NUMBER 6

TWO MEN AND WOMAN ARRESTED IN STOLEN AUTO

Two men and a woman drove into the Phillips 66 Station, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rainwater, ordered gasoline without shutting off the motor and drove away without paying for it.

Mrs. Rainwater was at the station alone when the car drove in. Mr. Rainwater being down the street. The trio asked that their car be filled with gasoline. Mrs. Rainwater hesitated a moment because of the motor still running, but proceeded to fill the tank and at the same time took the license number of the automobile. After the tank had been filled they asked that two cold drinks be wrapped up for them to take with them. When Mrs. Rainwater turned around to get the drinks they sped out of the driveway and toward Marathon. Mr. Rainwater was called and the sheriff's department notified.

Within a few hours Sheriff J. S. Nance returned with the trio and the automobile, which proved to be stolen. He had telephoned ahead and they were stopped at Marathon where he picked them up.

The driver of the automobile, who gave his name as Jay Devendinger, of Kansas, remained in jail until officers from Dallas came for him to answer a charge of car theft there. The other man and woman were released after questioning and it was learned that Devendinger had picked them up between Sanderson and Del Rio.

Selective Service Regulations Are Made More Liberal

Liberalization of Selective Service Regulations pertaining to appeals from local board classifications and inauguration of an extensive campaign to educate registrants in the full use of the appellate machinery designed to protect their individual rights were announced today by National Headquarters, Selective Service System.

With approximately 4,000,000 men classified by local boards on the basis of their availability for military service, relatively few appeals have been made to Selective Service boards of appeal, and only a minute number of requests for adjudication of decisions have been submitted to the President, it was said.

However, National Headquarters announced that as "Congress had realized that local boards are not infallible and individual rights are best protected when a check is made," it was its intention to make certain that all registrants, their dependents and others interested in their welfare have every opportunity to obtain review of classifications they consider unjust.

First major step in the liberalization program, as announced today, is an amendment to the Selective Service Regulations which extends the present five-day limitation on filing of appeals to the President to ten days. Additional time may be granted by a local board if it is satisfied that the failure of a registrant to appeal was due to the lack of understanding of his rights or some cause beyond his control.

Plans are also being made, it was said, to increase the present five-day limit on appeals from local boards' decisions to boards of appeal.

Prior to issuance of the amendment relating to appeals to the President, the Regulations permitted such appeals only on the basis of dependency. The amendment provides:

"When either the State Director of Selective Service or the Director of Selective Service deems it to be in the national interest or necessary to avoid an injustice he may at any time appeal to the President from any determination of a board of appeal."

For the registrant or his dependents to appeal to the President the sole basis continues to be that of alleged dependency.

In announcing the new appeal policy and the plan to educate all registrants on the method of appealing decisions, National Headquarters said:

"There is no obligation upon all who come in contact with the registrant to make certain that he understands, not alone that he has the privilege of appeal but also when he must do it and how he must do it.

The Selective Service System cannot afford to permit registrants who want to appeal to lose their opportunity merely because they do not understand the what, when and how of so doing. Furthermore, while National Headquarters does not want the appeal machinery clogged up with the claims of those who merely seek to delay their induction, it is equally important that no registrant be intimidated until he has had ample opportunity to exercise all his legal rights."

The new appellate provisions of the Regulations became effective April 7.

CULTURE CLUB TO MEET AT MONTGOMERY HOME

The Sanderson Culture Club will meet Thursday, April 17, at the home of Mrs. Fred Montgomery. Every one will please report to Mrs. Jack McKee if they plan to go.

The following topics will be discussed from the April issue of the Reader's Digest:

"The American Century"

"Youth, Get Your Toe in the Door."

RED CROSS FIELD REPRESENTATIVE HERE FOR WORK

Robert W. Baxter, field representative for the American Red Cross, was in Sanderson the latter part of last week aiding in the complete organizing and the making of plans for the local chapter.

G. J. Henshaw is chapter chairman of the local group and is also chairman of the Army and Navy Welfare Service which serves as a means of communications between the men in uniform and their families at home. When a soldier or sailor requests leave of absence because of illness of his family or some other emergency the Welfare Service goes into action and within a few hours can furnish officers with every particular pertaining to the case as evidence of the necessity of his obtaining leave of absence and thus start him on his way.

Duane E. Smith is chairman of the Home and Farm Accident Prevention Program which will be conducted this spring and Judge R. S. Wilkinson is Disaster Preparedness chairman. His work is to prepare a plan of action that can be carried out in time of sudden disaster such as a flood or tornado, until the arrival of the National Red Cross units.

Mrs. A. E. Creigh Jr. is chairman of the War Relief Production and has charge of the sewing room. Mrs. C. P. Peavy also assists with the work and has charge of the knitting problems. Material for this work is furnished by the Red Cross and is made into garments by local members and volunteers and is shipped to a central shipping point. From there it is shipped for distribution among the needy in England, Greece, China, and unoccupied France. This distribution is under the direct supervision of Red Cross foreign representatives.

Miss Lillian Weimers is chairman of the Junior Red Cross, the purpose of which is to give students an opportunity to cooperate in civic affairs and welfare problems as well as the educational program.

Mrs. E. McSparren Leader at Parent-Teacher Meeting

Mrs. E. McSparren was the leader for the Parent-Teacher Association program held April 3 at 7:30 p. m. She asked the Rev. John W. Byrd to lead the audience in prayer.

The Sanderson High School Band entertained with several enjoyable numbers, including clever performances by the drum major and twirlers of the band.

Business, which was next in order, included reading of the minutes, the treasurer's report and the standing committees, reports. Room attendance was taken by Ted Baker who awarded the prize to the fifth grade.

Robert W. Baxter, a visitor, discussed Red Cross work over the country and said he was very proud of the work our American women are doing for the Red Cross. Of course, there is always room for improvement.

"Contentment and Security at Home" was entertainingly reported on by Mrs. Earl Pierson.

The new officers recently elected for 1941 and 1942 are as follows: Mrs. Tol Murrah, president; Mrs. Will Savage, first vice president; Mrs. E. J. Chastain, second vice president; Mrs. B. F. Anderson, third vice president; Mrs. C. L. Surratt, secretary, and Mrs. J. L. Newton, treasurer.

Mrs. A. E. Creigh Jr. returned home Sunday from El Paso where she had been several weeks under medical treatment. Her condition is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Ben Arvin returned Saturday from a weeks visit with her parents in Harlingen.

Sanderson Has Many New Homes Under Construction

During the past year, and more especially in recent months, Sanderson has been experiencing an increase in the erection of new homes that it has not seen for many years.

Pictured is the Presbyterian Manse, occupied by the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Byrd and family, which was one among the first to be erected. The structure is a modern 5-room frame stucco home equipped for gas and all other modern conveniences. The stucco is painted white, the roof red, and the screens trimmed in black.

Besides this home there have been a number of others built and 10 are under construction at the present. One of the most beautiful buildings under construction is the native stone veneer Catholic Church building which is 40x85 feet. This church is scheduled to be completed sometime in May according to present plans.

Those who have homes under construction at present are C. P. Peavy, frame stucco; William Lea Jr., frame stucco; Johnny Whistler, native stone veneer; J. T. Williams, hollow tile stucco; C. E. Clymer, frame; Hugh Rose, frame stucco; A. A. Shelton, concrete garage apartment; Carl Cochran, hollow tile stucco; P. P. Courtney, frame stucco; and O. T. Sudduth, native stone veneer.

With the additional new homes under construction and others being planned, Sanderson is fast taking on the appearance of a prosperous town and with each new home is increasing in attractiveness. In the past several years many shacks have been razed to make way for new buildings and also to enhance the appearance of its surroundings. The removal of these old buildings has done much to improve the appearance of Sanderson and as soon as a few more of the frame shacks, both business houses and residences, are torn down and replaced by new buildings tourists and natives alike will see a much improved town.

Several of the business firms have added to the attractiveness of their buildings by the addition of several coats of paint and by remodeling.

Mrs. Conway Pickard Hostess at Surprise Birthday Party

Bouquets of pink carnations and white lilies decorated the home of Mrs. Conway Pickard when she entertained a group of young married people with a sewing bee and surprise birthday party for her mother, Mrs. S. H. Underwood Tuesday from three to five.

The afternoon was spent making rugs, quilt tops, and embroidery. One prize game was played and Mrs. Ted Baker won a beautifully wrapped box containing the words, "April Fool".

Mrs. Underwood was presented with many lovely and practical birthday gifts by the guests.

Refreshments of pecan cake, jello delight with whipped cream and lemonade were served to Mesdames Ted Baker, Wallace Henshaw, Jack Hayre, Albert Appel Jr., George Newsom, Roy Deaton, Percy Gray, Roy Bogusch, Bill Vaughan, Jack Deaton, Samuel Underwood, and the hostess.

Julian O'Bryant, formerly of Sanderson, is a member of the Harlandale High School Band which was given first place rating in Class C in the Region Six Musical Festival at San Marcos Saturday. He was also one of six musicians who won first division rating in solo events, baritone, and is eligible for participation in the festival at Waco in May.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Arrington returned home today after a two weeks visit in Houston.

MRS. JOE F. BROWN VARIETY PROGRAM HEADS LOCAL DRIVE AGAINST CANCER

Mrs. Joe F. Brown, who has been named Captain of Terrell County for the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, has announced that the month of April has been proclaimed Cancer Control Month by the President.

Quiet, bitter tragedy comes annually to hundreds of families of our state because of cancer. Last year this disease destroyed 163,000 men and women, many of whom were in their prime, between the ages of forty and sixty-five, when their seasoned ability and tried leadership were most useful.

Death is always sad, but when it is avoidable death the tragedy is least bearable. Conservative medical authorities tell us that between one-third and one-half of those who die from cancer could and should be saved by early diagnosis and prompt, proper treatment.

Medical and research science is doing its part. Million volt x-ray machines have been developed, radium is more widely distributed, new surgical techniques are being perfected. The lay public, the chief victims of this disease, are not doing their share.

In order to give the individual information necessary for his own protection and for the protection of all, a campaign of education and enlistments, aimed at both men and women, is being conducted by the Women's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer. Its program is carefully planned by leading physicians and carried out by devoted, volunteer women.

"There's no better time than right now," says Mrs. Brown, "for you to enlist in this great peace-time army of women who are successfully fighting cancer and saving many lives every year. Joining the Women's Field Army will do two important things for you. First, it will help to give you peace of mind by supplying you with authoritative information about cancer. Second, when you are informed about cancer and know its simple danger signals, you can help protect, not only yourself but your family and your friends.

"So join your local unit of the Women's Field Army and 'Fight Cancer With Knowledge,'—the strongest and surest weapon that any of us have." Membership cards can be obtained from Mrs. Brown or your donation can be mailed direct to Mrs. Volney W. Taylor, State Commander, at 305 Madison Avenue, New York.

Joe Chandler has purchased the modern 6-room home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. McKnight according to announcement made this week. Mr. and Mrs. McKnight will continue to occupy the home at the present.

Mrs. Wallace Henshaw, Mrs. Conway Pickard, Mrs. Ted Baker and Miss Vauncell Henderson were members of the Junior Woman's Club who attended the Eighth District Convention of the Texas Confederation of Women's Clubs in Marfa the first of the week.

Variety Program Given By Sanderson High School Band

The Sanderson High School Band played a variety program Tuesday evening, April 3, in the High School Auditorium.

The following program was started off by a fanfare and followed by "Stars of the Summer Night." Zanthain by W. Desmond was the first overture which will be used as the selected number at this year's contest. The Hoe Down by Yoder is a medley of folk tunes. Carry Me Back to Old Virginia by Bland was a quartette played by Jackie Lester, Obe, Ross Underwood, Jim Wilkinson, Marilyn Blackwelder, clarinets; and Maurine Frazier, alto saxophone. This was the first time Sanderson audiences had heard the oboe since the days of Tom Stovell. The next number, "Stormy Weather," by Bennett, featured muted cornets by Dwain Hill and Noel Stirman. During the next two marches, the drum majors, B. F. Davis, Bernice Harris, Marybelle Hollebeke, Peggy Robertson, and Donita Gunter did some fancy baton twirling. "His Honor," by Fillmore, is a very interesting march and will be used this year for the warm up march.

At this point, Betty Smith, Maurine Cox, and Mary Agnes Frazier, three students who have only been taking a month, came on the stage and played with the band for the balance of the program which consisted of "Balaton Overture" by Buchtel, the contest number, and "Old McDonald," a march. Then the band started playing and marching off the stage through the auditorium and out the side doors to the band room.

The program was dedicated to the band parents who so successfully planned and served the Mexican supper in the Masonic Hall, March 15 and made a net profit of $51.11. The band students wish to thank each person who had any part in making this supper a success.

The band extends a cordial invitation to all citizens of Sanderson to attend the State Band Contest at Kermit, Texas, April 26. The tentative program schedules the Sanderson band to play between three and five p. m. and to march between seven and eight that evening.

Easter Egg Hunt Enjoyed Wednesday By Sunbeams

"The Sunbeams" of the Baptist Church were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Misses Una Lee and Ella Savage. The afternoon was spent gathering wild flowers of various kinds near the valley surrounding the north mountain side. The surprise came to the children when they found Easter eggs tucked among the flowers.

ROTARY CONFERENCE SCHEDULED FOR MAY 11-13

The program for the fourth annual conference of 129th District Rotary Clubs, to be held in Corpus Christi May 11 to 13, promises to be one of the finest ever offered, according to George Gilliam, district governor. Allison Ware of Chico, California, first vice-president of Rotary International, will be the official visitor, while Jeff Williams of Chickasha, Okla., and also a director of R. I. will add additional prestige to the Corpus Christi gathering. Both men will appear on the program, said Mr. Gilliam.

Committees in charge of the Conference details have been at work for several weeks, said John G. Elliott, president-elect of the host club, and conference chairman. The program, he said, will offer novel entertainment features, the principal attraction to be a Nautical Night, held on an island in Corpus Christi, under a big top and a full moon. I will help in any way I can in securing improved buildings, and facilities.”

Day” reviews at Camp Bowie at Brownwood and at Randolph Field in San Antonio. These displays gave evidence that America is perfecting a military machine of terrific striking power, lacking only numerical strength to make it the foremost in the world. Granted another six months of rapidly increasing protection, without labor strikes, this nation will be prepared to cope with any situation that Hitler might arrange.

The week's legislative work was highlighted by passage in the House of the Kersey-Morris road bond assumption bill, which renews for two years the existing law. This law excludes from the assumption privilege all bonds voted or issued since January 2, 1939. Also it continues to allocate among the counties what is left of one-fourth of the proceeds of the gasoline tax after bond requirements have been satisfied.

Gov. O'Daniel's second Anti-Strike bill requiring a 30-day cooling-off period in labor disputes, was passed; new legislative districts were set up by final House vote (the 87th District is the same as before, except that it will be called the 115th); a State Land Bank and the construction of a State Office Building were authorized in constitutional amendments (to be approved by the people); and the House in a resolution Thursday requested the Federal government to take full charge of the Social Security program.

Among the measures signed into law this week by Governor O'Daniel was the new Speed Law, setting the maximum speed for autos at 60 miles per hour, and trucks at 45 miles per hour.

Beloved 'Laddie' By Gene Stratton-Porter Comes to Princess

Combining all the wizardry of Gene Stratton-Porter's literary genius with the magic of the screen, the famous novelist's "Laddie" comes to the Princess Theatre Friday and Saturday, April 18-19, as a realistic version which translates all the poignant drama, stirring sentiment and exquisite romance of the great American story.

The story and spirit of "Laddie" which is known to more than forty million readers, and which has sold over 2,500,000 copies, are vividly translated to the screen. "Laddie" presents Tim Holt in the title role of the Indiana farm boy; Vivian Gilmore as Pamela, otherwise known as the Princess; and eight-year-old Joan Carroll as Little Sister, Laddie's constant companion.

Readers will recall the hectic romance of the oldest Stanton boy, Laddie, with Pamela, the lovely daughter of an aristocratic English family, the Pryors, who live next door. Because Mr. Pryor is an eccentric, unapproachable, retired army man who refuses to make friends with the people in the community, the blue-blooded family are considered haughty snobs by the down to earth Stantons. This, however, doesn't deter Laddie from wooing Pamela, who welcomes his attentions. In this endeavor Little Sister plays an important part by aiding the two lovers to meet clandestinely, as well as at church and at the home wedding of Laddie's oldest sister, after which ceremony the sweethearts pledge their troth.

The bitter opposition of the young lady's supercilious father who challenges the farm boy's social equality, the sudden return of the old man's son who has been in disgrace and disowned because of an army scandal, and the eventual breaking of the father's stubborn pride to admit the true nobility of honest toil, are highly dramatic events leading to the heart-warming climax of the vivid story.

NEW MARCH OF TIME DUE HERE MON. - TUES.

The newest March of Time film, "Americans All!", will be shown at the Princess Theatre Monday and Tuesday according to Manager C. I. White.

The film, which has already become a widely discussed issue in The March of Time series, shows how both the native-born and immigrant American people have made this country the world's greatest democracy. The film emphasizes particularly the vital contributions made by the foreign-born and the children of the foreign-born, and shows what they are doing today to preserve their adopted country.

Bernice came to school with her hair dressed up in a blue velvet turban. It was quite becoming, if the disturbance it aroused is any indicator! (It was a shame that morning—a whole tableful of seniors had to be sent out of the study hall. I repeat from last week—dignified seniors, indeed!)

There's hardly a girl in school that doesn't have some of those casual shoes with the tongues—and no laces or hooks or such. They come in all colors—however, no orange and black ones have shown up as yet.

Simon Shaw dazzled the typing class with a sort of sea-greenish sky-blue shirt with saddle-stitching in various and sundry parts on it.

J. D. Vincent went to a dance a couple of weeks ago with a new coiffure. It seemed to be a sort of uplift in the back—y'know, sort of sticking out. His girl friend thought it was quite modish!

Oh yeah! That reminds me. Our friends, Mr. Vincent and Mr. Underwood are going to have their hair dyed black and red, respectively. I haven't noticed any change of color. Bet they don't have the nerve. If they do commit this rash act, they will be social outcasts. Better think it over, gentlemen! Think of your friends!

A quartet of sophomores paraded around town over the weekend with flashy slacks suits. Janice has a chocolate brown one which she wore with a brown and white pinstripe shirt. Maurine C. wore blue with white pin stripes and the reverse in her shirt. Kat has some nifty blue slacks whose legs come off to form shorts. You should have seen her with one leg off! NEW RECORDS SET IN TRACK MEET AT MARFA

The team amassed a total of 47 points to place second to Marfa in the meet. Boys placing in their events were:

Buster Babb, first in the 220-yard dash.

Bill Cargile, 3rd in the 220-yard dash.

Bill Cargile, second in the 100-yard dash.

Buster Babb, third in the 100-yard dash.

Joe Ross Phillips, fourth in the 100-yard dash.

Ross Stavley, 3rd 120 high hurdles.

Buster Babb, 3rd in pole vault.

Bill Cargile, 2nd in pole vault.

Bill Cargile, 1st in broadjump.

Manuel Ochoa, 3rd in shot put.

Manuel Ochoa, 3rd in discus throw.

Bill Davis, 2nd in half mile.

The Sanderson Shuttle relay team, made up of Babb, Bell, Cargile and Phillips, won the shuttle relay race and set a new meet record.

Cargile also set a new meet record in the broadjump; Albert Weigand of Sanderson held this record.

Babb set a new record in the 220-yard dash.

The 440-yard relay team placed second to Marfa.

The boys won a track trophy for their accomplishment in the shuttle relay.

In planning parties it is well not to overlook the children who may be present. Here is a game that is especially designed for the youngsters, yet one that is enjoyed by the grown-ups, too. To play it, apples are hidden everywhere about the room or house. Each apple has a number pasted on it, some numbers being high and others low. The game is to see who can find the largest number of apples with the highest numbers on them. That is, the total score is counted, not by the number of apples one finds, but by the numbers on the apples.

Say Helen and Earline, how did you enjoy debating in Marfa Saturday? Nice "Teams" they have, yes?

Bill McPhee, will you please wake up to the fact that there is a big brown-eyed girl secretly in love with you? Where do you keep yourself?

It seems that the track boys carried off nearly everything at the Highland Relays in Marfa—Remember we said "nearly" everything. Nice work, kids!

Marybelle was seen at the show Friday night with Bob Phillips. Say, Marybelle, just who do you like? Oh—all of them—Well, all right, have them your way.

Boys and girls, did you all see the handsome couple at the show Friday night? It was none other than our famous Cowboy Kerr and Lady Yeates. They were knockouts in solid green and solid white with boots to match.

From some little birdies we hear that the Sanderson "gang" is going to have a good time at the District meet—besides carrying off all the honors.

Campbell Kerr thinks he has worries about his girl friend. Ha! Ha! Ask Jimmy and Jeep what it is to worry.

Billie Raye Bowden and Bill Cargile seem to be enjoying themselves in speech class Thursday when they were seen with their heads together "seriously" discussing something or other!

Dan Murrah was overheard asking Mickie Corder if she wanted to play with him Wednesday morning. My! But wouldn't they make cute "play-mates."

Roberta sent B. F. a bouquet of flowers with her compliments in speech class while B. F. wondered where she was. The cute part was that the flowers were "snap-dragons."

Adeline, Marzee, and Virginia were seen riding with James O'Connor the other evening. Boy, do these lower classmen rate.

Coincidence: When Margaret Ruth was gone to Stockton Wednesday Dewaine was overheard asking where his boss was. Could Margaret Ruth's absence have had anything to do with this?

Joyce and Campbell were seen riding in four different cars last Sunday. Were you merely enjoying the rides or testing the ability of four different cars? Could be!

Flash! Ross Underwood and Billie Jo Corder were supposed to be seen riding around in a "hoopie" Sunday afternoon! Where were you?

LIFE OF A SENIOR—

Billie Jo Corder
James W. Wilkinson, Esq., was born March 5, 1924, in Sanderson, Texas. He is presumably going to graduate this year, which, incidentally, isn't going to help the disposition of a certain blonde junior any. Next year will see our hero in Schreiner Institute, going through the throes of a typical college freshman. (Perhaps that is an injustice—shall we say, above the average? Because I know of quite a few lads and lassies who would wholeheartedly denounce the first statement as inadequate. I'll grant that I myself was far too frugal!) As a contrast to his not so sinister disposition, Jim reads for relaxation or thrills, murder mysteries. Gee, what a gru-u-u-uesome past-time!

His favorite color is red—should be—he sees it enough. His ambition is to be a Certified Public Accountant, which explains the fact that his favorite course in high school is math. The girl who cares enough about Jimmy to do something about it has but to make a luscious apple pie to win his enthusiastic approval. It ought to be a cinch—the way I throw hints around! Jimmy played football, basketball, tennis, and hooky in high school and he gained a lot of recognition in all of these fields. Let's see. Oh yeah! And he likes "There'll Be Some Changes Made." (There probably will be too, when Miss Vashti gets hold of this report.)

Trio in "Road to Zanzibar" Now Bigger'n Better
 "Road to Zanzibar", Paramount's new comedy with music, starring Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour, opens at the Princess Theatre Wednesday of next week, and it is this movie-chair traveler's pleasant mission to report that the green light is on all the way for merriment and melody.
 The new film is even funnier than the first picture in which Bing, Bob and Dorothy starred, "Road to Singapore" which is saying quite a good deal. The laughs in "Road to Zanzibar" come even more frequently, they're even sharper, the situations even more hilarious and the music just a little more contagious. Incidentally, the film not only reunites the stars but the director and writers as well.
 Bing and Bob in this one are a couple of carnival men in Africa who are trying to raise money enough to get back home. When they finally do, it is the result of the brain-work of Bing and the hardy physique of Bob, whose job in the act is to be frozen alive, electrocuted, shot out of a cannon and otherwise buffeted about. While Bob will allow himself to be wound about Bing's finger when it comes to these things—when romance is involved Bob puts up a hard fight as Bing's rival for Dorothy Lamour.
 Their adventures on a safari through the jungle are side-splitting, as the boys are captured by cannibals. Bob wrestles a gorilla and Dorothy's clothes are chewed up by a leopard, which necessitates wearing a fern leaf dress.
 Lending excellent support to Bing, Bob and Dorothy are Una Merkel and Eric Blore.
 HEMSTITCHING, 10c per yard, Mrs. Dixie Schupbach. 6-9c
