ent our people to war—almost willingly—to defend against transgressors we can see. Once the fight is over, we return to our "Pursuit of Happiness", believing that "Life and Liberty" are safe.

Yet, here for all to see are the signs that while most of us are pursuing happiness in the best American tradition, there is at work, forces which gradually chop away our freedoms. Some is intentional and this the American has always been able to detect and strike out against. Some is done by well-meaning people or groups in the name of improving the lot of the common man—this we often fail to detect until it is too late and the damage is done.

How long we will continue to go to war and defend our nation only to turn our backs

the battle is won will likely de-

MANAGEMENT TO TEST PARENTS—

Friday Night Ball Game To Benefit Local Little League

With a theme of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game", a rough and tough Rankin Little League management baseball team will meet a fighting, long-hitting Parents team
in a Little League Benefit Baseball Game Friday night, June 3.

Scene of this ferocious battle will be at the Big League Ball Park just North of the Little League Ball Park and the "fight" will get under way at 7:30. Both sides in the tussel are said to be planning plenty of secret strategy and all have weapons laid aside for the contests that have never been used including such things as as slow, fast-ball pitcher and a short, long-knocking hitter.
Base running is expected to be very speedy and the playing field will be watered down so the dust won't kick up too much. Spectators are warned to keep clear of the field at all times since—once these players get in motion—they move

NEW POLL TAX RECEIPT WILL BE USED THIS YEAR

A new poll tax receipt will be issued voters in Upton County this year according to Tax Assessor H.
E. "Gene" Eckols. The new receipt, which came about through legislation originating in the regular session of the state Legislature, will be almost the same as the old with the exception that a space will be provided for designating the voter's party affiliation such as Democrat, Republican, Independent, etc.

This designation is to be stamped on the poll tax receipt by the election official at the place of voting.

It will apply to all types of poll tax including the regular $1.75 receipt, the exemption receipt for persons reaching their 21st birthday and the exemption receipt for those over age.

"The new law will make it necessary for the voter to have his poll tax receipt with him at the time of voting," Eckols pointed out,
"and voters are reminded that they should be sure they can locate their receipt whenever needed."

Regular poll taxes go on sale at the courthouse on October 1.

about with such momentum that it is often hard for them to stop until they hit a fence or something.

No regulation time has been set for the game since it is realized that with so much talent on the field, (they're all bound to be good at the game for they keep telling the kids how to play) it would likely be hard to settle the question in any set length of time. In fact, some have speculated that the game
may last three innings.

Naturally the stars who will appear in this game would usually receive a goodly handful of dough for making a playing appearance
but since this is a benefit game, they will all be charged a dollar
which will go to the Little League.
Spectators can look on free if they can stand the pressure such as a game of this caliber generates.

Remember the time and the date and go out and enjoy the fun.

LITTLE LEAGUE—

Standings this week in the Rankin Little League find the Cardinals still out in front but by only two games. Pushing hard in second place are the Dodgers.

Making up the second division are the Yankees in third and the Giants in fourth.

The annual all-star team for the Little League and the date for the games will be announced in the near future with Little League officials stating that there are a large number of youngsters who have a good chance of making the Rankin
All-Stars. Competition for a spot on the team is expected to continue to grow as the date draws closer.

FAMOUS LAST SITTERS—

It wasn't the Roman people who fed the Christians to the lions and gladiators. It was Nero and his insane henchmen.

The people sat and watched.

The French people did not promulgate the bloody massacre of their noble brains. It was power seeking Napoleon and his thugs.

The people sat and watched.

The Russian peasants didn't destroy democratic Russia. It was the bloody hands of communists and their satanic inspired revolutionists.

The people sat and watched.

The poor German was not responsible for their crematoriums and concentration camps. It was Hitler and his "brave" Nazis.

The people sat and watched.

The laborer did not ask for help from goons and racketeers. Labor leaders installed them to gain national power.

It isn't the Christian people who are demanding the approval via recognition of the bloody hands of communist China. It is the self-appointed heads of protestantism.

The Christians sit and watch.

It isn't the American who is ripping the heart out of the constitution. It is nine experienceless misguided supreme court judges.

The Americans sit and watch.

It isn't the U. S. Citizen who is tearing the country apart with hopeless civil rights legislation. It is ambitious, power hungry, vote seeking politicians.

The people sit and watch.

In retrospective, these sleeping giants are eventually drowned in the blood of their own people. But it is more concessive to sit and watch.

A SMART MOVE—

Along with the hot weather, one can often find people doing some things that would—on first sight—seem a little queer. Last week, for instance, Cecil Merriman was observed out in front of his service station with rod and reel doing a first-class job of casting a plug.

Now Cecil didn't catch any fish in the driveway and that gives him about a $50 advantage over the average fisherman who drives a couple of hundred miles, casts a plug for a day or so and doesn't catch anything—but does spend at least $50 making the trip.

Of course Cecil will admit that fishing in the drive way instead of a nice lake is sorta like washing your feet with your sox on—it just doesn't feel just right.

CHEERS—

Last week the News carried the story of the Rankin Boy Scouts of Troop 56 winning about everything up for contest at the scouting outing at Sal Mayer. That's mighty fine and the boys are due congratulations.

But, along with the boys, there must be bouquets for their leaders. Men like Bill Cook, Ward Thornton and a lot of others, put in a great deal of time on the Rankin scouting program and must be given a share of the credit for whatever amount of success results from the scouting activities.

No organization—whether it be a church, school, scout troop, baseball team, or what have you, will ever

MEETING NIGHT—

Members of the Rankin Golfers Club are reminded that Thursday, July 2 is their regular meeting night and all are urged to attend.

Several topics of discussion will be held and those who are not present can expect to get all the jobs that are usually passed out at such times.

SUMMER SLUMP—

The summer slump has hit the golf business along with everything else in Rankin with several being out on vacation. Noble and Irma Harkrider were in New Mexico for the past two weeks and were scheduled to play a bit in Ruidosa and Cloudcroft. Jim Wells has recovered sufficiently from his bout with arthritis to play a round or so a week. Greens fees have held up better-than-average and the course is in the process of making a comeback from the early June washout.

Next tournament for the men that is presently under consideration is the Ozona affair in mid-August. Texon will have their rain-game in the early part of August. Already it looks like there will be a good turnout for Del Rio on Labor Day with a larger-than-usual number making plans to attend from Rankin.

Among them will be the defending champion of the Rankin crew, Joe Simpson. Making his first try at the water hole will be lefthander Tieman and getting back to business after missing last year will be Henry Scarborough.

Simpson and his family are planning to leave shortly on a trip that will take them all the way to Washington, D. C. and Joe says he's going to take his clubs. Never can tell when Ike will need an extra for a foresome, you know.

If Everyone

(A Thought for July 4)

By Seymour Taylor

If every one who drives a car
Could lie a month in bed,
With broken bones and stitched-up wounds,

Or fractures of the head,
And there endure the agonies
That many people do,
They'd never need preach safety
Any more to me or you.

If every one could stand beside
The bed of some close friend
And hear the Doctor say "No Hope"
Before that fatal end,
And see him there unconscious
Never knowing what took place,
The laws and rules of traffic
I am sure we'd soon embrace.

If every one could meet
The wife and children left behind
And step into the darkened home
Where once the sunlight shined,
And look upon "the Vacant Chair",
I am sure each reckless driver
Would be forced to think a bit.

If every one who takes the wheel
Would say a little prayer,
And keep in mind those in the car
Depending on his care,
And make a vow and pledge himself
To never take a chance,
The Great Crusade for Safety
Would suddenly advance.

Public Hearing On Livestock Law Set

A public hearing on proposed regulations for administration of the Texas brucellosis eradication law is to be held in Fort Worth on July 20. Dr. D. R. Noyes, Fort Worth executive director of the Texas Livestock Sanitary Commission, announced the hearing.

A copy of the regulations has been posted in the Upton County courthouse in Rankin and is open for public inspection.

Persons who are opposed to all or part of the proposed regulations may appear at the hearing and voice their objections. The law, passed

Thursday, July 2
The Rankin (Tex.)

during the last session of the Legislature, provides for area certification.

After the regulations are approved, cattle owners in the area may petition the Sanitary Commission for an order of a brucellosis-free area.

It is said that the Legislature will approve of the proposed regulations but that there are some objections which they are not sure will be heard.

Pride of ownership radiates from this 4-H Club member as he holds his Shorthorn heifer. He is typical of the 136,000 members currently enrolled in the 4-H beef program.

Under the guidance of Extension workers and local 4-H leaders, young cattle raisers like this lad learn how to feed, fit, show and market their animals.

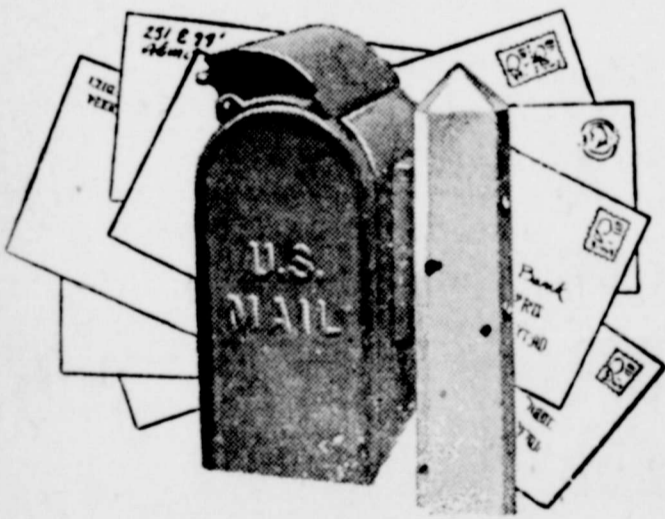

A new opportunity to earn valuable 4-H beef project awards is being offered this year for the first time by E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company through arrangements made with the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

Many boys and girls have earned enough money from sales and awards to pay for their college education. Others have accumulated a sizeable account earmarked for their own use.

Du Pont has provided six national 4-H college scholarships of $400 each; the winner of each scholarship will be named by the U.S. Congress for each county.

Winners will be named at the county level during the next fall by the State 4-H office.

Less What They're Talking About

F. Stiles, Jr., National Director of the Treasury's United Savings Bonds Division, is shown here (at left) discussing the subject with President Eisenhower, who holds a handful of Savings Bonds. The occasion was a recent conference in Washington at which the President addressed more than 300 of the nation's leading industrialists. He told the group of business leaders that the Savings Bond Program, the Treasury's job of managing the national debt "would be much more difficult—I would think impossible." Mr. Eisenhower said the readiness of the people to invest their savings in U. S. bonds "bespeaks confidence and faith in America."

Herman Hamilton In Navy's Portland Visit

PORTLAND, Oreg. (PHTINC)—Herman W. Hamilton, machinist's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hamilton of Rankin, and husband of the former Miss Dixie A. Chenworth of Inglewood, California, serving aboard the oiler USS Taluga, visited Portland, Oregon June 10-17 during that city's 1959 Rose Festival.

Fourteen U. S. Navy First Fleet ships were joined by a U. S. Coast Guard ship and six Royal Canadian Navy frigates. In addition to participating in the festival, the 5,000 sailors saluted the opening of the Oregon Centennial.

Leading the parade of First Fleet ships into Portland was Vice Admiral R. E. Libby, USN, the Commander of the U. S. First Fleet aboard the heavy cruiser USS Helena.

Mr. Tax-payer:

Which of these pipes will your city use?

The use of cheap substitutes, such as foreign-made cement-asbestos pipe, is wasteful and means probable replacement in a very few years. (This pipe was taken from a Texas city's water system. Photo is unretouched.)

Texas-made Lone Star cast iron pressure pipe will last over a hundred years!

Officials of most Texas municipalities know that when they buy and install cast iron pipe they are helping to support the American economy and the high standard of living we all enjoy. They are buying products made in America for use by Americans. They are not fooled by the slightly lower initial cost of foreign goods because they realize that this "paper savings" will be more than offset by the cost of excessive maintenance.

Domestic cast iron pressure pipe is time-honored, centuries-proved, and is backed by strong, resourceful American companies that will be in business for years on end to guarantee their product.

Really, who backs foreign-made pipe? Who answers for it when it fails? To whom will the few ill-advised pipe-buyers look for the answers to these questions when trouble develops? Were they penny wise and pound foolish?

Take a look at some of these important factors back of the initial price tag, then pick up the telephone and call the first city official you think of and tell him you appreciate his good judgment in buying American-made cast iron pipe with your tax dollars. If he has been buying Lone Star pipe, tell him that we, too, appreciate the business!

Cast iron pipe, such as Lone Star's dependable pressure pipe, will last for over a hundred years. It saves millions in tax dollars by eliminating repeated repairs that are inherent in cheap, foreign-made substitutes. Lone Star pipe bears the "quality check" of the Cast Iron Pipe Research Association and the approval of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc.

CAMPING—

Betty Garrett of Rankin and Wanda Sizemore of McCamey represented the girls of the County at the district 4-H leadership lab held in Bracketville last week. Wanda is a member of the district council and Betty served on the night program and ceremonial committee. Both took an active part in all the camp activities.

Two days and nights of rain dampened the grounds but not the spirits of the campers. When we left camp Friday, two roads home were closed but we got through a third one before it was closed from high water. We were grateful for the coolness and the breeze that kept mosquitoes away.

Betty and Wanda will help conduct the tri-county camp to be held in August.

VACATIONS AND VALUABLES—

Vacations are valuable all right but we're talking here about getting valuable papers in order, before going on vacation.

We know that we need a place such as a safety deposit box for wills, deeds, notes, etc. A household inventory is another valuable record. Make duplicate copies and place one in the bank box and the other at home. You'll be glad you did if you ever have a fire or a theft.

Take with you a list giving name of your automobile insurance and hospitalization insurance companies. Include the number of each policy and the names and addresses of the agents.

If you carry travelers' checks, don't forget to make one or more lists of check numbers to be carried separately from the checks. Now valuables are in order — have fun on the vacation.

Sally Lewis
says...

Do-it-yourself certainly isn't new when it comes to having the lady of the house wield a paint brush to spruce up furniture and house interiors. With so many lovely colors and special paints, it's fun to paint.

Of course, preparing the surface is the work of it—unless you can get the man of the house to do the sanding and scraping. Remember, a smooth dry surface is what you need for any good paint job. Might as well wait until the surface is perfectly dry until you attempt it. Otherwise, it's wasted effort.

Complete directions for best results are on paint cans. Read them. Some hints not on the cans:

To insure a longer life for a new paint brush, soak it in linseed oil over night before using it. To keep skin from forming on the top of paint, turn the can upside down after you have put on the lid.

The most economical of all paint removers is household lye—and it's one of the most effective, too.

To make this paint remover, dissolve a can of lye in a quart of water. In another container stir four heaping tablespoons of cornstarch into two quarts of water. Pour the lye solution slowly into the cornstarch stirring constantly. Use rubber gloves to protect your hands.

Apply the paste to the painted surface with an old scrub brush. Keep wet for about 5 minutes. When paint is loosened, flush with water. Be careful not to let the run-off contact lawns, plants or surfaces that might be affected by the lye. Rinse wood surfaces with a solution of one part vinegar to one part water. Allow the surface to dry for 24 hours, then sand and paint.

"Punch the time clock! Answer the phone! Take a letter! . . . Red tape—that's all it is . . . Red tape!"

NEW DIRECTORY

The new Rankin telephone directory will be mailed to telephone customers. Most of you will check to see if it is correct for spelling, address and telephone number, but ever thought how other people find your listing? Maybe your first name and not your initials or you have a nickname more commonly known by. Sometimes you may miss an all because the other person can't find you listed. This is true for out of town calls and for visitors in Rankin. Call the business office and let Mrs. Harding or Mrs. Lovage your listing or even better arrange an additional listing. The cost of an additional listing is small—so small that it's less than 2 cents a day for your home or less than 3 cents for your business.

The directory goes to press on July 24th.

VACATIONS AND TELEPHONES

Think of vacation, about this time of year, you probably are swimming, visiting, or just plain relaxing at some spot.

It's happy to say that more and more people are using the telephone to have more fun on their vacation trips.

It works (and you can do the same if you're one of the people still looking forward to a vacation):

Call ahead to reserve your accommodations, or to let the family know you'll arrive.

Call ahead to make overnight reservations along the highway. You can drive longer and still be sure of a place to stay.

You'll find that this "calling-ahead habit" will help you and your family have an even better vacation.

Give it a try? And remember, call station-to-station—it's usually the third cheaper.

TEN RINGS

Backyard barbecues so popular nowadays, people are spending more time outdoors. So when you call your friends, remember to be quite a run from the backyard to the telephone.

Save a time to make the dash by letting the telephone ring.

They may ask you over, too, for some of those ham-burgers on the grill!

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
