Texas Sales Tax Holiday is Aug. 9-11

Whether you're in need of notebooks, rulers or running shoes, Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar is reminding shoppers they can save money on those and other items during the state's sales tax holiday on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 9-11.

The law exempts sales tax on qualified items – such as clothing, footwear, school supplies and backpacks – priced below $100, saving shoppers about $8 on every $100 they spend.

"As Texas families begin the process of replacing their beach towels with lunch boxes, the sales tax holiday is the perfect opportunity to save some money on supplies families need before the school bell rings," Hegar said. "As a father of three, I know how these expenses can add up."

Apparel and school supplies that may be purchased tax-free are listed on the Comptroller's website at TexasTaxHoliday.org.

Shoppers this year will save an estimated $102.2 million in state and local sales taxes during the sales tax holiday.

Texas' sales tax holiday weekend has been an annual event since 1999.

All too familiar

This location on east US Highway 60 has been the site of two fatal accidents within a 12-day span. A Friona woman was killed on July 13th and a Clovis man was killed on July 25th. The impact spots for both accidents are strikingly similar. The Department of Public Safety accident report markings on the pavement from the first accident can still be seen.

Battleship Texas gets $35M from state, but in need of new home

Legislators appropriated $35 million this spring to save the Battleship Texas, believed to be the only battleship in existence to have served in both World Wars. However, the bill included a condition that admission fees cover its $2 million annual maintenance costs.

Over the last 12 years, the state has appropriated $85 million in attempts to preserve the ship that was docked at the San Jacinto State Battleground Park, but that level of support ended with this last bill. Lawmakers earmarked the $35 million with the knowledge that scrapping the battleship would cost $30 million. The cost to dry-dock it would be $100 million. The state handed over operations of the historical site to the Battleship Texas Foundation on a 99-year lease that requires taking the battleship to a shipyard where its rusted-out hull will be replaced and other repairs made for about a year before it is relocated to a new home, yet to be decided.

The battleship, which is currently docked in La Porte, draws 80,000 visitors a year Fridays through Sundays. Foundation members say the attraction loses money operationally and repair costs compound the loss. They advocate moving it out of San Jacinto State Battleground Park to a site that can attract 300,000 to 500,000 visitors a year. Baytown, Corpus Christi, and Galveston officials have expressed interest in taking on such a project.

It's all about the fries!!!

The Friona Noon Lions Club would like to thank everyone who braved the heat during the Cheeseburger Festival to support our club by purchasing our "World Famous" french fries. You see, it really doesn't matter what world you're living in, these fries will be famous to you. During the festivities, U.S. Representative Jodey Arrington stopped by to see how the fries are made. Frymaster

Andy Montana showed him the ropes including his reverse curl move to extract the fries from the basket and into the pan. Andy also informed him and Mayor Ricky White that the club was using red potatoes courtesy of Barrett Produce of Muleshoe. In July, these potatoes are fresh out of the fields in and around Springlake and Littlefield. Furthermore, the fries are cooked in cottonseed oil that is produced by Pyco Industries in Lubbock. Andy also explained that the Friona Lions Club is proud to use local products made by local businesses. Congressman Arrington also made time to speak to club members Davy Carthel and John Jordan. Be sure to attend the Town Hall next Tuesday, August 6th at 10:00 a.m. at the Senior Citizens Center.

By the time some of you read this Larry Donell Davis will be dead. His attorneys filed an appeal for a stay of execution or a 180-day reprieve. Both were denied. If all goes as planned, the State of Texas will kill Larry Davis tonight (Thursday July 31) by lethal injection. Last week Dave Henry, an Amarillo Globe News writer, published a story about Larry Davis and the man named Michael Barrow he and some friends killed in 1995 in Amarillo. They stabbed him numerous times with knives and an ice pick then beat him with a pipe. They stole some merchandise from Mr. Barrow's home and pawned it which lead to the arrest and convictions. Davis is the only one of the five defendants to receive the death penalty. In the words of Dave Henry, "no one will rejoice or celebrate when Davis is executed. Davis' death will be a waste of life, but it was another waste of life that the justice system determined Davis was responsible for that later led to his fate." Larry Donell Davis will be the 13th person from Randall/Potter counties executed since 1976. He was born in Friona. No one here seems to remember a Davis family. Henry's newspaper story said Davis was a native of Parmer County so I did some amateur research. County Clerk Colleen Stover, an always helpful county employee, looked up his birth certificate. Larry Donell Davis was born October 9, 1967, in Parmer County Community Hospital, delivered by Dr. Lee Spring. The father was shown as Don Davis and the mother as Ella Fae Harris. The address was listed as Route 3, Box 331, Friona. At the time of Larry Donell's birth the family had six other living children. I asked several old-timers about a Davis family around here in the late 1960s. After a lot of head scratching and such, no one was able to recall them. A black family with a mom and dad and seven kids? You'd think someone would remember, but then it was 40 years ago. The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the prison system) has a website with a death row link. It is not a nice place to browse. Here is a brief look, at Larry Donell Davis' wasted life: February 1992, 2-year sentence for possession of a prohibited weapon and theft over $750; July 1992 released on parole; August 1993 returned from parole; May 1994 released on mandatory supervision; July 1994 returned from parole with a new conviction, 4 years for theft; May 1995 released on mandatory supervision. Then on August 28, 1995, Larry Donell Davis and the four others went to Michael Barrow's home where they stabbed and beat him to death. They took a VCR, a camcorder, a stereo system, a cordless phone, a television, and jewelry. He was convicted and sent to death row June 11, 1999, at the age of 31. The death row website says his education level was 9th grade. Chances are the Davis family were farm hands and moved on from Parmer County. His defense attorney said Davis came from a disadvantaged background and "didn't have the chances most of us had."

Did I mention that in 1993 he was accused of the beating and stabbing of a Dallas man but Dallas County decided not to prosecute since he had already received the death penalty in Amarillo. No one knows what life was like for Larry Donell Davis after Dr. Spring brought him safely into the world at our small town community hospital. I couldn't find anyone who even remembered him. What happens between the beginning and the end of lives like that of Larry Donell Davis? Some folks (mostly mommas) are prone to say of murderers that they are really nice persons, something-just snapped to cause 'em to stab another human being 27 times, beat him with a pipe, and steal his stuff. Perhaps the Davis family turned Larry Donell into an uneducated monster. Maybe he was deprived of most of life's necessities. Obviously he was never taught (or cared) about responsibility and consequences. Tonight in Huntsville, the State of Texas will explain life's consequences to Larry Donell Davis for the last time.

July 30, 1994

A grinding collision on U.S. Highway 60 at Euclid Street last Saturday evening sent two Clovis, N.M. residents to Parmer County Community Hospital, where they were treated and released. Friona Police Department spokesman Steve Jones said that a 1979 Dodge Ram pickup driven by Antonio Jimenez Nava, 34, of Bovina, ran the stop sign at Highway 60 and crashed into a 1969 Chevrolet pickup driven by Ronald Gene Stevenson, 50, of Clovis. The Stevenson vehicle was headed west on Highway 60, Nava was northbound. The impact knocked the Stevenson pickup into the fence that surrounds the Friona Junior High football field. Emergency workers had to use the Jaws of Life implement to open the Stevenson vehicle door and extricate him and his wife Kathy. Nava was cited for driving while intoxicated, no driver's license and no insurance. The accident happened at 7:15 p.m. on Saturday, and was investigated by the Friona Police Department and the DPS

Texas Weekly Fuel Update and Outlook

Texas gas prices have fallen 3.5 cents per gallon in the past week, averaging $2.47 per gallon, according to GasBuddy's daily survey of 13,114 stations. Gas prices in Texas are 5.5 cents per gallon higher than a month ago, but are still 16.9 cents per gallon lower than a year ago.

According to GasBuddy price reports, the lowest price in the state today is $2.13 while the highest is $3.19 per gallon. The cheapest price in the entire country today stands at $1.97 while the most expensive is $5.09 per gallon.

The national average price of gasoline has fallen 3.0 cents in the last week, averaging $2.72 per gallon. The national average is up 1.8 cents per gallon from a month ago, yet stands 12.1 cents per gallon lower than a year ago.

"Average gasoline prices have been on cruise control the last week, falling gently for the second straight week as oil prices remained largely in check as we enter the final month of the summer driving season," said Patrick DeHaan, head of petroleum analysis at GasBuddy. "Even with Iran's escalating activity in the Strait of Hormuz and a large draw in U.S. oil inventories, oil markets weren't able to push higher, suggesting there may be more downside in the weeks ahead. Concerns still abound over a the lack of a China/U.S. trade deal as talks get back underway this week, but by and large, motorists can expect to see little organized movement at the pump in the week ahead, and barring any new situations, we should be able to cruise into the fall months without a major hiccup in prices."

GasBuddy is available on all mobile platforms. The app and website have the most accurate and real-time fuel prices at over 140,000 unique stations in the United States, and is the most comprehensive money-saving companion while on the road. For more information, visit www.gasbuddy.com

Accident claims the life of Clovis man

A Clovis man is dead after a crash involving a pickup and tractor-trailer on US Highway 60. The accident occurred Thursday afternoon, July 25th, about 4.5 miles west of Friona.

According to the Texas Department of Public Safety, at around 2:20 p.m., a tractor-trailer driven by Jerry Varnee, 71, of Portales, New Mexico was traveling east on US 60 in the outside lane. At the same time, Benjamin Arguello, 22, of Clovis, New Mexico was traveling north in a 1997 Chevrolet Silverado pickup and was preparing to cross the eastbound lanes of US to in order to turn left onto west US 60.

Arguello failed to yield the right-of-way and entered the path of the tractor-trailer. The driver of the tractor-trailer, Varnell, was unable to avoid striking the pickup, causing significant damage to the driver's side of the pickup in the collision. The time of death for Mr. Arguello was recorded by Judge Deena Leuea, Parmer County Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2.

The crash remains under investigation.

DOLLARS & SENSE

Emergency Fund

According to Bankrate.com (January 2018), only 39 percent of Americans have enough in savings to cover a $1000 emergency. That leaves 61 percent who would not be able to cover something like a visit to the ER, failure of a major appliance, or even an out of town trip to a funeral. An emergency fund of more than $1000 is the best place to take a first step toward getting on top of your finances. It may take a number of weeks to put that much aside and it may require sacrificing some small "extra" items. You can put the money in a savings account or in an envelope - whatever works for you. The peace of mind knowing that you could cover a single emergency is worth the effort!

Psalm 132 - Standing on the Promises

By Brett Hoyle, Pastor, First Baptist Church

"Standing on the promises of Christ my King; Through eternal ages let his praises ring; Glory in the highest, I will shout and sing; Standing on the promises of God," are the words of the well-loved hymn, as they resonate the truth that flows from Psalm 132. Psalm 132 looks back at God's actions in choosing Zion to be the place he was worshipped, and it recounts the many of his promises in bringing this about. In summary, the reminder is that God is so gracious, that his people can stand on his promises in any and every circumstance.

Are you standing on God's promises? If you are, then a few key areas are part of the natural flow of your life. First, to stand on God's promises means you have taken part in his amazing promise of salvation through Jesus Christ. If you are genuinely saved from your sins, then the Holy Spirit of God lives in you and you are following his leadership in your life and staying full of the Spirit. Further, you also must have a diet of taking in his promises through reading the Word of God. It is impossible to stand on promises you don't know about. Finally, you are living in faith, with people of faith, the church. Standing on the promises of God isn't a call for intense individualism, but is a call to surrender to the Lord and submit to his leading, his Spirit, his Word and his church.

Panhandle Parables

The Wonder of it All

By Jeff Procter, Minister, 6th Street Church of Christ

Like most of you I seem to meet myself coming and going. Life can get a little crazy at times and it is easy to get caught up in the whole chaotic schedule of chasing the day. If there is anyone guilty of missing a few roses along the way it is me. I know I need to stop and smell them, I see them, but the pressures of getting things done keep my feet moving at an exhausting pace. Then it happens, I hustle to a park in Amarillo to hear my daughter and piano friend play a duet. My phone is set to record, and they begin to play, Louie Armstrong's "What A Wonderful World." I learned that it originally sold few than a thousand copies in the US yet topped the charts in Great Britain. Go figure, we are too busy to see a wonderful world.

Of course, being the proud dad, I am doing my best to not embarrass my daughter when they finish. They did great, and if you see me around town, I will happily take out my phone and let you pause for just a minute, four minutes actually and listen.

How is it we miss so much trying to do more? We have got to learn to slow down and wonder a bit. Look at God's creation, yes, I believe He did it all in six days. We need to see the wonder in a child's discovery, we need to wonder about the power it took to make Palo Duro Canyon. We need to stop and smell the proverbial rose and maybe a few real ones. Life is full of wonder and we are here for such a short time relative to eternity. Make it count. I heard a quote tonight from the end of the movie "Same Kind of Different As Me." (I recommend it great movie.) Denver, said "You never know whose eyes God is looking through to see you." True enough, but sadly, I am fearful the eyes He chooses to look at me are the ones I overlook because I am too busy being busy.

One last little note, when I played back the video of my daughter's wonderful performance, I heard something that I did not hear when it was live. A chorus of locusts were also playing in the background of the performance last Friday night in the park. Just a little reminder to me, what a wonderful world!

Get ALL the Facts

By Teena Hughs

For over 40 years, Feller's first cousins have had a family reunion; that is, up until the last two years. Last year's reunion was cancelled; this year's was never planned. Apparently, some of the cousins are getting together soon, but not all of the cousins were invited. How did we find out? One of the uninvited cousins voiced her unhappiness over this on Facebook!

The bottom line is this: people can gather with whomever they desire; they can invite whomever they desire; they can not invite whomever they desire. That doesn't prevent others from getting their feelings hurt, being angry, feeling not good enough to be invited.

Over the years, I have learned that there are two sides to every story, situation, and argument. I have been burned way too many times by speaking out when I have heard only one side of a situation, so I didn't respond to the Facebook post.

However, I did wonder about the other side of the story. I wondered if the upset relative had all the facts, and if she had confronted the relatives who are getting together, before taking to Facebook? I wondered if this post caused other people to be upset in any way? I wondered what family division will occur because of this situation?

We live in such a fast decision-making, immediate right or wrong, rush-to-judgment world, that we don't take the time to get all the facts. The news media is terrible about jumping to conclusions before getting all the facts; remember the kids from the Christian school at the Lincoln Memorial being confronted by the Indian and other protesters for wearing MAGA caps? That student will probably be filthy rich by the time all the law suits are settled, all because the news media didn't get all the facts before they reported the story.

It is vital to get ALL the facts before saying or doing something. Doing so will save yourself a lot of embarrassment, much heartache, and you will come out looking so much wiser and smarter because you chose to wait and get all the facts before speaking out in some form or another.

Stevens & Stevens claim championship

More, more, more. More players, more prizes, more excitement. The 11th Annual Pudge Kendrick Memorial Golf Tournament provided more of everything. A record eighty-eight teams spread out over eight flights gave golfers of all skill levels an opportunity to test their mettle. A record $13,000 in prize money was paid out to the top four finishers in each flight.

And if that wasn't enough, World Long Drive professional Mitch Dobbyn was on hand to give donors a chance to win a $5,000 golf vacation for two.

On the par 5 8th hole, Mitch would hit a tee shot for the team, usually over 400 yards, and if one of the team members holed out the second shot they would win the Pebble Beach golf vacation prize. Two teams actually hit the green with their second shots and one team almost holed it. Mitch helped raise $7,300 for charity and $3,400 of that went to the Parmer County and Hereford Cancer Coalitions.

How much more do you need? How about $79,000. That is the amount that has been collected so far this year to benefit the two local Cancer Coalitions. Tournament spokesman Greg Lewellen said that he is amazed at how the tournament has grown each year.

The Results

The husband/wife team of Jerry & Linda Stevens are the tournament champions. Their two round Championship Flight total of 121 (60-61) was four shots better than the two teams of who tied for second place. Jeff O'Rand & Phillip Kahlich and Braden West & Billy Pope shot identical scores of 125 (64-61). Jeremy Herrera & Shane Baucom finished fourth with a score of 126 (62-64). Besides the first place prize money, Jerry & Linda also won monogrammed golf bags. The top four teams in the Championship Flight also received engraved Yeti tumblers courtesy of Valero.

Jerry & Linda are Hereford residents and are not the only golfers in their family. Their son, Jay, played collegiate golf at WTA&M University and won this same tournament back in 2015 with playing partner Nathan Sullivan. Their daughter, Sammi, played her college golf at the University of New Mexico and played 3 1/2 years on the pro tour. Jerry said that he and Linda play in 4-5 tournaments a year and that they miss playing golf at the Friona Country Club.

In the 1st Flight, Keith & Kayla Bartley shot a second day 61 to pull away from the pack. Their two round total of 127 (66-61) was also four shots better than the second place team of Tim Simons and Bob Baker who shot 131 (65-66).

The 2nd Flight was the only one that had two teams tie for first place. The teams of Dee King & Joe Marquez and Mike Maynard & Rodney McCracken both shot scores of 137 (69-68). This flight was the most competitive. Only two shots separated the top five teams. All five teams won money. Interestingly, seven of those ten players have lived in Friona in the past.

Rick Roden & Rhett Roden shot a 142 (72-70) to win the 3rd Flight by a single shot over the team of Joe Villanueva & Ruben Villanueva 143 (71-73).

Brodie Boren & Wayde Boren 143 (73-70) won the 4th Flight by a single shot over Isaac Alanzo & Pete Rodriguez 144 (73-71).

Rick Carr & Coy Jameson fired a 148 (76-72) and repeated as 5th Flight champions with a one shot victory of Zac Schilling & Hadley Bunch who shot 149 (75-74).

The 6th Flight was also won by one stroke with the team of Robert De La Cruz & Rodney Strafuss shooting a 153 (77-76) and defeating Joseph Hernandez & Kevin Prisk who shot a 154 (77-77).

The 7th Flight had the largest margin of victory as Danny Hobbs & Pat Hoover 157 (81076) won by nine shots over the second place team of Kevin Foster & Karen Boren 166 (81-85).

Cash prizes were awarded to the top four teams in each flight. The payout was: $750 for 1st place, $500 for 2nd place, $250 for 3rd place, and $125 for 4th place.

Complete tournament results can be found on page 9. Next year's tournament is scheduled for July 25th and 26th. See you there.

4-H News

On July 15th and 16th, 4-H members from Bailey, Lamb, and Parmer Counties participated in the 4-H Path to the Plate program. They learned more about where their food, and various by-products, come from and how much work it takes to make that happen.

On Monday, they toured Hi-Pro Feeds in Friona.

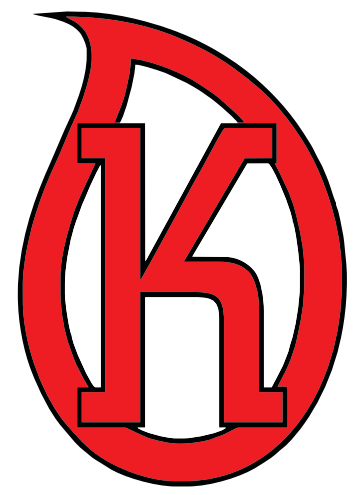

On Tuesday, they went to Lubbock and toured the Coursey Family Dairy Goat Farm and went to the South Plains Food Bank Farm (aka Farm & Grub).
