This year the club won over $13,600 in prize money for their work in raising lambs and calves. They showed fewer lambs than they have in previous years and the club had a large turnout and third place

April 1 Deadline For License Plates

With midnight April 1 being the deadline for purchasing of 1958 license plates without penalty, sales were said to be coming along well at the office of H. E. "Gene" Eckols, tax assessor-collector.

However, due to the fact that a large number of vehicles had not been registered as early as usual, there was still an estimated 900 passenger cars wearing their 1957 plates in Upton County. Those who have not yet registered their automobiles are asked to do so as soon as possible.

In order to better serve the public on the registrations, Eckols has announced that his office will be open all day Saturday, March 29. Owners should have their last year's license receipts and title to their vehicle when they go to register their vehicles.

A LEGAL QUESTION

When Judge Pat Patterson opened preliminary hearings in the 83rd District Court last Monday, it looked like the Bar Association was in session. Twenty-nine attorneys were on hand to discuss the legal points involved in one case currently on the 83rd docket.

Involving some accrued oil royalty, the suit is expected to take several weeks of hearings and trial study before a settlement is reached.

TIME'S HERE

The time is here.

This coming Tuesday, April 1st, will see the first elections of the current year when the voters of Rankin will go to the polls to choose a city commissioner and a mayor for the next two years. Every eligible voter in town ought to be at the city hall and exercising his or her right to have their say about how their city will be run for these next two years.

There are four candidates—two for each of the seats in question—and plenty of room for write-ins if none of those whose names appear on the ballot are satisfactory. This is the time that the citizen can speak and be heard.

Yet, we'd almost be willing to bet that—regardless of how the voting goes Tuesday—there will be those around town on Wednesday who will say that things are in a pretty sad mess when so-and-so is elected to such-and-such; while the said griper did not even bother to cast a ballot.

Following the city election will be the school board election a week from Saturday on April 5th. Following that will be the Democratic Primary on July 26th, the run-off on August 23rd and the general elections on November the 4th. Five times between now and the first of the year, Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public will be given the opportunity to decide for themselves just what they want done about their governing bodies.

If you let next Tuesday's election go by without voting, you sure can't make it a 100 percent for the year. It is said that poor candidates are elected by the people who don't bother to vote.

If that be true, then the thing to do is for everybody to get out and vote then we can all rest assured that the right people get elected.

RUFF—

Despite all the prophets of doom that sit on the seat of their pants and forecast that we now stand on the brink of disaster and that—added to this—a depression is upon us, we note a number of instances that would lead one to wonder if the aforesaid prophets are not just someone looking for trouble.

One hears that the oil business is shot. Those who bother to look up the figures instead of counting their pocket change will find that the Rienhart Oil Report shows that applications were filed last week to drill 151 new wells in the Basin compared with a total of 91 applications the previous week—22 of these being wildcats. Upton County, now in sixth place in drilling activity with 26 active rigs—8 of which are wildcats—drew two new field tests.

This is on the local side. As for the national business, it can be seen almost every day where profits in 1957 reached an all-time high for many firms—large and small—while wages were higher than ever. Building activity in a number of areas—the Permian Basin in particular—are ahead of what they were a year ago. And, lo, we have even found three Rankin business men who will admit that their businesses are ahead of what they were

We are not one to say that in every case things are normal—they are not. But, just as there are certain instances in which an unbalanced situation exists, so are there others in which things are either good or above average. We think the government needs to take steps to bolster the nation's business—true. But not by more handouts—not by more regulations.

The good Senate and the "Brains" in Washington talk of tax cuts which would lower the amount of money available to government squandering and at the same time, they speak of more government spending. Somehow that doesn't sound logical for even a buck-private newspaper man can figure out that you can't have a dollar in the pocket, give it to the wife for groceries and then go down and buy a dollar's worth of golf balls on the credit and break even. It just won't work.

But you can give the wife the dollar for groceries and do without the golf balls and have the satisfaction of knowing that you put first things first.

If the government would cut out some of this dipping into the pocket books of the people and at the same time get out of the charity business both at home and abroad while cutting back on some expenses such as $5000 airplane trips every other week-end for presidents, it might be found that everybody would be better off.

WELL DONE, PLEASE

All those who attended the 4-H Club Achievement Bar-B-Que last Monday night and enjoyed those plates of good eating probably do not know how close they came to greasing their paw and licking it.

It seems that Preston Patton and Walton Herral — two Rankinites with many hours of bar-b-queing work to their credit—got themselves a new experience Monday about noon when their bar-b-que pit—loaded with six sheep and almost Happy Birthday Mary!

Who gave her the party?

Her parents, of course. And they had the help of hundreds of other people — men and women that Mary's parents don't even know.

These people helped Mother bake the cake and cook the party food. They helped freeze the ice cream, sew Mary's dress, and wash and iron it. They helped heat, light and clean the house for the party.

These busy people are the men and women who supply electric service for Mary's house. It's hard to imagine life without the electricity they provide — for everyone depends on electricity for dozens of jobs all over the house.

If you stop to count all the ways you put electricity to work, you'll be surprised. Can you think of anything else that gives so much value, day in and day out, for so little cost?

Beta Sigma Phi Meets In Merriman Home

Mrs. Cecil Merriman was hostess to the Omicron Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi on March 4 at 7:30 in the evening. Mrs. O. R. Adams, club president, conducted the business meeting. The club voted to donate the proceeds of a recent bake sale to the local Girl Scouts.

Mrs. W. E. Rankin, who with Mrs. Al Owens was in charge of the program, introduced the guest speaker, Miss Barbara Theil. Miss Theil, who is a German exchange student attending Odessa College, gave a very entertaining and educational discussion comparing American and European schools. The speaker considered the European schools more thorough in subject matter, but not nearly so entertaining as our American schools. The group was delighted with the speaker and considered her a beautiful and talented ambassador for Germany.

Following the program, the hostess served cokes and coffee to the members and guest present.

NEW PLEDGES RECEIVE RITUAL OF JEWELS

On Monday evening, March 10, Mrs. O. R. Adams presented the Ritual of Jewels to the new pledges of Beta Sigma Phi. The ceremony was performed in the home of Mrs. Walton Poage, one of the club sponsors.

Following the ceremony, cakes, coffee and tea were served to the members present, and Mrs. Mike Hughes, Mrs. Joe Scrivner, Mrs. Jim Sawyer, Mrs. Bert Browning, and Mrs. Sam Fitzhugh, new pledges.

Mrs. Pete Pollard left last Friday for her home in Aztec, New Mexico following a lengthy visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rankin while awaiting the removal of her household goods to Aztec.

CHILDREN AND MILK

In a recent survey made in Home Demonstration Clubs of the state it was found that only 25 percent of the children in these nearly 1200 homes drank as much as four glasses of milk a day. Our Texas Food Standard lists one quart of milk a day as the amount needed for a safe diet. Five percent of the children drank no milk, 15 percent drank one glass, 22 percent, two glasses and 29 percent three glasses.

Milk and milk products are the only sources of calcium in large quantities. In fact it is most difficult to get the daily calcium requirement without milk.

The same study shows that 28 percent of the women and 23 percent of the men drank no milk and that only 39 percent of the women and 56 percent of the men drink as much as the needed two cups per day.

How about reaching for a glass of milk?

DAIRY DEMONSTRATIONS

Mary Whitley of the Big Lake 4-H Club is working on an individual dairy demonstration to be entered in the district contest to be held in Odessa in April. Mary is making an Orange Frost using milk and frozen orange juice. This makes a most nutritious drink as well as one that is just plain good. So if you prefer something other than plain milk to get that needed pint a day or the quart needed by the children, you might try Mary's combination of milk, orange juice and sugar. Mary used evaporated milk with water since it is less likely to curdle with the orange juice.

Incidentally, the fruit acid with the milk tends to make it more di-gestable rather than less so as some people seem to think.

LAMPS AND LAMP SHADES

In the Big Lake Home Demonstration Club meetings in Big Lake on Friday, April 4, and in Texon on Wednesday, April 16, plans will be made for a workshop on making lamps and lamp shades. Each person who has something they want to make into a lamp or a lampshade they wish to make or re-make, is asked to bring it along and plans will be made as to the materials needed, how the work will be done, etc. Anyone interested is welcome to attend these meetings and bring their lamp problems along.

Similar workshops will be planned in other communities with club or non-club groups if any are interested.

A series of slides, World of Ideas will also be presented at these meetings. These show beautiful colored
