LISTEN TO LUKE

This week sees a lot of people concerned with the recent turn of events in Cuba and how they might affect us. There is also a lot of talk going out over the nation to stand behind our government in its actions so that we can face the world with a unity of purpose and a unity of ideals.

We go along with this 100 per cent.

What we don't like about it is the fact that we have to do it! The blame has been put on everybody from the Russians to the agencies of our government and probably, if the truth could only be known, that would be absolutely correct.

I would not hesitate to say that I wish that Castro and his cohorts had been chased into the Atlantic I don't like his kind.

And as much as I would like to see it done, I have no business whatsoever in trying to run the affairs of that country as a part-time, or minute helper. If we are going to stand up for the anti-communists, let's go in there with them and fight with them. And, if not, then let's don't!

I may not like the differences of opinion that Floyd Patterson and Sonny Liston have, but I'm not going to take sides by holding the time-keeper's hat. I would rather try to get a horsehide on the glove of my man to do the quick work of the opposition.

Be the time-keeper, like Cassius might get the big head about it all he had to do with whipping the world-champion, or the second-best.

This thing could turn into a mess from our point of view. We could get to thinking what a short trip that 90 miles to Florida might be, or what a small bunch of sailors and marines are holding on to Guantanamo, and BAMBO!

The pro-Castro forces won a field battle and a moral victory that will only make the boil a little bigger. It will fester more and will be noticed sooner, it will have attention quicker, it will come to a head sooner, and there will be a lot more meaning when it is all cleared up.

It has been revealed that there is a sufficient number of boys going out for Little League and Pony League ball to make seven teams.

Every effort is going to be made by local civic clubs to insure the continued interest of these boys and more if possible. Efforts will be made, of necessity, to get men to work with the teams as coaches and sponsors if you are called upon to be sure that you have a good reason for refusing. The boys of several of the boys are active in this effort and it will be a most worthwhile effort of a unified effort of all the town's citizens.

We received information this week that the tourist business in Texas is down for the 5th consecutive year. It was lower in '60 than in the four previous years and an estimated million travel-

Potential Set On Turk-State Well

Shell Oil Co. filed potential for a calculated, absolute open flow of 24 million cubic feet of dry gas per day from the Ellenburger for its No. 1 Turk and State, a one-mile northwest extension of Ellenburger production in the Brown-Bassett multiphase field of Terrell County.

Production was from open hole between 13,753-14,800 feet.

Shell Oil Co. and Freeport Oil Co. had reported January 15 a calculated open flow of 70 million cubic feet of gas per day from the Ellenburger after 13,000 gallons of acid had been used.

The well is in section 8 of Block R in the TCRR Survey.

Sinclair Oil and Gas Co. No. 1 Alma H. Poulter, in section 21, Block 1, TCRR Survey, Terrell County's Ellenburger and Wolfcamp discovery 3.5-8 miles northwest of Ellenburger production in the Brown-Bassett Field, was continuing to test both formations. Testing 24 hours through a 4-64-inch choke and Wolfcamp perforations between 6,221-72 feet, it flowed gas at the daily rate of 200,000 cubic feet, plus four barrels of load oil.

Tested 14 hours through 9-63-inch choke, and Ellenburger perforations between 14,252-384 feet it flowed gas at the daily rate of 1.8 million cubic feet daily, plus four barrels of load oil.

Texas Flags To Be Given This Week At Local Station

Texas flags will be given to all children and adults who ask for them and as long as the supply lasts at Dudley's Texas Station this week end.

Dudley Harrison, owner of the station, stated that in order that the flags may not be desecrated, children are asked to bring one of their parents when they come in and ask for a flag.

The station owner stated that there was no obligation or gimmick attached to the free offer, that the purpose of the give-away was to teach the children more respect for the state flag and to familiarize them with the flag and at the same time make them more flag conscious. He stated that the flags were to have been given away last week end — San Jacinto week end — but they did not arrive in time.

The plastic flags are durable and should last the youngsters a long time, Harrison stated.

Ticket Sale Starts For Barbecue At El Paso Gas Plant

Members of the Sanderson Lions Club, Rotary Club, American Legion and the Chamber of Commerce now have tickets for the barbecue at the Brown-Bassett Field plant of the El Paso Natural Gas Co. on Saturday, May 6.

These tickets are being offered for sale to all citizens of Terrell County in the hope that a large number will be on hand there when the officials of the company will have open house and show the plant facilities to the public. The barbecue feed at 4:00 o'clock is being sponsored by the four local organizations to honor the officials and personnel of the plant and to greet them as neighbors and welcome them to our county and this area.

The personnel will be on hand at 2:00 p.m. to begin the tour through the plant for the visitors.

Plans to take the prepared food to the plant site have been made and it is hoped that the people of the county will help to make the occasion one that will be remembered by those who are being honored on this opening day.

Fire Insurance Rates Drop 1c Here

Fire insurance rates were dropped in Sanderson one cent, according to information received last week from the State Board of Insurance. The lowering of the rates is based on certain requirements fulfilled in compliance with the board's regulations.

According to the story, Sanderson lacked a fire department, a water works, a fire marshal and received other charges for certain conflagration hazards.

Three cents credit was allowed for teaching fire prevention and principles of fire insurance in the public schools.

The specifications of the State Board for a fire department and water system call for a more elaborate and expensive set-up than is available here or has been available here, according to local insurance agents, and the credits allowed and disallowed are no different than they have been over the years with the exception of the good fire credit which varies, depending on the amount of loss by fire within a certain period past.

Sanderson fire insurance policy holders presently are enjoying a maximum good fire credit.

After the guests had assembled and before supper was served, the Bendele pick-up, laden with gifts, was driven into the circle. The decorations on the pick-up consisted of pots, pans, tubs, lanterns, etc., and imprinted on a streamer across the back was "Shower for the Gene Blacks". The honored couple opened the gifts and passed them around for display.

The guests were registered in a unique guest book bound in grey with a picture of a pair of boots tied with red ribbons on the cover.

Junior-Senior Banquet Tuesday Evening Is Highlight Social Event for Younger Set

The Junior-Senior Banquet staged Tuesday night here was one of the social highlights of the graduation season. The banquet was in the Sudduth Bldg.

The members of the junior class, under the sponsorship of Mrs. J. D. McDaniel, had decorated the building in pink and white crepe paper with streamers forming the four walls and hanging in alternating dips from the ceiling. Just inside the front door of the building, crepe paper walls formed a hallway which led to a stairway over which entrance was made to the main banquet room. Silver stars were suspended from the ceiling. Pink magnolias decorated the walls and also were attached to vines entwined around the columns. A gold sprayed magnolia tree added a further decorative note.

On the north end of the building, Mrs. David Graham had painted a mural following the theme of the banquet and decorations "Under the Magnolias". An artificial fountain flowed at this end of the building and was illuminated by alternating-colored lights, to further emphasize the garden scene. To the left of the stairs punch was served to the guests by Miss Terry Jean Hodgkins and Buddy Joe Hahn. The punch bowl and cups were on the curb of a decorated well.

Three rows of tables running the width of the building seated the guests, and a single long table running the length of the building was the speakers' table.

Miss Hodgkins, president of the junior class, served as mistress of ceremonies, and called upon High School Principal A. J. Riess for the invocation. Mr. Hahn gave the welcome and the response was by Miss Melinda Gilbreath, senior class president.

The banquet meal consisted of pineapple salad, turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes, English peas, rolls, relish, and pie with iced tea and water as beverages.

The meal was catered by Harvey's Restaurant.

After the dinner, Jimmie Jones furnished some light moments by auctioning off famous attributes and abilities.

Mr. Hahn presented a gift from the junior class to Mrs. McDaniel in token of their appreciation for her efforts and help.

Miss Hodgkins then introduced Vernon Harlan, an English professor at Sul Ross College in Alpine, who gave the principal address of the evening. He spoke on "heritage", using the analogy of an inheritance of money and the proper uses of it for greatest benefits by the use of wisdom, initiative, integrity, compassion, and faith.

Besides the host class members and the honored guests, the seniors, other guests included Supt. and Mrs. Matt Bader, the high school principal, teachers with their husband or wife, the class room mothers and their husbands, the school secretary and her husband, and members of the school board and their wives.

The table decorations were pink candles in pink magnolia blossoms. Miniature cotton bales were favors and miniature China wishing wells filled with nuts and mints were beside each place card.

lion tourists spent $457 million dollars in Texas last year.

It would seem to us from this fact that all Texas should be interested in increasing the travel through the state to get back up to the $531-million of 1957.

Your Chamber of Commerce works toward such efforts and is vitally interested in tourist trade particularly on U.S. 90.

Are you doing anything to help?

We received little, or no comment from any readers concerning their views for or against a general sales tax. We thought we would have. Other people are interested in your views on such matters and might would like to read about other opinions, or similar opinions.

We would not dare publish all the letters we receive, but letters of opinions on such things would be welcomed and interesting.

GRADUATION GIFTS Isn't it startling to realize that graduation exercises are only around the corner. That's right, next month schools and colleges will be honoring young folks with diplomas and accomplishments.

Graduation day is a high spot in anyone's career; a day worthy of a special gift. Why not show your own enthusiasm with something personal and exciting.

Your telephone service representative can help you select beautiful telephones in the latest colors for that special "Graduation" phone announces a call.

SPRING PHONE FAIR Well, by now most of us in Sanderson don't need the weather man to tell us spring is here. There are signs of it everywhere. Have you noticed the kids lately . . . skipping rope, skipping bats, and chasing pop flies?

The grown-ups, too, are busy around the house. Painting and rearranging rooms, even adding on to the house itself to make it more comfortable for the family.

We're busy at the telephone company, too, getting ready for spring with an event called Spring Phone Fair. It is to be our way of reminding you about the many new telephone services we have to help you make your home more convenient and attractive.

For instance, how about a new phone in color for a bedroom? Or a wall phone for the kitchen, playroom or work area? Perhaps you'd like the smart Princess phone for your living room . . . so little, so lovely and it lights. Or maybe you'd prefer the soft musical tones of the bell chime. You can see all of these new telephone services on display at our Spring Phone Fair in the Alpine telephone business office.

If you don't get a chance to see them and would like more information, just call Alpine TE 7-4402 - or ask any telephone service man.

FREE PROGRAMS FOR YOUR GROUP Since some Sanderson civic, church and social groups already are planning spring programs, this seems like a good time to remind you of our standing offer to provide entertaining and informative telephone programs for your organization.

A booklet describing the variety of programs available - films, talks, lecture-demonstrations, telephone tours - is yours for the asking. Just call the telephone business office, Alpine TE 7-4402.
