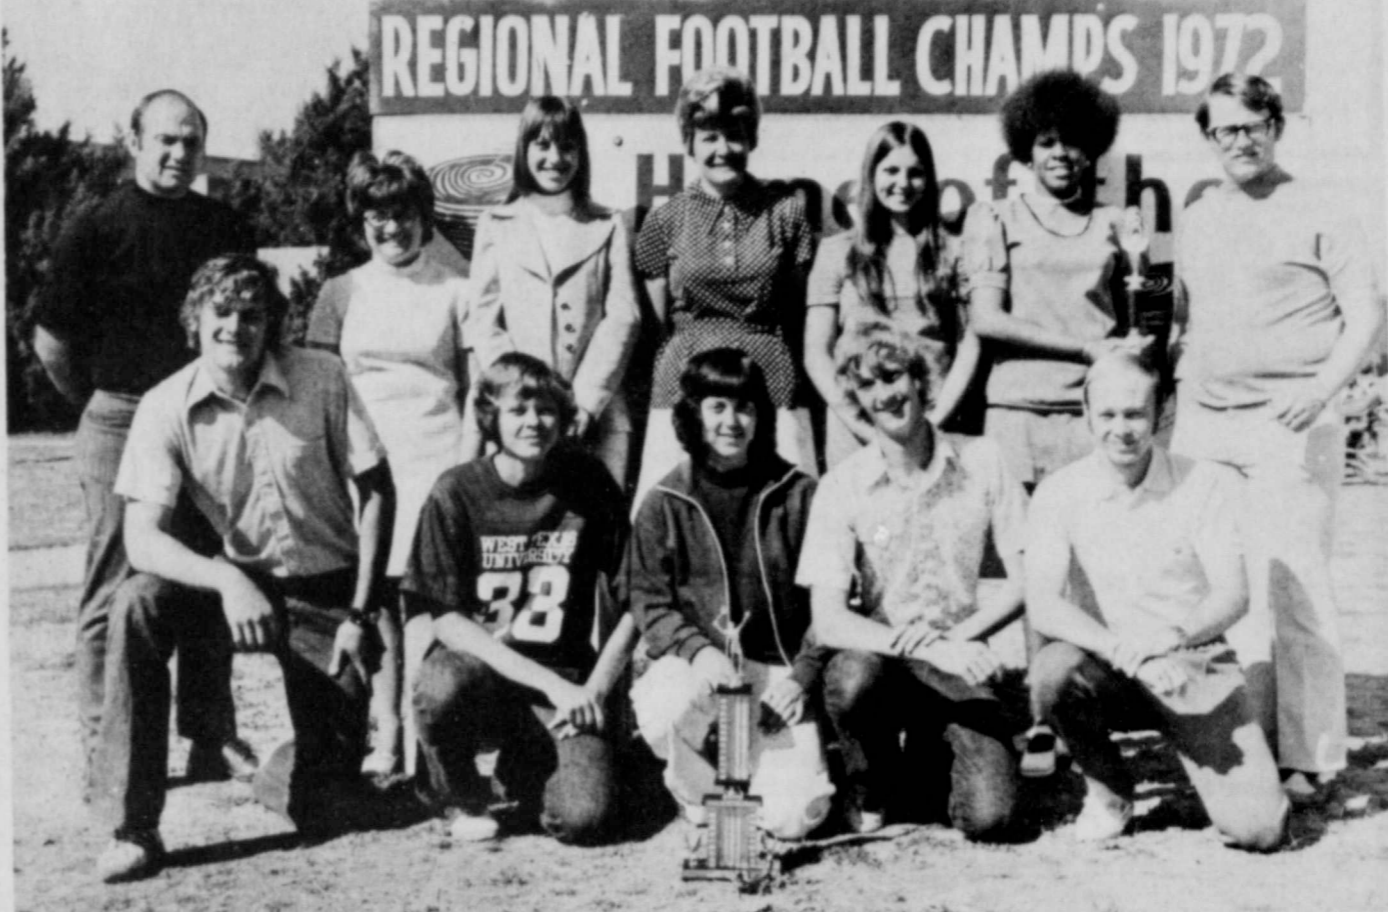

'Meddlins' Wins 2nd At PPA Convention

Society editor, Peggy Medley's column, "Peggy's Meddlins" won 2nd place at the Panhandle Press Association convention held in Amarillo over the weekend.

The award was given Mrs. Medley for Best Women's Page Feature presented for outstanding achievement in the field of newspaper publishing in 1973.

Critique comments by the judge for the column read "The part of the column dealing with Saturday, Sunday then Monday is great feature material. It is well written and thought-provoking, and I suspect many of the 'over 30 crowd' got quite a chuckle from it".

Mrs. Medley's column took a first in the PPA contest last year.

Seven FHS Students Headed For State UIL Competition

Thirty-three Floydada High School students went to regional contests last week, and although most of them made a good showing, only seven advance to state contests May 2-4 in Austin.

The boys' golf team didn't have much luck, but this district's Tulia team won it.

Ten boys went to the regional track meet in Odessa, only one, Lynn Becker, goes to state, in the discus throw.

Six tennis players went to regional play in Odessa and three advance to state.

Of eleven who participated in literary events, three go on to state contests.

LITERARY EVENTS

Three Floydada High School students, Duffy Williams, Margwyne Giles, and Teresa Love, won in the Literary Interscholastic League Contest in Odessa April 19-20 and will advance to state competition in Austin May 3-4. Duffy competed in typewriting, Margwyne, poetry, and Teresa, shorthand.

Duffy, FHS sophomore, typed 52.7 words a minute with no errors to win first place. She was competing with 23 other typists. Floydada has had a typist competing at state four of the last five years. Larry Jones won 4th in state in 1970, Darla Milton won 1st in 1972, and Teresa Love won 2nd last year.

Teresa, a junior, won second in shorthand. This is Teresa's second trip to Austin for UIL competition as she competed in typewriting last year.

Margwyne read the poem "In the Children's Hospital" by Alfred, Lord Tennyson and placed 1st. This was Margwyne's third year to compete at regional. She has won 5 first-place trophies in speech competition this year.

Others placing in regional competition were Bravada Garrett, 3rd in prose; Nancy Winter and LaDonna Bilbrey, 3rd in girl's debate; Mike Bean, 4th in journalism feature writing; and Lezie Simmons, 4th in informative speaking.

Others competing at regional were Jimmie Kay Sales, Gayland Fleming, John Willson and Marta Martinez.

Sponsors for the literary events are Janet Milam, shorthand; Weldon Melton, speech; Tommy Cathey, number sense; and Jane Bean, typewriting.

TENNIS

This is the first year since 1958 that

Floydada has had some tennis players to win at regional and go on to state. Back in 1958 Kit Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman went to state in her Freshman year. She lost in the first round at state. Her coach was high school principal Charles Tyer.

Since that time a few FHS tennis players have gone to regional, but couldn't go on to state.

Tennis coach Raymond Jones will take three to state. . . Blair Davis in boys' singles, Donette Marble and Debby Johnson in girls' doubles.

Blair gained some indirect satisfaction by mauling Van Horn's Keith St. Clair 6-1, 6-1. In the Amarillo relays several weeks ago, Blair was badly pummeled by Roger Kennedy, who lost in three sets last Friday to St. Clair.

Donette and Debby won their crown rather easily defeating Coleman's team of Susan Dempsey and Taryn Nini, 6-1, 6-3.

Cary Brown lost in the finals to Littlefield's Tony Gardner 6-1, 6-1. Boys' doubles Mark Craig and Mike Ramsey lost a close match in the first round.

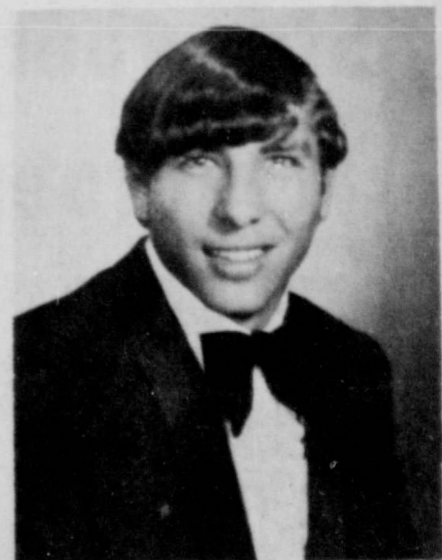

TRACK

In regional Danny Quisenberry came out third in the high hurdles and due to circumstances that cannot be published at press time, may get to go to state. Leslie Soto placed fourth in the shot throw. Steve Moore made the finals in high jump.

GOLF

At press time yesterday the FHS girl's golf team was number one in regional play at Lubbock with a score of 394. Spearman was second with 398, and Comanche third with 399. The team plays 18 holes today in the finals. Tammy Tyer is medalist with 90, DeAun Wilson is tied for second with 95. Other members scores are: Carla Suggs 102, Diane Deleon 107 and Carol Cogdell 110.

Standard Of Living Remains High In Floyd

NEW YORK, April 20 — How high is the standard of living in Floyd County?

How much have local residents been spending annually for big ticket items such as cars, washing machines, dish washers, furniture, carpeting and the like?

Some idea of the amount of money that has been going for such equipment may be gleaned from a new government study.

It is based upon data gathered from all areas of the country through a sampling survey conducted by the Department of Commerce.

The purpose was to determine just how much of the average family's income, locally and elsewhere, went for such durables in the five years ending January, 1973.

In Floyd County, according to these and other figures, it was a period of rising incomes and bigger spending. Families were upgrading their way of life, buying better homes, more expensive cars and spending more for household equipment and leisure-time pursuits than ever before.

With the purchasing power at their command, their outlay for durable goods in the five years averaged approximately $4,872 per household, based upon the overall survey findings and upon local income and spending data.

This compares with $4,319 per family in the United States and with $4,125 in the Southern States.

Of the total, some $3,413 was spent for new and used cars. Furniture took another $445 per

Lockney Care Center Capers

Has anyone seen this year's April Showers? All we have been seeing up here is wind and dust! Sometimes muddy water falls from the sky!

The devotionals have been super this month so far, I expect they will continue being super. Thanks to all the wonderful people who come to share with us in worship to the Lord, these times mean a great deal to all of us. Thanks.

Mrs. Wigington is back from the hospital and we are thankful for this. She has had lots of friends and family visiting with her. Mr. Beard is back from his hospital stay, everyone was sure glad to see him back.

Our heart-felt thanks to the Jesse Johnsons, the F.O. Schachts, and Mrs. Rober-son for the fresh flowers. The flowers are enjoyed till they turn brown! Oh, we have new curtains and table covers in the dining room. They are so pretty, at first no one wanted to eat for fear they would spill something on the tables.

I missed the April birthday party but the residents said it was nice and they enjoyed it. The ladies from the Main Street Church of Christ have been doing this for as long as I've been here (that's two years) we appreciate them very much. Also, thanks to Mrs. Clay Muncy's Sunday School Class for the mending they've done for us. Thanks to all the people who visit, bring things to our activities, ladies, who buy from our activities, thanks to all the great people who pray for the Care Center and are interested.

Till next time—

DAWN OF A NEW LAWN

You needn't be put out about putting in a new lawn, no matter how green you are at it. As long as you follow these suggestions, you can have an exquisite carpet of gorgeous grass comparatively quickly!

First, the groundwork. Loosen the soil, level it and break up the clods. Lime and fertilize with a balanced, slow release fertilizer. Some lots don't require lime, so have your soil analyzed. Work in the fertilizer.

Next, you need good seed. For best results, select an improved variety of permanent grass. If you're buying a mixture of seed, among the best are those that contain at least 40 percent Merion Bluegrass. Its long roots and broad, dark leaves are growing in popularity all over the country. Be sure you get premium quality seed—bargain priced seed can prove to be no bargain at all!

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

BY CONGRESSMAN OMAR BURLESON

WASHINGTON, D.C. — IT WOULD MAKE REAL NEWS IF SOMETIMES it could be reported that a Federal Agency had been abolished. Not so. Another Bureau will be created under a bill passed last week by the U.S. House of Representatives. If finally enacted into law, there will be a Consumer Protection Law designed to safeguard all of us (for we are all consumers) against such things relating to products we buy as "prices, quality, purity, dependability, durability," etc. — a pretty big order to be done by an army of people to determine whether a product meets all these specifications. As individuals we will have little, if anything, to do with this operation but will be represented by people who will decide what our needs are.

THE NEW BUREAU IS GIVEN A VAST ARRAY OF POWERS AND AUTHORITY, backed by access to the Courts for enforcement. The Agency is given authority over other Federal Departments which in large measure now have these same responsibilities. For instance, the Agriculture Department sees to the interest of farming and ranching and all the way up participate in the Rent-A-Person and Call-A-Thon to be held in Floydada May 2, 3 and 4 for the Lone Star Chapter, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, according to Mrs. Raymond Poole Coordinator of this year's Special Campaign. "We need to make the public more aware of lung diseases in children," she explained. "We must find a control for the inherited disease, Cystic Fibrosis, and we must also help as many as possible of the six million children with other chronic lung diseases!" Diagnosis and therapy are available at 117 centers throughout the country, where as many as six out of seven of the children seen are found to have other diseases in which the symptoms closely resemble those of C/F. The centers are not only helping children with Cystic Fibrosis, but also those with chronic bronchitis, asthmatic bronchitis, asthma with lung damage, the condition sometimes called "childhood emphysema," bronchiectasis and other lung and intestinal diseases as well. You can help these children by participating in the Rent-A-Person and Call-A-Thon. They're counting on you to give them a chance to breathe. We know you won't let them down, Mrs. Poole said. Donna Jean Woolsey And Gary Steven Anderson Wed

Donna Jean Woolsey and Gary Steven Anderson were wed in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening, April 20 in the First Baptist Church in Floydada. The pastor, Dr. Floyd C. Bradley performed the 7 o'clock p.m. vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Woolsey and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anderson. Both families reside in Floydada.

The altar scene was formed with a background of graduated palms of commadore foliage and side baskets of yellow gladiolas and mint green daisies. Spiral candelabras decorated in garlands of white daisies flanked the setting. Bridal ropes were in gold and a unity candelabra, accented by mint green mums, centered the arrangement. The bridal aisle was marked by hurricane candelabras and mint green mums.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white silk organza of over-all silk embroidery over peau. The bodice was fashioned with an empire waistline and short flared pouf sleeves trimmed with rows of narrow white satin ribbon. The center front of the bodice was adorned with a row of gathered organza and satin covered buttons. Ruffled organza also accented the high neckline. The full skirt swept to the back, revealing a flat Sweetheart bow at the center back, then descended into a chapel length train. Her three-tiered veil of silk illusion fell elbow length from a lace cap of interwoven white satin ribbon and lace.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, baby's breath and daisies, centered with an orchid. For something old she wore a locket belonging to her aunt, given her 75 years ago by her father. She wore diamond earrings borrowed from Mrs. Brian Sprayberry and also carried out the traditional blue in her wedding attire.

Miss Debbie Armstrong, Floydada, was maid of honor and Mrs. Brian Sprayberry of Lubbock was matron of honor. The groom's sister, Miss Nancy Anderson, was bridesmaid. They were gowned identically in mint green embossed polyester gowns styled with high waists attached to boleros and accented with ruffles. The sleeves were puffed and the long gored skirts were fashioned with a wide ruffle at the hemline. Each carried colonial type bouquets of white pixie carnations, baby's breath and yellow miniature roses.

Sherice Haygood, Lubbock, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and Lisa Anderson, sister of the groom, was candlelighter. They wore dresses fashioned to that of bridal attendants only of mint green polyester with sheer organza highlighted by brocaded flowers in white, yellow and green. They wore mint green headpieces, and the flower girl carried a basket of mint green daisies.

David Marrison, Floydada, was best man. Serving as groomsmen were Mike Anderson, brother of the groom, and Randy Quisenberry of Hale Center. Ushers were Brian Sprayberry, Lubbock, and Gary Sanders, Floydada. Brian Haygood, Lubbock, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Miss Penny Bertrand was organist and Miss Kim Campbell sang "The Wedding Prayer", "More" and "The Twelfth of Never".

Miss Sherry Harris and Miss Cindy Simpson were at the guest registry.

Following the wedding a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church was held. Miss Cindy Spitzer, Lubbock, and Miss Terry Stovall, Floydada, cousin of the groom, served cake and punch. Miss Bertrand played piano selections during the reception.

The bridal table was laid with a lace cloth over an antique linen and held a basket centerpiece of white daisies, surrounded by the attendants' bouquets. The three tiered cake, topped by wedding bells, crystal service and napkins with the names of the newlyweds completed the setting.

Rice bags of white tulle tied with mint green and yellow ribbons were distributed by Sherice and Brian Haygood.

For travel, the bride changed to pink plaid slacks, with pink blouse and white blazer. She also wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside in Lubbock where the groom is employed by South Plains Electric Co-op, and the bride at Scoggin-Dickey Buick Co. Both are 1973 graduates of Floydada High School.

IN the May issue of Reader's Digest is a condensed story from the Saturday Evening Post on "Do You Believe in Astrology?" It makes me think of one astrology who predicted last year that Secretary of State Henry Kissinger will experience the great love of his life in 1974. And so he did with his recent marriage.

HOW sad it is with the death of favorite TV shows, but there are numerous ones on now that should have died long ago. Some deserve their fate but we must admit when the good ones go we are sad. Way back in the 60's there was Groucho with his sidelong leer and waggling eyebrows; Loretta Young and her swish of taffeta as she whipped through the door into the living room; and also there were the June Allyson and Barbara Stanwyck shows. Never will we forget Ralph Edwards with his book tucked under his arm doing his final on "This Is Your Life." I saw a repeat of that several months ago

These were shows that you could leave your child watching with no fear the next one coming up would contain unfit words for a child to hear.

SINCE children have learned to dial the phone, adjust the TV, and thaw the food - parents are left free to roam the streets.

THERE is a growing fear in some circles that automation and computerization are about to take over. It is not to be lightly brushed aside since many couple have walked to the altar because of an electric computer, which some say is scientifically sound. But to many there is still the June moon and a garden with an inevitable moment of romance and two people fall in love. If scientists achieve automation love and marriage some may soon be falling in love with a

Our lovely "Mom" Buchanan... Is boasting 98... She's still so sweet and friendly... Now isn't that JUST great!

Mr. D. M. Moore is here HIS day to celebrate... And THAT he has been doing Since back in '88! So, happy, happy birthday... We'll sing the same old song...

To serenade these people And cheer them right along! Thursday, April 18, women of the City Park Church of Christ hosted the monthly birthday party at the local Care Center with four of the BIRTHDAY HONOREES — at Floydada Care Center. Seated at the honor table left to right, are Mrs. Annie Neff, D. M. Moore and Mrs. Mallie Sedgewick. residents being honorees. Photographs were made by the Hesperian photographer, getting the celebration well under way. The honor table was laid with a white cloth and the centerpiece was a lovely and unusual pink rose arrangement in a glass and bronze "bubble" top container which Mrs.

Neff's son had given her for her birthday. Places were marked with individual cards and all were seated at the table with the exception of "Mom" Buchanan, who was unable to be in the dining room.

The delicious birthday cake was iced in pink and held four candles, one for each honoree. A very refreshing and tangy fruit punch was also served. The above poem was read, after which everyone joined in singing the "Happy Birthday" song.

We were delighted to have a number of guests who were served refreshments along with all the residents and employees of the home. The next party will be Thursday, May 16, 2:30 p.m. You are invited to attend.

It's time to p United States Senate C a National Day of Pr April 30, 1974

Join Millions of Americans in Prayer on April 30
Our country faces crisis. Our nation needs a moral and spiritual awakening. If ever we need to pray—it is now.

Support the U.S. Senate call to prayer
"The Congress hereby proclaims that April 30, 1974 be a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer; and calls upon the people of our nation to humble ourselves as we see fit, before our Creator to acknowledge our final dependence upon Him and to repent of our national sins!"

This is the first time the United States Senate has taken such a historic step since confirming President Abraham Lincoln's Call to Prayer in 1863.

Here is God's Promise!
"If my people who are called by my name shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, will forgive their sins, and will heal their land" (II Chronicles 7:14).

God wants to change the hearts of men and women. He wants to mend broken families. He wants to turn suspicion, hate, discord into love, forgiveness, harmony. God wants to give our nation a new birth of faith and freedom!

God is able—if we will turn from ourselves, look to Him and pray!

On April 30 millions will be joining together to pray for change. Millions will be praying for a moral and spiritual awakening in our country and in the world. You can join them!

For a copy of Senate Joint Resolution 183, calling for a National Day of Prayer, write to your senator or to the address below. The resolution is still pending in the House of Representatives as of April 15, 1974.

In your home, at the office, by yourself, with a neighbor, you can have a part in releasing the mightiest force for good known to man—prayer to a loving, all-powerful God!

There is a way to peace, equality, security, harmony.

Let's take the first step toward a new America!

Things you may wish to do to help:

- Plan to participate in this National Day of Prayer on April 30.
- Encourage family, friends and neighbors to meet with you to pray.
- Urge your church to hold a special prayer service on April 30.
- Ask your local government officials to pass a similar resolution in your city.

Printed as a public service by this newspaper. For a free copy of the U.S. Senate Resolution, write Prayer Crusade, San Jose, CA 95128.

'Water Faucet' Research Approach Brings Warning

Agricultural research funds can't be turned on and off like a water faucet if the world's food problems are to be solved, says a renowned scientist.

Plant Pathologist E. C. Stakman, now professor emeritus at the University of Minnesota, says a long-term commitment is necessary to insure future progress in agricultural research.

"One problem is that we have a tendency to wait until we have a crop catastrophe, and then we appropriate research money in a hurry—expecting miracles in return," he points out.

Dr. Stakman emphasizes that agricultural science must learn to prevent rather than cure plant diseases, but notes that it takes time to develop disease-resistant plants.

Recognized as the world's top authority on wheat rust diseases, Dr. Stakman believes that strong research support could lead to development of new varieties with as much as 70 percent protection against all known stem rusts.

ring on his finger. Would I be out of line to ask him to get rid of it even if he has to have a mechanic file it off?

RING PROBLEM

DEAR PROBLEM: Ask your fiance to have a jeweler (not a mechanic) remove the ring. You would not be out of line to request it. He'd be out of line to refuse.

DEAR ABBY: I am only 22, and my folks are pushing 50, so I won't have to worry about this for a few years yet, but I would like to pass this poem along for those older parents. [It was taped to my mother's bathroom mirror.] Also I want my parents to know that when they get old they can depend on me to be understanding and patient.

CARL M.

"FOR FRIENDS OF THE AGED

Blessed are they who understand my faltering step and palsied hand.
Blessed are they who know that my ears today must strain to catch the things they say.
Blessed are they who seem to know that my eyes are dim and my wits are slow.
Blessed are they who looked away when coffee spilled at the table today.
Blessed are they with a cheery smile who stop to chat for a little while.
Blessed are they who never say
'You've told that story twice today.'
Blessed are they who know the ways to bring back memories of yesterdays.
Blessed are they who make it known that I'm loved, respected and not alone.
Blessed are they who know I'm at a loss to find the strength to carry the Cross.
Blessed are those who ease the days on my journey Home in loving ways."

Abigail Van Buren

Don't laugh at me, but I am a mailman and the high point of my day is when he comes. He's a cheerful, pleasant man with a friendly smile, and seems to go out of his way to help. He doesn't have stamps, he sells me some. He always finishes writing a letter, he will stop for coffee and we always seem to talk to each other. He's married, too. So far so good, you might say. Now I feel I'm in control, and I may be getting more good for me because I find myself enjoying his visits.

He always finishes writing a letter, he will stop for coffee and we always seem to talk to each other. He's married, too. So far so good, you might say. Now I feel I'm in control, and I may be getting more good for me because I find myself enjoying his visits. While he winks at me. How would you like to be just a friendly mailman or if he is in your mind? I don't want to make a fool of myself.

Population Slowdown
'Baby Bust' Contest

Have you noticed how our world is suddenly becoming a world of shortages, both present and future? The fact that the U.S. population may be leveling off sooner than experts were predicting a few short years ago won't help solve the energy problem today, but it will mean fewer problems in the future. Any slowdown in the population growth of the U.S. has a dramatic effect on how the resources of the world are consumed. It's hard to believe, but the U.S. with 6% of the world's population, consumes 33% of the world's total production of energy. This is what a high standard of living will do. The same ratios apply to our use of other valuable resources.

The reasons for the current trend of the size of the family are highly complex, but taken together as a part of the large picture, they indicate that the trend toward smaller families is up and the trend toward early retirement will be reserved. Many people are still very productive after age 65. The standard of living will most likely rise faster. A greater proportion of our population will be working in the labor force since there will be fewer babies and a higher retirement age. We will develop excess educational capacity. A lower birth rate will mean less money required for education and more money available for other important local spending, such as crime prevention, pollution control and additional recreational facilities. Teachers will suffer from a decline in real wages. As population growth slows down, so will the demand for having children depends largely on the cost of having children. The same fact holds true for energy. The demand for energy depends on the cost of that energy. This is why a free market economy where the price system is allowed to function is so vital to the solution of any short term and long term energy

Moving a BILLION of anything is a big job

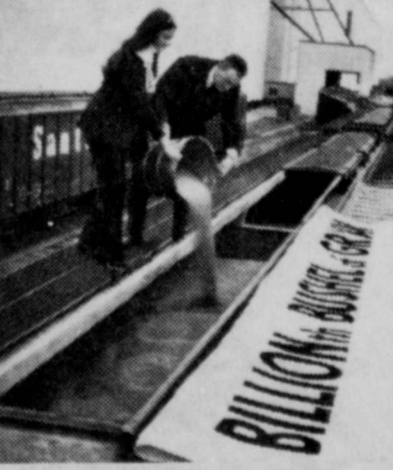

A new Santa Fe record:
Moving a BILLION bushels of grain in 20 months

The BILLIONTH BUSHEL was moved on March 20, 1974, and car 312567 at the FAR-MAR-CO elevator, Hutchinson, Kansas, broke the banner symbolizing this event.

Big moves are not unusual on the Santa Fe. Citrus, potato, coal, sulphur and various manufactured products move by the trainloads. But grain tops them all, especially wheat. This year marks the one hundredth anniversary of Turkey Red Wheat in the United States. Through the efforts of the Santa Fe back in 1874, the Mennonites emigrated from Russia and brought with them a few sacks of their wheat. It thrived in the Midwest and parts of the Southwest to develop that area into the breadbasket of the world. The past twenty months have been the most strenuous period in Santa Fe's one hundred year history of moving grain. A billion bushels have been handled since the heavy movement associated with the sale of grain for export, and the bumper harvests began in July, 1972. Within this period of time, Santa Fe has moved over 350,000 carloads of grain. While moving grain is a top job, Santa Fe is busy with an equally important project of moving fertilizer to nurture the new wheat crop, for the success of this year's harvest will offset concerns about a wheat shortage. Keeping ready for big moves is not easy. The Santa Fe freight fleet of 78,000 cars includes 16,000 covered hoppers, 12,000 of them jumbo 100-ton cars, which are ideal for moving grains, potato and other bulk commodities. Big moves also require modern diesel power, automated yards and skillful people to get the job done. All of this is now at work as Santa Fe continues at a record pace moving billions of the many things needed and used every day by the people of our nation.

THE ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND
SANTA FE RAILWAY
A SANTA FE INDUSTRIES COMPANY

"To give recognition to the movement of the BILLIONTH BUSHEL of grain over the Santa Fe in a twenty-month period, Miss Kansas Wheat joined me at Hutchinson, Kansas, March 20, 1974. When this record grain movement started in mid-1972, many predicted the rail industry would not be able to handle the job. Despite no advance warning and severe problems of port congestion that hampered the handling of cars with export wheat, Santa Fe and many other railroads have set records of moving grain while keeping other traffic rolling. This great transportation job was accomplished by skillful, dedicated Santa Fe people, and through the wonderful cooperation of all shippers. Grain continues to move in a big way and a bumper crop is expected at harvest time. That is why we are now hard at work planning ways to apply Santa Fe facilities and resources to move increasing volumes of traffic this year without serious car shortage."

Hale's Department Store

Sure cure for 5 o'clock feet

A Floydada super market was robbed in plain daylight by four well organized men shortly after 5 p.m. last Friday. They brandished no guns, but relied upon their ability to keep customers and clerks' attention so diverted that some of the shoppers didn't even know the store was being robbed.

Store manager Forrest Shannon said one man remained in the car, a twotone blue and white Buick. Two of the men attracted customers' attention by engaging them in conversation, while the third man hid inside the store office, taking some $350 from the office.

When the man inside the office dashed for the door, the other two followed and witnesses present were confused about which direction they left from the store.

Gladys Jones was shopping in Buddy's while the robbery was going on. One of the robbers approached her and began to ask her questions about how to find things in the store, to keep her attention diverted from the office where his accomplice was sacking up the money.

The Floyd County sheriff's office said one of the men was wanted by the FBI and he was arrested along with the other three down state this week. However, the three not wanted by the FBI were released, because arresting officers did not know about the Floydada robbery.

Agriculture's New Era

American agriculture is said to be entering a new era this year. It's an era which Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz says may present farmers with their greatest challenge ever.

As the Secretary sees it, U.S. farmers must prepare to: (1) meet the needs of a hungry and increasingly discriminating population at home, and (2) supplement and improve the diets of hundreds of millions of people beyond our shores.

The challenge to the American farmer is to accomplish both of these objectives while coping with tight supplies and rising costs of fuel, fertilizer, farm machinery, pesticides, and other major essentials to crop production and processing.

The new day in agriculture requires new competency on the part of the farmer as he adjusts to a free market situation. It also requires new understanding on the part of the consumer.

For example, there appears to be widespread consumer misunderstanding of the importance of farm exports. Many have the mistaken belief that eliminating exports would automatically result in lower costs of food and fiber here at home.

Yet it is those same farm exports that are making the American dollar stronger in world markets and holding down inflation here at home. Earnings from overseas sales of U.S. farm products last year wiped out a $7.6 billion deficit in non-agricultural trade, and gave this country its first trade surplus since 1970. Agricultural exports are America's ace in the hole when it comes to international relations, and they're also helping pay for much-needed oil and consumer goods that boost our standard of living.

Another often-overlooked point is the fact that America's vast farm machine—the one that's operated by five percent of our population to provide food and fiber for the remaining 95 percent—is geared to produce more than we consume.

If farmers are to have the profit incentive they need to stay on the farm and produce, then they must have the freedom to run at full capacity and sell their products at a fair price in the world market place.

That freedom is as essential as the shirt on your back or the food on your table.

What One Person Can Do

Dr. Marvin Stark Dentist

A Jewish dentist's longing to foster understanding and world peace led him to found a "private dental peace corps" that gives free care to thousands of Arab children in the Gaza Strip.

The program, called Operation Chalutz, also operates in Israel and Greece. One summer 32 Americans, including nine fourth-year dental students, travelled to Gaza, Israel and Greece at their own expense as part of the project.

Farm Exports Bring Nation Trade Surplus

Sale of U.S. farm products abroad during 1973 gave the nation its first trade surplus since 1970.

The surplus was built by the sale of $17.7 billion worth of American agricultural products, as compared to foreign food imports of $8.4 billion.

This left a $9.3 billion agricultural trade surplus which wiped out a $7.6 billion deficit in non-agricultural trade, and resulted in a $1.7 billion overall trade surplus.

Commenting on the trade balance, Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz says the agricultural trade surplus is making a vital contribution to the nation and to every consumer.

"It's stabilizing the dollar, strengthening our international posture, and helping pay for much-needed oil and consumer goods that add to our level of living affluence."

30's CRAZE BIG TODAY

Last year Americans ate 500 million pounds of pop corn; next year is due to top that.

Pop corn, discovered by the Indians and first marketed in the twenties, really got popping in the thirties when movie theatres made more on selling pop corn than they did on the flicks. It was a time, too, for staying home.

This cozy scene is from 1930's sheet music, "A Bowl of Pop Corn, a Radio and You," listening to the radio and filling up on hot buttered pop corn.

Dr. Marvin Stark of Los Altos, California, founder of Operation Chalutz. In Hebrew, Chalutz means "pioneering spirit."

Operation Chalutz is funded through the nonprofit Marvin M. Stark Research Foundation. This annual budget was $20,000, for supplies and related expenses. Over 1,400 children received care. The project began with one converted bus, in which Dr. Stark, his associates and their families roam the Israeli countryside.

To date, 40 practicing dentists in the U.S. have volunteered one month of their time, at their own expense, to operate the two-chair mobile clinic. Dental students from the University of Tel Aviv assist them in the summer and operate the clinic throughout the rest of the year.

"As Americans we want to build a better world," says Dr. Stark, "not through our power or might, but through our deeds among men."

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER

Thinks Court System's Rate Structure On Fines Needs Lot Of Revision

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may have his logic twisted up this week, but that's his worry. Dear editor:

As I understand it, the reason postage rates have gone up some more is that the government is trying to get the postal service on a paying basis.

While I have never been convinced the post office ought to show a profit — I thought it was a public service enterprise, like farming — the government of course may be right and I was just thinking.

If the post office ought to pay its way, then why shouldn't other government enterprises? Take the court system. It certainly doesn't turn a profit, its costs are going up, there's a log-jam of backed-up cases, all sorts of delays, and justice is being delivered slower than the mail. So it's possible if it were put under the supervision of private supervisors like the post office and some cold business principles adopted, the courts might start paying their way too.

For example, take the wide variations in court fines. I read only last night that, due to the fact the copper in a penny is worth more than the penny itself some people are melting them down for sale as copper scrap, so the government has now established a court fine of $10,000 for melting one down.

On the other hand, the fine for a big corporation's illegally donating $100,000 to a political campaign is $1,000. What sort of rate structure is that? Any hard-fisted business man knows you can't run a business or a court system like that and show a profit.

If the courts can get $10,000 for catching somebody melting down a penny, they ought to get $1,000,000 from a corporation for contributing $100,000 to a campaign. Think how many millions and millions of dollars such a rate structure would have brought in from the last election alone, and how far that would have gone toward reducing the court system's deficit.

I tell you, if we want to make money out of it, we ought to put the court system in the hands of business experts, but I'd suggest we not use the same experts who're managing the postal system. They can't seem to get the hang of it.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Utopia, a satire in which he contrasted a mythical kingdom ruled by reason alone with the self-interest and greed for power and riches in Christendom.

In 1534, More was ordered to take the Oath of Supremacy, declaring Henry VIII to be head of the Church in England. A devout Roman Catholic, whose personal prayers and austerities were known only to his daughter Meg, he refused. Imprisoned in the Tower of London, Thomas More wrote his family: "I beseech Him make you all merry in the hope of Heaven." He mounted the scaffold with a word of comfort for his executioner. A day earlier he had written: "Tomorrow I long to go to God." On February 10, 1535, that longing was fulfilled.

WHAT ONE PERSON CAN DO

Thomas More, Parent, Statesman, Martyr

His house rang with laughter. His children - three girls and a boy - studied Latin, Greek and philosophy. He was a leading member of the humanist movement that brought Europe out of the Middle Ages. He was trained as a lawyer and was appointed the highest judge in the land. He loved his religion and sought to win over opponents by persuasion rather than force. He was the King's faithful servant - but laid his head on the block rather than violate his conscience.

Later ages were to call Thomas More a saint. And the record shows that he was a surprisingly merry one. Sir Thomas taught his children the Greek alphabet by having them shoot arrows at the letters. A firm believer in the equality of the sexes, he said of men and women: "Both are reasonable beings, suited equally for those studies by which reason is cultivated."

As Lord Chancellor (1529-1532), More heard 4,000 cases, leaving a record of remarkable integrity. His renown as a scholar was secured by his authorship of

Floydada Care Center Happenings

By Dartha Westbrook
Another week is gone, and we have had a very busy week at the Care Center. We had four birthdays to celebrate at our April birthday party. All the residents look forward to this party with much excitement each month. We appreciate the faithfulness of the City Park Church women for always doing such a great job with this event.

We are looking forward to Nursing Home Week May 12 through 18. We are making plans for several exciting surprises for our residents, and will be asking the assistance of some of you fine Floydada people to help make this a week our residents remember for a long time. We plan to visit our museum, as I am sure many of our residents have never been there. If you have a special group that you would like to entertain on this week, please get in touch with me so that I can get everything lined up. If anyone has slides or movies of interesting places they have been, we would like to schedule you for a part in our week. I believe one of the most successful programs we have ever had was when Bro. West brought his paintings out and told us all about them. Every resident seems to be captivated by this program. We will be looking forward to getting some calls from some of the talented citizens of this community.

We appreciate the people who brought our devotions this week. Tuesday was special, as we had two of our residents bring the scripture readings, and comment on them. The residents enjoy taking an active part in our services.

Activity Director, Dessie Turner is in the hospital; however, we expect her back shortly, and pray that she will have a speedy recovery.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS

By Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, April 22 - A cold stiff north wind is blowing this morning, reminding us that winter has not left. Clouds at various times this past week promised rain, but the only moisture we have had, fell Thursday, in a small streak from around Frank McClure, Sylvan Kinnibrugh, Otho Sanders, Jack Smithermans, on to Alvin Nichols, and around Ernest Wells, where they received from three quarters to a half inch.

Among the girls trying out for cheerleader at the Floydada High School last week were Judi Bean, Carla Burleson and Shandra Young from the South Plains area. Tuesday will be the final tryouts for the girls.

In the Floydada Beauty Pageant Saturday night were Darla Milton and Ester Luna, of South Plains, Diana Grimes was named the winner.

Dinner guests and all day visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smitherman Sunday were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Simpson from Dimmitt. The Simpson's son, Brent, stays with the Smithermans and helps his grandfather in farm work. Afternoon visitors from Hart were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Martin.

There will be Community Bible Study Tuesday, April 30, at the home of Mrs. L.T. Wood. Mrs. June Ware will teach the Bible lesson. Make plans to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weast spent last week at their mountain home in Ruidoso, New Mexico. House guests from Silverton were her sister, Mrs. Stella Davis, and Miss Nellie and Miss Annie Bryant. Mrs. Weast had the misfortune to shut her left thumb in the car door Thursday when they were on a tour, some hundred miles from Ruidoso, and they were unable to find a doctor until they returned to Ruidoso. She had several stitches and has had a lot of discomfort with it. All came home Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Marble, Mrs. Travis Young and Claude Jarrett were sponsors for an outing of the fifth and sixth grades of South Plains School Friday afternoon. They left in three cars for Lubbock, and carried sack lunches which they took to Astro Park for supper. Later they went to the Texas Tech Rodeo and enjoyed the performance. The eighteen class members had made their money for the party with bake sales and such.

Several women of the South Plains Baptist Church will go to Floydada to the First Baptist Church April 23 for an all-day Vacation Bible School Clinic. Mrs. Peggy Roberts is heading the VBS this year at South Plains.

May 27, the Baptist Women of the five associations will go to Plains Encampment for their all-day WMU meeting. Remember to set aside this day for this purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian, Kristi, Miti and Tim returned Friday afternoon from Hollywood, Florida, where they spent the Easter holidays and the past ten days visiting with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Julian and other relatives. They left by plane April 11. While gone they toured the Miami Holiday area, spending one day in West Palm Beach at the Lion Country Safari, and then two days at Orlando where they enjoyed Disney World.

Mrs. Sylvan Kinnibrugh spent last week in Plainview where she kept her granddaughter, Melissa Horne in school, while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Horne went to Houston for a bowling tournament. They returned Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Kinnibrugh and Melissa went to Gilliland and Vera Saturday and spent the night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kinnibrugh. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dillard of Lockney accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure took her sister, Mrs. Minnie Griffin to Lubbock Wednesday to catch a plane for her home in Corona, California. She had visited here with them the past week.

Karen Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Ford, is just getting over the chicken pox. She was barely home from the hospital, following a tonsillectomy, when she became ill with the chicken pox.

During the South Plains revival services there were many visitors. Wednesday night Mrs. Molly Stringer and daughters of Sandhill presented musical selections. We were glad to see Mrs. Hazel Powell at church, since major surgery, Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sparkman of Plainview were present, and Bruce Strickland, youth director of Clarendon, spoke to the church. Saturday afternoon around 45 youth of the Northside Baptist Church, the "Joy Singers" and sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Dave McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sims, music director, Randy Williams, and Bobbie Stair at the piano entertained with an evening of music and testimonies. Around 60 youth were present Saturday evening for games of volleyball. Later refreshments were served.

Bryant and Kelly Higginbotham spent the weekend here with their grandmother, Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham, and they attended several revival services with her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thames, Marilyn and Randal of Carthage, Texas, were weekend guests in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gilbreath and Wayne. They attended Sunday morning and night revival services in South Plains.

Mrs. Pat Wood, with boys, Len and Russ, left Saturday before Easter for St. Louis, Mo., to spend the holidays with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard. They returned Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton and Darla flew in their plane Thursday morning before Easter to spend the holidays in Tracy, California with relatives. There was a bad dust storm Thursday but Milton was able to rise above the clouds. They flew home Monday evening.

Mrs. George Weast and her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Lee Smith of Sterley, will leave Friday for Washington, D.C. where Saturday at 3 p.m. they will attend the wedding of Mrs. Weast's grandson, Gary Lee Evans. Gary works at the Congressional Library. They will make their home in Washington, D.C. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Evans of Amarillo.

They came by way of Albuquerque, N.M., where they entertained and will go back this week to Elko, Nevada, and then to Las Vegas, Nevada, where the group is now living. Jimmy and Larry Trider appeared on Channel 11, TV and friends of Jimmy were excited about hearing them. They collaborated writing the music which they presented on the air.

White Says Texas Agriculture Ready For Technological Exp.

AUSTIN - "Texas agriculture is on the threshold of a technological and production explosion, brought on by pressures of a world-wide demand for food and fiber," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said this week.

"We completed a record-smashing year in Texas agriculture in 1973, with cash receipts totaling near $5 billion. For the first time in a generation, our farm and ranch families began to make a decent wage while serving as the main contributors to the highest standard of living in the world," said White.

"These successes have brought with them some problems," the commissioner said. "The big demand for our products abroad has caused price increases for consumers."

"Our big challenge is to increase our production to meet these needs on our own food supply."

White said a major supply of fuel will be needed for our farmers and ranchers. "The key to our production," he said, "is all necessary supplies for our cultural operations. state economy is strong," he added.

Commissioner White is seeking re-election.
