

LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert---

The luck of the Irish was with us Friday night at the football game when we were trying to take pictures of the "Grid Queen" and "Miss SHS". All we got was a blurry gom (that's Irish, too!) We had a new pack of film in our "old faithful", but it was either defective or the camera was not closed.

Some days are just like that!

October is a month that means a lot, or has meant a lot to us over the years. Besides being the month that has National Newspaper Week, which is an important event any way you look at it, it also has the following significance:

October is the month that SW and Yours Truly were married and it was 26 years ago now!

October is the month in which I was called into the Armed Forces, the day before our third anniversary, and that was 23 years ago.

October is the month that Columbus discovered America, and that is probably the most important occasion of all of the others, since the fact of the discovery probably led to the other two happenings. Some of my ancestors were already here, but none of SW's were!

Following last week's dissertation on driving, we had some more thoughts that we hope would be read and heeded, causing all who read it to drive more carefully and also to try to influence this practice among others. Our own driving habits, for one thing, are a great influence, and something that we may be able to say to someone, may be just the thing they need to help them to be a safer driver.

There certainly is a great need for more safe driving.

The other thoughts that came to mind are these: strictly speaking, one's primary purpose in driving safely is for his own protection---the protection of the most important person in the world. And the second reason is for the protection of the second most important person in the world - the person whose life you may save by your safe driving habits. It would be impossible for anyone to say that they would welcome the blame for the crippling or maiming of another person, but some actions of some drivers say that, even if their lips do not.

It is only our concern for ourselves and for others that we go to the trouble to put these thoughts on paper.

The merchants of Sanderson got an increase in freight rates that they didn't know was coming and it came as somewhat of a shock.

If you notice a slight increase in the price of some articles that are shipped here by freight you will know why.

Eagle Boosters asked that we notify all that plan to enter the variety show Halloween to contact one of the school principals immediately.

'Grid Queen', 'Miss SHS' Are Crowned At Pre-Game Ceremonies Last Friday

Miss Nancy Yeary was crowned "Sweetheart" of the 1967 football team at ceremonies preceding the football game last Friday night. Immediately following was the presentation of the crown to Miss Amelia Escamilla as "Miss SHS", the first such designation in the history of the school.

Miss Yeary, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Yeary, was escorted onto the field by Glenn Haynes and Ray Welch. She received a bouquet of mums and a gold football autographed by all the members of the team.

The selection of the queen was made by a secret ballot of the Eagle squad.

The four finalists for the title of "Miss SHS" came onto the field before the naming of the winner of the contest, also selected by secret ballot by the student body.

The four finalists and their escorts were: Miss Sharon Hill, a senior, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Boyd of Midland, escorted by Vernon Thompson and Carlos Garza. She is president of the FHA chapter and vice-president of the National Honor Society; Miss Amelia Escamilla, a senior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alberto Escamilla. Her escorts were George Arredondo and Andrew Riess. She is president of the student council and member of the National Honor Society. Miss Viola Fisher, a junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher, was escorted by Joe Brown and Reymario Marquez. She is junior class secretary and librarian for the Eagle Band. Miss Sandra Rogers, also a junior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rogers and was escorted by Johnny Flowers and Oscar Villarreal, and is the head cheer leader this year.

After all had been introduced to the fans, announcement was made that Miss Escamilla was the winner of the title and Oscar Escamilla, a member of the student council, presented her with a gold mum bouquet, a title ribbon, and a crown.

J. E. Hill of Fort Stockton, the father of Joe Hill of Sanderson, is shown with what is said to have been the last lobo wolf killed in this country. The animal was killed on the Longfellow ranch game preserve in 1917. Hill was a professional trapper at the time and is shown carrying the animal which was later stuffed and on display in his home. Joe Hill loaned us the picture.

Park Project Is Next On List For Legion Auxiliary

All proceeds from the sale of rummage for the remainder of the year will go to the Memorial Park, according to an announcement made last week by Mrs. H. E. Ezelle, chairman of the sale, following action by the Legion Auxiliary at their regular meeting.

Since other activities in the community have put work on the park low on the agenda and since most of the work on the park has been done by volunteer labor, the Auxiliary has decided to assist in the completion of the park project.

Help from other clubs is being solicited in furnishing workers for the sales and a plea is going out again for anyone who has rummage to bring it to the Brown Building next to the fire house or call some member of the Auxiliary to pick it up.

The sale hereafter will be on Wednesday afternoons from 1 to 3 p.m. and on Fridays from 3 to 5 p.m. The patronage of the public will be appreciated.

Mrs. Olivia Salinas took her grandchildren, Maria Cecilia and Victor Cobos, to Alpine Wednesday for their annual physical check-ups.

Menard Eeks Out 8-6 Win Friday Here; Dislocation of Elbow Benches Riess

The Menard Yellowjackets scored on a blocked punt in the end zone to gain the win over the Sanderson Eagles here Friday night in a conference game. Their two-point conversion following the TD was the edge necessary for the win. The blocked punt came early in the first period and Sanderson earned score came in the second period on a plunge from the two yard line and the try for the extra points running ended up short of the goal line.

Sanderson was able to contain the Menard offense during all of the game without a serious threat to score. The Sanderson touchdown drive began on their own 45-yard line and the sustained drive put them to the Menard two.

The last half of the ball game was a series of fumbles, pass interceptions and otherwise exchanging the ball.

Major penalties were predominate throughout the game and two players from each team were ejected from the game for unsportsmanlike conduct.

Late in the second period, Carlos Garza, starting quarterback, got an ankle injury and was replaced at that post by Andrew Riess, who about three plays later, got a dislocation of his right elbow when he was hit in the process of throwing a pass. He will be out of action for the balance of the year. Garza's ankle injury is not expected to be serious.

During the rest of the game, quarterback duties were done by Leslie Hall, Bill Littleton, and Frank Garcia, with Hall and Littleton doing most of the play calling chores.

Sanderson will have two road games, in Otona and Iraan during the next two weeks.

Progress Report On Dam Project

Darwin Schrader, local Soil Conservation Service representative, reported this week that as of October 1, seven percent of the work had been completed on the watershed project to install flood control dams. This represents that portion of the work up to the actual construction of the dams.

A target date of May 30 of next year has been set as the date for the completion of that portion of the project up to the actual construction of the dams.

At that time, according to Schrader, all of the plans, specifications, etc., will be turned over to the sponsoring organizations for their acceptance and approval and for the legal and paper work necessary for proceeding with the project.

Legion Auxiliary Hears Report By Supt. McAllister

The Legion Auxiliary met in the Legion Hall Tuesday evening. After the colors had been advanced, the National Anthem was sung and the Pledge of Allegiance recited after the opening prayer by Mrs. H. E. Ezelle, chaplain.

Plans were completed for the annual Poppy Sale on Veterans' Day, plans to be announced later by the chairman, Mrs. Clyde Higgins. Three prizes will be awarded to the makers of poppy posters by students in some of the elementary and junior high school grades.

Mrs. Higgins, membership chairman, announced 50 paid-up memberships to date.

Mrs. Ezelle will be chairman of the rummage sales for the remainder of the year and the funds will go to the Memorial Park. Mrs. A. C. Garner reported that 30 boxes valued at $300 were sent to the hurricane victims from the stock on hand at the rummage sales. The last project was a contribution of $175 to assist in buying new uniforms for the members of the high school band, majorettes, and drum major. Over the years the Auxiliary has made worthwhile contributions to many community projects using the funds derived from their rummage sales. The sales have made outgrown and discarded clothing, shoes, and household items of all kinds available to the public for a nominal sum instead of being thrown away.

Delegates and alternates were named to the fall convention in El Paso.

Mrs. L. H. Gilbreath gave a report from the Legislative Bulletin.

Supt. Ken McAllister gave a very interesting and informative report of the Language Arts Improvement Program which was begun here in March of 1965. Over $24,000 was spent for equipment for the programs and teacher aids hired to assist in carrying out the programs. After noting criticism of the program and also progress, Mr. McAllister stated that he was very pleased with the program as it is now being used in the elementary school and he has hopes of it being tried again in the junior high and high school grades with more success than was noted on the first venture.

What instrument do you play?

How about the typewriter?

It's just as much an instrument as the accordion, guitar or piano.

The typewriter types your words where you can see how they look and sound.

Where you can change, cut and compose a thought with fewer and better words.

Like any instrument, the greater the range of your typewriter, the freer you are to work with it and enjoy it.

The Hermes 3000 is all the typewriter you'll ever need. It's called a student's portable, but it's hardly the usual student's portable. It costs $129.50. It's more machine than you think of a portable as being.

The 3000's keyboard looks and acts like the kind you see on office machines. With figure one's, half-spacing and a central panel of service keys. Its unique Flying Margins® flag you down before you break a word in the wrong place and lose points with your teacher.

For all its sophistication, the Hermes 3000 is one of the easiest typewriters to learn on and use. Once you've got it down, you can always pick it up.

The Hermes 3000. Play it.

Building Project For 'El Buen Pastor' Is Under Way

The church plans to purchase the property south of the present building and belonging to Mrs. Bemarda Postas, for the site of the new buildings.

Pledges of members of the congregation and friends of the church toward the building program total $14,000 and the balance is expected to be received in pledges soon, according to Rev. Yanez.

The congregation has outgrown the present building, which is also in a bad need of extensive repairs, and the project for the new building was conceived several years ago and actually begun, but was later suspended after the flood in 1965.

Legion Auxiliary Sends Clothing To Beulah Victims

When the calls for clothing for the victims of hurricane Beulah were made, several members of the Legion Auxiliary went to the stock of clothing at the site of their rummage sales and packed a large number of boxes of clothing and shoes to be sent to the area. The stock was rather depleted after that and now a call is going out for more rummage as a new project is being undertaken by the Auxiliary. Not only clothing of all kinds and shoes are at the rummage sales but pots and pans, dishes, bedding, rugs, draperies, anything that is useable in a home.

Baptists Aid Victims Of Hurricane Beulah

Jim Turner and Rev. M. R. Rogers left Thursday morning to pick up furniture, bedding, clothing, and canned goods in Alpine, Fort Davis, and Fort Stockton to take to the Valley for distribution among the hurricane victims there with Harlingen as the distribution center. The Baptist churches of the towns had received the donations and those made here were added to the van-load which left in the afternoon.

Rev. Rogers expressed the appreciation and gratitude of his congregation for the generosity of the community in responding to the call that was made by the church for aid for the hurricane victims.

He reported that the stench of the mold and mildew in that area is almost unbearable. He added that the needs of the people are being met well and it is heart-warming to see their interest in their own neighbors and to hear them express their gratitude for what others are doing for them.

Miss Diane Stoeber of Houston spent the weekend with Miss Elizabeth Turner.
