LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert:---

According to information we received this week, one of every three children in school in Sanderson is either neglected, under public care, or from low-income families.

This is information given to Cong. Richard C. White by the U.S. Department of Education.

We suppose that if the "low-income" figure were put high enough, that any number of the students would be put in this category.

The program which allocates the funds for use in Terrell and other counties, and the number of children in Terrell County who have made the local schools eligible for the funds has not changed since last year, and it is, in fact, the same program that is now in its second year.

The money that is received is used for some things that aid the "needy" children, and some of it is used in a way that knows no lines of distinction, according to our understanding.

For example: the funds are available to supply some of the school needs of the students, such as work books, supplies, etc.; and also to let them participate in the milk-drinking program. Then, too, some of the money can be used to purchase teaching aids for what is the benefit of all of the students, regardless of their social, financial, or educational level.

The figures used to base a "low income" family, incidentally, are $2,000-a-year income, based on the 1960 census.

And, according to the intent of the program, it is to help the culturally deprived, and the educationally deprived students, the latter including those who are not in the proper age-grade, but regardless of the reason.

There is no reason to assume that the federal government is interested in knowing that there is a possibility that some of the "low income" students might be academically better off than some of the other students, or that some of them might have a better cultural education and be better adjusted socially.

We are not saying that they necessarily are, but we are not saying that they necessarily are not.

The money has been allocated, the Texas Education Agency has raised the standards of requirements - with the funds in mind - so that it is almost necessary to take them, so we have them.

Just thought you'd be interested in knowing what was going on.

Supt. McAllister, who went over - briefly - because neither of us had a couple of days to spend on it at this time, says 2 of the programs had been dropped from last year, one being the English classes for non-English-speaking people. This was true, he said, only because of the lack of interest in the program by people who were eligible for it.

The Chamber of Commerce is trying to set the stage for a clean-up drive in Sanderson, concentrating particularly on areas where the flood of '65 left

Three Announce For School Board

Three men have announced for the post of trustee of the Terrell County Independent School District to date, according to A. H. Zuberbaeler, business manager of the district.

The three are: Herbert Brown, Santiago Flores, and Jack Hardgrave.

Brown and Flores are presently members of the board and Hardgrave is a former member of the board.

The third member of the board whose term expires this year and who is not seeking re-election, is E. E. Harkins Jr.

The election of three members of the school board will be April 1 and will be in all four precincts of the county.

At the same time there will be an election for naming members to the County Board of Trustees in Precincts 2 and 4 and a Trustee-at-Large. Jack Riggs, in Precinct 2, and C. M. Turk, in Precinct 4, now are serving on the county board, and John Harrison is the member-at-large.

Qualified voters in the respective precincts will name the county board members from their own precincts and all of the county will vote on the member-at-large.

Mrs. J. E. Hasty Stricken Suddenly Tuesday Afternoon

Funeral services were at 10 a. m. today (Thursday) at the First Baptist Church for Mrs. Iva Hasty who died at her home Tuesday afternoon about 4:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Hasty died apparently of a heart attack as she had been in town earlier in the day. She was attended by a physician at the time death came.

She is survived by her husband, J. E. (Slim) Hasty; two sons, J. E. Jr., and Fred Hasty, of San Antonio; her mother, Mrs. Grace Scarborough, Valentine; a sister, Mrs. Cori Childress, of San Antonio; and a granddaughter.

Burial will be in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

Baptist Revival To Begin On Easter Sunday

Plans are underway for Sanderson's First Baptist Church to have a series of revival services beginning Easter Sunday, March 26, and continuing through Sunday night of April 2.

Preacher for the meeting will be Rev. A. W. Wellborn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Balmorhea. The song leader will be Rev. Glenn Reece, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Imperial.

Rev. Maynard R. Rogers said this week that plans are to have a series of cottage prayer meetings the week prior to Easter Sunday, and to have a 7:00 a. m. service as well as a 7:30 p. m. service daily during the revival meetings. In announcing these services last Sunday the pastor urged all Christians who would earnestly pray for real revival to come to Sanderson.

Observance Of 'School Week' Planned Here

The observance of Texas Public Schools Week will be made in the local system, according to Supt. Ken McAllister.

During the week of March 6-10, the public is invited to visit the high school and junior high school any time during the regular class schedules.

On Thursday, March 9, from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m. there will be open house in the elementary school to which all parents and patrons are invited.

During the open house, there will be demonstrations on the use of the various teaching aids and materials and an opportunity for the parents to become acquainted with the teaching methods and personnel of that institution.

GS Council To Meet Here

Approximately 150 people are expected here for the spring meeting of the Permian Basin Girl Scout Council on April 16.

Plans for the council meeting, the first to be held here, were made last week when Miss Jody Morrison, executive director of the council; Miss Evaloa Siler, district advisor; and Mrs. O. F. Hunter, council president, all of Odessa, met with the local Neighborhood Committee.

The council extends to Marfa, Seminole, Midland, Rankin, and towns in-between.

Food Stamp Program Starting Date Set For March 8 In Terrell County

The Food Stamp Program will open March 8 in Terrell County.

This was announced this week by officials of the Texas Department of Public Welfare.

School Board Meet Action Told

The action of the board of trustees of the Terrell County Independent School District at their last regular meeting is reported by Supt. Ken McAllister.

Following routine business matters, the textbook report, the financial statement, date of trustee election, were accepted.

The board of equalization will be composed of Troy Druse, Lee Dudley, and Dudley Harrison, the same three who held that position last year.

The contracts of the three principals, A. J. Riess, C. B. Card, and J. E. Spann, and of the business manager and tax assessor-collector, A. H. Zuberbaeler, be renewed for one year.

The low bid of $80 per uniform for the band members was accepted.

Representatives of the architectural firm of Peters & Fields met with the board to discuss plans concerning the building program.

L. H. Fletcher, Phil Maddux, and H. E. Fletcher made a business trip to Snyder Saturday.

"This is just like a new business coming into the community," explained these officials, "for it will increase the food buying power of low-income families and, in turn, will increase retail business and create more jobs."

In pilot Food Stamp Programs, retail food sales have increased about 8%, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, co-sponsor of the program.

The County Food Stamp Issuing office on the second floor of the court house in Sanderson will begin selling books of US DA food coupons on March 8 to eligible families from 9:00 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. The coupons can be spent like cash for almost any food at retail stores authorized to handle them by USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service.

Mrs. W. W. Denson of San Antonio is visiting here with her husband who is employed as a car inspector on the SP Railroad. She is a sister of Ernest Couch.

Chester Darr returned home last week from a Del Rio hospital where he had major surgery.

In the picture published last week, which we are re-printing this week, we had lots of help in identifying the children, but there are some who were not identified. Here is what we have on the names: back row, left to right: Erlene Ruston, Cleo Roberts, Lillian Halley, Mildred Hurst, Cy Mussey, unknown, unknown, Bennie Mussey, Mary Ferguson, unknown; second row, Junior Lemons, Rosa Mae Clark, Walter Downie, Margaret Arrington, Jim Bob Nations, unknown, Mike Strange, Bill Smith; front row, Robert Lea, Jack Bogusch, Albert Appel, Joe Kerr Jr., Tom Stovell. The picture was made about 1925 and is of the kindergarten class of Mrs. Nations, according to information received.

Terrell County Has 199 Students Eligible For Special Education Funds

Terrell County has 199 students who are neglected, under public care, or who come from low-income families and who are responsible for the allocation of $32,365 under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

In Rep. White's district, the 11 counties will receive $1,946,755 this year because of 11,990 such children within the district.

Farm Dedication At ACC Honors Philanthropists

Dedication services were held in Abilene last Tuesday afternoon at Abilene Christian College's 99-acre Allen farm adjoining the school property on the north.

The plaque, which was unveiled by two grandsons, honored and gave credit to two longtime supporters of the agricultural program at ACC.

S. N. Allen, who has been called the father of agriculture at ACC, died in 1960 at the age of 94. In 1944 he gave a 114-acre farm to the school but since that time 15 acres has been whittled by the expressway.

The family of the late L. T. Bennett of Hale Center gave a 1,600-acre farm in Yoakum to the college and later oil was discovered on the tract, the royalties having paid the school more than a million dollars.

Following speeches paying tribute to the two men who were early-day donors and backers of the college, Bobby Allen, a freshman ag major at ACC, and Chip Bennett of Denver City unveiled the plaques.

Past Season Count Shows Increase Of Deer Population

SAN ANGELO—Wildlife workers west of the Pecos River are conducting the annual post-season deer count, according to Jack K. Parsons, wildlife supervisor.

He reported to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department that in 1966, most Trans-Pecos counties registered an increase in deer numbers in areas receiving abnormally high rainfall.

The census now under way will tell biologists how many deer withstood the rigors of winter and will participate in the spring fawning season.

In 1966 the deer numbers estimated to be in Trans-Pecos counties prior to the season were: Brewster - 54,178, Culberson - 22,870, El Paso - 2,098, Jeff Davis - 24,815, Hudspeth - 21,940, Pecos 29,260, Presidio - 34,400, Reeves - 5,701, and Terrell - 14,981.

Memorials Asked To Build Library

Mrs. H. E. Ezelle has accepted the appointment as memorials chairman for Friends of the Library. Mrs. Ezelle will acknowledge gifts to the library commemorating any event the donor may wish.

The executive committee has expressed the hope that everyone will consider the library as a fitting recipient for memorials to mark births, weddings, anniversaries, as well as memorializing a deceased loved one.

The memorials may be either books or cash to be used to buy a book or books.

Local Library Gets Shelving; More Donations Sought

Mrs. E. E. Farley reports the available shelves in the library room in the court house are filling rapidly, as volunteer workers continue the cataloging of donated books.

R. C. Holcombe has accepted a shelf-building project for some of the students in his shop class in the high school and this expected to add room for about 1,000 volumes. The books expected from the El Paso Public Library through the inter-library loan program will just about fill this space, according to Mrs. Farley.

The committee of volunteers setting up the library are issuing a call for portable shelves, folding chairs, children's chairs, a few sturdy tables, wall clock, and pencil sharpener. Anyone having any of these items to donate or loan is asked to call 2458 or 2347.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

These days there is a great deal of discussion about the presumed lower moral climate of the younger generation.

This is quite a debatable subject inasmuch as with the complex of modern mass communications, more publicity can now be given to the "odd balls" than was possible in post-reletronic days.

However, if there has been any substantial breakdown in the moral outlook of the youth, perhaps then some consideration should be given to the examples set before them.

C. W. Harder

A recent incident is quite illustrative of this point. Back in the days of President Calvin Coolidge, there was a Secretary of the Interior Albert Fall, who was involved in the Teapot Dome scandal, wherein U. S. Navy oil reserve lands were turned over to private parties.

There was no hesitation in prosecuting this matter, once it came to light. As one of the results, the Secretary of Interior was convicted of taking a bribe of $100,000 and he went to prison.

While it is customary in all government offices to hang the portraits of past heads of the department on the walls, 13 years since this crime, the portrait of Fall was not to be seen.

But the other day, Interior Secretary Stewart Udall ordered that the long hidden portrait be found and it is now hanging in a position of honor in the Interior Department offices in Washington.

Of course, while liberals like to scoff at President Coolidge for being an old "fuddy-duddy" conservative, Silent Cal as he was known, was not a man given to mouthy orations on honesty in government. He contented himself with enforcing honesty in government, with no excuses accepted for evil.

But this little matter of a portrait hanging probably indicates better than anything else how far drifts American Republic from rock-ribbed integrity.

So far, and it is highly unlikely this will ever happen, West Point has not placed a statue of Benedict Arnold in honored view. It does display the boot that was lost when Arnold was serving his country faithfully and before he turned traitor.

Of course, times change in this era of billions of dollars flowing into Washington and perhaps a $100,000 bribe does not amount to much by today's standards.

But no doubt, youth observes, and ponders.

New 1967 Texas Highway Maps Now Available

AUSTIN—Six new public lakes, 819 miles of new highways and 18 new safety rest areas make their appearance for the first time on the Texas Highway Department's colorful 1967 Official State Highway Map.

Before the year is out, about one million copies of the map will be distributed throughout the world, inviting Texan and out-of-state visitors alike to "Discover Texas, America's Fun-tier."

All the new lakes are accessible to the public via the 67-thousand-mile Texas highway system.

Largest of the new reservoirs is Lake Meredith on the Canadian River in the Panhandle. Others are Lake Arrowhead, Fin Creek Reservoir, White River Lake, Bardwell and Somerville Reservoirs.

The new map shows 115 additional miles of Interstate highways, added since last year. More than 1,700 miles of these superb new highways are in service now.

The 1967 Official State Highway Map also delineates approximately 704 miles of new farm to market roads. Many of these provide the visitors with access to recreational areas throughout the State, as well as serving agriculture and industry.

Eighteen additional safety rest areas are shown on the map for the first time. More than 1,100 safety rest areas, scenic turnouts and roadside parks now enhance the safety and convenience of Texas highways.

A message from Governor John Connally welcomes the visitor and extends a personal invitation to explore Texas.

Further emphasizing the water resources of Texas, a scenic photograph of the Sam Rayburn Reservoir in East Texas graces the cover of the map.

Padre Island centers a pictorial display, along with 12 other vivid color photographs of scenes and sights from every area of the State.

For the convenience of the traveler, the face of the map contains a handy mileage table, inset maps showing principal streets in larger cities, and listing of State parks, Texas Highway Department Tourist Bureaus and highway patrol offices.

The 1967 Official State Highway Map is but one of a variety of services provided for the convenience of the traveler by the Texas Highway Department.

Through its Travel and Information Division, the Texas Highway Department assists nearly three-quarters of a million visitors each year in eight Tourist Information Bureaus located at key highway gateways and in the rotunda of the State Capitol in Austin.

Additionally, the Department answers more than 261 thousand inquiries annually, furnishing information and descriptive literature about Texas.

In performing these services, the Department distributes more than 3.5 million pieces of travel-oriented literature about Texas annually. Of this volume, more than two million pieces are produced as a part of the Highway Department's travel promotion program.

Texas motorists may order the 1967 Official State Highway Map when registering motor vehicles during February and March.

Mercy

"And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us."
— John 17:13

The quality of mercy is shown clearly through the life of Christ upon earth.

And yet some of us do not clearly understand the meaning of the word. We think of mercy, perhaps, as something to be received from the hands of a master, a king, or a victor in battle. We do not realize that we, too, can evidence the quality of mercy in our daily lives.

Look to your dictionary. Rate yourself on such things as forebearance; compassion; willingness to forgive and be kind; leniency.

Mercy is something you may extend to others as you expect it for yourself.

Summary sheets are being issued by the administrators of the food stamp program to be inaugurated in Pecos County as a joint project of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Texas Department of Public Welfare.

They present the commonest questions being asked by prospective clients of the program, as well as by food stores and interested citizens, and the list follows:

It is a plan to increase the food purchased and improve the diets of persons receiving welfare checks and other low income families.

The stamp (coupons) are in two different amounts; Two Dollars ($2.00) and Fifty Cents (50¢). The Fifty Cent coupons are in booklets of Two Dollars and Three Dollars. The Two Dollar coupons are in booklets of Ten Dollars and Twenty Dollars.

The following Questions and answers will be helpful to you in taking part in the Food Stamp Program:

1. How does the plan work? Persons receiving Public Assistance apply through the State Department of Welfare Worker, who handles their assistance cases. Families of low income apply through the Food Stamp certifying Worker. Your County Judge or other public official can tell you how, where and when to get in touch with these Workers. If they are found to be eligible, they will be expected to buy an amount of coupons for about the same amount of money they have been spending for food in the past, and they are given additional coupons free. All of these stamps can be spent for food, except for a few foods which are not produced in the United States. They may be spent in any authorized grocery store.
2. Is everyone in the county eligible to buy food coupons? No. Only those who have been certified by the appropriate Welfare Office.
3. If I am receiving assistance from the Welfare Office, must I apply to buy food coupons? No, the choice is yours. However, you will be able to buy much more food for less money if you do take part. Even if you do not apply the amount of money you are receiving will not be reduced for this reason.
4. Can I buy food coupons every other month? No. There must be a regularity of purchase.
5. When can I buy food coupons? On the dates that are entered on the back side of your Identification Card.
6. Can I buy the coupons with a check? No. Only cash will be accepted.
7. If I forget my Identification Card, can I still buy food coupons? No.
8. Can I give the coupons to someone else or sell them? No. They must be used by you, or member of your family.
9. Is it necessary to buy the entire amount of food coupons each month as indicated on my Identification Card? Yes. However, if your income is received twice a month, it is possible for you to arrange with the caseworker for your purchase to be one-half of the amount the first part of the month and the balance later that month.
10. Must I sign my name on the coupon booklets? Yes. Your name must be signed on the back of each booklet before you can buy any food.
11. Can the food coupons be spent in any grocery store? No. They can be spent only in the grocery stores that have been authorized to accept them by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
12. Can the food coupons be used to pay "cash" grocery bills? No. They can be used only to pay for groceries you have bought at the time you use the coupons.
13. What can I buy with my food coupons? You can buy any food products sold in authorized retail food stores if the food is to be eaten by members of your family or your household, except wines, liquors, beer or other alcoholic beverages, tobacco in any form, or imported items.
14. Can I receive cash in change from the grocer? No. Change can only be made with 50¢ coupons or a credit slip given by the grocer.
15. What about change for purchases in amounts that do not come out an even 50¢? The grocer may give you a coupon credit slip good for food in his store or you may pay the difference in cash.
16. Will grocery stores accept food coupons that have been taken out of the booklet? No. Except the 50¢ coupons that have been given to you in making change.

 rubble and a situation that is unsightly, and a grim reminder of the tragedy.

The Precinct 1 commissioner has agreed to help all that is possible, and it is the feeling of the Chamber directors, that a sufficient amount of interest can be generated to get help from all over town and set aside a day or two and get on our work clothes and get busy.

Some contacts have been made with some property owners for permission to go on their property and do the work, and local property owners, it is hoped, will be on hand to give permission and help with the work.

The Chamber would appreciate any help that could be given in getting the project started and encouragement or advice of any kind would be for the benefit of all.

Forgive us our debts.
 —(Matt. 6:12)

Why is forgiveness so important? Why did Jesus put so much stress on it? Forgiveness is important, because it is a way in which we can express greater love, divine love. Our human love finds it easy to love those of whom we approve, but we should make an effort to love enough to forgive those who have been unloving toward us. God says, "As you forgive, so are you forgiven."
