Restrictions Are Removed From Fencing Materials

All types of fencing materials have been removed from the farm machinery rationing program, according to the Texas USDA War Board.

In making the announcement, the board explained that fencing materials now could be sold without restrictions and that applications to secure delivery would no longer be required by purchasers.

The machinery rationing program, under which approximately 75 types of farm machinery are restricted to essential needs, was put into operation several months ago in all Texas counties. Purpose of the program is to route available supplies of essential types of machinery into channels where maximum contribution will be made to agriculture's war production program.

Although removed from rationing restriction, supplies of fencing materials still are limited and dealers are being requested to restrict sales to producers' immediate needs in order that maximum use might be obtained from the supplies now on hand.

They also are asked to limit sales, insofar as possible, to farmers and ranchmen for increasing production of agricultural commodities this year.

March Bond Quota Set for Texas Is More Than Met

War Bond Administrator for Texas, releases Series E War Bond Sales amounting to $27,014,554.25 for the month of March against a quota of $24,500,000.00 for Texas. This represents an increase of 10.2% over the quota despite the impact of income tax payments.

March sales rank with December 1942 and January 1943 among the top three months in E War Bond sales history. The people of Texas are responding to the appeal. "It takes both Taxes and Bonds."

WE MUST MEET THE CHALLENGE!

We on the home front face one of the most personal challenges of this war to date. That challenge is whether or not we are willing to sacrifice to a sufficient extent to lend our government thirteen billion dollars within the next few weeks.

To do the job, you and I, and everyone we know, are going to have to dig down in our sock—to dig out some of those dollars we have salted away for a rainy day—as well as to take a good hunk out of this month's pay check.

This is a job that has to be done. Sure, we on the home front are feeling the pinch of war. We have gasoline rationing, food rationing, higher taxes and a lot of other little discomforts. But they are nothing compared with the agonies faced daily by our men—men from this community among them—out there on the fighting fronts of the world.

Yes, we know that this constant demand for more money out of our pockets and out of our paychecks—an increasing amount each month—is monotonous. But so is sitting in a fox-hole or lying in a slit-trench day after day, slogging through the hell of a humid jungle or that of Sahara sand.

Our sons, friends, brothers, husbands and others we know are doing that for us. They are facing something more terrible than cutting down on a few things that we once thought were essentials to the American standard of living in order to do it, too. As Secretary Morgenthau has said: "Shall we be more tender with our dollars than with the lives of our sons?"

The Second War Loan is an order to the home front to go on a new offensive. Your dollars are the weapons in this attack. They will make possible the passing of the ammunition to those boys up there in the front lines. To win this war is going to cost more and more money—and more and more lives. But the price of freedom is high. We can not, we dare not let our fighting men down.

You can't let George do this for you. You must pitch in with your dollars. They give their lives—you lend your money! Don't wait for someone to come around and ask you to do it. Do it today—and do it until you feel worthy of them.

Army Engineer Corps Is Opened To Volunteers

The Corps of Engineers Specialists Recruitment Program, announced by Col. R. R. Neyland, Southwestern Division Engineer, provides for qualified civilians between the ages of 18 and 38, and therefore subject to induction through Selective Service, to volunteer in advance of their induction orders for the Corps of Engineers. Provision is also made for civilians in the age bracket between 38 and 50, inclusive, who are not subject to the draft at this time, to voluntarily enlist for the Corps of Engineers.

Construction men, electricians, engineemen, utility repairmen, tractor and truck drivers, welders, machine operators, radio operators and repairmen, mechanics, powdermen, riggers, shipping clerks, railroad men, and a host of other skills are required.

Under this plan trained civilian operators prior to their induction by the Selective Service Board may volunteer. The nearest Area Engineer, Engineers stationed at various projects, and District Engineers at Galveston, and Ft. Sam Houston, will take the application, pass on their qualifications, and if acceptable will provide the volunteer with a letter which he will submit to his local Selective Service board. This letter will earmark him for the Engineers with the Army Air Forces, Army Ground Forces, or Army Service Forces. The plan assures the volunteer that the work which he is trained to do will be the work that he will be doing in the Corps of Engineers.

From induction stations the volunteer will be sent to Army Reception centers and thence to the Engineer Training Centers at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., Camp Claiborne, La., or Jefferson Barracks, Mo. These specialists will be advanced in grade as rapidly as their training justifies. Moreover, they will have the same opportunity to secure a commission through the Engineer Officer Candidate School as other enlisted men. This plan is designed to speed-up the

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Washburn and Aaron J. Connor left Wednesday for a few days visit in Fort Worth.

Will Americans Be More Tender With Their Money Than Lives of Their Sons

Washington, D. C.—A blunt challenge—whether Americans will be more tender with their money than with the lives of their sons—confronts U. S. citizens as they prepare to meet the appeal of the government to put an additional 13 billion dollars into the fight in the next three weeks.

American dollars which run off to some cozy shelter to hide while our cities and towns from destruction and invasion will face a rising demand from all classes of patriotic citizens to come out and fight.

Millions of workers who now are buying War Bonds regularly out of current income must lend extra money to their government during the Second War Loan campaign (which started April 12).

In recognition of the spirit of sacrifice which is sweeping over the land as our troops swing into offensive action in Africa and await the signal for a landing in Europe, the Treasury Department is offering a series of government bonds to fit every pocketbook.

No matter whether Americans buy the familiar Series E Bonds or 2 1/2 per cent bonds or 2 per cent bonds or tax certificates, they will be doing their part to make the Second War Loan drive a success.

Consumer Spending Too High. Consumer spending in 1942 was

BONDS INFORMATION

On page three of this issue of the Times will be found the first of a series of messages brought to readers by the cooperation of business concerns of Sanderson. These messages are published in an effort to bring home to each and every resident the full meaning of bonds and the important part they are playing in the war effort.

Business men of the town realize the importance of every individual doing their part whether they are giving their lives on the battle fronts or are firing shots at the Axis with their dollars, and hope to be able, by these messages, to make citizens who are left on the home front "bond conscious" and obtain support necessary for boys to win us the freedom for which this war is being fought.

Visitors are cordially invited to attend either all day or the afternoon demonstration. Members are urged to notice the change in date.

PURCHASE OF BONDS FOR SECOND WAR LOAN SLOW

After almost a week a check on bond sales at the local post-office and the Sanderson State Bank indicate that few bond purchases had been made toward the $660,000 quota set for Terrell County to be sold during the Second War Loan drive which started Monday and will continue until April 30.

At the postoffice sales were shown to have been only $525.00, and only $4,143.75 at the bank. The light sales leaves a balance of $55,331.25 to be sold within the next two weeks if the quota is to be met.

C. P. Peavy, chairman of the drive, urges every person in the county to purchase as many bonds as possible during this drive because such an effort will be necessary to assure Terrell County of doing her part in raising the 13 billion dollars needed by the government, and to be raised by bond sales.

It is felt by those in charge that many persons are waiting for the victory band concert to be held Wednesday night of next week at the high school auditorium to make their purchases. Sales at the concert held last month amounted to more than $12,000.00 and it is hoped that several times that amount will be bought next week.

Daily Newspaper For Marfa Flying School Published

Marfa.—A special war news summary wirelessly from Washington has enabled the AAF Advanced Flying School here to begin publishing the only daily newspaper in the Big Bend-Davis Mountains region of West Texas, within a radius of 200 miles, or an area twice the size of New England.

The editors of its local weekly contemporaries, Robert Jacobs of the Marfa Big Bend Sentinel and D. M. Bennett of the Alpine Avalanche, say the little paper is the first daily to be established hereabouts, even if it is only a mimeographed sheet. It has the distinction of being the only daily in an area twice the size of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

The paper, published every morning except Sunday, uses a war news report inaugurated by the Special Service Division of the Army Service Forces, which believes that informed soldiers make better fighters.

It is called Marfacts Radio News, after the school's weekly Marfacts ("Facts And Acts Of The Marfa Advanced Flying School"), and accepts no advertising. It is published for military personnel only by the Special Service Office.

Although Marfacts Radio News does not boast the bustling foreign news desk of a metropolitan daily, it does receive the latest war news—creamed off the combined dispatches of Associated Press, United Press, International News Service and Transradio Press. On the local side, it breaks first news of USO camp shows and dances, special attractions at the post theatre, and other airbase items.

Its concise but informative war news is compiled in the War Department by officers who were cable news experts in civilian life. The Army Signal Corps flashes the summary by radio in the early morning hours to scores of army posts throughout the nation. The Marfacts "file" is received at Fort D. A. Russell in Marfa and relayed to the flying school by motorcycle courier.

A. E. Creigh Jr. left Thursday for San Antonio where he went to meet his son, Al III, who is coming home for a fifteen day visit with his father.

THE EAGLE NEWS

EDITED BY STUDENTS OF THE SANDERSON HIGH SCHOOL

Assembly Program

Wednesday morning in assembly the high school and grammar school saw a film "This Changing World" which showed the R. A. F. in Action. Another film was "Canada Carries On," showing the peoples of Canada. Both students and teachers enjoy these films.

The Eighth grade, sponsored by Miss Vashti Mixon, presented a short farce entitled "Pocahontas Saves the Captain." The characters were Willie Geigsby—Squatin' Hop; William Sutton—Powhatan, Chief of Walleyes; Lauretta Dillard—Pocahontas; Jimmy Davis—Captain John Smith; Edward Chastain—Squirrel Bark, and Charles Hill—Owl Hoot.

An added attraction to the Eighth Grade Program was a group of popular songs and if you don't think Sanderson High has talent, you just should have heard Jeanette Cobb play the song dedications to the different high school students which were:

"For Me and My Gal" to W. T. Frazier and Margaret LaForge, "At Last" to Betty Jo Kerr and Joyce Boyd, "As Time Goes By" to Joan Anderson, "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" to Donald Smith, "There Are Such Things" to Margaret Ruth and Joe Bean, "I Kissed Your Picture Goodnight" to Maurine Frazier.

Believe it or not, there are also some blues singers, Mary Agnes Frazier and Lauretta Dillard, who sang "Blues in the Night" and "Moonlight Cocktail."

Besides these Jeanette played "I Don't Want to Walk Without You." We'll just suppose that this was dedicated to the seniors from the rest of the high school. Margaret Ruth Yeates

SEEING THE SENIORS

As our list of Seniors is drawing to a close, we have two mighty sweet young things for this week. The best for the last as the saying goes. Mary Isabelle Corder or Mickie, as we all know her was born on August 26, 1926 in Los Angeles, California. No doubt it's from the Irish blood she has that she gets the quick temper that goes with those blue eyes and nearly black hair.

Mickie has attended school always in Sanderson, so there's nothing she doesn't know about it. Her ambition is to be a private—no just a plain—secretary. After graduation Mickie plans to attend the University of Texas.

For a hobby, Mickie chooses that delightful bumpy pleasure of horseback riding. Her pet peeve are girls who don't know how to dress, and liver.

Anytime you're in need of excitement let Mickie entertain you. Her favorite pastime is Driving (?) a car. She'll eat strawberry shortcake any day of the week and just loves blue. Mickie never misses a show if Bette Davis or Ronald Reagan are on. When Mickie reads, which is often, she prefers Michael Arlen's books and nearly swoons when she hears "I'm Getting Tired So I Can Sleep." Her favorite subject is typing—the reason for the secretarial inclination.

In her Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior years, Mickie was in the Pep Squad. As a Freshman, Junior, and Senior she warbled in the Choral Club. In her Junior year, she participated in the Dramatic Club, and as a Sophomore and Senior played Volley Ball.

One of our giggling, gay-hearted Seniors comes before your eyes this week. By this time you probably can guess we mean Donald Smith. Donald is everybody's friend and is always trying to help. He was born in Sanderson, Texas to the proud parents of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith, on November 2, 1926. Donald has brown eyes and black hair.

"Duck," as he is more commonly called, has been to grammar school in Dryden, Sanderson and to High School in Good Old Sanderson High.

Duck's ambition is to be a dress designer and his hobby is sketching. He doesn't have any

HOMEMAKING

Homemaking I class has finished the construction problem. Eight girls made cotton print or seersucker housecoats. One girl made blue denim slacks and another made a white broadcloth blouse.

Cotton school dresses will be made for the second problem.

Girls in Homemaking II began a remodeling project for the second problem. Shirts with worn out collars and cuffs will be made into sports blouses or aprons.

The Eighth Grade girls finished their construction problem Wednesday. Skirts, jerkins, jumpers, and slips were made.

FRESHMEN CLASS PARTY

The Freshmen class had a party last Friday at 8 o'clock. Those present were Mary Alice Allen, Don Frazier, Bosco Yeates, Monte Goode, Doris McSparran, Wilma Jean Northcut, Clyde Griffith, Budgy Talbot, Betty Jo Kerr, Doris Lee Cooke, Mary Jean Ogle, Earline Cox, Bobby Edwards, Marjorie Jessup, Arthur Calk, Gloria Mae Watkins and J. M. Harrell.

The party was given by Doris McSparran at her home. Dividing up in to couples everybody set plans after graduation. Can you imagine this for Donald? He says his pet peeve is fast driving. As a favorite pastime, Duck likes driving his old pick-up, and skating. Just mention fried chicken and he comes running. His favorite color is blue, and his favorite movie star is Frances Langford. A book he just read recently turned out to be his favorite—"The Human Comedy." His favorite subject is, of all things, American History.

Duck has been in Band four years. In other extra-curricular activities, he participated in declamations at county meet, and in the First Aid Club, Newspaper Club, Tennis Club, and Morse Code Club.

went on a Scavenger hunt which was won by Don Frazos and Mary Alice Allen. Another game that was played was won by Betty Jo Kerr. Refreshments were served consisting of "Cokes", cookies and sandwiches. Post office and hide-and-go-seek was played until the party broke up. Chaperones at the party were Mrs. McSparran and Mrs. Goode.

GUESS WHO?

She's just a "Silly Soph.", but a swell gal. She's got big blue eyes, dark brown hair, and a fair complexion. She's really some person. She's new here this year and every one fell for her on sight. She's really a "swell" sport and a dancing "Fool".

Oh yes, I must not forget to include that she gave us a grand dance at her home about two weeks ago. Oh heck, I knew I'd give it all away, but anyway she is a swell person to know, and if you don't know her then you've missed a lot.

He's a Silly Senior, but then not too silly because as far as that goes all the seniors are silly. Now really, seniors, I do still love you. He's a new student here but the seniors are glad to have him as an addition to their class.

This guy has black hair, green eyes, (I think) and he's tall. He's a real jitterbugger. If you get what I mean. If you don't, then it's a dance for idiots. Now, now, maybe I'd better sign off.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomores hiked out to the stockyards for a picnic and several hours of play Friday afternoon. Everyone brought his own lunch, and their sponsor, Miss Kinkler, furnished ice tea.

Some interesting snapshots taken of the Sophomores on the box cars and huge sandpile. When "chow" came, each one had lunch and ate "hobo" on the box cars.

After the picnic, the hiked into town and saw picture show "Destiny known."

THE SENIOR DINNER

Last Friday night the banquet room of the Sanderson High, rang with laughter of those dignitars. The occasion was a chicken dinner given by F. Frazier for the Senior large table, set for all the was decorated with rows of colorful spring flowers.

These boys and girls a beautiful meal of franken, potatoes, hot rolls, iced tea. Their desert was ches and whipped cream cookies.

After this delightful which was accompanied throughout by the sudden of laughter caused by one one thought of one honored guests, who thought that he had done his world of wit, was licking his chops over the. "The more I read about it, Judge, the more I realize the tactics and requirements of this war are as different from the one I fought in 25 years ago as night is from day."

"Yes, and I can give you an example of how true that is, Fred. In World War I the chief uses of alcohol produced for war purposes were found in smokeless powder, medical supplies and chemical warfare materials. In this war the need for this product is far more vital because it is also used as a fuel to propel torpedoes, to make shatterproof glass for airplane windshields and instrument covers, to make lacquers used in camouflaging equipment and as a base for synthetic rubber needed for tires, gas masks, paratroop equipment and dozens of other things.

"Every time I think of it, Fred, I realize how fortunate we were in having a beverage distilling industry in existence when war broke out... ready and willing to convert 100% to the production of this critically needed war product. I'm mighty sure bootleggers wouldn't have."

One of the greatest success stories of 1942

About a year ago, America was being asked to increase, substantially, its investment in War Bonds.

And no one knew, definitely, just what America's answer to that plea would be.

Today, America's answer is clear—written down in black and white for any one to read. And the reading makes as heart-warming and inspiring a story as anything that has come out of this war. Here are some highlights . . .

In December, 1941, there were 3 1/2 million Americans who owned War Bonds. Today, there are over 50 million. A year ago that figure would have seemed fantastic. There is nothing in all history to match that record. Never before have so many people owned such a tremendous stake in their nation and its government.

In December, 1941, some 700,000 people were investing about four and one-half percent of their earnings in War Bonds through the Pay-Roll Savings Plan. Today, the 700,000 has swelled to 26 million—the four and one-half percent to nine percent. The MONTHLY investment in War Bonds through the Pay-Roll Savings Plan has grown, in one year, from 8 to 400 million dollars.

Figures like that need little comment. They tell, better than any words, what happened when a free people decided among themselves to lend their government money. Money to help pay for fighting equipment—money to help keep prices down—money to insure peacetime goods and peacetime jobs and a generally decent world to which our fighting men can return.

Peacetime goods and jobs? A decent world? Think what 12 BILLION dollars' worth of War Bonds owned by Americans right now can mean in buying power to be released in the years after the war is won.

Buying power that can set factories full of men to making millions of cars and radios and washing machines. Buying power that can set multitudes of other men to building a million new homes for impatient owners. Buying power that can mean better, richer living for everyone of us.

And that 12 billion dollars is only a beginning.

For what we have done in '42 to win this war will not be enough to do in '43. Our whole war effort must be expanded. Not a one of us but knows that in the year ahead we must send more men—we must do more fighting—we must build more planes, more ships, more guns—more everything.

And to do this, we must buy more and more War Bonds.

Enough more so that when the record is in for 1943, America's War Bond buying will once again be one of the greatest success stories of the year.

You've Done Your Bit Now Do Your Best!

The above is one of a series of messages to be brought to you by patriotic firms who desire to give you full particulars as to why you should LEND your DOLLARS to back our sons, husbands, fathers and friends, who are willing to GIVE their LIVES so that the world might be a free place in which you and your children, and they and their children, might live in freedom rather than as slaves to ruthless dictators. Every dollar put in bonds helps them.

"STAR SPANGLED RHYTHM" HAS EVERYTHING TOPS

If ever there was a picture to make every movie fan happy, it's Paramount's unparalleled musical comedy, "Star Spangled Rhythm," which opens Sunday and Monday at the Princess Theatre with just about everything imaginable in the way of entertainment and just about everyone on the Paramount lot. It's without doubt the best and biggest show of shows in Hollywood history—a feast for eyes and ears and heart and funny-bone.

No matter who your favorite Paramount star is, you're sure to see him—or her—in "Star Spangled Rhythm," for the studio has turned out en masse to make this the top musical comedy of this or any other movie season. Stupendous is definitely the word for it. There hasn't been anything to equal it since the first movie flicker fascinated audiences.

Any film which utilizes the diversified talents of more than forty stars, giving them all a chance to strut their stuff and that stuff an integral part of the story, really has something! And that's exactly what "Star Spangled Rhythm" does. Among the forty stars you'll find Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Fred MacMurray, Franchot Tone, Ray Milland, Victor Moore, Dorothy Lamour, Pauline Goddard, Vera Zorina, Mary Martin, Dick Powell, Betty Hutton, Eddie Bracken, Veronica Lake, Alan Ladd, Rochester, William Bendix, Jerry Colonna, Macdonald Carey, Walter Abel, and more, and more!

Don't get the idea that "Star Spangled Rhythm" is just a revue; it isn't. It tells the story of Victor Moore, Paramount studio gateman, who has deceived his sailor son, Eddie Bracken, into believing that he runs the studio. When Eddie shows up at the studio with a group of friends, something drastic has to be done, and Moore and Betty Hutton, his switchboard operator friend, do it. Before very long every one of the stars is helping them do it and it all adds up to really hilarious fun.

Leslie playing the innocent and talented young sister Katherine. Pitted against them are Dennis Morgan and Jack Carson, cast as the vaudeville team of Runkel and Collins, whose lives are intimately linked with those of the sisters.

The dull and sordid mining town of Greenhill, Pa., has left its mark of Helen Chernen, and she is determined that her young sister shall not suffer the same fate.

Albert Runkel, simple, lovable partner of the small-time troupe of Runkel and Collins, plays into her hands when he expresses keen admiration for Katherine. Through skillful calculating strategy, Helen maneuvers the marriage of Katherine and Albert, so that they can all leave the next day with the troupe on a cross-country tour.

Helen's next move is to get Katherine into the act, and this she does by calmly and methodically fomenting a quarrel between Runkel and Collins, the two partners.

With indescribable energy and driving force Helen succeeds in securing a key spot for Katherine in a Broadway revue.

Katherine's fresh, unspoiled charm, coupled with real talent, lead her from one success to another, and when she becomes the top musical comedy sensation, Helen, ever avid for more, angles for the leading role in a dramatic play.

Katherine's gradual realization that she is merely an automaton in the hands of her ambitious sister fill her with intense hatred for this way of life, and she is determined to change it.

CHANEY STARS IN HORROR PICTURE

Terror stalks the countryside and the elm-bordered streets of a peaceful New England town in Hollywood's latest horror-movie, "The Mummy's Tomb" which comes to the screen of the Princess Theatre Tuesday.

Lon Chaney, now quite famous for his blood-chilling roles in "The Ghost of Frankenstein" and the more recent "Wolf Man," is the star of this new shocker. The role he plays is probably more awesome than the previous two. The actor appears in the fearsome guise of an ancient Egyptian mummy, kept alive a thousand years by a magic chemical brew.

The plot concerns an old Egyptian curse which pursues the invaders of a sacred tomb. For an as the invading archaeologist, is the first victim and is assassinated in his New England domicile by the mummy which has been secreted in the local cemetery. Other killings follow. The archaeologist's nephew, portrayed by Hubbard, and the nephew's fiancée, the role played by Elyse Knox, are dangerously menaced while the mummy's keeper, characterized by Turhan Bey, engineers a blood-curdling conspiracy which ends in a countryside uproar.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

John Trumbull, our postmaster, looks up from his newspaper yesterday and says: "I see they caught another one of them so-called 'gang-lords' of the Prohibition era."

"Wonder how long it's going to take us to wipe out the evil Prohibition left behind... not to mention the billions of dollars it cost the people?"

Well, John's right o' course. Hard to believe America could ever pass a law like Prohibition.

But from where I sit... consolation—now that Prohibition is over—to see how our nation and tolerance have sprung up in its place.

Nowadays, if a man of friendly glass of beer after a day's work, he can do it in clean, respectable surroundings—but he has to make a red cent on it.
