News of Our CHURCHES

Methodist Church:

The W. S. C. S. met in regular meeting, Tuesday, Aug. 27, with 10 members present.

The topic for discussion was "Stewardship," and interesting talks on the subject were given by Mrs. P. L. London and Mrs. O. C. Jones. Mrs. Lamb led the group to a "Bible Quiz."

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, September 3. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Congregational Church

Attendance last Sunday at both church and Sunday school was better than getting back nearer to normal.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Dale Baker, Glenn Reeve occupied the rostrum and gave a most interesting and instructive talk on what might be called—"Practical Religion."

Rev. Baker will be here the coming Sunday and will have charge of the regular worship services. This will probably be Rev. Baker's last Sunday with us for this season. Rev. and Mrs. North are expected to be here for the following Sunday.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST LADIES BIBLE CLASS

The class met with Mrs. Eugene Bogges, Thursday, August 2nd. Our lesson was the 3rd chapter of Galatians, and there were nine present.

It was decided to send a box of clothes to the Philippine War Relief. If you want to help in this work, come and bring what you have. If you have any materials or patterns, come and bring them. We have been advised that summer clothes are all that they need, as it is hot climate there.

The Bible Class will meet with Mrs. Clyde Denton next time, September 5.

We were very glad to have Brother Isbell with us Sunday and at night he began his regular work here. He will be with us each Sunday and Sunday night. Come and hear him. He always has an interesting message.

Jasper Family Reunion Draws Large Delegation of Guests Past Week End

FORMER TEACHER VISITED FRIONA

Lt. J. G. and Mrs. E. W. Boedeker, now of Dallas, arrived here Wednesday afternoon, and were guests at the F. W. Reeve home; Mrs. Boedeker and Miss Mary Reeve having formerly been room-mates, and Lt. Boedeker having been for several terms a teacher in the local schools.

On account of his popularity as a teacher here, Mr. Boedeker had a large number of friends to meet and shake hands with, all of whom were pleased to have them here again. While here he called at the Star office to make arrangement for the Star to visit their home for a year. He is now a student at the S. M. U. at Dallas.

Friona Citizens Are Reminded of Old Regulations

The Commissioners Court of Parmer county this week reminds Friona citizens of the laws relative to leaving dead animals and refuse on highways.

The statutes provide for a fine of not less than five and not more than one hundred dollars for any person leaving any animal, "which died in the actual possession of such person within five hundred yards of any private residence or in any street or alley of any town." The same penalty may be assessed for dumping refuse within fifty yards of a public road, highway, street or alley.

The law also says that no municipal corporation, partnership, private corporation, joint stock association, syndicate, voluntary association or individual person shall use any dumping ground for trash, refuse, debris or dead animals within three hundred yards of any public highway of the State of Texas.

Whether the person or corporation violating this statute does or does not own the land where refuse is left makes no difference in the penalty against such violators.

Included in the regulations is a paragraph stating that these laws are intended in no way to "affect farmers in the handling of anything necessary in the growing, handling and care of livestock, or the erection, operation and maintenance of any and all such improvements necessary in the preparation of any and all agricultural products."

Offenders under this second section are subject to fines between ten and two hundred dollars. Each day of such violation shall be counted as a separate offense.

O. B. Moyer was called to Weatherford this week to be with his father who has to undergo a major operation, in that city.

Mrs. Collier, of Oklahoma, is visiting in the David Neeley home this week.

Anna Lee White, of Clovis, visited her mother over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen visited her parents at Hereford, Sunday.

Mrs. D. N. Jones, of Holdenville, Okla. visited her parents here over the week end.

FRIONA GOT 1.75 INCHES OF MOISTURE

The long and severe dry spell for Friona and locality, the most severe in thirty years, was broken when one and three-fourths inches of moisture fell in a slow, soaking rain Tuesday night and Wednesday forenoon.

The rain seems to have been general throughout the territory, but much lighter toward the west and north, according to reports received in town during Wednesday afternoon.

Farmers are very much encouraged by the rain, and it is thought the moisture received will be sufficient to bring up the volunteer wheat; also the planted seed, when it is put in the ground.

Quite a big acreage of broadcast feed crops were sown directly after harvest, most of which came up but for want of moisture had made but little growth, and it is hoped that such crops have received also sufficient moisture to at least make good forage for stock feeding during the winter. It is also hoped the wheat crop will get sufficient growth to produce good winter pasturage.

Mother Rescues Girl From Tank

Little Rita Albracht, one and one-half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Albracht narrowly escaped drowning when she fell into a stock tank on the Albracht farm, Wyche community, Monday afternoon, August 26.

Rita and her sister, Gail, were playing near the tank when Rita fell in and was unable to climb out. When her efforts to rescue her sister failed, Gail ran to the house for her mother, who returned to find Rita already unconscious.

The little girl was rushed to a physician in Hereford where she regained consciousness. Her condition was reported as improved Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ag. boys returned Saturday night from a week's sojourn in the New Mexico mountains.

FRIONA BOY IS NOW AIRPLANE MECHANIC

From Keesler Field, Miss. comes the announcement that Pfc. Robert D. Blackburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Blackburn, of Friona, was graduated from one of the world's greatest educational programs—one of the AAF Training Commands airplane mechanic's training courses at Keesler Field.

The training he received in the mechanical school covered basic airplane and engine mechanic operations. The technical course extended over a period of approximately 42 days and included instruction in aircraft electrical systems, engine operations, fuel and oil systems, propellers, structures, instruments and basic inspection. This qualifies him for additional specialized training in the maintenance of heavy bombers, cargo planes, jet and motor aircraft.

Friona School Term to Open Tues., Sept. 3

All announcements made in the last issue of the Star relative to the opening of the Friona schools and registration days, remain as therein stated with the exception of the opening day, which will be on Tuesday of next week, September 3, instead of Monday, as stated last week.

All conditions appear to be indicative of another successful term of school, as many of the teachers who were here last year have been retained, and their ability as teachers has been proven, and those teachers who will be here for their first time, come to us with the best of recommendations.

Through the kindness of Superintendent, C. D. Holmes, the Star is able to afford to the patrons of the schools, a list of the teachers and their respective places in the curriculum, also other announcements as contributed by Mr. Holmes.

"As announced last week, registration will be on Friday and Saturday, August 30th and 31st. School will not open until Tuesday. The buses will run the first time, Tuesday morning, and the cafeteria will serve the first meal, Tuesday at noon.

There will be a general assembly in the auditorium, Tuesday morning at 9:30. The public is invited.

"All boys who are interested in going out for the football team, will meet, Monday morning at 9:30, at the dressing room, to get football equipment. Mr. Stewart, the coach, will be there at that time, and as soon as the equipment is issued, there will be a workout, also during the afternoon."

Following is a list of the teachers:
Mr. P. F. Williams, High School Principal and Band; Miss Helen Smith Home Making; Mrs. P. F. Williams, History; Mrs. O. J. Beene, Commerce; Mr. R. W. Stewart, Social Science and Coach; Miss Faydeene Watkins Math; Mrs. James Bragg, Science; Mr. J. T. Gee, Agriculture; Mr. R. L. Couple Held On Theft Charges

A man and woman, giving their names as Mr. and Mrs. Marvin James, are being held in connection with a series of robberies in this area. Mrs. James is held in the County Jail in Hereford and Mr. James is held in Clovis, according to Sheriff J. O. Newell.

James was picked up by Clovis police and routine investigation led to contacts with the Sheriff here. Mrs. James has been employed in a local cleaning shop and the couple had been renting an apartment from Mrs. Allen Bell, West Third Street.

Included among goods recovered was approximately $250 in merchandise taken from the Gaston Baer home Monday; other articles from robberies in Amarillo, Clovis, and Canyon were also recovered and are in custody of Clovis authorities awaiting identification, according to Sheriff Newell.

Mrs. Ted Rutherford and boys, of New Mexico, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Slagle, this week.

Sixth Grade; Mrs. Ruth Edelman, Fifth Grade; Miss Wilma Watkins, Fourth Grade; Miss Lucile Bengler, Third Grade; Mrs. Lovett, Third Grade; Miss Naomi Hare, Second Grade; Mrs. C. D. Holmes, Second Grade; Mrs. Bengler, First Grade.

COGITATIONS and APHORISMS of Jodok

Well, the final Primary election is over, and our state and county officers have been chosen for another two-year term, but the sad thing about it is the fact that one of the candidates in each contest which was decided in this run-off election, was defeated and naturally feels disappointed, crest-fallen and dejected, owing to the fact that he was defeated, and his supporters are feeling more or less the same pangs of defeat and disappointment. It just seems like there must be some pangs of remorse to qualify the joys of victory.

Now, please do not begin calling me a pessimist, for I am not really that; but facts are facts and may as well be faced and acknowledged. Neither am I a whole-souled optimist, and it is just this little "sting" of remorse that someone must suffer. It is there, for such is human nature and such is humanity. And how can I be truly happy and optimistic about any matter wherein some of my fellow creatures must be unreservedly dejected?

So far as those two primary elections are concerned, I am naturally supposed to have no care, since I did not vote in either of them, for reasons that are good and sufficient unto myself. Furthermore I am not supposed to have anything in the matter that should cause a single care in my mind, owing to the fact that the men for whom I would have voted had I voted at all, were, with, perhaps one or two exceptions, elected, and one of those was in a contest in which I would have had no part, even though I had voted. But I do feel that little pang of sadness, just the same. So, there!

I did, in a sort of half-hearted manner, promise myself a week ago last Sunday, that I would not go to Sunday School nor church this past Sunday, but the thing I had planned to do did not materialize, and back I came to Sunday school and remained for church, and I am truly glad that I did so, for, although the pastor was away in attendance at the State and it was at first proposed that there would be no church service last Sunday, but someone proposed that one of four young men take the pulpit and deliver an address, expressing some of his personal ideas.

And that is why I am so glad that I was present to hear him, for he brought forward some of the most profoundly true and worth-while ideas that have ever been spoken from that or any other pulpit. Yes, he is just one of our home boys and one of the careful and successful business men of Friona, but he hit the nail on the head with his logic and philosophy. And the fellows that went galavanting off because there would be nothing worthwhile to hear at church—Well, I feel sorry for you.

And the music—well, it was beautiful, enrapturing, sublime, and it was produced by two of Friona's pioneer ladies, both of whom are as truly noble as the sun ever shone on.

And all this I got right here in Friona, and without a minister, and I am not especially praising any particular church, for the same conditions can be produced in—I believe—any one of our local churches. But my chief reason in mentioning these facts, is that they may be accorded praise of our own little city. GET ME?

But "That is but a handful," as one of my former good neighbors was wont to say when mentioning anything good about his home or his community, and if I have any fault to find with my neighbors, the people of Friona and community, it is that they appear too unobservant and inexpressive of the merits of their town and its people.

I sometimes wonder, just how many of our people have stopped to consider, just how many of our brave boys, who risked their lives and gave up whatever prestige they may have had and suffered the hardships of the cruel war, World War II. (And this applies to those of World War I, the same) that have returned home and have made or are making a place for themselves in the economic life of our fair little city. As I view the matter, there is but a very small percent of them who have not done so. And have they asked any special favors of their neighbors or their government? None that I recall and they are making good at their jobs. Is that anything to be proud of as a citizen of the Friona community?

I would like, if I had the time, to call attention to a few cases of this sort, but time and space forbid just now. But—

Such! I like Friona. Why should I not like it? Is there any reason on the part of any of our people for not liking it? Now just a little poetry by way of illustration. I have used this little jingle before, but it is still good for another time.

I'm living in a little town
 And enjoying it every day,
 For I like to do my living
 In a friendly sort of way;
 I'm never tired of meeting
 The friends I've known for years,
 And I get the most from living
 When I'm sharing smiles and tears.
 Life without the friendly greeting of folks I know so well
 Would be a lonely kind of life,
 Just an empty sort of shell;
 about all that I am asking
 At the closing of the Day
 Is a chance to do my living
 In a friendly sort of way.
 —Author unknown.

And now I want to quote a few toasts that have been given for others, and much larger cities, which I want you to compare with the toast that I shall give to close with.

"I come from good old Boston, the home of the bean Cakes; speak only Lowells and the Lowells speak only 'To God.'"

And here is another.

"Here's to New Haven and Boston, and the turf that the Puritans trod; in the Rest of mankind little virtue they find but they both feel quite chummy with God."

And here is the cap sheaf of these quoted toasts. Note it well.

"Here is to Providence, good Old town; home of R. Williams and good old Brown. Where religious liberty is on a broad plane, and the Lord drops in as often as He can—gives us a talk in an informal way, Takes in the sights on Narragansett Bay everyone's happy as a High water clam, and for Bug-a-boo creeds, we don't Give a damn."

Now I am going to give you one of local interest, which suits me to a T.

"Here's to Friona, the Gem Of the Plains—its people Are happy whenever it Rains; but when the rains Fall them, they fume not Nor fret; but are still a Good-hearted, good neigh-

New Silvertowns "Meet Taxi Requirements"

"Rain or shine, year in and out, 24 hours of the day, taxis serve the public," says Mr. Thomas A. Ballantine, President of Yellow Cab, Louisville, Ky. "Safety, dependability, and economy are the watchwords of successful taxi operation. B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns meet these requirements."

For Safety, Economy, and Mileage choose the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

One of the taxi fleets that tested the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown before it was offered for public sale was Yellow Cab, Louisville, Ky. In addition, it was tested on police cars and the B.F. Goodrich test fleet over millions of miles in all kinds of weather under severest conditions, and even at high speeds. All these tests supported Mr. Ballantine's findings that: "... their wider, flatter tread gives our cabs better traction and surer, safer stopping. The stronger cord body means fewer interruptions and service stoppages. And in actual mileage, tests on our fleet prove they OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES. Because Silvertown tires cover more ground, our cabs can, too, without interruption."

We know you'll want these tires for your car. So to be on the safe side, see us today.

Veterans Warned Not to Accept Unearned Checks

Veterans who fail to notify the Veterans Administration when they interrupt their training or education and continue to accept Government allowances are subject to severe penalties, VA warned today.

Eldon F. Fuller, Chief, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education, Lubbock VA Regional Office, cautioned veterans that VA training officers are making regular investigations to prevent such practices.

Beginning September 1, a blank form will be with each check mailed to veterans in training.

These forms must be returned to the Disbursement Office that mailed the check, whenever the veteran's training or education is interrupted. This notification will enable VA to discontinue payments.

Veterans who accept checks under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act to which they are not entitled will be ineligible to receive any further benefits under the act. They also may be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than a year, or both.

Most schools are prompt to notify VA of withdrawals, but some business firms approved for on-the-job training have neglected to report the withdrawal of veterans from training.

In both cases, however, Fuller emphasized, the responsibility rests on the veteran.

VA investigators who made a recent three-day check in one Texas community found 38 veterans receiving allowances to which they were not entitled. Some of the veterans had discontinued training as long ago as October, 1945.

Service Officer Ralph Smith, Smith, assisted by representatives of the V. F. W. and American Legion, will be glad to assist in filling out the forms and mailing them for the applicant.

"All the veteran needs to have is his discharge papers (both sides) or a photostatic copy thereof," Smith said. "He should also figure the amount of leave he had accrued, exclusive of sickness, convalescence, temporary duty or rehabilitation. Any veteran who has served in any branch of the service since September 8, 1917, and practically everywhere, this area can draw additional pay."

In making the application, Smith pointed out that it is made to hand in for veterans of the war, but said, "We will fill out and mail for any veteran—and no matter what."

The veteran should take careful note of the month for which his subsistence check is used as shown by the date of the check.

If he has discontinued education or training for any reason during the month prior to the month for which the subsistence check was issued, he should not cash the check under penalty of the laws.

The check should be returned without endorsement to the Disbursement Office shown on the envelope. The blank form in the envelope should be filled out and returned with the check.

OKLAHOMA GUESTS

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Milburn the past week end were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd English, Mr. and Mrs. Fate Jameson and son Jerry and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Obenhaus and son Tommy, all of Altus, Okla.

The Philippine Islands are also of strategic importance to us in our perimeter of defense and in the basic legislation the United States retained the right to keep and develop them as long as we so desired. The population of the Philippines is approximately 18 million people which represents nearly all classes or castes. Manuel Roxas was recently elected by an overwhelming majority to be the first President of the Philippines. There is a question in my mind, however, as to whether the Philippines were actually ready for or could discharge the obligations which their independence carried. Their economy was of course ruined by the Japanese and they still seemed groggy from the brutality of the Jap occupation. However, President Roxas assured us that in spite of these handicaps they could and would do everything within their power to convince the world they could stand on their own feet and take their place in the world of nations. They depend in large measure upon the export of sugar but most of the sugar mills were destroyed by the enemy and Mr. Roxas said they needed at least 150 thousand tons of ammonium sulphate as fertilizer but had been able to secure but 15 tons as yet from the United States.

Prices in the Philippines are high, as they seem to be all over the world. As you can imagine, there is not very much to buy and in such a chaotic economy prices naturally rise.

The Independence Day ceremony itself was very impressive. Because of the extreme midday heat in the Philippines, most affairs are scheduled for early morning, consequently we were on hand at 8 o'clock the next morning, July 4. Among the speakers was Senator Tydings of Maryland, Commissioner McNutt, President Roxas and General Douglas MacArthur, who occupies a very high place in the hearts of the Filipinos. The square was packed and jammed with Filipino people and despite rain during the middle of the ceremony, the Philippines became a living Republic that morning.

There was a State Dinner that night which was attended by ambassadors and other dignitaries from Russia, England, France and nearly all other countries.

The next day we saw at first hand Bataan, ruined Corregidor, Subic Bay, and other U. S. installations which gave mute testimony to the bloody battles which were fought there.

The Islands themselves are most impressive in their tropical productivity but they could do with the know-how which the American farmer could supply. Incidentally, Mr. Roxas also said they welcomed with open arms any and all Americans who could provide such know-how and industry.

From the Philippines, we left for Shanghai—a distance of 250 miles, arriving there late in the afternoon, flying along the edge of Formosa which had been in Japanese hands during the occupation. In order to get a better look at the rice paddies and crops and people living along this shore, we dropped to an altitude of 200 or 250 feet. While airplanes are not exactly a novelty out there, one native who saw the giant four-engine plane skimming over his head, threw up his hands in consternation and began running toward us and then turned and started the other way. When we passed over him he was still running. Although we dipped one wing Field inspectors from this office report the following unsafe practices being present throughout the state. These practices are extremely hazardous and must cease immediately.

1. Installing underground systems aboveground. There have been a number of such instances come to the attention of this division. In nearly all cases the excuse is made that it is only a temporary installation. In no case will an underground system be installed aboveground.
2. Filling ICC bottles not equipped with relief valves. No vessel may be filled with liquefied petroleum gas which is not equipped with the proper relief valve in operating condition. No vessel is approved nor may any vessel be installed which is not equipped with a relief valve of an approved type and adequate area.
3. Filling ICC bottles not equipped with liquid level gauging devices. Vessels not equipped with such devices but otherwise filled in accordance with the provisions of Gas Utilities Docket No. 141 may be filled only by weighing. Extreme care must be taken to prevent overfilling.
4. Filling so called "Rock Gas or California Bottles". These containers have reversed heads and are not approved for use in Texas. No dealer will fill any such container at any time.
5. The practice of selling systems to unlicensed individuals to be installed by them. The statutes require that all installations be made by a licensed and bonded installer and reported by him to this division. Any system not so installed is not an approved installation and must not be filled with liquefied petroleum gas.

In order to save time and avoid confusion in inspecting public building installations all licensees submitting plans covering such proposed installations must give the location in such a manner that the inspector can locate the installation without delay.

Very truly yours,

S. C. McIntosh, Director.

Tech Now Has Growing Pains

LUBBOCK, August 27.—Seeking further to meet its obligations in educating veterans, Texas Technological College has requested the government to allot it a sizable amount of aid in setting up additional non-housing facilities on the campus.

President W. M. Whyburn, acting for the college, made application for a share of the $100,000,000 recently made available through the Bureau of Community Facilities, Federal Works Agency, to provide needed buildings.

Tech's application pointed out the college, with an expected enrollment this fall over 50 per cent higher than last spring, needs additional classrooms, laboratories, ROTC space, a dispensary clinic, repair shops, faculty offices, lecture auditorium, physical education building and veterans guidance center if the College is to care for veterans adequately.

Under the program the Works Agency would put up buildings for educational institutions for emergency use, the colleges providing ground, sidewalks, streets, utilities, and other adjuncts.

Tech. Dr. Whyburn said, has received formal notice of meetings at which the program will be discussed and at which progress toward allotment will be made.

Dr. Whyburn praised the program, stating thousands of veterans will secure educations more quickly as a result. Tech and other schools, he added, have been unable to erect needed structures, partly because of building restrictions.

Support Price On Spuds Off Aug. 31
Unless an extension is granted this week, the support price on potatoes will go off August 31. Application has been made for continuation of the $2.25 support price but the AAA office today reported that no news has been received.

F. G. Collier reported that 14 cars of onions had been bought here by the government from a quota of 20 cars, which was allotted to this area. Purchases are made through the surplus purchase program and the onions will go to government institutions.

Wheat Flour With Other New Taste and Texture

White bread offered in any reliable cookbook.

In using potatoes in bread, both the proportions and the method of mixing are different. Only a small quantity of potato can be used—about one cup of mashed potatoes to five or six cups of flour. The mashed potato is thinned with potato water, then mixed with the softened yeast cake before the flour is stirred in to make a dough or sponge. Mashed sweet potatoes may be added to the sponge with the flour.

The German rye bread, called "All-rye bread" and heavier than white bread, is a lighter shade by using half wheat flour.

Texas Crime Rate Nearly Doubles In Two Years

Austin, Aug. 28.—(Spl)—Criminals are preying upon the rural population of Texas at nearly double the rate of two and a half years ago, Director Homer Garrison of the Department of Public Safety declared today.

Garrison said rural crime increased 85.27 per cent from the first six months of 1944 to the first six months of 1946.

Biggest gain was in robbery, up 133 per cent. Another staggering gain was shown in burglary, up 121 per cent. Auto theft jumped 96 per cent; felony theft 61 per cent; murder and homicide 55 per cent; and rape 48 per cent.

During the same period crime increased 42 per cent in the cities. The overall gain for both rural and urban jurisdictions was 54.54 per cent.

Garrison said law enforcement officers are "holding their own against long odds," for arrests have increased in direct proportion to the gain in crime.
