

Homecoming Friday!

Homecoming. Rankin High will have an all-day program on Friday, October 8, highlighted by the football game at 8 p. m. at Red Devil Stadium. For the first time in the school's history, it will be an effort to bring back in the column of two non-conference games, one of which is a game of sickness and injuries. Unless further misfortune befalls the squad between now and game time Friday night, the entire 36-man team is expected to be ready for action. In last week's encounter with the Ozona Lions, the Red Devils turned in a fine performance before going down 13-0. They were out in front of the Lions in all departments of play except the score, a little matter that has marked the Rankin-Ozona tilt for three of the last 4 games.

In the Shorthorns from Marfa, the Red Devils will, for the first time this year, be playing a team that is almost equal in weight. The Shorthorns have an improved ball club this year and have had one of their most successful seasons thus far in years. They are expected to be fired up for this game and spectators will likely witness a fast, wide open contest. Rankin will be in the favorites roll and, provided their offense clicks, are expected to take the game for the homecomers.

A line-up for the Marfa team is carried in an advertisement sponsored by local Red Devil supporters elsewhere in this issue of the News.

HOMECOMING EVENTS

Among the homecoming attractions will be the all-day beating of the war drum by the freshman class beginning at 8:45 at the high school and ending on the football field just before kickoff.

At 3:15 p. m., a downtown parade will be staged by the Red Devil band, high school and junior high student bodies, football team, pep squad and Homecoming Queen candidates along with several floats. The parade route will be down Upton Street to Eighth, east on Eighth to Main to the vacant lot across from the First State Bank where a Pep Rally will be held.

All Red Devil supporters are invited to be on hand and to take (Continued to Back Page)

Johnson Home Hit By Fire Monday

A fire of undetermined origin at about 1:00 p. m. Monday gutted the kitchen and a back porch of the L. Porter Johnson home at 8th and Severn streets and did extensive damage to other parts of the house and furnishings. Mr. Johnson had just left the house and returned to the store when the blaze was discovered.

Both trucks of the Rankin Volunteer Fire Department answered the call and prevented the home from being a total loss.

The Johnsons have indicated that they will rebuild their home and at the same time, may make a few additions.

"We want to thank the members of the fire department and our neighbors who helped in putting out the fire. Your actions undoubtedly prevented an even more serious loss," the Johnsons said this week.

Lions To Continue Street Work Saturday

Lion President Sam Fitzhugh has announced that the Lions Club will continue its project of cleaning up and graveling the strip between the sidewalk and the street along Main Street this Saturday morning beginning at 8:00 a. m.

All members of the local Lions Club and any other interested volunteers are urged to meet at the vacant lot next to McKelvy's Grocery and Lion Fitzhugh added that if a person can't make it at 8 o'clock, his assistance will still be appreciated any time before noon. No fines will be assessed for being late, nor will there be fines for quitting before noon.

The Lions are continuing this project each Saturday morning until both sides of Main street are completed.

Congressman Rutherford To Visit Rankin Tuesday

Congressman J. T. Rutherford's mobile office unit visit to Rankin on Tuesday, October 13, will be highlighted by a luncheon at Highland Cafe at 12:30 p. m.

On a tour of the 19 counties he represents in Washington, Rutherford is due to arrive in Rankin at about 12:15 p. m. He will be escorted directly to the site of the luncheon by Sheriff Gene Eckols.

Following the luncheon, Rutherford will depart for McCombs at about 1:30 p. m.

"My time in West Texas is limited this fall due to the late adjournment of Congress," Rutherford has said, "and the period remaining is filled with commitments throughout my District. To complicate matters further, I must also fulfill my military obligations by taking a brief period of active duty with the U. S. Marines between now and the time Congress reconvenes."

The Congressman said he was "very hopeful" of being back in Rankin sometime after the mobile office unit trip is concluded. The

Break-In Is Reported At Service Station

Further loss from robbers was reported this week in Rankin when it was learned that the Cliff Jones Service Station near the Western Company had been ransacked sometime last week. Reported loss was 7 cases of motor oil, one box of spark plugs, 7 used tires, one radio and a power lawn mower.

In a letter to the News, Cliff Jones owner and former Rankinite now living in Iraan said: "I wouldn't mind to loan any body some oil, or a spark plug, or a tire, or my lawn mower, or let him listen to my radio and give him a cup of coffee, but when a guy comes and cleans you out and busts out your glass door and doesn't leave a note saying he'll pay you back or here is my forwarding address, then I am just like all full blooded Americans—I get mad as hell."

On Monday of last week, the Parrish Dixie Station was also entered but only an attempt to rob the cigarette machine was made. No merchandise was taken.

Law enforcement officials are investigating booth break-ins which were the first here in some time.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. WEST'S MOTHER

Mr. and Mrs. Horace West and daughters attended the funeral services of her mother, Mrs. A. H. Turpin at Rising Star Wednesday afternoon, October 7. Mrs. Turpin had been in serious condition recently and passed away last Monday night.

THE SCOOP by Scoop

J. B. Hutchens, Jr., Editor

JANUARY 1

In East Texas they say that the political pot begins to boil when the Dogwood or something or other begins to bloom. Not knowing what it is that blooms or just when, it would be hard to know the boiling point of the East Texas pot but here in West Texas, Jan. 1 has always been a sort of unofficial opening of the political season.

Now the Texas Legislature— at the request of Lyndon Johnson's personal lobby (the Texas Legislature only responds to the requests of lobbyists) has moved the date for Primary Elections up by three months. That makes October 1 the same as Jan. 1 would ordinarily be.

But, due to habit, there has been no indication that the "season" is going to open three months early. There is no candidates out feeling around as they usually do in early January. No one has announced his intentions. Thus, the voters are going to get cheated out of their usual four or five months of good political gabbing and coffee drinking with the result that along about April they will suddenly realize that it is election time and they haven't heard a bit of scandle on the few who are seeking offices, have missed out on a pot full or two of free coffee and just had a dud in general for election year.

Now is the time to start thinking of a few questions you may want to ask the candidate you send to Austin or to Washington. Is he dead set on passing a state sales tax law as is the present group in Austin? Is he in favor of sending still more money to foreign countries and creating still more federal agencies and sink holes as is the present crop of congressmen in Washington? Is he pledged to support the people of Texas and his district or is he merely an errand boy for some special piece of legislation for some special group?

I predict that due to the moving up of the voting date, Texas voters will elect the sorriest bunch of state officials that has ever mistreated them to public office in 1960.

Better get a padded seat in your pants for you are going to get it next time around if we don't make some drastic changes.

CARAMBA—

Same song but about the fourth verse would do as well as any in describing the Rankin-Ozona game last week. For about the third or fourth time, the Red Devils outperformed the Lions in every phase of the game and still lost.

But no excuses are needed. The Lions had a good team and our lads played a fine ball game so foote on them dad-blamed Lions.

Someday the worm is going to turn and Rankin will have their day at bat. And maybe it's just as well for if we are moved up to Cass A. we may play them in district—or bi-district and then it would be for the money and just maybe we could outplay them and outscore them all in one game.

Those who missed last week's game missed a cracker jack.

This week—Homecoming—it will be the Marfa Shorthorns, a team that has been little more than a scrimmage in the past. But that was in the past.

This year, the Horns have been an improved ball club and will be out to try for some revenge against Rankin for past dubbings. This could well be the turning point for the 1959 Red Devil team. If they can get all their hosses going for this game and their offense back on a scoring basis, they ought to win and if they do so by a substantial score—indicating that they are back in form—it looks like they will win five in a row. That may sound like hot air but when you consider that they have been going with a first-year quarterback who has done a pretty good job—and still have been in contention in both the games lost, then you can bet that they are going to let out on somebody and the next five games is the place.

Wink has not proved out as strong as expected and Van Horn has had their troubles all year. Neither team has been playing under the handicap that has faced Rankin the last two games unless it was Wink in playing one very good club and one that has yet to really be tested—the Badgers.

Comes Friday night and Rankin in just about top shape, it should be time to tell where we stand.

For this week it will be Rankin over Marfa, Wink over Fort Stockton, Bel Air over Van Horn and Jal over Grandfalls. Our score to date: 16 out of 20

HOMECOMING

This is homecoming week for ex-Rankin students and a goodly number will likely be on hand. We all should put our best foot forward.

When they tell of the good old days, try to look surprised and interested. Football teams, pretty girls, hard teachers, smart kids, and all that sort of stuff comes and goes but there will never be anything to compare with the days when the exes were in old Rankin high. Those were the really good old days so be nice to them and don't spoil their fun—agree with 'em.

Mrs. C. C. Childress and Mrs. W. C. McSpadden of Odessa were visitors last week in Rankin.

Mr and Mrs. J. Linton Clark and Miss Grace Roach honored Mr. J. T. Holmes Sunday on his 81st birthday with a dinner party. Friends called during the afternoon to visit with Mr. Holmes.

Toughest Driver in Town!

Careful Percy McFidget—who would believe that he's harder on his car than anybody in town? Why, he never goes over 35 or takes a trip over 10 miles!

Actually this kind of driving is very hard on a car engine because the engine seldom gets "warmed up" sufficiently. The oil tends to be sluggish. Sludge forms in the crankcase. The way is open for dangerous wear and corrosion.

But there's something you can do about this, to protect your motor. If you have to do a lot of start-and-stop driving at low speeds, as most of us do, use Trop-Artic® Motor Oil. It flows fast . . . resists sludge formation . . . helps your car run better, longer. Get Trop-Artic Motor Oil at any station where you see the Phillips 66 Shield.

4-H UNITS

Three subject matter groups are at work and others will begin various units as soon as leaders can be contacted and groups organized.

These are not separate 4-H clubs but subject matter units all belonging to the general club. A clothing unit under the leadership of Mrs. Joe Montgomery, Jr. and Mrs. John Bramlet is working at the Humble Camp. Another under Mrs. W. O. Swinney is getting under way at the Phillips Camp.

A Foods Unit, under the direction of Mrs. Jim Patton has started in McCamey. Subject matter instruction books for both leaders and members are now available on most every subject from Bedroom Improvement to Money Management.

NEW LABELING LAW—

New tags are appearing on draperies, floor coverings, furnishings, bedding and clothing. The new fabric law goes into effect March 3, 1960 and some are already making use of the tags. The law requires that the names and percentages of all fabrics constituting more than 5 per cent of the whole must appear on the label and in the order of their preminence.

Piece goods must carry the correct label or tag on the roll of fabric. No one can look at modern fabrics and feel it and say with certainty what fabrics are contained in it. Yet maximum performance and maximum satisfaction from the fabric are dependent on the nature of the fabric content, construction, and finish.

The new law protects from mislabeling and enables all of us to know what we are getting for our money. So, after March if you don't know what a fabric is and how to care for it—blame yourself for not reading.

EGG LABELS

And speaking of labels—read the egg carton. Texas Egg Law requires that the cartons give quality of eggs, weight, and name of packer. No egg can be labeled fresh unless it is at least grade A or better.

Grades start with AA, then A and on down to B and C. Weights are given in size—Jumbo for the largest, Extra Large, Large, Medium, Small and Peewees—each must meet a certain standard of weight per dozen.

And don't forget to take care of the eggs. Remember that a grade AA won't stay that way for long if they remain in the carton at room temperatures.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM

MRS. SALLY SKULL

Heroine of the War Between the States

Sally Skull, born Sarah Newman, was good looking, a good cowhand, and she could shoot as straight with her left hand as her right. So she usually packed two six-shooters and sometimes used them. However, history records that all the men she killed really needed killing. In her prime during the Civil War, this remarkable Texan served her state and the Confederacy magnificently. She worked big crews of loyal cowboys, most of them of Mexican descent, on her ranches in Bee and Nueces counties. She had some big freight wagons. With these, Sally and her vaqueros hauled cotton to Mexico, where it brought high war-time prices. Then, she used her cotton money to buy munitions for the South and hauled them back to Texas. Danger and hardship that would have stopped most men couldn't even slow Sally down. And amazingly enough, with all her rough ways and rough tongue—her vocabulary was pungently uninhibited, it's said—Sally Skull's essential femininity was never obscured. She was a frontier party girl—liked to dress up and take in the gayest Mexican fandangoes, and she outlived three sturdy Texas husbands. Living the life she loved, Sally made it a good one.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland—"Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.

INFORMATION OF BRUCellosis GIVEN

(Dub) Day, Jr.
County Agent

Discussed the problem and the economic impact of the disease on livestock. This week our discussion is on how big is the brucellosis, and what you as an individual livestock raiser can do. Just how big is the problem of brucellosis?

During the summer of 1956, the livestock sanitary officials in Texas ran a survey that gave us the first concrete idea of the magnitude of the brucellosis problem. Using the milk ring test, they found 79% of the 2,551 dairy herds surveyed to show evidence of the disease. Since that time, every graded dairy herd
in this state has enrolled in a brucellosis control program. Present figures indicate a marked reduction among this class of cattle.

Although the same type of figures are not available for beef cattle herds, the limited data available indicates that an average of one heard out of four in the state contains some brucellosis infected cattle. In all, probably more than 5% of Texas' beef cattle carry the disease. However, in the south and western arid regions the infection rate will be much lower, while in the humid eastern areas the rate

may approach 20% infected animals
in some counties.

When we have a difficult marketing problem. More than half of the counties in the United States are now Modified Certified Brucellosis areas. Another large group of counties are designated as Brucellosis Control Areas and are engaged in county-wide blood-testing programs. Counties in both categories have stringent rules covering animals coming into their counties that originate in brucellosis infected areas.

The extra expense of shipping
Texas cattle into out-of-state markets occasioned by these restrictions
for our tremendous crop of stocker result in a steady declining market and feeder cattle. The majority of our competition is the western states have an edge in that they have already achieved a Modified Certified status.

WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT
THE PROBLEM— The best solution to the brucellosis problem is to clean brucellosis out of the cattle in our county. This has been provided for in a law passed by the 56th Legislature. The law also provides an alternate for counties that have such a high infection rate as to create hardships on cattle producers if they entered immediately into an eradication program.

In brief the programs provided
for on the law as follows:

STEPS TO FOLLOW IN YOUR HEARD— Irrespective of what type program our county might enter,
or whether you decide to enter either program, there are precautions
you should follow to make the control practices work efficiently in your herd.

1. If you are in an area where brucellosis is a problem, follow a calfhood vaccination program with your replacement animals.

2. Buy only officially vaccinated animals or animals from clean herds for replacements.

3. Keep fences in good repair to prevent wandering animals from introducing new infection.

4. Prevent spread of disease by protecting water and feed from contamination with body discharges of animals.

5. Put animals that don't shed their afterbirth into a hospital trap until normal. Test all animals that abort. Send infected ones to slaughter.

6. Encourage your neighbors to cooperate in the fight to eradicate brucellosis. Ask your County Agent about procedures for organizing our county into a Control Area. Let's make Texas a Modified Certified

TELEPHONE TALK

TO VOLUNTEER FIREMEN

It's time we took our hats off to the Rankin Volunteer Firemen.
When the siren sounds, they leave their homes, businesses, churches,
of wherever they may be to answer the call.

They hold regular meetings and drills besides putting out fires at all hours of the day and night. Most of the Volunteer Fire Departments are represented at a school in modern fire fighting each year, so that the latest methods may be used. All of these activities are reported to the State Fire Commission to help keep the fire insurance rate down.

Remember this, these volunteers are doing this for you without a salary, enabling you to get a good nights rest or continue your work and you may be confident they will protect you from the greatest destroyer of property known to man, fire.

Take your hat off to the Rankin Volunteer Fire Department and to the Fire Chief, they deserve it.

BEAUTY ON DUTY

What does this headline mean to you?

If you're a homemaker, it could mean a new washer or dryer, or maybe a new dishwasher.

To a man "Beauty on Duty" could mean a new car or the new transistor radio that brings you the World Series.

For teenagers, it could mean the old but treasured jalopy sitting proudly in the driveway.

But here at the Telephone Company, we have our own special definition of "Beauty on Duty"—a bedroom telephone in color.

A bedroom phone in color deserves the title, too, because it brightens your bedroom while helping you keep in touch between chores during the day. It also gives you a sense of security and keeps you free from care and worry at night.

Color telephones are also available with a built-in night light—ideal for bedrooms. To order your bedroom phone in color, just call the telephone business office.

HOW NOT TO TIE UP YOUR PHONES

I was passing the time of day with a fellow recently when he suddenly blurted out, as if he'd just thought of something, "I just found out that if the receiver isn't on your phone straight and firm all the phones in your house can be tied up and nobody can call you."

"That's right," I said

"Well," he said, "You ought to tell people about that. It's important."

My friend's right. It IS important to make sure receivers on all your telephones are on the hook. It's even more important if you're on a party line. A receiver off any phone ties up the line for everyone else.

"Why," I asked my friend, "Are you suddenly interested in this subject?"

"Because a fellow tried to call me and couldn't, and I missed out on a fishing trip—that's why," he said sadly.

Can't say I blame him, can you?

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
