Business houses will be closed on the Fourth. Looks like we all going forsake shekel-hunting for one day, forget our troubles, and let the depression, if any, take care of itself. Maybe so. At any rate we're having cool-very cool mornings, and hot d- hot afternoons, and that's that! A long time ago we learned to discount the yodelings of scientists. They'd tell you the sun was 90,000,000 miles from the earth, we'd believe it. But when the town painter, after finishing a job, hung a warning sign: "Fr. sh Paint," on the wall, darned if we'd believe him until we dabbed our finger over the surface.

A very peculiar case is now being tried at San Antonio. A woman accuses a former pastor of intimacy, and ultimate marriage. The defendant denies every allegation. Just one thing about it: were we sitting in the jury box, we figure out, after due deliberation, that somebody was

SERVICE CLUBS

The Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary and similar organizations exert a powerful influence in erecting those standards of citizenship which guarantee to every man the opportunity to develop his God-given talents in accordance with his ability and resourcefulness. Their creeds are simple and constructive, containing no platitudinous generalities, but embodying the plain objective of serving, building and spreading the gospel of the underlying principles of American independence—the pursuit of happiness. The materials with which they build are not limited to any particular line of endeavor, but are varied as circumstance, place and time suggest opportunities for concrete and constructive effort for the common good.

A great cardinal principle of these clubs, in maintaining their service to humanity, is a belief in the fundamental fact that behind every finished product there must be the human heart, the human mind and the human hand, and that only in so far as these human agencies are trained and developed, given breadth and vision and courage, can any worthwhile building be accomplished. Their record of achievement is open for all the world to see, and it is abounding in the high purpose of upbuilding human character, relief of suffering humanity and a constructive attitude toward every worthy problem, local, state and national. At the recent Florida district, Lions International convention at Miami, a well merited tribute was paid to these service clubs for the beneficient work they have accomplished by Fred H. Davis, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, who said: "Service clubs, such as the Lions, Kiwanis, and Rotary, have prospered and grown great in America because they have evidenced the scope of human relationships, fostered good will. We've left to us no opportunity for the spread of hatred in this country, and I feel the chief responsibility for this happy condition may be laid to the service clubs of the nation."--Topic, Mt. Dora, Florida.

"SCANDALS" BY FOX FILMS IS A MAGNIFICENT REVUE OF STARS

GEO. WHITE'S FAMOUS MUM-CAL BROUGHT TO SCREEN RUDY VALLEE, ALICE FAYE AND JIMMY DURANTE.

Bigger, better and more magnificent than any of the productions that have annually amazed Broadway's musical playgoers for the past fifteen years, Geo. White's "Scandals" opens at the Princess theatre, Sanderson, next Friday and Saturday, July 6 and 7. It is a picture you can't afford to miss, for Fox has indeed scooped the entertainment world by presenting for the first route to her home from a visit in time this lavis production of the El Paso with her sister, Mrs. T. The beau- Dallas. tiful sets employed by the revues, and the intricate ultra-modern routines of the dances created gy Georgie Hale are colorful to the utmost.

Throughout this array of comedy beauty, dancing and songs, runs a romantic tale of interest and genuine suspense. It is the love of two of the principals in the show, A scheming debutante threatens to steer this romance on the rocks and at the same time ruin the show. But a clever plan devised by the producer. Rev. Dumont Clarke has published a Lord's Acre hymn which is suitable for use in connection with

We care for our Lord's Acres, And thing of Jesus' way: His beauty and His goodness Grow in us day by day. We dedicate these acres, Like fields the Master trod. And join with one another

In willing work with God. So serving well our church life, A holy joy we find: Christ's spirit in our farm work Binds us to all mankind. And we who do in reverence The tasks God daily sends,

Grow kindly, just and helpful,

As neighbors and His friends.

With Jesus' spirit growing In life, like ripening field, So serve we ever better To bring God's harvest yield. And as the years pass over-Like springs that never cease, The Heavenly Father's blessings

Give constant joy and peace. Thus be our work and worship Beneath the open sky; It makes the farm life sacred, 'Mid flock and lowing herd,
