

News of Our CHURCHES

Sixth Street Church of Christ

A series of revival services will begin at the Sixth Street Church of Christ, on Friday evening, September 20.

Evangelist Roy E. Leaner will do the preaching and be in charge of the services. Evangelist Leaner has been here before, thus needs no introduction to our people. He is an eloquent speaker and a profound bible student and his services will be both interesting and instructive.

The evangelist will be accompanied by Mr. Boast who will serve as song leader and musical director. The public is most cordially invited to attend each of these series of meetings.

The Sixth Street Church of Christ Ladies Bible Class met with Mrs. Clyde Denton. There were eleven present.

We worked some on pillow cases and tea towels for Orphan's Home. We had an interesting lesson in Galtians.

The class will meet with Mrs. J. F. Miller on the 19th of September and we will work on things for Orphan's Home pillow cases and tea towels. Everyone comes who can. You are always welcome.

PENTECOSTAL CHURCH

Life Dramatization of Old Hymn, "Rock of Ages," will be presented Sunday night at 8:00 p. m. at the Pentecostal Open Air Tabernacle, by Rev. Ruth Facemire and Rev. Gladys Dick. Meetings are being held each night except Mondays. If you do not come we will be sorry.

—Rev. E. E. Houlette Pastor.

 The Woman's Missionary Union will meet Tuesday afternoon in a birthday social at three o'clock at the Educational Building. This will include all having birthdays from March 31 through September. Every lady of the church is invited as a guest.

At this time there will be a recognition of our new officers for the coming year, which begins October 1. Our Benevolence chairman will pack a box for Buckner Orphans home. Anything for nursery especially baby blankets will be appreciated. Good used clothing, towels, sheets, pillow cases, or tea towels will be welcomed.

Thanking all the ladies who have cooperated with me during the past year, Mrs. C. A. Turner, president.

Congregational Church
 There were no worship services held last Sunday owing to the fact that our pastor, Rev. Walter H. North, who with Mrs. North, were unable to get here.

However, it is expected that the Norths will be here this week and Mr. North will be in the pulpit and ready to begin his regular work as pastor. Rev. and Mrs. North are well known and loved here, and a full attendance is hoped for, Sunday, to welcome them back to our church and community.

Methodist Church:
 The W. S. C. S. met Tuesday, September 10th, with thirteen members present.

Mrs. Jake Lamb was leader of the program, entitled "Methodists in the Country," and Mrs. Newt Gore gave a talk on "The Story of a Plateau." Mrs. Howard Ford gave the devotional.

The next meeting will be a monthly meeting on Tuesday, September 17th, and we urge every lady of the church, and any visitors, to attend this meeting. We believe you will thoroughly enjoy it.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL
 Monroe White, who was taken to a hospital at Dimmitt about ten days ago, was able to return home the early part of the week, and is again out and about his work.

Mr. White was afflicted with a bowel disorder, from which he was unable to secure any relief, and owing to the fact that the local physician had been called away, he was taken to Dimmitt, where ex-ray revealed the fact that his trouble consisted of a kink in the smaller intestine, and which trouble was removed by treatment, and he was soon able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Newell of Hereford were visiting in the O. J. Beene home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor and small daughter, Judy, made a business trip to Raton, New Mexico, Tuesday.

Pep Squad Formed At High School

The Pep Squad was organized on Tuesday with about forty members. They chose as their sponsors, Mrs. P. F. Williams and Miss Ila Lewis.

The Pep Leaders were selected as follows:
 Eighth Grade—Mary Lou Miller.
 Freshmen—Cherry Ann Smith.
 Sophomores—Gladys Laceful.
 Juniors—Betty Jo Lawson.
 Seniors—Norma Jean Schults.

The costumes decided upon were: red gored skirts, white slappy Joe sweaters, white oxfords and white Bobby socks. The leaders will be dressed in white.

FRIONA WEATHER
 The weather here for the past two weeks has been about the same, or maybe a little more so, except that it has been comfortably cool most of the time, with no added moisture except two very light showers at Friona and the immediate surrounding territory.

However these have been good rains at Bovina and many other parts of the county and some as close to Friona as Hub to the south and about the same distance to the north. But Friona is still dry.

E. R. Sparkman, who has lived for the past several years out near the Castro County line, southeast of Friona, loaded his household and farming equipment on a car for shipment to Twin Falls, Idaho, and he and his family departed for that locality, Thursday. On reaching his destination, Mr. Sparkman will engage in farming near Twin Falls. Before leaving Friona he came to the Star office and made arrangements for the Star to visit him regularly for another year.

Noveltiers First Of Series Shows To Come Here

"The Noveltiers" is the title of the first of a series of entertainments that will be given during the present term of school at Friona.

These entertainments will be sponsored jointly by the Friona Lions Club and the Friona schools, and the proceeds derived therefrom will be devoted to some worthwhile community project, and it all depends upon the amount of patronage given them by the public, as to how much these proceeds will be.

This first number comes to Friona highly recommended both as to interest and merit. The admission fee will be 50c for adults and 25c for children. The entertainment will be presented in the Grade School Auditorium, on Monday night, September 16, beginning at eight o'clock. Your attendance will be appreciated, and from recommendations received, you will be well repaid for your time and money.

WHEAT PLANTING PROGRESSING NICELY
 From all appearances and what may be determined by reports coming in from the country, the planting of next year's wheat crop in this locality is steadily progressing, as farmers are busy in all directions from town, with one-way plows and grain drills.

Practically every farm shows the effect of recent tilling, some of which has been done with the plow or tandem disc, while grain drills are seen traversing the length and breadth of still other fields.

J. A. Blackwell, and son Robert, of Corpus Christi, arrived here Monday evening and are spending the week here on business and pleasure with their Friona friends.

Mr. Blackwell formerly owned and operated the Blackwell's Hardware and Furniture store here, which is now the Plains Hardware & Furniture, and from his long business and social relations with the people of the Friona territory, he has a host of friends, all of whom are pleased to have him with them again, and Jerry says the pleasure is mutual.

Since locating at Corpus Christi Mr. Blackwell has been engaged in the real estate business in which he has been doing quite a lucrative business. He still owns his farm north of Friona and is partly engaged, while here, in looking after his farming interests.

RETURNED FROM EASTERN VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sherrieb returned Monday afternoon from their vacation trip to their former home.

During their trip they visited in three states—Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania—and in twenty-eight different homes. Besides they attended Mrs. Sherrieb's family reunion, which consisted of eighty persons, all kin folks.

FRIONA BOY HONORED

Word has been received here to the effect that John L. Weis, of the Air Service of the Army, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. H.H. Weis, has been selected as Chairman of the Caterpillar Club, at Corpus Christi.

The Caterpillar Club is a Service men's organization and its membership is confined to those members of the Air Force, who have been obliged to "ball out" of their planes while in flight, and it is a distinctive honor to be chosen as Chairman of one of the clubs of the organization.

CHARLES WEIS SERIOUSLY ILL

Word was received here late last week, of the serious illness of Charles Weis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Weis, who is now in the Armed Service and stationed at El Paso. His father was called to his bedside, and returned home Monday evening with the report that Charles was somewhat improved. His brother, John L. Weis, who is also in the Service and stationed at Corpus Christi, flew to El Paso, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Lange and daughters, the Misses Carolyn and Doris Ann, drove to Lubbock, Tuesday, where the two young ladies will matriculate for the ensuing year's work as students in the Texas Tech College. This is the third year for Miss Carolyn.

Berliners Really 'Wearing It Out'

There's no shortage of work for tailors in postwar Berlin, but they've got to be mighty handy at patching and remodeling, as this picture indicates. Notice the worn garments waiting for this tailor's needle—and absence of new cloth.

Sixteen Texas Boys Win Opportunity for Education

Sixteen honor graduates of Texas high schools, representing every section of the State, will enter Texas A. & M. College in September as the first winners in a new major scholarships program. The scholarships, known as "Opportunity Awards," are designed to offer outstanding Texas boys who would otherwise be unable to attend college an opportunity to secure an education.

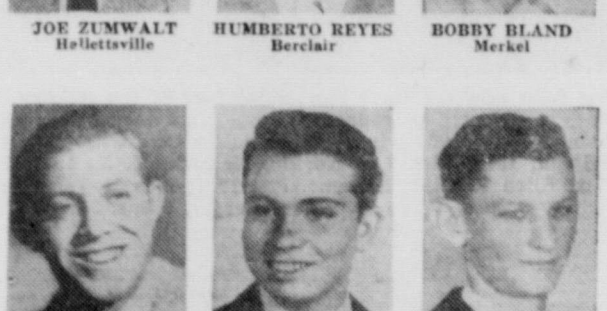

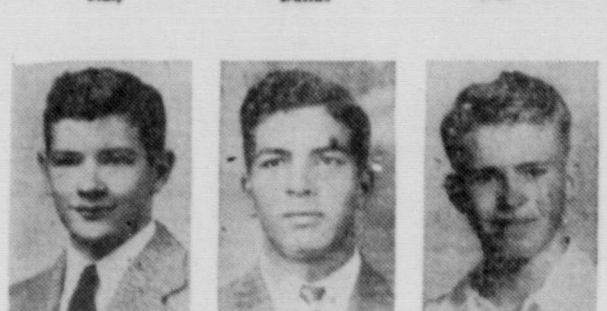

The program is sponsored by the Texas A. & M. College Development Fund, a joint organization established by the College, its former students and its friends. Ten of the awards were underwritten by the Association of Former Students through gifts of A. & M. men, one by A. F. Mitchell of Corsicana, chairman of the Development Fund, and five, for boys majoring in Agriculture, were financed through a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Jones.

Winners in a statewide competition each year receive scholarships which pay $200 to $300 per year throughout their college careers, plus an opportunity to earn additional money at student jobs.

Selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership and character, the first year's winners of Opportunity Awards were: Franklin Cleland of Genoa, John Hunt of Fort Worth, Carl King, Jr., of Dallas, Jimmy Morrow of Graford, Harry Mueller of Brenham, Lannon Stafford of San Antonio, Joe Mullins of Carrizo Springs, Vernon Porter of Italy, Royce McClure of Dallas, John Taylor of Rotan and Joe Zumwalt of Hallettsville.

The Jones Scholarship winners were Humberto Reyes of Berclair, Bobby Bland of Merkel, Robert Williams of Waco, Henry Simpson of Dallas and James Robertson of Plainview.

Highest scholastic average in the group was a four-year grade average of 97.64, lowest was 93.57. All had held responsible class or school offices and had excelled in some extra-curricular activity. All had excellent records of earnings through after-school and summer work.

survivors are included in the immediate potential beneficiaries, Mr. Sanderson said, and should apply to the field office of the Social Security Administration. The same applies, Mr. Sanderson added, to survivors who have filed claim for lump-sum benefits under the old-age and survivors insurance program on a qualified veteran's account. The new amendment may make them eligible for monthly benefit payment, or it may increase the amount of the lump-sum benefit. In the latter case, they will receive the difference between the lump sum they received and the larger amount they are eligible for under the amendment, if they apply at the office of the Social Security Administration. "As in the case of all persons qualified for social security benefits, families of deceased veterans to whom this new section of the law has immediate application should come or write to our office to file their benefit claims as soon as possible," Mr. Sanderson said.

New Benefits for Families of Post War Dead Offered

Many survivors of World War II veterans who have died since leaving the service will benefit from one of the provisions of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1946, John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Administration field office said today. Dr. Conrad Freed, head of the Speech Department, and Mrs. Freed will take over the administration of Stafford Hall for men.

Are You Tired? So Are We... Now!

Peace, Sweet Peace—

Are you tired and worn out? Do you feel drowsy and non-compassionate? Is getting up nights getting you down? Etc.

If so, then take heed of this article, one of many which reaches The Democrat often each week, but one this time which tells us how not to get tired.

The article, written by Charles Davis of Cape Cod, Mass., tells us that our emotions can be divided into two classes; those that disturb us (a), and those that satisfy us (b).

Now those which disturb us (a) are anger, sadness, fear, anxiety, ambition, envy, malice, jealousy, vanity, avarice, hate, worry, annoyance, sorrow, seclusiveness, faint-heartedness, pedantry, servility, moodiness, hard luck, and boastfulness, and all of these things are based on unworthwhile, unsocial goals, and cause us to get tired.

But those which satisfy us (b) are cheerfulness, joy, laughter, smiling, sympathy, understanding, modesty, love, affection, and being a fellow-man, any of which are based on worthwhile, social goals, and thus cannot cause one to get tired, for they are pleasing and peaceful.

Now all we have to do, says Mr. Davis, is to reduce the times and lengths of (a) to longer and longer intervals and thus reduce the number of times we are tired, and here's how: First we must understand the above (editor's note—which we don't already), we must be fully convinced of its truth (editor's note—which we aren't) or we won't understand, we must want to attain the goal set forth above (editor's note—not sure that we do), and we must train, train (editor's note—now he calls for more work).

But Mr. Davis says that he has trained himself to the point where he seldom ever is disturbed by (a), thinks only of (b), with the result that no matter how long nor how hard he works, he is never tired.

The more we think about what Mr. Davis says, the more we wonder—about Mr. Davis, that is.

Veterans Can Pay GI Insurance With Terminal Bonds

Former enlisted personnel in the armed forces who are now drawing terminal leave pay authorized by Congress can apply toward premiums on National Service Life Insurance policies. The terminal leave pay act provided that the bonds issued as terminal leave payment, which are not negotiable and can not be cashed for five years, may be applied immediately to the payment of NSLI premiums, VA reported.

VA emphasized again that all persons who served in the armed forces between October 8, 1940 and September 2, 1945, are entitled to apply for new NSLI. The total amount which may be carried by any applicant may not exceed $10,000. The application may be filed at any time and will be granted upon proof that the applicant meets the required health standards. This is a definite change from the previous provision which limited all veterans to the amount of insurance they had while in service.

Information concerning all problems about National Service Life Insurance can be obtained from the nearest VA office or by letter from the Insurance Service, Veterans Administration, Branch Office No. 10, 1114 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas. The latter address is for all veterans living in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

Worley Says Congressmen Not Optimistic Of Marshall's Chances to Solve Chinese Puzzle

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series of reports by Congressman Eugene Worley on an inspection trip by a group of Congressmen and Senators to the Far East. China has the worst inflation of any nation in history. Their government is anything but stable which accounts largely for the lack of confidence in the Chinese dollar. The exchange rate is about twenty five hundred dollars to one; that is, one American dollar is equal in value to about twenty five hundred Chinese National Currency dollars. To give you an idea of the prices, a local telephone call in Shanghai was two hundred and fifty Chinese dollars. An average meal at a restaurant or hotel ran nearly four thousand dollars. A garden variety lettuce salad cost over a thousand dollars. A cup of coffee, when you could get it, ran one thousand dollars.

Incidentally, all American people were cautioned not to eat any raw vegetables. It wasn't safe to eat them until they'd been cooked or boiled. Too, we were warned against drinking water or even washing our teeth with it unless it had been boiled.

Used Car Buyers Warned to Get Ownership Proof

AUSTIN, Sept. 5—Buyers of used cars were warned Thursday to secure from the seller acceptable proof of ownership as the State Highway Department moved toward wiping out traffic in stolen and mortgaged motor vehicles in Texas.

"All County Tax Collectors have now received instructions to hold the line in requiring proof of ownership on all applications for vehicle titles," E. J. Amey, Director of Motor Vehicle Registration announced. Applications for Texas titles are made through local Tax Collectors under the present law.

"Properly assigned certificate of title from any of the thirty States having a title law similar to Texas is the best evidence of ownership. The purchaser should insist upon receiving a release of any lien recorded on a Texas title or a title issued by any other state," Amey stated.

Outlining minimum acceptable ownership proof of vehicles brought into Texas from any of the seventeen non-title States, which includes Louisiana, Amey announced, "We will accept a 1945 license receipt from Louisiana or other non-title State and the current receipt if both are in the name of the person applying for the Texas title."

"Bills of Sale showing all changes in ownership must supplement such 1945 license receipt, if applicant for a Texas title is not the same person in whose name the receipt is issued," he added.

Strict enforcement of the Texas title law was endorsed at a recent meeting of car dealers, enforcement officers, tax collectors and representatives of finance and insurance companies. The meeting had been called to determine if present requirements for title were meeting with the approval of all concerned.

"Numerous stolen and mortgaged cars bearing license plates from non-title States have been sold in Texas," Amey stated. "Purchasers of such vehicles are unable to obtain valid titles in Texas and the vehicles are subject to seizure by their lawful owners."

The National Automobile Theft Bureau has estimated that the current requirements of the Highway Department have reduced sales of stolen cars in Texas by half.

rule would forever do away with courts and lawyers.

Thus it is easy to see, that if doctors and lawyers are not paid sufficient fees for their services, it is their own failure, while the teachers and preachers must be content with what the public sees fit to pay them. True, there are exceptions to all rules and it is also true, that there are people in each of these professions, whose services would be costly to the public even though they received no monetary compensation at all.

It occurs to me, however, that the ministry is the most imposed upon of all the professions, and that ministers as a rule, are the most patient, the most forgiving and the most tolerant of all men. They will allow their time to be taken from them whenever the choir may wish to "strut its stuff" for the special glorification of its members, who demand a portion of the minister's time for an extra anthem or solo or duet. Or the officials of the various church organizations demand the attention of the congregation and the time of the minister while they make their announcements. True these things are nice and necessary, but should such things intrude upon the time of the minister, and thus force him to shorten his sermon, or to extend the time of the service at the expense of the congregation, the individuals of which are always ready to lay all the blame at the minister's door?

It is also true that the minister is to blame wholly for wearing his audience out with the length of his sermon, when, as a matter of course, they will listen for a reasonable length of time quite respectfully, but after that time they begin to think of the fried chicken and gravy that are awaiting them at home, and regardless of the importance of his subject, the minister is simply wasting his time and energy in going on and on and on for his auditors simply do not hear him.

But the average congregation expects too much of their preacher, and in order to please them he must be three or four or maybe more—men all in one. He must be a "Hall fellow, well met," and a good mixer while out among the general rabble of men on the street or elsewhere, and when in the pulpit he must be as wise as a sage, meek as a lamb, as fearless as a prophet. SUNDAY LESSON
Vast Covetousness Plays Detrimental Part in Life Today

The International Sunday School Lesson for Sept. 15
Scripture: Exodus 20:17; Proverbs 11:23-24; Luke 12:13-21

WHAT is covetousness? Probably we might define it as the inordinate desire for possessions, or the desire or purpose to possess for one's self what rightfully belongs to another. Covetousness on a vast scale has played a large part in the social and economic life of the world—far more to the injury of man than we realize.

The Ten Commandments must be read and studied, first of all, in relation to the people and the time to whom and in which they were given. Here was a people in a compact community, fresh from the bondage of Egypt, racially and religiously unified, with a leader seeking to bring them into an organized life of security, freedom, and happiness. What laws and regulations must be observed if that was to be achieved?

Look into the Commandments and see how carefully and excellently they were designed, upon the foundation of faith in one spiritual God, to establish sound ideals and mutually safe and fair restraints and principles in the life of the community.

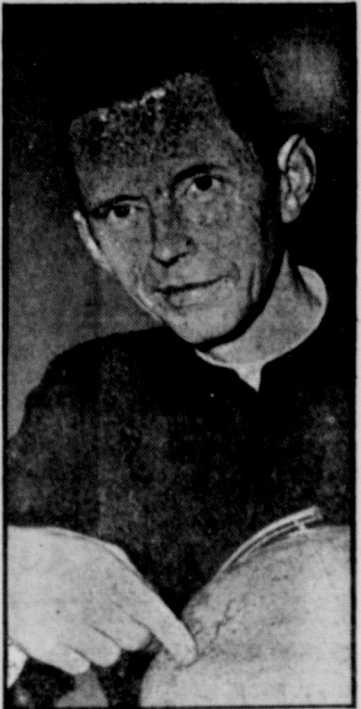

Note, then, two things: How Israel fell into decay and ruin through the failure to keep those Commandments; and how the weaknesses, evils, and failures in our modern and complex societies are due largely to the failure to establish and practice the principles of these Commandments.

The parable of the successful farmer is one to which men might well give more heed. He was typical of the materially successful man, so apt to be forgetful of his obligations to both God and his fellow men.

Note that he wasn't particularly a "sinner." His fault was that both economically and spiritually he was a fool. He had left out of account the most important factor of all—his own life.

How much better a life there might be for us all if we studied more ardently to be "rich toward God," if we discovered the wealth of living that God intends for each of us!

BREAKING TRAIL.....

WE'VE BEEN AT IT FOR 22 YEARS

Twenty-two years ago your Public Service Company started breaking trail—trails of progress.

A pioneer in building ahead for the future, the Southwestern Public Service Company has anticipated future demands for electric service by spreading its network of lines and building new power plants.

Today, in a 12 million dollar expansion program, new power lines are going up throughout our area; there'll be more reliable, low cost electricity for homes, farms, and factories.

Now you too, can plan on building ahead for the future—a future of better living, better farming, better working conditions—electrically.

LUBBOCK, Sept. 10—Advanced courses offering instruction built on experiences of World War II will be given by the corps of engineers, signal corps and aviation branch of the War Department at Texas Technological College this fall. Tech officials announce.

Lt. Col. Robert P. Rierdan of Atus, Okla., veteran of four years overseas flying, has arrived on the campus to head the aviation work. He will have an assistant to be assigned soon.

Lt. Col. Ludlow C. Adams will head the ROTC unit and will be professor of military science and tactics. He is a veteran of the engineers corps. Maj. John M. Goodman will be in charge of signal work and serve as assistant professor of military science and tactics.

Students in advanced courses will receive about 66 cents a day in rations commutations and students in elementary ROTC work are to be provided uniforms.

Colonel Arams said he had been authorized to accept for enrollment students in all di-

Plans are being made for expansion of the ROTC building on the campus to care for the enlarged program.
